CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-0-521-01090-0 - Child, Adolescent and Family Development, Second Edition
Phillip T. Slee
Index
More information

INDEX

Page references followed by fig indicate a figure; page references followed by tab indicate a table.

Aboriginal people
  child socialisation, 11–12
  idea of marriage, 136
  learning style, 339–42
  views on conception, 82
Aboriginal students
  language development, 420–21
  school experience, 421
Aboriginality, 11–13
abuse of children, 297–99
accidents, 196–99
accommodation, 142
'activity versus passivity' debate, 30 ADHD, 193, 255–56
adolescence, 386–88
  cognitive development, 414–19
  developmental tasks, 425–26
  language development, 419–21
  physical development, 388–93
  sex-role development, 393–94, 399, 434–36
  social and emotional development, 432–47 passim adolescent thinking, 414–15
adolescents
  and AIDS, 406–7
  attitudes towards institutional authority, 444 conflict with parents, 429–30 crime and delinquency, 442–43, 445 decision-making, 423
  drug use, 408–10
  eating disorders, 402–5
  egocentrism and self-consciousness, 427–28 fears and concerns, 448 health issues, 399–410
  loneliness, 436–38
  peer groups and friendship, 436–38, 440–41 quality of family life, 447 romantic relationships, 446
  suicide, 400–401
  unemployment, 441–42
  see also emerging adulthood adult development, 460–64 agents, 31
Agpar test, 110–11, 129
AIDS, 406–7
Ainsworth, M.D.S., 171–72
Albert ('little Albert'), 57 alcohol consumption
  by adolescents, 409
  effect on foetus, 107
alienation, 376
alleles, 86–87
Ames window, 71–72, 71fig amniocentesis, 97
anal stage, 51, 227
androgyny, 398
anger, 328
animism, 273
anorexia nervosa, 403–5
Aristotle, 9
arithmetical skills, 151–52
artificialism, 273
assimilation, 142
associational knowledge, 35 attachment, 168, 170–72, 173 attention deficit hyperactivity disorder (ADHD), 193, 255–56 Australian Temperament Project, 175 authentic identity, 464 authoritarian childrearing, 233 authoritative childrearing, 233 authority, attitudes to, 444
'autonomy versus shame and doubt' stage, 228 babbling, 217

babies
  students' image of, 6
  see also infancy; newborn children Bandura, Albert, 60–61
'basic trust versus mistrust', 163–64
Bateson, Gregory, 72–73 behaviour
  fields and stages, 124
  theoretical orientations, 18fig, 21–22 see also problem behaviour behaviourism, 21, 54–61, 164 and anorexia nervosa, 404 and attachment, 170
  and sex-role development, 395
Bettelheim, Bruno, 275–76
Binet, Alfred, 63, 213
birth
  depression following, 222–23
  fathers' role, 111–13
  of first child, 199
  of sibling, 370
  process, 108–10
birth weight, 109
birthrates, 43
blastocyst, 102
blended families, 237, 243–44 body size, 127–28, 133, 323–24 see also height; weight body types. see somatotypes bonding. see attachment Bowlby, John, 156, 170–71, 199, 241–42
Bridges, Katherine M., 166tab, 167
Bronfenbrenner, Urie, 69–70
Bruner, Jerome, 152–54, 277–78 bulimia nervosa, 402

© in this web service Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-0-521-01090-0 - Child, Adolescent and Family Development, Second Edition
Phillip T. Slee
Index
More information

bullying, 300–308
Burt, Cyril, 258–60

canalisation, 93
castration complex, 199, 289 cathexis, 162
cause–effect knowledge, 35 central tendency (statistics), 41 centration, 267–68
change, 27
  see also development; growth character education, 345 child abuse, 297–99
child development
  as 'change', 27
  drawings as indicator, 258–60 effect of culture, 11–15 impact of migration, 14–15 normal, 122–26
  parental beliefs, 146
  significance of early years, 32 stages, 10
  stimulation to accelerate, 33, 148 theoretical approaches and debates, 6–7, 27–32, 47–78 passim, 92–95, 176, 230–31, 456–60 toys and, 129
  see also development; developmental psychology; stages of development childbirth. see birth childhood
  changing views of, 8–10
  as socially constructed, 455 Childhood and Society (Erikson), 53 childrearing styles, 233
  see also parenting
children
  as social beings, 278, 456–57
  'at risk', 49
  changing images of, 8–11, 16–21, 455–56 control and regulation, 49 in Aboriginal society, 11–12
  objectification, 7
chimpanzee talk, 283
Chomsky, Noam, 220–21
chromosomes, 83, 85, 87–88 chronological age, 213
chronosystem, 70
chums, 364–65, 440–41
cigarette smoking, 107 circular reactions, 144–46, 205–6 class inclusion, 272, 332 classical conditioning, 55, 164 cliques, 437
clumsiness, 256–58
cofigurative culture, 13 cognition, 141
cognitive congruency, 335–36
cognitive development
  infancy, 140–56
  middle childhood, 331–33
  pre-schoolers, 264–78, 282–85
  revealed in drawings, 260 role of play in, 193
  toddlerhood, 202–21
cognitive development theory children's humour, 334–35 children's moral development, 345–48 constructivist approach, 277–78
  Maccoby, 66–68
  Piaget, 29, 63–66, 141–46, 143–46, 194, 204–7 critique of, 417–19
  sex-role development, 395–96
colour blindness, 87–88 Compayre, Gabriel, 6–7 competent child, 21, 114, 147–48, 455 Comte, Auguste, 17
computer games, 280–82
computers, 278–82
conception, 82, 101–2
concrete operations period, 65–66, 331–33 conditioned reflex, 55 conditioning, 55–60, 164 conduct disorder, 239–40, 256 conflict
  among children, 292–95
  among siblings, 308–9
  between adolescents and parents, 429–30 marital, 326–28
  resolution styles, 430 conservation, 269–72, 332 constructive development, 204 constructivism, 21, 73–75, 167–68, 221, 277–78
'continuity versus discontinuity' debate, 28–30 corporal punishment, 20, 233, 297 correlation (statistics), 42 counselling, 73–75, 96–97, 355–56 couples, types, 157–58
courtship, 136–37
crowds, 437
crystallised intelligence, 211 culture effect on parenting styles, 234 effect on sports participation, 321 family and children, as influenced by, 11–15 cycle of learning, 426–27

Darwin, Charles, 6, 68–69, 71, 89, 166 dating, 446
day-care, 237–39
death
  of children, 197tab, 261–62 children's understanding, 353–55
delinquency, 442–45
Denver developmental screening test, 129 descriptive methods (statistics), 39–41 development, 27, 34, 122
  see also adult development; child development; stages of development developmental psychology, 5–6 controversies and approaches, 27–33 critique of positivism, 455 empiricism and, 15–16
  and genetics, 90–93
  research designs, 35–37
  stage theories, 29–30
  and systems theory, 74–76, 457–60 see also stages of development
developmental tasks, 424–26
developmental theory, of play, 190

© in this web service Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-0-521-01090-0 - Child, Adolescent and Family Development, Second Edition
Phillip T. Slee
Index
More information

deviance hypothesis, 391 diet, 322–23
direct observation, 38
divorce, 370, 374–76
DNA (deoxyribonucleic acid), 84
Doman, Glenn, 148
'double bind', 72–73
doubt, 228
Down syndrome, 95–96
drawing and drawings, 258–60 drives, 50, 161, 164
drug use, 108, 408–10
dynamic systems theory, 34, 75–76, 136, 139 see also systems theory dyslexia, 284
dyzygotic twins, 91

early childhood
  developmental tasks, 424
  Freud's emphasis on, 30, 32, 150, 163, 460–61 sense of self, 292
  see also infancy; toddlerhood
eating disorders, 402–5
echolalia, 218
ecological model (of development), 69–70 ego, 50, 163, 229
egocentrism, 267–68, 268, 346, 427–28 Electra complex, 290, 433 embryo, 102
emerging adulthood, 458 emotional development
  adolescence, 432–47
  infancy, 116, 118, 160–77
  middle childhood, 359–61, 363–80
  nativist versus constructivist views, 167–68
  pre-school years, 288–92
  revealed in drawing, 260
  toddlerhood, 225–44
emotions, 31
empiricism, 16–17, 32
empiricist view (of neural development), 94 empty nest syndrome, 411
enactive representation, 152–53 engrossment, 111–12
enuresis, 252–55
'environment versus heredity' debate, 27–28, 92–93 epistemological development, 63, 265 equilibration, 64, 211
Erikson, Erik
  compared with Freud, 54tab, 228–30 on adult development, 452 psychosocial stages of development, 29, 53–54, 290–91, 360–61, 433–34, 442, 462 erogenous zones, 51, 289
eros, 445
ethnicity, 14, 321
ethological theory
  attachment and bonding, 170–71
  sex-role development, 396–97
eugenics, 89
evolutionary psychology, 68–69, 396 existentialism, 61–62 experience (Piagetian), 64
experiential child, 16 explanatory style, 427
extended families, 237

fairytales, 275–76, 359 families concept, 10, 11–13, 22–23, 24fig, 117 decision-making and conflict resolution, 423, 430 forms, 43–44, 237
  generational mapping, 137, 138fig healthy functioning, 458–60, 464 impact of death and illness on, 262, 379–80 as systems, 72–73, 98, 356, 404–5, 458–60 family counselling, 73, 355–56 family life-cycle, 77–78 fashion, 405
fatherhood, preparation for, 156 fathers
  parenting roles, 113, 156–58, 199–200 and perinatal death, 261 role in birth process, 111–13 fears, of children, 299–300, 371
'feeling, thinking versus', 31 femininity, 397–99
feminist theory, 397
fertility rates, 43
field experiments, 36
field studies, 36
fine motor development, 130–32, 186, 251–52 fluid intelligence, 211 foetal learning, 106
foetoscopy, 97
foetus
  abilities, 105–7
  development, 104–5
  health risks to, 107–8
food and diet, 322–23
formal operations period, 66, 415–17 Freud, Sigmund, 49–53
  genogram of family, 138fig influence, 52–53, 162–63, 228–29 on parenting roles, 199 on significance of child's early years, 30, 32, 150, 163, 460–61
  see also Freudian theory Freudian theory
  compared with Erikson's, 54tab, 228–30 of humour, 333–34
  moral development, 343–44
  sex-role development, 394–95
  stages of personality development, 29, 51–52, 54tab, 161–63, 227, 228–29, 289–90, 359, 432–33 structure of personality, 49–51 see also psychoanalytic theory friendship, 365–66
  adolescence, 440–41
  and social skills, 366–67 between toddlers, 235–36 imaginary friends, 274
  middle childhood, 363–67
functionalism, 71–72

Galton, Francis, 89
games. see play

© in this web service Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-0-521-01090-0 - Child, Adolescent and Family Development, Second Edition
Phillip T. Slee
Index
More information

gametes, 86
'gazing at' children, 7 gender identity, 393, 397 general social systems theory, 72–73 genes, 83–84, 87–88
genetic counselling, 96–97 genetic defects, 95–96 genetics, 82, 85–90
  influence on personality and intelligence, 91–93 and physical characteristics, 86–88, 90 genital stage, 52, 432–33 genograms, 137, 138fig
genotypes, 86, 93
Gessell, Arnold, 124
Gestalt psychology, 70
giants, 133
Gibson, Eleanor and James, 135–36
Gilligan, Carol, 352–53, 456
Glasser, William, 377–79
Golding, William, 19
gonads, 388
gross motor development, 133–35
  middle childhood, 314–16
  toddlers, 186–87
growth, 122
guilt, 344

habituation, 154
Hall, G. Stanley, 386
Harter, Susan, 362–63
Havighurst, Robert, 423–26 health-promoting schools, 410 healthy families, 458–60, 464 hearing
  at birth, 115–16
  foetal, 105
  infants', 155
height, 126–28
heredity. see genetics
'heredity versus environment' debate, 27–28, 92–93 heritability, 95
history, children and family in, 8–11 HIV, 406
holophrastic utterances, 218
homework, 388
homosexual feelings, 433
Horner, T.M., 230–31
hospitalisation, 240–43, 370
human development
  life-cycle theory, 460–65
  metaphors, 457–58
  students' views, 32–33, 46
Human Genome Project, 89
humanism, 21, 61
Hume, David, 17
humour, 333–36
Husserl, Edmund, 61–62
hypothesis, 41
hypothetical-developmental knowledge, 35

iconic representation, 153
ICT (information and communications technology). see computers id, 50
identity, sense of adolescents, 434–36
  ethnicity and, 14
  toddlers, 230
'identity versus role confusion' stage, 433–34 illness
  children's understanding, 242
  chronic, 379–80
imitation, 60
immanent justice, 346
implantation, 102
in-vitro fertilisation (IVF), 102–4
'industry versus inferiority' stage, 360–61
infancy
  cognitive development, 140–56
  contemporary views on, 176–77 language acquisition, 217–18
  motor and physical development, 128–39 social and emotional development, 160–77
infants
  numerical skills, 151–52
  participation in socialisation process, 164–65
  self-awareness, 136
inference (statistics), 41 infertility, 101–3
information processing, 421–22
Inhelder, Barbara, 414–15 iniquitous child, 19
'initiative versus guilt' stage, 290 instinct practice theory, 189 instincts, 50, 217
intellectual functioning, stages of, 426–27 intelligence, 208
  and adjustment to stress, 371 children's views, 214–15 concept and types, 203–4, 210–12 effect of genetics on, 91–92 metaphors for, 212–13
intelligence quotient (IQ), 213 intelligence tests, 213–15 internalisation, 344
interviewing, 38
introjection, 344

James, William, 71, 291
Jensen, Arthur, 92
Jung, Carl, 30, 461
justice, 346–48
juvenile delinquency, 442–43, 445

Keating, D.P., 414–15
Kierkegaard, Søren, 61
Klinefelter syndrome, 95–97 knowledge, 35, 194
Kohlberg, Lawrence, 348–52, 395–96

laboratory studies, 37 labour (childbirth), 108–10 language, 216–17
language acquisition and development, 152–54, 215–16, 217–19, 267 Aboriginal students, 420–21
  adolescents, 419–21
  pre-schoolers, 282–85
  theories, 219–21

© in this web service Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-0-521-01090-0 - Child, Adolescent and Family Development, Second Edition
Phillip T. Slee
Index
More information

through listening to storybook reading, 276
toys and, 129
latency stage, 52, 359
lattation, 218
learning
by doing, 194
foetal, 106
social learning theory, 60–61
SOLO taxonomy, 426
Vygotsky on, 209–10
see also conditioning; learning style; teaching effectiveness
learning style
Aboriginal, 339–42
applications, 339–41
definition, 336–37
measurement, 338–39
Levinson, Daniel, 462–63
libido, 161, 289
life-cycle theory, 458
of families, 77–78
of human development, 460–65 literacy skills, 280
Locke, John, 9, 16–17
locomotor activities, 314 logical positivism, 17 logico-mathematical knowledge, 194
loneliness, 438–39
Lord of the Flies (Golding), 19 love, 445–46
ludas, 445

Maccoby, Eleanor, 66–68
magic, 273, 359
Mahler, Margaret S., 230
manipulative activities, 314 marital conflict, 326–28
see also divorce
marriage, 136–37
marriage rates, 43
masculinity, 397–99, 435–36
Maslow, Abraham, 62–63, 377 materialism, 54
maturation, 34, 64, 391–92, 446
maturational theory, 124 Mead, Margaret, 13, 448 mean (statistics), 40–41 mechanistic orientation, 21 media violence, 286
median (statistics), 40–41 meiosis, 85
menarche, 389, 391fig
Mendel, Gregor, 86–88
mental age, 213
méthode clinique, 418–19
middle childhood
cognitive development, 331–33
developmental tasks, 425
friendship, 363–67
motor development, 314
physical activity, 324–26
physical growth, 314–16, 323
self-awareness, 292
social and emotional development, 359–61, 363–80
migration, 14–15
mind awareness, 333
mitosis, 85
mode (statistics), 40–41
monozygotic twins, 90–91
moral development, 343–53
morphemes, 218
motherese, 217, 282
motherhood, preparation for, 177–78 mothers communication styles, 282–84 controlling toddlers' behaviour, 235 labour and childbirth, 108–10 postnatal depression, 222–23 role in infant socialisation, 165
motor development, 130
infancy, 131–35
middle childhood, 314
pre-school years, 251–52
theories, 252
see also clumsiness
motor performance
somatotypes and, 317–18

narrative psychology, 458 nativism, 167
naturalistic experiments, 36 nature–nurture debate, 28, 89, 92–95
Neil, A.S., 21
Nelson, Katherine, 221
neural development, 94–95 new paradigm research, 37, 42–43 newborn children (neonates) father's involvement with, 113
self-awareness, 136
sensory reflexes and abilities, 114–16 socio-emotional needs, 116, 118 niche-picking, 93
normal distribution (statistics), 40fig, 41, 124, 126 norms, 123, 314
nuclear destruction, 448 nuclear families, 43, 237 null hypothesis, 41
nurture. see nature–nurture debate obesity, 323–24

object permanence, 145–46, 147tab
objectification, 7, 405–6
observation, 38
Oedipus complex, 52, 199, 344, 433
omnipotence, sense of, 273
on play, 193
oocyte, 101
operant conditioning, 56–59, 220, 254 optimism, 427
oral stage, 51, 161–63
organismic orientation, 21

paradigms, 15, 460
see also new paradigm research parenting
child socialisation, 67–68, 165
dealing with sibling conflict, 309
definition, 232
father's role, 113, 156–58, 199–200
mother's role, 156

© in this web service Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-0-521-01090-0 - Child, Adolescent and Family Development, Second Edition
Phillip T. Slee
Index
More information

practices and styles, 232–34, 309 preparing child for school, 272 Skinner's method, 59–60 and toddlers' social development, 231–34 see also motherhood; mothers parents beliefs about child development, 146 conflict with children, 14
empty nest syndrome, 411
impact of baby's death, 261–62 Pavlov, Ivan, 55
peer groups, 436–38
pendulum problem, 414–15 penis envy, 290
perception, 135, 154
permissive childrearing, 233 personal fable, 428–29
personality
and body types, 317
debated issues, 31, 91–92
definition, 91
effect of heredity on, 91–92 stage theories of development, 51–52, 54tab structure, 49–51
see also Erikson, Erik; Freudian theory phallic stage, 51–52, 290 phenomenology, 61–62
phenotypes, 86
physical activity, 324–25
physical appearance, 86, 90 physical development and growth
adolescence, 388–93
charting, 123–26
children, 250
height, 126–28
infancy, 131–39
middle childhood, 314–15
norms of, 123–26
reasons for studying, 123 secular trends, 390–91
weight, 128
physical fitness, 315
physical knowledge, 194 physical punishment, 233 physiques, 316–17
Piaget, Jean, 63–66
cognitive development theory, 29, 65–66, 141–46, 193, 194, 204–7, 265–72, 331–33, 416–17 on moral development, 345–48
on play, 193
pituary gland, 388
placenta, 102
play
computer games, 280–82
definition and types, 129, 190–92 development sequence, 188fig functions, 192–94
superhero themes, 194
theories of, 187–90
population (statistics), 39 positivism, 17, 42
postfigurative culture, 13
postnatal depression, 222–23
pre-operational period, 65, 266tab pre-operational thinking, 267–72 pre-riddles, 335
pre-school years
cognitive development, 264–78, 282–85
developmental tasks, 424
language development, 282–85
physical growth, 250
social and emotional development, 288–92
pre-schoolers, 250
adults' difficulties in communicating with, 284–85 and fairytales, 275–76 attention deficit hyperactivity disorder, 255–56
clumsiness, 256–58
imaginary world of, 273–76
motor development, 251–52
self-awareness, 292
toilet training, 252–54
prefigurative culture, 13 preformist view (of neural development), 94 pregnancy, 178
prevention strategies
accidents, 197–99
child abuse, 298–99
problem behaviour, 235, 239–40, 355–56 property, children as, 9–10 psychoanalysis, 49
psychoanalytic theory, 49–53
anorexia nervosa, 403
attachment and bonding, 170
motherhood, 178
play, 189
toddlers' sense of identity, 230
see also Freudian theory
psychodynamic orientation, 21 psychology, 4–5
major theories and approaches, 18fig, 21, 48–76 passim see also developmental psychology psychosocial development (Erikson), 53–54, 163–64, 229–30, 290–91, 360–61, 433–34, 442, 462 puberty, 388–93
public space, 318, 408
punishment, 20, 57, 344, 346 see also corporal punishment quantitative-descriptive knowledge, 35

rapprochement, 230
reaction range, 93
reading
to babies, 148–49
to children, 276
realism, 274, 347
reality therapy, 377–79
reflexes, 114, 115tab reinforcement, 57–59
replication, 226
representational thought, 147, 207
research designs, 35–37
reversibility, 331–32
risk-taking, by adolescents, 407–8
Robinson, Malcolm, 98
Rousseau, Jean-Jacques, 19–21

© in this web service Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-0-521-01090-0 - Child, Adolescent and Family Development, Second Edition
Phillip T. Slee
Index
More information

Sartre, Jean-Paul, 61
scaffolding, 149, 210
schema, 204
schools
  behaviour management and discipline, 297, 376–79 bullying at, 300–308
  health promotion, 410
  homework, 339
  preparing children for, 272 student adjustment, 295–97 science, unity of, 17
scientism, 17, 54
selectionist view (of neural development), 94 self-actualisation, 62–63
self-awareness, 136, 291–92
self-concept, 361–62
self-consciousness, 427–28 self-dynamism, 364
self-esteem, 360, 362–63 self-organisation, 32
sensori-motor development, 116 sensori-motor play, 190–91 sensori-motor stage, 65, 143–46, 153, 205–8 sensory capacities, of babies, 154–56 seriation, 271, 332
sex characteristics, 388–90 sex differences
  in children's fears, 299 concept of family, 117 conflict among children, 293 drawing skills, 260
  moral development, 352–53
  motor skills, 316
  parenting styles, 234
  physical activity and sports, 318–19, 325–26 physical maturity, 316
  progression through puberty, 392–93 sex-appropriate personality traits, 397–99 sibling conflict, 308 teachers' perceptions, 320 use of public space, 318, 408 sex glands, 388
sex-role development, 393–99, 399, 434–36
sexuality, 51
shame, 228
Sheehy, Gail, 463–64
'similarity versus uniqueness' debate, 31 skewed distribution, 40fig, 41
Skinner, B.F., 56–60
Skinner box, 58, 60
smell, sense of
  at birth, 116
  infants', 155
social and emotional development
  adolescence, 432–47
  infancy, 160–77
  middle childhood, 359–61, 363–80
  pre-school years, 288–92
  toddlerhood, 225–44
social capital, 464
social learning theory, 60
  and drug use, 408
  of language acquisition, 220 of moral development, 344–45
  and sex-role development, 395
social skills, 366
social transmission, 64 socialisation, 66–68
  and gender-appropriate behaviour, 319–20 in Aboriginal families, 12–13 infant's role in, 164–65
  process, 319
  role of play in, 192
sociodramatic play, 191 sole-parent family, 237
SOLO (Structure of Observed Learning Outcome), 426 somatotypes, 316–17
speech. see language acquisition Spock, Benjamin, 156
sport
  children's attitudes, 326 girls' participation, 318–21
Sroufe, L.A., 172
'stability versus instability' debate, 31 stages of development, 10, 29, 455 Bruner, 277–78
  Burt, 258–60
  critique, 351–52, 418
  Erikson, 29, 53–54, 163–64, 229–30
  Freud, 29, 51–52, 54tab, 161–63, 227, 228–29, 290–91, 360–61, 433–34, 442, 462 Gessell, 124
  in intellectual functioning, 426–27 in language acquisition, 217–19 Kohlberg, 348–52, 395–96 life-cycle approaches, 462–64
  Piaget, 29, 65–66, 143–46, 204–7, 265–66, 331–33, 416–17
  Vygotsky, 208–10
Stanford-Binet scale, 213–14 statistical methods, 39–42 stimulus-response psychology, 56 storge, 445
stress, 367–68
  causes, 369–71
  measurement, 372–73
  resistance and resilience, 371–73 structures (cognitive), 142
suicide, 400–401
Sullivan, H.S., 364–65, 440–41
superego, 51, 343–44
superhero play, 195
surplus energy theory (of play), 189–90 symbolic functions, 265–67 symbolic play, 191
symbolic representation, 153–54 systems theory, 70–76
  and the family, 98, 356, 457–60 see also dynamic systems theory taste, 106

teaching effectiveness, 341–42 telegraphic speech, 218 television viewing, 285–86 temperament, 91–92, 172–76, 296–97 theory, 48
theory of mind, 333
'thinking versus feeling' debate, 31
Tiedermann, Dietrich, 4

© in this web service Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-0-521-01090-0 - Child, Adolescent and Family Development, Second Edition
Phillip T. Slee
Index
More information

toddlerhood
cognitive development, 202–21
developmental tasks, 424
physical appearance and development, 183–200, 185
social and emotional development, 225–44
see also early childhood
toddlers
accidents, 196–99
and day-care, 237–39
and family life, 231
behavioural problems, 235, 239–40
hospitalisation, 240–43
language acquisition, 218–19
motor development, 186–87
peer relations, 234–37
self-awareness, 291–92
toilet training, 252–54
toys, 129
transactionalism, 230–31
trust, sense of, 163–64
Turner syndrome, 95–96
twins, 90–91

unemployment, 441–42
unity of science thesis, 17

Verstehen, 16
victims and victimisation, 173, 305tab, 306–7 video games, 281–82
violence, in media, 286 virtuous child, 19–21
vision
at birth, 114–15
foetal, 105
infants', 154–55
Vygotsky, Lev, 149, 152, 193, 208–10

Watson, John, 56–57, 166
Wechsler intelligence scale, 214
weight, 128, 323–24
wellness, 459
Wesley, John, 19
women
moral development, 352–53
objectification, 405–6
workforce participation, 44

XYY syndrome, 95–96

youth. see adolescence; adolescents

Zola, Emile, 88–89
zone of proximal development, 209–10

© in this web service Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org