CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-0-521-42890-3 - European Financial Integration
Edited by Alberto Giovannini and Colin Mayer
Index
More information

Index

accommodating capital flows 321 adverse selection and financial services 116 advisory role of banks 50 agency costs of intermediation 48, 59 agreements, cross-participation in banking 24 anti-inflation policy, imported credibility 307 asymmetric information and market failure 12 avoidance, tax in Europe and US 177 bank accounts in Spain, high yield 19 concentration and snowball effects 22 finance for industry 41

  mergers 24
  regulation, side effects 13 runs 12, 112
banking, branch proliferation in 20 collusion in 18
  competition, Klein-Monti model 15 costs of predation in 25 cross-participation agreements in 24 economies of scale and scope in 23 entry barriers 20, 32
  European, oligopoly in 16
  multimarket competition in 23 network externalities 20 reputational effects 21
  Second Directive, European Commission 17 switching costs 21
bankruptcy 54
banks advisory role 50
  and cartelization of German industry in the nineteenth century 50 central, see central banks freedom of establishment for 16 German, and growth in the nineteenth century 36 and industrial firms in Germany 57 and industrial firms in Japan 58 barriers to entry in banking 20, 32 barriers to financial integration in EC 104 basis, tax and depreciation 181 benefits of European financial integration 17 branch proliferation in banking 20 capital flows, accommodating 321 capital gains and corporate income taxes, Europe and US, 1965–87 176, figure 7.3

capital income tax, reform of 193 and European Commission 193 tax revenue 173, figure 7.1, table 7.1
  taxation 5
  taxes in Europe 178
  taxes in Europe and US, 1965–87 175, figure 7.2
capital levies 177
capital market integration 1 capital requirements for financial services 119 and EC 115
capital scarcity 39
capital tax reform, revenue exposure 205, table 7.10 capture, regulatory 15
cartelization of German industry in nineteenth century, banks and 50 cash-flow taxation, corporate 201 cash-in-advance and currency substitution 259 Central Banks, European System of (ESCB) 222 independence of 223
  and treasury, 'chicken' game 224 changing opportunities and horizontal mergers 140

© Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-0-521-42890-3 - European Financial Integration
Edited by Alberto Giovannini and Colin Mayer
Index
More information

'chicken' game, central banks and treasury 224
UK Treasury and trade unions 225 clearing, par 320
clearing system for taxes on corporate income 195 clearing transaction 94 client funds separation 128 clustered mergers 142
collusion in banking 18 Commission, European see European Commission commitment and financial intermediation 51 common currency, stability of equilibrium 280 competing currencies 3, 257 competition in banking Klein-Monti model 15 multimarket 23
competition between financiers 56 governments 2
intermarket 74
tax 203
concentration in banking, snowball effects 22 conditional limit orders 93
Consolidated List Order Book (CLOB) 90 contestable markets 19
contracts incomplete 51 renegotiation 55
control of firms and the stock market 67 convergence of interest rates in EMS 329, figures 11A.1–3 cooperation among tax authorities, lack of 192 cooperation, policy and Pareto efficiency 236 coordination, policy and non-Walrasian equilibrium 238 corporate cash-flow taxation 201 finance and institutions 38 income and capital gains taxes, Europe and US 176, figure 7.3 income tax clearing system 195 and individual taxes, integration 186, table 7.6
rescues in Japan 52
tax rates 179, table 7.2
tax rebates figure 7.5
tax reform, model 194
tax reform, revenue effects 203 tax systems in the EC table 8B.1 taxation and limited liability 200 taxes and investment 201 costs, agency 48, 59
of predation in banking 25 of switching in banking 21 credence goods, financial services as 116 credibility of anti-inflation policy, imported 307 credit markets, segmented 315 cross-participation agreements in banking 24 currencies, competing 3, 257 currency, common, stability of equilibrium 280 currency holdings, interest on 261 substitution 258, 291
and cash-in-advance 259 and fixed exchange rates 281 imperfect 297, figures 10.3 and 10.4 perfect 294, figures 10.1 and 10.2 price level and exchange rate determinancy under 267 stability of learning dynamics under 276 current accounts and real exchange rates, 1989 table 11.6 current account, sustainability 315 debt default versus rescheduling 56 and equity finance 70 growth of and interest rates 314 net public, European countries, 1981–8 table 8.1

debtors, problem, European table 11.4 deepening, financial 43 default risk, sovereign 237 deferral of taxes 185 deficits government, limits on 222 national and international interest rates 237, 244 national, public sector and community-wide interest rates 233 public sector, definitions 241 delegated monitoring and financial intermediation 45 Delors report 221
Denmark and Germany, long-term interest rates, 1980–9 313, figure 11.2
deposit insurance and moral hazard 14 US federal (FDIC) 13
depreciation methods in European countries table 7.3
and tax basis 181
depth of markets 80
Directive, Second Banking, European Commission 17 dispersion of prices and market linkages 78 diversification of risks and financial intermediation 42

© Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-0-521-42890-3 - European Financial Integration
Edited by Alberto Giovannini and Colin Mayer
Index
More information

dividends foreign-source, tax treatment table 7.5
intercorporate, tax treatment table 7.4 double taxation relief 184 dynamics, learning, stability of under currency substitution 276

East German change and West German industry 165 economies of scale and scope in banking 23 entry barriers in banking 20, 32 equilibria, non-Walrasian and policy coordination 238 equity and debt finance 70 equity requirements, minimum 32 essential currencies 298, figures 10.1 and 10.3 essential real balances 295 establishment, freedom of, for banks 16 Europe capital income taxes 178 real growth rates, 1981–8 table 8.4
and US capital gains and corporate income taxes 176, figure 7.3
capital income taxes 175, figure 7.2
differences 101
tax avoidance 177
European banking, oligopoly in 16
European Commission and capital income tax reform 193
Second Banking Directive 17
European Community (EC) barriers to financial integration 104 capital requirements for financial businesses 115 corporate tax systems table 8B.1
countries, depreciation methods table 7.3
VAT rates table 8B.2
European countries general government financial balances, 1981–8 table 8.3
general government primary balance 228, table 8.1
net public debt, 1981–8 table 8.1
European financial integration, benefits 17
European integration and mergers 153, 164
European monetary policy, loss of independence 317 European Monetary System (EMS) and convergence 306 and inflation rates 306, figure 11.1, table 11.1
inflation and interest rates 311, table 11.3 interest rate convergence 321, figures 11A.1–3 three-tier 337
transitional problems 334
UK unsuited to 324
European monetary union, evolutionary approach to 257
European problem debtors table 11.4
European stock exchange unification 73
European System of Central Banks (ESCB) 222 evolutionary approach to European monetary union 257 exchange rate realignments, expectations of 284 exchange rates and fiscal and monetary policy 226 fixed and currency substitution 281 and price level determinacy and currency substitution 267 real and the current account, 1989 table 11.6 real, volatility 232 zero margins 318
execution of market orders, timeliness 89 expectations of exchange rate realignments 284 exposure of fraud by self-regulating organizations, incentives for 134 external balances, 1978–90 table 11.5 externalities, network, in banking 20 externality, liquidity 81

failure, market and asymmetric information 12 and financial intermediation 11 failure, systemic and financial regulation 113 Federal Deposit Insurance system (FDIC), US 13 finance corporate and institutions 38 equity and debt 70
for industry, bank 41
international 42
long-term 37
financial balance, general government, European countries, 1981–8 table 8.3
businesses, EC capital requirements 115 deepening 43
institutions, statutory versus self-regulation 124 integration in EC, barriers to 104 benefits from 17
Financial Intermediaries, Managers and Brokers Regulatory Association (FIMBRA), UK 128 financial intermediaries, regulation of 13 financial intermediation and commitment 51

© Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-0-521-42890-3 - European Financial Integration
Edited by Alberto Giovannini and Colin Mayer
Index
More information

as delegated monitoring 45
and market failure 11
and risk diversification 42
financial regulation and systemic failure 113 financial regulatory design table 5.1
Financial Services Act, 1986, UK 114 financial services and adverse selection 116 capital requirements 119
as credence goods 116
and fraud 118
and reputation 117
financiers, competition between 56 financing inside and outside 40 single versus multiple sources 55 firms as complex organizations 138 control of and stock markets 67 fiscal and monetary policy 5
and exchange rates 226
fiscal problems, Italy 323 fixed exchange rates and currency substitution 281 foreign exchange market intervention 223 foreign investment and international mergers 147 and intraindustry trade 144
non-strategic 142
and trade liberalization 143 foreign multinationals and host governments table 7.9 foreign-source dividends, tax treatment table 7.5 foreign tax credits, limitation 184 fragmentation of stock markets 75 and volatility of transactions prices 77 fraud and financial services 118 incentives for exposure by self-regulating organizations 134 freedom of establishment for banks 16 free-rider problems and monitoring 46 free-riding and market quotes 83 freeze on wages 322

German banks and growth in the nineteenth century 36
German industry in nineteenth century, banks and cartelization 50
Germany banks and industrialization 57 changes in East and West German industry 165 and Denmark, long-term interest rates, 1980–9 313, figure 11.2
imported inflation 310
Gerschenkron 38
government competition 2 deficits, limits to 222 financial balance, European countries, 1981–8 table 8.3
Leviathan, theory of 2
'optimal tax' theory of 4 government primary balance, European countries, 1981–8 228, table 8.2
solvency 232
growth of debt and interest rates 314 and German banks, nineteenth century 36 rates, real, Europe 1981–8 table 8.4

hazard, moral and deposit insurance 14 high yield bank accounts, Spain 19 horizontal mergers 136
and changing opportunities 140 host country (tax) principle 17 household, world representative 264 imitative mergers 141, figure 6.1 immediacy of execution of market orders 80 imperfect currency substitution 297, figures 10.3 and 10.4 imported credibility of anti-inflation policy 307 imported inflation in Germany 310 income, capital, taxation of 5 incomplete contracts 51 independence of central banks 223 of European monetary policy, loss of 317 individual and corporate taxes, integration of 186, table 7.6 industrial firms and banks in Germany 57 in Japan 58

inessential currencies 299, figures 10.2 and 10.4
inflation in German, imported 310 and interest rates in EMS 311, table 11.3
rates in EMS 306, figure 11.1, table 11.1
information asymmetric and market failure 12 markets for 65
innovation and market structure 139 inside and outside finance 40 institutions and corporate finance 38 insurance of deposits 13 and moral hazard 14 integration of capital markets 1 of corporate and individual taxes 186, table 7.6 European and mergers 153, 164 financial, in Europe, benefits 17 of trading systems 91
intercompany dividends, tax treatment table 7.4

© Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-0-521-42890-3 - European Financial Integration
Edited by Alberto Giovannini and Colin Mayer
Index
More information

interest on money holdings 261 rate convergence in EMS 329, figures 11A.1–3 rate regulation 15
rates, community-wide and national public sector deficits 233 rates and growth of debt 314 rates and inflation in EMS 311, table 11.3 rates, international and national deficits 237, 244 rates, long-term in Denmark and Germany 313, figure 11.1
interindustry pattern of international mergers 145 intermarket competition 74
Intermarket Trading System (ITS), US 74, 87 intermediated finance 42 intermediation, financial and commitment 51
as delegated monitoring 45
and market failure 11
regulation of 13
and risk diversification 42
international corporate income, residence-based taxation 198 interest rates and national deficits 237, 244 mergers and foreign investment 143 intraindustry pattern 145
US, 1978–88 144, tables 6.1 and 6.2
temporal concentration 149 settlements 102
intervention in foreign exchange markets 223 intraindustry trade and foreign investment 144 investment and corporate taxation 201 foreign and international mergers 143
and intraindustry trade 144
non-strategic 142
and trade liberalization 143
horizons and monitoring 47
Investment Management Regulatory Organization (IMRO), UK 128
Italy, fiscal problems 323

Japan, corporate rescues in 52 industrial firms and banks 58

Klein-Monti model of banking competition 15 learning dynamics, stability under currency substitution 276 Leviathan theory of government 2 levies, capital 177

liability, limited and corporate taxation 200 liberalization of trade and foreign investment 143 limit orders 80
conditional 93
and sitting-duck problems 82 limitation of foreign tax credits 184 limited liability and corporate taxation 200 limits to government deficits 222 linkage, order-routing 87 linkages, market and price dispersion 78 liquidity externality 81
liquidity, market 80
listings, multiple 104
loans, securitization of 45 long-term finance 37 long-term interest rates, Denmark and Germany, 1980–9 313, figure 11.2

main bank relation 53
managers, investment 113 margins, zero, exchange rates 318 market depth 80
failure and asymmetric information 12
and financial intermediation 11
fragmentation 75
and volatility of transactions prices 77 integration, capital 1 linkages and price dispersion 78
liquidity 80
orders 79
immediacy of execution 80
quotes 80
and free-riding 83
market structure and innovation 139 system, Walrasian 35
markets contestable 19
credit, segmented 315
for information 65
for securities, regional 103
mergers 7
bank 24
clustered 142
and European integration 153, 164 horizontal 136
and changing opportunities 140
imitative 141, figure 6.1
international and foreign investment 143 interindustry pattern 145
temporal concentration 149
US, 1978–88 144, tables 6.1 and 6.2
and profits 169
strategic 151, 166

© Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-0-521-42890-3 - European Financial Integration
Edited by Alberto Giovannini and Colin Mayer
Index
More information

minimum equity requirements 32 model corporate tax system 194 monetary and fiscal policy 5
  and exchange rates 226
monetary policy in Europe, loss of independence 317 monetary union, European, evolutionary approach to 257 money in the utility function 292 monitoring delegated, financial intermediation as 45 free-rider problems 46
  and investment horizons 47 winner's curse problem and 46 moral hazard and deposit insurance 14 multimarket competition in banking 23 multinationals, foreign and host governments table 7.9 multiple listings 104
mutual recognition principle 17

national deficits and international interest rates 237, 244 national public sector deficits and community-wide interest rates 233 net public debt of European countries, 1981–8 table 8.1 network externalities in banking 20 non-strategic foreign investment 142 non-Walrasian equilibria and policy coordination 238

oligopoly in European banking 16 opportunities, changing and horizontal mergers 140
'optimal tax' theory of government 4 option values 161
options, strategic 152
options, traded 75
order-routing linkage 87
orders, market and limit 79 outside and inside finance 40

par clearing 320
Pareto efficiency and policy cooperation 236 perfect currency substitution 294, figures 10.1 and 10.2 policy cooperation and Pareto efficiency 236 policy coordination and non-Walrasian equilibria policy, fiscal and monetary 5
  and exchange rates 226
predation in banking, costs of 25 Prevention of Fraud (Investments) Act, 1958, UK 114 price dispersion and market linkages 78 price level and exchange rate determinancy under currency substitution 267 price priority 85
pricing, transfer 186
primary balance, government, European countries, 1981–8 228, table 8.2
priority in trading 84
  price 85
  public order 86
  size 86
  time 85
problem debtors, Europe table 11.4 profits from mergers 169 public order priority 86 public sector deficits, definitions 241

quote-matching 83
quotes, market 80

real balances, essential 295 real exchange rate volatility 232 real growth in Europe, 1981–9 table 8.4 realignment of exchange rates, expectations of 284 rebates on corporate taxes figure 7.5 reform of capital income taxation 193 regional securities markets 103 regulation of banks, side effects 13 of financial intermediaries 13 of financial sector 6
    and systemic failure 113 of interest rates 15
regulatory capture 15
relief from double taxation 184 renegotiation of contracts 55 reputation and financial services 117 reputational effects in banking 21 representative household, world 264 rescheduling versus default on loans 56 residence-based taxation figure 7.4
  of international corporate income 198 residence (tax) principle 184 resources, corporate, in Japan 52 revenue effects of corporate tax reform 203 revenue exposure under capital tax reform 205, table 7.10 risk, default, sovereign 237 risk diversification and financial intermediation 42 runs on banks 12, 112

scale and scope economies in banking 23 scarcity, capital 39
scope and scale economies in banking 23

© Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-0-521-42890-3 - European Financial Integration
Edited by Alberto Giovannini and Colin Mayer
Index
More information

Securities and Exchange Commission, US 114
Securities and Investments Board (SIB), UK 114 securities markets, regional 103 securitization of loans 45 segmented credit markets 315 seigniorage 228, table 8.5
Self-Regulating Organizations (SROs), UK 115 and incentives to expose fraud 134 self- versus statutory regulation of financial institutions 124 separation of client funds 128 settlement, international 102 side effects of bank regulation 13 single versus multiple sources of finance 55 sitting-duck problems and limit orders 82 size priority 86
snowball effects and bank concentration 22 solvency, government 232 sovereign default risk 237 Spain, high yield bank accounts in 19 stability of learning dynamics under currency substitution 276 stability with a common currency 280 statutory versus self-regulation of financial institutions 124 stock exchange, European, unification of 73 stock markets and the control of firms 67 strategic mergers 151, 166 strategic options 152 substitution, currency see currency substitution sustainability of current accounts 315 switching costs in banking 21 systemic failure and financial regulation 113

takeovers 67
tax authorities, lack of cooperation 192 avoidance in Europe and US 177 bases and depreciation 181 competition 203
  credits, foreign, limitation 184 tax deferral 185
  rates, corporate 179, table 7.2
  reform, on capital income and European Commission 193 reform, corporate, revenue effects 203 revenue from capital incomes 173, figure 7.1, table 7.1
  system, corporate, model 194 systems, corporate, in EC table 8B.1 treatment of foreign-source dividends table 7.5 treatment of intercompany dividends table 7.4 taxation of capital income 5 corporate, cash-flow 201 corporate, and limited liability 200 double 184
    relief on 184
  of international corporate income, residence-based 198 residence-based figure 7.4
taxes on capital income in Europe 178 in Europe and US, 1965–87 175, figure 7.2
  reform of 193
taxes, corporate income clearing system 195 and individual, integration 186, table 7.6
  and investment 201
  rebates figure 7.5
taxes on wealth 173
taxes, withholding 187, tables 7.7 and 7.8
temporal concentration of international mergers 149 territorial (tax) principle 185
three-tier EMS 337
time priority 85
timeliness of execution of market orders 89 trade liberalization and foreign investment 143 trade unions and treasury (UK), 'chicken' game 225 traded options 75
transaction, clearing 94 transactions price volatility and market fragmentation 77 transactions velocity 261 transfer pricing 186
transitional problems of EMS 334 treasury and central banks, 'chicken' game 224 treasury and trade unions (UK), 'chicken' game 225 unification of European stock exchanges 73

UK Financial Intermediaries, Managers and Brokers Regulatory Association (FIMBRA) 128
  Financial Securities Act, 1986 114
  Investment Management Regulatory Organization (IMRO) 128
  Prevention of Fraud (Investments) Act, 1958 114
  Securities and Investments Board (SIB) 114
  Self-Regulating Organizations (SROs) 115

© Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-0-521-42890-3 - European Financial Integration
Edited by Alberto Giovannini and Colin Mayer
Index
More information

unsuited to EMS 324
US and Europe, capital gains and corporate income taxes 176, figure 7.3
differences 101
tax avoidance 177
international mergers 1978–88 144, tables 6.1 and 6.2
Securities and Exchange Commission 114 utility function, money in the 292

values, option 161
VAT rates in EC table 8B.2
velocity of transactions 261 volatility of real exchange rates 232 volatility of transactions prices and market fragmentation 77 wage freeze 322

Walrasian market system 35 wealth taxes 173
West German industry and East German changes 165 winner's curse problem and monitoring 46 withholding taxes 187, tables 7.7 and 7.8
world representative household 264 worldwide (tax) principle 184 zero exchange rate margins 318

© Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org