CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
0521539439 - Problems and Methods in the Study of Politics
Edited by Ian Shapiro, Rogers M. Smith, and Tarek E. Masoud
Index
More information

Index

abortion 360, 366, 369 abstraction, levels of 314, 317, 319–22 academy, ethos of 345–8 as "ivory tower" 79
  and state 72, 75
accommodationism 108, 109 or protest 113
accountability 119, 122, 137, 277, 278, 296, 300, 301, 354
  of leadership 5, 109, 137
  of transnational actors 358
  use of term 278
Achen, Christopher 233, 241, 251, 265 actions and attitudes 159
  best in circumstances 157
  deliberative 156
  and intentions 156
  as random variables 157
  rational 196
Adas, Michael 71, 291
advocacy 67, 84, 85, 317 groups 351
  racial organizations 115, 118 transnational groups 359, 371 African-Americans
  identities 59
  political experience of 48 agency 2–6, 13
  degrees of 347
  denial of 155
  extension of term 348
  and internalism versus externalism 6 premise of individual rational 351 agendas and memory processes 149 and research funding 72 research projects 311
agents causal claims about 163 failure of motivation 154 perspectives of 6, 149, 152, 161 preference satisfaction 155, 162 refusal to make choices 157 agnosticism 79, 347
Almond, Gabriel 1 alternatives 38, 218
  in problem-driven research 25
altruism 159, 195
Alvarez, Michael E. 30, 275
American Political Science Association (APSA) 46, 350 qualitative section 387 Working Group on Graduate Education 387 American Political Science Review 21 analytic narratives 8, 201–9, 221 case selection 210–12 context for 203
  evaluation 216–20
  as "just so stories" 216
  problem-drivenness 8, 204
analytic techniques 202, 208–9 anarchism 318
  epistemological 308, 328
  methodological 10
Anderson, Benedict 60
Angrist, Joshua A. 251, 265 anthropology 26, 49, 54, 340 Afro-American studies 135
  and colonialism 71
Appadurai, Arjun 205 applied formal models 239–44 Aquinas, Saint Thomas 44, 228
Arafat, Yasser 30, 242
archival research 1, 182, 227, 229, 315 for social history 313 area studies 182, 243, 244
Arendt, Hannah 289, 295, 298, 372
Aristotle 44, 145, 154, 159, 228, 379
Arrow, Kenneth 169, 176, 229

© Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
0521539439 - Problems and Methods in the Study of Politics
Edited by Ian Shapiro, Rogers M. Smith, and Tarek E. Masoud
Index
More information

assimilation
  coercive 68, 71 projects 387
  redemptive 71
assumptions 14, 19, 309, 327, 335, 382 about parameters 179
  in academia 390
  cultural superiority 71 and definitions of democracy 280
  denial of 149
  in econometrics 180
  epistemological 310
  explicit 217
  false 194
  foundational 312, 314
  methodological and standards 324 must fit the facts 217
  and notation 253–4
  ontological and epistemological 310, 318 questioning our taken-for-granted 283 racial 116
  reasonable 217
  simplifying 217
  theoretical 39
  unrealistic 171, 172, 184 attitudes about causation 154
  and actions 159
  and beliefs and desires 174
  comparison of black and white 125, 127, 129, 132 audience 394
  orientation to an 289, 290, 390 wider than academic 14, 391
Augustine, Saint 44, 332, 344, 345, 347
  Confessions 280
  On Christian Doctrine 334–8
Austin, J. L. 23, 281 authoritarianism 31, 48, 299, 300, 301 authority power and knowledge 74
  religious and civil 44
autocracies 232
Axelrod, Robert 233, 234

Bane, Mary Jo 92, 94, 98
Barak, Ehud 30
Barry, Brian 48, 170
Bates, Robert 201, 203, 204, 208, 209, 210, 213, 214, 216, 218, 312, 323 Bayes' rule 169, 183, 255, 270 behavioral economics 169, 206, 379 behaviorism 36, 372
  radical 167, 172, 183
  and rational choice 7
  rational choice and cognitive choice 167–8 belief-desire psychology 167, 168, 183 dissatisfaction with 171–4, 176 and game theory 171, 174, 177
beliefs 150, 168, 284
  about counterfactual circumstances 153 about different "truths" 314 and action 192
  assumptions about parameters 178, 183
  changes in 237
  and choices 209
  consequences of 196
  contextual understanding of 209
  endogenizing 174–6, 237
  and explanation 188
  "fully responsive" 169
  and history 215
  as normative 160
  origins of 7, 237
  predispositions and 11
  and preferences 155
  prior 253
  as random variables 157
  and reasons 153
  shared 147
  updating prior 252, 254
  wrong factual 192
  see also belief-desire psychology Benhabib, Seyla 298, 352
Bentham, Jeremy 28, 32, 72
Bewley, Truman 11, 12, 381–5, 393
Bhaskar, Roy 34, 315
bias 252, 389
  causal inference and prior knowledge of 270 in experiments 263–6
  ideological 279
  in non-experimental methods 9 in observational research 252 black Americans advanced marginalization 59 defined in relation to middle-class Americans 60 black politics 5, 106–38 as an academic subfield 112 characterization of scholarship 134 class in 122 consensus shaping 120
  default mode 108, 118
  democratic approach 5

© Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
0521539439 - Problems and Methods in the Study of Politics
Edited by Ian Shapiro, Rogers M. Smith, and Tarek E. Masoud
Index
More information

differentiation in 107, 115, 120, 122, 123, 133 goals 112, 135
interest groups 127, 128
issues in 125, 127
least common denominator 113, 115 legitimation process 120, 122, 134 new institutionally based 122 presumptions in 106–38 structures of electoral mobilization 114 symbolic significance 114 black–white comparison 125, 127, 129, 132 Boix, Carles 283, 300–1 bounded rationality 161–2 Bourdieu, Pierre 77, 284
Bueno de Mesquita, Bruce 8, 13, 227–44, 315, 386, 393
Bunche, Ralph J. 107, 114, 115, 120
"Marxism and the 'Negro Question'" 115, 116 business interests, and social policy 88 Büthe, Tim 202, 205, 208, 218 Butler, Judith 78, 80, 333

capitalism 290
American example 46
and class antagonism 121 laissez-faire 45
Marx on 197
versus socialism 45
capitalist democracies, industrial policy 37 Carapico, Sheila 286, 291, 294, 297 case histories
ex post 235
insufficiency of evidence 236 case studies 227, 244, 275, 386, 389 comparative historical 43
in-depth 8, 204
individual and comparative 4, 53 method of analysis 229–30 qualitative 202
replication 230
single 203
categories 75, 284
causal explanation 6, 145, 150, 151, 206
and bounded rationality theories 162 inadequacy of 154, 161
and internalism 156
and interpretive understanding 317 and rational explanation 189
restricting role of 156
causal inference
assumptions about 268
and prior knowledge of biases 270
in statistical analysis 177, 206, 210 causal mechanisms 151, 154, 208, 316 defining 219
evolutionary 159
generalizability of 211 identification of 202, 219 intermediate 179
in large-N analysis 283 in narrative 206, 217, 220
in statistical analysis 231
unobserved 315
in voting behavior 188 causal relationships 13, 93, 180
causality
attribution of 156
in temporal sequencing 209 causation 38, 386 attitudes about 154
and correlation 86, 233 emergent 342–3, 345, 347 and probability theory 177 single factor 380 causes
aggregate 151
and effects 83, 85, 98, 198, 251
and reasons 189
and theories of behaviour 151 Census 86, 97
enumeration methods 87 Central Intelligence Agency 72, 240 central limit theorem 253 change 342, 379
characterizations of problems 14, 22, 25, 28, 39, 45, 211 Cheibub, Jose Antonio 30, 275 choices 151, 157
and beliefs 209
cyclic 169
denial of 160
institutionalized 205
Christianity 80, 334
and morality 343
citizens
empowerment 358, 367, 371
self-interest 288
self-rule 352, 353
understanding of democracy 282 citizenship 296, 300, 301
cosmopolitan 47 experience of 352
global and local 359 limited legitimacy of national 358 rights of freed slaves 107

© Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
0521539439 - Problems and Methods in the Study of Politics
Edited by Ian Shapiro, Rogers M. Smith, and Tarek E. Masoud
Index
More information

civil rights 47, 59, 114 and constitutional courts 32 civil society 290, 297
civil wars conditions for negotiated settlements 29 reconstruction after 4 class
  antagonism in capitalist culture 121 and race 72, 109, 111, 115, 116, 118, 121, 122, 126, 129, 134
  and understanding of democracy 282
classifications 277, 284 rules 275, 276
Clinton Administration 5, 91, 367
Clinton, William Jefferson 94–5, 232 Cloward, Richard 86, 90, 201 coalitions, and ideology 24, 25 cognition 173, 206
cognitive choice theory 167–8, 169, 183
Cohen, Jean L. 290, 297
Cold War 3, 4, 45, 46, 72
  US nuclear policy 234 collaboration 244, 388
collective action 145, 218, 298, 299 Collier, David 315, 387 colonialism 4, 71–2, 116 colonization 71, 78 commitments
  advance 144
  credible 218
  epistemological 274, 302
  ideological 125, 210, 218, 275
  metaphysical 332
  methodological 10, 11
  normative 137
  in the study of democracy 274–303
  to ethical life 344
  voting behavior as enactment of 191 communication and academic division of labor 325
  and eclecticism 327
  and experimentation 322–7 communism 45, 46, 72
communitarianism 354
  as "first-order" theory 353 community
  of scholars 220
  versus society 312
comparative politics 46, 52, 268 premissed on US 46
comparative research 202, 321 and comparative statics 209
  and rational choice 204
  tripartite method of 205, 211 comparative statics 209, 211, 215, 221 and big foundational movements 215 competition, and better information processing 171, 173 complexity 83, 313, 324, 379
  of division of labor 10, 318, 328 and mathematical models 8 and parsimony 321
  of political science 11, 32
  of problems 236
concept formation 43, 53, 211 naturalistic logic of 315 concepts
  danger of fuzziness 326
  formalization, operationalization and testing 53 language use and 281 meaning of abstract 281 shifts in meaning 361
  in the study of democracy 274–303
  use in context 284, 302 conditions
  "boomerang effect" 371
  probabilistic generalizations about 29 of rational choice 56 structural historical 287 of success for research programs 270 confirmation 216, 217–18
  of observational research by experimentation 261 conflict of identities and memberships 50 patience in enduring 234 conjectures 227
  adjudication among 25
  counterfactual 150
  debatable 24
Connolly, William E. 10, 332–48 consensus 287
  overlapping 372
  shaping in black politics 120 consequences 99, 147, 148, 197, 207, 212, 220 conservatism, and racial authenticity rhetoric 133, 134
  and social policy 88, 90
constitutionalism, liberal 355 constrained pluralism 10, 307–28 in a division of labor 313–22 and extrapolation of rules and standards 322
  and methodological rigor 309, 318–22

© Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
0521539439 - Problems and Methods in the Study of Politics
Edited by Ian Shapiro, Rogers M. Smith, and Tarek E. Masoud
Index
More information

constraints 205
  and causal mechanisms 155 cognitive 161
  interaction given structural 202 constructivism 9, 49, 227, 237, 284, 315
  and game theory 236, 237
  and realism 310
contestability 333, 346 context 8, 42, 53, 64, 75, 336 for analytic narratives 203, 219 immersion in 53
  in meaning determination 336 of models 213
  and process 208
  of racial subordination 115
  and rationality 384
contingency 8, 13, 32, 206, 211–12, 214, 335, 378, 385 contingent events 29, 30 controls, experimental 9, 34 convergence 146, 317, 385–8 evidence of 388
  questioned 13
cooperation 234
  and patience 234
correlations 177
  and causation 86, 233
  negative 253, 254
  selection of 96
  treated as causes 99
cost–benefit reasoning 190, 194, 311 Cox, Gary W. 7, 167–84, 385, 386 critical junctures 215, 216 critical theory 317, 365, 390 critical thinking 36–9, 290, 333
critique 297
  of eclecticism 326 genealogical 336, 343
Cuban missile crisis 148 culture 284
  and identity 295
  and nature 341
  and understanding of democracy 282
curve fitting 32, 217

Dahl, Robert 11, 229, 279, 335, 377
data availability of good 32, 33, 34 availability of new 210 few uncontroversial sets of 32
  government 89
  no "raw" description 26 politicization of measurement 89 prospective 239
  retrospective 239
  selective use of 86
  techniques of uncovering 186 data collection, by oneself 382, 384 data mining 32, 267
data problems 86, 96–7
Davidson, Donald 187, 189
Dawson, Michael 126, 130 Behind the Mule 107, 123, 129–33 de Tocqueville, Alexis 31, 36, 37 debate
  between explanatory and interpretative theories 345 context of black public 108
  and democracy 297
  methodological 319
  open political 138
  rational-critical 287
  the terms of 274
decision 197
  best responses to problems 157 democratic process 353
decisionmaking
  consequences of 196
  democratic and institutional preconditions 359 log-rolling models 240 more realistic models 173 multicriterion 176
  predictive research 238 rational model 83, 85 deduction 213–14, 233, 235 deductivism 27, 218
definitions
  academic 46
  and classificatory systems 276 of democracy 274, 275, 276, 277
  and metaphysical commitments 332 opposing 283
  ostensive 281
  of problems 125, 332
Deleuze, Gilles 336, 341, 342, 344, 346 deliberation 150, 151, 364 and addiction 152
  and normativity 156, 162
  preconditions of 357, 369 structural historical conditions of 287 deliberative democracy, theory of see deliberative theory deliberative polling 361, 370, 371 deliberative rationality, and choice 160, 162 deliberative theory 351, 353–60 contradictions in 368
  disadvantages 359
  institutional implausibility 370–2

© Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
0521539439 - Problems and Methods in the Study of Politics
Edited by Ian Shapiro, Rogers M. Smith, and Tarek E. Masoud
Index
More information

and institutions 357, 365
and moral issues 357
philosophical implausibility 364–70 provisional status 366 psychological implausibility 359, 360–4 types of 366
Delphi technique 241
democracy
aggregative theories of 354 American example 46
approaches to study 9, 48 and black leadership 121 concepts and commitments in the study of 274–303 conditions giving rise to 31 and debate 297
definitions 274, 275, 277, 279
and economic development 9, 30, 274
elites' and citizens' understanding of 282 hierarchies in 137, 138 maximum institutional 367 minimalist definition 275, 276, 279 and participation 279 and per capita income 30, 300, 301
representative 278
rule by the people and rule of law 283 and scholarship 80
and self-interest 288
subjectivity in 288
survival of 275, 299
transitions to 21, 275, 288, 299, 301, 302 versus communism 72
and war 232 Wittgensteinian approach to study 9 democratic peace 231, 232 democratic theory
critique 351
deliberative 351
minimalist 351, 354
modernist 358
participatory 351
democratization 209, 363 taken-for-granted narrative of 282 Democrats
and welfare reform 94–5
white and black 109, 111
dependency thesis 91, 98 Derrida, Jacques 68, 77, 316 description 2–6 impossibility of complete 6, 14, 26
most basic 27
multiple true 3, 25–8 perspectives and 163
right 30
and theory 233
as theory-laden 23
thick 13, 284, 313, 317, 388
undervaluation of accepted 36–9 desires 168
changes in 237
endogenizing 174–6, 237
and explanation 188
as social constructions 174
see also belief-desire psychology; preferences deterrence theory 392, 393 dialogue 289, 322
dictatorship 45, 300, 301
and poverty 275
difference, politics of 81, 121, 127, 136 dignity 351, 372
discourse 388
black political 108, 112, 127, 128
history of political 363
of political science 28, 360
of problem-solving 73
in science 74
discourse analysis 1, 9, 55, 236 disenfranchisement 108, 109 division of labor 381
analogy 309
communication and 325 complex 10, 318, 328
constrained pluralism in 313–22 social 318
dogmatism 144, 340
domination 4, 77, 302 Douglass, Frederick 110 dramatization 190, 192
Dryzek, John 84, 352, 354
Du Bois, W. E. B. 62, 70, 71, 73, 78
The Souls of Black Folk 70
Duncan, Greg J. 91, 92
Durkheim, Emile 151, 197, 309, 318 eclecticism 145

and communication 322–7
costs and risks 325
critique of 326
and experimentation 322–7
and research communities 328
the role of 307–28
value of 309, 326, 328
econometrics 167, 178
assumptions in 180
causal relations 180
pathologies in 180–2, 184
economic choices 56
racial influences on 55

© Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
0521539439 - Problems and Methods in the Study of Politics
Edited by Ian Shapiro, Rogers M. Smith, and Tarek E. Masoud
Index
More information

economic development, and democracy 9, 30, 274, 279 economic models
  cause and effect 83
  of wealth-maximization 54 economic regulation 45, 48 economic stories, and political identity 61, 63 economics 54, 170, 198, 379, 381 optimization in 193
  and psychology 176
  theoretical 6, 163
effects, causes and 83, 85, 98, 198, 251 elections
  commitment to 288, 299
  contested 275, 277
  and democracy 10, 280
  and economic development 279, 282
  fair and free 297
  Gore victory (2000) 33
  natural experiments 233
  and political participation 279 prediction of outcomes 32 elites
  agenda-setting 107, 127
  black 115, 117
  change in strategies 212 and citizens' understanding of democracy 282 construct political identity 60 custodial and tutorial mission 109, 112, 118 political rhetoric 108
Ellis, Elisabeth 11, 350–73
Ellwood, David 90, 92, 93, 94, 98
Elster, Jon 188, 190, 206, 214, 216, 219, 332 emergent causation 342–3, 345, 347 emotional mechanisms 203, 206, 364 empathy 42, 43, 53, 388 empires 46, 72
empirical questions 48, 51 and ethical questions 380 empirical research 53, 63, 351 epistemological perspective 314 models in 213
  regularities 233
  simplification in 83
  and theoretical ambition 36
  as theory-laden 2, 19
  uniform set of rules for 314 empirical studies experimental 251
  observational 251
empiricism 315, 321
  and analytic-synthetic dichotomy 336 and explicability 344 and methodological pluralism 316
  radical 339, 346
  regulative ideal 335
  use of language 337
empowerment
  citizen 358, 367, 371
  institutions and 358
Enlightenment 334, 345, 362
Epicureanism 347
Epicurus 332, 334
epistemic communities 13, 388 interpretive and qualitative mode 13
  scientific mode 13
epistemological commitments 274, 302 epistemology 310, 317, 339 the dilemma of 339
  empirical 314
  post-positivist 316
equality 282
equations, systems of 178, 183
  pathologies in 180–2
equilibrium 178, 208, 237
  concepts 180, 183
  see also multiple equilibria games; Nash equilibrium; subgame perfect equilibrium essentialism 48
  racial 117, 134, 135
  vague 341
ethic of cultivation 343, 344 ethical criteria, for experimentation on human subjects 35 ethically constitutive stories, and interests 62, 63
  and membership 61, 62, 63 ethics 67, 76, 78
  and existential faith 345
  and immanent naturalism 343
  Kantian absolutist 360 ethnographic research 387 field work 4, 53
ethnography 1, 6, 97, 386, 388 descriptive 6, 163
  and identity formation 43, 54, 55, 63, 64
  and internal explanation 153 European Union, decisionmaking 240, 241 evaluation 197, 205, 216–20, 344
events
  contingent 29, 30
  as critical junctures 215
  defined 145

© Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
0521539439 - Problems and Methods in the Study of Politics
Edited by Ian Shapiro, Rogers M. Smith, and Tarek E. Masoud
Index
More information

explanation of everyday 153
and immanent naturalism 345
singular 145, 146–50 evidence
bias in 236
empirical 58, 98
from case studies 235
in history 235
and logic 228
statistical 211
evolutionary theory 334, 341, 343 exclusion
civic 108
racial 113, 118
existential faith 10, 333–40, 346 and confession of method 338 and ethics 343
and immanent naturalism 340–5
methods and political problems 334 expectations 322, 327, 339 in coordination 215 of new political terms 362 in research 309
experimental design 227, 232–3 experimental research 9, 251 discipline on data analysis 267
justifications for 263
versus observational research 252, 257 experimentation 328
and communication 322–7
on human subjects, ethical criteria 35 experiments
bias in 263–6
design adjustment 266
fully randomized 259 laboratory 34
"out of sample" 232
expertise
problem-oriented or metholodological skill 311 problem-specific 312 explanation 2–6
agent-centred 149
as if possibility 344 best or unique or privileged 145 causal 6, 145, 150, 151 conflict of internal and external 155–6
deliberative 150
different types of 26
external 6, 144–56, 160, 163
full 188
functional 24, 150, 197, 198 internal 6, 144–55, 163 modesty of purpose 338, 348 partial or one-sided 6, 14, 144
perspectives and 163
as prima facie rational actor explanation 187 as problem-driven 19 structural 150
as surface intervention 344 theorizing and social engineering 239 two approaches to 150–5 see also rational explanation explanations arbitration among possible 209 social science search for general 27
expressive rationality 191, 192, 196 extensive form games 205, 208, 211, 214 external validity 34, 231, 232, 263, 265
externalism 6, 146
radical 167
and regularities 154

facts
assumptions must fit 217
new 187, 217
no pretheoretical account of 23, 26 fairness 12, 382, 383, 384 faith
"existential" 10
in explicability 338 methods and problems 332–48 rule of 334
fallibilism 11, 361
falsification 28, 43, 230 family Habermas on the bourgeois 288, 289, 290 intimacy in the 289
large extended (bayt) 290 al-Farabi, Abu Nasr 44, 80 fascism 45, 61
Feder, Stanley 240, 244
federalism
balance rule 207
Riker's models 219
Federalist 44
feedback loops 341, 342 Feldman, Stanley 169, 176
feminism 26, 78
Fenno, Richard 153
Ferejohn, John 6, 10, 14, 144–63, 167, 168, 371
Feyerabend, Paul 307, 318, 328 field experiments 9, 34, 54, 264 compared with laboratory experiments 264
external validity 265
justification for 35

© Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
0521539439 - Problems and Methods in the Study of Politics
Edited by Ian Shapiro, Rogers M. Smith, and Tarek E. Masoud
Index
More information

field experiments (cont.)
and method-drivenness 34
non-randomized 64 phenomena not suitable for 34 resource allocation 266
fieldwork 4, 53, 315
Fiorina, Morris P. 218
Fish, Stanley 317
Fishkin, James S. 361, 364, 370
Flyvbjerg, Bent 84, 203 folk psychology 167, 168, 187 Foner, Eric 36, 107
forecasting and bargaining model 240, 243 Foreign Affairs 69 formal theory 46, 206, 208 logic in 315
formalism 386, 390
Fortune, T. Thomas 110
Foucault, Michel 68, 75, 76, 284 framework for theory 42, 60, 64, 89, 393 framing 202, 203
problems 193
Frank, Robert 190, 196
Frankfurt School 317, 365
free rider 19, 388
Freedmen's Bureau 70
Freud, Sigmund 28, 332
Friedman, Milton 28, 172, 233 functional explanations 24, 150, 197, 198 funding for research 72, 73, 74, 310

Gadamer, Hans-Georg 317
Galileo Galilei 334 game theory 1, 54, 202, 205 and analytic narrative 213 application to qualitative research 312 assumptions of 7
and belief-desire psychology 171, 174, 177 case-by-case judgments of 7 causal mechanisms in 219
change in 211
compared with historical institutionalism 310 and constructivism 236, 237 criticisms of 171–4, 205 and electoral politics 313
and equilibrium concepts 180 formal logic 234
generalizability and 218
and historical analysis 205 and iteration 217
modeling of learning 169
and norms 171
and path dependence 214 pathologies 180–2, 184
predictive power 8, 219
and rational choice 167
and realism 315
repeated 234
and social choice theory 238 as a theory of action 237 use of terms from 388
and utility-maximizing choices 180 Geddes, Barbara 203
Geertz, Clifford 303, 317 gender construction of 49
and public debate 292, 293 genealogical critique 336, 343 general theory of holes 31
of national identity 49 generalizability 8, 59, 265, 302
of analytic narratives 213, 216, 218–20 of causal mechanisms 211 and out-of-sample tests 220 generalizations 148, 198, 202, 230, 314, 385 dangers 236
"if . . . then" 29, 30
possibility of valid 32, 34 George, Alexander L. 205, 217, 229, 230 Gerber, Alan 9, 10, 34, 251–71 global public sphere 359, 370–2 globalization 47, 48, 359
goals
articulation as political strategy 93 of policy 84
professed political 92 separation of means and 85 Goffman, Erving 190, 196 good ends 12, 380
tradeoffs among 380
Gorbachev, Mikhail 243
Gosnell, Harold F. 107, 114, 123
Gould, Stephen Jay 341, 343 government interests, and policy research 100 government intervention 83, 85 Green, Donald 7, 9, 19, 34, 335, 372, 385 on observational research 251–71 on rational choice theory 167, 172, 181, 216, 238, 390 Greif, Avner 201, 207, 209, 210, 215, 218 Grotius, Hugo 44
group interests
collective racial 117, 120, 127, 135
determination of 132, 133 perceptions of 133

© Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
0521539439 - Problems and Methods in the Study of Politics
Edited by Ian Shapiro, Rogers M. Smith, and Tarek E. Masoud
Index
More information

group membership, culturally distinct 351
groups 108, 377, 382
Guattari, Felix 336, 341
Guha, Ranajit 291
Gutmann, Amy 352, 353, 354–6, 358, 359, 360, 366, 368, 369, 370, 372

Habermas, Jürgen 4, 77, 283, 286, 288, 289, 296, 317, 365, 372 ideal speech situation 365, 369
  on the public sphere 286, 287, 288, 296, 299, 352 Hacking, Ian 87
Hardin, Russell 24, 215
al-Harithi, 'Abu 'Ali 300, 301, 302
Harris, Kathryn 97, 98
Harsanyi, John 20
Hartz, Louis 36, 37
Hayes, Rutherford B. 106 health care 367, 368
Hechter, Michael 218, 315
Heckman, James J. 252, 259, 265 Hegel, Friedrich 339, 344 hegemony 13, 115, 128
Hempel, Carl G. 167, 315
heresy 73, 337, 345
hermeneutics 162, 317, 321, 336, 388
  and internalism 146
  mystery in 338
  and trace of transcendence 336 heuristics 129, 386
hierarchy 293, 296
  in democracy 137, 138
  racial 47
Hirschmann, Albert O. 89 historical analysis 8, 63, 64, 204, 351
  and rational choice 204, 205
historical case studies 9, 13 historical explanation 197, 198 historical institutionalism 59, 207, 215, 313, 386 compared with game theory 310 historical research 26, 149, 321, 387 historical sensitivity 53, 57 history 8, 42, 389
  Afro-American studies 135
  and beliefs 215
  evidence in 235
  macro-analytic comparative 202
  and policy science 99
  and political science 69
Hitler, Adolf 147
Hobbes, Thomas 44, 152, 195, 228, 355 holistic approaches 197 Holloway, Jonathan Scott 112, 114
Howell, William G. 251, 266 human nature conceptions of 172, 176 and immanent forces 342 human rights
  international 351
  transnational advocacy groups 359 humanism 176
  and social science 146
  versus positivism 6
Hume, David 44, 197, 228, 344
Huntington, Samuel P. 31
Hussein, Saddam 148, 299
Husserl, Edmund 342
hypotheses 209, 215, 387 identities and interests 43 hypothesis of perverse effects 89–91, 97 hypothesis testing 216, 231

Ibn Khaldun 76, 77
ideal speech situation 365, 369
ideals
  democratic 352–60
  moral content of political 356
  new 364
identities 42–64, 298
  alternative conceptions 53 in conflict 50
  ethically constitutive 62
  extrapolitical sources 50
  institutions and 74, 75
  multiple possible 50, 64 new political 47, 344
  as politically constructed 49
  and power 57, 58
  social construction of 49
  transformations 42, 47, 52 see also political identities identity
  ascriptive or vertical 295
  and beliefs and desires 237
  chosen or horizontal 295
  and culture 295
  and dramatisation 191
  repertoires of 64
  and shift in problematics 339 see also national identity; politics of identity; professional identity identity formation 4, 237, 238
  "general evolutionary" model 49 rational choice theory of 55 and transformation 42 identity politics 47, 59 critiques of 48
ideographic analysis 319, 320

© Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
0521539439 - Problems and Methods in the Study of Politics
Edited by Ian Shapiro, Rogers M. Smith, and Tarek E. Masoud
Index
More information

ideological commitments 14, 125, 210, 218, 275 ideology 335
  of class privilege 123 and coalitions 24, 25
  and memberships 61
  of racial self-help uplift 110, 112, 119, 122, 137 imagination 43, 53
imagined community 60, 61 immanent naturalism 11, 336
  and existential faith 340–5
  and political science 346
  and radical empiricism 346
  and science 341–2
impact studies 91–2, 96, 97, 99 imperialism, academic 68, 70 in-group/out-group identities 56, 57 incentives 205
  regime change and policy science 87
inclusiveness, democratic principle of 359, 368 incommensurability 308, 328 individualism 197
individuals advances in context of racial subordination 115
  black 123, 137
inductivism 27, 205 inequality 47, 48, 289, 300, 301 racial justifications of 137 inference logic of scientific 42
  statistics used to support any 181 inference testing 43, 53 inferences causal and descriptive 314 generated from empirical observation 314 of unobserved causal mechnisms 315 information processing competition and better 171, 173, 183 effects of cognition and affect 173 perfect 169, 171 inquiry
  interpretive mode 386
  naturalistic logic of scientific 315 political philosophy and 360 and regulative ideals 344
  scientific mode 386
  universal imperative of 338 institutionalism economic 204
  historical 59, 207, 215, 310, 313, 386
institutions
  change in 215
  constraints 213, 215
  for defense of human rights 351 and deliberative theory 357 effects of 8
  and empowerment 358
  and expected knowledge 77 historical patterns 55, 58 interests and identities 74, 75
  international 46
  political base 208
  and rational choice theory 194 reasons for stability 211
  as rules 205
  and subjectivities 288 instrumental rationality 62, 170–1, 188, 365 instrumentalism 28, 172 intentions 68, 151, 155 formation of 156
  and policy outcomes 85 interaction 202, 382
interest groups, in black politics 127, 128 interests 42–64, 356
  and black electoral mobilization 114 change in perceptions of 371 class and race 111
  collective racial 116, 117, 118, 123, 125, 129, 130, 133
  differentiation in black politics 107, 115, 120, 122, 123, 127, 133, 137 formation processes 125 group versus individual 124
  institutions and 74, 75
  objective and subjective black 127 relation of political identities to 51, 63 state and corporate 73
  strategic 302
  substantive 62 vested 215
internal explanation
  and ethnography 153
  and justification 152, 153 and the rationality hypothesis 160 relationship to external explanation 155–6 internal validity 229, 232, 252, 265 internalism 6, 146, 154
  and causation 156
  and morality 154
  and normativity 146, 152, 154
international relations 14, 45, 46, 69, 231, 233, 268, 297, 325, 393 negotiations 234, 241
  neorealist 315
  realists and constructivists 310

© Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
0521539439 - Problems and Methods in the Study of Politics
Edited by Ian Shapiro, Rogers M. Smith, and Tarek E. Masoud
Index
More information

interpretation 19, 284–5 context in determination of 336
  deep 348
  discursive 387
  double-entry 336, 344
  and rational choice theory 337
  thickness or thinness of 314 value-free 317
interpretive approach 13, 274, 386 to identity formation 42, 57, 58, 63, 64 to study of democracy 10 interpretive methods 4, 52 dangers in systematizing 388 export of terms from 388 ordinary language use 280–3 semiotic practices 284–303 interpretivism 59, 299, 302, 336 characteristics of 284
  mystery in 338
intersubjectivity 316, 336 interviews 55, 315
  in-depth 4, 43, 53
investment, of scholars 33, 40 Islam 72, 73
iteration 213–14, 217
  and game theory 217

James, William 332, 333, 335, 339, 340, 341, 344, 346, 347
Jim Crow era 47, 106, 108, 112, 119, 123, 124 Johnson, James 219, 326 journalism 14, 390, 392 difference from political science 28 Jung, Courtney 29, 30, 53, 59 justice 12, 356, 360, 367, 382, 384 justification 35, 38
  ideological 115
  and internal explanation 152, 153
  for "irrational" preferences 175 of racial inequality 137 of theoretical assumptions 184

Kahneman, Daniel 177, 193
Kalyvas, Stathis N. 288
Kant, Immanuel 36, 44, 332, 334, 343, 344, 360, 365, 367, 372
Kantianism 352
Kaplan, Edward H. 9, 251–71
Kazakhstan 56, 57
Keck, Margaret 359, 371–2
Keohane, Robert 10, 42, 206, 210, 251, 313, 314
Kilson, Martin 122
King, Gary 10, 42, 206, 210, 239, 251, 313, 314
Kiser, Edgar 203, 213, 218, 315
Knight, Jack 205, 366 knowledge accumulation 13
  critical and dissident 76, 77 evaluation of claims 27, 31 expected 77 implication of claims for politics 317 increments 34, 380
  "local" 84
  and power 74, 75, 76
Koselleck, Reinhart 361–2
Kuhn, Thomas 23, 313, 372 Kymlicka, Will 355, 359 laboratory experiments 34, 233, 251 on animals 264 compared with field experiments 264 ex ante 235

  with human subjects 232 laboratory simulations 186, 244
Lacan, Jacques 77, 78
Ladd, Everett Carl, Jr 119, 120
Laitin, David 54–8, 201, 202, 203, 205, 211, 350, 372 Lakatos, Imre 28, 181, 218, 230, 313, 325 language 284 assumptions in how humans learn 280 cleansing 337
  common analytic 312
  designative dimensions 336, 337 evidence of consequential exchanges 388 expressive dimensions 337 interwoven character 336 is never ordinary 385 political aspect of 74
  and politics 274
language use 337
  poltical effects 362, 363 languages, of political thought 361, 362–3 large-N studies 53, 274, 390
  cross-national 369
  of democracy 9, 276, 280, 299–301, 302
  of Russian speakers 55
  statistical 8, 227, 230–2, 268
  of wars 148
Latvia 56, 57, 58
Laudan, Lawrence 230, 307–10, 313, 316, 317, 328
law authors and addressees of 37, 283 inadequacy of causal explanation 154 legal requirement 194

© Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
0521539439 - Problems and Methods in the Study of Politics
Edited by Ian Shapiro, Rogers M. Smith, and Tarek E. Masoud
Index
More information

leadership 107, 109, 385 accountability and legitimacy 5
  black political 7, 120, 121, 130
  evaluation of tribal 297 "natural" or organic 137 quality of black 109 reputational method 119, 120 selection 119, 121
  stories 62
  in uncertainty 212
  union 212 learning, game theoretic modeling 169 legitimacy
  of leadership 5, 137
  political and morality 355 and problem-orientation 310 and the public sphere 290 racial authenticity and political 117 and sanction power 356
  of scholars 33
legitimation
  changes in strategies of 361 process in black politics 120, 122, 134 Lein, Laura 97, 98
Levi, Margaret 8, 201–21, 385 liberal constitutionalism 355 liberal democracy
  critique 364
  and differentiation 137 and social movements 87
  social problems 365
liberalism 45, 70, 353
  black 133
  Kantian 357
  and public/private divide 354, 355
  Rawls' theory of 279
  United States 279
Liebman, Jeffrey B. 251
Limongi, Fernando 30, 275, 299
Lindblom, Charles E. 38, 325
Lipsett, Seymour Martin 31 literary theory 49, 77 lived experience 282, 283, 299, 302 in the public sphere 285–302
Locke, John 44, 228, 355 logic 235 of constrained pluralism 318 and evidence 228
  formal 216–17, 233, 234
  internal consistency 315 naturalistic of concept formation 315 of propositions 227
  situational 197, 198, 199 and unity of social science 313 Lustick, Ian 64, 315
McAdam, Doug 201, 202, 206, 219, 220
Machiavelli, Niccolò 44, 76, 228
MacIntyre, Alasdair 29
Mackie, Gerry 174, 175
McMillen, Neil 107, 110
Mahoney, James 202, 209, 216, 219, 323 majoritarianism, in black politics 128
Mansbridge, Jane 289, 353, 361, 363–4, 370
Marx, Karl 28, 45, 138, 197, 229
Marxism 49, 115, 120, 195, 197
Masoud, Tarek E. i, 1–15 mathematical models 8, 227, 233–5 mathematical reasoning 8, 13, 216, 236, 244 compared with verbal reasoning 13, 315–16, 382 mathematics 1, 382, 393 Matthews, Donald R. 119, 120
maximization or optimization 193
  as rational behaviour 192, 193, 335 Mayntz, Renate 201, 205, 206, 219, 220 meaning 317, 387
  attribution of 316
  context in determination of 336
  shared 147
  of singular events 147
  of terms see Wittgensteinian approach Mearsheimer, John 11, 13, 386, 388–94 measurement
  politicization of data 89
  problems 90
median voter theory, values and distribution 22, 23 medical rationing 361, 366, 368 Mehta, Uday 72
Meier, August 107, 110, 113
memberships conflicting 50
  economic stories and 61 and ideologies 61
  and interests 51
  political 4, 42, 62
  transformations 47, 51
memory agendas and processes of 149 limits on 169
mental phenomena enriching our model of 182 unobservable 167, 183 mentality shift 359, 362
Merleau-Ponty, Maurice 332, 336
Merton, Robert 83, 198

© Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
0521539439 - Problems and Methods in the Study of Politics
Edited by Ian Shapiro, Rogers M. Smith, and Tarek E. Masoud
Index
More information

method-drivenness 2, 20, 144, 182–3, 308, 310, 391 and career 311
  compared with problem-drivenness 78 criticism of 4
  and field experiments 34 and neutrality 68
  and prediction 36
  self-defeating 32
  and theory-drivenness 20, 32 methodological pluralism 2, 9, 10, 346, 380 challenged 14
  and empiricism 316
  mystery and 338
methodological rigor 2, 314, 316, 328 and constrained pluralism 309, 318 criteria for 310 methods creative use 35, 39
  and existential faith 340, 341–2
  generate events needing explanation 145 importance of 389
  limitations of 35
  and metaphysical commitments 332
  mixing 387
  open-ended 345
  potential abuses 181
  and problem-solving 391 or problems 144
  and problems in action in research communities 310–13 problems and faith 332–48 relationship with problems 308, 319–22, 328, 389 research through multiple 235–8
  the role of 274
  training in 389
  and types of insights 322 use in tandem 9 methods choice 227, 252, 310 model of 319
  and substantive concerns of research 8
"middle ground" 317, 328 middle range 64, 321
  generalizability 59
Mill, John Stuart 38, 45, 72 minimalist democratic theory 275, 276, 279, 351, 354 modeling 22, 39, 173, 211 models 388
  abstract 319
  of action 202
  applied formal 239–44
  behaviorist reliance on 36 building 208, 212–16 derived from rational choice 208 and empirical environment 239 evaluation 208, 239
  formal 206, 239
  modification of 217
  in narratives 216
  parsimonious in analytic narrative 212 simple 389
  single case 203 theoretical restrictions on 181 modernism critique of Old Regime power 355
  democratic theory 358
Montesquieu, Charles Louis de Secondat 44, 229
Moore, Barrington 31, 202, 285 moral obligation 190, 194 moral reason, in politics 356 morality 355–7
  changes in public 360 internalism and 154
  as law 343
  and political legitimacy 355 motivation 12, 202, 382, 383
  asymmetries in 229
  internal explanation 153
  and norms 159
  other than self-interest 12 professed and real 7, 195 reasons and 192, 196
  variations in 230
Mullainathan, Sendhil 169, 176 multiple equilibria games 211, 237 multiple methods of analysis 55, 303 multivariate analysis 83, 85, 90, 100 Murray, Charles 22, 88
mysticism 336, 339

narratives 208–9, 319, 388 access to 150
  and causality 209
  characterization of situation 211 explanatory 197, 198
  information 148
  of peoplehood 61
  techniques 202, 206
Nash equilibrium 20, 180, 237, 238 nation-states 3, 45, 46, 48, 51, 358 national identity
  as political 45
  unification of formation theories 49 nationalism 4, 45, 49, 72 versus integrationism 113

© Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
0521539439 - Problems and Methods in the Study of Politics
Edited by Ian Shapiro, Rogers M. Smith, and Tarek E. Masoud
Index
More information

nations 44, 51
  rise of new 46, 49, 52
natural experiments 233
  ex ante 235
natural sciences 334, 387 natural selection 150, 334 naturalism 340
  eliminative 341
  law-like 341
naturalization 112, 125 nature
  and culture 341
  law-like model of 341
Nelson, William E. 122, 123 neo-Kantianism 343, 344, 372 neo-Lockean 354, 358 neo-Rousseauianism 354, 358 neutrality 14, 67, 76
  ethical 74
  and method-drivenness 68
Nietzsche, Friedrich 332, 341, 343, 344, 346, 348 nihilism 220, 348
Nikolova, Boriana 277, 278, 279 nomothetic analysis 319, 320 normative assumptions, revealing implicit 38 normative reasoning 189, 192, 196, 227 normativity 6, 163, 388 and deliberation 156, 162 explanation and 188
  and internalism 146, 152, 154
  and justificatory accounts 153 norms 189
  and aims 158
  of bounded rationality 161 causal force of 156
  conflicting 160
  defined 171
  epistemic 311
  internalized 170
  and rational choice 170
  and rationality 6, 158
  as rules 159
  scope limitation 365, 366 North, Douglass C. 203, 204, 205, 219
Norton, Anne 4, 14, 67–81 objectivity 76, 218, 279, 307, 317, 388 observation 233, 235, 385

  as theory-laden 3, 23–5
observational research 9, 251 biases in 252, 254, 257, 261, 266 choices to minimize bias 268 confirmation by experimentation 261 data generation in 251
  the illusion of learning from 251–71
  justifications for 263
  model specifications in 267 relationship with experimental findings 257 role of theory and methodology 252 versus experimental research 252 occupational response 28, 33 off-the-equilibrium path behavior 209, 229, 299 ontology 315, 317
  weak 333
open systems 34, 343 opinion polling 130, 186, 364 opposition 298, 353
  "loyal" 285, 294
  safety-valve arguments 291 to white supremacist regime 108 Yemeni 285
optimization 193
  or maximization 193
ordinary language 228, 236, 388 or mathematical modeling 315
  problems 324
ordinary language philosophy (Wittgensteinian) 8, 9, 13, 275, 280–3, 284, 302, 356 outcomes patterns of 29
  policy 85
  set of possible 213

paganism 337, 338, 345
paradigms better 182
  bridging 163
  exchange among 388
  scientific 313
  and self-interest 189, 194
"parametrized black boxes" 178–80 parsimony 13
participant observation 4, 53, 59, 149, 387 participation, political see political participation participatory democracy 351, 354 and positive freedom 355 paternalism 70, 352 path dependence 214–16, 219
pathologies 180–2, 184
patience, and cooperation 234 patronage politics 111, 292 payoffs 327, 388

© Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
0521539439 - Problems and Methods in the Study of Politics
Edited by Ian Shapiro, Rogers M. Smith, and Tarek E. Masoud
Index
More information

Peirce, Charles 341, 346 perceptions 23, 197 of dominant languages 55 perspectives 145, 149, 319
  deliberative 150
  description and explanation 163 empiricist epistemological 314
  new 210, 218
  and ontological claims 158 perverse effects, hypothesis of 89–91, 97 Petersen, Roger 203, 219
Peterson, Paul E. 251, 266 phenomenology 236, 317, 321, 336 philosophy 77, 80
  postmodern 49
  and religion 340
Picard, Earl 122, 123
Pierson, Paul 201, 206, 215
Pitkin, Hanna 277, 278, 281, 283, 300, 301, 356
Piven, Frances Fox 5, 83–101, 201, 386
Plato 44, 78, 332
plausibility 37, 221, 229 pluralism 163, 308, 309 constrained 10, 307–28
  and methods 68
  in political science 12 possibilities for 9–15
  and the unity of social science 318 Pocock, J. G. A. 361, 362–3
policy
  current 55, 57
  government assessments of decisions 241 multiple methods influencing 235 and social science 5, 201
  US 392
  use of term 390
policy analysis 84
  argumentative turn 84
  postpositivist 84
policy outcomes and deliberativeness 369 and philosophical premises 357 prejudging 366, 368
policy research
  ambiguous findings 99 and government interests 100 policy science 5, 83–101
  and politics 87
  and social scientists 87
policymaking, in qat chews 287
  and rational-actor models 234 political action
  economic causes 48
  kinds of 113
  and limited rationality 350 unequal impact of 137 political community
  new forms of 47
  sense of membership 60 political economy 30, 32, 45, 46, 204 scientific studies 274, 275–80 political identities 4 coercive force 60
  crafting processes 60
  different types of 63
  formation 49, 61
  mechanisms of formation on different locales 63 relation to interests 51 roles of 51
  search for unified theory 50, 63 set of explanations for 50 stories of 60
  transformation 49, 52, 54, 64
  "Unified Field Theory" 50, 60 political participation 10, 122, 136, 300, 301 black electoral 119
  and contested elections 279 in definition of democracy 279 and formation of public spheres 286 popular 107, 137
  practices 285 political philosophy 6, 351, 372, 391 political power 51, 62 of democratic ideals 352–60 effect on policy analysis 84 stories and membership 61, 63 political regimes changes and social policies 87 presumptions 106–38
political rights 357
political science
  definitions 11, 377
  dissimulation in 76
  epistemic communities in 13 ethical conduct of 67, 78 faith and methods 345 field structure 46, 51
  and immanent naturalism 346
  justification 380
  method driven 67–8
  new topics 47, 48
  as pluralistic 12
  and power 73
  problem oriented 68–9, 73, 75

© Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
0521539439 - Problems and Methods in the Study of Politics
Edited by Ian Shapiro, Rogers M. Smith, and Tarek E. Masoud
Index
More information

role in twenty-first century 42–64 as a science 2
and state and corporate interests 73 subfields 46, 381
theory-free 350, 372
in United States 3, 46
as vocation 67–81
political scientists
as externalists 146
need to differentiate from journalists 28 roles of 13, 36, 38, 39, 67–81, 391
substantive concerns 44 political story lines 91, 98, 100 political theory 46, 391
and colonialism 71
and internalism 146
predictive testing 238–44 provisionalism in 11, 350–73 role of 350–2 political thought, languages of 361, 362–3 politicians competition for campaign contributions 367 interests and policy initiatives 93 and qat chews 292
politics and decisions on goals of policy 84 methodical study of 227–44 moral 370
and policy science 87
provisionalism in the study of 350–73 questions about 236–8
and religion 47, 52, 355
and science 67, 74, 75, 76
stochastic nature 1 of unique distinctiveness 298 words and 274 politics of identity 43–52 in historical context 44 see also identity politics poor relief 87, 100 popular sovereignty 283, 288 positivism 307, 321
and causal accounts 153, 161
and externalism 146
and generality 27 versus humanism 6 postmodernism 49, 236, 317, 333 poststructuralism 68, 227 poverty
as caused by welfare policies 89 and dictatorship 275, 300, 301
measurement 97
and race 69
and regime changes 88 theories of causes 88
women and 22, 89
power 203, 356
asymmetric 388
constellations 95
and hegemony 128 identities and 57, 58
and knowledge 74, 75, 76 moral and temporal conflated 355 the operation of 69, 74, 76 political science and 73 of public speech 289 of racism 60
relations of 287, 377
in science 284
and social science 5
strategies 85
practices, semiotic 284–303 pragmatism 311, 316, 317, 321, 325 prediction
aggregate causal factors and 151 axioms and 193
capacity for 29
despite choice element 152 electoral 231
and externalism 146
failure of 243
in field experiments 34 and free will 29
and game theory 8
and method-drivenness 36
and problem selection 30 and prophecy 243
rational choice models and political 8, 221 real-time versus post-diction 240 and secular changes 32
as a sorting criterion 28–36 predictive tests 39, 238–44 preferences 284, 335
assumptions about parameters 178
and beliefs 155
genesis of 7
mapping attributes onto 176–7
as normative 160
as random variables 157
and variants of rational choice theory 156 see also desires Preston, Michael 122
presuppositions 37, 284, 332 Prisoner's Dilemma 145, 213, 388
repeated 233, 234
private/public division 333, 354

© Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
0521539439 - Problems and Methods in the Study of Politics
Edited by Ian Shapiro, Rogers M. Smith, and Tarek E. Masoud
Index
More information

problem selection 20 prediction and 30
problem-driven research 389 alternatives in 25
  creates problems 75
  and established interests 73 ethics of 68–9
problem-drivenness 1, 14, 19, 42, 303, 332, 394
  compared with method-drivenness 78 compared with theory-drivenness 21–3 problem–method divide 2 problem orientation 310 problem-solving 308 Habermas on 77
  and methods 391
problematics 339
  contending 332–40
  diversity of 346
  hegemony of 340
problematizing redescription 3, 5, 38, 39
problems
  analytic and concrete 324 analytic narrative approach 201–21 characterizations of 14, 22, 25, 28, 39, 45, 211 choosing 208
  complexity 236
  concrete and analytic 309 created by political science 75
  definitions 125
  framing 193
  identification 40
  and immanent naturalism 344
  inadequate specification of 201 insights into 390
  or methods 144
  and methods in action in research communities 310–13 methods and faith 332–48 midrange 11
  more complex 324
  of multiple equilibria 205 outdated 3 people being classed as 73 perception of 23
  real-world 14, 239–44, 311, 327 recomplexifying 324, 325 relationship with methods 308, 319–22, 328, 389 uniqueness of 204
proceduralism
  formal 367, 368
  "thick" 368
process 202
  and context 208
  tracing 205, 214, 217 progress 71, 203, 230, 308, 313, 328 indicators of 326
  possibility of 11, 353
propositions falsifiable 315
  generalized 321
  guiding policy research 89, 97 logic of 227
  and rationality norms 160 rigorous logical 315 prospect theory 243
provisionalism
  in deliberative theory 364–70 in the study of politics 11, 350–73 and value pluralism 11
Przeworski, Adam 10, 30, 31, 282, 297, 299 psychology 26, 167, 171, 237
  Afro-American studies 135
  assumptions about 7, 168–70, 179, 183
  and economics 176
public debate 287
  social scientists and 201 public good 354, 365, 388 public opinion 176, 268, 360
  black 128, 132
  presidential popularity and 267 public policy 354 deliberation and justification 297 public sphere and deliberative democratic theory 352 dynamics of argument in the 361, 372 empowering 363, 364 expansion of 365
  global 359, 370–2 Habermas' formulation 286, 287, 288, 296, 299
  the historical 360–4
  Kantian 362, 372
  and legitimacy 290 lived experience in 285–302 narrow 354
  and political participation 286
  subaltern or counter 289 subjectivity in the 296 public/private divide 333, 354 publicity 354, 358
Putnam, Robert D. 290, 369

qat chews 10, 285–302 qualitative research 1, 13, 53, 59, 315, 386, 389 application of game theory 312

© Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
0521539439 - Problems and Methods in the Study of Politics
Edited by Ian Shapiro, Rogers M. Smith, and Tarek E. Masoud
Index
More information

quantitative research 1, 55, 182, 211, 236, 386 quantum mechanics 172, 379 quasi-experiments 230, 232 questions 387
  about politics 236–8
  kinds of 274
  politically motivated 90 raising different 38

Rabinow, Paul 284, 317
race 71
  in black politics 111
  and class 72, 109, 111, 115, 116, 118, 121, 122, 126, 129, 134
  and poverty 69
racial advancement rhetoric 120, 121, 123, 124, 128, 130, 133, 134, 136 racial authenticity 116, 118, 129, 130, 131, 133, 135 and conservatism 133
racial cohesion, as a norm 124, 125 racial consciousness education and 126
  kinds and degrees 126, 132 and political differentiation 124 and upward mobility 131 racial discrimination 118 and economic choices 55
  institutionalized 113
racial identity
  assumptions in 118, 119–21, 126, 131
  and class identity 132
  "common fate" 131, 132, 133 politics of 117 racial subordination context of 115
  and ideological justification 115 racism 60, 113, 114 radical empiricism 339, 346
Ragin, Charles 321
randomization 9, 157, 232, 252, 262
  bias in 266
  consequences of 251
rational actor models empirical application 239–44
  limitations of 243
  and policymaking 234
  predictive accuracy 241 rational choice
  analytic narrative project 204, 216 behaviorism and cognitive choice 167–8 broad definition 168
  and comparative and historical analysis 204 criticisms within broad paradigm 171–6
  and game theory 167
  hard 168–70, 183
  and inductive practices 205 like statistics 167 maximization behavior 192, 335 as a methodology 167
  and norms 170
  as a paradigm 167–71
  soft 170
  and structural conditions 168 as a theory 167
  "tipping model" analysis 54, 55 rational choice analysis 167–84 methodology of 177–83 rational choice models, and political predictions 8, 244 rational choice theory 1, 2, 27, 202 and assumptions about human psychology 7, 168–70, 183 Cox's expansionist version 7, 167–84
  and empiricism 335
  and historical analysis 205
  and institutions 194
  internal and external explanation 6, 144–61, 162, 163 and interpretation 337
  Laitin's model 56
  limitations of 52–9, 186–99, 213, 238
  methods or techniques 186 need for total explicability 344 portability of findings 218 predictions 28 preferences and variants of 156 and problematizing redescription 39 reconceptualization of 6
  regulative ideal 335
  restricting role of 156
  Ryan's rationalizability thesis 7 social ontology of 157–61 versus psychoanalysis 68 without mathematics 388 rational explanation and causal explanation 189 limits 186–99
rationalization 123, 187–91, 195 mistakes in 191–2
  normative 189, 192, 196
  types of 187–91
rationality assumption 12, 13, 206
  and context 384
  deliberative and choice 160 in game theory 180
  imperfect 159

© Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
0521539439 - Problems and Methods in the Study of Politics
Edited by Ian Shapiro, Rogers M. Smith, and Tarek E. Masoud
Index
More information

rationality (cont.)
limits on 161–2, 179
machines designed to implement a norm of 157 means–ends (Zweck) 196 mental model of explanations 157 as a norm 6, 158, 160
as a property 158, 160
types of 54
value-implementing (Wert) 196 see also bounded rationality; expressive rationality; hyperrationality; instrumental rationality rationality hypothesis 382 as internal and external explanation 160 as a rule 159 thick and thin 157
Rawls, John 279, 358, 372
Ray, James 242, 244
real-world problems 14, 239–44, 311, 327, 390, 391, 392, 393 realism 315
and constructivism 310
"theoretical" 315, 316, 321
reality 25, 239 reason
public use of 288
transcendental 344
reasoning
counterfactual 237
flaws in 228
in the public sphere 360
reasons
and beliefs 153
and causes 189
and motivation 192
objective 188
outweighed 188, 189
and "real" reasons 195 reciprocity 12, 354, 370, 372, 382, 383 egalitarian 298
Reconstruction era 69–71, 107 redescription, problematizing 3, 5, 38, 39 reductionism 7, 12, 26, 380, 382 Reed, Adolph, Jr 5, 48, 106–38 reflection 44, 295 regime change 207, 283
and shifts in social policy 87 regime type
and economic development 274
impact on economic well-being 275, 280 and tolerated practices 291, 298 and war proneness 231–2 regional political bodies 46 regression bivariate linear 178 instrumental variables 259 standard errors 257 regression analysis 259 reification 52, 128 relational patterns 206, 235 relativism 317, 321 reliability 240, 244
religion and civil authority 44
history of conflict 340 and philosophy 340
and politics 47, 52, 355
replication 230, 264, 315, 318
of statistical analysis 314 representation, substantive 277, 278, 286 representative government 45, 277, 283 Republicans 107, 110
Black and Tan 111, 124 and the poverty problem 88 and welfare reform 94–5 research biases 253
design criteria 205
as political performance 84–98 through multiple methods 235–8 research communities 10, 307–28
compartmentalization of 324
and eclecticism 328
ideal-typical 308, 312, 318
and methodological rigor 318
and methods 68
payoffs, limitations and tradeoffs 327 problem and method in action 310–13 roles in division of labor 309 research funding 72, 73, 74, 310 research products collective 319 presentation and evaluation of 311 varieties 320
research programs 313 conditions of success 270
research projects
choice of 182
political aspects of 74 resistance 43, 76
resource allocation 252
between observational and experimental research 261
and eclecticism 326
to minimize the posterior variance of M 261–3 responsiveness 144, 277, 278

© Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
0521539439 - Problems and Methods in the Study of Politics
Edited by Ian Shapiro, Rogers M. Smith, and Tarek E. Masoud
Index
More information

rhetoric
political 116, 229, 285, 388
of racial advancement 108, 116, 123, 124
Riker's theory 229
Rice, Condoleeza 229
Ricoeur, Paul 317, 336
rights
aboriginal 47
new 344
of people to be wrong 367 personal 44 positive 358
violation of international 352 Riker, William 219, 229 Roemer, John 22, 23, 393 roles political of political scientists 67 similarity of 312
Roman Catholic Church 44, 235, 334
Rosenthal, Jean-Laurent 201, 203, 207, 210, 212, 215, 219, 220
Rousseau, Jean-Jacques 44
Rubin, Donald B. 251, 263, 265
Rudolph, Lloyd 387, 389
Rudolph, Susanne Hoeber 11, 13, 385–8, 389, 390
Rudwick, Elliott M. 110
Rueschemeyer, Dietrich 31, 218 rule following 158, 161 and rationality hypothesis 159 rules, institutions as 205 Russell, Bertrand 332
Russett, Bruce 231, 242, 244
Ryan, Alan 7, 186–99, 391

Sacerdote, Bruce I. 251, 263
Said, Edward 78
Salih, 'Ali 'Abd Allah 298, 299 samples biased 267
convenience and non-random 267 sampling 387
comparisons between methodologies 267 Sanderson, Stephen K. 307, 326
Satz, Debra 163, 167, 168
Scharpf, Fritz 201, 202
Schelling, Thomas 14, 55, 234, 393 scholars
as activists 67, 68, 79 hiring 390
individual 308, 311
investment of 33, 40
reputations 312
social responsibility 391 scholarship agnostic 79
ascetic 79
and democracy 80
and journalism 392
as navel-gazing 69, 71
new unified tradition of 323 Schumpeter, Joseph 38, 275, 282, 354 science 307
defined as application of methods to problems 183
importance of 274
political science as a 2
and politics 67, 74, 75, 76
power in 284
responses 27
and social policy 83
scientific method 13, 67–8, 386 Scott, James 43, 53, 84, 201, 202, 205 security 51, 355, 356
segregation era 106, 112, 130 selection bias 177, 236, 315
self-interest 1, 109, 159, 188, 189, 192
citizens' 288
maximization of 12
motivations other than 12, 194, 199 paradigms and 189, 194
self-regarding or selfish 195 self-organization 341, 342
self-rule
democratic 355, 358, 367, 369
preconditions for 367
Sen, Amartya 186, 192, 193 sequence
of action 148
of empirical results 270 of events 208, 214
signification 274, 280, 338
Sikkink, Kathryn 359, 371–2 Sil, Rudra 10, 307–28, 390 simplification 62, 83, 217, 302 Skocpol, Theda 87, 202 slavery 208, 211, 360, 366, 369 slaves
former 69
freed 107
as potential democratic subjects 70 small-N comparisons 203, 321
Smith, Jeffrey A. 252, 259, 265
Smith, Robert 122, 130
Smith, Rogers M. i, 1–15, 36, 38, 42–64, 389, 390 social class see class

© Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
0521539439 - Problems and Methods in the Study of Politics
Edited by Ian Shapiro, Rogers M. Smith, and Tarek E. Masoud
Index
More information

social constructs 174, 175 social distance theory 56, 58 social movements 49, 344 and liberal democracy 87 new ideas and terms 363 transnational 47
social ontology, of rational choice theory 157–61 social policy
  cutbacks 88
  economic consequences 93 justification of experiments 100 liberalization 89
  and science 83
  shifts with regime changes 87
social problems 83
  theories about causes of 87, 88 social psychology 49
social science
  and cognitive science 176
  and colonialism 71
  division of labor 203
  fallibilism in 11
  framework for unity 327 and government policy 5 and humanism 146
  and power 5
  problems or methods 144 relevance of 201, 203
  as a resource 84
  role of explanatory theories 59–64 and search for general explanations 27 standards in research 203 theories and real-world problems 392 as a "unified" enterprise 10 unity of 308, 313, 314 unity and pluralism 318, 319 social scientists
  and policy science 87
  role 201
  use of multivariate analysis 83 socialism 45, 116
society
  priority over state 354 state and the economy 87 versus community 312
sociobiology 27, 176
sociology 49, 170, 187
  black studies discourse 135 classical 312
  historical 315
solidarity 12
  black racial 117, 119
  mechanical 318
  organic 318
Somers, Margaret 87, 202, 315
Sophocles 332
South Africa 29, 47
Spinoza, Baruch 332, 344 standards 335
  evaluative and methodological assumptions 324
  methodological 311, 322
  normative 357, 365, 366
  procedural 354
state 377
  and the academy 72
  broadening scope of legitimate activity 355 and citizens' self-interest 288
  interests 73, 74
  and moral issues 355
  myth of neutrality 355 society and the economy 87 statistical analysis 12, 53, 206, 244, 382, 387 causal inferences in 210 general patterns 231
  large-N studies 8, 227, 230–2, 268
  replication of 314
statistics 1, 177, 206
  government 86
  potential abuses 181
  unavailability or inadequacy 206
status 4
  motivation 159
  regime change and policy science 87
  transformations 47
status quo, privileging the 355, 368
Stein, Judith 107, 110, 113
Stokman, Frans 233, 239–40, 241
stories 383, 388
  American racial 62
  ethically constitutive 61, 62, 63
  of peoplehood 61
strategic choice 211
strategies 85, 237
structural-equation modeling 178
  and equilibrium concepts 180
subgame perfect equilibrium 180, 205, 211, 237 subject corporate racial 112, 114, 115, 117, 120, 134 created by institutions 75 formation of political 298
  "Negro" as collective 112, 134 as object of research 73
  thin concept of the reasoning 359

© Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
0521539439 - Problems and Methods in the Study of Politics
Edited by Ian Shapiro, Rogers M. Smith, and Tarek E. Masoud
Index
More information

subject choice 68 influence of theory on 3 subjectivity
  in democracy 288
  in the family 289
  and institutions 288
  in public debate 287
  in the public sphere 296, 299
  of researcher 318
  and truth 317
Sullivan, William 284, 317
Sunstein, Cass R. 357, 367 survey research 259, 267, 387 example of good 387 symbols 114, 284, 285, 302 systems in disequilibrium 341
  of equations 178, 183

Tarrow, Sidney 201, 202, 206, 219, 220 tastes, methodological 14, 228 Taylor, Charles 36, 332, 333, 336 teleology 116 temporal sequencing 205, 209 temporality 205, 208, 243 textual analysis 4, 53, 316 textual criticism 1, 9 Thelen, Kathleen 215 theoretical assumptions 39, 269 theoretical commitment 25, 210 theoretical frameworks 42, 60, 64, 89, 393 theories
  of behavior and causes 151 innovative 392, 393
theory 386, 388
  and description 233 developing good 394
  evaluation of 230
  explanation and social engineering 239 influence of 27
  influence on subject choice 3
  simple 389
  transhistorical 64
  the value of 269–70
  vindication of particular 23 theory-drivenness accounts 21–2, 25
  compared with problem-drivenness 21–3
  and method-drivenness 20
  as reductionist 26
theory-ladenness
  and capacity for prediction 28 of description 23, 28
  of empirical research 2, 19 of observation 3, 23–5
thick description 13, 284, 313, 317, 388 thinking 158, 283, 284
  and identity 295
  and language 284
  representative 289
Thomas, Clarence 129, 133
Thompson, Daniel C. 119, 120
Thompson, Dennis 352, 353, 354–6, 358, 359, 360, 366, 368, 369, 370, 372 Tilly, Charles 201, 202, 203, 206, 219, 220 totalitarianism 68, 72, 77, 81 transcendence 336, 339
transitions to democracy 21, 288, 299, 301, 302 translation 317, 328
transnational actors 358, 371 transnational social movements 47 transnationalism 48, 52
treatment effects 265, 267 Tversky, Amos 177, 243
Twain, Mark 167, 181

Ullmann-Margalit, E. 171, 175 uncertainty 67, 206, 211–12, 214, 217, 220, 337, 342, 380
  ex-ante 276
  extrapolation and 269
  statistical 252
  theoretical 252
understanding 145, 316
  explanatory 317
unintended consequences 8, 206 union activism 110
United States
  black politics in the South 106–38 contract law 154
  elections (1800) 146
  exceptionalism 36
  foreign policy 234, 294 GI Bill 72 interest in racial problems 69 interventions in Yemen 300, 301
  liberalism 279
  as paradigmatic nation-state 46
  policy 392
  political science in 3
  racial hierarchy 47
  Supreme Court 357, 367
  and USSR 46

© Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
0521539439 - Problems and Methods in the Study of Politics
Edited by Ian Shapiro, Rogers M. Smith, and Tarek E. Masoud
Index
More information

universality 62, 369
Urban Institute 90
urban politics 107
  and black politics 123
USSR
  collapse of 46
  Russian-speakers in 54
  and US 46
utilitarianism 45, 159, 357 utility act-contingent 170
  consummative 168
  instrumental 168, 170
  use of term 193
utility-maximization 180, 190, 192, 193

validity
  external 34, 231, 232, 263, 265
  or generality 27
value added 19, 58, 309, 311 values 154, 284
  consequences of 197
  democratic and participatory 136
  and political science 350
  selection of "neutral" 356 variables in case selection 210 dependent 251
  endogenous and exogenous changes 215
  explanatory 145
  identification of narrow range 86 identifying key 83
  selective 91, 99
  social facts as 315
Verba, Sidney 10, 42, 206, 210, 251, 313, 314 violence, displacement of political with discourse 296, 300, 301 vocabularies different analytic 322
  migration of 388
  shift in 364
voter preferences 33, 94
  assumptions about 22, 23
voter turnout 34, 170
  canvassing and 259, 264
voters, "new black" 119, 124, 126, 129 voting
  and class 188
  costs and benefits 19
  as enactment of commitment 191 majority 190
  rights 359
  statistics 86

wages, downward rigidity 12, 382–5 war
  and democracies 232 explanations for 147 hegemonic 230
  large-N studies 148
  power-transition 230 predictions about the incidence of 32 proneness and regime type 231–2
  theories 355
ways of life 54 alternative 44
  ethical 78
wealth-maximization 54, 160
Weber, Max 67, 74, 76, 79, 194, 196, 229, 317
Weingast, Barry 201, 203, 205, 207, 210, 211, 215, 216, 218, 219 Weir, Shelagh 291, 292, 293, 294 welfare benefit levels and divorce 90 benefits, poor women and children 22 block grants 95
  cutbacks 88, 94, 95
  impact on work behavior 91–2 and labor market conditions 97 to work policy 92
  value of benefits 90
  and work as mutually exclusive 96 welfare policies 5, 86, 92, 369
  as causes of poverty 89
  impact research 90
  and out-of-wedlock births 90–1, 98 welfare reform 5
  findings as vindication of policy 97
  impact research 96
  uses of policy science in 84, 94 welfare state administration and official statistics 87–9 and employment 199
well-being, interests in material 62 Wendt, Alexander 49, 315 white supremacist regime 62, 106 accommodation to 108 opposition to 108
whiteness
  new racial order based on 71 public and psychological wage for 62 as standard for freed slaves 70 Wittgenstein, Ludwig 23, 78, 158, 280–3, 385 ordinary language philosophy 9, 275, 280–3, 284, 302, 356 Wohlstetter, Albert 14, 392, 393

© Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
0521539439 - Problems and Methods in the Study of Politics
Edited by Ian Shapiro, Rogers M. Smith, and Tarek E. Masoud
Index
More information

women
  move from welfare to work policy 92
  and poverty 22, 89
  subordination of 72
Woodward, C.Vann 109, 110
work impact of welfare incentives on behavior 91–2 and welfare as mutually exclusive 96

Yeltsin, Boris 229
Yemen 387
  civil war (1994) 294, 297, 300, 301 poverty in 300, 301
  qat chew 10, 285–302
Yemen Arab Republic 293, 294
Young, Iris Marion 277, 286, 289, 359, 369

Zaller, John 169, 176

© Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org