CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-0-521-67416-4 - Agents, Structures and International Relations: Politics as Ontology
Colin Wight
Index
More information

Index

activity/ies
  nature/intent 263–264 relationship with structure 143 see also individuals; situated activity; social action actor–network theory 181 actors
  distinguished from agents 189–190, 192–193, 262–263 and interpretations, as focus of society 249–251, 267–268 states as 189, 191–192, 221–222 agency defining features 142, 206 dual sense 212
  entities possessing 181–182, 201
  and IR theory 11, 178
  multi-layered 210–215, 222, 224, 281, 296, 299 relationship with structure(s) 120, 175–176, 210–212, 281, 293, 295–296 (social) theory/models 11, 178–180, 199, 205–211, 214, 215 see also agent–structure problem; agents; choices; identity; social context; structure agent–structure problem 3–5, 7–8, 15, 294 attempts at solution 63–71, 72, 101–102, 135–137, 192, 198–199, 292–293 basis 99–102, 291
  bypassing 154–155
  confusion over nature 282 correct specification 90 denial of solution 85–86, 88, 206 dimensions 85
  and explanation of social phenomena 287 integration of both elements 243–244, 280–282, 293
  in IR theory 9–10, 187–188 modes of investigation 120
  social context 10
  see also agency; epistemology; individualism; level-of-analysis problem; methodology; ontology; outcomes; structuralism; structure; time/space context agents accounts by 267–268
  intrinsic properties 166, 167–168 see also actors
AIDS 160
Alexander, Jeffrey 102
aliens, communication with 239 Althusser, Louis 76, 123, 124, 209 anarchy 135, 293
Aquinas, St Thomas 233
Archer, Margaret 69, 70, 71, 81, 102, 104, 144, 146, 152, 212–213, 287 Aristotle 233
army 115
  see also war
Ashley, Richard 74–75, 81–82, 94, 96–98, 99, 123–124, 135
Austin, John 139, 237
Avenarius, Richard 208–209

Bacon, Francis 234
'Bad King John' theory see individuals: relationship with society Balibar, Étienne 208 behaviour, structure as patterns of 127–129, 131 behaviouralism 259–260 beliefs, role in social science 243, 276, 279

© Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-0-521-67416-4 - Agents, Structures and International Relations: Politics as Ontology
Colin Wight
Index
More information

Benhabib, Seyla 209
Benjamin, Roger, and Raymond Duvall 193
Benton, Ted 55
Berger, Peter L., and Thomas Luckmann 68–69
Berkeley, George 234
Bertalanaffy, Ludwig von 109
Bhaskar, Roy 17, 23, 28, 29, 32, 36, 49, 53, 55, 57, 68, 69, 70, 71, 79, 99, 139, 145, 146, 164, 165, 168, 169–170, 174, 187, 195, 205, 214–215, 230, 264–266, 273–274, 282 account of agency 211–212, 213–214 Bhopal chemical disaster 197
Bieler, Andrea, and Adam David Morton 84–85 biology 229
Blair, Tony 5, 219
Blau, Peter 124
Bosanquet, Bernard 182
Boudon, Raymond 123, 257, 258–261
Bourdieu, Pierre 48–49, 69, 86–88, 108, 151, 243
BP (British Petroleum) 195–196
'bracketing' 78–79, 111, 287–288
Brzozowski, Stanislaw 209
Buckley, Walter 69
Bull, Hedley 129, 138, 185, 202, 216
Bunge, Mario 36, 110–111, 112
Bush, George (Sr.) 280–281
Bush, George W. 5
Butler, Judith 207
Butler, Lord, of Brockwell (Butler Inquiry) 5–6
Buzan, Barry 109, 206, 212

Callinicos, Alex 138
capitalism 75–76, 150, 202–203
Carlsnaes, Walter 77, 80–82, 192, 218, 226, 230, 251, 279–280 Carr, E. H. 16, 72–74, 91, 100–101 causality 21–23, 28, 29–32, 61, 166, 272–279
  defined 275
  multi-level explanations 46 positivist view 30–32
  realist view 51–52
  and relationship patterns 146–147 see also Hume, David; outcomes; reasons; structural understanding certainty, impossibility of see knowledge: fallibility Chernobyl 283
Chernoff, Fred 18, 28–29 chess 149, 150, 276, 277
Chicago School 259–260, 266
Chisholm, Roderick 241 choices, relationship with structures 280–281 Clark, Ian 110
class, role in social structure 164 cognitivism 21
Cohen, Ira 145–146, 149
Cold War 274, 281, 282 collective(s)
  action/agency 184, 185–188 consciousness 66
  distinguished from individuals 196–198 personality 195–196
  see also corporate agency; corporate responsibility collectivism 182
Collier, Andrew 53–54, 218
Collins, Randall 127–128
Comte, Auguste 208, 235 concept dependency (of social structures) 55–57, 58 (in)applicability 56
constitutive theory 117, 266–267 constructivism 128, 137, 157, 162–163, 264, 268, 291–292, 295, 297–298 context 114, 116
  layers of 115
  see also social context continental (structuralist) tradition 123–126, 132, 133–134 control mechanism(s) 33–34 Coopjec, Joan 208
corporate agency, role in state theory 183–184, 185–188, 191 see also corporate responsibility; identity; individuals; institutions; organisations corporate responsibility 194 cosmology 229
cot deaths 245, 246
counter-phenomenality 35 covering law see D-N model Cox, Robert W. 3, 82, 84, 138
Craib, Ian 152

D-N model 21, 22, 34, 130 decision structure, role in state theory 183, 184–185 deconstructionism 260 dependency, culture of 146–147, 150 depth realism 28–29, 35–37 implications for knowledge theory 37–39
Derrida, Jacques 134–135, 227, 260, 268

© Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-0-521-67416-4 - Agents, Structures and International Relations: Politics as Ontology
Colin Wight
Index
More information

Descartes, René/Cartesian theory 15, 24, 158, 161, 208, 215, 234 Dessler, David 77, 79, 80, 91, 92–93, 97–98, 138–139, 143, 144, 154, 158, 169, 190, 192, 218, 226, 230, 279–280, 287–288 determinism 74–75
  rejection of 82–83
Deutsch, Karl 191
Dewey, John 236
diagrammatic representations 85–87, 262 Dilthey, Wilhelm 263 diplomacy 214
dissent, (lack of) role in state theory 183
DNA 117
Doty, Roxanne Lynn 27, 63, 81–83, 135–136
Dreitzel, H. P. 271
Durkheim, Emile 63, 64, 66–67, 118–119, 125, 129–130, 131, 132, 136, 156, 160, 163–164 influence on later thinkers 74, 76, 98, 104, 124–126, 131, 132, 137, 207 Duvall, Raymond 189
  see also Benjamin, Roger

Easton, David 180, 182, 216–217 ecology 163, 297
economics, global 198
  see also capitalism; dependency; poverty Einstein, Albert 108, 242
Elias, Norbert 241
elites see government emergence 110–111, 113, 145, 146, 188, 224–225 opposition to 145–146
empirical realism 248
empiricism 25, 216–217, 232, 233, 239–240, 259, 267 errors of 28, 34–35, 253 terminology 34–35
  see also epistemology
English School 137–138
Epicureanism 233
epistemological relativism 26, 39–40, 52–53
'epistemological shield' 228–229 epistemology/ies 11–12, 25–26
  and agent–structure problem 73, 85, 99–101, 226–231, 281
  areas of operation 246–247 basis of approach to 240–241 benefits of eclectic approach 241–242
  and causality 273
  hierarchy 241
  historical (philosophical) approaches 228, 230, 231, 232, 238 importance within IR studies 2–3, 8–9, 295
  limitations 251–252, 253
  misconceptions 227, 248–249 as mutually exclusive 238, 273 overlap between approaches 227, 242 rationalist vs. empiricist 227, 229, 233–235, 240, 250–251 relationship with ontology 7, 26–27, 56–57, 227–228, 230–231, 243–244, 245–246, 247, 253, 255–256 research value 227–228, 249 see also methodology essentialism 182
experimental activity/knowledge 30 explanation
  forms of 243, 244
  gaps in 275–279
  see also understanding
external relations see internal/external relations

Falklands war 172
fallibilism 24, 45
  and realism 37–38
  see also science false beliefs, holding/correction 57–58 feminist theory 295
Feyerabend, Paul 25, 217, 237, 240, 241–242, 251
Foucault, Michel 50, 59, 207, 223, 227, 295 freedom 59
French, Peter 194, 201, 205
French Revolution 285, 286
Freud, Sigmund 126, 131
Friedman, Gil, and Harvey Starr 71–72, 255 friendship 56

Gellner, Ernest 266
gender see feminist theory; social relations; states; war
'gestalt switch' 42
Giddens, Anthony 17, 47, 69, 71, 78, 79, 80–81, 137, 138, 140–146, 148, 149, 151–152, 155, 157, 162, 164, 165, 174, 177, 218, 246–247, 249–251, 268–270 influence on later thinkers 139
Gilbert, Margaret 201
Goffman, Erving 149
Gorbachev, Mikhail 100, 114, 189, 281
Gorgias 232

© Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-0-521-67416-4 - Agents, Structures and International Relations: Politics as Ontology
Colin Wight
Index
More information

government
  relationship with state 182–183, 191
  as synonym for state 216 Gramsci, Anton 84, 138
Greece (ancient), philosophy 232–233 groups 185–187, 201–202 and agency potential 213
Guzzini, Stefano 44

Haack, Susan 240–241
Haas, Ernst 199
Habermas, Jürgen 137, 278
habitus 48–49, 204
Hamilton, Richard F. 52, 69
Harding, Sandra 36–37
Harré, Rom 210–211
Hayek, F. A. 251
Hegel, Georg Wilhelm Friedrich 180, 182, 235 Heidegger, Martin 126
hermeneutics 56, 57–58, 265–266, 272, 275–276, 278–279 heterarchy 223
Hirohito, Emperor 168–169 historical understanding/explanation 12, 283–289 see also structural understanding historicism 84, 138
  see also 'structural-historical' analysis Hobbes, Thomas 76, 180
Hollis, Martin 239, 243, 244, 249, 271, 275, 276, 279 and Steve Smith 17, 72, 77, 85–86, 88, 92–93, 100, 101, 102, 106, 107, 118, 120, 139–140, 217, 226, 230–231, 246–247, 248–249, 250–253, 255–256, 261–265, 267, 271, 272–275, 278, 279, 280, 281–283, 287 Homans, George C. 128
'Homo economicus' 262–263
Howard, Michael 5
Hume, David 21–22, 24, 28, 29, 30, 34, 168, 208, 234–235, 237, 272–273 Husserl, Edmund 126, 236

idealism 234, 252–253
'ideas', role in social/IR theory 156, 161, 276–277 identity 83–84
  corporate 190–191
  problematisation of 207 relationship with agency 215
IMF (International Monetary Fund) 147 incommensurability 40, 242
  objections to 40–45
individualism 47, 49, 51, 64–66, 127–128, 131, 144, 168, 178
  and agent–structure problem 72–74, 76–77
  attempts to integrate with structuralism 68–69
  in IR theory 199, 202
  limitations 77, 101–102, 119
  rejection 154, 210
individuals
  action(s) 62, 99, 105–106, 200 irrelevance to structural understanding 283–284 as objects of study 65 relationship with groups 185–187 relationship with society 48–51, 62, 66–67, 73–74, 298–299
  relationship with state 183–187, 188–189 responsibility for corporate action 205 social position 113
  see also collectives induction, problem of 235 injustice, identification/remedying 162 institutions 220–221
  as agent/structure 204
  defined 202–203
  in IR theory 202
'instrumental theory' (of state) 199 instrumentalism 21–22, 97, 191 intentionality 185–187, 274–275 see also collectives; corporate agency; groups internal/external relations 165–167, 168, 170–171, 173, 276–277 asymmetric 171
  defined 169–170
international relations 37 complexity 294
  structure 11
  vs. domestic politics 292
  see also IR theory interpretivism 246–247, 268, 271 intersubjectivity 137, 155–163, 297 interviews 265
IR theory academic study programmes 42 acounts of structure 128–129, 150–155 and agency–structure problem 72–89, 138
  and causality 278
  central debates 1–2, 15–16, 90 as distinct discipline 177 dominant modes of thought 1
  epistemology 238

© Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-0-521-67416-4 - Agents, Structures and International Relations: Politics as Ontology
Colin Wight
Index
More information

IR theory (cont.)
future directions 291–292, 293–295, 299 general theory, (im)possibility of 8, 256, 294–295 historical development 2–3, 291–293 and level-of-analysis problem 116 neglected areas 11
new approaches 1, 225
role in research process 295
as science/non-science 4, 8, 9, 11, 18–19 and the state 177–180, 215–218 terminology 40
see also states
Iraq 170–171, 215

Jackson, Patrick T. 181–191 and Nexon, Daniel H. 83–84
James, William 236, 240
Jessop, Bob 187–188, 222 judgemental rationalism 26, 40, 52–53 grounds for acceptance 44–45
objections to 44

Kant, Immanuel 15, 23, 24–25, 193, 207, 235, 237, 273 Keohane, Robert 138, 178 see also King, Gary Kim, Yoo Shin 116
King, Gary, Robert Keohane and Sidney Verba 19, 30–31, 32–33, 34 knowledge (difficulty of) definition 240 fallibility 228, 240–241, 242–243
forms of 235, 239–240, 243 history of approaches to 231–238 (methods of) attainment 51–53, 259–261, 271 processes of construction 37–39, 57, 248 progression/regression 241 scientific, distinguished from other forms 18, 61 as social product 37, 61, 248–249 value/limitations 59–60, 249–250 Kolakowski, Leszek 208
Kontopoulos, Kyriakos M. 122
Krasner, Stephen D. 17
Kratochwil, Friedrich 3, 79–80, 137, 139, 157–158, 226, 264
Krige, John 44
Kubálková, Vendulka 128, 139, 154–155
Kuhn, Thomas S. 40, 42, 44, 237

Lakatos, Imre 41
language(s) 47
communication across 44 lay vs. scientific 266, 268–271 role in social activity 264, 278, 297 see also linguistic turn Lavoisier, Antoine 41
'law-like regularities', structure as 129–131, 132, 275
Lawrence, Stephen 6
Lawson, Tony 248
Layder, Derek 112, 143, 154, 238, 247, 248–249
Le Bon, Gustav 195
legal person, state as 196–198
Legro, Jeffrey W. 83
Leibniz, Gottfried Wilhelm 234 Lenin (V. I. Ulyanov) 160 level-of-analysis problem 92, 102–118 definition of levels 111–112 distinguished from agent–structure problem 106, 119 number of levels 106–107 relationship between levels 109–112 relationship with agent–structure/micro–macro problems 104–106, 107, 109, 116, 117–118, 119 scope for further research 112–113 see also time/space context Lévi-Strauss, Claude 124 linguistic turn 133–134, 135, 137–138, 139, 165, 236, 237 Little, Richard see McKinlay, R. D.
Lloyd, Christopher 286
Locke, John 194, 207, 234 logical positivism (logical empiricism) 236 Louch, A. R. 275
Luckmann, Thomas see Berger, Peter L.
Luhmann, Niklas 69
Lukes, Steven 213

MacIntyre, Alasdair 277–278
McKinlay, R. D., and Richard Little 40
McKinney, J. C. 258
Macpherson, Sir William (Macpherson report) 6, 204
McSweeney, Bill 74–75
Manning, Charles 198
marriage 56
Marx, Karl/Marxist theory 123, 126, 163–164, 173, 174, 175, 185, 220, 266, 290, 294 Masterman, Margaret 40 material relations/issues 149–151, 157, 296–297, 298, 299
vs. ideological 160–163, 298–299

© Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-0-521-67416-4 - Agents, Structures and International Relations: Politics as Ontology
Colin Wight
Index
More information

materialism see objectivism; 'rump materialism' matrices see diagrammatic representations Mauss, Marcel 207 meaning(s), as root of social interaction 133, 161–162, 267, 272, 278
  see also intersubjectivity mechanism(s)
  and causality 31–32, 33, 34
  explanation 36–37
  as ontological 32–33
  see also control mechanism(s) Meno paradox 247–248
Merleau-Ponty, Maurice 126
Merton, Robert 122, 123, 124 methodological individualism 71–72, 94, 115, 195, 279 errors/limitations 201, 255, 280
  and state theory 180–181, 185–186
  vs. methodological structuralism 62, 64, 66
  vs. ontological individualism 67 methodological structuralism 75, 115, 130, 279
  errors/limitations 188, 280
  see also methodological individualism methodology 12, 16, 25
  and agent–structure problem 85, 255–257, 279–280, 287–288, 293
  and causality 278
  definitions 257–260
  and forms of understanding 251, 286–287
  limitations 71
  relationship with epistemology 227, 230, 231, 244, 245, 246, 255–256, 260–261
  relationship with ontology 81, 144, 246, 253, 258–259, 260, 261 relationship with research 257, 261 see also methodological individualism; positivism Metropolitan Police 204 micro–macro problem 103, 104–105, 115, 116–118 see also level-of-analysis problem Middle Ages 233
Miliband, Ralph 182
Miller, Seumas 200
moral responsibility 193–194, 197–198, 205 individual 210–211
Morgenthau, Hans 76–77
morphogenetic theory 69, 70–71, 81, 287 morphology 125–126, 156
Morton, Adam David see Bieler, Andrea motivation 147–149, 272, 275 importance of research into 275–276 Moul, W. B. 103

narratives 288
natural disasters 161
natural sciences
  compared with IR 8
  compared with social sciences 16–17, 52–59, 61 distinguished from social sciences 226, 229–230, 263–265, 272, 286–288 naturalism 15–17, 21, 85–86, 244, 279
  limitations 53, 59
  scientific realist account 230 nature, relationship with social world 296–297 neorealism 95–96, 166, 175, 291 see also structural realism Nexon, Daniel H. see Jackson, Patrick T.
Nicholson, Michael 19
Nietzsche, Friedrich 180, 231 nihilism 240
nominalism 21–22
Nuremberg trials 197–198

objectivism 142, 161–162 Oldroyd, David 238
ontological individualism 62–63, 64, 67, 94
  see also methodological individualism ontological realism 26–37 ontological security 147, 149 ontological structuralism 130 ontology/ies
  and agent–structure problem 7, 73–74, 78–79, 85, 88–89, 99–100, 120, 121, 244
  areas of operation 261–262, 271 assumptions regarding 3, 7, 13 centrality to politics 2, 5, 6–7 consequences 12–13
  Marxist 164
  poststructuralist 82–83 of praxis 152
  primacy among research disciplines 2, 8–9, 121, 253, 256, 290, 291 relational 47–48, 53–54, 83 researchers' attitudes to 2–3, 71–72, 251, 255 scientific realist 217
  social 5–6, 7, 118–119, 162, 167, 174–176 and social/natural science distinction 263 as source of divisions in IR 3–4

© Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-0-521-67416-4 - Agents, Structures and International Relations: Politics as Ontology
Colin Wight
Index
More information

ontology/ies (cont.)
and structural theory 98, 144–145, 153
underlying rival theories 4–5 see also epistemology; methodology; state(s) Onuf, Nicholas 79–80, 103–104, 108–109, 111, 137, 138, 139, 140, 148, 154–155, 157, 226 open systems, study of 51–52, 60, 294 unpredictability 52
vs. closed/closable 287–288 operationalism 21
organisations 220–221
as agent/structure 203–205
defined 201–202
intentions 204–205
moral character 202
organisational/culture 204 temporal existence 203
outcomes
agential vs. structural factors 97, 100–102, 119, 280–282, 288–289, 293–294 of individual encounters 113–114 Oxford University 203

paradigms 40
intercommunication 42–43, 44
Parfitt, Derek 196
Parsons, Talcott 124, 126, 257, 258–259
Patomäki, Heikki 109–110, 112–113
Pearson, Karl 19
Peirce, Charles Sanders 236 people see individuals perception
as key to reality 22, 25 reality as independent of 27–29 relation with action 55, 262 relation with knowledge 235–236 'person', senses of term 193–194 personification (i.e. state-as-person) theory 179, 180–181, 182–184, 189, 190, 193–195 shortcomings 198–199, 216, 221–222 phenomenalism 21–22
phenomenology 236
philosophy 23, 168
reversal of orthodoxy 24–25
and social science 258
see also epistemology; Greece Pinker, Steven 162
planes of (social) activity 174–175, 296–298 relationships between 298–299 Plato 232–233
see also Meno paradox Poincaré, Henri 237 politics see international relations; ontology; states Popper, Karl 242, 246, 251
Porpora, Douglas V. 127, 137, 141, 147, 149, 164, 196 positivism 2–3, 10–11, 28, 208–209, 267
and agency–structure problem 62, 71–72
and causality 30–32, 273–274
compared with other approaches 19–20
and epistemology 229
fundamental assumptions 20, 22–23 importance to social scientific discipline 14–15 methodology of 125
objections to 31–32
radical versions 19–20
reaction against 3, 18 relationship with science 17–18
and state theory 191
terminology 121–122
see also postpositivism; science; via media postmodernism 207, 223
epistemology 228, 232, 237
postpositivism 14, 291
poststructuralism 82–83, 132, 133, 137, 259–260, 291
terminology 122
poverty, causes of 58 power(s) 151–152
knowledge as 59
state, extent of 220, 222, 224 unexercised 54 practices, as focus of study 82–83 pragmatism 232, 233, 236, 237 praxis, agency as 211–212
see also ontology
prediction see open systems
Priestley, Joseph 41
Protagoras 232

Quine, W. V. O. 237, 238, 239

rationalism 228, 232, 239–240, 263
see also epistemology
Reagan, Ronald 114
realism 121, 250
accused of dogmatism 251–252 centrality to human activity 18, 27

© Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-0-521-67416-4 - Agents, Structures and International Relations: Politics as Ontology
Colin Wight
Index
More information

forms of 26
and IR 150–151
and level-of-analysis problem 111–112
vs. idealism 16
see also depth realism; scientific realism reality
aspects of 35
stratification of 35–36, 46
'reason of state' 221–222, 223 reasons, as causes 278–279 reductionism 183, 188, 210 biological 223
of individualist approaches 77 problems of 267
rejection 279–280
see also interpretivism; Waltz, Kenneth reductive materialism 36–37
limitations 37
referential detachment 27
referents, role in incommensurability thesis 41–42
'relations of difference', structure as 132, 135–137, 163–164 research see methodology researchers, guidelines for 261 resources
allocative/authoritative 142, 146–147 material 153
see also 'rules and resources'
revolutions 284–286
Ringmar, Erik 216–217
Rock, Paul 267, 268
Rorty, Richard 36, 161, 231, 251 routine, role in society 147–149 rules actions as independent of 277–278 constitutive vs. regulative 147–148, 151
relationship with agency 296
role in social order 138, 151, 274–275, 276–278 role in state theory 184–185, 190
see also 'rules and resources'
'rules and resources', as structural model 137–157 absence of resource element 140 basis of concept 153 broad outline 140–143 development of theory 138–140 failings 138, 140, 143–145, 146–155, 157–158, 218 rules of thumb see epistemology: benefits of eclectic approach 'rump materialism' 156–157
Russett, Bruce, and Harvey Starr 191
Sartre, Jean-Paul 126
Saussure, Ferdinand de 124, 126, 132–133, 134 scepticism 232, 234–235, 238, 240, 250 science competing perspectives 14 conditions for existence 24
fallibilism 37–38
historical positioning 39 methodology as legitimisation of 258 non-positivist theory 14–15, 46 positivist theory 17–18, 45–46 practice of 21, 31–32, 45–46 required model 294–295 study of 283
as work 38–39
see also IR theory; natural sciences; scientific realism; scientists; social science scientific realism 9, 14–15, 17–20, 67, 248 and agency 178–179
and agent–structure problem 71, 78–80 applied to state theory 218
and causality 29
and epistemology 39–40, 229–230, 247 impact on research practices 59–61
and IR theory 182
limitations 23–24
and methodology 260
objections to 24
and perception 25–26
and social science 45, 51–52
and structural theory 143, 145, 153, 158
terminology 121–122
see also ontology
'scientism' 268
scientists epistemological practices 242, 253–254 training/skills 38, 39, 42 Searle, John 139
self 113, 209–210
see also identity; subject; subjectivity September 11 attacks 159, 161 setting(s), role in outcome(s) 114–115, 116 signalling 277
Singer, David P. 92, 102, 105, 106–107, 111 situated activity 113–115
Skillen, Tony 177, 192
Skinner, B. F. 251
Skocpol, Theda 284–286
slavery 170
Smith, Michael 76
Smith, Steve 20–22
see also Hollis, Martin

© Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-0-521-67416-4 - Agents, Structures and International Relations: Politics as Ontology
Colin Wight
Index
More information

social action 199, 213–215 accounts/theories of 256–257, 272 coercive influences on 278
defined 200
indeterminacy 277–278
opposing views of 261–263 types of 199–201
social context
(mutual) relationship with social activity 291 role in agency 168–169, 211, 290, 296
'social currents' 160
social entities, forms of 201, 205 see also groups; institutions; organisations social facts, in Durkheimian theory 125, 126, 129–131, 132, 136 see also morphology social order, state role in 221 social practices 49–51, 296 and internal relations 171 social psychology 144–145 social relations 56, 99, 158–162, 163 changes in 170, 173
gendered 115–116
influence on behaviour 152 as structural model 137, 153–154, 163–173, 174–175, 176
types of 171–173
see also class; internal/external relations; planes of activity social roles 297
social science (attempted) synthesis of opposing ideas 67–69 concepts 268–271
contemporary trends 40
criticisms of methods 52 entry point 57
as essentially non-positivist 46 forms of inquiry 100
'impossibility' 256–257 limits 59–60
objects of study 48, 50–51, 57–58, 62, 65, 66–67 opposing theories 15, 31 as science 52, 61
see also language: lay vs. scientific; natural sciences social structures
as external to agency 167 impact on individual 142–143
relationship with agency 175–176, 296
tendencies 284
underlying state 217
social systems 142
social theory 14, 266
critical 163
society/ies
basis of existence 49–51
complexity 223, 260, 262, 289 essential characteristics 46–49, 51 opposing theories (summarised) 62–63 problems of studying 51–52, 60–61 structural properties 47–48, 53–59, 60–61 time–space dependency 55 see also concept dependency; individuals sociological (structural) tradition 123–125, 126 sociology, intrusion into IR 218 Sophism 232, 234–235, 237 sovereignty, concept of 269–270, 293
'species being' 211
Spencer, Herbert 235
Spinoza, Benedictus 234
Spivak, Gayatri 206–207, 208, 211–212
Starr, Harvey see Friedman, Gil; Russett, Bruce 'state-as-agent' theory 179–180, 184–191, 192–193, 199, 215 domination of IR theory 177–178 misunderstandings 199, 203 state(s)
boundaries 225, 299
competition between 150–151 as constantly evolving 224–225 domestic politics 191 gendered nature of roles 115
'internal organisational structure' 195 internal relations 171, 173 leadership 168–169, 196 (see also government) legal/moral responsibility 205 levels of agency within 224–225 liabilities 222
ontological status 191–192, 219–222 properties of 94–95, 96, 166 role in IR theory 299 scope for future research 225
'strategic selectivity' 222 structural nature theories/models of 93–96, 180, 215–225 as virtual/metaphorical concept 191–195, 216 wider socio-cultural environment 223–224 see also actors; agency; corporate agency; individuals; moral responsibility;

© Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-0-521-67416-4 - Agents, Structures and International Relations: Politics as Ontology
Colin Wight
Index
More information

personification theory; power; 'reason of state'; social structures; 'state-as-agent' theory; 'structuratum'; structures; units of analysis Stoicism 233
Straw, Jack 6
Strawson, Peter 238–239
'structural-historical' analysis 78–79, 244–245, 293 see also 'bracketing' structural idealism 156–159 structural monism 219, 223, 292 structural realism 75, 91, 93, 130–131, 297 structural theory confusion over 123, 282–283
limitations 282–283
opposing traditions 123, 126 role in IR 74–75
see also continental tradition; sociological tradition structural understanding 12, 283–287, 293
and causality 285
as complementary to historical understanding 284–286, 288–289 distinguished from historical understanding 283–286, 287 priority over historical understanding 286 structuralism 47, 51, 64, 124–126, 131, 133, 144, 169, 178, 207, 209
and agent–structure problem 74–76 defining characteristics 95–99
limitations 77, 101–102, 119
rejection 210–211
and state theory 187–188, 199
'thin' form of 96
see also continental tradition; methodological structuralism; poststructuralism; structural theory; Waltz, Kenneth structurationism 17, 69–71, 78–80, 137, 141, 145–146, 164–165
and IR theory 187–188
limitations 141, 144–145
'structuratum'
defined 218–220
state as 219–222, 224
structure(s) 10–11, 205–206 basis of 97–99
conditioning role 288–289
definitions 122, 127, 132, 218–219 internal vs. external 181–182 metatheory of 175
models of 79–80, 91, 116–117, 127–173, 297–298 (see also TMSA) relational view of 296, 298–299 structurality 134–135
as 'virtual' 152–153
see also agency; agent–structure problem; choices; continental tradition; decision structure; social relations; social structures; sociological tradition; structural theory; structuralism
'subject, death of' 207–208, 209 subjective understanding 65 subjectivity 209, 297
freedom of 206–207, 208, 211–212, 213
see also intersubjectivity suicide rates 129–130
supervenience 116, 117
'synchronic emergence' see time/space
'synoptic illusion' theory 86–88 terrorism 228

see also September 11 attacks Thatcher, Margaret 6
'theorising' 266–267
theory/ies
choice between 52–53 relationship with practice 8 relationships between see incommensurability; paradigms role in research process 288, 293–294
see also IR theory; structural theory; names of movements Thompson, E. P. 123, 135
Thompson, John B. 154
Thrift, Nigel 69
time/space context
and agent–structure problem 98–99
and level-of-analysis problem 108
Tiryakian, Edward 125
TMSA (Transformational Model of Social Activity) 71, 214–215 Toulmin, Stephen 44
transcendentalism 23
transphenomenality 35
Truman, Harry S. 168–169
'two stories thesis' 256, 272, 274
see also understanding understanding distinguished from explanation 100, 251, 253, 255–256, 261–262, 265, 271, 274, 277–278

forms of 12
as methodology/epistemology 251

© Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-0-521-67416-4 - Agents, Structures and International Relations: Politics as Ontology
Colin Wight
Index
More information

Union Carbide see Bhopal
United Nations 171 units of analysis 103, 105–106 state actions as 106

Verba, Sidney see King, Gary via media epistemological 226, 229 methodological 264
  positivist vs. non-positivist 11–12, 17–18
Vincent, Andrew 193, 195

Waever, Ole 181
Walker, R. B. J. 3, 7, 13, 102, 106, 108
Wallerstein, Immanuel 42, 75–76, 92, 150 Waltz, Kenneth 74–75, 79–80, 102, 107, 135, 140, 223–224, 282 account of structure 123, 130–131, 132, 135, 136, 141, 156, 174, 192, 219, 282–283 (alleged) individualism/structuralism 92–93, 96–97, 123–124 (alleged) reductionism 91–95, 97, 99, 118–119 war 158–159, 161, 187, 224–225, 281 combatant characteristics/relations 172–173 and gender 172
Weber, Cynthia 216–217, 225
Weber, Max 63, 64–65, 66, 67, 105–106, 118–119, 200–201, 275–276 influence on later thinkers 104
Wendt, Alexander 3, 4, 9, 14–15, 17, 18, 27, 30, 45, 53, 63, 75, 77–79, 80–81, 83, 85, 102, 105, 138, 143–144 account of structure 99–101, 116–117, 131, 137, 145, 152–153, 154, 155–158, 159, 160–161, 162, 164, 169, 174, 282, 286, 287 critique of/differences from Waltz 92–96, 118, 282 epistemological standpoint 226, 229, 230, 243–246, 252 inconsistencies/ambiguities 139–140, 166–168, 246 methodological standpoint 264–265, 279–280, 281–282 theory of state 179, 180, 181–183, 186, 188, 189, 191, 192, 195, 201, 204, 215, 217, 218 Wight, Martin 177
Winch, Peter 137, 142, 148, 258, 263, 265, 268, 272–273, 276–277, 278
Wittgenstein, Ludwig 137, 148, 177, 208, 236, 263, 276, 278

Yurdusev, Yuri 103

Zalewski, Marysia 266

© Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org