CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-0-521-73747-0 - Modern Criminal Law of Australia
Jeremy Gans
Index
More information

Index

abortion 281–3, 299
Bourne test 283, 286
informed consent and 286
lawfulness of 284, 293
legality of, accused's thinking and 285 retrospective determination of legality and 285 right to 284 Wald test 286
acting in concert 233, 234, 243 assault 315, 333, 355
aggravated 326
definition 324
attempt 251, 258, 260, 264, 265, 267, 269, 272, 273, 277 change of mind and 274, 275
averments 129

bail 61–2
breach of the peace 36, 38, 52 burden of proof 73, 121, 155, 288, 301, 302 causation 103, 122, 125, 158, 174, 208, 231, 232, 235, 333, 339, 340, 341 absence of test for 124 chain 123

criminal responsibility and 114
definition of 113
language of offence provision and 112 legal responsibility and 114 charge bargaining 62, 186
circumstances 125–7, 192
ambiguous 144–9
appearance of unlawfulness and 129
attribution of 130–2
carefulness and 154–7
carelessness and 150–4
comparison to treatment of results in criminal law 126 conduct and 154
criminal responsibility for 149–50, 154
default fault elements 159 difficulties of proof and 128
foreseen 138–40
intended 134–8
irrelevant carelessness and 150
knowledge element 139
not accompanying conduct or results 149 process of defining 127–9 reasonable mistake and 155–6
responsibility for 132–4
uncontrollable 157–9
unforeseen 140–4
unjustifiable carelessness and 151 citizen arrest powers 51, 52 common law 8, 34, 40, 42, 43, 72 interpretative rules 40, 72 legal duty to act and 83 complicity 235, 236, 241, 242, 243, 244, 247, 260, 264, 269, 274, 321, 368 common purpose and 239
criminal responsibility for 237
exclusion of 248, 249
fault element of 235, 236, 238
intention in 263
peripheral 238
physical element of 235
to murder 241
conduct 192, 220
aggregation of 232
careless 235
commissioning 231–4
concurrance of 118
elements 104, 112
generic words and 104
joint 233
unintended 77
consent 23, 53, 61, 153, 196, 214, 275, 319, 325, 329, 330, 334, 335, 343, 354 broad definition of 329
contact sports and 328–9
exception 330
implicit 329
informed 54
limits of 329
marital sex and 329
meaning of 328
sexual offences and 163, 164, 185, 265 conspiracy 86, 212, 216, 251, 258, 260, 261, 263, 264, 265, 269, 272, 273, 277, 278 at least two conspirators requirement 270 court powers and 272
prosecution of 270–1

© in this web service Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-0-521-73747-0 - Modern Criminal Law of Australia
Jeremy Gans
Index
More information

conspiracy (cont.)
pulling out of 275
to defraud 215
corporate fault 224, 226
corporate veil 226
corporations
as persons but not individuals 222–3 attribution of human conduct to 223 attribution of human crimes to 224 directing mind and/or will and 226, 228 distributed fault and 229 liability for acts of employees 224 subjective fault and 227
crimes
attributed 222–6
careful 309–11
careless 305–9
classic 2
complete 311–12
distributed 226–30
lawful 290–4
of omission 229
planned, providing assistance to 236
reasonable 294–9
criminal conduct 67–9
ambiguous 87–9
continuing conduct and 91
impaired conduct 92–4 intended. See intended conduct intoxicated conduct 94–6 involuntary intoxication 96
lack of responsibility for 90, 116
medical conditions and 92
minimum threshold for 87 process of attribution 70–3 process of definition 69–70 responsibility for. See responsibility for criminal conduct total loss of control and 90
uncontrolled 90–1
voluntariness and. See voluntariness voluntary omissions and. See voluntary omissions voluntary state of affairs and 84–7 criminal justice system decision-making in 45, 50, 66
failed crimes and 252
operation of as consequences of crimes 184 sentences and 161, 164, 166, 170, 200
criminal law
Australia's federal nature and 7, 72
characterisation of defendant's behaviour 197 characterisation of offenders 199 discretionary permission and 47
environmental harm offences. See environmental harm federal code 7–8
general. See general criminal law moribund 59
nature of conduct in. See criminal conduct outcomes. See outcomes people's choices in 45, 46–7, 66 power of prosecutors to reshape 59 scope of 1
special part 42
criminal offences
construction of 75
covering failed and completed crimes 254
definition 39
definition and personal discretion 63
discretionary enforcement provisions 47 discretionary prohibitions and 48 express requirement to act and 81 general rules of interpretation 42 implicit requirement to act and 82 opposition to 244–7
ordinary people's assessment of defendant behaviour and 210 subsequent regulatory decisions and 64 criminal responsibility 75, 81, 86, 90, 94, 103, 104, 280
attribution of 126
conduct and circumstances elements 134
default fault elements 149
determination of 127, 164
distinction between physical and fault elements and 74 exception for lawful actions 290 exclusion and 247–50
failure of parliamentary processes and 130
for others' conduct, offending and offences 221 intoxication and 96
mental impairment and 93
parliamentary involvement in resolution of issues of 136 presence and 243–4
private rights and public interests in criminal law and 352 role of negligence in 112 sane automatism and 93
voluntary states of affairs and 84
criminalisation 212
circumstantial 130
externally prohibited behavior and 194 criminality, denials of 288 culpability 58, 144, 150, 153, 154, 337, 338, 365

danger 230
criminalisation of 221
dangerousness 207
deception 334, 335, 336
defences
accident 138, 177, 305

© in this web service Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-0-521-73747-0 - Modern Criminal Law of Australia
Jeremy Gans
Index
More information

due diligence 122
honest and reasonable mistake of fact 134, 141, 156, 157, 158, 177, 228, 305, 372 honest claim of right 351 lawful authority 330
lawful correction 306
mental impairment 93
mistake of age 142
mistake of fact 305
necessity 297, 298, 299, 310, 312
reasonable ignorance 157 reasonable mistake 122
reasonableness 122
superior order 356–7, 358
defendant
awareness of legislation and 145 beliefs about the law 218 burden of proof and 302 burden of proof, exceptions and 301 characterisation of own behaviour 198 consideration of whether or not facts existed 156 conspiracy and 269
culpability, victim behaviour and 337 duties taken on by 83
evidential burden on, exceptions and 300
facts imagined by 273
failed crimes and 274
liability for results 340
physical elements and 278 possible future conduct and 208–9 possible results of conduct and 204 responsibility for circumstance element 149 risk assessment of own behaviour 207 secondary role in another's crime and 234 societal characterisation of behaviour of 196
state of mind of 307, 308 statutory duty and 140
thoughts of 307
thoughts of, ordinary standards and 214 understanding of moral wrong and 209 dishonesty 216, 218, 336
definition of 217
establishment of 216
meaning of 212
offences 211, 333
test for 216
doctrine of identification 225 doctrine of transferred malice 118, 325 domestic violence 53, 314, 336 expanded court powers and 317 order system 316
role of official discretions and 316
downblousing 21, 25
driving offences 67
culpable driving 113, 232, 338 culpable driving causing death 338 dangerous driving 230, 240, 247 dangerous driving causing death 231, 234, 237 drink driving 69, 72, 89, 267 obeying the speed limit 72
omissions and 82
unlicensed driving 356
drug offences 125, 249, 250, 253, 255, 312, 353, 368
due diligence 229
proof of 245
duress 299, 310, 357

endangerment offences 203, 204–5, 206, 207, 213, 221
court risk assessment and 206
environmental harm 231
definition of pollution and 99 serious 110
euthanasia 332
evidence
admissability of 58, 300
exclusion of 369
rules of 95, 367
exceptions 281–2
ambiguous 299–304
application of 284–7
application of standards to facts and 306 careful crimes and 309–11 careless crimes and 305–9 complete crimes and 311–12
development of 282–4
distinguishing elements from 302
emergencies and 307, 310, 312
express exclusion of 311
for directed behaviour 358
from responsibility 287–9 from responsibility, lack of 287–305 general rule for proof of 302 implied exclusion of 312
innocuous excuses 311
lawful excuse 296, 311
lawful excuse and 309
reasonable cause 307
reasonable excuse 295, 296, 297, 306, 311
scope of excuse and 294
unmeritorious outcomes and 310 unmeritous causes of defendant's conduct and 309 exercise of police powers 50–4 belief and 52
possible criminality and 52
preconditions 51–4
reasonable grounds condition 51–2
suspicion and 52

© in this web service Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-0-521-73747-0 - Modern Criminal Law of Australia
Jeremy Gans
Index
More information

failed crimes
  double intention requirement 260 specific offences for 259 stacking of offences and 276–7, 278 failed offences 258, 260
failures
  court identification of seriousness of 255 criminal failures 255–8
  failed crimes 252–5
  feeble 276–8
  fickle 274–6
  futile 272–4
  group 269–71
  individual 265–9
  intended crimes 259–65
  lack of responsibility for 271–2
  problem of 252
  responsibility for 258–9
falsification of federal documents 211 fault elements 42, 74, 75, 76, 78, 96, 105, 116, 138, 147, 153, 183, 192, 200, 214, 230, 232, 233, 263, 264, 278, 300, 305 absence of 140
  actual beliefs and 218
  alternative 139, 250
  alternative, for result elements 109
  default 136, 137, 141, 143, 148, 149, 150, 154, 159 group liability 244
  of conspiracy 270
  standard 116, 123
  subjective 117, 139, 140, 150, 153, 174, 226, 237
  victims and 325
financial offences 210
foreseeability 107
fraud 215, 350

general criminal law 37, 42–4 absence of defence of reasonableness 122 absence of full defence of due diligence and 121, 122 advantages of 71
  Australian jurisdictions and 72 circumstances and. See circumstances conduct and circumstances and 77, 125 contrary statutes and 43 criminal conduct and. See criminal conduct general requirements to act and 83 generic concepts 42–3
  omissions and 83
  requirement for results. See results statutory offences and 72
  tests for criminal responsibility for conduct 86 groups
  behaviour, informal 230
  criminal responsibility and 221
  problem of 221–2
  responsibility for others and 230–1 guilty plea 62

homicide 327
  attempted 264
  victim impact statements and 327
human rights law 39–42, 56, 87, 325, 331 See also international human rights law identification doctrine 226

imprisonable offences 52
incitement 251, 258, 260, 264, 265, 269, 272, 273, 277
indecency 214, 215, 217
indictable offences 52, 72
innocuous conduct 297
insanity 301, 302
intended conduct 72, 75–8 awareness of consequences and 76 meaning of conduct and 77 meaning of intention and 76–7 proof 76
intent 93, 95, 96, 103, 114, 116, 124, 134, 137–8, 141, 198, 220, 232, 237, 331, 333 basic 153
  deadly 236
  default fault element of 106
  fraudulent 304
  meaning of 106
  specific 153
international human rights law 40, 50 international law 40, 194
intoxication 72, 95, 308
  extreme states of 94
  involuntary 96
  self-induced 95, 96, 97, 117, 119, 153–4, 308 unwanted 323

joint commission 239, 240, 241, 246, 321
joint criminal enterprise 233, 234, 243

kidnapping 178
knowledge 109, 114, 124, 137, 139, 141, 149, 159, 198, 200, 215, 219, 238, 264, 323
  imputed 107
  proof of 227
  proof of, recklessness and 139

lawful excuse 207
lawfulness 291, 293
  authorised conduct 291
  permitted conduct 290
  sources of 292
liability
  absolute 104, 124, 141, 142, 144, 145, 149, 159, 160, 164, 305

© in this web service Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-0-521-73747-0 - Modern Criminal Law of Australia
Jeremy Gans
Index
More information

accessorial, outer limits of 242
assisting suicide and 341
by agreement 243
circumstances and 127
concept of presence and 243
corporate 221, 244
corporate criminal 230
corporation officers and 229
corporations and 244
criminal 39, 68
equivocal mistakes and 155
failed crimes and 277
fault 306
group 244
individual 229
protective forms of 142
reasonable ignorance and 156 strict 124, 141, 142, 143, 149, 155, 159, 237, 238, 244, 264 unforeseen circumstances and 140 via a common purpose 246
vicarious 225, 228

manslaughter 112, 205, 341, 342
corporate 226, 230, 349
definition 204
mens rea 42, 75, 104, 172, 174
mental impairment 92, 94, 96, 97, 288
mercy killing 341
M'Naughten rules 92, 210
murder 237, 310, 337
duress as defence to 310

negligence 116, 124, 141, 227, 232, 257, 263, 331
circumstances and 140
corporate behaviour and 244 differences between criminal and civil 111–12

obscene conduct or language 28
swearing 28
offence provisions 7, 74, 192
causation and 113
concurrent 362, 363, 364 default rules and 138
elements 148
exceptions and 280
exclusion of consent as a defence 330
maximum penalties and 171
meaning of 34
multiple 353
physical elements 145
proof of act or omission by defendant 85
reading of 44
references to other provisions 144
regulation 45, 63–5, 66 regulatory preconditions 147, 148 shifting circumstances and 282
victims and 314, 323
offence seriousness 180
court assessment of 161, 167–9, 171, 172, 185, 192 drug addiction and 175
limits on assessing 181–2 non-judicial systems for determining 175 offender's criminal procedural rights and 183 particular facts of the case and 164 offences against property 13, 210, 212, 216, 351 possession of stolen goods 126 offences against the person 13, 331 offenders joining with 238–42 offending facilitation of 234–8 offensive conduct or language 23, 24, 28 disorderly conduct 19, 27, 34, 36, 46, 53 insult 28, 29, 31, 32, 33, 36, 37, 38, 41, 42, 44 racism 29
sexism 29
omissions 107
voluntariness requirement for 84

physical elements 42, 74, 75, 96, 116, 119, 172, 183, 192, 195, 196, 203, 214, 230, 232, 263, 264
classification of 144
court risk assessment and 205
external standards and 219 joint commission and 245 lower-tier offences and 264
of conspiracy 270
rules of attribution for 234
special liability provisions and 238
victims and 325
plea bargaining 62
police obstruction 53
police powers 35, 66, 300
arrest powers 51, 53, 54 breach of other laws and 54 breath testing of drivers 53 detention powers 55
discretionary nature of 54
exercise of. See exercise of police powers investigative 45
limitation to their purpose 54, 56 move on powers 52
permitted purposes 53
proportionate use and 56
search powers 53
use of force 56
policing 45, 50–6
offences 53

© in this web service Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-0-521-73747-0 - Modern Criminal Law of Australia
Jeremy Gans
Index
More information

pornography
adult 152
child pornography 23, 24, 64, 129, 131, 132, 147, 152, 164, 168 privacy 20, 21, 22, 27
proceeds of crime 257, 264
criminalisation of 256
proportionality 50, 310
prosecutions 45, 56–63
assessment of substantive criminal law and 58–9 factors in non-prosecution 59 initiation of determination of charge 61–2 legal regulation of 56
manner of 61–3
modes of 61
pre-determination treatment and 61
private 57
prosecutorial discretions 61 prospects of conviction 57, 66
public interest 58, 59, 66 reasonable prospects test 59
provocation 38
proximate conduct 266, 272, 273, 274 public order offences 20, 26, 44
public prosecutors
exceptions and 300
guidelines 57–8, 62
multiple charges and 88
negotiation with defendants 62, 66
powers of 57
punishment
cumulative 50
discretionary 88
inadvertent errors and 143
preconditions for imposition of 90 purposes of 166
reduced 253

rape 153, 162, 173, 175, 185, 204, 247, 265, 329, 357
aggravated 177
attempted 265, 275
carnal knowledge and 162–3, 164
hierarchy of criminal conduct in 164 non-aggravated 177
self-induced intoxication and 154 sexual penetration and 162–3, 164
reasonable cause 307
reasonable excuse 139, 300
reasonable expectations test 21 reasonable grounds test 53
reasonableness 294, 295, 329, 331
emergencies and 299
exceptions 296
innocuous conduct and 296 serious breaches of the law and 297 recklessness 77, 105, 109, 110, 114, 116, 134, 136, 137, 141, 145, 207, 227, 230, 232, 238, 239, 240, 257, 260, 263, 264, 333
as to serious injury 237
definition of 153
fault element 145
federal definition of 151, 152, 153
test of 151
responsibility for criminal conduct 73–5 distinction between different types of physical elements 73 distinction between physical and fault elements 73
elements 73, 85, 86, 96
foundational concepts of 73
physical elements 85
result offences 101, 115, 232, 345
results 192
absence of fault element and 110, 121 accident defence 107–8, 110 alternative fault elements for 109
ambiguous 112–16
attribution of 102–4
but-for test and 103
carelessness and 117–19
causal precondition and 100 conduct elements and 101, 102
criminal responsibility for 106
defence of honest and reasonable mistake of fact 119, 120 defining of 99–102
degrees of connection and 103 degrees of responsibility and 104 foreseeability test 110
foreseen 106–9
justifiable risks and 108–9
lack of responsibility for 116–17
level of risk and 108
meaning of aware and 107
negligence and 110, 111
problem of 99
reasonableness and 119–21
recklessness as default fault element 106, 107, 110, 117
responsibility for 104–5
test of relative responsibility 115 traditional codes and 107
uncontrollable 122–3, 124
unforeseen 109–12
risk-taking commercial 221
criminalisation of 203
dishonest 213
robbery 184
armed 174–5
rule against duplicity 88, 89 rule of lenity 38
rules of proof 38

© in this web service Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-0-521-73747-0 - Modern Criminal Law of Australia
Jeremy Gans
Index
More information

self-defence 293, 298, 300, 307, 309, 310, 311, 359 sentences
ambiguous offences and 176–81
character of offender and 166–7 circumstances of the offence and 172–6 consequence of offender's conduct and 173 defendant's motivations in choosing victim and 326 deterrent effect of 170 discriminatory factors and 182–4 factors which increase final sentences 178 facts of the case and 169
harm assessment and 173
impact of offence on victim and 327–8 incriminatory factors and 184–7 mental state of offender and 174 nature of offence and 169–72 offence factors and 162–5 offender factors and 162, 165–7, 168, 180 offender use of uncharged offences at 185
problem of 162
proportionality and 168
purpose of 169–70
regulatory factors and 187–90
traditional and customary laws and 182–3 victim's blameworthiness and 339 sex offenders 42, 186
sexism 29
sexual offences 162, 210
against children 166, 167, 168, 187, 305, 306
harm assessment and 173
sexual assault 171–2, 173
sexual servitude 197
unsafe sex and 204
slavery 193–4, 206, 207, 215 debt bondage and 197
definition of 195, 201
elements of offence 198 fault element of intention and 199 sexual 201
societal charcterisation of 199
status of under Australian law 194–5 slaves
ownership power over 196, 198
possession of 195
stalking 333
standard of proof 74, 93, 147
standards
aberrant behaviour and 211–15
aberrant offenders and 215–18 ambiguous behaviour and 194–8 ambiguous offenders and 198–201 assessment of morality and 193 counterfactual 201–3
dangerous behaviour and 203–6 dangerous offenders and 206–9 hypothetical facts and 192 moral 209–11
ordinary, courtroom claims about 215
problem of 193–4
state of affairs 86, 149, 158, 277 circumstance element and 87
voluntariness and 86
states
ambiguous 361–4
as defendants 345–9
as property holders 350
as victims 349–53
behaviour, legality of 359 behaviour, legality of criminal response to 359
careful 365–70
careless 370–5
causal role in events and 365 employees of 355
executive immunity from court processes 347, 348, 349
multiple interests of 354
offences and 353–4
problem of 344–5
responsibility and 365
roles as regulator 345
targetted 358–61
willing 354–8
status offences 84, 85, 87, 89, 101
statutes
construction of 26, 35
definition sections 22
duties imposed by 83
meaningful purpose and 34
orders specifically authorised by 355 purpose clauses 35
regulation of states and 345
writing of 31
statutory interpretation 7, 41, 44, 149, 160, 194, 277 choice of form of liability and 142 contemporary 25, 34, 37
context and 26, 29–33, 34, 37, 38
criminal law and 3–4
criminalisation and 88
extrinsic material and 35, 39
general approach to 25
generic words and 71
intention and 78
language and 26–9, 30, 34, 38, 46 offence provisions, reading of 37 past law of 25
purpose and 26, 37, 38, 41
question of classification and 87 rights-compatible 42
rules 40
shield of the Crown and 346, 347, 349, 367

© in this web service Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-0-521-73747-0 - Modern Criminal Law of Australia
Jeremy Gans
Index
More information

statutory interpretation (cont.)
strained construction 34, 38, 41 strict construction 38, 39, 41 statutory words and language 212, 235, 247, 282 comparative criminal law and 25 consideration of other statutory words 22–5 decontextualisation and 32
description of complex behaviour and 69 drafting rules and 32
general terms and 21
generic words and 71
human rights law and 37, 39–42 limiting words and 21
meaning of 20–2, 28, 29, 30, 31, 34, 35, 38, 70
mistakes with 26
ordinary meaning and 26, 37, 100 ordinary people's standards and 213 penal provisions, reading of 37–9
purpose and 33–7
reading of 19–20, 25–6, 44
results and 102
technical meaning and 27
subjective fault 244
surveillance devices 23, 24
swearing 28

terrorism 236, 268, 278
torture offences 311, 356 trafficking 125, 130, 133, 136, 142, 147, 157, 158, 171, 172, 187–90, 249, 252, 254, 368, 369 trespass 354, 360

unsafe practices 221
upskirting 20, 25, 27, 34

victim complicity 321
victim impact statements 327, 332, 343 victim mendacity 322
victimhood
concept of 323, 333
victims
ambiguous 336
as defendants 320–3
as prosecutors 316–20
blameworthiness and 339
careful 340–2
careless 337–40
central role in offences and 341 domestic violence, costs and 322 impact of carelessness of 337
offences and 323–4
problems of 314–16
resonsibility and 336–7
role of in domestic violence proceedings 317–18, 319
targetted 324–8
voluntariness 72, 79–81, 84, 87, 89, 93, 95, 103, 105, 107, 125, 134, 207, 220, 225, 305
determination of 79
high level of generality and 80 mental connection between mind and conduct and 80 voluntary omissions 81–4, 86 regulation of 81
special requirements for 81

withdrawal 243, 274, 275 defence 245–6
timing of withdrawal and 246–7 workplace safety 221–2, 228

© in this web service Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org