CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-0-521-86606-4 - The Cambridge Companion to August Wilson
Edited by Christopher Bigsby
Table of Contents
More information

CONTENTS

List of contributors page vii
Note on the text viii
List of plays ix

1 August Wilson: the ground on which he stood 1
CHRISTOPHER BIGSBY

2 Been here and gone 28
JOHN LAHR

3 August Wilson's relationship to black theatre: community, aesthetics, history and race 52
MARY L. BOGUMIL

4 Music and mythology in August Wilson's plays 65
KIM PEREIRA

5 Gem of the Ocean and the redemptive power of history 75
HARRY J. ELAM, JR.

6 Joe Turner's Come and Gone 89
SAMUEL A. HAY

7 Ma Rainey's Black Bottom: cutting the historical record, dramatizing a blues CD 102
ALAN NADEL

8 A piano and its history: family and transcending family 113
FELICIA HARDISON LONDRÉ

© Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-0-521-86606-4 - The Cambridge Companion to August Wilson
Edited by Christopher Bigsby
Table of Contents
More information

9 The tragedy of Seven Guitars 124
BRENDA MURPHY

10 Safe at home?: August Wilson's Fences 135
MATTHEW ROUDANÉ

11 Two Trains Running: blood on the tracks 145
STEPHEN BOTTOMS

12 Jitney, folklore and responsibility 158
DAVID KRASNER

13 King Hedley II: in the midst of all this death 169
JOAN HERRINGTON

14 Radio Golf: the courage of his convictions – survival, success and spirituality 183
MARGARET BOOKER

15 Critics on August Wilson 193
DAVID K. SAUER AND JANICE A. SAUER

16 An interview with August Wilson 202
CHRISTOPHER BIGSBY

Index 214

© Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org