CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-0-521-88816-5 - Moral Limit and Possibility in World Politics
Edited by Richard M. Price
Table of Contents
More information

Contents

List of contributors page vii
Preface ix

1 Moral limit and possibility in world politics 1
RICHARD PRICE

2 Constructivism and the structure of ethical reasoning 53
CHRISTIAN REUS-SMIT

3 The role of consequences, comparison and counterfactuals in constructivist ethical thought 83
KATHRYN SIKKINK

4 Sovereignty, recognition and indigenous peoples 112
JONATHAN HAVERCROFT

5 Policy hypocrisy or political compromise? Assessing the morality of US policy toward undocumented migrants 138
AMY GUROWITZ

6 Lie to me: sanctions on Iraq, moral argument and the international politics of hypocrisy 165
MARC LYNCH

7 Paradoxes in humanitarian intervention 197
MARTHA FINNEMORE

8 Inevitable inequalities? Approaching gender equality and multiculturalism 225
ANN TOWNS

© Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-0-521-88816-5 - Moral Limit and Possibility in World Politics
Edited by Richard M. Price
Table of Contents
More information

9 Interstate community-building and the identity/difference predicament 253
BAHAR RUMELILI

10 Progress with a price 281
RICHARD PRICE

Index 305

© Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org