CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-1-107-62247-0 - Crime Prevention: Principles, Perspectives and Practices: Second Edition
Adam Sutton, Adrian Cherney and Rob White
Index
More information

INDEX

7/7 London attacks, 201
9/11 attacks, 201

access control, 70–71 activity support and image management, 71 agency-based prevention, 40 alcohol consumption, 178–180
  binge drinking, 178, 180 cultural explanations for, 179 link to serious injuries, 179 link to violence and aggression, 179 patterns of, licensed venues and, 180–181 social consequences of type consumed, 179–180 young people, drinking patterns of, 178–179 alcohol-related violence, 177–178, 221 responses to. See responses to alcohol-related violence animal-related crimes, 208–209 offender categories, 208
Anti-Social Behaviour Orders (UK), 124
Australia
  Commonwealth crime prevention programs, 126–127
  CPTED and, 71–72
  crime prevention policy, 125, 129
  National Community Crime Prevention Program, 125, 126
  National Motor Vehicle Theft Reduction Strategy, 163
  Pathways to Prevention project, 46, 93
  Safer Suburbs program, 126
Australian Institute of Criminology
  National Crime Prevention Framework, 126
Australian and New Zealand Crime Prevention Senior Officers' Group, 127

Bali bombings, 201
Big Brothers, Big Sisters program (US), 86
binge drinking, 178, 180
Bonnemaison, Gilbert, 113
Bonnemaison crime prevention program (France), 40, 113, 129 as political program, 115–116 effect on crime rates, 116 missions locales, 115 protection action contracts, 115 strengths of, 116
boot camps, 41
Bridgewater Urban Renewal Programme (Tas.), 176 broken windows thesis, 53, 168
bullying
  covert, 156
  cyber. See cyber-bullying
  definition, 156–157
  motivation for, 157
  school, 39, 125, 157
Burglary Reduction Initiative (UK), 129

Cambridge-Somerville Youth Study (US), 36–37, 45
Campbell Collaboration Crime and Justice Group, 14, 90, 91
Canada
  Montreal Prevention Project, 34–35, 38
  Safer Bars Programme, 185 car theft. See motor vehicle theft card skimming, 197
case study evaluation, 100
CCTV, 20, 21, 23, 54, 61, 66, 70, 99, 116, 122, 126
City Warden program (NL), 119–120
Clarke, Ron, 19, 55, 57, 58, 129
community
  as source of blame for own crime problem, 140 bonds of, 137–138
  boundaries, 137
  characteristics, 140
  differences between and within, 140 moral voice of, 140 quality of life of, 8, 141 unexpected disruptions to, 186–189 Community Anti-Crime Program (US), 42 community cooperation, terrorism prevention and, 200–201 community development initiatives, 39 community involvement, graffiti and, 171–172 community participation social inclusion and, 138–141
  types of, 139
community patrols, 66
community relationships, crime prevention and, 215 community safety, 4, 6, 8, 10 evidence-based approach to, 10 objectives of, 138
community safety officers, 75, 80, 82, 83, 131, 132, 217 community safety policy, 8 community spaces, 141, 144 crime prevention and, 147–148 community-based programs 42, 137
  Neighbourhood Watch (Aust.), 138–139, 140
  social fragmentation and, 140 controllers, 20
cost-benefit analysis, 93–95
CPTED (crime prevention through environmental design), 53, 187, 189 application of, 74–76
  Australia, 71–72
  compared to SCP, 54–55
  core techniques of, 69–71 criticisms of, 73

© in this web service Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CPTED (cont.)
early theorists, 67–69
focus of, 55
impact and use of physical environment, 67 influence on policy and practice of, 71–74
'second generation', 73–74
site surveys and safety audits, 74–75 CRAVED goods, 65
crime
as product of social processes, 20 attractors, 65
cyber. See cyber-crime
definition, 13
enablers, 65
environmental. See eco-crime generators, 65
opportunity and, 56
range of activities deemed as, 43, 56 violent, correlates of, 39 crime displacement, 43, 139 crime hot spots, 23, 53, 65
crime pattern theory, 65
crime prevention
'rediscovery'/renaissance of, 6, 8, 14, 16, 112, 128
'what works'/administrative approach, 14, 15, 17, 29, 125 whole-of-government approach, 14–15 affective results and, 41 agency-based, 40
as alternative to law and order, 7–9 as alternative to privatisation, 8 as basic human competence, 130 as curb to cost of criminal justice institutions, 6 classifications of, 22–24 community-based, 130, 137 community relationships and, 215 community spaces and, 147–148 contracts, formal, 130–131 cost-effectiveness and, 15 critical approach to, 14
definition, 7–8, 9, 14, 24, 202
developmental, 98
diversion approach, 40, 41
eco-crime and, 205–209 effective outcomes and, 41 environmental. See environmental prevention essential knowledge and skills for, 82–83 evidence-based approach to, 10, 14, 15, 29, 41, 97 forward directions, 127–133 fundamental questions of, 13 inner and outer triangle interventions and, 21 knowledge sharing and, 132 locally based, 10, 129, 131
Metropolis City case study, 216–221 policing and, 202–205 problem-solving approach to, 25–29, 30, 129 public health schemas, 23, 38 public spaces. See public space rationality and, 15
responsibilisation and, 6, 16 role of state in, 16 role of traditional responses to, 24 situational. See situational prevention social. See social prevention utopian realism and, 215 youth involvement in, 141–143 crime prevention evaluation, 16, 26, 132–133, 221
case study evaluation, 100
cost-benefit analysis, 93–95
data-sharing protocols, 85 evidence base development and, 97–101 experimental method, 86–88, 132 external validity, 133
internal validity, 133
lack of investment and, 84–85
meta-analysis, 90–91, 99
meta-evaluation, 14, 15 methods, 84–97
narrative reviews, 92
non-experimental, 89
outcome evaluation, 85–86
political variables and, 103–105 process evaluation, 95–97 quasi-experimental, 88–89, 98, 133 randomised control trials, 86, 87, 97–98 skill development and, 102–103 systematic reviews, 90–92, 99 crime prevention partnerships, 15, 81–82, 101–102, 103, 105, 128
crime prevention policy
advantages of, 7
Australia, 125, 129
common features of, 5
design decisions and, 21–22
replication of, 130
South Australia, 126
Victoria, 126
crime prevention programs
community-based, 42
implementation challenges of, 80 implementation failure and, 80, 96 implementation science and, 97 local characteristics analysis and, 66 public opinion and, 104
replication of, 97, 98, 100
crime prevention strategies affective dimension, 4 cost of evaulation and, 85

© in this web service Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org history of, 6, 5, 8 symbolic dimension, 4, 17, 21, 29, 41, 43, 58, 104, 103 crime prevention theory, 13

crime pattern theory, 65
defensible space theory, 54
governmentality theory, 16–17 responsibilisation thesis, 8 routine activity theory, 30, 56, 65 routine analysis theory, 18–19 transition model, 39–40 crime prevention through environmental design. See CPTED Crime Prevention Unit (Vic.), 126 crime rate France, Bonnemaison crime prevention program and, 116 reasons for increase, 18–19 Crime Reduction Programme (UK), 15–16, 102, 113, 121–124, 129, 214, 219 crime victimisation, 6, 16, 19, 21, 166 criminal displacement, 55, 64 criminology, 215 administrative, 16
crime science, 14, 16, 94 critical, 16
cultural, 169–170
experimental, 14
feminist, 19
green, 205
rational, 17
situational, 56
traditional, 60
cyber-bullying, 137, 156–158, 194, 195
prevention, 158
cyber-crime, 209, 221
offences, 193–194
prevention, personal vigilance and, 197–198 systematic approaches to, 198 cyber-safety, 195–196, 209 education, 195–196
social networking services and, 195 threats to, 195
cyberspace, 10, 156

dancing man of Hobart, 164, 169, 219 danger, 10
defensible space, 69, 75
defensible space theory, 54, 69
delinquency, 15, 38, 40 early intervention and, 39
Netherlands, 118
Designing Out Crime initiative (WA), 71 developmental prevention, 21, 40 deviance, 40, 170
Disney World, 187–188
disorder, 10
diversion approach, 40
Don't Turn a Night Out into a Nightmare campaign (Aust.), 184 drink-driving, 43, 56

early intervention, 23, 44, 94, 104, 125 delinquency and, 39
terrorism and, 200
Eck, John, 19, 20, 21, 30, 60, 87 eco-crime, 205–209, 221 animal-related crime, 208–209 illegal fishing, 206–208 illegal trade in wildlife, 206
poaching, 208
e-crime. See cyber-crime Elmira Prenatal and Early Infancy Project (US), 34, 38, 44 environmental crime prevention, 205–206, 207
definition, 9
environmental issues
brown, 205
green, 205
white, 205
environmental prevention, 22–23, 29, 104 broad-based planning and design and, 23
broken windows thesis, 53
definition, 9
focused situational prevention and, 23 methods, illegal fishing and, 207
terrorism and, 200
See also CPTED, SCP
experimental method of program evaluation, 86–88, 132

Facebook, 155, 156, 195 fear of crime, 66, 68, 72, 84, 85, 88, 94, 125, 138, 139, 140, 144, 166, 168 surveys, 120
Felson, Marcus, 18, 20, 21, 30, 54
Felson's crime triangle, 18–19, 30 criticism of, 19
Eck's modification of, 19–21, 30, 207
France
1981 riots, 114
Confronting Crime: Prevention, Repression and Solidarity, 114 crime policy prior to 1980s, 116 infrastructure for crime prevention, 114–115 local prevention plans, 115 National Council for the Prevention of Crime, 114 summer camps (étés jeunes), 114 See also Bonnemaison crime prevention program gatecrashing, 164, 178, 186, 195

See also swarming
gated communities, 7, 61, 62, 140

© in this web service Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

glasnost, 213–214
glassing, 178
Good Neighbourhood program (Vic.), 125
Gorbachev, Mikhail, 213
governmentality theory, 16–17
graffiti, 8, 10, 28, 44, 62, 64, 76, 81, 118, 154, 164 as pleasure, 170
  community involvement and, 171–172 cultural criminology and, 169 discouraging/displacing, 40, 171 forms of, 169
  graffiti writers' involvement and, 172 information gathering and, 173 link to crime 168–169 removal campaigns, 170–171 response to, 172–173
  SCP and, 63–64
  social disorder and, 168–173 target hardening and, 171 thrill of, 170
  youth gangs and, 168
grassroots dynamics, 42
  glasnost, 213
  organisations, 16
  practice, 10, 37
  practitioners, 58, 76, 129, 130
  prevention, 4
  programs, 128
  stakeholders, 116, 127, 133, 219 guardians, definition, 20 guardianship, 19, 23, 30, 65, 70
  SCP and, 18, 66

hackers, 194, 197
Halt program (NL), 118
handlers, 20
harm, 10
Home Office Crime Prevention Unit (UK), 121 identity theft, 195, 196–198 organised, 197

  politically motivated, 197 stages of, 197
  traditional organised crime groups and, 197 illegal fishing, 206–208
  environmental prevention measures and, 207 social prevention methods and, 207
  types of, 207
Indigenous people arrest and imprisonment rates, 113 community patrols and, 66 community policing and, 204 petrol sniffing and, 66
Integrated Safety Policy (NL), 120
International CPTED Association, 53

Jacobs, Jane, 67–68, 216
Jill Dando Institute of Crime Science, 53
joy-riding, 43–44

Labelling Secured Housing scheme (NL), 72 law and order, 4, 17, 19, 24, 29, 30, 35, 43, 54, 62, 103, 104, 112, 139, 205, 214, 215 crime prevention as alternative to, 7–9 difficulties of, 112–113
  France, 116
  Netherlands, 120
  rationale for, 35
  United Kingdom, 124
licensed venues, 180–181 local environment audits, 142

Major Cities Policy (NL), 120, 129 managerialism, 16–17
managers, 20
mass media, 4, 35, 127
MCS Shopping Centre Youth Project (Aust.), 151–155
  Festival Faire shopping centre (Qld), 152–155
meta-analysis, 90–91, 99, 216–221
Metropolis City case study, 216–221
Montreal Prevention Project (Can.), 34–35, 38 motor vehicle theft, 127, 163

narrative reviews, 92
National Community Crime Prevention Program (Aust.), 126, 125
National Motor Vehicle Theft Reduction Strategy (Aust.), 163
Neighbourhood Watch (Aust.), 138–139, 140
Netherlands
  behaviour in shopping centres and, 117, 118 City Warden program, 119–120 concierge system in public housing, 118 Halt program, 118
  Integrated Safety Policy, 120
  Labelling Secured Housing scheme, 72
  Major Cities Policy, 120, 129
  National Interministerial Standing Committee on Crime Prevention, 117–118 public opinion on crime prevention security, information and control officers, 119 Society and Crime report, 117 Newman, Oscar, 68–69, 216 non-experimental evaluation, 89 offenders, 30

  animal-related crimes, 208
  juvenile, 63
  motivated, 18, 73
  SCP and, 56
offending, 13, 128

© in this web service Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org factors for reduction of, 37

outcome evaluation, 85–86

Party Safe Information Kits, 188
Pathways to Prevention project (Aust.), 46, 93 Perry Preschool Project (US), 34, 35, 36, 37, 38, 44, 93 petrol sniffing, 66
phishing, 196
poaching, 208
policing, 4, 17, 35
aggressive, 7
bottom-up, 204
community, 202, 204–205, 209
crime prevention and, 202–205 external collaboration and, 202 high-profile, 128
intelligence-led, 202, 204, 205, 209 local, 42
privatisation of, 8, 10 problem-oriented, 87, 202, 205, 209 third-party, 202, 209
top-down, 204, 205
traditional, 202, 204
zero-tolerance, 42
primary prevention, 23, 38, 39 problem-solving methodology, 25–29
process evaluation, 95–97
public housing, 68–69
public space, 55, 142
ambiguities of, 164–168
definition, 167
mass privatisation of, 165 mundane, 166
people watching and, 167 pleasures of, 167
predictability and, 167
social dynamics of, 10
urban, balancing spontaneity and civility in, 143–144, 148 uses of, 165
youth and, 167–168
punishment, 4, 19, 24, 41, 63, 104, 128 affective dimension of, 41

quasi-experimental evaluation, 88–89, 98, 133 Queensland Pathways project, 101

randomised control trials, 86, 87, 97–98
rational choice theory, 65 responses to alcohol-related violence, 181 control of licensed premises, 183
Don't Turn a Night Out into a Nightmare campaign (Aust.), 184 education programs, 183–184 enforcement of existing consumption laws, 181–183 integrated approaches to, 184–186
Safer Bars Programme (Can.), 185
Step Back Think program (Aust.), 184 responsibilisation, 6, 8, 16 risk index, 74
routine activity theory, 18–19, 30, 56, 65

Safe Cities program (UK), 121
Safer Bars Programme (Can.), 185
Safer Cities and Shires strategy (Vic.), 96, 126
Safer Suburbs program (Aust.), 126 Scared Straight program (US), 91, 99
Schoolies Week, 186, 188
SCP (situational crime prevention), 53 anticipatory benefits and, 64 as a commodity, 63
compared to CPTED, 54–55
crime science paradigm and, 61, 62 critiques of, 60–64
diffusion of benefits and, 64 guardianship and, 66
key techniques of, 58–59, 58
opportunity and, 56, 62, 64 promotion of innovative thinking and, 64 specialisation and, 60–61
transferability of, 60
Seattle Social Development Project (US), 35, 38 secondary prevention, 23, 38, 39 Secured by Design strategy (UK), 72 security differentials, 140 security services, commodification of, 10, 141 self-transcendence, 170
sexting, 195
See also texting
Sherman report, 91
shoplifting, 153
shopping centres and public malls, 4, 10, 65, 67, 112, 137, 144–145, 188 Brisbane City Council, 145 characteristics of tenancy and, 152 exclusionary crime prevention and, 148 Festival Faire shopping centre (Qld), 152–155 inclusionary crime prevention and, 148 inclusive planning processes and, 145 informal rules of non-engagement and, 148 management protocols for, 145–146
MCS Shopping Centre Youth Project (Aust.), 151–155
Myer Centre Youth Protocol (Qld), 146
Netherlands approach to, 118, 146–147

© in this web service Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

Perth (WA) approach to, 147 privately owned, 151
youth-friendly, 151–155
Zuidplein shopping centre (NL), 146–147
Singapore
cost of producing a law-abiding society, 9
crime prevention policy, 8
site survey and safety audit methodology, 74–75 situational crime prevention. See SCP situational prevention, 9, 15, 19, 26, 129, 187, 189 assumption of, 13
Neighbourhood Watch (AU) and, 139 skateboarding, 10, 44, 142, 143 social cohesion, 39, 104, 140, 141 social conflict, youth gangs and, 174–177 social control, 6, 8, 10, 13, 17, 22, 39, 41, 67, 128 inclusive, 214
informal, 18
passive, 187
social disorder
graffiti and, 168–173
positive, 164
social disorganisation, 39 social exclusion, 35, 61, 115, 120, 128 social inclusion, 138, 215 community participation and, 138–141 social justice, 9, 45, 49, 63 social networking services, 10, 156 benefits of, 157–158
criminal use of, 194
cyber-safety and, 195
social prevention, 9, 29, 41, 104, 187, 189
affective dimension of, 43, 49
aims of, 22
approaches to, 38–41
assumption of, 13
disadvantaged populations and, 45 future of, 44–46
limits to, 43–44
methods, illegal fishing and, 207 plan-based, 46
structure and agency, 37–38
terrorism and, 200
Society and Crime report (NL), 117
Society and Crime strategy (NL), 113, 120
South Australia
Together Against Crime strategy, 125, 126, 213–214 spam, 194
spyware, 197
Standing Conference on Crime Prevention (UK), 121 state, role in crime prevention, 16
Step Back Think program (AU), 184 stolen goods, 65
street lighting, 62, 88, 99, 142 surveillance, 21, 23, 42, 62, 67, 70, 139, 215 closed-circuit. See CCTV formal, 18, 70
natural, 54, 55, 60, 68, 70, 73, 74 occupational, 55
professional, 60, 117
swarming, 186
See also gatecrashing
systematic reviews, 90–92, 97, 99

target hardening, 93, 112, 139
graffiti and, 171
targeted interventions, 15 targets of crime, 18, 19, 30, 64 territorial reinforcement, 69–70 terrorism, 4, 11, 58, 197, 209, 221 agricultural, 199
biological, 199
cyber, 199
definition, 198–199
ecological, 199
narco, 199
objective of, 199
political, 199
terrorism prevention community cooperation and, 200–201 de-radicalisation programs, 200 deterrence-based model, 199 effective policing and, 202 legislative response to, 199 minority groups and, 201–202
terrorism prevention, 199–200 terrorists, social profile of, 199 tertiary prevention, 23, 38, 41 texting, 156, 157, 194, 195
See also sexting
three strikes, 104
Together Against Crime strategy (SA), 125, 126, 213–214 tough-on-crime approach, 7, 10, 104, 128 Tough on Crime. Tough on the Causes of Crime (UK), 124, 128 trojans, 194
truancy, 23, 24, 81, 84, 89
Netherlands, 118–119

United Kingdom
Anti-Social Behaviour Orders, 124
Burglary Reduction Initiative, 129
Crime Concern, 121
Crime and Disorder Act 1998, 124–125, 129
Crime Reduction Programme, 15–16, 113, 121–124, 129, 214, 219
Home Office Crime Prevention Unit, 121
National Association for the Care and Resettlement of Offenders, 121 Safe Cities program, 121
Secured by Design (SBD), 72

© in this web service Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

Standing Conference on Crime Prevention, 121
Tough on Crime. Tough on the Causes of Crime, 124, 128
United States
Big Brothers, Big Sisters program, 86
Cambridge-Somerville Youth Study, 36–37, 45
Community Anti-Crime Program, 42
Elmira Prenatal and Early Infancy Project, 34, 38, 44
Perry Preschool Project, 34, 35, 36, 37, 44, 93
Scared Straight program, 91, 99
Seattle Social Development Project, 35, 38
Urban Crime Prevention scheme, 42
Weed and Seed program, 42–43
Urban Crime Prevention scheme (US), 42 urban planning, 15, 53, 54, 67 vandalism, 8, 28, 43, 68, 89, 118, 152, 154, 170

cultural criminology and, 169
Victoria
Crime Prevention Unit, 126
Good Neighbourhood program, 125
Minister for Crime Prevention, 126
Safer Cities and Shires strategy, 96
Safer Streets and Homes strategy, 126 viruses, 194
voluntary associations, 42 insurgent, 42, 140
preservationist, 42, 140

Weber, Max, 60
Weed and Seed program (US), 42–43
Western Australia
Designing Out Crime initiative, 71 wilderness adventure programs, 41 wildlife, illegal trade in, 206 worms, 194

youth
alcohol consumption patterns of, 178–179 involvement in crime prevention, 141–143 shopping malls and, 151–155 youth gangs, 164
community-based approaches to, 175–176 community reputation and, 176 Glenorchy Mafia (Tas.), 175
graffiti and, 168
social conflict and, 174–177 youth facilities and, 175 youth worker programs and, 175–175

© in this web service Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org