CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-1-108-06348-7 - The Life of Edward Jenner: Naturalist, and Discoverer of Vaccination
F. Dawtry Drewitt
Index
More information

INDEX

ABBOTSBURY, Chesil Bank at, 24
Abercromby, Sir Ralph: ships conveying his troops wrecked in channel, 25; his troops for Egypt successfully vaccinated, 69
Adams, John, President of U.S.A., recognises the importance of vaccination, 68
Addington, John, Prime Minister, reports that the King is in favour of a parliamentary grant to Jenner, 79; persuades Jenner to practise in Mayfair, 88
America, vaccination in, 68
Annals of Medical History, 120
Aurelian Society, a society of entomologists, 32
Austen, Jane, 66
Austria, Emperor of, releases captives on petition from Jenner, 94

BAILLIE, Dr. Matthew, attends George III during last illness, refuses baronetcy, retires to Duntisbourne; Jenner stays with him, 126
Balloon, Montgolfier's, 19; Jenner inflates a balloon in the hall of Berkeley Castle, 19
Banks, Sir Joseph: Jenner prepares his natural history specimens collected during Cook's voyage, 3, 31; acknowledges Jenner's paper to Royal Society on Cuckoo, 45; informs Jenner of his election as Associate of National Institute of France, 102
Baron, Dr. John, writes Life of Edward Jenner, Introduction, 78; appreciation of Jenner, 119, 132
Barrington, Hon. Daines, Gilbert White's letters to, 32, 49
Barrow Hill, by the Severn, 11
Beddoes, Dr., believes that some birds hibernate in the mud of lakes, 54
Bedford, Duke of, letter to Jenner on inoculation, 95
Berkeley, Admiral, chairman of Parliamentary Committee on a grant to Jenner, 80
Berkeley Castle, 6; Edward II murdered in, 7; Jenner sees martins' nests on its walls, 9; inflates a balloon in the hall of, 19
Berkeley, Earl of, presents Jenner to King George III, 66; gives evidence in favour of grant to Jenner, 81; death, 100
Berkeley fair, Jenner's lines on, 15
Berkeley, Vale of, 5; its dairies, 60; loses much of its charm at the end of Jenner's lifetime, 124
Bewick, Thomas, author of British Birds, 33

© in this web service Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-1-108-06348-7 - The Life of Edward Jenner: Naturalist, and Discoverer of Vaccination
F. Dawtry Drewitt
Index
More information

Birch, John, surgeon to St. Thomas's Hospital, opposes vaccination, 105
Birds, migration of, 54, 56; morning song of, 57
Blaxall, Dr. F. R., writes government report on vaccination (1930), 140
Blücher, Jenner meets, and receives pressing invitations to Berlin, 116
Brünn, temple dedicated to Jenner at, 76
Buckland, Dean, 35, 36, 122
Buckland, Frank, removes Hunter's body, 27
Bulloch, Professor W., on Charles Creighton, 133
Burlip Hill (Birdlip), Cobbett describes view from, 5
Burne, R. H., F.R.S., 52
Bustard, Great, sent to J. Hunter by Jenner, 35; now extinct in England, 35 n.

Centenary of Jenner's death celebrated in Paris and London, 135, 136
Chantry Cottage, Jenner's house, 6, 21
Chaplin, Dr. Arnold, his preface to Jenner's Note Book, 20
Cheltenham, Jenner at, 76; vaccinates gratuitously at, 90
Chesil Bank, troopship wrecked on, Lieut. Jenner drowned, 24
China, vaccination introduced, 71
Cirencester, Jenner's school at, 2, 5; its oolite rocks, 127
Clarence, Duke of, moves vote of thanks to Jenner for offer of assistance to Jennerian Society, 84
Clinch, Rev. John, in Newfoundland, 21; suffers from French invasion, 23; on success of vaccination, 83
Cline, Henry, vaccinates child in St. Thomas's Hospital, 62
Cobbett, William, on agricultural depression, and beauty of Vale of Gloucester, 5, 6
Coleridge, S. T., asks Jenner for particulars of his discovery of vaccination, as a subject for a poem, 102, 103
Collins, Sir William, on vaccination, 138, 139
Constantinople, vaccination at, 72
Cook, Captain, his first voyage, 3, 31
Copeman, Dr. S. Monckton, on smallpox, 135, 141
Corunna, Spanish expedition for promotion of vaccination, sails from, 71
Corvisart, Baron, his request to Jenner to obtain release of prisoner in England, 94
Cow-pox is a modified form of smallpox protecting those who had been infected by it from smallpox, 61; found among cows in Lombardy, 73
Creighton, Charles, M.D., scholar and philosopher, attacks Jenner, and his work, 132; considers his observations on the cuckoo a lie, and his statement that cow-pox is smallpox of the cow an attempt to mislead the world, 134
Crichton, Sir Alexander, physician to Westminster Hospital, and Minister of Health in Russia, 109; his letter to Jenner on efficient vaccination in Russia, 110; retains office when Russia is at war with England, 112
Crookshank, T. M., attacks vaccination, 132

© in this web service Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-1-108-06348-7 - The Life of Edward Jenner: Naturalist, and Discoverer of Vaccination
F. Dawtry Drewitt
Index
More information

Cuckoo, resemblance of its egg to those of its host, 39, 40; each cuckoo probably victimises one kind of bird, 40; hedge-sparrow an easy dupe, 41; Jenner's paper (on young cuckoos' ability to eject young hedge-sparrows) sent to Royal Society, 45; acceptance of paper postponed, 45; read the following year, 46; many eggs laid in one summer, 47; a destructive bird, 48; advantages of its hawk-like appearance, 49; its food, 50; Waterton discredits Jenner's account, 51: Jenner's observations proved to be correct, 52; discredited by Charles Creighton, 133

Darwin, Dr. Erasmus, on vaccination, 84
Davids, Dr., on success of vaccination at Rotterdam, 77
Davy, Sir Humphry, on Jenner's observation of earthworms, 38; accompanies Jenner on natural history investigations, 53; presents Jenner's paper on Migration of Birds to Royal Society, 53
De Carro, Dr., promotes vaccination in Austria, Hungary, Poland, and Germany—furnishes lymph for India, 72; his letter on the success of vaccination, 73
Denmark, King of, orders compulsory vaccination, smallpox disappears from the country, 113
Dibdin, Rev. T. F., on the ring given to Jenner by the Empress of Russia, 77 n.; on Jenner, 119
Dimsdale, Baron, inoculates Empress of Russia, 59
Dunning, Mr., 68

Earthworms, Jenner on, 38
Edinburgh Review on the violent language of anti-vaccinists and others, 87
Edinburgh, Royal College of Physicians at, elect Jenner Honorary Fellow, 94
Edwards, George, 'library keeper' to Royal College of Physicians, his book on natural history, 31
Elgin, Earl of, promotes vaccination in Constantinople, Greece, and India, 72
Equine virus used by Jenner, 108

Fabricius, J. C., entomologist, 32
Farquhar, Sir Walter, 63; in favour of grant to Jenner, 81
Fermor, William, promotes vaccination in Oxfordshire, 65
Fox, Charles James, 66

Gardner, Edward, friend of Jenner, 21
Gloucester, Vale of, described by Cobbett, 5, 6
Göttingen, Royal Society of, elects Jenner an Honorary Member, 77
Grosvenor, Mr., Surgeon to Radcliffe Infirmary, signs testimonial to Jenner, 67
Grosvenor, Hon. Robert, contracts smallpox after vaccination, 101

Hadleigh, in Suffolk, vaccination at, 66
Hale-White, Sir W., on Jenner, 136
Havana, vaccination banishes smallpox in, 109

© in this web service Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-1-108-06348-7 - The Life of Edward Jenner: Naturalist, and Discoverer of Vaccination
F. Dawtry Drewitt
Index
More information

Hedgehogs sent to Hunter by Jenner, 34
Hibernation of animals, investigations on, by Jenner and John Hunter, 37, 38
Hicks, Henry, 29, 81
Hindoos accept vaccination, 73
Holland, Lord, informs Jenner that the Royal Economical Society of Madrid has elected him a Member, 70
Home, Sir Everard, F.R.S., trustee of Hunterian Museum, 26
House martins, 9
House of Commons vote £10,000 to Jenner, 82 ; £20,000, 97
Huguenot naturalists, 33
Hunter, John, F.R.S., surgeon to St. George's Hospital—Jenner's tutor and friend, 3 ; offers Jenner partnership in lecturing, 3 ; death at St. George's Hospital, 26 ; his menagerie at Brompton, 2 ; burial in Westminster Abbey, 28 ; objects of natural history sent to him by Jenner, 34
Hydatids in cattle, Jenner's investigations, 20

India, vaccination introduced into, 72 ; Bombay sends testimonial of £2000, Calcutta £3000 and Madras £1383 to Jenner, 76
Indians, North American, accept vaccination and send belt of wampum to Jenner, 113
Inoculation for smallpox introduced by Lady Mary Montagu, 59 ; increases mortality from smallpox, 59 ; recklessly performed in London, 83
Itchen, river, reed-warbler's nest in, 39

Jefferson, President of U.S.A., 68
Jenner, Edward, M.D., F.R.S. : parentage, 1 ; school at Cirencester, 2 ; studies medicine at Sodbury, 2 ; pupil of John Hunter, 2 ; offered post of naturalist on Cook's second expedition, 3 ; and partnership with Hunter, 3 ; medical practitioner at Berkeley, 3 ; his popularity, 6 ; writes light verse, 13 ; rides through a snow-storm on the Cotswolds, 17 ; inflates balloon in Berkeley Castle, 19 ; marriage, 21 ; attack of typhus, 28 ; procures specimens of natural history for Hunter, 34 ; experiments on hibernating hedgehogs, 34 ; describes uses of earthworms, 38 ; on the cuckoo, 42 ; on blackbird's egg hatched, and young bird fed by hedge-sparrow, 41 ; observes many nests containing cuckoos' eggs, 42 ; watches young cuckoo turning out young hedge-sparrows, 43 ; his paper on 'Cuckoo' sent to Royal Society, 45 ; large number of eggs laid by hen cuckoo, 47 ; food of cuckoo, 50 ; Jenner's account discredited, 51 ; proved to be correct, 52 ; paper on Migration of Birds, 53 ; morning songs of birds, 57 ; vaccinates a boy (Phipps) with lymph from milkmaid's hands, 61 ; writes his pamphlet on Variolæ Vaccinæ, 62 ; in London, unable to demonstrate the effects of vaccination, 62 ; to Cheltenham with Mrs. Jenner, 64 ; returns to London, 65 ; declines offer of title of 'Extra Consulting Physician' to Vaccination Institute, 65 ; presented to King George III, 66 ; testi-

© in this web service Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-1-108-06348-7 - The Life of Edward Jenner: Naturalist, and Discoverer of Vaccination
F. Dawtry Drewitt
Index
More information

monial from Oxford, 67; sits for portrait, 68; offers £1000 to equip ship for India, 72; temple dedicated to him at Brünn, 76; Royal Society of Göttingen elects him an Honorary Member, 77; receives service of plate from Gloucestershire residents, 79; voted £10,000 by Parliament, 82; receives honours from Physical Society of Guy's Hospital, 83; receives gold medal of Medical Society, 86; reconciled to Woodville, 88; takes house in Mayfair, 88; returns to Cheltenham, and vaccinates gratuitously, 89; appeals successfully to Napoleon for release of British captives, 93; elected fellow of Royal College of Physicians, Edinburgh, 94; voted £20,000 by Parliament, 97; draws up plans for vaccine establishment with Sir Lucas Pepys, 98; refuses to be nominal director of it, 99; death of eldest son, 100; at Cheltenham in broken health, 101; elected Associate of National Institute of France, 102; receives letter from S. T. Coleridge, 102; corresponds with James Moore, 105; finds difficulty in writing, 106; uses lymph obtained from horses for vaccination, 108; Hon. M.D. of Oxford, 115; congratulated on his discovery by Emperor of Russia, by Blücher, and by King of Prussia, 116; Mrs. Jenner dies at Cheltenham, 117; Jenner in retirement, 118; Dibdin's and Baron's appreciation of Jenner, 119; not a rich man, 123; acts as magistrate at Berkeley, 125; enjoys walks with Matthew Baillie, 126; failing vitality, 128; harassed by correspondence, and reports of failure of vaccination, 128; walks to Ham to order distribution of fuel, 129; dies, and is buried in Berkeley church, 129; attacks on Jenner and vaccination by Crookshank and Creighton, 132; Jenner justified, 135

Jenner, Edward, Dr. Jenner's eldest son, death of, 100

Jenner, Mrs., 1; at Cheltenham, 90; death of, 117

Jenner, George C., 1; leaves for Newfoundland, 22; attends his uncle during an attack of typhus, 28; also in later illness, 127

Jenner, Henry, 1; becomes his uncle's apprentice, 20, 22; attacked by typhus, 29

Jenner, Rev. Henry, 1

Jenner, Robert, Dr. Jenner's second son, 91

Jenner, Lieut. Stephen, wrecked on Chesil Bank, 25

Jenner, Rev. Stephen, 1

Jenner's Note Book, published by Royal College of Physicians, Dr. Arnold Chaplin's preface to, 20, 30; observations on young cuckoo recorded in, 41, 42, 47; food of cuckoo, 50

Jennerian Society formed, 84; King and Queen patron and patroness, 84; resident vaccinator breaks rules laid down by Committee, 85

Jesty, Benjamin, said to have been the earliest known vaccinator, invited to London, 86

Jones, William, of Chelsea, entomologist and artist, 32

© in this web service Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-1-108-06348-7 - The Life of Edward Jenner: Naturalist, and Discoverer of Vaccination
F. Dawtry Drewitt
Index
More information

KING GEORGE III, Jenner presented to, 66; patron of Jennerian Society, 84; attended by Sir Lucas Pepys at Kew, 98; and by Dr. Matthew Baillie in his last illness, 126
Kingscote, Miss, Jenner marries, 21

LAMA, a zealous vaccinator in Russia, 110
Land-rail, its flight on migration, 55, 56
Lansdowne, Marquess of (as Lord Henry Petty), brings subject of vaccination, inoculation, and remuneration to Jenner before Parliament, 95; his motion for inquiry carried, 97
Latham, John, of Eltham, pupil of John Hunter and author of Synopsis of Birds, 32
Lettsom, Dr., represents Jenner at Jennerian Society, 86; gives address on Jenner at Medical Society, 86; liberates his slaves in a West Indian island, 86 n.
Lilford, Lord, 37; on birds, 50, 56
Linnæus, father of modern natural history, 30; lectures at Upsala, 121
Ludlow, surgeon at Sodbury, teaches Jenner surgery, 2, 29

MADRID, Royal Economical Society of, elects Jenner Honorary Member, 70
Malta, vaccination in, 69
Marshall, Dr., vaccinates in Malta, and 'renders essential service to the inhabitants,' 69
Medical practitioners, hard life of, in the country, 17
Medical Society of London votes gold medal to Jenner, 86
Miranda, Francesco, leads revolt of South America against Spain, 93
Montagu, Lady Mary, introduces inoculation for smallpox, 58
Moore, James, friend of Jenner, author of A History of Smallpox; director of National Vaccine Establishment, 104; Jenner condoles with him on Sir John Moore's death, and offers information on vaccination, 105; his attractive character, 105; his report of the National Vaccine Establishment, 104
Moore, Sir John, killed at Corunna, 104; Soult erects a monument to him, 112
Moseley, Dr., attacks vaccination, 87, 97

NAPOLEON, Emperor, releases British captives on petition from Jenner, 93; abdicates, 115
National Vaccine Establishment, 97; Sir Lucas Pepys and Jenner organise it, 98; Jenner excluded from management, 99; but ready to help, 104; its annual report, 109
Navy, Medical Officers of, vote medal to Jenner, 69
Nelmes, Sarah, milkmaid, vaccine virus taken from her hand, 61
Newton, Professor Alfred, confirms Jenner's observations on young cuckoo, 51
Northcote paints portrait of Jenner, 68

OLDENBURG, Duchess of, her interview with Jenner, 115
Oxford University confers M.D. degree on Jenner, 115

© in this web service Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-1-108-06348-7 - The Life of Edward Jenner: Naturalist, and Discoverer of Vaccination
F. Dawtry Drewitt
Index
More information

PALERMO, processions for vaccination in, 69
Paris, vaccination in, 77
Parry, Dr., of Bath, attends Jenner through an attack of typhus, 28
Passports signed by Jenner recognised by captains of enemy privateers, 94
Pearson, Dr. G., with Woodville, founds a Vaccination Institute, 65 ; is jealous of Jenner, 86
Pegge, Sir Christopher (of Oxford), his testimonial to Jenner, 67
Pennant, Thomas, his writings on natural history, 31
Pepys, Sir Lucas, President of Royal College of Physicians, Physician-General to Army, draws up rules for Vaccine Establishment, 98 ; excludes Jenner from Board of Management, 99
Percival, Spencer, Chancellor of the Exchequer, moves in House of Commons a grant to Jenner, 97
Phipps, James, first person to be vaccinated, 61 ; Jenner builds a cottage for him, 126
Physicians, Royal College of, collects evidence of vaccination, 97
Physicians, Royal College of, of Edinburgh, elect Jenner a Fellow, 94
Plymouth, Medical Society of, request Jenner to sit for portrait, 68
Poverty of country folk due to the Napoleonic wars, 125
Powell, W. D., released by order of King of Spain on an appeal by Jenner, 93
Primrose, evening, Jenner notices moths visiting it after sunset, 38
Prussia, King of, Jenner meets, 116
RAFFLES, Sir Stamford, introduces vaccination into Java, 114 ; visits Jenner at Berkeley, 114
Rodborough, Medical Society at, 12
Rowley, Dr. W., of Oxford, publishes a Solemn Appeal against Vaccination, with illustrations of cow-faced children, 96
Russia, Alexander, Emperor of, orders vaccination throughout Russia, 111 ; informs Jenner that vaccination has subdued smallpox in Russia, 115 ; complains of long banquets in the city, 115
Russia, Catherine, Empress of, inoculated, 59 ; writes to Jenner on his services to humanity and encloses a ring, 77 ; consults Sir Alexander Crichton on her charitable institutions, 109

SACCO, Dr., of Milan, finds vaccine virus among cows in Lombardy, and furnishes Dr. Carro with it for the East, 73
St. Martin's catacombs, 27
Savernake, New Park of, 5
Shrapnell, Henry, attends Jenner after attack of unconsciousness, 127
Shrapnell, W. F., describes shipwreck on Chesil Bank, and death of Lieut. Stephen Jenner, 25
Signs of Rain, Jenner's poem on, 13
Sinclair, Mr., freedom granted to, by Emperor of Austria, on a petition from Jenner, 94
Sloane, Sir Hans, by his will, founds British Museum in Jenner's lifetime, 31
Smallpox, universal disease, 58 ; mortality from, increased by

© in this web service Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-1-108-06348-7 - The Life of Edward Jenner: Naturalist, and Discoverer of Vaccination
F. Dawtry Drewitt
Index
More information

inoculation, 59; checked by vaccination in America, 68; Malta, 69; Spain, 70; Spanish America, 71; Sicily, 69; India, 76; Havana, 109; Russia, 110; Sweden, 113; Bombay, 114
Smallpox hospital, vaccination performed at, 64
Smith, Sir James, founds the Linnean Society in Jenner's lifetime, 33
Smith, Rev. Sydney, 87
Society of London Entomologists, and Aurelian Society, 32
Somerville, Lord, President of Board of Agriculture, his letter to Jenner, 100
Spain, King of, releases prisoners of war on Jenner's petition, 93, 94
Spain, vaccination introduced into, but fails at Seville, 70
Spanish Naval Expedition for promotion of vaccination, 71
Squirrel, Dr., 87
Statue to Jenner, 131
Struve, Dr., of Saxony, his letter to Jenner, 82
Surgeons, Royal College of, 27
Sweden, introduction of vaccination into, with good results, 113
Swifts, marked by Jenner, return to the same nesting-place each year, 56

Taxation, heavy, after Napoleonic wars, 125
Toads, vitality of, 35, 36

Vaccination of James Phipps, 61; of child in St. Thomas's Hospital, 63; at smallpox hospital, 65; in Eastern Counties, 58; in America, 68; Malta, 69; Spain, 70; South America, 71; China, 71; Sicily, 69; India, 72; De Carro, on the success of vaccination throughout Europe, 72, 75; in Vienna, Italy, Newfoundland, 83; vaccination of cows, horses, goats, donkeys, sheep by Valentin, 88; S. T. Coleridge contemplates a poem on, 102; its success in Spanish America, 109; orders for it issued by Emperor of Russia, 110; failure of, in Bombay, 114; success of, in Bavaria, 116; attack on it by Creighton, 133; success of it in Great War, 135; vaccine lymph and vaccinators vary, 137; present position of vaccination in England, 138
Vaccine lymph, origin of present strain of, 141; storage of, 141
Valentin, Dr., of Nancy, visits England and reconciles Jenner and Woodville, 88

Walker, Dr., vaccinates fleet at Malta, and Sir Ralph Abercromby's force in Egypt, contributing to the success of the campaign, 70
Wall, Dr., Professor of Chemistry, Oxford, his testimonial to Jenner, 67
Wampum (cowries), belt of, presented to Jenner by North American Indians, 113
Waterhouse, Dr., of Massachusetts, 136; vaccinates in America, 68
Waterton, C., 51
West, Lady, records failure of vaccination in Bombay (in 1825), 114
Westwood, J. O., Professor of Entomology at Oxford, 32, 33

© in this web service Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-1-108-06348-7 - The Life of Edward Jenner: Naturalist, and Discoverer of Vaccination
F. Dawtry Drewitt
Index
More information

White, Gilbert, 32 ; on the number of eggs laid by hen cuckoo, 49 ; believes that some birds hibernate, 53, 54
Wickham, Dr., released by Napoleon on an appeal by Jenner, 93
Wilberforce, William, in House of Commons, speaks in favour of large grant to Jenner, 80
Williams, Dr., Professor of Botany at Oxford, signs testimonial to Jenner, 67
Williams, Mr., released by Napoleon on an appeal from Jenner, 94
Winchester, reed-warblers' nests at, 39
Windham, William, in favour of parliamentary grant to Jenner, 80
Woodville, Dr., physician to small-pox hospital, distributes contaminated lymph, 65 ; resents Jenner's criticism, reconciliation brought about by Valentin, 88
Worthington, Rev., Dr. Jenner's letters to, on the death of his secretary and the burden of his correspondence, 106 ; on the infirmities of his old age, 127, 128
Wright, Sir Almroth, on vaccination, 138 n.

York, Duke of, withdraws patronage from Vaccination Institution, 66

Printed in England at THE BALLANTYNE PRESS
SPOTTISWOODE, BALLANTYNE & CO. LTD.
Colchester, London & Eton

© in this web service Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org