Acknowledgments

The idea of publishing this book arose at the Maison des Sciences de l'Homme in the spring of 1978. The Maison des Sciences de l'Homme sponsored several seminars on the general subject, a three-day conference in Bad Homburg with an international group, and made possible the publication of this volume. The editors wish to express their gratitude especially to the Maison des Sciences de l'Homme and to its head, Professor Fernand Braudel, and also to Professor Clemens Heller for his help and encouragement.

A particular word of thanks is due to the Werner-Reimers-Stiftung, which made it possible to hold a conference, gathering more than 30 participants in the beautiful setting of its Bad Homburg building. The head of the Stiftung, the late Dr. Konrad Muller, and Mrs. Sönntgen did their utmost to make our stay pleasant and creative.

The linguistic assistance of Mrs. Christine Laffargue was helpful in the preparation of the conference and of this volume. A great deal of administrative work was done at CEPREMAP and some at the Centre d'Economie Quantitative et Comparative, both in Paris. The National Science Foundation in Washington financed the participation of the American participants to the conference. The editors are grateful to all of them.
