

INDEX

- Aalands Islands dispute, 266
 Acland Hood, Sir Alexander, 104, 147, 167
 Afghanistan, 113
 Agricultural Rating Act, 86
 Aitken, Max (Lord Beaverbrook), 185–6, 177, 178, 219, 221
 Akers-Douglas, Aretas, 76, 104, 147, 162, 167
 Alaskan–Canadian boundary dispute, 107 alcoholic beverages restrictions, 89, 204
 Aldenham, Lord, 273
 Algeiras conference, 111
 Aliens' Act, 123, 239
 Allied Supreme Council, 266, 267, 271
 Amery, L. S., 287, 288
 Angell, Norman, 177
 Anglo-German (Portuguese) agreement, 96–7
 Anglo-Japanese alliance, 95, 96, 111, 368–70
 Anglo-Russian (Far Eastern) negotiations, 94 anti-Ritualist controversy, 87–8 anti-Semitism, 123, 239, 241
 Arabs, 238, 242, 246, 248, 285
 Arcos raid, 289
 Army Annual Bill, 188–9
 Arnold-Forster, H. O., 135, 149
 Ashbourne, Lord, 48
 Asquith, H. H.: his association with the 'Souls', 83; becomes Prime Minister, 152; appoints Balfour to C.I.D., 156, 196, 199; his role in 1909 budget crisis, 158–9; his role in Parliament Bill crisis, 159–69; opposes militant suffragettes, 179; his role in 3rd Home Rule Bill crisis, 180–3; appoints Balfour to Admiralty, 205–6; introduces conscription, 216–17; attitude following Easter rebellion, 217; considers negotiated peace, 218–19; his role during 1916 Cabinet crisis, 219–28; refuses co-operation against Labour, 282–4
 Asquith, Margot, 83, 161, 228
 Bad Gastein, 169
 Balbirnie, 1
 Balcarres, Lord, 167, 171, 172
 Baldwin, Stanley: opposes Lloyd George coalition, 277; heads Cabinet after Bonar Law's retirement, 282; defeated on protectionist issue, 282; rejects coalition with Asquith Liberals, 283; renounces protection, 284; forms 2nd Cabinet, 285; appoints Balfour to C.I.D., 285; appoints Balfour Lord President, 286; congratulates Balfour on 80th birthday, 290
 Balfour, Alice, 2, 4, 73, 171, 277
 Balfour, Arthur James (1st Earl of Balfour) personal: his family background, 1–5; his education, 5–9; his friendship with Lytteltons and Gladstones, 10–12; his ill-fated romance, 12; his world tour, 12–13; character portrayed by Mrs Drew, 14–15; publishes Defence of Philosophic Doubt, 21–2; Gladstone's regard for his character and ability, 14, 35–6; changes in his personality, 37–8; endows philosophy lectureship, 55; central figure in the 'Souls', 82–3; publishes Foundations of Belief, 83; his character portrayed by Parry, 84–5; health problem after 1906 elections, 149; gives Gifford lectures, 176, 278; publishes Theism and Humanism, 204; awarded Order of Merit, 214; his attitude towards Jews, 239–42; elected Chancellor of Cambridge, 278; publishes Theism and Thought, 278; receives Garter and peerage, 270–1; visits Palestine for opening of Hebrew University, 285–6; begins work on memoirs, 290; honoured on 80th birthday, 290; his death and burial, 291 political: his 1st election to Parliament, 12, 15–16; early speeches in Commons, 17–19; appointed Salisbury's parliamentary secretary, 19; attends Congress of Berlin, 21; member of 'Fourth Party', 28–43; named President of Local

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-08881-7 - Balfour: A Political Biography

Sydney H. Zebel

Index

More information

INDEX

Balfour (contd.)

Government Board, 47; helps organize Unionist alliance, 53–4; appointed Secretary for Scotland, 55; his policies as Irish Secretary, 63–72; promoted to Leadership in Commons, 76–7; attitude towards Joseph Chamberlain, 79; obstructionist tactics against 2nd Home Rule Bill, 80–1; legislative achievements during 3rd Salisbury Government, 85–8; interest in bimetalism, 92–3; substitutes for Salisbury at Foreign Office, 93–4, 97; views regarding United States and Germany, 95–6; role during Boer War, 99–102; foreign policies as Prime Minister, 105–11; controversies with Curzon, 112–14; creates C.I.D., 115–16; his education, licensing and Irish reforms, 118–28; unpopularity with labour, 122–4; ambivalence regarding Tariff Reform, 131–41; resigns as Prime Minister, 141; retains Unionist leadership after 1906 elections, 144–8; defends Lords' use of veto power, 153; champions white supremacy in South Africa, 154–5; creates 1909 naval scare, 156–7; opposes Lloyd George's budget, 157–8; his indecision regarding the Parliament Bill, 167–8; authority challenged by 'Ditchers', 169–74; retires as Unionist Leader, 174; co-operates with Bonar Law, 178–9; his attitude towards women's rights, 88–9, 179–80; opposes Welsh Disestablishment Bill, 180; his hostility towards 3rd Home Rule Bill, 180–1; views regarding Marconi scandal, 182–3; opposes Army Annual Bill amendment, 188–9; attitude towards pre-war armaments, 194; interest in new military developments, 194–5; appointed to War Council, 199; helps Lloyd George in munitions crisis; 202–3; appointed to Admiralty, 205; his disappointment with Jutland battle, 212; opposes mass offensives in France, 217; participates in inter-Allied war conferences, 214, 215–16; opposes negotiated peace, 219; his role during 1916 Cabinet crisis, 223–8; appointed Foreign Secretary, 227–8; heads war mission to United States, 234–6; issues 'Balfour Declaration' on Palestine, 237–8; negotiates with Russian Bolsheviks, 249–51;

his attitude towards Allies' intervention in Russia, 252; favours postwar coalition under Lloyd George, 256; his role at Paris Peace Conference, 257–62; named Lord President in new Lloyd George Government, 262; represents Britain at League of Nations, 264–7, 271–2 279–80; heads delegation to Washington Conference, 267–70; drafts 'Balfour Note' on war debts, 275–6; negotiates Austrian economic agreements, 271–2; defends Lloyd George against critics, 272; supports Austen Chamberlain at Carlton Club meeting, 277; refuses membership in Bonar Law's Cabinet, 278; opposes Curzon as Law's successor, 281; his criticisms of MacDonald Government, 285; appointed Lord President by Baldwin, 286; his role at 1926 Imperial Conference, 287–8; criticizes Soviet Russia's policies, 289; views on cruiser limitation controversy with United States, 289; his final surrender of political office, 291; his political career appraised, 292–3

Balfour, Cecil, 2, 4, 37

Balfour, Charles, 2, 3

Balfour, Eleanor, 2, 4, 8, 13; see also Sidgwick, Mrs Henry

Balfour, Eustace, 2, 4, 36

Balfour, Evelyn, 2, 4, 8

Balfour, Lady Frances, 36, 55

Balfour, Francis, 2, 3–4, 37

Balfour, Gerald: as Fellow of Trinity College, Cambridge, 3; elected M.P. for Central Leeds, 51; his policies as Irish Secretary, 84, 126; becomes President of Board of Trade, 102; loses parliamentary seat, 142; describes party contest after 1906 elections, 144–7; his concern for Balfour's health, 149; shares home with ailing Balfour, 291

Balfour, James, 1–2

Balfour, James Maitland, 2, 3

Balfour, Oswald, 198

Balfour of Burleigh, Lord, 132, 133, 134

'Balfour Note' (war debts), 275–6, 280

Balfour philosophy lectureship, 55

Balgonie estate, 2

Barnes, George, 257

Beaconsfield, Earl of, see Disraeli, Benjamin

Bell, Sir Francis, 56

INDEX

- Berlin–Bagdad railway, 99, 107
 Berlin Congress, 20, 21
 Bigge, Sir Arthur, 163; see also Stamfordham, Lord
 ‘Big Three’, 259
 bimetallicism, 47, 92–3
 Birkenhead, Lord, 283, 285; see also Smith, F. E.
 ‘Black and Tans’, 273
 ‘Black Week’, 99
 Board of Invention and Research, 209–10
 Boer War: causes of, 97–8; Boer military preparations for, 99; ‘Black Week’, 99; Balfour’s role in, 99–100; opposition to in Britain, 101; prolonged by guerrilla warfare, 102; peace treaty, 103, 106
 Bonar Law, Andrew: achieves prominence as Tariff Reformer, 153; suggests Tariff Reform referendum pledge, 164; elected party leader, 172; his relations with Balfour, 178–9; opposes 3rd Home Rule Bill, 180–93; supports Asquith Government during 1914 war crisis, 192, 197; proposes Gallipoli evacuation, 214; opposes Lloyd George’s Irish reform proposal, 218; joins in ‘Triumvirate’ against Asquith, 219; proposes coalition Government under Balfour, 222–3; becomes member of War Cabinet, 228; consults Balfour about postwar coalition Government, 256; appointed member of Paris peace delegation, 257; his temporary breakdown and retirement, 273; supports rebels at Carlton Club meeting, 277; forms cabinet, 278; visits Balfour at Whittingehame, 279; retains Balfour as delegate to League of Nations, 279–80; his illness and resignation, 281
 Bonsal, Stephen, 258
 Botha, Louis, 99, 154
 Bourgeois, Léon, 265, 267
 Bradlaugh case, 30
 Brandeis, Justice Louis D., 243–4, 245
 Brest-Litovsk, treaty of, 249, 251
 Brett, Reginald, 53; see also Esher, Lord
 British Academy, 290
 British Commonwealth of Nations, 288
 British expeditionary force, 197
 Brockdorff-Rantzau, Count, 260
 Brodrick, St John: as member of the ‘Souls’, 83; appointed War Secretary, 102; demands stronger Committee of Defence, 115; transferred to India Office, 113, 135; criticized by Curzon, 114
 Bryce, James, 92, 93, 98
 Buchanan, Sir George, 249
 Buckingham Palace conferences: (1914), 192; (1916), 225–6 budget crises: (1903), 129; (1909), 157–9
 Buller, General Sir Redvers, 61, 66, 99
 Burials Law Amendment Bill, 18–19
 Burke, Thomas, 35
 Burne-Jones, Sir Edward, 10
 Campbell-Bannerman, Sir Henry: as War Secretary in Rosebery Government, 82; becomes Liberal party Leader, 90; criticizes Unionists’ South African policies, 101; forms Liberal Cabinet 142; wins 1906 elections, 142; rebukes Balfour for delaying tactics, 150; condemns Balfour’s use of Lords’ veto power, 153; grants responsible government to Transvaal and Orange River Colony, 154
 Carlton Club meeting (1922), 277
 Carnarvon, Lord, 48–9, 51
 Carson, (Sir) Edward: as Irish Crown prosecutor, 66, 68; joins ‘Ditchers’, 167; organizes Ulster resistance against Home Rule, 180, 181; negotiates with Asquith for Ulster exclusion, 187–8; joins in ‘Triumvirate’ against Asquith, 219; succeeds Balfour at Admiralty, 229; admitted to War Cabinet, 244–5
 Cavendish, Lord Frederick, 35
 Cecil, Lady Blanche Gascoigne, 2, 3, 4, 8, 12
 Cecil, Lord Hugh, 130, 136
 Cecil, Lord Robert, 2, 3, 7; see also Salisbury, 3rd Marquess of Cecil, Lord Robert: initiates education test case, 117; favours women’s franchise bill, 179; appointed Minister of Blockade, 210; disapproves of Bonar Law’s cooperation with Lloyd George, 221, 222; withdraws support of Asquith Government, 222; takes office in Lloyd George coalition cabinet, 228; deputizes for Balfour at Foreign Office, 232–3; helps draft League of Nations Covenant, 258, 263–4
 Chamberlain, Austen: wins seat at East Worcestershire, 79; appointed Postmaster-General in Balfour’s Cabinet,

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-08881-7 - Balfour: A Political Biography

Sydney H. Zebel

Index

More information

INDEX

- Chamberlain, Austen (contd.)
 104; favours Tariff Reform, 132; appointed Chancellor of Exchequer, 133; objects to Balfour's double-election pledge, 137; his personal regard for Balfour, 141, 172; participates in 1910 constitutional conference, 160; opposes Balfour's Tariff Reform referendum pledge, 164; becomes 'Ditcher' leader, 167; proposed by Balfour as Unionist Leader, 172; moves vote of confidence in Balfour at Halsbury Club, 174; disapproves of Bonar Law's co-operation with Lloyd George, 221, 222; withdraws support of Asquith Government, 222; takes office in Lloyd George coalition cabinet, 228; becomes Conservative party Leader, 273; defeated at Carlton Club meeting, 277; becomes Foreign Secretary in 2nd Baldwin Cabinet, 285
- Chamberlain, Joseph: organizes new Liberal party machinery, 23; his Irish 'devolution' scheme, 44; criticizes Balfour's Medical Relief Disqualification Bill, 48; proposes 'Unauthorized Programme', 49-50; opposes 1st Home Rule Bill, 53; discusses Radical reunion with Liberals, 58; elected Leader of Liberal Unionists in Commons, 79; becomes Colonial Secretary, 84; his views on social reform, 79-80, 90, 122; proposes Anglo-German alliance, 95; unacceptable to Conservatives as Prime Minister, 103; warns against 1902 Education Bill, 120; proposes Jewish re-settlement in East Africa, 239; inaugurates Tariff Reform controversy, 129-30; his resignation from Balfour Cabinet, 133; captures control of Unionist party organizations, 140; contests Balfour's leadership of Unionist party, 144-8; suffers disabling stroke, 151
- Chanak crisis, 276-7
- Channel tunnel scheme, 284-5
- Chapters of Autobiography*, 4
- Cheka*, 252-3
- Cherkley Court talks, 185-6
- Chicherin, George, 250, 253
- China, 94, 268, 270, 289
- Chinese Eastern Railway, 94
- 'Chinese slavery' issue, 124-6, 153-4
- Chittenden, Reverend C. G., 5, 6
- Churchill, Lord Randolph: his family background and education, 29; election to Parliament, 29; becomes member of 'Fourth Party', 29; role in Bradlaugh case, 30; champions 'Tory Democracy', 31; opposes 1884 Franchise Bill, 38-9; contests Conservative party leadership, 40-2; becomes Indian Secretary, 47; his role in 1886 elections, 50; as Chancellor of Exchequer and Leader of Commons, 55; his resignation over service estimates, 57-8
- Churchill, Winston: opposes Tariff Reform, 130; defects to Liberals, 130; criticizes Balfour's use of Lords' veto power, 152-3; his remarks on Balfour's retirement as Conservative Leader, 175; informs Balfour of Germany's war preparations, 194-5; proposes Dardanelles attack, 201; dismissal from Admiralty, 204; attacks Balfour and Jackson, 211; early experiments with tanks, 215; disparages Balfour's diplomacy at League of Nations, 267; congratulates Balfour on his achievements at Washington Conference, 271; his reunion with Conservative party, 285
- Clanricarde, Lord, 68
- Clarence, Duke of, 72
- Clarke, Sir George, 114
- Clemenceau, Premier, 258, 259, 261
- Cleveland, President, 91
- Clynes, J. H., 290
- Coal Mines Minimum Wage Bill, 179
- Cockerton judgment, 117, 118, 121
- Collings, Jesse, 47
- colonial conferences: (1902), 129; (1907), 156; see also imperial conferences
- Committee of Civil Research, 286
- Committee of Defence, 90-1
- Committee of Imperial Defence (C.I.D.): creation of, 115-16; membership and functions, 115-16; Balfour's contributions to, 116-17; Balfour's postwar role in, 264, 280, 284-5, 291
- Connaught, Duke of, 115
- conscription issue, 216-17
- Conservative central office, 140, 284
- Conservative party: election victory 1874, 16; defeat in 1880 elections, 23; post-elections problems, 27-8; contest over leadership, 39-43; alliance with Liberal Unionists, 53-4; disruption by Tariff

INDEX

- Conservative party (contd.)
 Reform controversy, 128–49; party merger, with Liberal Unionists, 178; disagreements over co-operation with Lloyd George, 272, 274, 277–8; reunion following formation of 1st Labour Government, 284 constitutional conference (1910), 160–2 convoy system, 210
 Corn registration duty, 129
 Council of Ten, 258
 Cowper commission, 61, 62, 70
 Cowper, Lord, 33, 35, 61
 Cowper–Temple amendment, 86
 Cranborne, Lord, 7; see also Salisbury, 3rd Marquess of Cranborne, Lord, 55, 102; see also Salisbury, 4th Marquess of Crewe, Lord, 160, 165, 191, 201
 Crimean War, 4
 crofter disturbances, 47, 56–7
 Cross, Richard, 27, 32
 Crowe, Sir Eyre, 232, 271
 cruiser limitation controversy, 289
 Curragh mutiny, 189–90
 Curzon, George (Lord): as member of the ‘Souls’, 83; his controversies as Indian Viceroy, 112–14; takes seat in Lords, 114; favours Tariff Reform referendum pledge, 164; combats ‘Ditcher’ movement, 167, 168, 169; proposed by Balfour as Unionist Leader in Lords, 172; criticizes Kitchener’s war statement, 201; as head of Cabinet aviation committee, 213; disapproves of Bonar Law’s co-operation with Lloyd George, 221, 222; named member of War Cabinet, 228; opposes ‘Balfour Declaration’, 246; shares duties of Foreign Office with Balfour, 257; replaces Balfour as Foreign Secretary, 261, 262; attends 1st League Council meeting, 265; resigns from Lloyd George Cabinet, 277; passed over as Prime Minister, 281–2; appointed Lord President by Baldwin, 285; his death, 286
 Cyprus convention, 20
 Dalmeny, Lord, 6; see also Rosebery, Earl of Dardanelles committee, 201
 Dardanelles expedition, 203, 204, 209
 Davidson, J. C. C., 281
 decimal system of weights and measures, 89
Defence of Philosophic Doubt, 21–2
 Delagoa Bay, 97
 Delcassé, Foreign Minister, 107, 111
 Derby, Lord, 229
 Desboroughs, 290
 De Valera, Eamon, 273
 Devonshire, Duke of: appointed Lord President by Salisbury, 84; chairs Committee of Defence, 90–1, 115; as chairman of Education Committee, 118; opposes Tariff Reform, 130, 132; resignation from Balfour Cabinet, 134–5; becomes head of Free Food League, 135
 Dillon, John, 61
 ‘diplomatic revolution’, 106
 Disraeli, Benjamin: becomes Prime Minister, 16; his role in Near Eastern crisis, 20–1; heads delegation to Berlin Congress, 21; loses 1880 elections, 23; congratulates Balfour on retaining his seat, 24; retains leadership of Conservative party, 25; regrets leaving House of Commons, 28; ambivalence towards ‘Fourth Party’, 32, 34; opposes 1881 Irish land act, 34; statue unveiled in Parliament Square, 40
 ‘ditcher’ movement, 166–9, 171, 173–4
 Dogger Bank crisis, 109
 dreadnoughts, 156, 157, 195
 Drew, Mary Gladstone, 37, 173
 Dreyfus, Charles, 239–40
 Dreyfus case, 89
 Drummond, Sir Eric, 232, 279
 ‘dual ownership’, 70
 Dugdale, Blanche: edits Chapters of Autobiography, 29; publishes 2-volume Balfour biography, 29; explains Balfour’s membership in ‘Fourth Party’, 29–30; on Balfour’s order to shoot Irish rioters, 67; on Morant’s role as Balfour’s educational adviser, 118; describes Balfour’s emotion on nephew’s departure to French front, 198; discusses Balfour’s communiqué after Jutland, 212; on Balfour’s attendance at War Cabinet meetings, 231–2; on Balfour’s evaluation of his Palestine declaration, 238; her favourable attitude toward Zionism, 238
 Dunraven, Lord, 126–7
 Dunraven land conference, 127

INDEX

- 'Easterners', 201
Economic Notes on Insular Free Trade, 131 education bills: (1891), 80; (1896), 86;
 (1897), 87; (1902), 118–20; (1906), 152
 Edward VII, 103, 105, 112, 160, 177
 Egyptian debt question, 43–4
 Eight Hours' (Miners) Bill, 80
 Elcho, Lady (Countess of Wemyss), 79,
 81, 83
 Elgin, Lord, 114
 Elgin commission report, 114
 Employers' Liability Bill, 30–1
 English Association, The, 176
Entente Cordiale, 108, 155
 Esher, Lord, 114, 115, 156, 165, 288
- Fenians, 63
 Fermanagh, 186, 192
 fiscal reform, see Tariff Reform controversy
 Fisher, Hayes, 65
 Fisher, Admiral Sir John (Lord): appointed
 1st Sea Lord, 107; serves on War Office
 Reconstitution Committee, 114; urges
 Balfour to hold on as Prime Minister,
 137; hails Balfour as 'Godfather of Dreadnought', 156; informs Balfour of naval developments, 195; re-appointed 1st Sea Lord, 199; disagreement with Churchill and resignation, 204; refuses to serve under Balfour, 207; appointed chairman of Board of Invention and Research, 209; his intrigues against Balfour and Jackson, 210–11
 Fitzroy, Lord Augustus (Duke of Grafton), 2
 Fiume dispute, 261
 food taxes, see Tariff Reform controversy
 Forster, W. E., 33, 35
 Forster Education Act, 86
Foundations of Belief, 83
 Four-Power (Pacific) Pact, 269
 Fourteen Points, 255, 260
 'Fourth Party': its formation and membership, 28; seeks to obstruct Gladstone Government, 31; its criticisms of Northcote, 28, 31–2; attacks Gladstone's Irish policies, 33–5; role in Conservative party leadership contest, 39–43; organizes overthrow of Gladstone Government, 44
 Franco-Russian alliance, 90
 Frankfurter, Professor Felix, 244
- 'freedom of the seas', 255
 French, General Sir John, 200
- Gallipoli, see Dardanelles expedition
 'garden suburb', 231
 Garton Foundation, 177
 Garvin, J. L., 210, 213
 Geddes, Sir Auckland, 275
 general elections: (1874), 16; (1880), 23;
 (1885), 50; (1886), 54–5; (1892), 80;
 (1895), 84; (1900), 102; (1906), 142–3;
 (January 1910), 159; (December 1910),
 164; (1918), 256–7; (1922), 278; (1923),
 282; (1924), 285; (1929), 290, 291
 general strike, 286
 Geneva Naval Conference, 289
 Geneva Protocol, 284
 George, Henry, 70
 George V: succeeds to throne, 160; agrees to create new peers, 163; his coronation, 166; parting audience with Balfour as Conservative Leader, 174; seeks peaceful settlement of Irish crisis, 192; consults Balfour about Home Rule, 184–5; urges conference of party leaders, 185; asks Balfour to serve on war relief committee, 198–9; awards Balfour the Order of Merit, 214; asks Balfour's advice during 1916 Cabinet crisis, 225–6;
 confers Garter and peerage on Balfour,
 270–1; asks Balfour's advice regarding Bonar Law's successor, 281; congratulates Balfour on his 80th birthday, 290;
 final interview with Balfour, 291
 German colonies, division of, 255
 Germany: Balfour's desire for rapprochement with, 95–6; begins naval construction programme, 106; aggressive policies before First World War, 195; 1916 peace Note, 233; introduces unrestricted submarine warfare, 234; opens armistice negotiations, 255; Allies' peace treaty with, 260; welcomes Balfour Note on war debts, 276
 Gifford Lectures, 176, 188, 204, 278
 Gladstone, Herbert, 11, 52
 Gladstone, Mary, 10–12, 14; see also Drew,
 Mary Gladstone
 Gladstone, W. E.: social contacts with young Balfour, 11–12; reform programme of his 1st Ministry, 16; his 1874 election defeat, 16; his Midlothian campaign, 21, 23; forms 2nd Cabinet,

INDEX

- Gladstone (contd.)
 24; his Irish policies, 33–7; foresees Balfour as Conservative Leader, 35–6; criticisms of his foreign policies, 43; his resignation in 1885, 44; selects Balfour as intermediary with Salisbury, 51–2; splits party with Home Rule Bill, 53; forms 4th Ministry, 80; retires after defeat of 2nd Home Rule Bill, 81; discusses German trade rivalry with Balfour, 82; proposed memorial to, 82
- Gorst, John Eldon: as member of ‘Fourth Party’, 28, 30, 34, 39; supports Churchill in party leadership contest, 40; appointed Solicitor-General, 47; as Vice-President of Education Committee, 118
- Goschen, G. J., 52, 58, 76, 130
- Gough, Brigadier-General Hubert, 189–90 graduated death duties, 88
- Greco-Turkish war, 267
- Greene, Graham, 208
- Grey, Sir Edward, 156, 193, 197, 213
- Griffith, Arthur, 274 guarantee treaty, 260
- Haldane, R. B. (Lord), 156, 176, 198, 209
- Halévy, Elie, 119, 127
- Halsbury, Lord, 167, 168, 174
- Halsbury Club, 174
- Hamilton, Lord George, 132, 134
- Hankey, Colonel Maurice (Lord): on Balfour’s contributions to C.I.D., 116–17; sends Balfour confidential C.I.D. papers, 195; describes Balfour’s drafting skill, 196; appointed Secretary of War Council, 199; aids Balfour in war raid preparations, 199–200; opposes Balfour’s appointment to the Admiralty, 205–6; directs ‘Garden Suburb’, 231; commends Balfour’s achievements at Washington Conference, 268; regrets Balfour’s absence during Chanak crisis, 276–7; describes Baldwin’s discomfort in presence of Balfour, 285
- Harcourt, Sir William, 56, 81, 82, 87, 90
- Harding, President, 267
- Hardinge, Lord, 232
- Harrington, Timothy, 61
- Harrington, Lord, 16, 52–3, 79; see also Devonshire, Duke of
- Hatfield, 5, 147
- Hatzfeldt, Count, 94, 95, 97
- Hawarden Castle, 11, 51, 81
- ‘Hawarden kite’, 52
- Hay, John, 96
- Hay–Pauncefote treaty, 96
- Henderson, Arthur, 225, 226, 227, 228
- Herzl, Theodor, 239
- Hicks Beach, Sir Michael: as mediator in party struggle, 42–4; helps overthrow 2nd Gladstone Ministry, 44; supports Churchill against Northcote, 46; named Chancellor of Exchequer and Leader in Commons, 46–7; his problems as Irish Secretary, 55, 58, 62; recommends Balfour as Leader in Commons, 76; opposes Balfour on bimetalism, 92; his role in Tariff Reform controversy, 130, 131, 139
- High Seas Fleet, 211–12
- Home Rule bills: (1886), 54; (1893), 80–1; (1912), 180–3, 189–93; (1920), 273
- honours scandal, 274
- Horne, Sir Robert, 282
- ‘Hotel Cecil’, 103
- House, Colonel Edward M., 218, 236, 245–6, 249, 259
- House of Lords reform schemes, 159–60, 165–6
- Hughes, Charles Evans, 269, 270
- Hussein, Sheriff of Mecca, 242
- Hyde Park (anti-Home Rule) demonstration, 190
- hydraphone, 209
- imperial conferences: (1917), 287; (1921), 269; (1926), 287–9
- imperial preference, 129, 130; see also Tariff Reform controversy
- Imperial Tariff Committee, 131
- India Councils (Morley–Minto) Act, 155
- inter-Allied war conferences, 215, 216, 256
- Inter-Imperial Relations Committee, 287
- Ireland: agricultural depression in, 33, 61; activities of National League, 33, 35, 61, 64, 67–9; ‘Plan of Campaign’, 61, 62; land purchase acts for, 48, 70–1, 126–7; Easter rebellion in, 217; post-1918 developments in, 273–4
- Irish Nationalist party, 22, 31, 37, 53, 75, 126, 159
- Irish redistribution bill, 128
- Irish Reform Association, 127
- Isaacs, Sir Rufus, 182; see also Reading, Lord
- Izvolsky, Foreign Minister, 155–6

INDEX

- Jackson, Admiral Sir Henry, 207–8, 210, 211, 213
 Jameson raid, 91
 Japan: signs alliance with Britain, 95; wins victory over Russians, 109; expansion of alliance with Britain, 111; intervention in Siberia, 252; disputes Shantung with China, 268, 270; role at Washington Conference, 268–70
 Jellicoe, Admiral Sir John, 207, 210–13
 Jews: persecutions in eastern Europe, 89, 177, 239, 241; Balfour's attitude towards, 123, 239–42; their supposed influence in the United States and Russia, 244, 247; German appeals for their support, 246; welcome Balfour's Palestine visit, 285
 Jones, Thomas, 230, 255, 287
 Jutland, battle of, 212
- Kaledin, General, 251
 Kemal Pasha, 276
 khaki elections: (1900), 102; (1918), 256–7
 Khartum, 43
 'Kilmainham treaty', 35
 King-Harman, Colonel Edward, 65
 Kitchener, Lord: his role in Boer War, 100, 102; his controversy with Curzon, 113–14; appointed War Secretary, 198; criticized for his direction of War Office, 198, 200, 202; drowns at sea, 213
 Knollys, Lord, 112, 142, 163, 165, 169, 174
 Kruger, President, 91
 Kruger telegram, 91
 Kun, Bela, 261
- Labour Cabinet, (1st), 284–5; (2nd) 291
 Labour party, 144, 284–5, 291
 Labour Representation Committee, 123
 Ladysmith, siege of, 99, 100 land purchase (Ireland) acts, 48, 70–1, 126–7
 Lansdowne, Marquess of: attends Eton with Balfour, 6; his role in Boer War, 99; succeeds Salisbury at Foreign Office, 102; consults Balfour regarding foreign policy, 105; negotiates Entente Cordiale, 108; invites Delcassé to concert defence measures against Germany, 111; attends Balfour–Chamberlain talks, 139, 147; moves rejection of 1909 budget, 157; participates in 1910 constitutional conference, 160; attempts to strengthen 2nd Chamber, 165–6; adopts cautious attitude regarding Parliament Bill, 166–7, 169; as spokesman for southern Irish loyalists, 185; circulates peace memorandum, 219; discusses 1916 Cabinet crisis with Balfour, 223; refuses to join Lloyd George coalition Cabinet, 228
 Lansing, Secretary, 261
 Lascelles, Sir Frank, 110
 League of Nations, 258, 263–6, 279
 League of Nations Covenant, 263
 League of Nations Union, 258, 264
 Lee, Arthur (Lord Lee of Fareham), 156–7, 268
 Lee, Sir Sidney, 176–7
 Lenin, V. I., 237, 248, 251–3
 Liberal party: splits over Home Rule, 53, 54; wins 1892 elections, 80; dissension over leadership, 90; internal divisions over Boer War, 101; unites in defence of free trade, 130; triumphs in 1906 elections, 142; frustrated in its reform programme by Balfour, 158–9, 164; divided by Lloyd George, 219–27; reunited by Baldwin's protectionist campaign, 282
 Liberal Imperialists, 101, 102, 133, 142
 Liberal Unionists, 54, 60
 Licensing Act, 121–2
 Light Railways Act, 86
 Litvinov, Maxim, 253
 Lloyd George, David: criticizes Balfour as Irish Secretary, 73; leads fight against 1902 Education Act, 120; sponsors Merchant Shipping and Patent Bills, 151–2; denounces Lords' obstructionist tactics, 152; introduces 1909 budget, 157; proposes coalition at 1910 constitutional conference, 161–2; his remarks reported on Balfour's retirement as party Leader, 175; involved in Marconi scandal, 182; proposes attack against the Balkans, 201; seeks Balfour's help in solving the munitions crisis, 202; proposes nationalization of brewing industries, 204; his role in 1915 political crisis, 204–5; opposes Balfour's appointment to Admiralty, 205; criticizes Balfour's communiqué after Jutland, 212; takes War Office, 213; favours introduction of conscription, 216; proposes Irish reforms, 217–18; creates 1916

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-08881-7 - Balfour: A Political Biography

Sydney H. Zebel

Index

More information

INDEX

- Lloyd George (contd.)
 Cabinet crisis, 219–21; favours issuing Palestine declaration, 240, 241–2, 244; proposes postwar coalition government, 256; as chairman of Paris peace delegation, 257, 261, 262; asks Balfour to participate in reconstructed Cabinet, 262; negotiates Irish settlement, 273–4; supported by Balfour in honours scandal, 272; his role during Chanak crisis, 276–7; resigns as Prime Minister, 277–8; congratulates Balfour on 80th birthday, 290
- Locarno treaty, 286
- Lockhart, R. H. Bruce, 251, 252, 253, 254
- Long, Walter, 172, 221, 222, 228
- Lyttelton, Alfred, 135
- Lyttelton, May, 12
- Lyttelton, Spencer, 9–10, 12
- McAdoo, Secretary, 236
- MacDonald, Ramsay, 282, 284
- MacDonnell, Sir Antony, 127, 128
- McKenna, Reginald, 174–5
- McMahon, Sir Henry, 242
- Macmillan, Harold, 291
- Maitland, Lady Eleanor, 2
- Malcolm, Sir Ian, 232, 235
- Marconi scandal, 182–3
- Marder, Arthur J., 207
- Marlborough Club meeting, 165
- Maxse, Leo, 149, 167, 171
- Medical Relief Disqualification Bill, 47–8
- Medical Research Council, 286
- Merchant Shipping Act, 151–2
- militant suffragettes, 179
- Milner, Alfred (Lord), associates with the ‘Souls’, 83; pursues anti-Boer policy in South Africa, 98; recommends importation of Chinese labour, 125; declines offer of Colonial Office, 135; becomes member of War Cabinet, 228; favours support of anti-Bolsheviks, 254–5; appointed member of Paris peace delegation, 257
- minorities treaties, 261
- Minto, Lord, 114, 155
- Mitchelstown riot, 67–8
- Monroe Doctrine, 91, 92, 107
- Montagu, Edwin, 191, 245, 246
- Morant, (Sir) Robert, 118, 120
- Morley, John (Viscount), 138, 155, 165–6
- Moroccan crisis (1905–6), 110–11
- munitions crisis, 202–3
- Munitions, Ministry of, 203
- Murmansk, 252
- Murray, General Sir James Wolfe, 199
- Myers, F. W. H., 7
- National Council of Evangelical Churches, 120
- National Insurance Bill, 173
- National League, see Ireland, National League
- National Physical Laboratory, 176
- National Union of Conservative Associations, 41, 140, 173, 179
- naval scare (1909), 156–7
- Near Eastern crisis, 19–20
- Nicolson, Sir Arthur, 197
- Nigeria, enemy property in, 219
- Nine-Power (Far Eastern) Pact, 269–70
- Nonconformist Unionist Association, 173
- North British Railway, 2
- Northcliffe, Lord, 179, 213, 219, 236
- Northcote, Sir Stafford (Lord Idedesleigh): re-elected Leader in Commons, 25; policies criticized by ‘Fourth Party’, 27–8, 31–2; shares party leadership with Salisbury, 39; gives address at Beaconsfield statue unveiling, 40; opposition to his continuance as Leader in Commons, 46; accepts peerage, 46; dismissal from Foreign Office and sudden death, 58
- O’Brien, Peter, 66
- O’Brien, William, 61, 67
- Old Age Pensions Act, 152
- Orangemen, 181
- Orlando, Premier, 259, 261
- O’Shea, Captain W. H., 75
- O’Shea divorce suit, 75
- Ottoman Empire: Balkan revolts, 19; attacked by Russia, 19–20; signs San Stefano treaty, 20; cedes Cyprus to Britain, 20; joins Central Powers, 240; unfavourable attitude towards Zionism, 240; attacked by Allies, 203–4, 237; signs peace terms, 261; overthrown by Kemal Pasha’s Nationalists, 276
- Page, Walter Hines, 233, 234
- Paget, General Sir Arthur, 189
- Palestine: Turkish military defeats in, 237; Zionist aspirations to, 239; as buffer-state for Suez Canal, 240; future status under Sykes–Picot treaty, 242; British

INDEX

- Palestine (contd.)
 pledge as site of Jewish national home, 238–47; allotted to Britain as mandate, 271; visited by Balfour, 285–6
- Pankhurst, Emmeline, 179
- Papal peace note, 237
- Paris Peace Conference, 258–62
- Parliament Bill, 160, 165–6, 166–82
- Parnell, Charles Stewart: his tactics as Nationalist leader, 22, 33; agrees to ‘Kilmainham treaty’, 35; his secret meeting with Carnarvon, 48–9; proposes Tenants Relief Bill, 61; requests select committee to examine Times’ facsimile letter, 74; named co-respondent in O’Shea divorce suit, 75; his death, 76
- ‘Parnellism and Crime’, 73
- Parry, Sir Sydney, 84–5, 100
- Patent Bill, 151–2
- Pauncefote, Sir Julian, 96
- Penjdeh crisis, 43
- Petrov, Peter, 250
- Petty-Fitzmaurice, Henry, 6; see also Lansdowne, Marquess of
- Phoenix Park murders, 35, 74
- Piggott, Richard, 74
- ‘Plan of Campaign’ (Ireland), 61, 62, 68–70
- Plural Voting Bill, 152, 180
- Poincaré, Premier, 279
- Ponsonby, Sir Henry, 46
- Port Arthur, 94
- Portsmouth, treaty of, 111
- Pringle Pattison, Seth, 55
- Prinkipo conference, 259
- Psychical Research, Society for, 7
- Raikes, Cecil, 44
- Rayleigh, Lord, 278; see also John Strutt
- Reading, Lord, 236; see also Isaacs, Sir Rufus
- Redistribution Bill, (1885), 45, 50
- Redmond, John, 159, 163, 192–3, 217
- referendum scheme, 161
- reparations, German, 255, 260, 267
- Representation of the People Act: (1884), 38; (1918), 256
- retaliation policy, 131–2, 136; see also Tariff Reform controversy
- Riddell, Lord, 208, 263, 280
- Ritchie, Charles Thomson, 104, 129–34
- Roberts, Lord, 99–102, 116, 195
- Rosebery, Lord, 48, 81, 90, 101, 184
- Rosyth naval base, 107
- Rothschild, Alfred, 95
- Rothschild, Lord, 238, 244, 246
- Rouvier, Premier, 111
- Ruhr invasion, 297
- Russia: agrees to Berlin Congress, 20; creates Penjdeh crisis, 43; aggressive policies in Far East, 93–4; creates Dogger Bank crisis, 109; revolutionary activities in (1905), 124; anti-Semitic policies in, 239, 241, 242; under democratic Provisional Government, 237; Bolshevik revolution in, 237; appeals for separate armistice, 248; signs Brest-Litovsk treaty, 251; Allies’ intervention in, 252–3; barred from Paris peace conference, 259; not invited to Washington Conference, 270; intrigues in China, 289
- Russo-Japanese War, 108, 109
- Russo-Polish War, 267
- Saint-Germain, treaty of, 262, 271
- Saionji, Prince, 259
- Salisbury, 3rd Marquess of: invites Balfour to stand for Hertford, 12; becomes Indian Secretary, 16; discourages Balfour’s reform proposal, 18–19; becomes Foreign Secretary, 19; appoints Balfour as his parliamentary secretary, 19; attends Congress of Berlin, 20–1; distressed by outcome of 1880 elections, 23; his speech at Woodstock, 33; shares party leadership with Northcote, 39; contests party control with Churchill, 41–3; heads ‘Caretaker Government’, 46–53; his criticism of Chamberlain, 53–4; forms 2nd Ministry, 55; appoints Balfour to Irish Office, 59, 62–3; appoints Balfour to party leadership in Commons, 76–7; forms 3rd Ministry, 83–4; objects to Balfour’s bimetalism, 92; asks Balfour to substitute at Foreign Office, 93; retires as Foreign Secretary, 102; retires as Prime Minister, 103; opposes Tariff Reform, 130
- Salisbury, 4th Marquess of, 102, 135, 167, 280, 289
- Salonika landing, 209
- Samuel, Herbert, 240, 245
- Sanders, J. S.: as Balfour’s political secretary, 84, 104; advises Balfour to drop Corn duty, 129; participates in Balfour–Chamberlain talks, 147; participates in Balfour–Knollys meeting, 165; writes

INDEX

- Sandars (contd.)
 memorandum on Parliament Bill crisis, 167; writes memorandum on Balfour's retirement as party Leader, 170–2; suggests that Austen Chamberlain propose resolution supporting Balfour, 174; receives Balfour message regarding his availability as Prime Minister, 183
- San Stefano, treaty of, 20
- Sarajevo murders, 192
- Schlieffen plan, 197
- Scott, C. P., 178, 210–11, 242, 245
- secret treaties, Allied, 236, 259
- Seely, Colonel, 196
- Selborne, Lord, 102, 115, 167, 170
- Shantung dispute, 268, 270
- Sheffield speech, 134–5, 137
- Siberian intervention, 252, 261
- Sidgwick, Henry, 7–8, 13
- Sidgwick, Mrs Henry, 38; see also Balfour, Eleanor
- Sinn Feiners, 217, 273
- Smirke, Robert, 2
- Smith, F. E., 167; see also Birkenhead, Lord
- Smith, James Masterton, 223
- Smith, W. H.: criticized by 'Fourth Party', 27, 31–2; criticizes Churchill, 57; appointed as Leader in Commons, 58; praises Balfour's behaviour as Irish Secretary, 65; his death, 76
- Smuts, J. C., 154, 244–5, 258
- Sokolow, Dr Nahum, 243
- Solemn Covenant (Ulster), 181
- 'Souls', 82–3
- South Africa, 99–102, 124–6, 153–5
- Spanish–American War, 96
- Spencer, Earl, 35, 52
- 'splendid isolation', 90
- Spring Rice, Sir Cecil, 233, 236, 244
- Stamfordham, Lord, 281, 282
- Statute of Westminster, 288
- Steel-Maitland, Sir Arthur, 171
- Stevenson, Frances, 273–4
- Strachey, St Loe, 99
- Straits question, 156
- Strathconan, 1, 11, 23
- Strutt, John, 7, 8
- Suvla Bay, 208–9
- Sykes, Sir Mark, 243
- Sykes–Picot agreement, 242
- Taff Vale case, 122, 123, 124, 152
- tanks, invention of, 215
- Tariff Reform controversy, 128–41, 150–1, 158, 164
- Tariff Reform League, 131
- Tariff Reform referendum pledge, 164
- Tenants Relief Bill (Ireland), 61, 70
- Tennant, Margot, 83
- Theism and Humanism*, 204
- Theism and Thought*, 278
- Tibet, 113
- 'Tory Democracy', 41, 50
- Trade Boards Act, 152
- trade depression, 123
- Trade Disputes Bill (1926), 286
- Transvaal, 91, 97–8, 124–5
- Trevelyan, Sir George, 53
- Triple Alliance, 90
- Trotsky, Leon, 237, 248, 250, 251
- Tupper, Sir Charles, 56
- Turf Club, 4
- Turkish Nationalists, 276
- Tyrone, 186, 192
- U-boat campaigns, 209–10, 213, 234
- 'Uganda' scheme, 239, 240
- Uitlanders, 91, 98
- Ulster, 49, 54, 180, 189, 218
- Ulster Volunteers, 182, 189
- unemployment committees, 123
- Unionist alliance, 53, 131–41, 136, 178
- United States: Balfour's views of kinship with, 92; intervenes in Venezuelan dispute, 91, 92; bimettallist controversy in, 92–3; fights war with Spain, 96; protests against U-boat warfare, 209; joins in war against Germany, 234; visited by Balfour mission, 234–6; conducts armistice negotiations, 255–6; role at Paris peace conference, 258–61; refuses to ratify peace agreements, 264; proposes Washington Conference, 267; engages in cruiser limitation controversy, 289
- Universities Bill, 17–18
- Upper Silesian dispute, 267
- 'Valentine letters', 148
- Venezuelan blockade, 107
- Venezuelan crisis, 91
- Versailles treaty, 260, 264
- Victoria, Queen, 98, 100, 103, 105
- Vilna dispute, 267
- Vladivostok, 252

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-08881-7 - Balfour: A Political Biography

Sydney H. Zebel

Index

More information

INDEX

- War Cabinet: creation and membership, 228–9; sessions frequently attended by Balfour, 231–2; studies German and American peace Notes, 233; decides to send Balfour mission to United States, 234; debates declaration on Palestine, 244–7; debates policies towards Bolshevik regime, 249–50, 252, 253; approves Balfour–Milner recommendations for post-armistice Russian policy, 255; considers Wilson's conduct of armistice negotiations, 255; replaced by reconstituted Lloyd George Ministry, 257
- war coalition ministry, 1st, 204
- War Council, 199
- war crimes (German), 260
- war debts, 275–6
- War Munitions Committee, 114, 115
- War Office Reconstitution Committee, 114, 115
- Washington Conference, 267–70
- Washington naval limitation treaty, 269
- Waterhouse, Sir Ronald, 281
- Webb, Sidney, 124
- Wei-hai-wei, 94, 270
- Weizmann, Chaim, 239–41, 243–7, 285
- Wellington, Duke of, 2
- Welsh Church Disestablishment Bill, 180, 182, 189, 193
- Westminster, Duke of, 51, 82
- West Ridgeway, Sir Joseph, 66, 69, 73, 74
- Whittingehame, 2, 10, 88, 291
- William II, 91, 98–9, 106, 110, 255
- Wilson, Sir Leslie, 277
- Wilson, President Woodrow: protests against violations of neutral nations' rights, 203; protests against U-boat warfare, 209; sends 1916 peace Note, 233; invites British mission to United States, 234; his meetings with Balfour, 235–6; approves pro-Zionist Palestine declaration, 246; suspects Allies' motives towards Russia, 252; conducts armistice negotiations, 255; as chairman of League of Nations Commission, 258
- Wolff, Sir Henry Drummond, 28–30, 40, 47
- Women's Franchise Bill, 179
- Workmen's Compensation Act, 86–7, 88, 89, 122
- Wright, Wilbur, 194
- Wyndham, George: appointed private secretary by Balfour, 65–6, 68; accompanies Balfour on tour of Ireland, 73; replaces Gerald Balfour as Irish Secretary, 104; his Irish land purchase act, 126–7; compelled to resign office, 127–8; helps to create 1909 naval scare, 156–7; sides with 'Ditchers' against Balfour, 167
- Younghusband, Colonel Sir Frank, 113
- Younghusband mission, 113
- Zeppelin raids, 210
- Zimmerman Note, 234
- Zionism, 238–47, 285
- Zionist Federation, 238