INDEX

Aghnides, A., Under-Secretary for Foreign Affairs, 58, 68, 69
AKE (Agrarian Party of Greece), 132
Albania, independence of, 67–9, 70, 72, 76; SOE policy, 112
Alexander, Sir H., General, C-in-C ME, 65, 73, 133
Alexandria, 3; Greek Navy in, 33; April 1944 crisis, 168–9
Alexandris, K., Rear-Admiral, C-in-C Greek Fleet, 169
ALS (Allied Liaison Service), 13, 50; April 1944 crisis, 171
AMM (Allied Military Mission), see British Military Mission
Anglo-Greek Committee, 66, 129–33
ASO (Antifascist Military Organisation), 75–6, 79–81, 86–7; 165
Atlantic Charter, 102, 131
Auchinleck, Sir C., General, C-in-C ME, 35, 37, 39–42, 50, 61
Bakerdzis, E., Colonel, 64–5, 124–7
Balkans, Allied invasion, 68, 144, 136–8, 221
Barker-Benfield, K. V., Brigadier, Commander of Force 133 (SOE forces in the Balkans), 208
Barnes, T., Lt-Colonel, Senior BLO with Zervas, 153–7
BBC (British Broadcasting Corporation), 26, 61, 97; ban on EAM/ELAS, 178; government of national unity, 188; guidance to, 32, 173; and Papandreou, 173, 4, 180; and Security Battalions, 210
Bodossakis-Athanassiadis, Greek arms manufacturer, 179, 187
Bourdaras, A., Colonel, Commander of the Second Greek Brigade, 50, 77–81

Britain, 1, 3, 4, 10, 16, 22, 24, 29, 30, 47; Albanian independence, 67, 70; and Cyprus and Dodecanese, 68; and EAM, 185; and famine in Greece, 115–18; government of national unity, 161; influence in S.E. Europe, 202; long-term interests, 137, 138, 211, 213, 215; National Bands Agreement, 143; policy to Greece, 217–18; popularité in Greece, 15; and post-war alliance with Greece, 25; public opinion in, 181–2; relations with Egypt, 1; and Tsouderos–Canellopoulos negotiations, 52–3, 56, 57; uphold King’s position, 111; and Venizelos S., 59; Zervas attacks on ELAS, 190; see also British Government, Foreign Office, Greek government-in-exile
British authorities in Cairo, 69, 132, 179, 204; April 1944 crisis, 165–8, 170–1, 172; and civil war in Greece, 142; confrontation with EAM/ELAS, 139; EDES-ELAS clash, 155, 157; national bands, 139–43
British commission of inquiry, 82, 83
British forces to Greece, 177, 198, 209–4, 207, 211–14, 224–5
British government (Whitehall), 6, 11, 16, 17, 18, 21, 24, 25, 27, 29, 43, 48, 51; and August 1943 crisis, 105–11; and British force to Greece, 201–2; Canellopoulos, 54; and death sentences in Greek armed forces, 193; and EAM, 140, 147–50, 163, 198, 220; EAM to seize power, 98, 145, 146, 221; and famine in Greece, 114–18; and government of national unity, 166; Greek claims in Albania, 67; and Greek monarchy, 72; and King of Greece, 62, 65, 86, 91, 92–4.
Index

101, 218, 220; Labour ministers, 191; and Lebanon Conference, 177; and monarchical government in Greece, 102; and Papandreou, 173; and PEEA, 163; policy to Greece reviewed, 63; and resistance movement, 152–3; situation in Greek army, 44–5; and Soviet Union, 212; support to King and Greek government, 19, 25, 28, 30, 32, 63, 87; war equipment to Turkey, 34–5; see also Britain, Foreign Office, Greek government-in-exile, George II

British Liaison Officers, 141, 143, 146, 150, 152, 216

British Military Mission with the Greek army, March 1943 crisis, 80, 81, 84

British Secret Services, 7, 13, 18, 32, 36, 37, 196, 128; antagonism with OSS, 104; in Greece, 125–9

British–Soviet Balkan Agreement, 197–200

Brooke, Sir A., General, Chief of Imperial General Staff, 39, 40–1, 149, 158

Bulgaria, 9, 200, 211

Cadogan, Sir A., Permanent Under-Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, 39, 41, 53, 54

Canellopoulos, P., Vice-President of Greek government-in-exile and Minister of National Defence, 20, 36, 57, 58, 61, 73; Albanian independence, 67–8; Anglo-Greek Committee, 138–9, 133; arrival in ME, 51; August 1943 crisis, 107; broadcast to Greece, 60, 70–1; and Eden 64–5, 67–71; and Greek air force, 44; and Greek Brigade to El Alamein, 61; March 1943 crisis, 77–84; negotiations to enter government, 51–7, 219; and OSS, 103–4; and Papandreou, 175, 179; in Peloponnese, 213; relations with Tsouderos, 62, 63, 64, 67–71, 74; and SOE, 126; and Six Colonels, 132; undesirable as P.M., 69; visits London, 64–6; see also Greek Government-in-exile, Foreign Office, Tsouderos

Capetanos, guerrillas in E. Macedonia, 209

Casablanca Conference, 136

Caserta Agreement, 204–5

Cassy, R., Minister of State in Cairo, 64, 150; Churchill directive, 85–8, 138; early return of King to Greece, 108–9; March 1943 crisis, 80, 82–4; residence of King and government, 72; showdown with EAM/ELAS, 146–7; and Six Colonels, 132–3; supports Canellopoulos, 68; views of, 57, 65

Chiefs of Staff (COS), 49, 203; AMM withdrawal, 191; appreciation of resistance movement, 150; British force to Greece, 177, 198, 201–2; and Crete, 4; directive to SOE, 136–8; Foreign Office memorandum of March 1943 and reply, 134–5, 137–8; Foreign Office policy statement, 146; Greek air force, 179; support for ELAS, 158, 191

Churchill, W., 4, 12, 16, 24, 49, 74, 102; April 1944 crisis, 166–7; and mutinies condemned, 184; and death sentences, 190–3; and Balkan Agreement, 198–200; BBC ban on EAM/ELAS, 178; British force to Greece, 201–2; and Canellopoulos, 61; and EAM/ELAS, 203; and Eden, 23, 191–3, 195, 198–203, 211–15; famine in Greece, 116–17; and Foreign Office memorandum of March 1943 and reply, 134–5; Greek government to Italy, 203–4; Greek government to Peloponnese, 212–13; King of Greece, 23, 191, 221; Lebanon conference, 185; March 1943 crisis and directive, 85–6, 88, 90, 137–8, 220; Molotov, 170; Papandreou, 172–3, 175, 187, 191–2, 195; regency issue, 163; return of King to Greece, 93, 97, 108–11, 151, 163, 214–15; in Rome, 202–3, 214–15; and Roosevelt, 170, 179, 202; SOE, 137–8; supplies to ELAS, 153; and Tsouderos report, 38; and Woodhouse, 192; see also British government, Eden, Foreign Office, George II, Papandreou

Civil war, 132, 134, 141; after liberation, 142, 157, 159–60, 182, 201
CMARIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-0-521-08937-1 - British Policy Towards Greece During the Second World War, 1941-1944
Procopis Papastratis
Index

More information

Commander-in-Chief Middle East, 112, 138–9, 142–3, 172, 203
Committee of National Union of the Greek Armed Forces, 166 concentration camps in Greece, 121 constitutional question, 15–33, 46, 49, 56, 50, 148–9, 185–6, 188–9
Corbett, L.E.-General, Army Chief of Staff in the Middle East, 61
Cretes, 2–3, 7, 35; battle of, 4, 5, 6; and Cretan Division, 2; German attack, 5, 58; King and government in, 2, 4
Cunningham, Sir A., Admiral C-in-C Eastern Mediterranean Fleet, 33, 169
Cyprus, 3, 68, 81; and Greek government, 9, 10, 11, 12
Damaskinos, Archbishop of Greece: regency question, 144–5, 149, 162, 163; representative of King and government, 160–1; secure Athens, 144; see also Foreign Office, George II, Tsouderos
DSO (Defence Security Office), 13, 36–7, 49, 50, 65
Dimitrakis, S., Minister of Justice, 36, 58
Dixon, P., F.O. Southern Department, 17, 23, 26, 32, 38, 64, 203
Dodecanese, 9, 47, 68
Dragoumis, P., Under-Secretary for Foreign Affairs, 99, 195
EAM (National Liberation Front), 33, 74, 75, 104, 124, 125; April 1944 crisis, 165; 169, 171, 172, 203; area controlled, 140; armed clash with EDES: 151–60, EAM proposals, 156; attempts to divide, 141, 148–50, 160; Balkan Agreement, 199–200; and British force to Greece, 201; Central Committee of, 131, 140; coalition government proposed, 156–60; contact with SOE, 125–7; cooperation with Greek government, 215; domination challenged, 144; forces to contain, 209–11; and Foreign Office policy, 126–7, 130, 143; formation and control of, 122, 219; German attack on, 143; government of national unity, 160–5, 186–97, 202, and conditions to join, 188–90, 194–97, 224; initiates guerrilla warfare, 122–3; Lebanon Conference, 177–86, and instructions to delegates, 186; liberation of Athens, 213–16; and Myers, 134; at Myrofiilo Conference, 158–60; National Bands, 139–43; negotiations with old politicians, 120; and plebiscite, 131; policy of, 98, 99, 106, 107; possible German surrender, 206; regency issue, 145; to seize power, 145, 146, 198, 204, 213–14; showdown with British, 140–1, 143, 146–50; and Soviet Union, 148, and Spiliotopoulos, 205; and statement by King, 95–4, 97; strength of, 140; supplies suspended, 147, 150, 222; see also EDES, ELAS, Greek government-in-exile, Foreign Office, Leeper, Papandreou, resistance, Woodhouse
EAS (National Liberation League), formation of, 75; and EAM, 99–100; April 1944 crisis, 165
Eden, A., Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, 12, 17, 19, 20, 21, 24, 26, 27, 54, 163; Albanian independence, 67–9; April 1944 crisis, 170, and death sentences, 190–3; and Balkan Agreement, 198–200; British force to Greece, 201; and Canellopoulos, 64–5, 67–71, 84; and Churchill, 23, 191–3, 195, 198–203, 211–15; and Damaskinos, 149; equipment for Greek army, 42–3; famine in Greece, 113, 117–18; and Forces’ Agreement, 25, 43; on Greek politics and King, 23; Greek government to Peloponnesse, 211–13; and King: 18, 44, 45–55, 55, 134, 145; declaration of, 151; memorandum of 14 November 1943, 147–50; and Papandreou, 180, 193–5, 202–3; regency, 145, 149–51, 163, 165; return of King to Greece, 93, 109–10, 214–15; seat of King and government, 73–4; showdown with EAM/ELAS, 146–51; and SOE, 138; and situation in Greek army, 40–1, 49; Soviet advance in Bulgaria, 211; statement by King, 97, 103; and Tsouderos, 16, 25, 43, 74; Tsouderos letter to, 23, 30, 31; views on EAM,
266 Index

147–50; and Woodhouse, 192; see also British government, Churchill, Foreign Office, Greek government-in-exile

EDES (National Republican Hellenic League), 121, 122, 144; armed clash with ELAS, October 1943: 111, 146, 147–8, 151–60, truce suggested 153, negotiations, 156–60, demarcation of area 157, at Myrofillo Conference 158–61; attack on ELAS, 189, 194; formation and programme of, 123–4, 219; Gorgopotamos, 129; liberation of Greece, 215; and Myers, 134; National Bands, 135; and old politicians, 120; and Plastiras, 134; possible clash with EAM, 98; 24th ELAS regiment, 194; split of, 124; strength, 140, 203; Zervas, 123–4; see also EAM, ELAS, Myers, resistance, Woodhouse, Zervas

Egypt, 1, 5, 32, 39, 43, 76

Egyptian government, 3, 7, 48, 73–4

EKKA (National and Social Liberation), 104, 122; amount of supplies, 155–6; ELAS-EKKA clash, 176–7; dissolution of, 176–7; formation of, 123–5, 219; National Bands, 139; at Myrofillo Conference, 156–60; and Spiliotopoulos, 205; see also ELAS, Kartalis, Psarros, resistance, Woodhouse

ELAS (People’s Liberation Army of Greece), 120–1; all-out support to, 158; amount of supplies, 155; April 1944 crisis, 171–2; Caserta Agreement, 204–5; EDES-ELAS class of October 1943: 111, 146, 147–8, 151–60, truce suggested, 153; Zervas attack, 155–6, negotiations, 156–60, demarcation of area, 157, Myrofillo Conference, 158–60; ELAS-EKKA clash, 176–7; formation of, 123, 219; German attacks on, 152; German withdrawal from Greece, 206; Gorgopotamos, 129; headquarters of, 156; King’s statement, 97; and Keefer, 150; and liberation of Athens, 213–16; and Myers, 134; National Army, 182–4, 207–9; National Bands, 139–143; and PEFA, 163; 24th Regiment, 194; reorganisation, 182; reported collusion with Germans, 152; and Saratis, 139; showdown with British, 140–1, 143, 146–50; and Spiliotopoulos, 205; supplies to suspended, 147, 150, 152, 191; under British command, 204–5; Zervas attacks, 189, 194; see also EAM, EDES, Foreign Office, Greek government-in-exile, Papandreou, resistance, Woodhouse

El Alamein, battle of, 61, 76, 90

El Aris, detention camp at, 84

ELD (People’s Democratic Union), 122

Epirus, 155–7

EPO (National Panhellenic Organisation), 75

Exindaris, G., 104, 107, 108

famine, 10, 28, 49, 114–18, 202; see also Lyttelton

Farouk, King of Egypt, 48, 72–3

Foreign Office, 5, 7, 8, 13–19, 21, 24, 26–9, 36–9, 42, 60–2, 67, 69, 72–4, 100; Albanian independence, 67–8; and Anglo-Greek committee, 128; April 1944 crisis, 170, 190–3; August 1943 crisis, 106–11; British force to Greece, 201–2, 224–5; Balkan Agreement, 198–200; broadcast to Greece, 44, 59, 71; and Canellopoulos, 51–7, 65; EAM/ELAS: attempts to divide, 141, 147–9, 221–2; attempts to weaken, 146, ELAS-EDES, clash of October 1943: 154, 157–8, and Plaka Agreement, 159–60; ELAS-EKKA clash 176–7, forces to contain, 209–15, intentions of, 213–14, policy of, 98, Soviet military mission to, 197, strength of, 126, suggested showdown with EAM, 143, 146–51; EDES policy, 98; famine in Greece, 115–18; government of national unity, 162, 163, 164, 187–8, 190–6, 223; Greek army, 34–6, 38–43, 48–50; instructions to Keefer, 99; and the King, 45–6, 91; March 1943 crisis, 81, 83, 86–9; meeting with Greek government, 66; memorandum on Greek issues, 10–12; and Lebanon Conference, 128, 184; memorandum on policy to Greece (March 1943), 134–8; memorandum of November
1943, 147–50; and Myers, 134; and Papandreou, 173, 175, 180–1, 187, 190, 195; plebiscite, 93–4, 106–7, 110, 134; and policy to Greek government, 29, 32; policy statement on Greece, 94–5, 97–8; possible German surrender, 208; regency, 144–5, 149–50, 164–5, 222; and relations with SOE, 132–8; and resistance movement, 126, 128, 130, 152–3; and return of King to Greece, 93–4; declaration on, 144–51, 160, 214–15, 221; and Security Battalions, 210; 'sells' the King and government, 30, 47–8, 64; and State Department objections, 102–3; and Tsouderos memorandum, 22–3; Tsouderos replacement contemplated, 54–5; and S. Venizelos, 59; and war equipment to Turkey, 34–5; see also George II, Greek army, Greek government-in-exile, Papandreou, Tsouderos

Foreign Office (Southern Department), 16, 23, 26, 45, 89

'4 August' regime, 31, 33, 80

Frederika, Crown Princess of Greece, 3

Freedom, Greek army clandestine newspaper, 76

Freyberg, Sir B., Major General, Commander Allied Forces, Crete, 3–4

George II, King of Greece, 31, 34, 35, 37, 56, 58, 59, 63, 115; alleged plot to assassinate and/or overthrow, 36; Anglo-Greek relations, 46; and April 1944 crisis, 166–71; arrival in Britain, 12; arrival in Egypt, 6; and August 1943 crisis, 104–11; and British intelligence services, 13; Canellopoulos, 51–7, 60–1, 69; and Churchill, 108–11, 191, 214–15; Constitutional Act, 32; critical attitude of Venizelos, 59; declaration on his return, 92–103, 149–51, 160, 189; departure from Crete, 3–4; and Eden, 17–18, 145, 163, 214–15; and EDES programme, 123–4; and F.O. policy to resistance, 130; and Government of national unity, 160–5, 186, 189, 195; and Greek air force, 171; Greek forces' Commander, 93, 95; Greek community in Egypt and 'disloyal Greeks', 6, 8, 18, 49; Greek situation in the ME, 48; imposed by army, 41, 74; intelligence in Greece, 14; invitation to London, 6; and Leeper, 98, 100, 140, 145–6; and Maniakakis, 7; and March 1943 crisis, 77–86; to move to ME, 15; personal statement, 189; and Papandreou, 172–6, 186, 189, 195; position of, 7, 8, 64, 90–103, 107; to proclaim general elections, 26, 27; propaganda in favour, 90–1; publicity, 97; question of residence, 3, 72–4; reaction to EAM, 98; reception in London, 11; regency, 145, 149, 162; responsible for dictatorship, 28; restoration, 24, 27, 60, 62–5, 148, 221; return to Greece, 19, 20, 22, 48, 91–103, 105–11, 119, 144–6, 148, 207, 214–15; and Roosevelt, 108–10; and SOE, 133, 136–7; support of British government, 25, 28–9, 32, 44, 54, 61–2, 87–9, 96, 102, 110, 134–8; Tsouderos retained, 101; situation in the army, 42; situation in Crete, 3; and State Department, 101–3; statement to the Greek people, 6; support of British government, 25, 28–9, 32, 44, 54, 61–2, 87–9, 96, 102, 110; unpopularity of, 16, 45, 47, 148, 218; and visit to ME, 39, 49, 41, 43–50, 57, 219; to visit Greek forces, 18; see also British government, Churchill, Foreign Office, Greek monarchy, Leeper, Metaxas, plebiscite, Tsouderos

General Headquarters Cairo, 12, 48, 141, 154, 171; Anglo-Greek Committee, 128; and ASO, 165; defence of Crete, 51; 24th ELAS Regiment, 194; and Greek army, 36, 61; Interservice Committee, 5; Leeper, 146; and Myrofilo Conference, 158–9, 160; and National Army, 184, 207–9; and Operation Manna, 211; plans for resistance, 124–5; to raise First Greek Independent Brigade Group, 34; recall First Brigade, 76; support Canellopoulos, 68; see also Foreign Office, Greek armed forces, Greek army

Germany/Germans, 20, 39, 34, 132, 183, 208; attack on ELAS, 152;
268 Index

collusion with Zervas, 152, 154, 156, 160; and Damaskinos, 144; and EAM, 149; equipment to EDES, 156; intervention in the Balkans, 217; and old politicians, 120; Operation Sperber, 156; possible surrender, 206; propaganda, 153; reported collusion with ELAS, 152; Russian front, 136; withdrawal from Greece, 106, 148, 200, 201, 206, 211, 215; Zervas to attack, 154; see also EAM, ELAS, famine, Zervas

Glenconner, Lord, head of SOE Cairo, 54, 95, 132, 133, 140

Godfrey, J. Rear-Admiral, Director of Naval Intelligence, 45

Gonatas, St., letter of, 28, 39, 120, 161

Gorgopatomos viaduct, 119, 129
government in Athens, 10, 58, 114, 120-1

Greece: and Albanian independence, 67-8, 70; British operations in, 92, 94, 204-15; broadcast to, 44, 56; Bulgarian occupation of, 207; embargo on food imports, 10; Greek soldiers escape from, 34; liberation of, 35, 37, 43, 204, 206-16; officers escaping from, 41, 77; public opinion in, 20, 27, 47; situation in, 13, 14, 63-4, 126, 133; SOE policy, 112; support of and opposition to the King, 15, 24, 46, 47, 104; territorial and economic aspirations, 47; a vital British interest, 109-10; see also George II, Greek government-in-exile

Greek air force, 86, 168; training in Rhodesia, 33; part of RAFVR, 34, 44; and liberation of Greece, 171

Greek armed forces, 6, 8, 9, 10, 12, 13, 16, 18, 20, 25, 33, 48, 72, 76, 219; April 1944 crisis, 165, 167-72, 173-4, 182, 223; Committee of National Union 166, 170, internment, 171, 172, 179; punishment of mutineers, 182, 184, 189, 190-3, 203; attitude of Greek government, 40; and authority of King, 88, 102-3; executions, 85, 99-100, 102; March 1943 crisis, 74-86; in ME, 33; organised and deployed, 43; political dissension, 19; secret organisations, 75; under British command, 100; war material to, 38, 42

Greek army, 13, 19, 34; April 1944 crisis, 63, 74, 182, 223; attempted coup, 37; equipment of, 34-5, 50; to incorporate bands, 150, 160; March 1943 crisis, 74-85, 90, 92, 133, 134; and Operation Manna, 207-8; participates in operations, 35-6, 48-50; to reimpose dictatorship, 83; to restore the King, 28, 41; situation in, 39, 42, 43, 49-50; suggested appointment of C-in-C, 66-7; see also Foreign Office, Greek armed forces, Greek government-in-exile, Tsouderos

Greek army units: Armoured Car Regiment, April 1944 crisis, 170-1; First Field Artillery Regiment, 76, 79, reorganised, 170; First Greek Independent Brigade Group: 34, 49, 77; April 1944 crisis, 167, 109, attempted coup d’etat, 35, 75, and El Alamein, 61, 76, March 1943 crisis, 78-81, 83, training in, 39; Instruction Centre for Troops, 75; Sacred Battalion, formation of, 77, 170; Second Greek Brigade: 90, dissolved, 83, formation of, 39, 40, March 1943 crisis, 79-82, 84; Third Mountain Brigade, 170, 172, 207

Greek communities in Egypt, 58, 72, 219; and Canellopoulos, 56; discontent in 13-14; receive King and Tsouderos, 45; recruitment from, 34; situation in, 13, 14, 18-19, 21

Greek Forces’ Agreement, 25, 43-4

Greek government-in-exile, 11-19, 21, 24-5, 27, 31, 33-4, 43, 44, 45, 54, 60-1, 67, 75; and Anglo-Greek Committee, 128-9; April 1944 crisis, 168-8; attitude on internal politics, 40; August 1943 crisis, 104-11; authority in Greece, 214-15; British government support, 23, 28, 31-2, 44, 62, 63-4, 87, 88, 89, 102, 134-5; and British secret services, 128; and Canellopoulos, 51-7, 65; coalition government proposed, 105-11; in Crete, 2-3, 7; death sentences in armed forces, 85, 99-100, 193; declaration on Albania and political crisis resulting, 66-71; and EAM, 163, 207-11, 213-16; Eden memorandum Nov. 1943, 147-50; ELAS—EDES clash, 152-3; famine in Greece, 115-18; finances, 10; and
Index

269

Hammond, N., Lt-Colonel, deputy head of AMM, 213
Holmes, W. G., General Commander 9th Army, 81, 82, 86, 171
Hopkinson, H., Greek Section, Minister of State's Office, Cairo, 28, 45, 47, 48, 52–3, 55, 57, 60, 62, 64
House of Commons, 67, 68, 185, 193–4
Hull, C., Secretary of State, 103, 109, 110, 199
ISLD, Cairo branch of Secret Intelligence Service, 49, 50
Italy/Italians, 132; attack on Greece, 217; capitulation of, 147, 152; collapse of, 136; famine in Greece, 116, 118
Kafandaris, G., leader of the Progressive Party, 164
Karapanayotis, B., Minister for War, 85, 88, 95, 96, 107, 166, 168, 171, 172, 179, 187
Katsotas, P., Colonel, Commander of the First Brigade Group, 50, 76, 79, 80, 83
Kartalis, G., M.P., founding member of EKKA, 104, 124–5, 158–9, 183–4, 200
KKE, (Communist Party of Greece), 73, 87; and Balkan Agreement, 197; control of Greece, 141; formation and control of EAM, 122; and government of national unity, 162, 186–9, 194–7; guerrilla warfare, 122–3; and Lebanon Conference, 177, 184–6; and resistance 121–2; see also EAM, Foreign Office, Greek government-in-exile, resistance
Koryzis, A., Prime Minister of Greece, 1, 119
Koutsouyianopoulos, I., Commander (pseudonym 'Prometheus'), contact with SOE, 125–6, 131
Lampson, Sir Miles, British Ambassador to Egypt, 8, 14, 35, 48, 73–4
Lebanon Conference, 173–5, 177–87, 196–7, 223; see also EAM, Greek government of national unity, Leeper, Papandreou
Leeper, Sir R., British Ambassador to Greece, 85, 89, 90, 134, 200; April

F.O. memorandum of March 1943, 134–5; government of national unity, 194–6; government committee in Athens, 214; to impose regime, 41; King's declaration, 151; Lebanon Conference, 178, 185–6; liberation of Athens, 200–1, 209–16; March 1943 crisis, 75, 80, 81, 83, 87–9; Myrofillo Conference, 158; and National bands, 143; new members in, 87–8; Operation Manna, 204, 207, 211; opponents of, 47; to Peloponnes, 211–13; post-war economic reconstruction, 47–8; reshuffled, 55; residence of, 8, 10, 72–4; to resign on returning, 97, 102–3; and resistance, 120–1; return to Athens, 216; return of King and government to Greece, 91–103; Security Battalions, 209–11; situation in the army, 142; and SOE, 136–7; statement by King, 94–7; statement by, 29; transfer to Italy, 203–4; and Venizelos, 59; to visit USA, 20; see also British government, EAM, Foreign Office, Papandreou, Tsouderos
Greek government of national unity, 150–5; and British government, 196, 222–4; and EAM, 186–9; and Lebanon Conference, 177–8, 182, 186; and regency, 162
Greek High Command, 53, 125; changes in, 42; reorganised, 50, 57, 76, 77
Greek merchant marine, 10–11
Greek monarchy, 62, 72; and British policy, 217–18; hostility in Greece towards, 103; interests of, 166; restoration of, 101, 218; see also, George II
Greek National Army, and ELAS, 182–4; formation proposed, 207–9; inclusion of Security Battalions, 210; and liberation of Athens, 207
Greek navy/Greek fleet, 43–4, 86; April 1944 crisis, 166–9, 171; and death sentences, 191; enlistment, 171; internment, 171
Halifax, Lord, British Ambassador in Washington, 101–2, 199
Hambro, Sir C., executive head of SOE, 70, 133–6
270 Index

1944 crisis, 165–71; August 1943 crisis, 164–11; Caserta Agreement, 204–5; EAM/ELAS, 144, 150, 163, 175, 178–90, 208–10, 212–13, 215; ELAS–EDDES clash, 152–60; government of national unity, 160–5, 187–91, 193–4; Greek air force, 171; Greek government: to Italy, 203–4, to Peiopponese, 212–13; involvement with Greek affairs, 98–9, 179, 187; and King 90–8, 100, 144–5, 150; King’s declaration, 151; and Lebanon Conference, 177–86; and liberation of Greece, 208, 210, 212–13, 215, and MacVeagh, 169–70, 178, 181, 187; and Novikov, 176–9, 187; and Papandreou, 172–6, 180–90, 194, 203–1, 209–10, 212–13, 215; Papandreou’s opponents, 179, 187; recommendations of, 94; resistance movement, 152–3; regency issue, 144, 149–50, 163, 165; return of King and government to Greece, 91–7, and SOE Cairo, 111–12, showdown with EAM, 140–1, 143, 146–50; and Tsouderos, 98–9, 133, 140, 165–7; see also Eden, Foreign Office, George II, Greek government-in-exile
Levidis, D., Colonel, Master of Royal Greek Household, 48
Logothetopoulos, K., Professor, Prime Minister of Athens government, 114
Lytelton, O., British Minister of State in Cairo, 27, 32, 44; on constitutional question, 20–1, 22–4; directive to, 128; and famine in Greece, 116–17; and Gonatas letter, 28; situation in Greek army, 39–40, 41, 42, 49; and Tsouderos, 29, 30, 31
MacVeagh, L., U.S. Ambassador to Greece, 151, 166, 169–70, 172, 175, 187
Maniadakis, C., Metaxas’ Public Order Minister, 2, 6, 7
MEDC (Middle East Defence Committee), 93, 137, 145–7, 149, 155
Merjajoun, detention camp at, 84–5
Metaxas, L., 1, 2; and confrontation with Germany, 217; decree of 4 August, 32; dictatorship of, 16, 120, 121, 161, 187, 217; regime of, 15, 25–6, 27, 31, 35, 60, 101, 122, 140, 217
Michalopoulos, A., Under-Secretary for Information, 58, 69–70
MIL (Military Intelligence), 36, 65
Minister of State’s Office, Cairo: divergence of opinion with Foreign Office, 59, 62, 65, 65; Greek Government crisis, 65; and resistance, 126; Greek Section, 14, 15; Canellopoulos’ entry to government, 51–7; situation in Greek army, 49; guidance to the press, 55–6, 57; reorganisation of, 44–5, 46, 48, 50
Molotov, V., Commissar for Foreign Affairs of the Soviet Union, 170, 179, 200
Monckton, Sir W., Acting Minister of State in Cairo, 47, 52–3, 55
Montgomery, B., General, Commander 8th Army, 76
Moynie, Lord, Deputy Minister of State in Cairo, 68, 73, 109, 206, 210
Myers, E., Brigadier, Head of British Military Mission in Greece, 131, 132, 138; August 1943 crisis, 104, 106, 111; comments on King’s statement, 97–8; confrontation with EAM/ELAS, 139; National Bands, 139–43; Operation Harling, 129; plebiscite, 134, 142; reports of, 133–4; SOE instructions to, 129–30; see also British Military Mission, plebiscite, Woodhouse
Mylonas, A., leader of Agrarian Democratic Party, 51, 161–2, 183
Myrofillo Conference, 157–60
National Bands, formation and agreement on, 139–43; see also EAM, ELAS, Foreign Office, Myers ‘National Nemesis’, 75, 77
Neubacher, Dr H., Special Plenipotentiary of the Reich for Politics and Economics, 113, 206
Novikov, N., Soviet Ambassador in Cairo, 170, 178–9, 187, 196
OSS (Office for Strategic Services), 103–4
Paget, Sir B., General, C-in-C ME, 168, 171, 183, 193, 208
Palairet, Sir M., British Ambassador to Greece, 3, 4, 6, 7, 16, 39, 40, 41, 60, 61–2, 69, 72
Index

Palestine, 3, 5, 33, 34, 36; Greek forces in, 18, 40, 49; possible seat of Greek government, 16, 74
Pangalos, Th., General, ex-dictator, 190-1
PAO (Panhellenic Liberation Organisation), 209
Papandreou, G., Prime Minister of Greece, 20; April 1944 crisis 172-6; attempts to form government, 174-6; British support to, 173, 175, 187, 190, 193-5; Caserta Agreement, 204-5, 224; and Churchill (Rome, August 1944), 202-3, 214-15; death sentences in armed forces, 190-3; and EAM, 173, 175, 176, 188-90, 194-7, 207-16; and EAM intentions, 213-14; and Eden, 180, 193-5, 202-3; and government of national unity, 161, 162, 164, 165, 182, 186-97; and Greek air force, 171; Greek government to Italy, 205-4; and Lebanon Conference, 177-86; liberation of Athens, 206-7, 209-10, 212-15; National Army, 182-4, 207-9; Prime Minister, 172-6, 223; programme statement, 180; propaganda on, 173-4, 180; resignation suggested, 194-6; Security Battalions, 210-11; and Spiliotopoulos, 205; and Zervas, 207-8; see also EAM, Foreign Office, George II, Greek government-in-exile
Paul, Crown Prince of Greece, 99
PEEA (Political Committee of National Liberation), 176; April 1944 crisis, 165, 166, 168, 170; formation of, 163, 223; government of national unity, 164-5, 186-90, 194, 196-7; Lebanon Conference, 178, 182, 186; see also EAM, government of national unity
Peter, Prince of Greece, 20, 36, 39-40, 65
PID (Political Intelligence Department), 32
Plaka Agreement, 159, 160, 176
Plassas, N., General, 20, 27, 123, 134, 144-5 plebiscite, 84, 86, 88, 98, 102, 106-7, 110, 134, 142, 149, 161, 181, 186; see also George II, Foreign Office, Greek monarchy
Popov, G., Colonel, Head of Soviet Military Mission to ELAS, 196-7
Porphyrogennis, M., KKE Central Committee, 183-4, 189
Psarras, D., Colonel, founding member of EKKA, 124-5, 139, 143, 156, 176-7
Pyromaglou, K., co-founder of EDES, 104, 123-5, 158-9, 179, 184
PWE (Political Warfare Executive), 62, 95, 128, 210
Quebec Conference (August 1943), 109-10, 144
Rallis, I., Prime Minister of Athens government, 114, 120
Rallis, P., Minister of Merchant Marine, 161, 162, 165 resistance, appreciation of movement, 150; attempted reorganisation, 130-1; British contacts with organisations, 127-9; British control attempted, 131, 220; and COS directive, 130; first guerrilla bands, 121; F.O. policy, 130, 135, 147-50, 152-3; and Greek people, 121-2; and KKE, 121-2; movement of, 108, 119, 120-5, 219; and old political leaders, 119-20; to remain passive, 157-8; see also EAM, EDES, ELAS, Foreign Office, Greek government-in-exile
Rommel, E., General, Commander of Africa Corps, 76-7
Roosevelt, F., 102, 174, 184; and Balkan Agreement, 199-200; and British force to Greece, 202; and Churchill, 170, 199, 202; and famine in Greece, 117-18; and King of Greece, 108-10, 151, 222
Roussos, G., Vice-President of the Greek Government-in-exile, 27, 82-3, 86, 95, 96, 100, 107-8, 167
Roussos, P., KKE Politiburo, 104, 156, 184
Sakellarious, A., Rear-Admiral, Vice-President of the Greek government-in-exile, 8, 12, 20-1, 52, 57-9
Salias, Y., head of AOS, 75, 87, 165
Sarafis, S., Major-General, C-in-C of ELAS, 139, 156, 159, 184, 189, 204-5; see also ELAS
Sargent, Sir O., Under-Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, 13, 28, 29, 30, 32, 33, 47, 56, 69, 70, 90, 99
Index

August 1943 crisis, 106, 109; March 1943 crisis, 84, 89; and seat of King and government, 73; and SOE activities, 133, 135–6; and spheres of influence, 200; see also Foreign Office, Greek government-in-exile

Scobie, R., Lt-General, General Officer Commanding, Greece, 204–5, 213; see also Caserta Agreement

Sebastian E. G., former British Consul-General in Athens, head of Greek Department, Minister of State's Office, 14–16, 17, 21, 22, 44

SILO (Secret Intelligence Liaison Office), 13

SIME (Secret Intelligence Middle East), 13, 171

SIS (Secret Intelligence Service), 13, 49, 128, 192

Security Battalions, 177, 189; attitude towards, 209–10; clash with EAM, 214; collaboration with Germans, 209; denunciation, 189, 211; formation, 120; instruments of the enemy, 205; surrender of, 215; see also Greek government-in-exile, Papandreou

Sheppard, R., Lt-Colonel, British Liaison Officer (Mt Olympus), 139, 216

Sicily, invasion of, 136–7, 140, 143

Simopoulos, C., Greek Ambassador in London, 53, 54, 115

Six Colonels Committee, 66, 129–33

SKE (Socialist Party of Greece), formation of EAM, 122

Smuts, J., General, Prime Minister of South Africa, 140, 151, 175

Sophianopoulos, J., leader of the 'Union of the Left' Party, Lebanon Conference, 183–4

Sofoulis, T., head of the Liberal Party, government of national unity, 161, 164, 165

Soviet Military Mission to ELAS, 197

Soviet Union, 61, 101, 138; Albanian independence, 67; allied support to, 136; and Balkan Agreement, 197–200, 225; and British force to Greece, 200, 202, 212, 225; and EAM, 148; domination of Greece, 198, 202; EDES-ELAS, clash, 153; and Greek resistance movement, 158; liberation of Greece, 213; and PEEA, 196; and relations with Britain, 47; suggested relief to Greece, 115

SOE (Special Operations Executive), 19, 51, 98, 127, 131, 155; and Anglo-Greek Committee, 128–9; attempted suspension of activities, 134–8; Cairo branch and Canellopoulos, 54, 69, 70, 126; communications with Greece, 132–3; contact with EAM, 125–6; and COS directive, 130, 136–7; establishing contacts in Greece, 125–9; execution of policy in Greece, 112; Izmir station, 125–6; King and Greek government, 137; and Leeper, 111–12; and liberation of Athens, 205; National Bands, 139–43; and Operation Harling, 129; Operation Noah's Ark, 157; possible German surrender, 208; relations with Foreign Office, 132–8, 220; return of King to Greece, 95; supplies to ELAS, 147; and Tsouderos, 133; and Zervas, 127–8

Special Operations Committee, 112, 146

Spiliotopoulos, P., Colonel, head of Six Colonels Committee, 66, 205, 209, 214

Stalin, J., 199–200

State Department, 46, 170; Balkan Agreement, 198–200; British policy to Greece, 101–2; early return of King, 103, 157; famine in Greece, 117–18; fear of civil disturbances, 103, 109–10; and Lebanon Conference, 181; and Papandreou, 187

Strand, W., Assistant Under-Secretary for Foreign Affairs, 101, 102

Svolos, A., Professor, President of PEEA, 182, 183, 186, 188–9

Tcheran Conference, 151

Tsangaris, I., Major, 125, 130–1

Tsolakoglou, G., Lt-General, Prime Minister of Athens government, 1, 13, 15, 57, 114

Tsouderos, E., Prime Minister of Greece, 14, 17, 18, 26, 27, 28, 29, 35, 36, 45, 46, 65, 90; April 1944 crisis, 165–7; attitude of, 56–7; August 1943 crisis, 104–11; and British intelligence services, 13; British support to, 23.
Index

25, 28–9, 30, 61–2, 87, 102; broadcast to Greece, 44, 56; and Canellopoulos, 51–7, 60–4, 67–71, 74; character of, 8, 14; and Churchill, 16, 38; in Crete, 2–4; death sentences in armed forces, 99–100; and Eden, 16, 19, 20–2, 25, 43–4; and EDES–ELAS clash, 153, 156–7, 159–60; and extensive British intervention, 21–2, 24, 28; famine in Greece, 115–18; and Forces’ Agreement, 25, 43–4; and Foreign Office policy to resistance, 130; and government of national unity, 160–5, 177; government’s expansion, 66, 95–6; King’s declaration, 151; King’s return opposed, 144; and Leeper, 98–9, 133, 140, 165–7; to London, 6, 8; and Maniakakis, 7; March 1943 crisis, 77–89; memoranda to the King, 8–12; Metaxas regime, 15, 20; and policy statement, 30–2, 56; and political leaders in Greece, 28, 96; popularity in Greece, 15; post-war alliance, 23, 25; regency question, 145, 149, 162–5; removal of opponents, 99; residence of King and government, 3, 8, 72–4; and resistance movement 152–3; retained as premier, 101; return of King and government to Greece, 91–103, 105–11, 144–6; and SOE operations, 133; situation in the army, 37–8, 41–2; suggests his replacement, 100; and Venizelos, 58–9; visit ME, 39, 40, 43–9, 219; see also Canellopoulos, Eden, Foreign Office, George II, Greek armed forces, Greek army, Greek government-in-exile

Turkey, 9, 34–5, 115–17

Tzanakakis, E., C-in-C Greek army in Egypt, 27, 34, 39; and attempted coup d’état, 37, 65; Auchinleck letter to, 36; Inspector General, 50; personality of, 38; suggested replacement, 40–1

Tzimas, A., EAM Central Committee, 104, 131, 140–1

USA, 19, 55, 58, 59, 65, 101; Albanian independence, 67; Balkan Agreement, 198–200; EDES–ELAS clash, 153; famine and public opinion, 115, 117–18; grain to Greece and suggested relief, 114–15; Greek press in, 97; Lebanon Conference, 181; opinion in, 10, 159, 161

Varvaresos, K., Minister for Finance and National Economy, 58, 69, 100

Vassos, Major-General, military attaché in Greek Legation, Cairo, 37, 41

Velouchiotis Arts (Thanassis Klaras), 123, 132, 140, 215; see also EAM, ELAS

Venizelos, S., Prime Minister of Greece, 95, 108; and Foreign Office, 58–9; Lebanon Conference, 183; and Leeper, 166–9, 172–6; message to PEEA, 196; Minister of Marine, 89; and Papandreou, 172–6, 187, 195–6; April 1944 crisis, 166–9; resignation, 172–6

Ventris, C., Lt-General, Chief of Greek General Staff, 207–8

Voulgaris, P., Rear-Admiral, Minister for Air, 88, 89, 107, 169, 191

Vouliotis, I., EDES member and collaborator, 124

Wallace, D., Major, political adviser to Brigadier Myers, 98, 104, 106, 111

War Cabinet, 4, 134, 147–51, 201–2

War Office, 22, 70, 91, 92, 193; active employment of Greek army, 38–9, 49–50; and Auchinleck’s recommendations, 40–1; early return of King to Greece, 93, 95; equipment for Greek forces, 38, 42, 50; and politics in Greek army, 35–6, 42

Warner, E., senior political adviser, British Embassy to Greece, 41, 45, 62, 65, 69, 82, 126–7, 194–5, 213

Wavell, A., General, C-in-C ME, 4–6

Wilson, Sir H., General, C-in-C ME, 81, 82, 152; Caserta Agreement, 204–5; defence of Crete, 4; Greek government 203–4, 212–13; King’s early return to Greece, 92, 105; and Leeper, 146–50; and National Army, 208; recommendations on Greek Army, 85; resistance movement, 150; spheres of influence, 197; support for ELAS, 158; views on Greek army, 40

Wines, G., Major, Senior American Liaison Officer in Greece, 159, 176–7

Woodhouse, C. M., Colonel, Head of
Index

Allied Military Mission in Greece, 129–32, 143, 153–61, 176–7, 192 see also EAM, Foreign Office, Zervas

Yugoslavia, 112, 156, 159, 200
YVE (Defenders of Northern Greece), 128

Zannas, S., 27, 28, 31, 32
Zervas, N., Colonel, leader of EDES, 104, 121, 132, 149, 163, 209; fear of annihilation, 153; amount of supplies, 155; attacks on ELAS, 189, 190, 194; bands in the Greek army, 150, 160; and BMM, 154; British support to, 146; Caserta Agreement, 204–5; EDES–ELAS clash: 151–60; 24th

ELAS regiment, 194; and formation of EDES, 123–4; in Gorgopotamos, 129; leaves for mountains, 127–8; Leeper’s plan, 150; and National Bands, 199–40, 143; and Papandreou, 207–8; Plaka Agreement, 186; and Plastiras, 144–5; and plebiscite, 131; policy of, 98; and Spiliotopoulos, 205; supplies suspended and resumed, 152; truce with Germans, 152, 154, 156, 160; and Lebanon Conference, 177, 179–80, 184; see also EDES, resistance, Woodhouse

Zevgos, I., KKE Central Committee, Minister of Agriculture, 214

Zygouris, C., Lt-General, C-in-C Greek

Land Forces in ME, 66, 77–81, 83