

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-09121-3 - English Constitutional Conflicts of the Seventeenth Century,
1603-1689

J. R. Tanner

Index

More information

INDEX

- Abbot, George, Archbishop of Canterbury, 13, 53
 "Abhorrrers," 245
 Agitators, 143, 144, 146; election of (Apr. 1647), 142; sent back to their regiments (Nov. 1647), 149; Levellers' design to reappoint (1649), 161
Agreement of the People, of 1647, 156; of 1649, 156, 156 n., 157, 186
 Albemarle, Christopher Monk, 2nd Duke of, 252 n. See also Monk
 Altar controversy, 15
 Anabaptists, 127 n., 129
 "Anarchy, Year of," 205
 Andrewes, Lancelot, Bishop of Winchester, 12, 13, 51
Apology of 1604, 19, 29-31
Appello Caesarem, 53
 Appropriation of supply, in 1624, 50; in 1665, 233
 Argyle, Archibald Campbell, 8th Earl of, 86, 108
 Argyle, Archibald Campbell, 9th Earl of, his insurrection (1685), 251
 Arlington, Henry Bennet, 1st Earl of, a member of the Cabal, 234
 Arminianism, Arminians, 68, 80, 100, 104; origin of the term, 12; supported by the Stuart Kings, 13, 54; points of controversy with the Puritans, 14-16; its strength and weakness, 51-2; resolution of 1629 against, 69
 Army of the Parliament, a professional career, 136, 163, 183; arrangements for disbanding in 1647, 141; the members appeal to force against (1647), 143; its political organisation, 144; army democracy, 159; its difficulties in 1648, 149; Pride's Purge, 152; it brings the King to trial, 152-4; further intervention in politics (1653), 164-6; arrears of pay, 145, 209, 211. See also New Model
 Army of the younger Stuarts, 241, 251, 252; its formation, 224; its precarious position, 224-5; objections to, 225; modelling of, by James II, 254
 Army, Council of the, 144, 146, 148, 156; abolished (1647), 149; the Levellers design its reappointment (1649), 161
Army, Declaration of the (1647), 144
 Army Plot (1641), 107
Articuli Cleri (1605), 35
 Arundel, Thomas Howard, 2nd Earl of, case of privilege (1626), 58
 Astley, Sir Jacob, 134
 Attainder, of Strafford, 95, 280-1; of Laud, 95
 Authorised Version of 1611, 28
 Bacon, Sir Francis, afterwards Lord Chancellor, 31, 39, 40, 46; favours concessions to the Puritans, 27; contrasted with Coke, 41; his impeachment (1621), 50, 58
 Bancroft, Richard, Archbishop of Canterbury, 28, 34, 35, 36
 Bankes, Sir John, his speech in Hampden's case (1637), 274-5
 Barebones Parliament, see Parliament of Saints
 Bastwick, John, released and compensated, 92-3
 Bate's case (1605), 43, 44
 Baxter, Richard, 136, 137, 226, 228
 Benedictine Order, settled at St James's (1686), 255
 Benevolences, 215, 222
 Berkeley, Sir Robert, his speech in Hampden's case (1637), 276
 Berwick, 150, 207
 Berwick, Treaty of (1639), 87
 Biennial Parliaments, 147
 Births, marriages, and deaths, Acts for the registration of (1653), 171
 Bishops, Digby's speech in defence of (1641), 102; coercive power to be taken away from (1647), 148. See also, Seven Bishops, The Bishops' Exclusion Bill (1641), 105, 113, 115
 Bishops' War, 248; of 1639, 86-7, 88; of 1640, 90
 "Black box," 246
 Blake, Robert, 119, 134, 163
 "Bloody Assize" (1685), 251, 252
 Book of Rates (1608), 43
 Book of Sports, 15
 Bradshaw, John, 119, 155, 166, 167
 Breda, Declaration from (1660), 209, 211, 215
 Bristol, 125, 133
 Bristol, John Digby, 1st Earl of, case of privilege (1626), 58, 217
 "Brotherly Assistance" voted to the Scots, 72

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-09121-3 - English Constitutional Conflicts of the Seventeenth Century,
1603-1689

J. R. Tanner

Index

More information

304

INDEX

- Buckingham, George Villiers, 1st Duke of, 49, 71; his character, 18; his friendship with Charles I, 51; foreign policy of, 54; attacked in Parliament, 55-6, 57; his impeachment, 58-9, 64, 234; his death, 65; constitutional importance of his position, 65-7; compared with Clarendon, 234
- Buckingham, George Villiers, 2nd Duke of, a member of the Cabal, 234; dismissed, 236
- Bucks election case (1604), 28-9
- Burton, Henry, released and compensated by the Long Parliament (1640), 92-3
- Bye Treason (1603), 32
- Cabal, the, 233, 234-6
- Cabinet system, anticipation of, in 1647, 147
- Cadiz, expedition to (1625), 56, 57, 58, 60
- Calvinism, 12, 13, 14, 51, 53; Calvin's doctrinal system, 10, 11
- Calvin's case (1606), 268-9
- Cambridge, 214, 256
- Canons of 1604, 34
- Carisbrooke, 149, 151
- Carlisle, 150
- Carr, Robert, 18, 46
- Cartwright, Thomas, 52
- Case of the Army truly stated* (1647), 148, 156
- Castle Chamber, 278
- Cavalier, origin of the term, 245 n.
- Cavalry, importance of, 132, 136; Cromwell a great leader of, 284
- Cecil, see Salisbury
- Ceremonial, modifications in, desired by the Puritans, 26
- Chambers, Richard, his refusal to pay tonnage and poundage (1628), 73
- Chancery, Court of, 244; its proposed abolition (1653), 172; Cromwell's regulation of (1654), 179
- Chaplains in the Parliamentary army, 136-7
- Charles I, 49, 107-8; his character, 51; marriage, 54; terms of the marriage treaty, 55; his want of statesmanship, 104-5, 112, 113; scheme for landing foreign troops (1642), 115; flight to the Scots at Newark (1646), 133; the flight to Carisbrooke (Nov. 1647), 149; agitation for vengeance on, 151; removed to Hurst Castle (Dec. 1648), 152; last overture to, 153; his trial, 153; his execution, 154, 158, 159; his statue thrown down, 155
- Charles II, 157, 158, 193, 215; lands at Dover, 209; general enthusiasm for, 213-14; his political ability, 224, 243, 247-8; his views on religion, 226-7; on trade, 288; Charles II and toleration 229-30, 234; his dealings with France, 215, 238, 241, 247
- Chester, Exchequer Court of, abolished (1641), 98
- Chillingworth, William, 82
- Chimney-men, 222
- "Church Democracy," 137
- Church lands, confiscated, 210; restored 216
- Church reform, abortive bills for (1641), 102, 103
- "Circumstantials and fundamentals," 182
- Civil Marriage Act (1653), 171
- Civil War, division of parties in 1642, 119; part played by local feeling, 120, 120 n.
- Clarendon, see Hyde
- Clarendon Code, 227-9, 235
- Clergy, ejection of Episcopalian, 173; clerical taxation, 223
- Clifford, Sir Thomas, a member of the Cabal, 234; driven from office by the Test Act, 235
- Clubs, political, 220, 289
- Cock-fighting, suppressed by ordinance (1654), 179
- Coffee-houses, political importance of, 220-1
- Coke, Sir Edward, on Articuli Cleri (1605), 35; on prohibitions (1607), 36-7; on proclamations (1610), 37; on Peacham's case (1615), 38-9; on commendams (1616), 39, 40; his dismissal, 40, 43 n., 275; contrasted with Bacon, 41; his legal fame, 42; on the Petition of Right, 61-3
- Colchester, troops quartered on the householders of, 210
- Colepeper, John, 101, 206; his speech against monopolies, 76; protests against the Grand Remonstrance, 111; takes office (1642), 113
- Colonisation, Parliamentary leaders associated in schemes for, 91
- Commendams*, 26; case of (1616), 39, 40
- Committee of Both Kingdoms, 123-4, 131, 132, 148
- Committee of Safety, of 1642, 118; of 1659, 205, 207
- Committees, development of Parliamentary, 91, 91 n.
- Common law, courts of, 244; in conflict with the ecclesiastical courts, 34-36

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-09121-3 - English Constitutional Conflicts of the Seventeenth Century, 1603-1689

J. R. Tanner

Index

More information

INDEX

305

- Common Pleas, Court of, 98
- Commons, House of, its growing importance, 6; and wealth, 90; connexion with St Margaret's, Westminster, 32 n.; the House more Puritan than the country, 101; resolution on religion (1629), 68-9; democratic resolutions of 1649, 153; learns the art of government, 212; increase in numbers comes to an end, 217; protests against toleration for dissent (1663), 230; against the suspending power (1673), 230; resolutions of 1674 and 1677 against a standing army, 225; concerning the Popish Plot (1678), 239; asserts privilege with regard to money bills, 242; resolutions at the Revolution, 265, 267. See also, Lords, Parliament
- Commonwealth, England declared a (May, 1649), 155; attacks upon, 157, 158, 159; efficiency of, 163; complaints of nepotism against, 163; engagements of fidelity to, 162, 178, 208; political ideas of, 160
- Compositions from the Royalists, 126, 148, 163, 210
- Comprehension, policy of, 226, 227
- Compton, Henry, Bishop of London, suspended by James II, 255-6; signs the invitation to William of Orange, 262
- Conferences between the two Houses, development of, 91
- Connaught, Plantation of, 106, 278
- Conservators of Liberty, proposed appointment of (1659), 206
- Contract, theory of, 265, 294-6
- Conventicle Act, of 1664, 229, 231; of 1670, 229 n.
- Convention Parliaments, see Parliament
- Convocation, 34, 223
- Cony, George, case of (1654), 210
- Corporation Act (1661), 227
- Corruption in Parliament, 163, 220, 231-2, 236
- Cotton, Sir Robert, 55
- Council of State, 148, 155, 156, 160, 161, 163, 165, 168, 171, 192; under the Instrument of Government, 177, 182, 186; under the Petition and Advice, 196; new Council appointed by Monk (1660), 208. See also, Privy Council
- Council of War under James I, 269, 270
- Country gentry, how affected by the Civil War, 219, 219 n.
- Covenant, National (1638), 84; Solemn League and (1643), 122-3, 126, 139, 140, 141, 148, 150, 173, 227, 228, 231
- Cowell, Dr John, publishes The Interpreter (1607), 20
- Cranfield, Lionel, afterwards Earl of Middlesex, his financial reforms, 47; impeachment of (1624), 50, 58
- Crew, Sir Randolph, Chief Justice of the King's Bench, his dismissal (1626), 60
- Cromwell, Henry, 194, 201, 204
- Cromwell, Oliver, 119, 137, 142, 143, 148, 154, 168, 206, 212, 213, 225, 251, 254, 278; a Root and Branch man, 103; Cromwell and the Grand Remonstrance, 111; a member of the Committee of Both Kingdoms, 123; Cromwell and toleration, 128-30; at Marston Moor, 130; his quarrel with Manchester, 131; his military reputation, 132, 201; the sole link between the Parliament and the Army, 136; tries to accommodate their differences, 142; his views on faith, 143; his willingness to negotiate with the King (1647), 145-6; distrusts force, 146; subdues Wales (1648), 150; defeats the Scots at Preston (Aug. 1648), 150; elected to the Council of State (Feb. 1649), 155; attacked by the Levellers, 142, 148, 161; mock pedigree and will of, 158-9; receives an honorary degree at Oxford, 161; Cromwell in Ireland (1649-50), 163; expels the Purged Parliament (Apr. 1653), 164-7; summons the Parliament of Saints (1653), 169; admits its failure, 174; his political philosophy, 169-70; is attacked by Fifth Monarchy men, 173, 185; becomes Protector (1653), 176; not an autocrat, 177; his legislation by ordinance, 178-81; his comprehensiveness, 180-1; his position after the dissolution of his first Parliament (1655), 187; his Straffordian conception of government, 187, 189; his government begins to be accepted as a permanent settlement, 192; offer of the Crown (1657), 175, 193-5; his installation under the Petition and Advice (1657), 198, 198 n.; his financial position in 1658, 200; his death, 200; his funeral, 222; greatness of, 282-6; contrasted with Shaftesbury, 286-7
- Cromwell, Richard, 206; becomes Protector (1658), 201; weakness of his position, 201-2; army agitation against, 202, 203-4
- Crooke, Sir George, his judgment in Hampden's case, 275-6

- Crown lands, confiscation of, 210; re-stored, 216; income from, 221
- Culpeper, see Colepeper
- Customs, 221
- Customs Ordinance of 1653, 187, 210
- Danby, Sir Thomas Osborne, 1st Earl of, 231, 233, 238, 240; becomes Lord Treasurer (1673), 236; his policy, 236 n.; impeachment of (1678), 233, 240, 241; second impeachment (1679), 243; constitutional questions arising out of it, 243 n.; signs the invitation to William of Orange, 262; Danby's views at the Revolution, 264, 266
- Dangerfield, Thomas, 239, 246
- Darnel's case (1626), 60, 270-2, 275
- Debate, freedom of, petition of 1610, 44
- Debentures, issue of, 141; their depreciation, 211
- Debt, Act for the relief of prisoners for (1653), 171
- Decimation tax, 188
- Declaration of the Army* (1647), 144
- Declaration of Indulgence, of 1662, 230; of 1672, 230, 289; withdrawn (1673), 235; of 1687, 256, 258; of 1688, 258-9
- Derby House, Committee of, see Committee of Both Kingdoms
- Dering, Sir Edward, 103
- Desborough, John, 188, 195, 204
- Devonshire, William Cavendish, 5th Earl of, afterwards Duke, signs the invitation to William of Orange, 262
- D'Ewes, Sir Simon, his views on the Ordinance, 116
- Digby, George, Lord, afterwards Earl of Bristol, 97, 105; character of, 101; his speech on religion (1641), 102; and against Strafford, 281
- Digges, Sir Dudley, 119; sent to the Tower, 59
- Dispensing power, 230; in Hales's case (1686), 253, 289-91; its results, 254-5
- Dissent, Dissenters, 229, 230, 235, 250, 256, 259; origin of, 228; admitted to corporations by James II, 258; Dissent as a political force, 288
- "Dissenting brethren" in the Westminster Assembly, 126, 127, 128
- Dissolution Act (1641), 97
- Divine Right, 18-25, 214
- Dover, Charles II lands at (1660), 209; secret treaty of (1670), 236
- Dragonnades, 252
- Drunkenness, repression of (1654), 179
- Dryden, John, 213, 234, 246, 285, 287
- Duels, suppression of (1654), 179
- Dunbar, battle of (1650), 163
- Dunkirk, sale of, 234
- Durham, assizes at, 179; incorporated into the representative system (1674), 217
- Dutch, excise copied from the, 126, 221; alliance with, against France, 237
- Dutch War, First (1652-3), 163; Second (1665-7), 231, 234; Third (1672-4), 220
- East India Company, 8
- Eastern Association, 121, 130, 189, 190
- Eastern counties, petition from the (1648), 150
- Ecclesiastical affairs, Charles II's declaration upon (1660), 226, 227
- Ecclesiastical courts, in conflict with the courts of common law, 34-6
- Ecclesiastical grievances under the Stuarts, 9-16
- Ecclesiastical settlement of the Restoration, 225
- Edgehill, battle of (1642), 137
- Edict of Nantes, revocation of (1685), 252
- Edinburgh, General Assembly at (1639), 87
- Edwards, Thomas, 127 n.
- Eikon Basilike*, 158
- Eikonoklastes*, 158
- Ejectors, commission of (1654), 180
- Elections, failure of the Court to influence (1640), 91 n.; elections to the Parliament of 1679, 242
- 'Eleven Years' Tyranny,' its financial aspect, 70-9; its ecclesiastical aspect, 79-82
- Eliot, Sir John, 9, 47, 61, 63, 70; attacks Buckingham, 56, 57-8; is sent to the Tower, 59; drafts resolutions against Arminianism, 69
- Emigration, a result of the policy of Laud, 81
- Engagement* with the Scots signed (Dec. 1647), 149
- England's New Chains Discovered*, 160
- Episcopalian clergy, ejection of, 157
- Episcopalians, in the Westminster Assembly, 126
- Essex, petition from, 210; revolt in (1648), 150
- Essex, Robert Devereux, 3rd Earl of, 118, 119, 132; Essex as a general, 284
- Evelyn, John, his description of the King's entry into London (1660), 209
- Ex officio* oath, 26, 98
- Excise, introduced by Pym (1643), 126, 221

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-09121-3 - English Constitutional Conflicts of the Seventeenth Century, 1603-1689

J. R. Tanner

Index

More information

INDEX

307

- Exchequer, Court of, 43
 Exchequer Chamber, 39, 269, 277
 Exclusion of members by Cromwell: from his first Parliament, 182; from his second Parliament, 189; their restoration under the Petition and Advice, 197, 198
 Exclusion Bill, 24, 288; policy of exclusion, 233, 250; a result of the Popish Plot, 240; concessions offered by the King, 243-4; Bill of 1679, 244, 244 n.; of 1680, 246; of 1681, 246, 247
- Fairfax, Sir Thomas, 119, 143, 148, 152, 155, 199; is to command the New Model, 132, 141; occupies London (1647), 145; puts down a rising in Kent (1648), 150; joins Monk, 207; Fairfax as a general, 284
- Falkland, Lucius Cary, 2nd Viscount, 97, 101, 111, 115; is called to office, 113, 121
- Ferrat, Nicholas, 51
 Fiennes, Nathaniel, 101
 Fifth Monarchy men, 168, 224, 234; political ideas of, 159, 160; their attacks on Cromwell, 173, 185
 Filmer, Sir Robert, his Patriarcha, 24
 Finance, grievances relating to, 7-9; controversy between James I and his Parliaments concerning, 42-7; Charles I's difficulties after the dissolution of the Parliament of 1626, 59-60; financial measures of the Eleven Years' Tyranny, 73-9; finance and the Bishops' Wars, 85; financial position in 1641, 111-12; finance of the Civil War, 124-6; Cromwell's position in 1658, 200; financial causes of the Restoration, 210; settlement of finance in 1660, 221; interest of the members of the Pension Parliament in finance, 231
 Finch, Sir John, afterwards Chief Justice of the Common Pleas and Lord Keeper, 73; held down in the Speaker's chair (1629), 69; his flight, 93; his judgment in Hampden's case (1637), 276-7
 Fire of London (1666), 219, 231, 239
 Fitzharris, case of (1681), 246
 Five Knights, Trial of the. See Darnel's case
 Five Members, arrest of the (1642), 113-115
 Five Mile Act (1665), 229
 Fleetwood, Charles, 134, 195, 202, 203, 204, 207, 208, 211
 Fleetwood, George, 134
- Floyd, Edward, sentenced by Parliament, 48, 48 n.
 Forced loans, 215, 222; Forced Loan of 1626, 59, 60, 61, 71, 270
 Foreign policy, of James I and Charles I, 10; the Commons attempt to influence (1621), 48-9; foreign policy of Buckingham, 54, 56; Charles II and, 215; the Pension Parliament encroaches upon (1677), 237
 Forest Laws, revival of the (1634), 74-5, 99
 Fortescue, Sir John, 29
 France, hostility to, in the Pension Parliament, 235; alliance with Holland and Spain against, 237; preparations for war with (1678), 238; party leaders receive money from, 238; Charles II's dealings with, 238, 241, 247
 Francis, Alban, a Benedictine monk, 256
 Frederick, Elector Palatine, 48
- Gag for the Reformed Gospel*, 52-3
 Gainsborough fight (1643), 135, 136
 Gauden, Dr John, Bishop of Exeter, 158
 Glasgow, General Assembly at (1638), 85-6, 87
 Gloucester, 120
 Glynn, John, his speech at Strafford's trial, 279
 Godden v. Hales, case of (1686), 253, 289-91
 Goffe, William, 142, 143
 Goodwin, Sir Francis, 28
Grand Remonstrance (1641), 109-111, 112
 Great Contract, 45 n., 221
 Great Rebellion, 250, 251; results of, 212-13; its effect on the English imagination, 217-18
 Great Seal, use of, in 1641, 116; new design for (1649), 155
 Green Ribbon Club, 220, 242
 Gunpowder Plot, 32
- Habeas corpus*, 60, 98, 270
 Habeas Corpus Act (1679), 244
 Hakewill, William, his opinion on Bate's case, 43 n.; his speech on impositions (1610), 44; on the Petition of Right (1628), 63
 Hales's case (1686), 253-5, 289-91
 Halifax, George Savile, Marquess of, opposes the Exclusion Bill, 246; refuses to support the repeal of the Test Act, 252; dismissal of, by James II, 252, 254
 Hamilton, James, 3rd Marquess of, 86, 108

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-09121-3 - English Constitutional Conflicts of the Seventeenth Century, 1603-1689

J. R. Tanner

Index

More information

308

INDEX

- Hampden, John, 91, 91 n., 97, 101, 103, 119; ship-money case (1637), 77-9, 273-7; one of the Five Members, 113
- Hampton Court, 115, 149; conference at (1604), 27
- Harrison, Thomas, 155, 168, 285 n.
- Haslerig, Sir Arthur, 91, 119; one of the Five Members, 113
- Heads of the Proposals* (1647), 146-8, 149
- Hearth-money, 222
- Heath, Sir Robert, his speech on Darnel's case (1626), 271-2; his dismissal (1634), 275
- Henderson, Alexander, 122, 123
- Henrietta Maria, Queen, 280, 281; her marriage to Charles I, 54; the marriage treaty, 55; suspicions of, 107, 108; her policy of force, 112; talk of impeaching her, 113
- Henry VIII, 197
- Herbert, Sir Edward, his judgment in Hales's case, 291
- Herbert, George, 51
- High Commission Court, 18, 38, 72, 81, 99; its victims released and compensated, 92; abolished (1641), 98, 100; not restored in 1660, 214; revived by James II, 256
- High Commission Court for Scotland, 84, 86
- High Court of Justice, for the trial of the King, 154; the Court of the Commonwealth (1650), 162; of the Protectorate (1654), 179
- Hobbes, Thomas, his theory of contract, 294-5
- Holles, Denzil, 101; holds the Speaker down in his chair (1629), 69; one of the Five Members, 113
- Holmby House, the King taken to (1647), 140; removed by Cornet Joyce, 143
- Holyrood Chapel, Anglican service in, 84
- Hooker, Richard, on civil polity, 295
- Hopton, Sir Ralph, 101, 120
- Horse-racing, suppressed by ordinance (1654), 179
- Hounslow Heath, members secede to the camp on (1647), 145; James II's camp on, 254
- Huguenots, 55, 60
- Hull, 120, 125; attempt to seize (1642), 115, 120
- Humble Petition and Advice* (1647), 194-8
- Hurst Castle, the King removed from Carisbrooke to (Dec. 1648), 152
- Hutchinson, Colonel John, 134
- Hyde, Edward, afterwards 1st Earl of Clarendon, 91, 97, 101, 111, 231; his constitutional policy (1641), 112; supports comprehension (1660), 226; impeachment of (1667), 233-4; contrasted with Shaftesbury, 287
- Hyde, Sir Nicholas, his judgment in Darnel's case (1626), 272
- Impeachment, 113; revival of (1621), 50; a clumsy constitutional process, 66. See also, Bacon, Buckingham, Cranfield, Danby, Laud, Mompesson, Montagu, Wentworth
- Impositions, 55, 215; increase of, 43, 44; debate on (1610), 44-5; question raised again in the Parliament of 1614, 47
- Impressment, Act of 1642, 115, 116; impressment in the Civil War, 120; no longer required, 163; abolished, 225
- Inchiquin, Murrough O'Brien, 6th Baron, goes over to the Royalists in Ireland (Apr. 1648), 150
- Incident, the (1641), 108
- Independency, Independents: principle of Independency, 127, 129; the sects, 127 n.; national importance of Independency, 128; effect of Marston Moor, 130; Independency in the Long Parliament strengthened by fresh elections (1646), 134; development of, in the Parliamentary army, 135-8; political thinkers of, 137; Independency supreme after Preston (1648), 150; Independents outside the parochial system, 173
- Instrument of Government (Dec. 1653), terms of, 176-8, 188, 189; criticism of, 181-3, 185; reflects the ideas of the army, 186-7; not satisfactory as a permanent settlement, 190-1
- Ireland, a vulnerable point, 3; colonisation in, 42; Wentworth becomes Lord Deputy of (1633), 71; troops to re-enlist for (1647), 141; Cromwell in (1649-50), 163; Parliamentary union with (1653), 169, 176, 177, 203, 212; Tyrconnel becomes Lord Deputy of (1687), 255; flax cultivation in, 278; the religious question in, 278
- Ireton, Henry, 134, 143, 155; drafts the Heads of Proposals, 146, 148
- Irish army, organised by Wentworth, 278
- Irish Church, corruption of, 278, 278 n.
- Irish Rebellion (1641), causes, 105-6; results, 106, 108, 112
- Ironsides, 135-6, 189

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-09121-3 - English Constitutional Conflicts of the Seventeenth Century, 1603-1689

J. R. Tanner

Index

More information

INDEX

309

- James I, 1; character of, 17-18, 51; the succession question, 3-4, 22; constitutional questions come to the front in his reign, 5; his True Law of Free Monarchies (1598), 19; James I and the Roman Catholics, 17, 32
- James, Duke of York, afterwards James II, 243 n.; escapes from London (Apr. 1648), 150; driven from office by the Test Act (1673), 235; withdraws from the Privy Council (1678), 240; his policy as king, 250-1; James II and toleration, 258, 262; son born to (1688), 261
- Jeffreys, George, Lord Chief Justice, President of the revived High Commission Court, 256. See also, Bloody Assize
- Joyce, Cornet George, removes the King from Holmby House (1647), 143
- Judges, consulted by the Crown, 36; "lions under the throne," 41, 41 n.; dismissal of, 40, 60, 291
- Justices of the peace, dismissal of, by James II, 254; questions to, 258
- Kellison, Matthew, 53
- Ken, Thomas, Bishop of Bath and Wells, one of the Seven Bishops, 260
- Kent, revolt in (1648), 150
- Killing no Murder* (1657), 198
- King's Bench, 98, 214, 260, 270, 271, 289
- Kingship, proposed revival of the (1657), 191-2, 193-5
- Knighthood, compulsory (1630), 74, 99
- Lake, John, Bishop of Chichester; one of the Seven Bishops, 260
- Lambert, John, 168, 195, 202, 211; expels the Purged Parliament (1659), 205; sent against Monk, 207; escapes from the Tower, 208
- Lancaster, Duchy of, 98, 179
- Langdale, Sir Marmaduke, seizes Berwick (Apr. 1648), 150
- Laud, William, Archbishop of Canterbury, 50, 93, 100; his religious views, 13, 21, 79, 80; Laud and the Eleven Years' Tyranny, 70, 71-3; attempts to Anglicanise the Church of Scotland, 83; his visitation as metropolitan (1634-7), 81; is deemed to be a Roman Catholic, 81-2; impeached and imprisoned (1640), 95, 100; executed (1645), 95; the inscription on his coffin, 96 n.
- Lauderdale, John Maitland, 1st Duke of, a member of the Cabal, 234
- Law, proposed reform of the (1653), 171-2 "Law paramount," 156 n.
- Leighton, Alexander, 92-3
- Lenthall, William, Speaker, his answer to the King (1642), 114-15
- Leslie, Alexander, afterwards Earl of Leven, commands the Scottish army in the Bishops' Wars, 86-7, 90; and in the Civil War, 122, 123
- L'Estrange, Hamon, 213 n., 214
- L'Estrange, Roger, 216 n.
- Levant Company, 8
- Levellers, the, 156, 174, 192, 254; first appearance of, 148; they demand the punishment of the King (1647), 151; their attacks on the Commonwealth, 159-161. See also, Lilburne
- Lilburne, John, 154; leader of the Levellers, 142, 148, 160; sent to the Tower (1649), 161; trial of (1653), 174
- Limited Episcopacy, see Ussher
- Living, in the hands of the Presbyterian clergy, 157, 173; abolition of patronage to, proposed (1653), 173; Cromwell's policy concerning (1654), 180, 181
- Lloyd, William, Bishop of St Asaph, one of the Seven Bishops, 260
- Locke, John, his theory of contract, 295-7
- London, City of, 144, 199; furnishes a guard for the Houses (1642), 114; its financial support of the Parliament, 125; re-models the train-bands (1647), 143; occupation of, by Fairfax (1647), 145; Presbyterian riot in (1648), 150; is in alliance with Monk, 208; Charles II's entry into (1660), 209; is Shaftesbury's stronghold, 248, 288
- Lords, House of, its privileges attacked (1626), 58; increase in the numbers of, 90, 105; the bishops' protest (1641), 113; their exclusion (1642), 105, 115; proposal to exclude Roman Catholics, 105; break-up of the King's party in (1642), 115; exclusion of Royalist peers (1644), 134-5; small numbers in 1646, 134; abolition of (1649), 148, 151, 154-5; numbers in 1661, 217; jurisdiction of, 242; proceedings in, at the Revolution, 266. See also, Commons, Parliament
- Louis XIV, 241, 247, 252, 261, 288; his influence in English politics, 237-9. See also, France
- Ludlow, Edmund, 134
- Lumley, Richard, 1st Baron, signs the invitation to William of Orange, 261

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-09121-3 - English Constitutional Conflicts of the Seventeenth Century,
1603-1689

J. R. Tanner

Index

More information

310

INDEX

- Lunatics, Act for the better custody of (1653), 171
- Lunsford, Sir Thomas, appointed Lieutenant of the Tower (1641), 113
- Magdalen College, Oxford, expulsion of the Fellows of (1687), 256
- Magna Charta, 61, 63, 270, 271
- Main Treason (1603), 32
- Major-Generals, 192-3; appointment of (1655), 187-8
- Manchester, Edward Montagu, 2nd Earl of, commands one of the Parliamentary armies, 132; his quarrel with Cromwell (1644), 131
- Mandeville, Lord, 113
- Manhood suffrage, 148
- Manwaring, Dr Roger, afterwards Bishop of St David's, 21
- Marston Moor, battle of (1644), 123, 138, 150; results of, 130
- Martial law, 62, 225
- Marvell, Andrew, upon Cromwell, 286
- Mary of Orange, her marriage (1677), 238; her claim to the throne, 264, 266; proclaimed Queen (1689), 267
- Massey, John, appointed Dean of Christ Church (1686), 255
- Maurice, Prince, 139
- Midway, Dutch in the (1667), 234
- Militia Bill, royal assent refused to (1642), 116; Ordinance (1642), 117; militia revived in 1662, 223
- Millenary Petition (1603), 26
- Milton, John, 128; on the Sabbath, 16; on ceremonial, 80; appears as a controversialist (1641), 104; is opposed to the Presbyterians, 105; his description of London, 127; issues Eikonoklastes (1649), 158; refuses to answer Lilburne 161; on Cromwell, 285
- Mompesson, Sir Giles, impeached as a monopolist (1621), 50, 58
- Money bills, privileges of the Commons asserted, 242
- Monk, George, afterwards Duke of Albemarle, 212, 287; his army in Scotland, 204, 205, 206, 211, 254; enters England (Jan. 1660), 207; deals with the Parliament, 208; welcomes Charles II at Dover, 209; puts down Venner's Insurrection (1661), 224
- Monmouth, James Scott, Duke of, 261; his claim to the succession, 246, 247; Monmouth's Insurrection (1685), 250, 251, 253
- Monopolies, Mompesson impeached for (1621), 50; their revival by Charles I (1632), 75-6
- Montagu, Dr Richard, his case in Parliament, 52-3; is made Bishop of Chichester (1628), 54, 68
- Montagu, Ralph, afterwards 1st Duke of Montagu, betrays Danby (1678), 241
- Monthly assessment, 174, 223; adopted by the Parliament, 125; its advantages over the subsidy, 222-3
- Montrose, James Graham, Marquess of, 132
- Musgrave, Sir Thomas, seizes Carlisle (May, 1648), 150
- Mutiny, of Nov. 1647, 149; Levellers' (May, 1649), 161; incitement to, made treason (July, 1649), 162; the Mutiny Act, 225
- Naseby, battle of (1645), 132, 134, 139, 140, 150
- Navy, Parliamentary control of, in the Civil War, 125; part of it secedes to the King (1648), 150
- Nayler, James, case of (1656), 190-1
- Neile, Richard, Bishop of Lichfield, his commendams, 39
- Nepotism in the Purged Parliament, 163-4
- New Model, 143, 284; ordinance for the establishment of the (1645), 131-2, 136; arrangements for disbanding it (1647), 141
- Newark, Charles I's flight to (1646), 133; enfranchised (1681), 217
- Newburn, battle of (1640), 90
- Newbury, second battle of (1644), 130
- Newcastle, Treaty of (1646), 139, 141; third answer to (1647), 140
- Newcastle, William Cavendish, Earl of, 135
- Newmarket, headquarters of the army at, 143
- Newport, Treaty of (1648), 151
- Nineteen Propositions (1642), 117-18, 138, 139, 141
- "No bishop, no King," 24
- Nominees, Assembly of, see Parliament of Saints
- Non-resistance, 214, 250, 260, 263, 264
- North, Council of the, Wentworth becomes President of the (1628), 71; abolition of (1641), 98
- Northumberland, Algernon Percy, 10th Earl of, 85, 105
- Nottingham, the royal standard raised at (Aug. 22, 1642), 118
- Noy, William, 73, 275

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-09121-3 - English Constitutional Conflicts of the Seventeenth Century, 1603-1689

J. R. Tanner

Index

More information

INDEX

311

- Oates, Titus, 239, 241, 246
- Oath ex officio, 26, 98
- Officers, Council of, 149, 153, 156, 159, 165, 169, 211
- Orange, House of, 246. See also Mary of, William of
- Ordinance, history of the, 116-17; the title dropped (1649), 154 n.; Cromwell's ordinances of 1653-4, 178-81
- "Other House," the, 196, 199, 203, 205. See also, Second Chamber
- Oxford, Parliament of 1625 meets at, 55; Royalist Parliament at (1644), 121; capitulation of (1646), 133; confers an honorary degree on Cromwell (1649), 161; declaration of loyalty from, at the Restoration, 214; Parliament of 1681 at, 246-7; expulsion of the Fellows of Magdalen (1687), 256-7
- Oxford, Treaty of (1643), 138, 141
- Packe, Sir Christopher, 192
- Packing of the Parliament of 1685, 251
- Palatinate, plan for the recovery of the, 47-8
- Papal nuncio arrives in England (1687), 255
- Parliament, growing importance of, 5, 6, 7; development of conferences between the two Houses, 61; changed position of, at the Restoration, 217-18, 230, 233, 237; value of public debates in, at the Revolution, 265
- Parliament of 1604, religious questions in, 26; its Puritan character, 31; legislation against the Roman Catholics in, 32; dissolved (1611), 45
- Parliament of 1614 (the Addled Parliament), its Puritan character, 31; the "undertakers," 46; election of new men, 47
- Parliament of 1621, its attitude affected by foreign policy, 47; case of Floyd, 48; Protestation of 1621, 48-9; revival of impeachment in, 50
- Parliament of 1624, 49; supplies appropriated to war with Spain, 50; impeachment in, 50
- Parliament of 1625, religious questions in, 51-4; foreign policy, 54; tonnage and poundage, 54-5; Buckingham attacked, 55-6
- Parliament of 1626, 56; leaders pricked as sheriffs, 56; Eliot attacks Buckingham, 57-8; who is impeached, 58-9; Parliament dissolved to save him, 59
- Parliament of 1628, 61; the Petition of Right, 61-4; further attacks on Buckingham, 64; order to adjourn resisted, 68-9; resolutions on religion and taxation, 69; dissolution (1629), 70
- Parliament of April, 1640 (the Short Parliament), 87-9, 287
- Parliament of November, 1640 (the Long Parliament), 90, 210; is structurally different from earlier assemblies, 90-1; its hostility to the Court, 91; its objects, 92; practical effect of its earlier reforms, 99; division of parties in 1641, 100, 109; in 1642, 119; open defiance of the Crown (1642), 116; war-taxation, 125-6; quarrel with the army, 134, 141-3; the members decide to appeal to force (1647), 143; eleven Presbyterian members withdraw, 145; Pride's Purge (1648), 152; unrepresentative character of the Purged Parliament, 152, 164; it is expelled by Cromwell (Apr. 20, 1653), 165; it is recalled (May 7, 1659), 205; again expelled (Oct. 13, 1659), 205, 207; and again recalled (Dec. 26, 1659), 206; the members excluded by Pride's Purge restored by Monk, 208; the Long Parliament dissolves itself (Mar. 16, 1660), 208
- Parliament of Royalists meets at Oxford (1644), 121
- Parliament of 1653 (the Parliament of Saints), an assembly of nominees, 169, 186; its reforming zeal, 171; surrenders its power (Dec. 1653), 174-5
- Parliament of 1654 (the first Protectorate Parliament), mode of its election, 176-7; meeting of, 178, 181; it criticises the Instrument of Government, 181-3; exclusion of Republicans from, 182; dissolution of, after sitting five lunar months (Jan. 22, 1655), 184
- Parliament of 1656 (the second Protectorate Parliament), summoned, 189; exclusion of Cromwell's opponents, 189; change of feeling in the electorate, 189-90; the offer of the Crown, 191-6; second session under the Petition and Advice, 198; the Protector dissolves Parliament (Feb. 4, 1658), 199-200
- Parliament of 1659 (Richard Cromwell's Parliament), 202-5
- Parliament of 1660 (the Convention Parliament of the Restoration), meets, 208; proceedings of, 215-16; its settlement of finance, 221; toleration refused by, 227

- Parliament of 1661 (the Pension Parliament), 215, 232; composition of, 217; new position of, 217-18; lower tone of, 219-20; meeting of, 227; it confirms the Acts of the Convention Parliament, 221; later changes in its composition, 230-1; it encroaches upon foreign affairs, 237; strength of the opposition in, 241; Roman Catholics excluded from (1678), 240; dissolved (1679), 240, 241
- Parliament of 1679 (the Habeas Corpus Parliament), 242-4
- Parliament of 1680 (the Exclusion Bill Parliament), elected in 1679 but prorogued before it met, 244; Shaftesbury at the height of his power in, 246
- Parliament of 1681 (the Oxford Parliament), 246-9
- Parliament of 1685 (James II's Parliament), packing of, 251; it refuses to repeal the Test Act, 253; prorogued (1685), 253; dissolved (1687), 253; design for a second Parliament, 257
- Parliament of 1689 (the Convention Parliament of the Revolution), proceedings of, 262-7. See also, Biennial, Commons, Lords, Triennial
- Patriarcha*, 24
- Peacham's case (1615), 38
- Peers, Great Council of, at York (1640), 90
- Pemberton, Sir Francis, his speech at the trial of the Seven Bishops, 293
- Pembrokeshire, rising in (Feb. 1648), 150
- Penal laws, suspension of (1687), 256; proposed repeal of, 257, 258
- Penruddock's Insurrection (1655), 187, 188
- Pension Parliament, 232. See also, Parliament
- "Perpetuation Bill" (1653), 165
- Petition of Right (1628), 62-4, 71, 225
- "Petitioners," 245
- Petitions: on behalf of deprived ministers, 31; against Roman Catholics, 33; against the monarchy (1648), 151
- Petre, Father Edward, 254, 255, 262
- Phelips, Sir Robert, on arbitrary imprisonment, 61
- Philiphaugh, battle of (1645), 133
- Pilgrim Fathers, 127
- Pitt, William, the younger, 225
- Plague, the, 55, 219, 222, 231, 239
- Plymouth, 57, 120, 125
- Political ideas of the Interregnum, 160, 213
- Popish Plot, the (1678), 239-40, 241, 246, 248; its results, 240-1
- Portsmouth, 115, 125
- Post-natus*, case of the (1606), 268-9
- Powys, Sir Thomas, his speech in Hales's case, 290
- Prayer Book of 1662, 227
- Preaching, Puritan view of the importance of, 14, 26
- Pre-emption, abolition of, 221
- Prerogative, 18, 19
- Presbyterianism, Presbyterians, 101, 105, 128, 149, 285, 288; Presbyterian Church settlement for England, 121, 123, 129, 140, 144, 149; Presbyterians in the Westminster Assembly, 126; they abhor toleration, 138; want of wisdom of the Presbyterians in Parliament, 141, 143; withdrawal of the eleven Presbyterian members (1647), 145; Presbyterian riot in London (1648), 150; the Presbyterians attack the Commonwealth, 157-8; the Presbyterian clergy in livings, 157; the Presbyterians become Royalist, 208; comprehension of, proposed at the Restoration, 226; excluded from corporations (1661), 227
- Press Act of the Commonwealth (1649), 162
- Preston, battle of (1648), 150, 151
- Pride, Colonel Thomas, 195; Pride's Purge (Dec. 1648), 152, 208
- Privilege of freedom from arrest, 58, 59; of the Commons in respect of money bills, 242
- Privy Council, the, 243; imprisonment by, 270-2; deprived of its jurisdiction (1641), 98; not restored in 1660, 214, 215; the Privy Council in the Civil War, 121; Sir William Temple's scheme for the reorganisation of (1679), 243; introduction of Roman Catholics into, by James II, 254. See also, Council of State
- Privy Seals, loans on, 56
- Proclamations, legal limits of, 37
- Prohibitions, 35
- Protectorate, establishment of the (1653), 176-8
- Protestation of 1621, 49; of the Lords and Commons in 1642, 22
- Prynne, William, 92-3
- Public Accounts, Commission of (1667), 233
- Public opinion, influence of, at the Restoration, 211; growing power of, 220
- Puritanism, Puritans, 10, 52, 72, 100, 104, 106; points of controversy with Arminianism, 14-16; ejection of Puritan clergy in 1604, 28, 47; Puritan

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-09121-3 - English Constitutional Conflicts of the Seventeenth Century, 1603-1689

J. R. Tanner

Index

More information

INDEX

313

- view of ceremonies, 80-1; Puritanism in the Restoration period, 219
- Purveyance, abolition of, 221
- Pym, John, 9, 42, 47, 91, 91 n., 97, 107, 108, 109, 240, 278, 289; leader of the House of Commons, 88-9; action against Strafford, 94, 279, 280; his speech at the trial, 281-2; not a Root and Branch man, 101, 103; one of the Five Members, 113; proposes an alliance with the Scots, 122; introduces the excise, 125, 221; is a member of the Westminster Assembly, 126
- Quakers, 197
- Quo warranto*, writs of, 236
- Rainborowe, Thomas, 142, 143
- Rebellion, the Great, 1, 22, 212, 214, 217, 219, 250
- Recognition, the (1654), 182
- "Recruiters," 134, 165
- Redistribution of seats, 147, 176
- Reform Bill of 1832, anticipation of, in 1647, 147; in 1653, 176
- Regency, a, proposed in 1689, 264, 266
- Regicides, punishment of the, 215-16
- Remonstrance of the Army* (Nov. 1648), 152, 154
- Republicans, excluded from the first Protectorate Parliament, 182; criticise the Petition and Advice, 197
- Restoration of 1660, the, 1, 201-16; contributory causes of its success, 210; in completeness of, 214-15; ecclesiastical settlement of, 225
- Revolution of 1688, 1, 13, 25, 241, 250-67
- Rhè, expedition to, 60
- Richelieu, Cardinal, 55
- Ripon, Treaty of (1640), 90
- Robinson, Pastor John, 127
- Rochelle, 55, 60
- Rochester, Laurence Hyde, Earl of, his dismissal (1687), 255
- Roman Catholicism, Roman Catholics, 52, 76, 256, 259; James I and the, 17, 32; indulgence shewn to, by Charles I, 68; proposal to exclude them from the Lords (1641), 105; excluded from Parliament (1678), 240; repeal of the penal laws contemplated, 250; Roman Catholics receive commissions in the army, 253, 254; admitted to corporations, 258; Catholic cabal established by James II, 254; chapel opened at Whitehall (1686), 255
- Romanising tendencies of the younger Stuarts, 226
- Root and Branch, 101, 103-4, 109, 111, 121
- Roundhead, origin of the term, 245 n.
- Royalists, active on the Continent (1648), 150; they attack the Commonwealth, 158
- Rudyard, Sir Benjamin, 56, 61, 70
- Rump Parliament, 152, 156
- Rupert, Prince, 121, 135, 139, 140
- Russell, Admiral Edward, signs the invitation to the Prince of Orange, 261
- Russell, William, Lord Russell, 261
- Ryswick, Peace of (1697), 225
- Sabbatarian controversy, 15
- Saffron Walden church, meeting in (1647), 142
- St Bartholomew, massacre of (1572), 239; deprivation of clergy (1662), 228
- St Giles's, Edinburgh, riot in (1637), 84
- St John, Oliver, 91, 142; a Root and Branch man, 101, 103; proposes the Committee of Both Kingdoms (1644), 123; his speech in Hampden's case, 273-4
- St Margaret's, Westminster, its connexion with the House of Commons, 32 n.
- Salisbury, Robert Cecil, Earl of, appointed Lord Treasurer (1608), 43; his death (1612), 46
- Sancroft, William, Archbishop of Canterbury, 290; one of the Seven Bishops, 260; his proposals at the Revolution, 263-4
- Saye and Sele, William Fiennes, 1st Viscount, 87, 91
- Schools, visitation of (1654), 180
- Scotland, Scots, 101, 143; union with, 17, 169, 176, 177, 203, 212, 217, 268; James I reintroduces episcopacy into, 83; Laud attempts to Anglicanise, 83-4; the Scots occupy Northumberland and Durham (1640), 90; the "Brotherly Assistance" (1640), 92; Scottish army of occupation, 90, 92, 97, 107; disbanded (Sept. 1641), 111; Charles I visits Scotland (1641), 107-8; military alliance of the Parliament with (1643), 121-2; the Scots return, leaving the King behind them, 140; the Scots cross the Border again (July, 1648), 150; Cromwell in Scotland, 163; Monk's intervention from (1660), 206-8. See also, Bishops' Wars
- Second Chamber, suggestion of a, 191; set up by the Petition and Advice (1657), 196. See also, "Other House"
- Sects, catalogue of the, 127 n.; their political power in the Restoration period, 250

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-09121-3 - English Constitutional Conflicts of the Seventeenth Century, 1603-1689

J. R. Tanner

Index

More information

314

INDEX

- Sedgemoor, battle of (1685), 251, 261, 289
- Selden, John, 61; not a Root and Branch man, 101; a member of the Westminster Assembly, 126
- Self-denying Ordinance (1654), 130-1, 136, 160
- Service Book and Canons in Scotland, 84, 85, 86, 123
- Seven Bishops, Trial of the (1688), 259-60, 292-4
- Seventeenth century, its dramatic character, 1
- Shaftesbury, Anthony Ashley Cooper, 1st Earl of, 220, 231, 238, 241, 242, 244, 247, 250; leader of the anti-Clarendonians, 233; his interest in trade, 234, 288; his ability as a tactician, 240, 289; supports the Test Act and is dismissed (1673), 236; at the summit of his power (1680), 246; ignoramus, 288; survey of his character and career, 286-9
- Sheriffs, Parliamentary leaders pricked as (1626), 56-7
- Ship-money, 88; writs of (1634-6), 76-7; Hampden's case of (1637), 77-9, 273-7; declared illegal (1641), 98
- Shirley v. Fagg (1675), 242
- Shrewsbury, Charles Talbot, 12th Earl of, signed the invitation to William of Orange, 261
- Sibthorp, Dr Robert, 21
- Sidney, Algernon, 134, 154, 261
- Sidney, Henry, afterwards Earl of Romney, signs the invitation to William of Orange, 261
- Sindercombe's Plot (1657), 191, 192
- Skinner v. the East India Company (1668), 242
- Skippon, Philip, 155
- Soap Company, 75-6
- Spain, Spanish: the Spanish marriage (1621-3), 48, 50; war with Spain, 50, 54, 56, 189; proposed alliance with, against France (1677), 237
- Speaker, the, is held down in his chair (1629), 69; character of the office, 65; change in (1642), 115
- Standing army, see Army of the younger Stuarts
- Star Chamber, 18, 38, 73, 75, 99; case of Richard Chambers in (1629), 74; its victims compensated, 92; abolition of (1641), 98; not restored in 1660, 214
- Stawell, Sir John, case of (1653), 174
- Stillingfleet, Edward, Dean of St Paul's, 259
- Stafford, Earl of, see Wentworth
- Strode, William, one of the Five Members, 113
- Stuart Kings, compared with the Tudors, 6-7; their financial difficulties, 7-9
- Subsidy, 21, 125; comes to an end in 1663, 222
- Subsidy Act of 1624, arrangements in, for the appropriation of supply, 269-70
- Sunderland, Robert Spencer, 2nd Earl of, 255; in the trial of the Seven Bishops, 292
- Supply, appropriation of, in 1624, 269-70; in 1665, 233
- Supremacy, the ecclesiastical, 12, 49, 52
- Suspending power, the, 230, 256
- "Tables," the, 84, 86
- Taxation, under the Petition and Advice, 196; taxation without consent of Parliament not restored in 1660, 214
- Temple, Sir William, his scheme for the reorganisation of the Privy Council (1679), 243
- Tenures, conversion of military, 46 n., 221
- Test Act (1673), 233, 240, 289; provisions of, 235; repeal of, proposed by James II, 251, 252, 253, 254, 257, 258; dispensations from, 254, 290
- Thames, 125, 219
- Thirty Years' War, 8, 10, 47, 121
- Thomas v. Sorrell (1674), 290
- "Thorough," 72-3, 85, 89, 278, 281
- Tillotson, John, Dean of Canterbury, 259
- Tithe, its abolition proposed (1653), 173; Cromwell's policy in relation to, 180
- Tobacco, 222
- Toleration, 31; James I and, 17, 27, 32; the army and, 145, 146; Cromwell and, 128-130, 285; Toleration Order (1644), 130; the Presbyterians and, 138, 150; toleration under the Protectorate, 180-1, 183, 197; in the Restoration Settlement, 209; Charles II and, 227, 229-30, 234, 241; the Cabal and, 235; Shaftesbury a supporter of, 288, 289 n.; James II and, 258, 262; Toleration Act of 1689, 148, 289
- Tonnage and poundage, grant of, refused (1625), 54-5; the merchants decline to pay, 68; resolutions of 1629, 69; levy of, continued, 73; Act of 1641, 98
- Tories, Tory: origin of the term, 244-6; Tories in the Parliament of 1685, 251; the Tories support the Revolution, 261,

- 262; their views on the Convention Parliament (1689), 263-4
- Trade, interest of the members of the Pension Parliament in, 231, 233 n.; Shaftesbury and, 234, 288, 289 n.
- Train-bands in the Civil War, 120
- Transubstantiation, declaration against, 235
- Treason, Act of Henry VII, 194; of 1649, 161-2; Ordinance of 1654, 178; cumulative treason, 279
- Trelawny, Sir Jonathan, Bishop of Bristol, one of the Seven Bishops, 260
- Triennial Act, of 1641, 96; of 1694, 147
- Triennial Parliaments, 156 n., 176-7
- Triers, Commission of (1654), 180, 131
- Tudors, achievements of the, 2-3, 5
- Turner, Francis, Bishop of Ely, one of the Seven Bishops, 260
- Twisse, Dr William, Prolocutor of the Westminster Assembly, 126
- Tyrconnel, Richard Talbot, Earl of, 254, 255
- "Undertakers," 46
- Uniformity, Act of (1662), 227-8, 229
- Unitarians, 197
- Universities, visitation of the (1654), 180
- Ussher, James, Archbishop of Armagh, his scheme for limited episcopacy (1641), 101, 226, 227
- Uxbridge, Treaty of (1644), 138, 139, 141
- Valentine, Benjamin, holds the Speaker down in his chair (1629), 69
- Vane, Sir Henry, the elder, his notes of Strafford's speech (May 5, 1640), 89
- Vane, Sir Henry, the younger, 119, 142; supports Root and Branch, 103; proposes the Committee of Both Kingdoms, 123; is a member of the Westminster Assembly, 126; criticises the Petition and Advice, 197; his trial, 194
- Vaudois, the, 192
- Vaughan, Sir John, Chief Justice of the Common Pleas, on the dispensing power (1674), 290
- Venner's Insurrection (1661), 224
- Visitation of the Universities and schools (1654), 180
- Vox Militaris*, 138, 144
- Wales, Court of, abolished (1641), 98
- Walker, Obadiah, allowed to retain his Mastership after conversion to Rome, 255
- Waller, Edmund, the poet, 280
- Waller, Sir William, not a Root and Branch man, 101; commands one of the Parliamentary armies, 132; Waller as a general, 284
- War, councils of, 144
- Wards, Court of, ceases to sit (1645), 221
- Warwick, Robert Rich, 2nd Earl of, 91, 130
- Wentworth, Sir Thomas, afterwards Earl of Strafford, 42, 47, 50, 70, 107, 154; refuses to contribute to the Forced Loan (1626), 61; on the Petition of Right, 64; opposes Buckingham, 71; was not a Puritan, 71; created Viscount Wentworth and becomes President of the Council of the North (1628), 71; becomes Lord Deputy of Ireland (1633), 71; his Irish administration, 277-9; his Plantation of Connaught, 106, 278; is created Earl of Strafford (1639), 87; his speech in Council, 89; his impeachment (1640), 93-5, 278-80; speeches at the trial, 279-82; his execution (1641), 95
- Westminster Assembly of Divines, 126-8, 130, 140
- Weston, Richard, Baron Weston of Neyland, and afterwards 1st Earl of Portland, Lord Treasurer, 73, 75
- Whig, Whigs, 247, 248, 249, 252; origin of the term, 244-6; they support William of Orange, 261-2; their views in the Convention Parliament of the Revolution, 265-7
- White, Thomas, Bishop of Peterborough, one of the Seven Bishops, 260
- Whitelocke, Bulstrode, his conversation with Cromwell (Nov. 1652), 164; with Oxenstiern, 184
- Whitelocke, Sir James, his speech on impositions (1610), 45
- William of Orange, afterwards William III, 225, 247, 261; his marriage (1677), 238, 241; invitation to (1688), 261-2; accessions to, 262; his intervention at the Revolution, 266-7; proclaimed King, 267
- Williams, John, Bishop of Lincoln, and afterwards Archbishop of York, 83
- Windebank, Sir Francis, 85, 87; his flight (1640), 93
- Winstanley, Gerrard, the "Digger," 213
- Worcester, battle of (1651), 163
- York, Charles I's camp at (1639), 87; Great Council of Peers at (1640), 90; the King establishes himself at (1642), 117; Fairfax, in alliance with Monk, occupies (1660), 207