Index

Adam, H., 1, 2, 7, 8, 12, 257(n)
African Mineworkers’ Union (AMWU), 230, 264(n)
African National Congress of South Africa (ANC), 1: development in World War 2, 123, 129; Congress Youth League, 123
African trade unions, 228–9, 230
Afrikaans-Nasionale Studentebond, 70, 75
Afrikaanse Handelsinstituut (AHI), 135, 141, 143, 235, 248, 266(n); formation and role, 143–7; class organ of Afrikaner capital, 145; concern with foreign capital, 146–7; on labour question, 171, 175; on apartheid, 175; alliance with SAAU, 188, 218
Afrikaanse Nasionale Kultuurraad, 107
Afrikaanse Sake-Ondernemings Korporasie (Asokor), 205, 207
Afrikaanse Taal en Kultuurvereniging, 76
Afrikaanse Vrouevereniging, 104
Afrikaner Bond, 23, 32
Afrikanerbroedersbond, see Broederbond
Afrikaner capital: growth of, 181–2; theory of accumulation, 181–4; finance capital, 205–8, 250; manufacturing, 209–13; commercial capital, 213–19; retarded accumulation of, 190, 219–20; ideology of, 150–63; role of ‘service’, 152–3; and cheap labour, 171, 173; and apartheid, 175, 243–4; accumulation post-1948, 249–50; in 1970s, 253–5
Afrikaner nationalism, interpretations of, 2; nationalistic interpretation, 4; liberal interpretation, 4–5; core concept of Afrikanerdom, 6ff; teleological explanations, 7; historicism, 6–7; idealism and empiricism, 7–9; as fascism, 9–11; class analysis of, 9–12; link with capitalism, 3, 10, 11–12; definition used, 16
Afrikaner Party: formation and class base, 124–5, 225, 233; OB moves into, 246; merges with HNP, 260(n)
Afrikaner Verbond Begravnis Ondernemings Beperk (AVBOB), 101, 205
Afrikaner workers, and Labour Party, 80; position in industry, 81–3; place in Bond strategy, 84; link with petty bourgeoisie, 88; place in Christian-nationalist ideology, 88–9; in trade union struggles, 92–4; role in ideology of economic movement, 114, 157–62; and apartheid, 171, 243–4; to be weaned from class ideology by economic movement, 220; position in World War 2, 238–9
agriculture (capitalist): historical development, 22–3; in Cape, 23; in Natal, 23 in OFS and Transvaal, 24–7; policy of Pact government, 27–8; impact of imperialism, 29–30; Collapse in Depression, 36; central role in Cape economic movement, 99–100; role in accumulation strategy of economic movement, 115–16, 135–6, 181–4; growth in the 1940s, 122–3, 184, 185–7; role of cooperatives, 185; role of Control Boards, 187–8; labour shortages in 1940s, 188–90, 231–2; barriers to accumulation, 188, 190; political organisation in World War 2, 233–8; and apartheid, 243–4; improved position post-1948, 249–50
Agricultura Laboratoria, 193
Albertyn, P.K., 70, 260(n)
All African Convention, 250, 266(n)
Index

Althusser, L., 15
Anglo-Boer War, 24; impact on Boer agriculture, 25 anti-semitism, 163
apartheid: as developed by economic movement, 167–75; the ‘Indian question’, 167–71; as concern with cheap labour, 171, 175; early concept of, 172–3, 175; as response uniting class forces, 173, 174; biblical justification, 174–5; theorisation of, 174; as accumulation by Afrikaner capital, 175; involves ethnicisation, 177–8; proposals of Sauer Commission, 236–7; as programme of a class alliance, 243–4; secures rapid accumulation for all capitals, 247, 248–50; changing euphemisms for, 257(n)
Associated Chambers of Commerce (Assocom), 144, 156; opposition to Marketing Act, 187, 235
Bailey, Sir Abe, 43, 44
Balfour Declaration, 39, 49, 61
Bekommerd, 68
Biko, Steve, 252
Blankers workers be Beskermingsbond (BWWB), 78, 86–7, 158
Boerenasie, 120
Bondswag, 94
Bonushor, 197–8, 207, 218, 250
Bosman, J.J., 102
Botha, General Louis, 24, 27, 54, 96, 233, 264(n)
Botha, P.W., 2; accession to power, 252–6
Breë Kerklike Komitee, 86, 94
Bremer, K., 151
Brink Broers, 193
Brink, C.H., 192
Broderick, B.B., 92, 93, 265(n)
Broederbond (Bond), 2, 17, 40, 51, 52, 56; formation, 59; class and regional basis, 60; early history, 60–1; transformation into vanguard movement, 61–2; Formation of FAK, 61; re-organisation in fusion crisis, 62; structure and mode of operation, 62–4; key role in ideological redefinition, 68–77; control over Afrikaner culture, 74–7; role and interest in Christian-national trade unions, 83–95, 88, 100, 158; role in early economic initiatives, 101–6; formation of Volkskas, 102, 199; cooperation with Sanlam to initiate economic movement, 104–5, 106, 107–10; assessment of Ekonomeise Volkskongres, 115; attack on party politics, 120; organises hereniging, 122; role in HNP/NO conflict, 126; role in HNP/OB conflict, 127–8, 132, 245; Unity Committee and Republican Constitution, 128–9; role in RDB, 137–8; forms AH, 143; view of as conspiracy, 149; class character of its racism, 169; Volkskongres on race question, 173; control of Rembrandt, 202; key relationship with HNP in 1940s, and different functions, 245; Christian-national education policy, 245, 265(n); role in verdigte/verkrampte conflicts, 251; Gen. Hertzog’s attack on, 260(n); Military Intelligence reports on, 149, 260(n), 261(n), 262(n); Christian de Wet Fund, 263(n)
Brown Geisler, 263(n)
Building Workers’ Industrial Union, 85
Bunting, B. 9, 10, 260(n), 262(n)
Bureau for State Security (BOSS), 251; two major errors of, 266(n)
Bührman, W., 263(n)
Burger, Die, 97, 101; critique of Republican Constitution, 129
Calvinism, 4; developments and tendencies in, 67–8; relation to Christian-nationalist ideology, 260(n)
Cape Lime Products, 193
Carnegie Corporation Commission, 26
Chamber of Mines, 41, 43, 81, 91, 230–1, 235, 246, 264(n)
Christian-national education, 245, 265(n)
Christian-national ideology, 52; development of, 68f; new definitions, 68–72; new historical subject, 73; three philosophical trends in, 69–70; republicanism of, 71–2; view of culture, 71; danger of class, 71; place of workers in, 88–9, 159–61; social function of capital in, 161; existing capitalism exploits Afrikaners, 149; developed by economic movement, 165–6, 244
Christian-national trade unionism, 78–95, 158, 240–1; take over of MWU, 91–4; struggle for Garment Workers’ Union, 94–7; breaks Labour Party, 241
Colliers, A.C., 120, 156
Class alliance of Afrikaner nationalism, 226; organised by HNP after 1945, 243–4; cemented by economic movement, 244–5; shifted by growth of Afrikaner capital, 250–1; collapse of, 253–5; coalition government, 45–7
Coetzee, C., 69

275
Index

Coetzee, W.B., 192, 196
Comintern, 10
Communist Party of South Africa, 37–8, 162, 229, 246, 263(n)
Control Boards, 37, 47, 184, 187–8
Cooperatives: stressed at Ekonomiese Volkskongres, 113–15; conflict with private undertakings, 136–43; as biggest Afrikaner manufacturing concerns, 211; biggest commercial concerns, 214
Coordinating Council of South African Trade Unions, 95, 240
Cronje, G., 70

Davenport, T.R.H., 23, 262(n)
Davies, R., 79, 238–40, 258(n), 261(n), 263(n), 265(n)
de Klerk, J., 86
de Lange, J., 263(n)
Depression, 17, 21; differential impact, 35–7
de Villiers, D.P., 144
de Wet Nel, M.C., 177, 188
de W. Keyter, J., 70
Diederichs, N., 64, 70, 71, 84, 103, 108, 128, 132, 137, 138, 140, 143, 146, 149, 158, 201, 202, 254, 260(n), 262(n), 263(n), 265(n)
Distillers Corporation, 202
Dominion Party, 22, 45, 133, 225
Dönges, T.E., 107, 109, 111, 112, 115, 116, 132, 134, 139, 150, 151, 158, 176 du Pisane, J., 162
du Plessis, E.P., 71, 87, 98, 100, 103, 104, 111, 112, 113, 114, 115, 136, 137, 140–1, 191, 196, 197, 257(n), 263(n) du Plessis, J., 68
du Plessis, Louis J., 60, 260(n)
Dutch Reformed Church, 51, 129; see also Nederduits Gereformeerde Kerk du Toit, C.W.M., 262(n)
du Toit, J.D. (‘Toutius’), 69, 263(n) du Toit, P.S., 84
du Toit, S.J., 260(n)

Economic movement: as core of Afrikaner nationalism, 16, 244–5; Christian-national trade unionism as part of, 88; central role of Cape undertakings, 96; early history of in Cape, 96–101; early history of in north and role of Bond, 101–6; central role of agricultural capital in, 99–100; economic strategy set out at Ekonomiese Volkskongres, and class character of, 115–16; 3 key organisations of, 147–8; role of Ekonomiese Instituut, 135–7; role of RDB, 137; developing ideology of, 150–66; its view of capitalism 150, 151–2; its definition of Afrikanerdom, 150–2; its definition of anti-capitalism, 134, and class character of, 163–4; ideology of ‘service’, 153, 161; view of role of different classes in, 155, farmers, 155–7; workers, 157–62; need to change cultural values, 156; structure of Christian-national state, 162; role in development of Christian-nationalist ideology, 165–6; signs of impact of HNP/OB split on, 154; role in development of apartheid ideology, 167–75; class conception of ‘Indian question’, 167–71, and ‘native question’, 171–6, and programme of HNP, 176–8; theory of accumulation, 181; new accumulation strategy, 206–7; class divisions emerging out of, 219, 221; weans white workers from class ideologies, 220; core organising component of 1940s nationalist class alliance, 244–4 economy, the: crisis in depression and impact on different sectors, 35–8; growth 1934–40, 119; growth 1940–48, 226–8; restructuring of industry, 226–7

Eeuwies, 76–7, 107ff
Ekonomiese Instituut (of FAK), 115, 116, 135–7, 152, 248; in conflict between cooperative and private groups, 136, 141; dominated by Cape theorists, 144, 145; displaced by AHF, 149; definition of kernel of economic movement, 153

Ekonomiese Volkskongres, 85, 103, 107–16, 191, 208, 241; outcome of Bond/Sanlam cooperation, 107–10; 2 lines of, 110–14; planning of FBV, 108–9, 112–13; plea for volkskapitalisme, 111; line on cooperatives, 113; recommendations, 114; economic strategy of, 115–16; as turning point in Afrikaner nationalism, 115

(2nd) Ekonomiese Volkskongres, 153, 169, 170, 203, 205, 248–9; new accumulation strategy, 206–207; drops small undertakings, 218; as turning point in Afrikaner nationalism, 248–9 elections: 1933, 46; 1938, 119–20; 1943,
Index

Hertzig, D.W.R., 202
61, 62, 66, 69, 72, 76, 77, 96, 97, 121, 122, 129, 258(n), 259(n), 260(n)
Hertzogism, 72–3; interpellations of, 73–4; as base of AP, 124; attack on economic movement, 156; collapse in World War 2, 234
Hervormers, 84, 85, 91–4, 240, 241
Het Volk, 26, 258(n)
Hienstra, L.W., 132
Hofmeyr, J.H., 55, 123, 229, 261(n), 264(n)
Hofmeyr, W.A., 31, 52, 96–8, 105–6, 109–10, 120, 140, 158, 192, 196, 198, 200, 201, 261
Hoggenheimer, 34, 41, 47, 50, 53, 123, 134, 151, 200, 254, 258(n)
Hugo, T.J., 70, 72
ideology: theory of in study, 12–15, 73
imperialism: 2 definitions of, 257–8(n); impact on agriculture, 29; definition of in Afrikaner nationalism, 34; changing character in 1920s and 1930s, 34–5; and in World War 2, 121
Imperial Preferences System, 29, 50, 121
Industrial and Commercial Workers’ Union of Africa (ICU), 28, 37
Industrial Conciliation Act, 228
Industrial Development Corporation: 250 internal colonialism, theory of, 10
Irving and Johnson Company, 192
Jansen, E.G., 173, 174, 190, 258(n)
Jansen, Mrs M.M., 105
Joubert, Piet, 24
Kestell, ‘Vader’ J.D., 103, 108, 140, 262(n)
Kleinsaks Finansieringsmaatskappy, 140, 142, 218
Klerowerkersnaas, 94
Klipfontein Koolmyne, 193
Klipfontein Organic Products, 193
Kliipoortjie Koolmyne, 193
Klopper, H., 76, 90
Koers, 64–5, 128
Koopkrag, 135
Kopersbond, 135, 145, 214
Korean War, 249
Kruger, ‘Oom Paul’, 24
Kulturnpolitiek, 76, 77
Kuiperianism, 67, 68, 69–70
Kuypers, A., 67

© Cambridge University Press  www.cambridge.org
Index

Laaplek Visserey, 193
Laas, J.C.C., 126, 127
Labour Party, 22, 32, 39, 42, 69, 80, 84, 133, 158, 225; position in MWU struggle, 93–4; collapse of support for, 239–42 labour policy: HNP and UP alternatives, 48, 235–8; conflict over in capitalist class, 230–2 labour tenancy, 29, 231
Land Act (1913), 26, 27, 188
Landsdown Commission, 230
Language Act, 74
latent money capital, 99–100
Leather Workers’ Union, 78
Lombard, J.M., 60, 84, 102, 135, 202, 260(n)
Louw, C.R., 192
Louw, M.S., 100, 107, 110, 112, 140, 142–4, 153, 191, 194–9, 200, 201, 205, 206–7, 249, 254, 261(n), 262(n)
Madeley, W., 239
Magaliesburg Cooperative Tobacco Society, 262(n)
Malan, D.F., 31, 49, 43, 45, 47, 48, 50–1, 62, 70–1, 97, 105, 120, 122, 127, 129–31, 133, 150, 163, 172, 174, 225, 258(n), 260(n)
Malherbe, E.G., 264(n)
Marais, Mrs Jannie, 84, 106
Marine Products’, 193, 212
Marketing Act, 100, 104, 115, 184; struggles over, 187–8, 190, 231, 232, 249
Martin, John, 259(n)
Marx, K., 1, 3, 11, 12, 13, 14, 35, 164–6, 181, 183, 261(n), 264(n)
Marxism: analysis of South Africa, 2–3
Master and Servants Act, 228
Mentz, F.E., 132
Meyer, P.J., 64, 70, 71, 84, 85, 105, 107, 128, 131, 135, 143, 144, 150, 154, 158, 191, 202, 203, 251, 261(n), 262(n), 263(n), 265(n)
Military Intelligence: reports on Broederbond, 149, 260(n), 261(n), 262(n), 264(n)
Mine Workers’ Union, 78, 85, 89, 154, 240; struggle within, 91–4; corruption of leadership, 93, 265(n); position in 1980s, 255
Mining Unions’ Joint Committee, 92
Monopolies Bill, 218
Moodie, T.D., 6, 7, 8, 9, 12, 25, 62, 70, 76, 85, 105, 127, 165, 174, 225, 257(n), 260(n)
Morris, M., 28, 188, 228, 231, 234, 258(n), 264(n)
mother-tongue education, 265(n)

Mulder, Connie, 252–4
‘Muldergate’ scandal, 253–4, 266(n)
Murray, Andrew, 67, 260(n)
Nasionale Instituut vir Opvoeding en Onderwys, 265(n)
Nasionale Pers, 52, 59, 85, 97, 101, 105, 106
Nasionale Raad van Trustees (NRT), 78, 106, 114, 133, 158; formation and activities, 84–5, 87; struggle in MWU, 91–4, 102; funded by reddingsdaadfonds, 146
Natal Federal Group, 45
Natal separatism, 23
Nationalist Party (NP): 1914–34, post-1951, 1, 6, 7, 17, 22, 26, 69; fromation in north, 25–6, 30, formation by Gen. Hertzog, 96; formation in Cape, 96–7; class basis, ideological and organisation, 21–2, 26, 258(n); regionalism and differences between provincial parties, 31–2; definition of imperialism, 34; disintegration, 39–48; Gold Standard crisis, 41–2; fusion crisis, 41–8; split, 48; economic organisation in Cape, 101; secures accumulation of all capitals post-1948, 249–50; class conflict in, post-1960, 251–7; verligte/verkrampte divisions and class basis, 251–7; paralysis in mid-1970s, 252–4; dominated by Afrikaner capital, 253–5; re-organised by P.W. Botha, 254–5; merger with AP, 266(n)
Nationalist Party – purified (G/NP), 1934–40, 17, 22; different class base in provinces, 49–52; organisational basis, 49; republicanism, 50–1; petty bourgeoisie base, 50–2; fortunes following fusion, 119–20; in 1938 elections, 120; opposition to hereniging, 122; explanation of name, 259(n)
Nationalist Party – re-united (HNP), 1940–51: formation of, 122; class basis, 122; splits in OFS to form AP, 114, formation of NO, 125–6; splits in World War 2, 124–32; 1941 Union Congress, 126; conflict with OB, 128–32, class basis of, 131; in 1943 elections, 133; lack of workers support for, 158; 1948 programme and economic movement, 176–8; 1944 economic programme, 176–8, 225; majority in 1948 elections, 225; base in agriculture, 233–8; labour policy for 1948 election, 235–8; Sauer Commission on apartheid, 170–1, 235–7; new rural base in 1948, 237–8; and white labour in World War 2, 238–42; organises new class alliance in 1948, 243–4; relationship with Broederbond and different functions to, 245; electoral pact with AP, 246; class and regional basis following 1948 election, 244; merges with AP, 266; as ruling party secures accumulation for all capitals, 246–7
Index

National Republican Unity Front, 120
Natives Representative Council, 229
Native Trust and Land Act (1936), 227, 231
Naude, L., 77, 80, 83, 84, 85, 87, 89, 91, 94, 241, 261(n), 263(n)
Nederduitsh Hervormde Kerk (NHK): 67
Nederduits Gereformeerde Kerk (NGK), 67–8, 70, 74, and economic movement, 104
Neethling, P., 106, 261(n)
Neo-Fichteans: as a trend in Christian-nationalism, 70
Nicol, W., 70
Nkosí, J., 37
Noodhulpbla, 76
NURAH, 90
Nuve Orde (NO), 125, 133, 162, 233

oorstrooming: as symbol uniting classes in nationalist alliance, 243–4, 265(n)
Oppenheimer, Harry, 266(n)
Oppenheimer, Sir Ernest, 43–4
Oranje Unie, 27
Ossewa Brandwag (OB), 150, 202, 233, 245; formation, 77; militarism of, 122, 127, 131; organisation of, 127; petty-bourgeois base, 128; membership figures, 262(n); split with HNP, 126, 128–32; as volksfront, 129; impact of split on economic movement, 136, 154; Labour front of, 78, 85–6, 158; moves into AP after World War 2, 246
Ottawa Imperial Conference, 30

Pact government, 32, 60; agricultural policies, 27–8; represented a class alliance, 28; political limitations of, 30; policies, 33
Parsons, T., 15
Pegging Act, 168
Pellisier, S.H., 265(n)
Pelzer, A.N., 60, 61, 62, 78, 84, 86, 102, 104, 107, 128, 145, 156, 245, 261(n), 262(n), 263(n)

petty bourgeoisie (Afrikaner): as base of G/NP, 50–2; socio-economic position of, 52–6; dependence on interests of agriculture, 53–5; impact of fusion on, 56–7; control of Christian-national trade unionism, 88; position in World War 2, 122–3; as base for OB, 128; ideology of economic movement arises out of interests of, 162–3; ‘anti-capitalism’ of, 163; anti-Indian racism arises out of class position of, 169–71; meaning for it of apartheid, 173, 243–4; attack on Sanlam dominance of economic movement, 219
Pirow, O., 43, 44, 96, 125, 126, 130, 133, 259(a)
‘poor whites’, 54, 82
Potchefstroom academicians, 60; as Bond leaders, 64; role in ideological redefinition, 69; support for OB, 128; role in RDB, 138
Poulantzas, N., 9, 11
Progressive-Federal Party: 253 proletarianisation of African peasantry, 26, 225, 227, 264(n); of white farmers, 26, 258(n)

Rautenbach, J.A., 144

Rebelle (1914), 34, 59

Reddingsdaadbond (RDB), 78, 87, 129, 149, 154, 191, 218, 220, 265(n); formation, 136; function and role, 137–43, 139–40; role in HNP/OB split, 138, 158; RARO, 139; cultural activities of, 139; caters for economic interests, 139–49; key role in forging nationalist class alliance, 142–3, 244, 248–9; forms AHI, 143, 149; and Afrikaner workers, 158, 165; on cheap labour question, 171; early rural opposition to, membership figures, 263(n)

Reddingsdaadfonds (Founds), 85, 140ff

Rembrandt, 192, 207, 212, 219; formation and growth, 201–5; controlled by Bond, 202; use of nationalism, 204; cheap labour policies, 204; growth in the 1950s, 250

Republican Constitution (1941 Draft), 72, 124, 128, 129, 130, 260(n), 262(n)
republicanism, 46, 50–1, 71–2
Republican Party, 45
Republikeinsebonds, 40, 62
Retief, Piet, 166
Robertson Handelsvereniging, 193
Roos, Tielman, 32, 42, 43, 44, 45, 54, 258(n), 259(n)
Ross, G.E.N., 263(n)
Rousseau, P.E., 192
Saambou, 91, 195–6, 205
Sachs, E.S., 94–5

279
Index

Namesmelting, see "fusion"

Sanlam, 52, 59, 98, 135, 136, 200, 204 205, 207, 243–4; formation and early growth, 97–9; early accumulation strategy, 99, and dependence on Cape agriculture, 99–100; relationship to Cape nationalist movement, 101, 103, 104; approach to and cooperation with Bond, 104, 106, 107–10; role in establishment of, and control of FVB, 108–9, 113, 192; development of Sanlam group in 1940s, 194–9; control of Saambou, 195–6; formation of Bonuskor, 197–8; position in nationalist politics, 200, 218, 219; as prime beneficiary of economic movement, 207–8; its perspective dominates 2nd Ekonomiese Volkskongres, 249; growth after 1948, 250, 253; attack on state policies, 266(n)

Santam, 52, 59, 86, 98, 101; formation and early growth, 98–9; as part of Cape economic movement, 101

Sasbank, 104, 193, 199, 204–5

Sauer Commission, 170–1, 235, 236–7, 265(n)

Sayer, D., 257(n)

Schoeman, Ben, 162, 225, 263(n)

Schumann, C.G.W., 109–11, 142, 144, 146, 152, 161, 176

Schumann, T.E.W., 84, 171

Sentrane Volksbeleggings, 113, 262(n)

Seffontein, J.H.P., 262(n)

Simson, H., 9, 10, 11, 262(n)

smelters, 48, 122

Smit Committee, 230

Smuts, General J.C., 22, 26, 33, 43–7, 49, 54, 96, 123, 170, 225, 233, 258(n), 259(n), 264(n)

Sonop, 103, 193, 200, 217

South African Agricultural Union (SAAU), on Gold Standard, 41; alliance with AHI, 188, 190; on wartime labour shortage, 231, 234, 235, 237

South African Farm Implements (Safim), 193

South African Observer. The, 265(n)

South African Party (SAP), 22, 23, 26; split in, 1913, 26; class basis, 26, 32, 233; opposition to Hertzog Bills, 30; in Gold Standard crisis, 41–2; in fusion crisis, 41–7

Soweto uprising: impact of, 252

Spoorbond, 89, 90–1, 95

Spoorbondskas, 91, 195–6

Stals, A.J., 140, 146, 158, 200, 201, 202

state, the: role in development of agriculture, 24–7, 30; three-fold crisis in late 1940s, 242; reorganisation of, 255; militarisation of, 255

Status Act, 46, 47

Steenkamp, W.F.J., 81, 198

Steyn, Colin, 123

Stoker, H.G., 60, 69, 70, 73, 89, 260(n)

Stormjagers (of the OB), 131

Stultz, N.M., 225

Stuttaford, R., 170

Strijdom, J.G., 51, 62, 105, 106, 122, 124, 125, 130, 131, 132

Suid-Afrikaansebond vir Rassestudies, 172

Suppression of Communism Act, 90

Swart, C.R., 62, 122

Tegniesse en Industriële Beleggings, 202, 205

Totius, see du Toit, J.D.

Total Strategy, 253–5

Trades and Labour Council (TLC), 78, 79; divisions in the 1930s, 89; impact on of struggle for MWU, 91–4; split, 1947, 95, 239

Transvalse Onder wysersvereniging, 74

Transvaal Die, 70, 266(n); establishment, 105

Treurnicht, A.P., 255

Trust Bank, 261(n)

Twee Trek, see Eeufees

Tyriakian, E.A., 225

Unemployment Insurance Fund (UIF), AHI attack on, 171–2, 243

Uniewinkels, 103, 193, 200, 214

Unionist Party, 23

United Mineworkers’ Committee, 91

United Party, 22, 48, 60, 69, 133, 158, 225, 264(n); 1938 election triumph, 119; split, 1939, 121, 123; fluid class base in World War 2, 233–42; loss of agricultural support, 233–8; relationship with white labour in World War 2, 238–42; collapse after World War 2 reflects divisions in capitalist class, 234–5; labour policies for 1948 election, 235–8; final collapse in 1977, 253

Urban Foundation, 253

Vaderland, Die, 105

van der Berg, M.J., 240

van der Merwe, J.G., 143, 157, 263(n)

van der Merwe, J.P., 102

van der Merwe, N.J., 41, 50, 62, 105, 262(n)

van Rensburg, J.F.J., 127–9, 133, 262(n), 265(n)
Index

van Rhyn, A.J.R., 265(n)
van Rooy, J.C., 60, 69, 70, 84, 120, 122, 260(n)
Veka Ltd., 193, 205, 263(n)
Verkrampte/verligte split: class basis and struggles, 251ff, 266(n)
Verwoerd, H.F., 64, 70, 105, 108, 115, 122, 123, 128, 130–2, 157–8, 203, 251, 265(n)
Volk, xvi; view of in nationalist ideology, 150
Volkblad Die, 101, 103, 105
Volkshandel, 262(n); establishment of, 143; and establishment of AHl, 143; role in shaping interests of Afrikaner capital, 145; definition of anti-capitalism, 154; view of new economic order, 162; view of apartheid and labour policies, 175
Volkskapitalisme: defined at Ekonomies volkskongres, 111, 113, 153
Volkskas, 136, 204, 205, 207, 248, 261(n); formed by Bond, 102; growth in 1930s, 102–3; growth in 1940s, 199–201; role in nationalist politics, 200
Volksparty, 121
Voorbrand Tabak, 192, 201–2
Voorrads Inkopers en Verspreidings Maatskappy (Vvw), 193, 217; set up by AHI, 140
Voortrekker Motor Club, 136
Voortrekker Pers, 85; formation 105, 106
Vorster, B.J., 128, 251–4, 265(n)
Wapenskou, 70, 202
Wassenaar, A.D., 254, 266(n)
Watermeyer, G.A., 151
Weichardt, L., 120
Welsh, D., 6, 7, 257(n)
Wessels, A.J.J., 263(n)
Wolpe, H., 9