

Index

- Abu-Lughod, Janet, 17, 34
- aesthetics, 32, 177, 184, 223, 269, 302
link between Horizon I and Horizon II, 283
- Alamo Red type, 100
- Alba Gris type, 181
- alcohol, 147
- Alvarado, Pedro de, 229
- Amate phase, Early, 53
- Amate phase, Late, 58
- Amazon Jungle, 43
- amber, 5
- Aquiles Serdán, 141, 271
- arcane knowledge, 7, 13, 19, 31, 32, 213
- Archaic period, 140, 301
adaptation, 58
- archipelago of complexity, 7, 14, 43, 291, 299
empirical reality in Early Formative Mesoamerica, 37 formed by use of Olmec iconography, 33 model assessed, 297–300
model defined, 34–39 requires knowledge to travel between cultural islands, 41
- ArcView, 109
- Arnold, Philip
on cleft motif as Olmec “shark monster,” 225 on leadership at San Lorenzo, 56 on semi-sedentary occupation of La Joya, 63 on variability of Early Formative adaptation on the Gulf Coast, 37
- Arroyo, Barbara
on Conchas-phase figurines, 187
- Atoyac Yellow White type, 101
- Ayotla phase, 58, 100
- Aztec, 33
conquest of the Soconusco, 8, 228 dominance of the Valley of Mexico, 33 hegemonic empire, 88
political use of creation myth, 33
required jade and amber tribute from the Soconusco, 5 tribute list for the Xoconusco, 245 tribute lists, 5
Xoconusco province, 106
- Aztec Analogy Model, 8, 11, 77, 276
- Azuzul, 59, 61
- Bajío phase, 53, 56, 60, 61, 71, 115, 156, 181, 282
- ballcourt, 54, 55
- Barí phase, 53
- Barranca phase, Early, 58
- Barranca phase, Middle, 68
- basalt, 61, 62, 228, 245, 247, 253, 254, 269, 284
- Basin of Mexico, 66, 100, 174, 280, 286, 299
during Horizon I, 58
during Horizon II, 99
during the Initial Ceramic Period, 53
survey, 108
- Belize, 298
during Horizon I, 58
preceramic occupation, 37
- Belize Valley
Horizon II punched eye figurines, 68
- Berlin and Kay paradigm, 224

- Blake, Michael 11
 on aggrandizer model, 54
 on evidence of rank in the Soconusco, 53
 on lack of wealth differences at Paso de la Amada, 53
 on maize used to make beer, 147, 220 on variability of adaptation in Early Soconusco, 37
- Blanton, Richard, 18
- Blomster, Jeffrey
 on Mother Culture, 78
- Borstein, Joshua, 63
- Bosque phase, 72
- Braudel, Fernand, 14, 34, 55, 64, 129, 227
 defines "Archipelago of Towns," 34
- British, 94, 271, 299, 335
- Bronze Age, 7
 Argaric, 308
 Cyclades, 14, 86
 Europe, 32, 33, 177
 Omani society, 17
- Broodbank, Cyprian, 41
 on use of aggrandizer model, 42
- Brumfiel, Elizabeth, 311
- built environment, 120, 124, 126, 128
- built landscape, 9, 120
- Burger, Richard, 43
 on model of Chavín cult, 43
- burials, 40, 41, 45, 120, 145, 146, 246, 293, 301, 303
 small sample from Cuadros and Jocotal phases, 226
- cacao, 5, 105, 158, 228, 229, 232, 245, 248, 255, 300, 301
- Cahokia, 186, 305
 Monks Mound, 305
 problem with evolutionary typology, 308
- Cahuacán River, 106, 108, 113, 114, 119, 251
- camino real*, 229
- Cantera phase, 72
- Cantón Corralito, 64, 65, 67, 79, 90, 101, 113, 126, 129, 130, 184, 210, 214, 216, 241, 244, 252, 270, 271, 272, 273, 276, 280, 282, 287, 290, 312 buried under river silt at end of Cuadros phase, 65
 obsidian blades, 70, 240
 rise of, 277
 small center during Initial Ceramic Period, 64
- Capital*. See Marx, Karl
- Cascajal block, 302
- Casma Valley, 44
- ceramic, minimum number of vessels (MNV) statistic, 149
- ceramic sourcing, 228, 245, 280, 296, 310
- ceramic style vs. function, 151
- Cerro de las Mesas Monument 5, 208
- Chalcatzingo, 299
 during Horizon I, 58
 during Horizon II, 68
 during Horizon III, 72
 during the Initial Ceramic Period, 53
- Chapman, Robert
 on Clark vs. Flannery and Marcus interpretation of San Lorenzo, 308 on exploitation more important than chiefdom or state label, 308
- Chavín
 art, 43
 Horizon, 7, 43, 86
 late Initial Period, 43 style, 43
- Chavín cult, 43, 44, 45
- Chavín de Huántar
 during the Early Horizon, 44
 Janabarriu phase, 44
 Old Temple, 43 rulers, 45
 transport of cinnabar from Atalla, 45
 Urabarriu phase, 43
- Cheetham, David, 64, 240
- Cherla phase. See Soconusco
- Chiapa de Corzo, 182, 234 elaborate burials, 303
 stela, 302
- Chicharras phase, 58, 61, 102, 115, 181, 274, 282, 290
- chiefdom, 76, 305
 complex, 60, 65, 77, 97, 271, 272, 304, 305, 306, 307 complex, versus state, 308
 Cuna, 31
 Panamanian, 31
 Philipino, 36
 presence of exploitation more important than this label, 308 problems with, 307 reality questioned by Service, 306 simple, 65, 304
 simple, versus tribe, 308

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-11102-7 - The Beginnings of Mesoamerican Civilization: Inter-Regional Interaction and the Olmec

Robert M. Rosenswig

Index

More information

- Trobriand, 39 versus state, 11, 79, 306, 313
- Childe, Gordon
on human adaptation to perceived world, 176
- Chocolá, 74
- Chumash, 300
- Clark, John, 115, 238
on abandonment of Mazatán zone, 114
on aggrandizer model, 54
on aggrandizers' use of obsidian, 150, 236 on aggressive takeover of Mazatán by San Lorenzo elite, 97 on changing obsidian patterns, 161 on defining analytical versus natural sites from survey, 111 on definition of term Olmec, 49
on Early Formative figurines, 187
on Early Formative interaction spheres, 269
on establishment of complex chiefdom at Cantón Corralito during Cuadros phase, 88, 271
on evidence of rank in the Soconusco, 53
on Flannery's 1968 model, 97 on formal plazas at Paso de la Amada, 122 on gender of Xumay figurines, 190 on ground stone technology, 149 on Gulf Coast imperialism, 271 on Gulf Coast kings depicted as ball players, 89 on Initial Ceramic Period changes in food preparation technique, 148 on Jocotal-phase salt extraction sites, 249 on Manantial Horizon, 66 on Mazatán zone survey, 54
on Mother Culture, 78
on multi-step model of Gulf Coast-Soconusco interaction, 77 on Olmec figurines replacing earlier ones, 196 on Olmec style, 32
on prismatic blade production, 240 on San Lorenzo as a state, 60 on San Lorenzo as earliest stratified society ruled by kings, 87 on San Lorenzo elite sent to the Soconusco, 93 on San Lorenzo empire, 102, 305
on San Lorenzo kingdom, 306 on sources of Soconusco basalt, 245 on variability of adaptation of early Soconusco, 37 on Xumay figurines as shaman-chiefs, 190
- Classic period, 182, 274
continued use of white-rimmed black wares on the Gulf Coast, 282 Maya rulers, 33
occupation of Estero el Ponce, 251
plumbate production in the Soconusco, 6
- cleft motif, 67, 219, 223, 224, 225, 283, 288, 311
- Coatán River, 9, 54, 64, 65, 106, 113, 129, 250, 271, 312
- Cobb, Charles, 310, 313
- Codex Mendoza, 5, 277
- Coe, Michael
on defining Cuadros and Jocotal phases, 64, 65, 100
on definition of horizon styles, 48
on game mammals and reptiles in Ocós region, 137
on La Venta Horizon, 72 on opportunistic hunting, 146
on San Lorenzo Horizon, 57
- Collingwood, Robin, 260
- competitive exchange, 20
- complex silhouette dishes, 157
- Conchas phase. See Soconusco
- conspicuous consumption, 22, 26, 73
- Copan, 33, 50, 299
during Horizon I, 58
during Horizon III, 72
during the Initial Ceramic Period, 53
- cross-dating, 177
- Cuadros phase. See Soconusco
- Cuauhtémoc
anthropomorphic figurines, 186–204
architecture, 120–128
as an index for regional patterns, 6 ceramic assemblage described, 151 ceramic color scheme, 180–181 effigy pots and ceramic iconography, 204–222
elite, 213
excavation contexts discussed, 135–137
faunal remains, 137–144

363

INDEX

- Cauhtémoc (cont.)
 feasting, 162–171
 food preparation, 148–162
 grater bowls from Conchas phase, 157–158
 greenstone figurines, 204
 Initial Ceramic Period architecture compared to Paso de la Amada, 121
 maize remains, 144–146
 obsidian, 160–161
 site description, 117–120
 third-tier center in La Blanca polity, 69
 white-rimmed black ware dishes, 183–184
- Cauhtémoc data
 as an index for regional patterns, 292
 results compared to expectations from Horizon I, 270–276
   from Horizon II, 277–280 from Initial Ceramic Period, 263–269 summarized aesthetic changes, 222–224
   domestic economy, 172–173, 293–294
   exchange, 253–255, 295–296
   ideology, 222–224, 294–295 settlement and architecture, 128–131, 292–293
- Cauhtémoc survey compared with Mazatán zone and San Lorenzo, 115 methods, 108–111
 results, 108–114
 results from Horizon I, 112 results from Horizon II, 114
 results from Initial Ceramic Period, 112
- Cauhtémoc zone. See Soconusco
- Cuba, 212
- Cuca Red-on-Buff type, 170
- Culebra Black type, 210, 250
- Culebra Gray type, 210, 243
- Cuna, 30, 86, 93, 213
 hierarchy of knowledge, 32 trade, 31
 trade among chiefdoms, 31
 traveling to Columbia, 31
- Cupisnique burials, 45
- Cuzco, 271
- Cycladic, 7, 14, 86
 early societies, 42
 elite, 300
 figurines, 41
 interaction network, 42 islands, 41
 Cyphers, Ann, 61, 71, 290
- de las Casas, Bartolomé, 234
- deer, 71, 137, 138, 139, 142, 145, 146, 147, 172, 173, 216, 278, 284, 286, 293
- Demarest, Arthur, 98
 on El Mesak, 66
 on San Lorenzo, 97
- Diehl, Richard, 97
 on Mother Culture, 78
 on San Lorenzo as hearth of civilization, 304
- dog, 71, 137, 140, 142, 143, 145, 146, 147, 172, 173, 278, 284, 286, 293
- double-line-break motif, 67, 99, 101, 219, 223, 225, 244, 283, 288 use begins in Jocotal phase, 226
- Drennan, Robert on river transport, 233
 on the Olmec style, 32
- Earle, Timothy
 on the Olmec style, 32
- Early Formative period
 archipelago of complexity, 7
 existence of non-sedentary peoples in Mesoamerica, 35
 Mesoamerica's first world system, 20 variability of adaptation on the Gulf Coast, 37 variety of subsistence strategies, 35
 world system, 14
- Easter Island, 305
- economic base, 10, 12, 132, 175, 176, 220, 297, 310, 311, 313
 of Cauhtémoc, 173, 221 transformed in Soconusco during Conchas phase, 71
- El Baul, 74
- El Chayal obsidian source, 230, 232, 235, 236, 237, 238, 239, 240, 242, 243, 254, 255, 269, 275, 280, 296
- El Infierno, 69
- El Manatí, 216
- El Mesak, 66, 113, 114, 131, 249, 251, 252, 286
- El Mirador, 313
- El Remolino stratified Horizon I deposits, 60

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-11102-7 - The Beginnings of Mesoamerican Civilization: Inter-Regional Interaction and the Olmec

Robert M. Rosenswig

Index

More information

- El Salvador, 66, 229, 233, 252
- El Varal, 65, 113, 123, 241, 249, 250, 252, 280, 286
- Elite Emulation Model, 8, 11, 76
in diachronic perspective in the Soconusco, 281–285
- Enga, 30
- Engels, Frederick, 313
- Escalón phase. See Soconusco
- esoteric knowledge, 30, 33, 35, 40, 44, 92, 93, 227, 312
- Espiridión phase, 53
- Estero el Ponce, 113
Classic period mounds, 251
Jocotal-phase mound, 249, 252
plumbate pottery, 252
- Estero Rabón, 60
- exchange, 227–228
as “system of total service,” 28
competitive, 27
Cuauhtémoc ceramic sourcing results, 241–244
Cuauhtémoc iron ore and greenstone, 244–248
Cuauhtémoc obsidian sourcing results, 237–241
- Cycladic, 42
elite control of ideas, 7 expectations for Horizon I, 85, 87, 90 expectations for Horizon II, 91, 93, 94 expectations for Initial Ceramic Period, 82, 83, 84 in Panama, 30
inter-regional, 3, 227
kula, 13, 27, 39, 42
long-distance, 14, 27, 32
of arcane knowledge, 19 of gifts, 23
of gifts as basis of non-monetary political economy, 29 of goods not locally available, 5 of knowledge, 30 of preciosities, 19
of technological knowledge, 20
Omani relationships with Harappa and Sumer, 17
on Northwest Coast, 21
Philipino, 35
routes between the Soconusco and Gulf Coast, 228–235
Soconusco estuary site during Horizon I, 249–253
- Extranjero Black and White type, 241, 242
- feasting, 9, 88, 92, 134, 162, 163, 164
- Feinman, Gary, 18
- figurines, 194, 196, 199, 203
Conchas phase, 174
during Horizon I, 58
during Horizon II, 68
during Horizon III, 72
during Initial Ceramic Period, 53
Manantial phase, 99
Olmec, 65, 85, 196, 197
replacement of Xumay by Olmec, 273
Xumay made in same style as effigy pots, 205
- fire-cracked rock, 9, 134, 148, 149, 154, 160, 162, 172, 173, 268, 294
- Flannery, Kent
on 1968 model of Oaxaca-Gulf Coast interaction, 19, 80, 87, 97 on comparison of Horizon I ceramic types, 58 on double-line-break motif in Oaxaca, 225
on Early Formative interaction spheres, 269
on exaggeration of San Lorenzo’s contribution, 97 on extents of Horizon I, 58 on greater diversity of motifs indicates source, 85 on Joralemon’s motifs, 309 on Oaxaca-Gulf Coast interaction, 26 on post-slip incised ceramics, 101 on San Lorenzo as a chiefdom, 76 on San Lorenzo not being a state, 305 on settlement hierarchy to define a state, 304 on Sister Culture, 78
on the Early Horizon, 57
- food presentation, 10, 163, 164, 171, 294, 295
- food processing, 9, 294
- Formative South America, 43
- Franciscan, 219
- Frontera phase. See Soconusco
- Germanic tribes, 7, 40, 84
- gift exchange, 20, 21, 22, 27, 28, 31
- gift giving, 13, 22, 122
competitive, 22
- gold, 25, 26, 31, 35, 177
- Goldman, Irving, 97
- Gordon phase, 58

365

INDEX

- Gosden, Chris, 29
 critique of his idea that trade cannot be a controlled source of prestige, 30 on long distance trade, 30
- GPS coordinates, 109
- Graeber, David, 25, 26, 32
- grater bowls, 99, 149, 157, 158, 159, 162, 172, 174, 180, 278, 284, 294
 from northern Veracruz, 70
- greenstone, 59, 64, 65, 67, 68, 204, 224, 254
- Grijalva Delta, 63, 64, 74
- Grijalva Valley, 234
- ground stone, 9, 19, 134, 149, 150, 155, 156, 158, 159, 162, 172, 173, 246, 278, 284, 294
- Grove, David
 on cleft motif as Olmec dragon gum line, 225 on problem with use of Olmec style horizon, 48 on similarities between Olmec and Chavín art, 81
- Guadalupe phase, 68, 101
- Guamuchal Brushed type, 100
- Guillén phase. See Soconusco
- Gulf Coast
 Classic period continued use of white-rimmed black wares, 182
 during Horizon I, 59–64
 during Horizon II, 71
 during Horizon III, 72–74
 during the Initial Ceramic Period, 55–56
 elite, 19
 lack of temporal resolution, 182 surveys, 108
- Haida, 300
- hammer and sickle, 86, 212, 309
- Harappa, 17
- Hawaii, 9, 97, 127, 148, 287, 306
- Helms, Mary, 9, 45
Craft and the Kingly Idea, 32 on cross-culturally consistent division between inside and outside society, 32 on definition of seven Panamanian chiefdoms, 31 on exchange and unequal power relations, 30 on geographical distance being equivalent to supernatural distance, 31 on political salience of knowledge from distant lands, 13 on trade being politically motivated, 30
- Hempel covering law model, 261
- Henderson, John, 53
- historical materialist. See materialist
- Hodder, Ian
 on his structuralist interpretation of the Neolithic, 34
- Honduras
 during Horizon I, 58
 during Horizon III, 72
 during the Initial Ceramic Period, 53
- Horizon I
 as defined by David Grove, 57 as defined by Paul Tolstoy, 57
 black and white ceramics, 58 change in aesthetic, 10
 defined, 57–59
 expectations for Aztec Analogy Model, 87–90
 expectations for Elite Emulation Model, 85–87
 expectations for Peer Polity Model, 84–85
 figurines, 58, 193–199
- Horizon II
 continuity of Olmec imagery from Horizon I, 217
 defined, 67–68
 expectations for Aztec Analogy Model, 93–94
 expectations for Elite Emulation Model, 92–93
 expectations for Peer Polity Model, 90–91
 figurines, 68, 199–204
 maize depicted as cleft and double-line-break motif, 223
- Horizon III
 defined, 71–72
- horizon markers, 16
- horizon styles
 as chronological cross-dating tools, 48 explicitly addressed for early Mesoamerica, 48 problems with establishing contemporaneity, 52

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-11102-7 - The Beginnings of Mesoamerican Civilization: Inter-Regional Interaction and the Olmec

Robert M. Rosenswig

Index

More information

- to establish contemporaneity, 51
- hunter-gatherers. See non-sedentary peoples
- imperial ideology, 78, 89
- Inca
- territorial empire, 88
- India, 94, 271
- Initial Ceramic Period
- defined, 52–53
  - expectations for Aztec Analogy Model, 83–84
  - expectations for Elite Emulation Model, 82–83
  - expectations for Peer Polity Model, 81–82
  - figurines, 53, 187–193
- inter-regional interaction
- mobile peoples effect on, 35
- iron ore, 30, 35, 62, 245, 247, 254, 275, 302
- islands of complexity, 7, 46, 58, 67, 83, 85, 91, 93, 186, 231, 268. See archipelago of complexity model
- ability to travel between, 35
  - describe Soconusco and Gulf Coast during the Initial Ceramic Period, 56
  - describe Soconusco and Gulf Coast during Horizon I, 77
  - developed during the course of the second millennium BCE, 98
  - during the Initial Ceramic Period, 82
  - each Mesoamerican island had own ideologies during Initial Ceramic Period, 83
  - extents shrank in Soconusco during Conchas phase, 70
- isotope data, 146
- Isthmus of Tehuantepec, 59, 229, 236, 269, 286, 296
- Italy, 212
- Ixtepeque obsidian source, 237, 240
- Izapa, 74, 200, 313
- carved stone stelae, 6
  - during Conchas phase, 280
  - during Cuadros phase, 274
  - during Horizon III, 114
  - emerged as the new political center, 130
  - Horizon I fish effigies, 215
  - northern extent of known Conchas-phase settlement, 281
- Olmec iconography at, 210
- possible second-tier center in La Blanca polity, 69
  - rise of, 74, 313
  - state-level polity, 6
- jade, 5, 73, 228, 230, 245, 246, 301, 305, 314
- Jocotal phase. See Soconusco
- Joralemon, David, 208, 218
- Joyce, Rosemary, 53
- on defining Mesoamerica, 300
  - on long-term effects of building mounds, 126
- Junker, Laura, 35
- Kaminaljuyu, 313
- kaolin clay, 241, 243, 280
- Kirchoff, Paul, 18, 300
- knowledge kula, 7, 13, 42, 211, 291
- exchange of technological knowledge, 20
- Kolb, Charles, 127
- kula
- exchange, 13, 27, 39, 42
  - expedition, 28
  - inland exchange, 28
  - voyages, 27
- Kuntur Wasi, 45
- La Blanca, 66, 79, 114, 116, 124, 126, 130, 134, 286, 298, 312
- abandoned by Horizon III, 74
  - aesthetic derived from Horizon I, 279
  - architectural alignment, 293
  - architecture compared to Cuauhtémoc, 124, 126
  - collapse of, 313
  - Cuauhtémoc benefits from its emergence, 130
  - early monumentality, 67
  - economic power, 311
  - elite, 287, 289, 312
  - exploitive relations, 313
  - fauna, 71, 143
  - figurines, 200, 202
  - grater bowls, 158
  - increased hierarchy in the Soconusco, 9
  - integrates Cuauhtémoc as lower tier center, 288

- La Blanca (cont.)
 integrates surrounding population, 128 lack of white-rimmed black wares, 182 leaders attract surrounding population, 70 polity contained three administrative tiers, 69 polity reorganized Soconusco population, 252 residents relied on maize as staple crop, 146
 rise of, 68, 260, 277, 278, 285, 289, 292
 rise related to fall of San Lorenzo, 285 social stratification, 303
 “Young Lord,” 204
- La Joya, 37, 63
 ground stone patterns, 157
- La Venta, 53, 55, 74
 Altar 7, 208
 apogee, 68 architectural orientation, 130
 architecture, 124
 during Horizon I, 63
 during Horizon III, 72
 elaborate burials, 303
 greenstone figurines, 204
 Horizon II punched eye figurines, 68
 major center during Horizon III, 72
 Mesoamerica’s first urban center, 73 Mound C-1, 314
 mountain of creation, 127 problematic chronology, 71
 three-tier settlement hierarchy, 72
- La Venta phase, Middle and Late, 72
- La Zarca, 69
 labor organization, 9, 284 labor theory of value. See Marx, Karl Laguna de los Cerros, 63
 Laguna Zope, 236
 Las Palmas, 70, 290
- Laser Ablation-Inductively Coupled Plasma-Mass Spectrometry, 242
- Late Formative, 50, 74, 302, 303, 313
 imagery of duck masks, 208
 increased use of El Chayal obsidian by Maya, 236 Valley of Oaxaca, 89
- Lesure, Richard
 on comparisons between Early Formative representational systems, 212 on definition of Olmec style, 48
 on Early Formative figurines, 187
 on term Olmec, 78
 on uses of Olmec iconography, 211
 on Xumay figurines, 190
- Llano del Júcaro, 63
- Locona interaction sphere, 56, 81, 82, 269, 270
- Locona phase. See Soconusco
- Loma del Zapote, 59, 60, 303
- long-distance exchange, 253, 301
- long-distance interaction, 14, 18, 19, 38
- long-distance travel, 33
- Love, Michael
 on comparison of Horizon II ceramic types across Mesoamerica, 68 on grater bowls from La Blanca, 158 on typology of Conchas-phase incised designs, 225
- Lowe, Gareth
 on definition of horizon styles, 48
 on Early Olmec Horizon, 57 on Intermediate Olmec Horizon, 67 on Late Olmec Horizon, 72
 on manioc production, 150
- lower Coatzacoalcos drainage
 Horizon I survey results, 59
 Horizon II survey results, 70, 71
 Horizon III survey results, 74
 Initial Ceramic Period survey results, 55 survey area, 55
 survey compared with Soconusco, 114
- Lübsow Graves, 40
- Lurín Valley, 44
- luxury goods, 15, 18, 29
- Madagascar slave trade, 25
- maize, 105, 134, 137, 145, 158, 162, 172, 173, 218, 220, 246, 268, 281, 284, 286 attracts deer, 146, 147
 cob size increasing during Early Formative period, 220
- Cuauhtémoc macrobotanical data, 137
- Cuauhtémoc macrobotanical density, 144–145
- first used as staple crop during Conchas phase, 70
- first used as staple crop during Horizon II, 278
- for beer production, 147
- foundation of Conchas-phase society, 287

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-11102-7 - The Beginnings of Mesoamerican Civilization: Inter-Regional Interaction and the Olmec

Robert M. Rosenswig

Index

More information

- from Cherla phase at Cuauhtémoc, 140
- imagery, 219, 220
- Paso de la Amada macrobotanical remains, 147
- Paso de la Amada progressive increase in cob size, 268
- political use, 288
- represented by cleft motif, 224
- three crops per year in Soconusco, 229
- use at Cuauhtémoc, inferred by ground stone density, 155–156
- use at Cuauhtémoc, inferred by ground stone form, 156–157
- Malinowski, Bronislaw, 13, 27, 28, 30, 39
- Mamom complex, 72
- mana*, 21
- Manantial Horizon, 66
- problematic, 99
- Manantial phase, 99, 174
- grater bowls, 99
- manos and metates, 9, 70, 150, 156, 158, 159, 162, 172, 246, 278, 284, 294
- Maori, 305
- Marcus, Joyce, 306
- on Olmec imagery marking lineages, 309
- on Olmec motifs, 91
- Marx, Karl
- Capital*, 175
- on artistic expression, 175
- on labor theory of value, 22, 23, 46
- on modes of production, 174
- materialist, 10, 311, 312
- assumption, 84
- historical materialist, 11, 175, 176, 291, 292, 307, 308, 313
- vulgar, 289
- Mauss, Marcel, 13, 21, 22, 27, 31, 122
- adopts a Hobbesian position, 22
- critique of, 28
- on exchange as the “system of total service,” 28
- The Gift*, 20, 22
- Maya
- 21st century shaman, 219
- area possessing no Initial Ceramic Period, 51
- ceramics not used during Horizon I, 58
- Classic period compared to Greek city states, 101
- Classic period rulers, 33
- during Horizon III, 72
- lowland Maya, 19
- political use of creation myth, 33
- preceramic adaptation during Initial Ceramic Period, 52
- Quiché conquer the Soconusco, 5, 228
- Mazatán zone. See Soconusco
- McIntosh, Susan, 310
- Medieval Europe, 34, 64
- Melanesian, 13, 21, 42, 344
- Melendrez Black type, 244
- Mesopotamia, 213, 307
- Mexico City, 233, 271, 346
- Middle Formative period
- imagery of duck masks, 208
- maize imagery, 219
- world system, 14
- Middle Paleolithic, 183
- mode of production, 132, 133, 292
- at La Blanca, 287
- pre-capitalist, 133
- Monte Albán, 72, 102, 306, 313
- Monte Albán 1a phase, 72
- Monte Alto, 203
- mortars and pestles, 9, 70, 150, 156, 162, 172, 284, 294
- Motagua River, 230
- Mother Culture, 4, 11, 79, 291
- Nacaste phase, 67, 71, 99, 100, 116, 156, 174, 182, 225, 235, 279, 280
- nagual, 208
- Naranjo River, 66, 69, 106, 114, 130, 131, 135, 312
- Navarrete, Carlos, 66, 233
- on accounts of Soconusco estuary travel, 232
- on Colonial-period travel, 230, 232
- on tump-line porters, 234
- Nazi empire
- conquest of Europe and North Africa similar to Romans, 89
- Nazism, 212
- Nevada phase, 53
- New World Archaeological Foundation, 196, 224, 280
- New Zealand, 305
- Niederberger, Christine
- on variable date of first sedentary inhabitants of Mesoamerica, 37
- non-sedentary peoples, 35, 231
- co-existence of food producers and hunter-gatherers, 36

- non-sedentary peoples (cont.) create illusion of empty space to the modern day investigator, 46 hunter-gatherers, 23, 34
 in the Philippines, 36 living between sedentary states, 36
 Mesoamerican hunter-gatherers, 37
 pastoralists, 36
 Philipino hunter-gatherers, 35 would not live in cities or develop state apparatus, 132
- Northwest Coast, 21, 310
 chief, 21
 Potlatch, 21
 war, 21
- obsidian, 6, 9, 19, 30, 43, 62, 134, 150, 159, 160, 161, 162, 172, 177, 228, 230,
 235, 236, 237, 238, 239, 240, 242,
 244, 245, 246, 251, 253, 254, 269,
 275, 280, 284, 286, 294, 296, 301, 302, 312
- Ocós phase. See Soconusco
- Ojo de Agua, 64, 67, 79, 113, 116, 123, 126, 129, 130, 244, 252, 270, 272,
 282, 286, 287, 312, 313 became largest site in the Soconusco during Jocotal phase, 65
 collapse of, 272, 285, 289
 rise of, 277
- Ojochi phase, 53, 71, 115, 156, 235
- Olmec
 as a cultural aesthetic, 49
 as artistic conventions, 49 horizons, 51
 style, 32, 78, 99
 term defined, 49, 78–79
- Olmec art, 208, 268, 298
- Olmec dragon, 10, 58, 89, 210, 217, 218, 222, 225, 274, 279, 287, 295, 302
- Olmec figurines, 98, 197
 interpretation of, 196
- Olmec iconography, 33, 85, 92, 184, 210, 243, 250, 251, 254, 273, 274, 279, 296, 299
 associated with public and private contexts during Horizon I, 211 at Izapa, 210 change in meaning during Horizon II, 219 represented at varying levels of abstraction, 210
- Olmec imagery, 49, 68, 78, 81, 83, 86, 199, 211, 248, 254, 281
 employed in locally specific ways, 49 not speculating on emic meaning, 212
- Olmec Problem, 47, 75–78, 263, 306
- Omani society, 17
- Palangana phase, 72, 116, 235
- Pampa el Pajón, 249, 250
- Pampas Black and White type, 58, 100
- Pampas Carved type, 210
- Pampas Incised type, 210
- Papaya Orange type, 243
- pars pro toto*, 210
- Paso de la Amada, 79, 115, 124, 129, 130, 131, 140, 145, 270, 282, 287, 313
 abandonment of, 244 alignment of elite residences compared to Cuauhtémoc, 121
 ballcourt, 54
 Cherla-phase fish effigy dish, 216
 collapse of, 272
 elite residences, 54, 121, 129, 293
 fauna, 141
 figurines, 192
 household data reanalyzed by Lesure and Blake, 53
 jade in burials, 302 largest site in Soconusco during Initial Ceramic Period, 263
 macrobotanical data, 220
 maize remains, 147, 268
 mounds occupied by elite abandoned after Ocós phase, 64 orientation of architecture, 283
 rise of, 277
 subsistence patterns, 149
- pastoralists. See non-sedentary peoples
- Peer Polity Model, 8, 11, 76
- Perdida Black and White type, 58
- Pérez, Tomás, 64, 224, 240
- Peru Early Horizon, 14
- Pino Black and White type, 58, 184
- Plio-Pleistocene, 183
- plumbate pottery, 6
 at Estero el Ponce, 252
- political evolution, 304, 313
- political organization, 22, 291, 307, 314
 after colonial withdrawal, 94 changes explained in terms of local developments, 84
 differences between the three models of inter-regional interaction, 80 disrupted after collapse of San Lorenzo, 92

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-11102-7 - The Beginnings of Mesoamerican Civilization: Inter-Regional Interaction and the Olmec

Robert M. Rosenswig

Index

More information

- of the Mazatán zone during Horizon I, 126 understood in terms of change over time, 80
 Ponce, Fray Alonso, 229, 230
 Pool, Christopher
   on John Clark's use of term Olmec, 49
   on limitations of evolutionary typologies, 306 on San Lorenzo settlement hierarchy, 60
   on the Early Horizon, 57
 positivist epistemology, 261
 Postclassic period, 74, 228, 232, 245, 276, 277, 351
 post-slip incision, 67, 72, 101
 Potlatch. See Northwest Coast
 Potrero Nuevo, 59, 60 pottery. See specific type or phase pragmatic positivism, 11, 259, 261, 262 prismatic blades, 70, 237, 240, 254, 276, 284
 processual, 15, 260 backlash against use of horizons, 16 use of logical positivism, 261
 Pye, Mary, 131, 348
   on El Mesak, 66
   on El Mesak fine wares, 251
 Quetzaltenango, 230
 Ramey Incised pottery, 10, 186
 Ramirez Black type, 244
 Ramirez White type, 244
 Rapoport, Amos, 120
 Rathje, William, 18, 19, 87, 312
 Rayo phase, 53
 realist epistemology, 260
 Red-on-Buff interaction sphere, 52, 81, 82, 269
 Reilly, Kent, 127
 Renfrew, Colin, 306
 Richard the Lion Hearted, 219 roller seals, 214, 273, 283 Roman coins, 40
   conquest of Europe and North Africa, 89 empire, 7, 40, 93
   feasting rituals, 41
   goods used as status markers, 40 grave goods used in northern Europe, 40 jewelry used by Germanic peoples, 40 objects, 84
   territorial empire, 88
 Roman Europe, 14
 Rompido Black and White type, 181
 Rosario phase, 72
 Sahlins, Marshal, 22, 29
 Salinas la Blanca, 66, 101, 123, 135, 147, 215, 240, 249, 251, 252, 274 salt, 19, 30, 35, 249, 250, 252 production at Estero el Ponce, 252
 Salzman, Phillip, 36
 San Andrés, 71, 182
 San Isidro, 182
 San Jose phase, 58, 99, 101, 225
 San Lorenzo, 53, 115, 185, 252, 254, 280, 290, 291, 296, 302, 311, 314 alignment of stone monuments, 124 area source of clays found in the Soconusco, 296
   black and white ceramics, 181
   Calzadas Carved and Limon Incised ceramic types, 210
   cleft motif on stone monuments, 226 collapse corresponds to maize intensification, 278 collapse of, 18, 67, 73, 91, 92, 260, 273, 278, 279, 282, 285, 287, 289, 293, 312 collapse related to La Blanca, 285 colossal heads aligned, 61 controversy over interpretation of the site, 79 demand for El Chayal obsidian, 275
   during Horizon I, 59
   during Horizon II, 67, 71
   during Horizon III, 72
   during Initial Ceramic Period, 55
   elite, 84, 92
   elite craft specialization, 62 fortunes correspond with Mazatán politics, 277
   ground stone, 156
   importance waning during final phase of Horizon I, 66 imported iron ore, 247 inhabitants acquiring goods from afar, 62 interaction with distant elites, 82 lack of central mound, 314 natural environment, 56 obsidian acquired from Central Mexico and Guatemala, 62
   obsidian trade, 235, 238

371

INDEX

- San Lorenzo (cont.)
 Olmec figurines, 196
 problem with evolutionary typology, 308 reached maximal extents, 113
 Red Palace, 62
 residential segregation, 61 rise corresponds with changes in the Soconusco, 10
 rise of, 59–64, 282
 subsistence strategy, 301
- San Lorenzo A phase, 58, 61, 63, 102, 115, 216, 274
- San Lorenzo B phase, 58, 100, 115, 156, 235, 275, 286
- San Lorenzo polity was it a chiefdom or a state?, 304–306
 was it Mesoamerica's mother?, 300–304
- San Lorenzo survey. See lower Coatzacoalcos drainage
- San Martín, 70, 290
- San Martín Jilotepeque obsidian source, 237
- Scott, James, 310 legibility, 213
- shamanic paradigm, 208
- shamanic practices
 cross-cultural regularity, 208
- shamanic transformation, 209, 224
- Sierra Madre, 5, 105, 229, 230, 246, 247, 299, 313
- Siltepec White type, 210
- Sister Culture, 4, 11, 79, 291
- Smith, Adam
 on limitations of evolutionary typologies, 308
 on monumental architecture, 120
- social stratification, 3, 9, 44, 91, 301, 303
- Soconusco
 aka Xoconusco, 77, 106, 233, 245
 as an island of complexity, 38, 53, 70, 297–300
- Cantileña swamp, 38, 105, 122, 129, 250
- Cantón Corralito capital during Cuadros phase, 64
- Cherla phase, 57, 64, 65, 77, 89, 99, 112, 113, 116, 123, 129, 140, 141, 144, 147, 149, 150, 151, 152, 153, 154, 160, 162, 165, 166, 167, 169, 171, 172, 180, 182, 183, 184, 185, 186, 187, 188, 192, 194, 195, 196, 197, 198, 216, 222, 223, 238, 240, 241, 242, 243, 250, 254, 270, 271, 272, 273, 274, 275, 276, 277, 280, 282, 283, 295, 312
- collapse of Mazatán zone, 285
- Conchas phase, 9, 66, 67, 68, 69, 70, 71, 99, 100, 101, 110, 114, 116, 117, 120, 123, 124, 126, 128, 130, 134, 136, 142, 144, 146, 147, 148, 149, 150, 151, 154, 156, 157, 158, 159, 161, 162, 166, 170, 171, 173, 174, 180, 182, 187, 188, 199, 202, 203, 204, 220, 221, 226, 238, 241, 246, 247, 273, 279, 280, 282, 283, 284, 287, 290, 292, 293, 294, 296, 297, 301, 311, 312, 313
- new form of labor organization, 284
- Conchas phase reorganization, 70
- Conchas phase settlement peak, 292
- conquered by the Aztec, 8
- Cuadros phase, 57, 64, 65, 66, 67, 70, 77, 89, 98, 99, 100, 101, 112, 113, 116, 123, 129, 152, 153, 154, 155, 160, 161, 162, 165, 166, 169, 171, 172, 173, 180, 182, 184, 185, 187, 188, 194, 195, 196, 197, 201, 203, 210, 211, 214, 216, 217, 222, 223, 226, 228, 236, 238, 239, 240, 241, 243, 244, 249, 250, 251, 252, 254, 270, 271, 272, 273, 274, 275, 276, 277, 280, 282, 283, 295, 312
- Cuauhtémoc zone, 8, 48, 75, 78, 98, 106, 112, 113, 114, 115, 116, 121, 122, 128, 130, 134, 137, 192, 199, 272, 277, 292, 294
- Duende phase, 99, 280
- during Horizon I, 64–67
- during Horizon II, 68–71
- during Horizon III, 74–75
- during the Initial Ceramic Period, 53–55
- during the Late Formative period, 6
- early cacao use, 301
- Escalón phase, 72, 114, 130, 159, 280
- Frontera phase, 72, 114, 159, 280
- Guamuchal/Manchón swamp, 38, 105
- Guillén phase, 74
- Jocotal and Manantial-phase figurines compared, 100
- Jocotal phase, 57, 64, 65, 66, 70, 99, 100, 101, 113, 114, 116, 119, 123, 124, 125, 126, 129, 134, 169, 171, 173, 180, 183, 194, 195, 200, 210, 225,

- 243, 249, 250, 251, 252, 272, 274, 275, 278, 280, 282, 286, 312
- Jocotal phase occupation of Estero el Ponce, 251
- Jocotal-phase settlement increase, 292
- Locona phase, 53, 54, 112, 115, 120, 121, 129, 136, 145, 146, 147, 150, 154, 169, 188, 238
- Locona-phase settlement peak, 292
- Mazatán zone, 8, 9, 38, 53, 62, 64, 65, 70, 75, 77, 112, 114, 115, 121, 122, 126, 129, 130, 131, 134, 135, 141, 146, 149, 150, 152, 154, 161, 171, 184, 187, 188, 189, 192, 196, 199, 210, 236, 238, 241, 244, 253, 263, 270, 271, 272, 273, 274, 275, 277, 278, 282, 286, 287, 289, 292, 293, 294, 296, 312, 313
- Mazatán zone survey, 54
- Ocós phase, 53, 54, 64, 113, 153, 160, 165, 169, 180, 207, 238, 240, 282
- Ojo de Agua capital during Jocotal phase, 64
- orientation of architecture, 54
- region defined, 5–6, 105–106
- travel
- coast by canoe, 232–233
  - coast by foot, 230–231
  - through highlands, 233–235
- travel routes and time, 228–230, 231, 233
- Soconusco, future work on
- Horizon I, 276–277
  - Horizon II, 280–281
  - Initial Ceramic Period, 269–270
- Soviet Marxist-Leninism, 212
- Spanish conquest, 5, 228, 277
- Spanish ethnohistory, 11, 31
- Spencer, Charles
- on Late Monte Albán I states, 102
  - on San Lorenzo as a complex chiefdom, 60, 87
- Spondylus*, 275
- Stark, Barbara, 9
- on models of imperialism, 274
  - on territorial empires, 88
  - on the Olmec style, 32
  - on variable date of first sedentary inhabitants of Mesoamerica, 37
- state, 60, 87, 102, 305
- archaic, 77, 87, 304, 306, 307
  - conflated with empire, 87
  - established at Izapa, 6
  - formation in Mesoamerica and Mesopotamia, 307
  - glorification of, 89
  - ideology controlled, 309
  - imperial, 77
  - incipient, 272
  - infrastructure required to administer an empire, 305
  - preindustrial, 23
  - secondary, 94
  - versus chiefdom, 11, 79, 306, 308, 313
- style horizons, 7, 15, 16, 18, 47, 48, 57
- as indicators of inter-regional interaction, 49
- style vs. function, 176
- Suchiate Brushed type, 100
- Suchiate River, 106, 108, 119, 232
- Sumer, 17
- superstructure, 10, 11, 12, 132, 175, 176, 220, 224, 310, 311, 313
- of Cuauhtémoc, 173
- swastika, 212
- Tacaná volcano, 106
- Tacaná White type, 210, 241, 250, 251
- Tahiti, 306
- Tajumulco obsidian source, 159, 237, 238, 240, 253, 296
- Tajumulco volcano, 106, 238, 245
- Takalik Abaj, 74, 114
- Taube, Karl, 218
- on maize iconography during Middle Formative period, 156
- teocinte, 220
- theory of least effort, 23
- Tierras Largas phase, 53
- Tikal, 33
- Tilapa Red-and-White type, 210
- Tilapa River, 106, 114
- Tlapacoya, 99
- Tlatilco, 100, 355
- Tolstoy, Paul
- on differences of ceramic vessel assemblages in burial and domestic contexts at Tlatilco, 100
  - on Double Line Break tradition, 67
- Tonga, 97, 306
- Torre, Fray Tomás de la, 232
- trade routes, 15, 230
- traders, 25, 250
- Tres Zapotes, 74
- Trigger, Bruce
- on city-states, 307
  - on critique of logical positivism, 260

- Trigger, Bruce (cont.) on cross-cultural meaning of monumental architecture, 23–24, 287 on cross-cultural pattern of kings as strangers, 33
 on environmental possibilism, 174 on hardwired cognitive predispositions, 178
 on pan-American ideas that date back to Pleistocene, 81
 on “sympathetic imagination,” 260
 on use of a realist epistemology, 260 on Zipf’s theory of least effort, 23
- Trobriand Islanders, 7, 21, 30
- Trobriand Islands, 14, 39 classic ethnography, 13
 elite, 300
- turtle, 71, 139, 140, 143, 245
- Tuxtla Mountains, 61, 62, 63, 64, 74, 157 Classic period white-rimmed black ware ceramics, 182
- Tuxtla statuette, 208
- Ubaid, 213
- Uir phase, 72
- Ujuxte, 74, 114
- Ulysses, 7
- Upham, Steadman, 34
- Upper Paleolithic, 183
- Uruk, 213
- Utatlán, 229
- Valley of Mexico. See Basin of Mexico
- Valley of Oaxaca, 299
 ceramic design elements, 225 coarse-grained ceramic sequence, 100
 during Horizon I, 58
 during Horizon II, 68
 during Horizon III, 72
 during the Initial Ceramic Period, 53
 during the Late Formative, 89 emergent elite, 19
 forms of representation during
 Horizon I, 91
- Horizon II punched eye figurines, 68
 survey, 108
- VanDerwarker, Amber, 137
- Veblen, Thorstein, 23, 24
- von Nagy, Christopher, 71
- Voorhies, Barbara
 on Soconusco environment, 105
- Wake, Thomas, 142
- Wallerstein, Immanuel, 7, 13, 15, 18, 19
- war, 21, 219, 303
 among the Cuna, 31
 in Hawaii, 127
 on Northwest coast, 21
- Webster, David
 on problems with evolutionary typology, 306
- Weissner, Polly
 on trade among Enga being politically motivated, 30
- Wendt, Carl, 60
- white-rimmed black ware, 10, 58, 64, 89,
 98, 99, 180, 182, 183, 184, 218, 222, 242, 243, 254, 274, 275, 296
- Wilk, Richard, 297–298
- Wolf, Eric, 133
 on kin-ordered mode of production, 133
- World-systems perspective core-periphery perspective, 7, 13
 core-periphery perspective in Mesoamerica, 18–20
 core-periphery perspective,
 shortcomings of, 20
 Rathje’s “core-buffer” model, 18
 reformulated, 7, 14–18, 19
- Wylie, Alison
 on critique of logical positivism, 260
- Xoconusco. See Soconusco
- Xquic Red type, 101, 210
- Yale Peabody Museum, 101
- Zeitlin, Robert, 275