CHRISTEN, R., RATTO, A., BAROIN, A., PERASSO, R., GRELL, K.G. & ADOUTTE, A.
Origin of metazoans. A phylogeny deduced from sequences of the 28S ribosomal RNA pag. 1

VALENTINE, J.W.
Major factors in the rapidity and extent of the metazoan radiation during the Proterozoic-Phanerozoic transition pag. 11

STRATHMANN, R.R.
Divergence and persistence of highly ranked taxa pag. 15

CONWAY MORRIS, S.
Problematical taxa: a problem for biology or biologists? pag. 19

BERGSTRÖM, J.
Metazoan evolution around the Precambrian-Cambrian transition pag. 25

SCHRAM, F.R.
Cladistic analysis of metazoan phyla and the placement of fossil problematica pag. 35

DZIK, J.
Is fossil evidence consistent with traditional views of the early metazoan phylogeny?..... pag. 47

CHEN JUN-YUAN & D-D. ERDTMANN
Lower Cambrian lagerstätte from Chengjiang, Yunnan, China: insights for reconstructing early metazoan life pag. 57

ROBISON, R.A.
Middle Cambrian biotic diversity: examples from four Utah Lagerstätten pag. 77

HASZPRUNAR, G., RIEGER, R.M. & SCHUCHERT, P.
Extant ‘Problematica’ within or near the Metazoa pag. 99

RIEGER, R.M., HASZPRUNAR, G. & SCHUCHERT, P.
On the origin of the Bilateria: traditional views and recent alternative concepts pag. 107

WOOD, R.A.
Problematic reef-building sponges pag. 113

BRUTON, D.L.
Beach and laboratory experiments with the jellyfish Aurelia, and remarks on some fossil “medusoid” traces pag. 125

SUN WEIGUO
Early Cambrian medusiform fossils from Chengjiang, Yunnan, China pag. 131

BABCOCK, L.E.
The enigma of conulariid affinities pag. 133

VAN ITEN, H.
Evolutionary affinities of conulariids pag. 145

PEEL, J.S.
Functional morphology of the Class Helcionelloida nov., and the early evolution of the Mollusca pag. 157

HOU XIAN-GUANG & BERGSTRÖM, J.
The arthropods of the Lower Cambrian Chengjiang fauna, with relationships and evolutionary significance pag. 179

SIMONETTA, A.M. & DELLE CAVE, L.
Early Palaeozoic arthropods and problems of arthropod phylogeny; with some notes on taxa of doubtful affinities pag. 189

ALESSANDRELLO, A., ARDUINI, P., PINNA, G. & TERUZZI, G. New observations on the Thylacocephala (Arthropoda, Crustacea)	pag. 245
BERNINI, F. Fossil Acarida. Contribution of palaeontological data to acarid evolutionary history	pag. 253
DALLAI, R. Are Protura really insects?.....	pag. 263
BEALL, J.S. The Tully Monster and a new approach to analyzing problematica	pag. 271
YOCHELSON, E.L. Problematica-incertae sedis	pag. 287
