

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-11853-8 - The Future of African Customary Law

Edited by Jeanmarie Fenrich, Paolo Galizzi and Tracy E. Higgins

Index

More information

Index

- Aandonga community, Namibia, 158–160
- Aangandjera customary law, Namibia, 162–163
- Abangana v. Akologo* case, Ghana, 212
- abolitionist approach to customary tenure reform, 313. See also transformation approaches to customary tenure reform
- Abotchie, Chris, 271
- Abudu tribe, Ghana, 284
- abunzi* (conflict mediators), Rwanda, 415–416
- acceptance of customary laws, 13, 35
- accessibility of land tenure systems, 307, 311
- accomplices, in Rwandan gacaca trials, 400
- Acholi people, Uganda, 78
- ACHPR. See African Charter on Human and Peoples' Rights; Protocol to the African Charter on Human and Peoples' Rights on the Rights of Women in Africa
- Act 29, Ghana, 213
- active development of customary law, 48
- active participation in gacaca, Rwanda, 410–411
- acts of genocide, 400–401. See also gacaca, Rwanda
- Adangbe ethnic group, Ghana, 270
- adaptability of customary laws, 35–37, 214, 259, 417–418
- adjudicating bodies, traditional. See traditional courts
- adjudication
 - in ascertainment of customary law, 87
 - of customary law, informal system of in Ghana, 206–208
- administration, estates of, 316–317
- administration of justice, customary law in, Ghana, 205–208
- ADR (Alternative Dispute Resolution), 76
- advocate-mediator dilemma, in Liberia's JPC, 192–199
- affirmation approaches to customary tenure reform, 313, 326–327, 331, 332–333
- Afonja, Simi, 506
- African Charter on Human and Peoples' Rights (ACHPR or African Charter). See also Protocol to the African Charter on Human and Peoples' Rights on the Rights of Women in Africa
 - overview, 468
 - shortcomings of, 472–478, 482–485
 - state party obligations under, 451
- African Protocol. See Protocol to the African Charter on Human and Peoples' Rights on the Rights of Women in Africa
- African Renaissance, 510–516
 - adapting ancient law to modern context, 510–514
 - gender parity in representative assemblies, 514–516
 - justifying modern law with ancient concepts, 514–516
 - overview, 495–496, 510
 - promoting respect for all faiths, 512–514
 - regulating male and female circumcision, 510–512
- Africanization of African law, 76–77
- age, inequality based on, 12–13
- agricultural productivity, and formalization of customary tenure, 328–329
- AIDS
 - awareness leadership by chiefs in Ghana, 290–291
 - efforts to combat in South Africa, 492

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-11853-8 - The Future of African Customary Law

Edited by Jeanmarie Fenrich, Paolo Galizzi and Tracy E. Higgins

Index

More information

518

Index

- AJM (Association des Juristes Maliennes), 488
- Akan ethnic group
Ghana, 268–269
Ivory Coast, 504–505
- Akrofi customary law, Ghana, 212–213
- Akyem Abuakwa (Stool Revenue) Act 1958,
Ghana, 278
- Alexkor Ltd and Another v Richersvelt Community and Others* case, South Africa, 47, 339, 358
- alienation, in land tenure systems, 332–333
- allocation, land, 308–309. See also land tenure
- Allott, A.N., 73, 96
- Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR), 76
- Americo-Liberians, 182
- amnesty in Rwanda gacaca, 393–394
- ancient African laws. See indigenous African law
- ancillary marriage, 348
- Andani tribe, Ghana, 284
- Angu v. Attao* case, Ghana, 209
- animism, 507–508, 512–514
- Anlo ethnic group, Ghana, 285
- An-Na'im, Abdullahi Ahmed, 485–486
- annulment of discriminatory legal provisions,
Uganda, 461–462
- Apac District, Uganda, 454
- apologies in Rwandan gacaca, 411–414
- appeals of court decisions, Sierra Leone, 173–174 of customary court decisions, Liberia, 188–189 in dual court system, South Africa, 245
in gacaca system, Rwanda, 407
- appeals gacaca, Rwanda, 406, 407
- applicable laws, rules defining in Ghana, 211
- appointment of traditional leaders.
See also succession
Botswana, 256–257, 258
Lesotho, 145, 150–151
South Africa, 351
- arbitrary nature of legal jurisdictions in colonial era, 61–62
- arbitration, customary, in Ghana, 206–208, 223
- arranged marriages, 429. See also customary marriage
- Article 2(2), Protocol to the African Charter on the Rights of Women in Africa, 425
- Article 2(f), CEDAW, 479
- Article 5(a), CEDAW, 479
- Article 5(b), Protocol to the African Charter on the Rights of Women in Africa, 488–489
- Article 7, East African Native Courts (Amendment) Ordinance 1902, 121–122
- Article 9, Protocol to the African Charter on the Rights of Women in Africa, 514
- Article 17, Protocol to the African Charter on the Rights of Women in Africa, 468, 476, 489, 490
- Article 18, African Charter, 483–484
- Article 20, Kenya Colony Order in Council 1921, 121–122
- Article 66(1), Constitution of Namibia, 163
- Article 106, 1992 Constitution of Ghana, 282
- Article 181, 1979 Constitution of Ghana, 279
- Article 270(1), 1992 Constitution of Ghana, 280
- Article 270(2), 1992 Constitution of Ghana, 280
- Article 276(1), 1992 Constitution of Ghana, 280
- Asantehene, office of, in Ghana, 290–291
- Asanteman HIV/AIDS Control Project,
Ghana, 290–291
- ascertainment of customary law, 83–102.
See also self-stating customary law balancing community rights with legal certainty and protection of rights, 54–56 in circumstances of change, conflict, and imposition, 90–93 in colonial times, 63–64
future challenges, 56
Ghana, 208–212, 222–223
judicial, 93–97
living customary law, 50–56 objections to knowledge devices, 94–97
overview, 3, 50–52, 83–85
quest for customary law, 97–101 respect for right of “customary” communities to develop law, 54 scholarly debate regarding, 85–90 traditions and past practices of community concerned, 52–53
- Ashanti tribe, Ghana, 268, 273
- Askia dynasty, 498
- assemblies, representative, gender equality in, 514–516
- Association des Juristes Maliennes (AJM), 488
- Attah v. Esson* case, Ghana, 214–215
- attitude of lawyers/legal education in post-colonial era, 67
- attorneys. See legal representation
- Augu v Attah* case, Kenya, 124
- authorities, traditional. See chiefs; chieftaincy in Botswana; chieftaincy in Ghana; chieftaincy in Lesotho; traditional leaders
- Ayliff, Mr., 238
- Bâ, Amadou Hampaté, 499
- Badu v. Boakyee* case, Ghana, 210
- Baganda community, Uganda, 456, 462–463
- Bagishu customary law, Kenya, 122

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-11853-8 - The Future of African Customary Law

Edited by Jeanmarie Fenrich, Paolo Galizzi and Tracy E. Higgins

Index

More information

- Bakiga community, Uganda, 453
- Bamileke community, Cameroon, 505
- Banda, Dr. Hastings Kamuzu, 323
- Banda, Fareda, 476
- Bangindawo and Others v. Head of the Nyanda Regional Authority and Another* case, South Africa, 235–236, 244, 377–378, 384
- Bangwaketse territory, Botswana, 257–258
- bantustans, South Africa, 363
- Basotho Code. See Code of Lerotholi
- Basutoland colony, 134–136. See also Lesotho
- Basutoland National Council (BNC), 138–139, 142
- Batswana ba Namibia community, Namibia, 167
- BDP (Botswana Democratic Party), 255, 262–263
- behavior
- fixed line of, in customary rules, 99–101
 - patterns of, in ascertainment of customary law, 88–89, 92–93
- Bekker, J. C., 229
- bench, in Rwandan gacaca, 404
- beneficial use, rights of in customary tenure, 316–317
- Bennett, T.W., 94–95, 245–246, 429–430
- Bereng Griffith v. Mantsebo Seiso Griffith* (Regency) case, Lesotho, 142
- Bhe and others v. The Magistrate, Khayelitsha and others* case, South Africa
- cultural relativism, 360
 - customary rules of succession, 342, 343–345, 346
 - family welfare, 346–347
 - gender equality, 471
 - living customary law, 34, 43–44, 48–49, 50–51
 - membership of women in lineage, 310
 - right to equality, 463
 - versus Shilubana v. Nwamitwa ruling, 357
 - transformative constitutionalism, 358–359, 360
 - unconstitutional nature of primogeniture, 68
- bias, gender, in Sierra Leone, 181–182.
- See also* gender equality
- Billa v. Salifu* case, Ghana, 210, 217
- bills of rights
- South African, 43
 - and survival of customary law, 67–68
- Binkolo chiefdom, Sierra Leone, 176–177
- birth control use, in Uganda, 465
- Births, Deaths and Burials Ordinance, Ghana, 213
- Black Administration Act 38 of 1927, South Africa
- jurisdiction of customary courts under, 229, 239–240
 - male primogeniture principle of succession, 43–44, 343
 - prohibition of legal representation under, 235
 - recognition of customary law and courts under, 228, 245
 - recording process under, 236–237
 - repeal of, 368
- BNC (Basutoland National Council), 138–139, 142
- Bogosi* (chieftainship), Botswana, 247–265
- customary law regarding, 250–251
 - future of, 258–264
 - historical antecedents, 252–254
 - legislation regarding, 255–258
 - legitimacy of, 255–258
 - nature of, 251–252
 - overview, 4, 247–250
 - post-1966 pressures and survival of, 254–255
- Bond of 1844, Ghana, 273
- Borena*. See chieftaincy in Lesotho
- Botswana. See also Bogosi, Botswana
- Common Law and Customary Law Act, 130
 - customary tenure, 318, 328
 - women's rights litigation, 483
- Botswana Democratic Party (BDP), 255, 262–263
- bride price, 457. See also customary marriage
- British colonial rule, 273–277, 297–298.
- See also* colonial era; English law; indirect rule, British; specific colonies by name
- British military campaigns, in Ghana, 273
- British Protectorate, Botswana as, 252–254
- Brong Ahafo region, Ghana, 210
- Bruno Kiwuwa v. Ivan Serunkuma & Juliet Namazzi* case, Uganda, 462–463
- Budu II v. Caesar* case, Ghana, 207–208
- bundle of rights under customary tenure, 316–317
- Burchell, J., 374
- Cameroon, Bamileke community in, 505
- Cape Colony, 134–135. See also South Africa
- Cape of Good Hope Government Commission on Native Laws and Customs, South Africa, 238
- Carter Center, The (TCC), 186–187, 190–191, 197–199. See also Justice and Peace Commission
- case law, in judicial ascertainment of customary law
- objections to, 94–97
 - overview, 93–94
 - in study of Cheyenne Indians, 86–89
- Case v. Ruguru* case, Kenya, 122
- categories of crimes, in Rwandan gacaca, 399–400, 401–403
- CCD (Convention on the Protection and Promotion of the Diversity of Cultural Expressions), 513–514

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-11853-8 - The Future of African Customary Law

Edited by Jeanmarie Fenrich, Paolo Galizzi and Tracy E. Higgins

Index

More information

520

Index

- CEDAW. See Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination Against Women
- CEDAW Committee (Committee on the Elimination of all Forms of Discrimination Against Women), 426
- cell gacaca, Rwanda, 404–405, 407
- Central and Local Courts Proclamation, Lesotho, 148
- certainty, legal, 54–56, 373–376
- Certification* judgment, South Africa, 36, 43
- changeability of customary law, 15–17, 35–37
- Chanock, M., 89, 97, 250
- Chapter XXII, 1992 Constitution of Ghana, 280
- Charter of Kurukan Fuga, Mali Empire, 505–506
- The Cheyenne Way: Conflict and Case Law in Primitive Jurisprudence*, 86–87
- Chie, Raymond, 192, 193, 195–196
- Chief Pilane v. Chief Linchwe* case, South Africa, 350–351
- chiefs. See also chieftaincy in Botswana; chieftaincy in Ghana; chieftaincy in Lesotho; traditional leaders
- exalted role of in land management and allocation functions, 319–321
 - in Liberia, 183–184, 185–191
 - in Sierra Leone, 172, 180–181
 - in traditional courts, South Africa, 231–232, 233, 237–238, 239
- Chiefs' Ordinance of 1904, Ghana, 273–274
- Chieftaincy Act 1961, Ghana, 278
- Chieftaincy Act 1971, Ghana, 279
- Chieftaincy Act 2008, Ghana, 207, 222, 280–281
- chieftaincy in Botswana, 247–265
- customary law regarding, 250–251
 - future of, 258–264
 - historical antecedents, 252–254
 - legislation regarding, 255–258
 - legitimacy of, 255–258
 - nature of, 251–252
 - overview, 4, 247–250
 - post-1966 pressures and survival of, 254–255
- chieftaincy in Ghana, 266–292
- anthropological overview of main ethnic groups, 267–270
 - during colonial administration, 273–277
 - conflicts within, 283–286
 - in court system, 206
 - current problems and challenges, 286–291
 - as customary arbitrators, 207
 - Houses of Chiefs, 222–223
 - land management in Kumasi, 91–93, 100–101
 - legal regulation of chieftaincy, 270–282
 - overview, 4–5, 266–267
 - post-colonial era, 277–282
 - pre-colonial era, 271–272
- chieftaincy in Lesotho
- appointment of chiefs, 145
 - authority of in Basutoland, 134–136
 - Basutoland National Council, 138–139
 - in colonial times, 137–138
 - competition among chiefs, 133
 - overview, 146–147
 - structure of Code of Lerotholi, 139–141
 - as symbol of traditionalism, 150–151
- Chieftainship Act 1968, Lesotho, 145
- Chieftainship Amendment Act of 1970, Botswana, 256–257
- Chieftainship Amendment Act of 1987, Botswana, 257
- child custody, 114–115, 122
- children, in inheritance law in Namibia, 157–160.
- See also* inheritance; succession
- Chitambala v. R* case, Rhodesia, 227–228
- choice model, 423–445
- constrained choice among marriage rules in South Africa, 440–444
 - international law regarding gender equality, 424–426
 - legal pluralism and gender equality, 427–432
 - multiple forms of marriage in Ghana, 432–434
 - overview, 423–424, 431–432
 - reform efforts implementing, 432–444
 - women and land ownership in Tanzania, 434–440
- choice of law, 66
- Chronicle of Kano, 498
- circumcision
- as coming of age ritual in indigenous Africa, 508–509
 - regulating male and female, 510–512
- Ciskei Region, South Africa, 242–243
- citizens, obligation of to participate in Rwandan gacaca, 409–411
- citizenship, and customary land tenure, 300–301, 309–310
- civil law
- confinement of Kenyan customary law to, 109–113
 - gender equality under, 427–432
 - in Ghana, 217–220
 - recognition of customary laws, 22
 - role of customary laws within, 20
 - in South African traditional courts, 229, 239–241

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-11853-8 - The Future of African Customary Law

Edited by Jeanmarie Fenrich, Paolo Galizzi and Tracy E. Higgins

Index

More information

Index

521

- civil rights, withdrawal of from offenders in Rwanda, 403
- civil society, policies of regarding customary laws, 30
- “Civilization of the Woman in African Tradition,” Colloquium on, 504
- Clarke, Arden, 254
- Clause 3, Traditional Courts Bill, 369
- Clause 9(3), Traditional Courts Bill, 378
- Clause 17, Traditional Courts Bill, 386
- cleansing rituals, in transitional justice programs, 78
- clients, empowerment of in dualist legal settings, 201
- COBs (Community Oversight Boards),
Timap, 180
- Code of Lerotholi (Laws of Lerotholi), 129–152
Basutoland National Council, 138–139
chieftaincy, 146–147
customary law and practice of democracy, 149–151 influence of on law in Lesotho, 145–151
overview, 129–131, 136–138 response of legal system to, 148–149 status of, 141–144 structure of, 139–141
- codification of customary laws. See also Code of Lerotholi and changeability of customary law, 29
gacaca, Rwanda, 416–418
in Ghana, 222–223, 286, 287
judicial ascertainment of customary law,
objections to, 94–97
judicial ascertainment of customary law, overview of, 93–94
overview, 3
and recognition of customary laws by state law, 23 versus restatement, 63 versus self-stating customary law, 155 in South Africa, 236–238
- coercion, state monopoly on, 370–373
- collective responsibility, 74
- Collins Online Dictionary*, 336
- Colloquium on “the Civilization of the Woman in African Tradition,” 504
- colonial era, 61–65. See also Code of Lerotholi arbitrary nature of legal jurisdictions, 61–62 avenues for opting out of customary law system, 64–65
Botswana, 252–254
changes in customary law during, 16–17
- customary land tenure in, 296–299, 318, 319–322
- displacement and relegation of customary law, 62
- establishment of state law, 18–19
- Ghana, 204–205, 273–277
- indigenous African law, influence on, 497–500
- Kenya, 104–107, 114–116
- land tenure, approach to by colonizers, 322–324
- Lesotho, 133–134
- Namibia, 161–163
- overview, 61
- relegation of traditional adjudicating bodies, 62–63
- Rwandan courts under, 390–391
- transformation or invention of customary law, 63–64
- Uganda, 449–450
- Colony of the Cape of Good Hope, 134–135.
See also South Africa
- Comaroff, J.L., 88–89
- coming of age ritual, circumcision as, 510–512
- Commission for Gender Equality, South Africa, 356
- Commission of Inquiry into Marriage and Divorce 1967, Kenya, 126–127
- Commission of Inquiry into Succession Laws
1967, Kenya, 126–127
- Commissioner of the Protectorate, Kenya, 105
- Committee on the Elimination of all Forms of Discrimination Against Women (CEDAW Committee), 426
- commodification of land in customary systems, 318–319
- common law. See also specific common law countries by name; state law distinguishing crime under, 380–383 gender equality under, 427–432
in Ghana, 216
in Kenya, 124–125
land tenure under, 316–317
legality principle, 374
in neo-liberal approach to customary tenure reform, 324–325 neo-liberal–customary model confluences regarding tenure, 331–333 pluralism in South Africa, 383–386 procedural rights under, 378–380 recognition of customary laws, 22
role of customary laws within, 19–20
- Common Law and Customary Law Act,
Botswana, 130
- Commonwealth Africa, 469–471

- communal land rights, 297, 298–299, 316–319, 332
- Communal Land Rights Act No. 11 of 2004,
South Africa, 243
- community
acceptance of customary laws, 13 appeals of customary court decisions by JPC, Liberia, 189
customary land tenure, 332 education of by JPC, Liberia, 186–187
in gacaca, Rwanda, 409–411, 419 policies regarding customary laws, 30 rights of, in development of customary law, 54–56 role of in development of living customary law, 48–49, 56–57
in Timap mediation process, Sierra Leone, 180–181
- community forums, 369. See also customary criminal law, South Africa
- Community Legal Advisor Program, JPC.
See Justice and Peace Commission
- Community Oversight Boards (COBs),
Timap, 180
- community service, in Rwandan gacaca, 401–403
- compensation for crimes, Namibia, 157
- composition of traditional courts, South Africa, 231–232
- concubines, status of in Ghana, 434.
See also customary marriage
- confessions, in Rwandan gacaca, 401–403, 411–414
- conflict customary law in Kenyan legal system, 124–125 of law, 66, 211 within traditional leadership in Ghana, 283–286
- Congress of Traditional Leaders of South Africa
(Contralesa), 355, 356
- Conseil Sénégalais des Femmes (COSEF), 514–516
- consent clause, Land Act, Uganda, 455
- consent of women to marriage, South Africa, 441, 442–443. See also customary marriage
- Constitution of Ghana
chieftaincy, 278–280, 281–282
customary courts, 206
Houses of Chiefs, 222
recognition of customary law, 204
refinement of customary law, 222
- Constitution of Kenya, 108–109, 111, 124
- Constitution of Lesotho, 150–151
- Constitution of Namibia, 163–164
- Constitution of Sierra Leone, 430
- Constitution of South Africa
criminal law, 365–366, 384
gender equality, 440
interim, 44–45 legal representation under, 377
legality principle, 373–374
presumption of innocence, 379 right of communities to develop customary law, 54
Section 36, 356
traditional courts, 231–232, 235–236, 243
transformative constitutionalism, 344–345
- Constitution of Tanzania, 436
- Constitution of Uganda, 446–447, 452, 461, 464
- Constitution of Zimbabwe, 430, 471
- Constitutional Commission, Uganda, 459
- Constitutional Court of South Africa, 35–36, 43–46, 47, 50–52. See also *Bhe and others
v. The Magistrate, Khayelitsha and others case*, South Africa; *Shilubana and Others
v Nwamitwa and Other case*, South Africa
- Constitutional Court of Uganda, 461–462
- constitutional law. See also specific constitutions by name; state law and customary land tenure, 309–310 manifestation of living customary law in, 39–41
- Constitutional Principle (CP) XIII, South
Africa, 36
- Constitutional Reform Commission, Lesotho, 150
- constitutionalism, transformative, 344–345, 358–359
- constitutions, emergence of in post-colonial era, 67–69. See also specific constitutions by name
- contextualization, in self-stating customary laws of Namibia, 167
- contraceptive use, in Uganda, 465
- contracts, Kenyan law on, 123
- Contralesa (Congress of Traditional Leaders of South Africa), 355, 356
- controversiality of customary laws, 17–18, 24
- Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination Against Women (CEDAW or Women's Convention) issue of culture in, 485
overview, 468
polygamy, 426 problems of scope and reservations, 478 role of states under, 424–425, 450–451
shortcomings in, 472–478

- violence against women, 488–489 women's rights in marriage, 425
- Convention on the Protection and Promotion of the Diversity of Cultural Expressions (CCD), 513–514
- co-occupancy, Tanzania, 436, 437
- coordination committee, in Rwandan gacaca, 404
- co-ownership of marital property, 302
- corruption in customary legal system, Sierra Leone, 178–179
- COSEF (Conseil Sénégalais des Femmes), 514–516
- Cotran, Judge Eugene, 228
- Council of Traditional Leaders, Namibia, 165–166
- councils of elders, Ghana, 272
- County Commissioner, Liberia, 188–189
- Court of Appeal for Eastern Africa, 123
- Court of Appeal of Ghana, 214–215
- Court of Appeal of Kenya, 117, 119, 120, 121
- Court of Appeal of Lesotho, 149
- court systems. See also customary criminal law, South Africa; dual court/legal systems; gacaca, Rwanda; South African traditional courts; traditional courts
- Basotho nation, 132
- Basutoland, 134–136
- Botswana, 259–261
- in colonial Kenya, 105–106
- development of customary law through decisions, Ghana, 212–220
- family courts, 76
- formal administration of customary law in, Ghana, 205–206
- formed under colonial rule, 62–63
- Justice and Peace Commission, and Liberian system, 185–199
- Lesotho, 135, 148
- Liberia, 182–184
- Namibia, 167–168
- post-colonial, 65
- in pre-colonial Ghana, 272
- Sierra Leone, 171–175
- South Africa, 363–364
- Timap for Justice, and Sierra Leonean system of, 175–182
- written laws behind, in Kenya, 111
- Courts Act of 1960, Ghana, 209, 210
- Courts Act of 1993, Ghana, 206, 210–211, 212
- Courts Ordinance, Ghana, 208
- Coussey Commission, 277
- CP (Constitutional Principle) XIII, South Africa, 36
- creation myths, indigenous African, 507–508
- credibility of Protocol to the African Charter on the Rights of Women in Africa, 475–476, 485–488
- credit markets, and formalization of customary tenure, 327–328
- crimes
- distinguishing in customary criminal law, South Africa, 380–383
- in gacaca, Rwanda, 399–401, 418
- against humanity, 400–401
- problems with recognition of customary, 370–380
- criminal law. See also customary criminal law, South Africa; gacaca, Rwanda
- colonial South Africa, 238
- Ghana, 215–217
- justice vacuum, 200–201
- Kenya, 111–112
- Liberia, 184, 189–191
- Namibia, 163–164
- overview, 5
- South African traditional courts, 229, 239–241
- cultural background, in self-stating customary laws, 167
- cultural relativism, 359–360
- culturally meaningful socio-legal reforms. See African Renaissance
- culture
- in African Charter, 482–483, 484
- in CCD, 513–514
- in CEDAW, 478–480
- in customary law, 448
- and gender inequality regarding land ownership, Tanzania, 438–440
- and human rights, 459–460
- JPC use of to appeal customary court decisions, Liberia, 189
- in Protocol to the African Charter on the Rights of Women in Africa, 485, 489–490
- right to, 39–41
- role of women in determining, 490–492
- and women's rights, 472–478
- custody, child, 114–115, 122
- custom as source of law, 52–53
- customary arbitration, Ghana, 206–208, 223
- customary authorities. See chiefs; chieftaincy in Botswana; chieftaincy in Ghana; chieftaincy in Lesotho; traditional leaders

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-11853-8 - The Future of African Customary Law

Edited by Jeanmarie Fenrich, Paolo Galizzi and Tracy E. Higgins

Index

More information

524

Index

- Customary Court Act of 1966, Botswana, 259
- customary courts. See also customary criminal law, South Africa; gacaca, Rwanda; South African traditional courts
- appealing decisions of, in Liberia, 188–189
 - in Botswana, 259–261
 - customary land tenure, 309–310
 - in Ghana, 221–223
 - loss of supremacy of, 70
 - relegation of in colonial era, 62–63
 - state control over in post-colonial era, 67
- customary criminal law, South Africa, 363–386.
- See also* criminal law; gacaca, Rwanda
 - acceptance of pluralism, 383–386
 - ambiguous position of, 365–370
 - distinguishing crime, 380–383
 - guarantees of defendant procedural rights, 376–380
 - legal representation, 377–378
 - overview, 5, 363–365
 - presumption of innocence, 378–380
 - principle of certainty, 373–376
 - problems with recognition of customary crimes, 370–380
 - state monopoly on use of force, 370–373
- customary land tenure, 295–311, 312–335
- altered land rights of women, 321–322
 - chiefs in land management and allocation functions, 319–321
 - colonial approach, 322–324
 - in colonial Kenya, 106
 - communal paradigm, 316–319
 - contemporary land policies, 324–331
 - creation of land markets, 330–331
 - customary versus statutory law, 299–305
 - evaluating social welfare, 305–309
 - formalization of customary interests in land, 327–330
 - institutional assessment rubric, 311
 - in Kenya, 112–113
 - in Lesotho, 144
 - in Namibia, 157–160
 - neo-liberal approach to land tenure, 322–331
 - neo-liberal-customary model confluences, 331–333
 - overview, 5, 295, 312–315
 - pervasiveness of in Africa, 296–299
 - post-colonial approach, 322–324
 - shadow factor and its implications, 315–322
 - tenure security, 331–333
 - traditional authority structures, 309–310
 - women and land ownership in Tanzania, 434–440
 - women in Uganda, 453–455, 465–466
 - World Bank approach, 322–324
- customary law, 9–30
- changeability of, 15–17
 - characteristics of, 12–18
 - differing degrees of mandatory force, 13–15
 - identification of subject-matter, 10–12
 - legal context of role of today, 18–26
 - overview, 9–10
 - policies of civil society, 30
 - policies of state agents, 27–30
 - as sustaining inequalities in social order, 12–13
 - uncertainty and controversy related to, 17–18
- customary law of succession, South African, 336–360
- overview, 5, 336–341
 - regarding property, 341–350
 - traditional leadership, 350–358
- Customary Law Office, Sierra Leone, 179
- customary law officers, Sierra Leone, 173–174, 179
- Customary Law Unit, Namibia, 157, 165, 166
- customary marriage. See also marriage laws
- Ghana, 217–220, 432–434
 - Lesotho, 143
 - South Africa, 440–444
 - Uganda, 457–458
- customary property rights regimes. See customary land tenure
- Dagbon chieftaincy dispute, Ghana, 269, 284
- Dagomba customary law, Ghana, 210, 217
- Dahomey kingdom (Benin), 506
- Darwinism, social, 276–277
- de Soto, Hernando, 313, 326, 330
- death penalty
- abolition of in South Africa, 44–46
 - in Rwanda, 402
- Debrah v. The Republic* case, Ghana, 215–217
- decision-making process, participation of women in, 503–507
- “Declaration of Basuto Law and Custom,” Laws of Lerotholi, 141
- defendant procedural rights, 376–380
- delays related to, 384
 - legal representation, 377–378
 - overview, 376–377
 - presumption of innocence, 378–380
- deliberation, localized, and women’s rights, 468–469, 476–477, 490–492

- delicts, distinguishing from crimes in traditional courts, 380–383
- democracy, customary law and practice of in Lesotho, 149–151. See also chieftaincy in Ghana
- democratic creation of living customary law, 56–57
- descendant, use of term in South African succession legislation, 348
- descent test of customary laws, 66
- design, Kenyan customary law as question of, 125–128
- deskinment, of chiefs in Ghana, 269, 275
- Desroches-Noblecourt, Christiane, 504
- destoolment, of chiefs in Ghana, 269, 275
- development of customary law. See also self-stating customary law
- balancing community rights with legal certainty and protection of rights, 54–56
 - from within customary realm, 200
 - Ghana, 212–220, 221–223, 287–288
 - respect for right of community to participate in, 54
 - Sierra Leone, 176–177
 - Uganda, 449–450
- development policy, and customary land tenure, 331–332
- dialogical processes, and women's rights, 468–469, 476–477, 490–492
- Diatla, Aline Sitoye, 515
- dignity, right to, 45
- dikgosi* (chiefs), Botswana. See Bogosi, Botswana
- Dimock, Liz, 506
- Diodorus Siculus, 496, 503
- Dione, Salif, 511
- Diop, A.B., 503
- Diop, Cheikh Anta, 496, 503
- Diop, Lat Dior Ngoné Latyr, 511
- discretion, judicial
- “guided by” clause, Kenyan Judicature Act, 118–119, 120
 - and repugnancy clause, 118
- discrimination, gender, 352–354, 474, 478–479, 489. See also gender equality
- disgrace, 70
- displacement of customary law, in colonial era, 62
- dispute resolution. See also mediation
- in ascertainment of customary law, 86–89, 92–93
 - evaluating social welfare, 308–309
 - Ghana, 223
 - living customary law in, 41–46
 - in scholarship on customary law, 10–11
- divided rights of ownership, 325
- Divorce Act, Uganda, 461–462
- divorce law. See also marriage laws
- Kenya, 126–127
 - South Africa, 441, 443
- documentation
- of customary law, phases of, 160–166
 - of land rights, 334–335
- Doe, Caroline, 196
- domestic violence
- in Liberia, 194–195, 197–199
 - Timap stance on, Sierra Leone, 181
- dowry, in Liberia, 193. See also customary marriage
- drafting process, Protocol to the African Charter on the Rights of Women in Africa, 476, 486–487
- dual chamber system, Senegal, 514
- dual court/legal systems. See also legal pluralism; paralegal organizations
- creation of by colonial powers, 63
 - Ghana, 204–205
 - Lesotho, 135
 - Liberia, 182–184
 - overview, 65
 - Sierra Leone, 171–175
 - South Africa, 245–246, 338–341, 359
 - and women's rights, 469–471
- dual seat system, Senegal, 514
- dynamics of customary land relations, 318–319
- East Africa Order in Council 1897, 105
- East African Native Courts (Amendment) Ordinance 1902, 105–106, 121–122
- Eastern Cape Province, South Africa, 242–243
- “eating up” custom, 140
- economic changes in Africa, 70–71
- Economic Development Plan, Volta Region, Ghana, 291
- educated African elites, 71–72
- education
- community, by JPC in Liberia, 186–187
 - for gender equality, 425
 - legal, in post-colonial era, 67
- effectiveness of land tenure systems, 308, 311
- Egypt, ancient
- feminisation of spirituality, 507, 508
 - as key to indigenous African law, 496–497
 - matriarchy in, 502
 - women in political and decision-making process, 503–504

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-11853-8 - The Future of African Customary Law

Edited by Jeanmarie Fenrich, Paolo Galizzi and Tracy E. Higgins

Index

More information

526

Index

- electricity, generation of in Ghana, 291
- elites, rise of new African, 71–72
- Embu customary marriage, Kenya, 122
- eminent domain principle, 329
- empowerment
 - of individual clients in dualist legal settings, 201
 - of traditional authorities with formal law in Liberia, 185–188
- enforceability of customary law in Ghana, 214–215
- enforcement
 - of customary laws, 23–24
 - of local court judgments, Sierra Leone, 179
- engagement in Rwandan gacaca, 411
- English law
 - colonial Kenya, 114–116
 - colonial Uganda, 449–450
 - Ghana, 204–205
 - Kenya, 107–108, 123, 124–125
 - in neo-liberal approach to customary tenure reform, 324–325
- enskinment/enstoolment of chiefs in Ghana, 269
- entrenchment of cultural rights, 39–41
- environmental leadership, by chiefs in Ghana, 290
- Epilogue provision, South African interim Constitution, 44–45
- Equal Opportunities Commission (EOC), Uganda, 452
- Equal Opportunities Commission Act 2007, Uganda, 452
- Equal Rights of the Customary Marriage Law 2003, Liberia, 187, 192, 193, 197
- equality, gender. See gender equality
- Equality Now, 488
- equity of land tenure systems, 308, 309–310, 311
- Eshun v. Johnfia* case, Ghana, 221
- Essilfie and Another v. Quarcoo* case, Ghana, 219–220
- estates of administration, 316–317
- estates of production, 316–317
- Ethiopia, arranged marriages in, 429
- ethnic groups
 - and customary land tenure, 300–301
 - in customary law, 61–62
 - in Ghana, 267–270, 285, 289–290
- ethnic vicarious liability, 74
- evidence
 - of customary law, 22–23
 - rules of in Rwandan gacaca, 416–418
- Evidence Act, Kenya, 123
- evolution. See also development of customary law
 - of customary law, 35–37, 176–177
 - of new customs, 78–79
- Ewe ethnic group, Ghana, 269
- excision, female, 508, 509, 510, 512
- exclusion from customary law system, 64–65
- exile, 70
- exit from marriage, South Africa, 441, 443. See also marriage laws
- Ex parte Chairperson of the Constitutional Assembly: In re Certification of the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa* case, South Africa, 36, 43
- experts, in ascertainment of customary laws, 86–87, 96–97
- exploitation in customary legal system, Sierra Leone, 178–179
- external limitations in land tenure systems, 332
- external socio-cultural influences on Africa, 72
- external standard, test of repugnancy as, 113–114
- fact, customary law as, 123–124, 208–209, 212
- Faculty of Law, University of Botswana, 2
- faiths
 - changes in African, 71
 - femininisation of spirituality, 507–508
 - promoting respect for, 512–514
- family courts, 76
- family law. See also choice model; inheritance; marriage laws; succession
 - exemption from gender equality guarantees, 430
 - Ghana, 217–220
 - Kenya, 114–115
 - survival of customary law norms as official law, 75
- family planning, in Uganda, 465
- Fanti community
 - Ghana, 219–220
 - Gold Coast colony, 273
- farmers, and formalization of customary tenure, 328–329
- Faye, Louis Diéne, 511
- Federation of Women Lawyers (FIDA), Uganda, 304
- fees, legal, in Sierra Leone, 173
- female circumcision, 508, 510–512
- female genital mutilation (FGM), 455–457, 508, 509, 510
- female guardian spirits, 508
- femininisation of spirituality, in indigenous Africa, 507–508
- feminist theory, 474, 477. See also gender equality
- Finch, Charles S., 505

- fines
 Namibia, 157
 Sierra Leone, 173
 South Africa, 239
 first category crimes, in Rwandan gacaca, 399–400, 401–402 fixed customary law, 29, 95–96. See also official customary law
 fixed line of behavior (usus) in customary rules, 99–101
 flexibility of customary law, 35–37, 214, 259, 417–418
 Flomo, Nyan, 190
 fluidity of customary laws, 94–97
Foli and 7 others v. the Republic case, Ghana, 212–213
 force, state monopoly on use of, 370–373 forced marriage, Liberia, 193. See also customary marriage; marriage laws foreign socio-cultural influences in Africa, 72 formal administration of customary law, Ghana, 205–206
 formalization of customary interests in land, 327–330
 free labour, access to by chiefs in Lesotho, 140 freedom of testation, 349–350 freehold, 317 freezing customary law, through recording and codification, 29, 95–96, 287.
 See also official customary law
 French colonial rule, 297. See also colonial era fundamentalism, 512 future of customary law, 58–80 customary law in colonial era, 61–65 customary law in post-colonial era, 65–69 evolution of new customs, 78–79 fundamental changes in African society and worldviews, 69–72
 introduction of customary law into modern legal systems, 75–77 nature of customary law, 59–61
 overview, 58–59
 revival of African jurisprudence as supplement to official law, 77–78 survival of customary law norms as official law, 75 survival of customary law norms as unofficial
 law, 74
 Ga-Adangbe ethnic group, Ghana, 269, 270
gacaca, Rwanda, 387–420
 constituting considerations, 397–399
 crimes, 399–401
 as customary law, 414–420
 important characteristics of, 407–414
 lay justice, 407–409
 legal framework for, 397–407
 overview, 5, 78
 participatory justice, 409–411
 procedure, 404–407 reconciliation in, 411–414
 sanctions, 401–403
 traditional form of, 389–392
 transformation of, 392–397 typical proceedings, 387–389
 gate system, Ghana, 269 gender bias in customary law, Sierra Leone, 181–182
 gender equality, 423–445, 446–466, 467–493.
 See also Protocol to the African Charter on Human and Peoples' Rights on the Rights of Women in Africa African Charter, shortcomings of, 482–485 in bills of rights, 67–68
 CEDAW, problems with, 478 choice model, reform efforts implementing, 432–444
 customary law and women's human rights, 452–458 customary law overview, 448–450 customary marriages, 457–458 development of customary law in Uganda, 449–450
 female genital mutilation, 455–457
 feminisation of spirituality, 507–508 gaps in coverage of treaties on, 472–478 grassroots women, 464–466
 in indigenous political and decision-making process, 503–507 international law regarding, 424–426 judicial strategies to reconcile customary law and, 461–464
 Justice and Peace Commission dealings with,
 in Liberia, 192–199
 lack of, 12, 29–30 land ownership in Tanzania, 434–440 land rights under customary tenure, 453–455 legal pluralism and, 427–432 legislative strategies to reconcile customary law and, 460–461
 marriage, multiple forms of in Ghana, 432–434 marriage rules in South Africa, constrained choice among, 440–444
 in matriarchal system, 501–503

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-11853-8 - The Future of African Customary Law

Edited by Jeanmarie Fenrich, Paolo Galizzi and Tracy E. Higgins

Index

More information

528

Index

- gender equality (cont.)
 overview, 5–6, 423–424, 446–448, 467–471
 reconciling customary law and, 459–466 in representative assemblies, 514–516
 South Africa, 352–353
 women’s human right to equality, 450–452
- gender neutral laws, 427–428
- general assembly, in Rwandan gacaca, 404
- General Law Proclamation, Basutoland, 134–136
- General Recommendation Number 21: Equality in Marriage and Family Relations, CEDAW Committee, 425, 426
- general recommendations, CEDAW, 480
- genocide, acts of, 400–401
- “Genocide, Impunity and Accountability: Dialogue for a National and International Response,” Rwanda, 394–395
- genocide ideology, 408
- genocide trials, Rwanda. See gacaca, Rwanda
- German colonial government, Namibia, 161–162.
See also colonial era
- Ghana, 202–224. See also chieftaincy in Ghana
 ascertainment of customary law, 208–212 development of customary law through court decisions, 212–220 future of customary law and courts, 221–223
 Intestate Succession Law, 471
 Islam in, 498
 land management in Kumasi, 91–93, 100–101 multiple forms of marriage in, 432–434 official customary law versus living customary law, 220–221
 overview, 4, 202
 role of customary law in administration of justice, 205–208
 sources and scope of customary law, 202–205 unified legal system in, 245
- gifts, marriage, in customary marriages, 457
- girlfriends, status of in Ghana, 434
- goals of Rwandan gacaca, 418–419
- Gold Coast Crown colony, 204–205, 273–277.
See also Ghana
- Golden stool, Ghana, 268
- grassroots women, Uganda, 464–466
- Grusi ethnic group, Ghana, 269
- guardian spirits, female, 508
- Guardianship of Infants Act, Kenya, 122
- Guggisberg, Sir Gordon, 274
- guide, Kenyan customary law as, 118–120
 “guided by” clause, Judicature Act of Kenya, 118–120
- guilty pleas, in Rwandan gacaca, 411–414
- Gurma ethnic group, Ghana, 269
- Gwao bin Kilimo v Kisunda bin Ifuta* case, Tanganyika, 115–116
- Hall v. Brooklands Auto-Racing Club* case, U.K., 76
- harmonization. See also legal pluralism of customary laws, Namibia, 157 of laws within states, 28
 in self-stating customary laws, Namibia, 168
- headmen, South Africa, 231–232, 233, 237–238, 239. See also chiefs; chieftaincy in Botswana; chieftaincy in Ghana;
 chieftaincy in Lesotho
- Herodotus, 496, 509
- hierarchical order of laws in Kenya, 124–125
- hierarchical relations in customary law, 14–15
- High Court of Ghana, 210, 212–213, 215–217, 218, 219–220
- High Court of Kenya, 122, 125
- High Court of South Africa, 42, 244–245
- high priests, Ghana, 270
- HIV/AIDS
 awareness leadership by chiefs in Ghana, 290–291
 efforts to combat in South Africa, 492
- Hoebel, E. Adamson, 86–87
- holistic spiritual purification and cleansing rituals, 78
- Holleman, J.F., 87–88, 382
- Holomisa, Inkosi Patekile, 383
- holy wars, Islamic, 499
- homelands, South Africa, 363
- Hosi* (traditional leader), Valoyi community, South Africa, 354–358. See also Shilubana
and Others v Nwamitwa and Other case,
 South Africa
- Houses of Chiefs Act 1958, Ghana, 278
- human rights. See also gender equality;
 indigenous African law and chieftaincy of Ghana, 281–282, 288–289 of defendants, 376–380 empowering traditional authorities with, 200 living customary law, 43
 overview, 5–6, 25
 potential of living customary law to protect, 46–50
- humanity, crimes against, 400–401
- Hummel, John, 187, 191, 199
- Ibn Battuta, 498, 502
- Ibrahim v. Amalibini* case, Ghana, 209–210

- ICCPR (International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights), 451, 482
- ICESCR (International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights), 482
- ICTR (International Criminal Tribunal for Rwanda), 394
- ideology of genocide, 408
- illegitimate children, in disputes over succession to leadership, 352
- imported law, 26, 123, 204–205. See also colonial era; state law
- impunity in Rwandan genocide, 393–394
- in absentia* judgments in Rwandan gacaca, 406–407
- In re Southern Rhodesia* case, U.K., 316
- inalienability of customary land, 318–319
- independence
 - Botswanan, and role of chiefs, 254–255
 - documenting customary law in Namibia after, 163–165
 - of Ghana, chieftaincy and, 276–277
 - Kenyan customary law after, 107–108
- Independence Order-Council, Ghana, 277
- indicators of living customary law's status and future, 37–50
 - overview, 37–38
 - potential to protect human rights, 46–50
 - recognition of living customary law, 39–46
 - toning down of legal theoretical debates about, 38
- indifference, Kenyan customary law as question of, 125–128
- indigenous African law, 494–516
 - adapting ancient law to modern context, 510–514
 - African Renaissance, 510–516
 - circumcision as coming of age ritual, 508–509
 - feminisation of spirituality, 507–508
 - gender parity in representative assemblies, 514–516
 - identifying influences on, 497–500
 - justifying modern law with ancient concepts, 514–516
 - matriarchal system, 501–503
 - overview, 494–497
 - promoting respect for all faiths, 512–514
 - regulating male and female circumcision, 510–512
 - tracing common features to earliest civilisations, 500–509
 - women in political and decision-making process, 503–507
- indirect rule, British
 - Botswana, 252–254
 - Ghana, 274–275
 - land tenure under, 297–298
 - overview, 136–137
- individual tenure, 332. See also land tenure
- inequalities under customary law, 12–13, 29–30
- informal formalisation, 331
- informal system of adjudication of customary law, Ghana, 206–208
- informality of traditional courts in South Africa, 230
- informants on customary law, reliability of, 94–97
- informed consent to circumcision, 511–512
- Ingando*, Rwanda, 401
- Ingelaere, Bert, 411, 414
- inheritance. See also customary law of succession, South African; male primogeniture principle of succession; succession defiance of laws by grassroots women, 464–465
 - Ghana, 217–220, 268, 269, 271
 - Liberia, 187, 193
 - Ongwediva meeting, Namibia, 157–160
 - repugnancy clause, Kenya, 116
 - right to equality and, 463–464
 - South Africa, 41–42
 - versus succession, 336–337
 - survival of customary law norms as official law, 75
 - Timap mediation process, Sierra Leone, 181–182
 - treatment of women under, 303–305
 - Uganda, 454–455, 464–465
- initiation rites, indigenous African, 508–509, 510–512
- innocence, presumption of
 - as defendant procedural right, 378–380
 - in traditional courts in South Africa, 232–233
- inquisitorial nature of customary procedures, 380
- insiders, determination of repugnancy of laws by, 113
- institutional assessment rubric, land tenure, 311
- institutional recognition, 21–22, 23–24, 28–29
- integration of laws within states, 28
- integrity of customary tenure, 314
- interests, in land, 324–325, 332
- interim Constitution, South Africa, 44–45
- internal conflict of law, 211
- International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights (ICCPR), 451, 482

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-11853-8 - The Future of African Customary Law

Edited by Jeanmarie Fenrich, Paolo Galizzi and Tracy E. Higgins

Index

More information

530

Index

- International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights (ICESCR), 482
- International Criminal Tribunal for Rwanda (ICTR), 394
- international law. See also gender equality; human rights
- crimes against humanity and acts of genocide under, 400
 - influence on customary law, 21
 - regarding gender equality, 424–426
- Interpretation Act of 1960, Ghana, 216
- intestate succession. See customary law of succession, South African
- Intestate Succession Act 81 of 1987, South Africa, 44, 346, 347–349
- Intestate Succession Law, Ghana, 471
- invention of customary law in colonial era, 63–64
- invention of tradition, Basutoland, 136
- Inyangamugayo* (persons of integrity), Rwanda, 398–399, 407–409, 419
- Isis, Egyptian Goddess, 505
- Islamic law
- versus customary law, 72
 - influence on indigenous African law, 497–499
 - land tenure under, 303
 - marriage under in Ghana, 432
 - Wills Act and customary inheritance law, 75
- Ivory Coast, women's rights in, 504–505, 506
- Jacq, Christian, 501, 502
- joint occupancy, Tanzania, 436, 437
- JPC. See Justice and Peace Commission
- judges, in Rwandan gacaca, 398–399, 407–409
- judgments, in Rwandan gacaca, 406
- Judicature Act of Kenya
- civil cases, customary law in, 109–110
 - customary law as fact, not law, 123–124
 - “guided by” clause, 118–120
 - inconsistency clause, 122–123
 - overview, 109
 - parties must be subject to or affected by customary law, 120–122
 - problem of conflict and ranking, 124–125
 - repugnancy clause, 113–118
- Judicature Act of Uganda, 447
- judicial ascertainment of customary law, 93–97
- objections to knowledge devices, 94–97
 - overview, 93–94
 - quest for customary law, 97–101
- Judicial Committee of the Privy Council, U.K., 316
- judicial customary law. See official customary law
- judicial discretion
- “guided by” clause, Kenyan Judicature Act, 118–119, 120
 - and repugnancy clause, 118
- judicial powers of chiefs, Ghana, 272, 278, 280, 287–288
- The Judicial Process in the Customary Courts of Southern Africa*, 229
- judicial strategies to reconciling customary law and women's rights, 461–464
- jurisdiction
- arbitrary nature of in colonial era, 61–62
 - of customary law courts, 369, 385
 - enforcing in Liberia, 189–191
- Justice and Peace Commission (JPC), 182–199
- appealing customary court decisions, 188–189
 - domestic violence, 194–195
 - empowering traditional authorities with formal law, 185–188
 - enforcing jurisdiction, 189–191
 - gender issues, 192–199
 - legal dualism in Liberia, 182–184
 - marriage and property issues, 193
 - mediation, 191
 - overview, 170–171
 - rape, 195–199
- justice vacuum, 200–201
- Kadjebi customary laws, Ghana, 215–217
- Kakungulu-Mayambala, R., 463
- Kamau v. Wanja & Another* case, Kenya, 116
- Kano (Nigeria), 498. See also Nigeria
- Kavango customary law, Namibia, 162, 168
- Kayishema, Clément, 410
- Keamue, Eleane, 186
- Kenya, 103–128
- after independence, 107–108
 - civil cases, confinement of customary law to, 109–113
 - conflict and ranking of laws, 124–125
 - consistency of customary law with written law, 122–123
 - customary law in, as question of design or indifference, 125–128
 - descent and manner of life tests of customary laws, 66
 - fact, customary law as, 123–124
 - formalization of customary tenure, 327–328
 - guide, customary law as, 118–120
 - historical contextualization, 104–108

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-11853-8 - The Future of African Customary Law

Edited by Jeanmarie Fenrich, Paolo Galizzi and Tracy E. Higgins

Index

More information

Index

531

- inheritance by women in, 304
 Kikuyu adjudicatory system, 241
 overview, 3, 103–104
 parties subject to or affected by customary law, 120–122 place of customary law in legal system, 108–109 reliability of experts in ascertaining customary law, 96–97 repugnancy test, 113–118
 Kenya Colony Order in Council 1921, 106, 121–122
kgosi (chief), Botswana. See Bogosi, Botswana kgotla (village assembly), Botswana, 254–255, 260–261
 Khama, Ian Khama Seretse, 262–263
Khotla, Basotho nation, 132
 Kieh, Helen, 196
 Kiganda (Uganda), 506
 Kikuyu community, Kenya, 116, 241
 Kingdom of Lesotho. See Lesotho King's Council, Ondonga, Namibia, 159–160 kinship groups, women in, 302 knowledge devices objections to, 94–97
 overview, 93–94
 Konare, Alpha Oumar, 476
 Koyana, D. S., 229
 Kumasi, Ghana, 91–93, 100–101
- labia minora elongation, 456. See also female genital mutilation labour, free, access to by chiefs in Lesotho, 140 Lancaster House Conferences, 107 land, in chieftaincy conflicts in Ghana, 283, 285–286
 Land Act of Tanzania, 435–436
 Land Act of Uganda, 454–455 land management, Kumasi, Ghana, 91–93, 100–101 land markets, creation of, 330–331
Land Policies for Growth and Poverty Reduction report, World Bank, 326–327 land tenure, 295–311, 312–335
 altered land rights of women, 321–322
 chiefs in land management and allocation functions, 319–321
 colonial approach, 322–324
 in colonial Kenya, 106
 communal paradigm, 316–319
 contemporary land policies, 324–331
 creation of land markets, 330–331
 customary versus statutory law, 299–305
 evaluating social welfare, 305–309
 formalization of customary interests in land, 327–330
 institutional assessment rubric, 311
 in Kenya, 112–113
 in Lesotho, 144
 in Namibia, 157–160
 neo-liberal approach to, 322–331
 neo-liberal-customary model confluences, 331–333
 overview, 5, 295, 312–315
 pervasiveness of customary, in Africa, 296–299
 post-colonial approach, 322–324 shadow factor, 315–322
 tenure security, 331–333
 traditional authority structures, 309–310
 women and land ownership in Tanzania, 434–440
 women in Uganda, 453–455, 465–466
 World Bank approach, 322–324
- Lansana, Pa, 178–179
 Latin America, titling programs in, 329–330
Law and Advocacy for Women v Attorney General case, Uganda, 462
 Law of Contract Act, Kenya, 123
 Law of Marriage Act, Tanzania, 470
 Law of Succession Act, Kenya, 126–127
 Law Reform Commission
 Ghana, 222–223
 South Africa, 368, 369
 Laws of Lerotholi. See Code of Lerotholi
 Laws of Ombadja, Namibia, 168
 Laws of Ondonga, Namibia, 158–159, 161, 167, 168
 Laws of Oukwanyama, Namibia, 160
 Laws of the Batswana ba Namibia, Namibia, 167
 Laws of the Mayeyi, Namibia, 167–168
 Laws of the Mayouni Mafwe, Namibia, 167
 Laws of Ukwangali, Namibia, 155–156, 163–164
 Laws of Ukwambi, Namibia, 164 lawyers, in post-colonial era, 67. See also legal representation lawyers' customary law. See official customary law lawyers' customary tenure, 322 lay justice, in Rwandan gacaca, 407–409
 LCs (local councils), Uganda, 460–461 leaders. See traditional leaders leasehold, 317
 legal anthropologists. See ascertainment of customary law legal certainty, 54–56, 373–376 legal context of role of customary laws, 18–26

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-11853-8 - The Future of African Customary Law

Edited by Jeanmarie Fenrich, Paolo Galizzi and Tracy E. Higgins

Index

More information

532

Index

- legal dualism. See also legal pluralism
 creation of by colonial powers, 63
 Ghana, 204–205
 Lesotho, 135
 Liberia, 182–184
 overview, 65
 Sierra Leone, 171–175
 South Africa, 245–246, 338–341, 359
 and women's rights, 469–471
- legal education, in post-colonial era, 67
- legal framework for Rwandan gacaca, 397–407
- legal monopoly of state law, 19–21
- legal pluralism. See also choice model; legal dualism; paralegal organizations criminal law, 373
 and customary law, 18–26 customary versus statutory law on land tenure, 299–305 and gender equality, 427–432
 overview, 1–2, 24–25
 in post-colonial era, 65–66
 and women's rights, 469–471
- legal regulation of chieftaincy, in Ghana, 270–282
 during colonial administration, 273–277
 overview, 270–271
 in post-colonial era, 277–282
 in pre-colonial era, 271–272
- legal representation
 as defendant procedural right, 377–378
 South African traditional courts, 234–236
- legality principle, 54–56, 373–376
- legislation, versus customary law, 11–12
- legislative strategies to reconciling customary law and women's rights, 460–461
- legitimacy of children, in disputes over succession to leadership, 352
- Leitner Center for International Law and Justice, 2
- Lerotholi, Paramount Chief of Basutoland, 138–139. See also Code of Lerotholi
- Lesotho, 129–152
 Basutoland National Council, 138–139
 chieftaincy, 146–147
 Code of Lerotholi, 136–144
 customary law and practice of democracy, 149–151 emergence of legal system, 134–136 historical perspective on customary law, 131–136 influence of Code of Lerotholi, 145–151
 legal representation, 234
 overview, 129–131
 recognition of customary law, 134–136 response of legal system to Code of Lerotholi, 148–149 status of Code of Lerotholi, 141–144
 structure of Code of Lerotholi, 139–141
 “lesser or abstruse” rules of customary law, Ghana, 210–211
- Letsie, Paramount Chief of Basutoland, 138
- Lewis v Bankole* case, Nigeria, 35
- liability, ethnic vicarious, 74
- Liberia
 Justice and Peace Commission in, 185–199
 legal dualism, 182–184 lifestyle test of customary laws, 66 limitations on cultural rights, 40
 Linchwe, kgosi in Botswana, 259
- lineage. See also inheritance; succession royal, and chieftaincy succession in Ghana, 284 status, inequality based on, 13 women in systems of, 302
- lines of succession, and chieftaincy conflicts in Ghana, 284–285
- lingeer*, Senegambia, 505, 515
- litigation, public interest, in Uganda, 464
- livestock colors in Setswana tradition, Botswana, 261
- living customary law, 31–57
 ascertainment of, 50–56
 balancing community rights with legal certainty and protection of rights, 54–56
 Botswana, 251, 259, 262 challenges arising from prominence of, 56–57
gacaca, Rwanda, 418
 Ghana, 220–221
 indicators of status and future of, 37–50 objectionable features of, 29 versus official customary law, 26, 33–37, 64, 89–90
 overview, 31–33
 potential to protect human rights, 46–50 proof of, 50–56
 recognition of, 39–46
 respect for right of communities to develop law, 54
 succession, 337–338
 toning down of legal theoretical debates about, 38
 traditions and past practices of community concerned, 52–53
- living customary tenure, 313, 322
- Llewellyn, Karl N., 86–87

- lobolo* agreements, South Africa, 42, 442–443, 444
- local councils (LCs), Uganda, 460–461
- local courts, Sierra Leone, 171–175, 179
- Local Courts Act
- Ghana, 278
 - Sierra Leone, 172
- localized deliberation, and women's rights, 468–469, 476–477, 490–492
- London School of Oriental and African Studies, 87
- Luo community, Kenya, 117, 121
- Maat concept, ancient Egypt, 503–504
- Mabandla, Chief Justice of Victoria East district, South Africa, 242
- Mabena v Letsoala* case, South Africa, 42, 47
- magic, in Liberian customary legal system, 184
- magico-religious belief, changes in African, 71
- magistrate courts, Botswana, 261. See also South African traditional courts
- Magistrates' Courts Act, Kenya, 110, 111, 112
- Mahloane v. Letele* case, Lesotho, 234
- Maine, Sir Henry, 371
- Malawi
- entrenchment of cultural rights in, 40
 - formalization of customary tenure, 328
 - Saidi Report, 320
- male circumcision. See circumcision
- male primogeniture principle of succession.
- See also Bhe and others v. The Magistrate, Khayelitsha and others* case, South Africa
 - abolition of, in South Africa, 43–44
 - changes in, in South Africa, 342–346
 - overview, 41–42, 341–342
 - Reform of Customary Law of Succession Act, 346–350
 - right to equality, 463
 - succession to traditional leadership, 350–353, 354–358
- Mali Empire, 497–498, 502, 505–506
- Mamdani, Mahmood, 254–255
- management rights, customary tenure, 316–317
- mandatory force of customary laws, 13–15, 23–24
- Mande-Busanga ethnic group, Ghana, 269
- Mandume ya Ndemufayo, King of Oukwanyama, 161
- manner of life test of customary laws, 66
- Manthabeleng Makara v Makoetla Makara & 3 Others* case, Lesotho, 143
- Maqetoane v Minister of Interior & Others* case, Lesotho, 145
- Maqovuka v Madidi* case, South Africa, 130
- markets, land, creation of, 330–331
- Marriage Act, Uganda, 462–463
- Marriage Act of 1971, Tanzania, 436
- Marriage Bill, Kenya, 126
- marriage laws
- co-ownership of marital property, 302
 - gender equality, 425–426, 427–428
 - Ghana, 217–220, 432–434
 - indigenous, 502–503
 - Kenya, 114–115, 116, 122, 126–127
 - Laws of Lerotholi, 143
 - Liberia, 193
 - South Africa, 348–349, 440–444
 - Tanzania, 436, 470
 - Uganda, 461–463
- Marriage of Mohammedans Ordinance, Ghana, 432
- Maru, Vivek, 173, 174, 175, 176
- mato oput* ceremony, Uganda, 78
- matriarchal system, indigenous African, 501–503
- matrilineal inheritance, 157–160, 268, 269, 271
- Mawolo, Thomas, 186, 193
- Mayeyi community, Namibia, 167–168
- Mayouni Mafwe community, Namibia, 167
- Mbowela v R* case, South Africa, 228
- Mdumane v. Mtshakule* case, South Africa, 228–229
- mediation
- as alternative in dualist settings, 200
 - dispute-processing by, 14
 - Ghana, 223
 - by JPC, in Liberia, 188, 191, 194–195, 198
 - by Timap, Sierra Leone, 179–182
- medical treatment, Sierra Leone, 177
- Mefo*, Cameroon, 505
- Memorandum, Intestate Succession Law of Ghana, 471
- Merriam-Webster's Dictionary of Law*, 336
- Merry, Sally Engle, 479–480, 491
- Mhlekwana & Feni v Head of the Western Tembuland Regional Authority & another* case, South Africa, 235–236, 385
- Mid-Zambezi Rural Development Project, Zimbabwe, 306
- migrants, land rights of, 300–301, 306
- military campaign, British, in Ghana, 273
- Ministry of Home Affairs and Local Government & Others v Sakoene* case, Lesotho, 145
- minors, in Rwandan gacaca, 401
- mis-recognition of customary tenure, 313–314, 322

- Mojela, D.M.L., 147
- Molapo v Molapao* case, Lesotho, 145
- Mole-Dagbon ethnic group, Ghana, 269
- monarchy, Lesotho, 150. See also traditional leaders
- monetary jurisdiction of traditional courts, South Africa, 233
- monitors, JPC. See Justice and Peace Commission
- monopoly of state law, legal, 19–21
- monopoly of state on use of force, 370–373
- morality, and legality principle, 375
- Moshoeshe, King of the Basotho, 131–132
- mother figures in indigenous African theology, 507
- Mthembu v Letsela and Another* case, South Africa, 41–42, 339
- Mukasa, Rosemary Semafumu, 476
- Mulbah, George, 188
- multiculturalism, 471, 477. See also culture; gender equality
- multiple lines of succession, and chieftaincy conflicts in Ghana, 284–285
- Mutiso, Gidbon, 501
- Mwami* (king), court of in Rwanda, 391
- myths, indigenous African, 507–508
- Namibia, 153–169
 - features of documents resulting from self-stating, 167–168
 - Ongwediva meeting, 155–160
 - overview, 153–155
 - phases of documenting of customary law, 160–166
- National and International Dialogue Conference, Rwanda, 394–395
- National House of Chiefs, Ghana, 222–223
- National House of Traditional Leaders, South Africa, 243
- national identity, and chieftaincy in Lesotho, 146
- National Movement of Rural Women, South Africa, 356
- national project, self-stating customary law as, in Namibia, 165–166
- national unification of customary laws, 65–66
- National Unity and Reconciliation Commission (NURC), Rwanda, 410–411, 413–414
- Native Administration Act, South Africa, 366–367
- Native Administration Proclamation of 1934, Botswana, 254
- Native Appeal Court, South Africa, 239
- Native Authority (Colony) Ordinance, No. 21 of 1944, Ghana, 275–276
- Native Courts (Colony) Ordinance, No. 22 of 1944, Ghana, 275–276
- Native Courts Proclamation, Lesotho, 148
- Native Jurisdiction Ordinance (1878), Ghana, 273
- Native Lands Registration Ordinance 1959, Kenya, 106
- Native Ordinance, Ghana, 208
- Native Territories Penal Code, South Africa, 238
- Native Tribunal Proclamation of 1934, Botswana, 254
- natural justice, 114
- Ndashe, Sibongile, 483
- Ndewawiosia d/o Ndeamtza v. Imanuel s/o Malasi* case, Tanzania, 463–464
- Ndut* initiation school, Seereer people, 511
- Neither customary nor legal: African customary law in an era of family law reform*, 89
- neo-liberal approach to land tenure, 322–331
 - contemporary land policies, 324–331
 - creation of land markets, 330–331
 - failure of approach, 334–335
 - formalization of customary interests in land, 327–330
 - neo-liberal-customary model confluences, 331–333
 - overview, 312–315, 322–324
- NGOs (non-governmental organizations), 491
- Nigeria
 - definition of customary law, 60
 - gender equality, 68
 - Islamic law, 303, 498
 - osu* system in, 26
 - Wills Act, 75
 - women in political and decision-making process, 506
- Nkrumah, Dr. Kwame, 213–214, 278
- Nkuebe* case, Lesotho, 147
- Nkwana v. Nonqanaba* case, South Africa, 239
- Nomantunga v Ngangana* case, South Africa, 130
- non-governmental organizations (NGOs), 491
- non-recognition of customary tenure, 314, 322–324
- normative activity, in Lesotho, 133–134
- normative content of customary law, 63–64
- normative moment (opinio necessitatis) in customary rules, 99–101
- normative orders, 10–11
- normative recognition, 21–22, 23, 28–29
- NURC (National Unity and Reconciliation Commission), Rwanda, 410–411, 413–414

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-11853-8 - The Future of African Customary Law

Edited by Jeanmarie Fenrich, Paolo Galizzi and Tracy E. Higgins

Index

More information

Index

535

- Nuut*, ancient Egypt, 507
- Nyanda Regional Authority Court, South Africa, 244
- Obenga, Théophile, 504
- objectionable customary laws, 29–30
- obligatory nature of customary rules, 99–101
- O'Callaghan NO v. Chaplin* case, South Africa, 245
- occupancy interest, Tanzania, 437
- offenses, in legality principle, 373–376
- official customary law
- future of, 32
 - Ghana, 220–221
 - versus living customary law, 26, 33–37, 64, 89–90
 - overview, 24–25
 - succession, 337–338
 - turning living customary law into, 57
- official law. See state law
- officials, in Timap mediation process, Sierra Leone, 180–181. See also traditional leaders
- Okyeman Environment Foundation, Ghana, 290
- Ombadja, Laws of, Namibia, 168
- Omoluabi* (well-behaved person), Nigeria, 76–77
- Ondonga customary law, Namibia, 158–160, 161, 167, 168
- Ongwediva meeting, Namibia, 155–160
- operational rights, customary tenure, 316–317
- opinio necessitatis* (normative moment) in customary rules, 99–101
- opposition
- in gacaca system, Rwanda, 406–407
 - to traditional courts, South Africa, 242–243
- opting out of customary law system, in colonial era, 64–65
- Ordeal, Trial by, 184, 189
- ordinance marriages, Ghana, 432–434.
- See also* marriage laws
- Ordonnance législative no. 34 du 5 octobre 1943 sur les juridictions indigènes du Rwanda-Urundi*, 390–391
- ordre publique* (public order) principles, 25
- Osagyefo Amoatia Ofori Panin, Paramount Chief, Ghana, 290
- Oshiwambo-speaking communities, Namibia, 155–160, 162–163, 168
- ossification of customary law, 29, 95–96, 287.
- See also* official customary law
- ostracism, 70
- osu system, Nigeria, 26
- Otieno v Ougo & another* case, Kenya, 117, 120, 121, 125
- Otumfuo Osei Tutu II, Asantehene, Ghana, 290
- Oukwanyama community, Namibia, 160, 161
- ownership of land. See land tenure
- paralegal organizations, 170–201
- Justice and Peace Commission in Liberia, 182–199
 - lessons learned from, 199–201
 - overview, 4, 170–171
 - Timap for Justice in Sierra Leone, 171–182
- parallel court systems. See dual court/legal systems
- Part I, Laws of Lerotholi, 141
- Part II, Laws of Lerotholi, 141
- Part III, Laws of Lerotholi, 141
- participatory justice, in Rwandan gacaca, 409–411, 419
- pass laws, South Africa, 352
- passive development of customary law, 48
- past practices, as proof of living customary law, 52–53
- paternity, in disputes over succession to leadership, 352
- patriarchy. See also gender equality
- chieftaincy of Ghana, 281–282, 289
 - in customary law, 428–430
 - defined, 429–430
 - succession, 343–344
- patrilineal inheritance system, 268, 269, 271.
- See also* inheritance
- patterns of behavior, in ascertainment of customary law, 88–89, 92–93
- peri-urban land management in Ghana, 91–93, 100–101
- phases, of Rwandan gacaca, 404–405
- PIL (public interest litigation), Uganda, 464
- Pitsos*, Basotho nation, 132
- Plateau State, Nigeria, 60
- pluralism, legal. See choice model; legal pluralism; paralegal organizations
- PNDC (Provisional National Defense Council) Law 107, Ghana, 279
- political activism, South Africa, 242–243
- politics
- changes in African, 70–71
 - chief involvement in, 262–264, 271–272, 280, 282, 285
 - participation of women in, 503–507

- polygamy, 303–304, 425–426, 441–442, 443, 457–458
- Pondoland, South Africa, 247–248, 320
- Pospisil, Leopold, 87
- post-colonial era, 65–69
 - approach to land tenure, 322–324
 - attitude of lawyers/legal education, 67
 - emergence of written constitutions, 67–69
 - legal pluralism, 65–66
 - overview, 65
 - state control over customary courts, 67
 - traditional leadership in Ghana, 277–282
 - women's rights, 469–471
- power generation, Ghana, 291
- powers
 - of chiefs in pre-colonial Ghana, 271–272
 - separation of, in traditional courts in South Africa, 233
- practiced customary law. See living customary law
- practices, past, as proof of living customary law, 52–53
- precedent, doctrine of, 57
- pre-colonial era. See also indigenous African law
 - chieftainship in Botswana, 251–252
 - customary land tenure, 296, 320–321
 - documentation of customary law, 161
 - Rwandan courts, 390
 - traditional leadership in Ghana, 271–272
- pre-marital sex, under customary law in Uganda, 453
- President of the Republic of South Africa v Hugo* case, South Africa, 374
- presumption of innocence
 - as defendant procedural right, 378–380
 - in traditional courts in South Africa, 232–233
- Pretoria High Court, South Africa, 354–355
- priestesses, indigenous African, 508
- priests, in Ghana, 270
- primogeniture. See male primogeniture principle of succession
- principle of certainty, 54–56, 373–376
- prison sentences, in Rwandan gacaca, 401–403
- private land tenure, 296–297
- Privy Council
 - Ghana, 209
 - Kenya, 124
- procedural rights, 376–380
 - delays related to, 384
 - legal representation, 377–378
 - overview, 376–377
 - presumption of innocence, 378–380
- Protocol to the African Charter on the Rights of Women in Africa, 468–469, 476–477, 490–492
- procedure
 - gacaca*, Rwanda, 387–389, 404–407, 416–418
 - setswana customary court system, Botswana, 260–261
 - traditional courts in South Africa, 230, 232–233, 234–235, 381–382
- processualists, 88
- production, estates of, 316–317
- Promotion of Equality and Prevention of Unfair Discrimination Act 4 of 2000, South Africa, 353, 440
- proof of living customary law, 50–56.
 - See also* ascertainment of customary law
 - balancing community rights with legal certainty and protection of rights, 54–56
 - future challenges, 56
 - overview, 50–52
 - respect for right of communities to develop law, 54
 - traditions and past practices of community concerned, 52–53
- property, South African customary law of
 - succession of, 341–350
 - changes in, 342–346
 - male primogeniture, 337
 - overview, 341–342
 - Reform of Customary Law of Succession Act, 346–350
 - succession versus inheritance, 336–337
 - property crimes, in Rwandan gacaca, 405
 - property law. See also inheritance; land tenure
 - colonial Uganda, 450
 - gender equality, 426, 428
 - Justice and Peace Commission dealings with, in Liberia, 193
 - Timap mediation process, Sierra Leone, 181–182
 - women and land ownership in Tanzania, 434–440
- protection of rights, in development of customary law, 54–56
- Protocol to the African Charter on Human and Peoples' Rights on the Rights of Women in Africa (African Protocol)
 - advantages over CEDAW and African Charter, 475–477
 - gender parity in representative assemblies, 514
 - issue of culture in, 485

- marriage, 425–426
 overview, 468–469
 potential of, 485–492
 procedural rights, 490–492 regional credibility of, 485–488
 role of states under, 425, 451 substantive provisions of, 488–490 provincial councils, Ghana, 275 Provisional National Defense Council (PNDC) Law 107, Ghana, 279
 public interest litigation (PIL), Uganda, 464 public order (ordre publique) principles, 25 punishment in gacaca genocide trials, Rwanda, 401–403, 418–419
 legality principle, 373–376 state monopoly on, 370–373 purification rituals, in transitional justice programs, 78
- Queen mothers, in chieftaincy of Ghana, 268–269, 281
 quitrent land, 343
- R v Amkeyo* case, Kenya, 114–116, 449–450
R v Dumezweni case, South Africa, 375
 RACA (Regional Authority Courts Act), South
 Africa, 235–236, 237
Ramaisa v Mphulenyane case, Lesotho, 143, 149 ranking of customary law, in Kenyan legal system, 124–125
- rape cases of, in gacaca, Rwanda, 405
 Justice and Peace Commission dealings with,
 in Liberia, 195–199
 Timap stance on, Sierra Leone, 181
 Rape Law of 2005, Liberia, 192
 RCLSA. See Reform of Customary Law of Succession and Regulations of Related Matters Act 11 of 2009, South Africa re-appropriation of tradition, Namibia, 164–165 reasonable man tests, 76–77, 114 received law, 26, 123, 204–205. See also colonial era; state law
- recognition of chiefs, by government in Botswana, 256–257 of chiefs, Ghana, 275, 279 of customary land tenure, 313–314 of customary laws, by state law, 21–25, 28–29 of living customary law, 39–46 of state law, by customary law, 25–26
- Recognition of Customary Marriages Act of 1998 (RCMA), South Africa, 36–37, 243, 440–444 reconciliation after domestic violence, in Liberia, 194–195
 gacaca, Rwanda, 411–414, 418–419
 Liberian customary legal system, 183 and presumption of innocence in criminal cases, 380
 South African traditional courts, 241, 371–372 traditional, in transitional justice programs, 78 recording of customary law objections to, 94–97
 overview, 93–94
 recording process, South African traditional courts, 236–238
 Redmond, Elsa, 268
 reflection meetings, Rwanda, 395–397
 Reform of Customary Law of Succession and Regulations of Related Matters Act 11 of 2009 (RCLSA), South Africa customary law of succession to property, 346–350
 definition of customary law, 36–37
 overview, 345–346
 reform of customary laws. See also indigenous African law
 Ghana, 287–288
 overview, 30
 Sierra Leone, 176–177
 South Africa, 36–37
- Regency (Bereng Griffith v 'Mantsebo Seeiso Griffith)* case, Lesotho, 142 regional assemblies, Ghana, 277 regional authority courts, South Africa,
 235–236, 244
 Regional Authority Courts Act (RACA), South Africa, 235–236, 237 regional credibility of Protocol to the African Charter on the Rights of Women in Africa, 475–476, 485–488
 Regional House of Chiefs, Ghana, 222 regional laws, 21
 Registered Land Act, Kenya, 108, 112
 Registrar of Customary Courts, South Africa, 237
 registration of customary marriages, Ghana, 434 of ownership rights, 327–330 regularized conduct, in ascertainment of customary law, 88–89, 90–93

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-11853-8 - The Future of African Customary Law

Edited by Jeanmarie Fenrich, Paolo Galizzi and Tracy E. Higgins

Index

More information

538

Index

- regulation of chieftaincy, in Ghana, 270–282
 during colonial administration, 273–277
 overview, 270–271
 in post-colonial era, 277–282
 in pre-colonial era, 271–272
- Regulations for the Administration and Distribution of the Estates of Deceased
 Blacks GN R200 of 1987, South
 Africa, 343
- relativism, cultural, 359–360
- relegation of customary law, in colonial era, 62 of traditional adjudicating bodies, in colonial era, 62–63
- reliability of informants on customary law, 94–97
- religion. See also Islamic law
 changes in African, 71 indigenous African, 507–518 respect by states for all, 512–514
- remedies against gacaca decisions and sentences,
 Rwanda, 406–407
- removal of chiefs
 Ghana, 269, 275
 by government in Botswana, 257–258
- Renaissance, African, 510–516
 adapting ancient law to modern context, 510–514
 gender parity in representative assemblies, 514–516
 justifying modern law with ancient concepts, 514–516
 overview, 495–496, 510
 promoting respect for all faiths, 512–514
 regulating male and female circumcision,
 510–512
- reparation, in Rwandan gacaca, 418–419
- repentance, in Rwandan gacaca, 411–414
- Report of the East Africa Royal Commission (1953–1955), 323
- Report of the Presidential Commission of Inquiry on Land Policy Reform in Malawi, 320
- representation, legal as defendant's procedural right, 377–378
 South African traditional courts, 234–236
- representative assemblies, gender equality in, 514–516
- repugnancy standard, 25, 113–118, 212–214
- reservations to CEDAW, 480–481
- resilient nature of bogosi, Botswana, 259–260
- resistance, by grassroots women in Uganda, 464–466
- resistance paradigm, African experience during colonial period, 133–134
- responsibility, collective, 74
- Restatement of African Law* project, 87
- restatement of customary laws versus codification, 63 defined, 155
 legislative development of customary law, 460–461
 objections to, 94–97
 overview, 29, 93–94
 problems with, 129–131 and recognition of customary laws by state
 law, 23
- restorative justice, in South African traditional courts, 371–372
- restraint of land tenure systems, 308, 311
- retribution
 in gacaca, Rwanda, 418–419
 in South African traditional courts, 241, 371
- review of judgement, in Rwandan gacaca, 407 of local court decisions, Sierra Leone, 173–174
- Revised Rules and Regulations of the Hinterland, Liberia, 182
- Rey, Charles, 253–254
- Reyman, Laurie, 190–191, 197
- Reyntjens, Filip, 391–392
- Rhodesia, 227–228
- right to culture, 472–478
- right to dignity, 45
- rights of ownership. See also land tenure customary, 316–317 divided, 325
- Roberts, Simon, 88–89
- Roman law perception of customary law, 153
- Romany, Celina, 474
- Roog, Seereer people, 507
- royal lineage, and chieftaincy succession in
 Ghana, 284
- Royal University of Excellence, Ghana, 290–291
- rule-centered approach to ascertainment of customary law, 88–89
- rule of law principles, in self-stating customary laws, 167–168
- rules of procedure and evidence, in Rwandan gacaca, 416–418
- rural areas, customary law in, 69–70
- Rwanda, status of women in, 301
- Rwandan gacaca, 387–420 constituting considerations, 397–399

- crimes, 399–401
 - as customary law, 414–420
 - important characteristics of, 407–414
 - lay justice, 407–409
 - legal framework for, 397–407
 - overview, 5, 78
 - participatory justice, 409–411
 - procedure, 404–407
 - reconciliation in, 411–414
 - sanctions, 401–403
 - traditional form of, 389–392
 - transformation of, 392–397
 - typical proceedings, 387–389
- S. M. Otiemo* case, Kenya, 66
- S v. Kwinana* case, South Africa, 244
- S v Makwanyane* case, South Africa, 44–46, 47
- sacred myths, indigenous African, 507–508
- Saidi Report, Malawi, 320
- SANCO (South African National Civic Organisation), 242
- sanctions
 - gacaca*, Rwanda, 401–403, 418–419
 - traditional, 70
- Sarbah, John Mensah, 214–215
- sassywood, 176–177, 184, 187
- scarcity of land, and customary land tenure, 305–306
- scope
 - of CEDAW, 478
 - of customary law in Ghana, 202–205
 - of self-stated laws, 164
- Seagle, W., 376
- Sebele II, kgosi in Botswana, 253
- second category crimes, in Rwandan gacaca, 400, 402–403
- secondary rights to land for women, 302–303
- secret societies, Liberia, 183
- Section 2
 - General Law Proclamation, Basutoland, 135
 - Magistrates' Courts Act, Kenya, 110, 112
- Section 2(1), RCLSA, South Africa, 347, 348–349
- Section 3
 - Constitution of Kenya, 124
 - RCLSA, South Africa, 349
- Section 3(2), Judicature Act, Kenya.
 - See* Judicature Act of Kenya
- Section 4
 - Divorce Act, Uganda, 461–462
 - General Law Proclamation, Basutoland, 135
 - RCLSA, South Africa, 349–350
- Section 5
 - Divorce Act, Uganda, 462
 - Traditional Courts Bill, South Africa, 233
- Section 7(1), Regional Authority Courts Act, South Africa, 235–236
- Section 8, General Law Proclamation, Basutoland, 135
- Section 9
 - Laws of Ondonga, 158–159
 - Traditional Courts Bill, South Africa, 232, 236
- Section 14, Supreme Court Ordinance of 1876, Ghana, 204
- Section 17(1), Interpretation Act, Ghana, 216
- Section 18, Traditional Courts Bill, South Africa, 238
- Section 19, Supreme Court Ordinance of 1876, Ghana, 204, 208
- Section 20, East African Native Courts (Amendment) Ordinance 1902, 106
- Section 21, Divorce Act, Uganda, 462
- Section 22, Divorce Act, Uganda, 462
- Section 23
 - Black Administration Act, South Africa, 343
 - Divorce Act, Uganda, 462
- Section 23 (1), Act 29, Ghana, 213
- Section 26, Divorce Act, Uganda, 462
- Section 34
 - Constitution of South Africa, 384
 - Laws of Lerotholi, 143
- Section 35(3), Constitution of South Africa, 373–374, 377, 379
- Section 36, Constitution of South Africa, 356
- Section 45, Constitution of Lesotho, 150–151
- Section 53, Births, Deaths and Burials Ordinance, Ghana, 213
- Section 54, Courts Act, Ghana, 211
- Section 55, Courts Act of 1993, Ghana, 210–211, 212
- Section 77, Constitution of Kenya, 111
- Section 77(8), Constitution of Kenya, 111
- Section 87, Courts Ordinance, Ghana, 208
- Section 174(1), Constitution of South Africa, 232
- Section 211(1), South African Constitution, 353
- Section 211(2), South African Constitution, 54
- Section 211(3), South African Constitution, 353, 365–366
- Section 285, Act 29, Ghana, 213
- sector gacaca, Rwanda, 406, 407
- security of tenure, 317–318, 327–330, 331–334
- Seepapitso, kgosi in Botswana, 257–258
- Seereer people, Senegal, 505, 507, 511, 512–513

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-11853-8 - The Future of African Customary Law

Edited by Jeanmarie Fenrich, Paolo Galizzi and Tracy E. Higgins

Index

More information

540

Index

- Sekgoma Letsholathebe II, kgosi in Botswana, 253
- self-stating customary law, 153–169
- features of documents resulting from, 167–168
 - Ongwediva meeting, 155–160
 - overview, 3–4, 153–155
 - phases of documenting of customary law, 160–166
- Semahla v Lephole* case, Lesotho, 144
- Senegal
- circumcision, 511
 - COSEF and gender parity in representative assemblies, 514–516
 - creation of customary law, 148
 - female excision, 512
 - feminisation of spirituality, 507
 - Islamic law, 500
 - Temple for Initiated Women, 512–513
 - women in political and decision-making process, 505
- sentences, laws regarding in Namibia, 163–164
- separation of powers
- in Botswana, 255
 - in traditional courts in South Africa, 233
- Service National des Juridictions Gacaca (SNJG), Rwanda, 417–418
- Serwah Ampem AIDS Foundation for Children, Ghana, 290–291
- setswana customary court system, Botswana, 259–261
- sexual torture cases, in Rwandan gacaca, 405
- shadow (model of customary tenure), 315–322
- altered land rights of women, 321–322
 - chiefs in land management and allocation functions, 319–321
 - communal paradigm, 316–319
 - need to abandon, 333
 - overview, 313, 315–316
- shari'a law, 303. See also Islamic law
- Shibi* case, South Africa, 342
- Shilubana and Others v Nwamitwa and Other* case, South Africa
- balancing community rights with legal certainty and protection of rights, 54–56
 - customary law of succession, 354–358, 359–360
 - customary law versus custom, 35–36
 - development of customary law in line with Constitution, 47
 - gender equality, 467
 - overview, 51–52
 - passive development of customary law, 48
 - right of communities to develop law, 54
 - role of community in developing customary law, 49
 - traditions and past practices of community, 52–53
- Sierra Leone
- cleansing rituals, 78
 - gender equality, 430
 - legal dualism, 171–175
 - Timap for Justice, 175–182
- slave trade, 498–499
- SM Otieno* case, Kenya, 117, 120, 121, 125
- SNJG (Service National des Juridictions Gacaca), Rwanda, 417–418
- Snyder, Francis, 148
- Sobhuza 11 v Miller and others* case, U.K., 316
- social changes in Africa, 70–71
- social control, under customary law, 70
- social Darwinism, 276–277
- social regulator, state laws as, 21
- social welfare, and land tenure, 305–309, 311
- society, fundamental changes in African, 69–72
- external socio-cultural influences, 72
 - loss of supremacy of traditional institutions, 70
 - magico-religious belief, 71
 - overview, 69–70
 - rise of new African elites, 71–72
 - social, economic, and political changes, 70–71
- socio-legal reforms. See African Renaissance
- sociologist's customary law. See living customary law
- Songhai Empire, 498
- South Africa. See also customary criminal law, South Africa; customary law of succession, South African; South African traditional courts; specific courts and legal cases of South Africa
- anti-chief revolts, 247–248
 - ascertaining customary law, 130
 - chiefs in customary land tenure, 320
 - colonial government of in Namibia, 162–163
 - constrained choice among marriage rules, 440–444
 - definitions of customary law, 36–37
 - early history of, 338–339
 - entrenchment of cultural rights, 40
 - gender equality, 67–68
 - land tenure, 310
 - legislative development of customary law, 460
 - manifestation of living customary law in court decisions, 41–46
 - multiple roles of chiefs, 262

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-11853-8 - The Future of African Customary Law

Edited by Jeanmarie Fenrich, Paolo Galizzi and Tracy E. Higgins

Index

More information

542

Index

- testimony, duty to give, in Rwandan gacaca, 409–410
- tests of validity of customary law, 62
- theft of stock, Botswana, 261
- Thejane v Tlali* case, Lesotho, 149
- theology, indigenous African, 507–508
- third category crimes, in Rwandan gacaca, 400, 403
- thunderbolt swearing, 173
- Tibbie, Marian, 175
- Tikklo, Thunder, 194
- Timap for Justice paralegal organization, 171–182
 - confronting gender bias in customary law, 181–182
 - engaging customary law from within, 176–177
 - legal dualism in Sierra Leone, 171–175
 - mediation, 179–181
 - overview, 170–171
 - using formal legal system as check on customary system, 178–179
- Timina Olenja v. Elam Kaya* case, Kenya, 114
- titling of land, 305, 327–330
- Togbui Afede XIV, Paramount Chief, Ghana, 291
- torture cases, sexual, in Rwandan gacaca, 405
- toyi-toyi* dance, South Africa, 242
- tradition
 - in constitutional law, 40
 - invention of, Basutoland, 136
 - re-appropriation of, Namibia, 164–165
- traditional authorities. See traditional leaders
- Traditional Authorities Act, Namibia, 153–154, 165
- traditional courts. See also customary criminal law, South Africa; gacaca, Rwanda; South African traditional courts
 - appealing decisions of, in Liberia, 188–189
 - in Botswana, 259–261
 - customary land tenure, 309–310
 - in Ghana, 221–223
 - loss of supremacy of, 70
 - relegation of in colonial era, 62–63
 - state control over in post-colonial era, 67
- Traditional Courts Bill, South Africa
 - distinction between civil and criminal cases, 233, 240–241
 - fairness of criminal law system, 386
 - overview, 363–364, 368–370
 - prohibition of legal representation, 236, 378
 - recording requirements, 237–238
 - reform of customary law through, 230
 - role of women, 232
- traditional leaders. See also chiefs; chieftaincy in Botswana; chieftaincy in Ghana; chieftaincy in Lesotho; customary criminal law, South Africa; self-stating customary law
 - customary land tenure, 5, 299–300, 309–310
 - in definition of customary law, 298
 - empowering with formal law and human rights, 185–188, 200
 - evaluating social welfare, 305–309
 - under indirect rule by British, 297–298
 - loss of supremacy of, 70
 - in marital disputes, South Africa, 443
 - South African customary law of succession, 337, 350–358
 - in South African legal system, 367
 - in Timap mediation process, Sierra Leone, 180–181
- traditionalist customary law, Botswana, 251
- traditions, as proof of living customary law, 52–53
- trans-Atlantic slave trade, 498–499
- transformation approaches to customary tenure reform
 - versus affirmation approaches, 313
 - assumptions about customary tenure, 322–324
 - creation of land markets, 330–331
 - failure of, 332
 - formalization of customary interests in land, 327–330
 - neo-liberalism, 325–327
- transformation of customary law, in colonial era, 63–64
- transformative constitutionalism, 344–345, 358–359
- transitional justice
 - traditional African justice system in, 77–78
 - ubuntu* in South African process, 77
- Transkei High Court, South Africa, 377–378
- Transkei Regional Authority Courts for Paramount Chiefs, South Africa, 237
- transparency
 - of chieftaincy in Ghana, 288–289
 - of land tenure systems, 307, 311
- Trial by Ordeal, 184, 189
- tribe, relationship of chief to, Botswana, 252
- tribute labour, Lesotho, 140
- Tripp, Aili, 303
- trouble-cases, in ascertainment of customary law, 86–89
- Tutu, Archbishop Desmond, 77
- Tyler, Wleemogor, 187

- ubuntu*, 44–46, 77
- Uganda, 446–466
- customary marriages, 457–458
 - development of customary law, 449–450
 - entrenchment of cultural rights, 40
 - female genital mutilation, 455–457
 - grassroots women, 464–466
 - inheritance by women, 303, 304
 - judicial strategies to reconcile customary law and women's rights, 461–464
 - land tenure, 302, 305
 - legislative strategies to reconcile customary law and women's rights, 460–461
 - mato oput* ceremony, 78
 - overview, 446–450
 - reconciling customary law and women's rights, 459–466
 - women in political and decision-making process, 506
 - women's human rights, 450–458
 - women's land rights under customary tenure, 453–455
- Uganda Association of Women's Lawyers and Others v Attorney General* case, Uganda, 461–462
- Uganda Constitutional Commission, 459
- Ukwangali, Laws of, Namibia, 155–156, 163–164
- uncertainty of customary laws, 17–18, 24
- undemocratic creation of living customary law, 56–57
- unfairness in legal system, Sierra Leone, 173–174, 178–179
- unification
- of customary laws, 65–66
 - of laws within states, 27–28, 359
- United States Institute for Peace (USIP), 189, 190
- Unity Dow v. Attorney General* case, Botswana, 483
- universal application of human rights, 459–460
- Universal Declaration of Human Rights, 482
- University of Botswana, 2
- unofficial gacaca, Rwanda, 404
- unofficial law, customary law norms as, 74
- urban areas, customary law in, 69–70
- user rights, to land, 332
- usufruct rights, Tanzania, 435
- usus* (fixed line of behavior) in customary rules, 99–101
- Uukwambi, Laws of, Namibia, 164
- vacuum, justice, 200–201
- Vakwangali community, Namibia, 155–156, 163–164
- valid customary arbitration, Ghana, 207–208
- validity of customary law, Ghana, 212–214
- validity tests of customary law, 62
- Valoyi community, South Africa, 47, 354–358.
See also Shilubana and Others v Nwamitwa and Other case, South Africa
- Van Breda v Jacobs* case, South Africa, 52–53
- Van Der Vyver, Professor, 245
- variation of customary laws, 94–97
- Verhelst, Thierry, 73
- Vermeulen, T., 94–95
- vicarious liability, ethnic, 74
- victims, in Rwandan gacaca, 404
- Vienna Declaration, 459
- vigilante groups, 78–79
- village assembly (kgotla), Botswana, 254–255, 260–261
- Village Land Act, Tanzania, 435–436, 437
- violence, enforcement of property rights through, 308
- violence against women
- Liberia, 197–199
 - in Protocol to the African Charter on the Rights of Women in Africa, 488–489
 - Timap stance on, Sierra Leone, 181
 - Volta Region, Ghana, 291
- Von Benda-Beckmann, Franz, 93
- vote banks, utility of dikgosi as in Botswana, 263–264
- Vukejia, Amelia, 492
- Waalo kingdom, 505
- Wambua v Okumu* case, Kenya, 122
- warfare
- and chieftaincy in Ghana, 268
 - conduct during, in indigenous Africa, 495
- warlords, Islamic, 499
- Wastell, Sari, 485
- Watson Commission, Ghana, 277
- Weber, M., 372
- welfare, social, and land tenure, 305–309, 311
- West Africa. See indigenous African law
- westernized indigenous elites, 71–72
- WHO (World Health Organization), 455, 456
- widows
- under customary law, 71, 303–305
 - inheritance law in Namibia, 157–160
 - repugnancy clause, Kenya, 116
 - Timap mediation process, Sierra Leone, 181–182
- wife purchase, 114–115. See also customary marriage; marriage laws

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-11853-8 - The Future of African Customary Law

Edited by Jeanmarie Fenrich, Paolo Galizzi and Tracy E. Higgins

Index

More information

544

Index

- wills
 in customary family law, 75
 South African succession legislation, 349–350
- Wills Act, British, 75
- witchcraft, Sierra Leone, 177
- Wolof kingdom, Senegal, 505
- woman to woman marriage, 116, 348, 349
- women. See also choice model; gender equality altered land rights of, 321–322 in chieftaincy of Ghana, 281–282, 289
 customary land tenure, 301–305, 310, 328
 in Liberian customary legal system, 184
 in matriarchal system, 501–503 participation in indigenous political and decision-making process, 503–507 in Rwandan society, 398 succession to traditional leadership, 352–353, 354–358
 Timap confrontation of bias against, Sierra Leone, 181–182
 in traditional courts, South Africa, 232
- Women and Law Committee, Namibia, 159–160
- Women and Law in Southern Africa (WLSA), 46
- Women's Convention. See Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination Against Women
- women's rights. See gender equality
- Woolmington v DPP* case, U.K., 379
- workshops, JPC, 186–187
- World Bank. See also neo-liberal approach to land tenure
 approach to land tenure, 322–324 customary tenure reform, 313, 453 failure of approach to tenure, 334–335
- World Health Organization (WHO), 455, 456
- worldviews, fundamental changes in African, 69–72
 external socio-cultural influences, 72
 loss of supremacy of traditional institutions, 70
 magico-religious belief, 71
 overview, 69–70
 rise of new African elites, 71–72 social, economic, and political changes, 70–71
- written constitutions, emergence of in postcolonial era, 67–69. See also specific constitutions by name
- written laws consistency of Kenyan customary law with, 122–123
 in gacaca, Rwanda, 416–418 and invalidation of customary laws, in Kenya, 112
 recognition of customary laws by state law, 23
- Yaotey v. Quaye* case, Ghana, 218
- Yunusa v Adesubokun* case, Nigeria, 75
- Zambia, inheritance by women in, 304
- zebra list of candidates, Senegal, 514–515
- Zimbabwe criminal law in traditional courts, 382
 gender equality, 68, 430, 471
 land rights of migrants in, 306