

Index

---

- anthropometry, 89–90
 appropriate, defined, 150
 assessment, annual review, 43, 45, 117, 136, 147; diagnosis, 29–30; objectives, 68–9, 72, 74–5, 120–1, 124–7; skill, 38–40, 70, 79, 116–17, 149
- behavior, management, 71, 79; repertoire, 93, 105, 135–6, 140–1; research on, 139–43; social, elements of, 78, 93, 105–6, 117–18, 130–1, 135; study of, 5–6, 43–4, 46–7
- Binet, Alfred (1857–1911), 91
- categories, clinical, 63–4, 138, 140–4; illusion of, 70
 choice, 105, 116, 123, 124–7, 151
 clinical model, characteristics of, 54–6; education applied to, 12–16, 19, 92–3, 105–6, 115–17, 136–7, 138–40; illusion, 69–72, 149; knowledge, 7, 144, 146–7, 152–3; origins, 11–12; reconceptualization of, 78–83; research based on, 140–1
- communication, between residents, 93, 147, 152; Howe, 86–9; model of, 78–83; research, 141–4
- consistency, defined, 139, 149, 150
 context, defined, 79–83, 150; lessons, 120–1, 126–7, 134–6, 137, 149; social, 77, 92–4, 105–6, 117–18
- continuity, defined, 150
 contours, defined, 81–2, 105, 149
 culture, references, 57–9
- deinstitutionalization, 3, 19, 58, 114–15, 136–7, 148–9; defined, 112–113; history 107–9, 111–12
- environment, least restrictive, 110–13
- feeble-mindedness, study of inheritance, 90–1, 108–10
- Fernald, Walter E. (1859–1924), custodial residents, 16, 109–10; programs, 17–19, 139
- Goddard, Henry Herbert (1866–1957), research, 108–9
- Howe, Samuel Gridley (1801–1876), communication, 105–6, 139; fieldstudy, 7, 84–9; idiocy, definition of, 84, 92–3, 107, 138; prediction, 111–12; school, 16, 107–8
- individualization of institution, 136–7, 146
 individualized educational programs, 138, 151 institutions, study of, 59–60 intelligence testing, applied to residents, 92, 138; origins of, 91 intention of residents, 132, 134, 139, 152 interpretation of residents, asymmetry, 69, 79–82, 146–7; effect on practice, 149–52; model for, 78–83; symmetric, 69, 71–8, 148
- Itard, Jean-Marc-Gaspard (1774–1838), acculturation, 13–15, 138, 151–2; clinical observation, 12–13, 84, 138, 140; education of Victor, 8–9, 12–15, 138; Séguin, 15
- Kallikak family, Deborah, 109; study of, 108–9
- legal initiatives, courts, 20, 109–11; effect on residents, 137; see also PL 94–142
- mainstream standards, applied to residents, 63–4, 78–9, 84, 85, 111–12, 116–17, 134–5, 139–40, 146–7, 148
 mainstreaming, 3, 19, 58, 111–12, 114–15, 136–7, 148, 149–50; defined, 113
 Massachusetts School for the

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-12585-7 - Special Education in Context: An Ethnographic Study of Persons with Developmental Disabilities

John Joseph Gleason

Index

More informationIndex

- Feeble-minded, custodial department, 18; see also Howe
- meaning, explicit, 116–17, 135; implicit, 116–17, 135, 147, 148, 150; in behavior, 5–6, 80–3, 92–3; intersubjective, 143; resident's own terms, 59–60, 61–2, 105; see also interpretation
- mental retardation, definition, 92
- methodology, data analysis comparisons, 4–6, 8–9, 115–19, 122–3, 134–7, 144–6, 149; entry, 1, 19–29; historical, 7; levels of, 1; quarantine, 4; records, 6–7; reentry, 4–5; research, 1–2, 3–8; researcher, 2–3, 7–9, 152
- Montessori, Maria (1870–1952), 89–90, 139
- normal for residents, defined, 78–83, 112–15, 148
- normalization, 3, 19, 38–40, 111–12, 114–15, 136–7, 146; defined, 113–14
- patterns, in behavior, 67–9, 78, 93, 105, 147–50; interactional competence, 60, 61–2, 76–8; learned, 78, 93, 135, 148; messages in, 77, 80–3, 147; pathological, 78
- personal accounts, family, 60–2; individual, 60–1; professional, 60
- phenomenology, 143
- Pinel, Philippe (1745–1826), clinical categories, 11–12, 138; Wild Boy of Aveyron, 12–13
- PL 94–142, 1, 2–3, 7, 110–11, 137
- positivism, 55; application of, 47, 109
- potential, defined, 152
- programs, behavioral objectives, 72, 74–5, 122–3, 125–7, 129–30, 134–6, 138, 144–6; description of, 4–5, 7, 37–50, 115–18; effect on staff, 45–51, 53; schedule, 39–42, 67–8, 114–15, 117–18, 122, 133–4, 136, 137; see also assessment
- psychological model 91–2, 144, 146
- qualitative studies, 140–2, 143–4
- reports, accident, 49–50; case study, 44–5, 47, 51–3, history of, 84–91; observations on, 51–3, 127; progress notes, 47–9; see also anthropometry
- residents, background 30–1; clinical description, 31–3
- Séguin, Edouard (1812–1880), classification of idiocy, 15, 19; educational method, 15–16, 19, 89, 138–9
- setting, apartment A, 5, 6, 24–9, 118; apartments M and N, 3, 6, 22–4, 118; description, 3, 19–29, 148–9; institution, 19–22
- social organization, 136–7, 149
- social rules, 95, 97, 101, 116–17
- space, dimension of, 76–8, 105, 151
- special education, origins of practice, 11–19, 84–92
- specialization, 146
- staff, conduct of programs, 37–53, 62–4, 115–18, 136–7, 144–6, 149; direct care, 17, 45–7, 117–19; illusions of, 69–72, 146–7; professional knowledge, 6, 9–10, 17, 115–19, 150–1; progress notes, 47–9; role, 150–1; status, 136
- statistical model, 56–7
- Terman, Lewis (1879–1956), 91
- tests, 138
- time, dimension of, 76–8, 94–5, 105, 126–7, 151
- Title XIX, funds, 19–20; records, 28–9
- toys, 105–6