Contents

KET for Schools has three papers:

Reading and Writing: 1 hour 10 minutes
You will need to be able to read and understand simple information that you might see on signs or read in brochures, newspaper or magazine articles. You will also have to choose words to fill gaps in sentences, understand some definitions and spell their words. You will have to write a short message or note that is between 25 and 35 words long too.

Listening: 30 minutes
You will need to be able to listen and understand people who are talking together or people who are giving information about something. You will have to choose or write answers to questions which are about what these people say. Don't worry! The people talk very clearly and they don't talk fast!

Speaking: 10 minutes
You will need to be able to listen and understand what the examiner is saying. You will have to answer some simple questions about yourself. You will also be given some information to look at. You will ask and answer questions about the information with another candidate. You usually take the Speaking test with just one other candidate, but sometimes candidates take the Speaking test in groups of three.
Frequently asked questions:

What level is KET for Schools?

KET for Schools is A2 level. At A2 level, KET students can:
● understand simple instructions and questions
● write, talk or ask about simple information, opinions or ideas
● complete forms
● write short, simple letters, messages or emails about personal information.
For more information on ‘Can Do’ statements go to:
http://www.cambridgeesol.org/exams/exams-info/cefr.html
Note that some candidates might be better than others (at speaking or writing, for example) but still get the same final KET grade. The A2 ‘Can do’ statements therefore help teachers and employers to understand what a candidate can generally do at this level.

What percentage grade do we need to get to pass KET for Schools?

The percentage of marks that candidates need to get for each grade may change from test to test. This is because tests cannot always be exactly the same. Some might be a little more difficult than others. However, the ranges of percentages for each grade of KET for Schools are:
● Pass with Merit 85% i.e. 85 out of 100 marks
● Pass 70% – 84%
● Narrow Fail 65% – 69%
● Fail 64% and below.
This information is included on your Statement of Results.

What marks do we need to pass each paper, and to pass the exam?

Candidates do not have to get a certain mark to pass each section of the test. The final mark for KET for Schools is the total number of marks from all three papers Reading/Writing, Listening and Speaking. There are an equal number of possible marks for reading, writing, listening and speaking at KET for Schools.
Is KET for Schools suitable for candidates of any age?

KET for Schools is more suitable for students who are at school and aged from 11–14. To make sure that the material is not too difficult or too easy for this age group, all the parts of the reading, writing and listening papers are pre-tested. This means that different groups of students try each part of the tests first. The parts will then only be used in real exams if the results of the tests show they are suitable for candidates who want to take KET for Schools.

Can we use pens and pencils?

In KET and KET for Schools, candidates must use pencil in all papers.

What happens if I don’t have enough time to finish writing?

You can only be given marks for what you write on your answer sheets so if you cannot complete this, you will lose marks. Watch the clock, plan your time carefully and do not waste time by writing answers on other pieces of paper first. If you want to change an answer, just rub it out, write your correct answer then quickly move to the next question.

If I write in capital letters, will this affect my score?

No. You do not lose marks for writing in capital letters in KET for Schools.
