Index

accidents, 64
acquiescent responding, 47
adaptive behaviour, 18, 19
administrative records
administrative prevalence, 41, 42–3 ‘transition cliff’, 42
administrative sampling, 41
coding accuracy, 46
methods of recording, 46
death certification, 46
ICD-10 codes, 46
research analysis of, 45–6 bias of data, 46
validity, 45–6
see also ‘hidden majority’
adolescents, 48, 92
adversity, exposure to biological embedding, 38
allostatic load, 38
environmental, see environmental factors mental health problems and, 72–3 psychological pathways, 38
resilience, 38
social adversities, 70–5
social pathways, 38
socio-economic position, 37
aetiology (intellectual disability), 22–4 biomedical approach, 22–3
children
early childhood, 23
later childhood, 24
environmental, see environmental factors multifactorial approach, 22–3
age 18 threshold, 18
age differences, prevalence rates, 21 alcohol misuse, 91
allostatic load, 38
ambulatory care-sensitive conditions, 77 anti-psychotic medication, 75–6, 96 inappropriate use, 75–6 Australia, general health status, 53–8 autism, 46, 73–5
biomedical approach, aetiology/causes, 22–3 biopsychosocial model, 2–3, 4
health inequalities conceptualisation, 3
bodily awareness, 81
cancer
clinical interventions, 95
healthcare services, 78
in people with intellectual disabilities, 64 capabilities, 5
combined, see combined capabilities capability framework, 4–9 central capabilities (importance), 8–9, 11 central capabilities (proper comparison of models), 9 UK policy, 9
central focus, 4–6
definitions, 5, 8
health inequalities and, 5–8 human rights, see human rights physical activity, 5–6
pluralist, 5, 7
quality-of-life approaches and, 6, 7 self-definition, 5
social justice, 5, 7
well-being, 35
see also substantial freedoms; well-being capability security, 8 cardiovascular problems, 61 carers, as proxy responding, 47–9 causes of intellectual disability, see aetiology central domains of life, 8–9, 11 challenging behaviours, 59, 74 anti-psychotic drugs, inappropriate use, 75–6
children
causes of intellectual disability, see aetiology (intellectual disability)
Index

children (cont.)
cognitive testing, 44
disability prevalence, 31
health measurement, 26
health promotion, 89–90 health status, 54
with/without intellectual disability, 53 inequalities (health), socially patterned, 24 knowledge base development, 110–11 long-lasting protective interventions, 99–100 mental health and challenging behaviour, 58 physical activity, capability framework, 5–6 poor health, 52
social gradients in prevalence, 23–4 surveys, 44
classification (of intellectual disability), 18–19 AAIDD, 18
adaptive behaviour, 18, 19
age 18 threshold, 18
‘hidden majority’, see ‘hidden majority’
high-income countries, 18
ICF, 2–3
IQ, 18–19, 20
mild, see ‘hidden majority’ models, 1–3
capability framework, see capability framework mapping to health/health inequalities, 3–4 see also biopsychosocial model; medical model; social model coding accuracy, 46
cognitive testing, children, 44 combined capabilities, 5 measurement of, 6
communication disorders, 61 community (social) networks, 78–9 consent, see informed consent constipation, 62
constitutional factors, 80–1 corrosive disadvantage, 8 counselling, see health impact pyramid framework
death certification, 46
dementia, 59, 80
diet, see nutrition/diet disability, 2, 32
functioning and, 32–33
human rights and, 32
ICF, 28, 32
impairment, health and, distinction between, 3 indicator of health, as an (inverse), 33 measures of, 32
prevalence, see prevalence
disability adjusted life years (DALYs), 33
discrimination, 67–8
definitions, 69
human rights and, 68
knowledge base development, 112
policy and legislation, 69–70 Down’s syndrome
health risks, 62–3, 80
mortality and life expectancy, 49
surgical interventions, 96
dysphagia, 62
education, see health impact pyramid framework diabetes, 62–3
environmental factors, 2, 23 environmental adversities, 36, 70–5 indirect effects, 37 life course approach, 37, 110–11 living and working conditions, 70–8, 101–2 material hazards, 36
psychosocial hazards, 36 regional and international variation, 20 risk of exposure, 36–7
see also socio-economic factors epidemiology (intellectual disability), 19–24 incidence, see incidence IQ as threshold, 20
prevalence, see prevalence
sampling and study design, 21 epilepsy, 59–60
exercise, see physical activity exposure to adversity, see adversity, exposure to tfalls, 64
fertile functioning, 8
gastro-oesophageal reflux disease (GORD), 62 gender differences, prevalence rates, 21 genitourinary and reproductive functions, 63
GPs
financial incentives, 46, 98
mental health problems, 58–9 gross domestic product (GDP), 4 haematological problems, 61
health, 25–39
checks, 98–9
conceptualisation and measurement, 25–35
children, 26
disability adjusted life years (DALYs), 33
general health status, 26–7 measurement methods, 25, 43–9
mortality and life expectancy, 26
prevalence of diseases/conditions, 27–9 quality adjusted life years (QALYs), 33 well-being, see well-being
definitions, 4, 25, 32
determinants of, 36–9
exposure to adversity, see adversity, exposure to social, see social determinants of health disability as indicator, 33 functioning and disability, 32–33
general health status, 26–7, 52–8
general indicators, 49–53
health functioning, 6
minimum thresholds, 7
ICD and ICF classification systems, 27, 28 impact pyramid, see health impact pyramid framework
impairment/disability and, distinction between, 3
inequalities, see inequalities (health) literacy, 81, 111–12
measurement, 25, 43–9
promotion, see health promotion
public health interventions, see public health
interventions
screening, see health screening surveys, see surveys (health)
health (of people with intellectual disabilities), 40, 56, 80–1, 108–9
ambulatory care-sensitive conditions, 77
cancer, 64
cardiovascular conditions, 61, 80 children, see children consent, health interventions, 85
constipation, 62
default decisions, 100–3
dysphagia, 62
endocrine conditions, 62–3 evidence-base, see research methodology
gastro-oesophageal reflux disease (GORD), 62
general health status, 52–8
general indicators, 49–53
genitourinary and reproductive functions, 63
haematological system, 61 health checks, 98–9
health impact pyramid, see health impact pyramid framework
health literacy and, 111–12
health promotion, see health promotion
health risk profile, 87
health screening, 76, 97, 99
programmes, 97
inequality perspective, see inequalities (health)
mental functions, 58–60, 80 see also mental health problems mortality rates, see mortality and life expectancy neuromusculoskeletal/movement-related functions, 63–4
injuries, accidents and falls, 64
osteoarthritis, 63
physical impairments, 63
obesity and, 81
oral health, 61–2
public health interventions, see public health
interventions
respiratory disease, 61
secondary analysis, 43
sensory functions and pain, 60 skin conditions, 64
sleep disorders, 60, 81
specific health conditions and impairments, 53–65
vaccination, 97
voice and speech functions, 61
health impact pyramid framework, 84–5, 105–7, 109–10
health risk profile, 87
‘hidden majority’, 85
level 1: counselling and education, 87–94 diet, physical activity and weight reduction, 87–90
mental health, see mental health problems
oral health, 91–2
sexual health, see sexual health smoking, alcohol and drug misuse, 90–1 level 2: clinical interventions, 94–6
surgical interventions, 96
level 3: long-lasting protective interventions, 96–100
level 4: healthy default decisions, 100–3 public health, see public health
interventions
level 5: socio-economic factors, see socio-economic factors rainbow model comparison, 84 strengths, 85
health inequalities, see inequalities (health)
Index

health promotion, 76
  children, 89–90
  factors influencing efficacy, 88–9
  interventions, 87–90
health screening, 76, 97, 99
  programmes, 97
healthcare services, 75–8
  barriers to, 75
  to clinical interventions, 94
  cancer, 78
  health promotion, see health promotion health screening, see health screening institutional settings, 74, 75–6 primary care, see primary healthcare secondary healthcare, 77–8, 95
‘hidden majority’, 42–3, 64, 116
  health impact pyramid, 85
  knowledge base development, 111
  mild intellectual disability, 49
high-income countries, 18, 115–16
human rights
capability framework, 8
  disability and, 32, 68–9 discrimination and, 68
  social model approach, 2 hypothalamic disorders, 80 hypothalamic–pituitary–adrenal (HPA) axis, 38 IAPT (Improving Access to Psychological Therapies), 93 identification (of people with intellectual disability), 44–5, 46 ill health, people with, see health (of people with intellectual disabilities) impairment, 2
  disability, health, distinction between, 3 Improving Access to Psychological Therapies (IAPT), 93 incidence, 19, 20
income group, prevalence rates, 21 incontinence, 81
industrial lifestyle factors, see lifestyle factors individual model, see medical model inequalities (health), 25–39, 66–82, 108 addressing/reducing, 83–107
  health impact pyramid, see health impact pyramid framework public health, see public health perspective biopsychosocial model approach, 3 capability framework and, see capability framework conceptualisations, 3 definition, 35
determinants, 36–9, 67–82
  constitutional factors, 80–1 environmental conditions, 67–70 healthcare services, see healthcare services lifestyle factors, see lifestyle factors living/working conditions, see environmental factors social and community networks, 78–9 socio-economic/cultural, see socio-economic factors frames, 66
  rainbow model, see rainbow model (of health)
measurement, 6
  public health perspective, see public health perspective socially patterned, 24 socio-economic inequalities and, 104 infant mortality rates, 26, 27, 28 informed consent
  health interventions, 85
  research methodology, 45
injuries, accidents and falls, 64
institutional settings, 74, 75–6
intellectual disability, 1–24
  bodily awareness, 81
  classification, see classification (of intellectual disability) definition/meanings, 18–19 epidemiology, see epidemiology (intellectual disability) health issues in, see health (of people with intellectual disabilities)
  health literacy and, 111–12
  health screening, 97
  ‘hidden majority’, see ‘hidden majority’ identification, 44–5, 46 internal capabilities and, 19
  prevalence, see prevalence
  reasonable adjustments, see reasonable accommodations/adjustments records, see administrative records rights of people with, 114 social construct, as a, 19 ‘visible minority’, 42–3 intelligence quotient (IQ), 18–19, 20 internal capabilities, intellectual disability and, 19 International Classification of Functioning, Disability and Health (ICF) (WHO), 2–3, 28 aim, 32
  definition of disability, 32
Index

public health interventions (cont.)
for general population, 102–3 outcomes, assessing, 86
physical activity, 102–3
smoking bans, 102
tobacco taxation, 102
public health perspective, 83–7
health impact pyramid, see health impact pyramid framework prevention strategies, 83–4 reasonable adjustments, 86

quality adjusted life years (QALYs), 33
quality-of-life framework, 6, 7, 11 rainbow model (of health), 66, 67, 109 comparison with health impact pyramid, 84 reasonable accommodations/adjustments, 113
clinical interventions, 95 health check provision, 77 public health context, 86 in research methodology, 47, 48
sampling, 45
research methodology, 40–9
consent, informed, 45
data collection, 43–9
acquiescent responding, 47
adolescents, 48
proxy responding, 47–9
records, see administrative records
response bias, 47
self-report, 47–9, 52
surveys (health), see surveys (health)
general health status, 52–8
health measurement, 43–9
health promotion interventions, 87 ‘hidden majority’, 111
intervention outcomes, 86 sampling of participants, 41–3, 113 see also sampling of research participants
secondary analysis, 43
socio-economic position, 72
see also health impact pyramid framework
resilience, 38
respiratory disease, 61
response bias, 47

sampling of research participants, 41–3, 113 administrative samples, see administrative records intellectual disability identification, 44–5, 46 reasonable accommodations, see reasonable accommodations/adjustments skewed sample, 45
surveys, see surveys (health)
triangulation of data, 44–5
secondary analysis, 43
secondary healthcare, 77–8, 95
self-definition, capabilities approach, 5 self-efficacy, 38
self-report, 47–9, 52
sensory functions, 60 severe intellectual disability, mortality and life expectancy, 49 sexual health, 80, 92
adolescents, 92
sexual violence, 92
short stature, 62
skin and related structures, 64
sleep disorders, 60, 81
smoking bans, 102
cessation programmes, 90–1
tobacco taxation, 102
social and community networks, 78–9 social determinants of health, 38–9, 73–5, 112
mental health problems, 59
social mobility, 39
UK, 70
social justice, capabilities approach, 5, 7
social mobility, 39
social model, 2, 32
health/impairment/disability, distinction between, 3
health inequalities conceptualisation, 3 socio-economic factors, 23–4, 67–70, 103–4 discrimination, see discrimination health promotion, factors influencing, 88–9
interventions, 104
minority ethnic status and, 18–19, 22, 71 prevalence rate, 22
social adversities, 70–5
socio-economic inequalities, and health, 104 socio-economic position (SEP), 73 autism and, 73–5
implications, 71–3
methodological considerations, 72 risk of exposure to environmental adversities, 37 speech functions, 61 spotlight indicators, 9, 17
Stepping Stones Triple-P intervention, 99–100 substance use, 80, 91 health inequality reduction, 90–1 substantial freedoms, 5 capability model, 5, 8
measurement of, 6
physical activity, 6
surveys (health), 43–5
adults, 44–5
children, 44
large-scale, 43–5
methodological challenges, 44
sampling
general population, 45
intellectual disabilities, participants with, 44–5
secondary analysis, 43
tobacco taxation, 102
‘transition cliff’, 42
Triple-P behavioural family intervention, 99–100

UK
administrative records, 46
children, health status, 53, 58
disability prevalence, 31, 46
general health status, 53–8 GP’s financial incentives, 46 legislation, 86
mortality and life expectancy, 49, 51
policy, central capabilities, 9
reasonable adjustments, 86
social determinants of poor health, 70 well-being indicators, 34–5
UN Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities (UNCRPD), 11, 32, 69 underweight, 79
unmet health needs, identification of, 77 urban vs rural population, prevalence rates, 21 USA, incidence rates of intellectual disability, 20
vaccination, 97
validity, well-being measurement, 34 valuable capabilities, central domains of life, 11 ‘visible minority’, 42–3, 113, 116
voice and speech functions, 61
weight reduction, 87–90
well-being, 33–5
measurement, 33–4
sensitivity and validity, 34–5 social policy, implications for, 34–5 WHO
definition of health, 32
disability as a human rights issue, 68–9 ICD, 27, 46
quality-of-life framework, 11
women, genitourinary/reproductive functions, 63 working conditions, 70–8, 101–2