

INDEX

Note: references to America are entered as such; other references concern London or Britain.

- Abercrombie, Professor Patrick, 21, 53, 135, 148n
- advisory plans for London, 21–3, 135
- aldermen of LCC, 16, 138n
- allocation of public goods
- decision-making as problem of, 151, 152, 154
  - efficiency judgements relate to, 169, 170–2
- Almond, G., and S. Verba: The Civic Culture by, 98, 99
- amenity, 134n–135n
- planning tradition concerned with, 22, 133, 134–5, 148
- American cities, 5–6, 7
- bargaining in, 123, 124, 140, 167
  - bureaucrats in, need to consider their standing with citizens, 139
  - cleavages between citizens in, 78n, 80, 84–9 passim, 176
  - councilors in, constrained by constituents' views, 74, 76, 130, 137
  - land use politics in, 165–7
  - litigation in local government affairs in, 59n
  - local government arbitrates rather than initiates in, 166
  - participation by citizens of, 94–5, 98, 99, 100–1, 165–6
  - patronage in, 120
  - pluralistic concept of public interest in, 124, 132
  - political parties in, 110
  - uncertainty of political environment in, 4, 5, 114–15, 140, 167
  - zoning in, 13
- analytical mode, in organizational coordination, 3–4, 167
- anti-urban attitude, traditional in planning, 133, 134–5, 161
- applicants for planning permission, 25n, 156–8
- appeals by, 25
  - constraints to be observed by, 141, 143–5, 149, 150
  - guaranteed legal standing at inquiries, 104
  - negotiations between planning authority and, 141–5
- architects
- as negotiators for developers, 63
  - planners with experience as, 163–4
- architectural/aesthetic dimension of planning, 18, 22–3, 135
- Ashworth, William: The Genesis of Modern British Town Planning by, 18
- auditors (District Auditors) of local authority accounts, 112
- autonomy
- of elected representatives, 75–8, 113, 115, 127, 137; acceptance of, in political culture, 96–7, 126; consonant with role of deliberator, and holistic concept of public interest, 128
  - limited, of local authorities, 111, 112
  - of planning authority, 148
- bargaining mode, in organizational coordination, 3–4, 118
- link between uncertainty of political environment and, 167
  - resources of developers for, 144
  - unacceptable in London, 122, 123; lack of 'items' to bargain over, 127
  - usual in America, 123, 124, 140
- Barlow Commission, 146–7
- anti-urban bias of, 135
  - and central area of London, 53
  - and distribution of industry, 20–1, 22
- Beer, S.: British Politics by, 97
- Beveridge Committee, on social insurance, etc., 21
- bribery, in planning cases, 144
- building licences, ending of (1954), 54
- business v. social improvement interests in municipal politics
- in America, 84–5, 86n
  - in London, 50, 85–7, 176
- car ownership, increase in, 87
- and scheme for World's End site, 43
- case studies, 6, 10–11

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-13453-8 - Politics and Land Use Planning: The London Experience

Stephen L. Elkin

Index

More informationIndex

- central area of city
 business interests and, 84-7, 176
 growth of office space in, 170-1 planning in, 53-6
 traffic problem in, 55, 87, 150
- central government
 attitude of, to London, 13, 15
 large share of, in decisions, limits organization of local interest groups, 109-10 and local authorities, 109-13, 114; and local authority finance, 86, 134n planning permission not needed by Ministries of, 25
 social services provided by, 177
- Centre Point tower block, 73; see also St Giles Circus
- certainty of political environment high level of, in London, 4-5, 77, 91-2, 114, 140; linked to autonomy of councilors, 129, 137, and to delegation of authority and deliberative behavior, 5, 118, 167; possible effects of reduction in, 160-1 low level of, in America, 4, 5, 114-15, 140; linked to bargaining, 167
- Chambers of Commerce, 50, 101, 102
- Chelsea, 27-8
 Conservative majority on Council of, 28, 32
 Cremorne Estate in, 33, 35, 36, 39, 148
 housing in, 31-2
 Lots Road area in: open space in, 148; zoned as industrial, but could be rezoned as residential, 41, 45-6, and combined with World's End area, 42, 43, 44-5, 47 merged with Kensington (1965), 46n, 51-2
 World's End housing scheme in, see World's End
- Chelsea Society, not represented at World's End inquiry, 49-50
- Chicago, number of employees of city of, 18
- cities, as dynamic organizations with inter-dependency as key factor, 152
- citizens
 cleavages between, 78, 94; see also ethnic groups, neighbourhood, political parties, social class hierarchical and collectivist attitudes of, 96-7 interest groups among, see interest groups market system as means of ascertaining preferences of, 184-5 participation of, in politics, see participation sharedness and intensity of opinions of, 178
- City of London, 13, 15-16
 advisory plan for, 21n
- Cole, Margaret: Servant of the County by, 13, 76n
- comprehensive development areas (CDAs), under 1947 Act, 24, 26
- possibility of declaring St Giles Circus as, 58n, 60, 61, 114
- Comptroller's Department of LCC (finance), and St Giles Circus schemes, 60, 61, 69, 145
- compulsory purchase orders
 alternative to (St Giles Circus), 58 required by CDA designation, 59
 used as threat: by developers to owners of land, 72; by LCC to developer, 71n
- consensus
 in analytical mode of organizational coordination, 3 in London planning, 137, 146, 153; advisory plans pave way for, 22; difficulties with, 159-60, 163-4 in London politics, 7
- Conservative Party
 attitudes of councilors of, to planning, 136 control Chelsea Borough Council, 28, 32
 on LCC (Municipal Reform Party), 16n
 voting for, 88
- cost-benefit calculations
 on delegation by councilors, 129-31, 138
 on distribution of public goods, 173, 176-7 on value of extensive analysis of ends and means in economic rationality, 181-2
- councilors (elected members) of LCC, 16 attendance record of, 129
 autonomy of, see under autonomy behavior thought appropriate for, 122, 123
 of both parties, involved in decisions, 117
 cost-benefit calculations on delegation by, 129-31, 138
 deliberative role of, see deliberation election of: (1961), 87-8; election little dependent on personal reputation, 107; elected as party men, 119-20, not in neighbourhood interests, 80-1 holistic concept of public interest held by, 124-5; consonant with autonomy and deliberative role, 128 motives for candidatures of, 129
 no publicity for, 130
 partnership of officers and, 117
 recruitment of, 76, 137
 seek support inside Council rather than from constituents, 107 social class of, 138
 unpaid, 17, 130, 137
- County of London, 13, 21; map, 14
 advisory plan for, 21-3
- credit squeeze, 31
- data, lack of machinery for gathering and analysing, 22-3, 159, 160, 164

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-13453-8 - Politics and Land Use Planning: The London Experience

Stephen L. Elkin

Index

More informationIndex

- decision-making (choosing) in American cities, 5–6; process public, and citizens participate, 100–1 collective, 8, 10, 151n, and non-collective, 185–6 competitive quality of, 153
 deliberation, bargaining, and inducements in, 118 economic rationality compared with other methods of, 183 efficiency and economizing concerned with problems of, 151 extensive analysis of ways and means in, 182 internal disagreements in, 145–6
 not a party matter as a rule, 121, 122, 126
 as problem of allocation of scarce resources, 151, 152, 154 process of, not open to newspapers, 105, 106
 small numbers involved in, 116
- delegation of authority, to planning officers, or subset of councilors and officers, 3–4, 118 association of, with reaching decisions by deliberation, 5, 118, 167, and with willingness of party members to acquiesce in decisions of party leaders, 119 cost–benefit calculations on, 129–31, 138 effective as long as concept of public interest is shared, 139
- deliberation as method of reaching decisions, 4 association of, with delegation of authority, 5, 118, 167, and with certainty of political environment, 5, 167 consonant with autonomy, 128 implies dominance of those with expertise, 132, and existence of standards, 123 requires freedom from constraints of promoting constituents' interests, 123
see also role
- density of population
 in advisory plans, 22
 in Chelsea, 27; in Chelsea housing scheme, 35–49 passim differences of opinion on, 136
 in Development Plan, 23–4, 135, 146n, 147
 effect of limitation of, on council housing, 174, 175n pressure for increase in standards of, 32–3, 157
 zoning for, see zoning
- depressed areas, 20, 53
- developers, commercial bargaining resources of, 144
 and density, 32
 goal of (profit), 156–7, 158
 not involved in local politics, 144
 at St Giles Circus, see under St Giles Circus seek to vary standards, 141
- development charge (1947 Act), 23
 abolished (1953), 54
- development control, 9, 25
 to enforce Development Plan, 155 impact of, on working-class housing, 173–5 procedures of: explain land use patterns to limited extent only, 168; not designed for consideration of alternative proposals, 154–5
- Development Corporations, for new towns, 26
Development Plan for London, 23–6, 32, 141 anti-urban bias underlying, 135 attitude of LCC to views of different groups on, 101–2 based on professional criteria, 148n budget with, 134
 and central area, 53–4
 in Chelsea inquiry, 47, 48
 development control to enforce, 155
 little discussion of interdependency in, 154 Metropolitan Boroughs involved in making, 157
 overspill in, 86
 St Giles Circus scheme and, 59, 61
 standards established in, 146
 zoning in, 131
- distribution of public goods, 169, 172–7
- economic growth
 concern of business men with, in America, 84, 85
 planning officers and (London), 85 economizing (economic rationality), ability to choose means to obtain ends, 149–53 applicants relatively successful at, 156
 planning and, 178–9
- education
 central finance and local practice in, 111 participation of parents in, Britain and America, 100 for participation in politics, Britain and America, 98, 99
- Education Committee of LCC, 17
- efficiency, definitions of, 150, 151–2
- efficiency judgements, relating to allocation, 169, 170–2
- Electricity Board, London (1950), 76
- engineers, planners with experience as, 163–4
 Engineer's Department, LCC, and road layout at St Giles Circus, 58, 64–9 passim, 145
- ethnic groups in municipal politics
 in America, 78n
 in London, 78–80
- ethos, Anglo-Saxon Protestant middle-class: emphasizes 'good government', not politics, 125
- Euston Centre, no public discussion on, 2

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-13453-8 - Politics and Land Use Planning: The London Experience

Stephen L. Elkin

Index

More informationIndex

- expanded towns, under 1947 Act, 26
- expertise
 arising out of job experience, 162n delegation to those with perceived, 132, 140
 and economizing mentality, 153
 LCC respect for groups with, 101, 103
- Forshaw, J. H., chief architect, LCC, 21n, 135
- garden city movement, 20, 135
- Gas Board, London (1950), 16
- Greater London, advisory plan for, 21, 22
- Greater London Council (GLC), succeeds LCC, ix-x institutes scheme for purchase of council houses by tenants, 90n planning under, 91, 164
 as traffic authority for London, 55n
- green belt, in advisory plan, 22
- ground rent
 from developer to local authority, 64n
 for St Giles Circus site, 71
- highways, in advisory plan, 26
- hospitals, administration of, 113
- households: size of, and housing demand, 29
- housewives, on LCC, 137-8
- housing
 council: in America (public housing), 87, 89-90; beneficiaries of, 84, 173-5; density controls could be relaxed for, 147; general acceptance of government obligation to provide, 90; as percentage of total built, London and New York, 172; rents of, 50n, 90, 108-9; sites of, 88-9; state subsidies for, 19, 31; tenants' associations in, 94-5 emphasis on, in planners' thinking, 171-2 improvement of, by owner occupiers, Chelsea, 27, 31, 33, 48-9
 some of central area rezoned for (1955), 54 supply of, and demand for: Chelsea, 31-2, 47-8; London (1951-61), 28-31
 Housing Committee of LCC, 104
- immigrants, colored: in London, 79-80, 91n
- implementation, problem of, 184
- industry: dispersal of, from central London, 53
- information on planning activities
 lack of, hinders public participation, 105-8, 129
see also newspapers
- interest aggregation, in political parties, 83-4
- interest groups in municipal politics
 American councilors elected to represent, 137
 cleavages between, London and America, 78-91
- functional and pressure, 101-3
 high predictability in demands of, 91-2, 114 influence of, limited by large share of central government in decisions, 109-10 limited in activity, 3, extent of organization, 92-3, and number, 94
- interviewing, x-xi, 6, 7, 11
- Irish in London, 79
- Islington Borough Council, proposed housing development by, 2-3
- Joseph, Sir Keith, Minister of Housing and Local Government, 32, 40
- Kensington, Chelsea combined with, in Metropolitan area reorganization, 46n, 51-2
- Labour Party
 control LCC (1934-65), 16n
 housing allocation by LCC under, 84, 175
 voting for, 88
- land for housing, scarcity of, 29
- Leader of LCC, 17, 119
 in St Giles Circus case, 116
- legal structure of planning machinery, not favourable to public participation, 103-5
- litigation
 on acquisition of land at St Giles Circus, 59, 62, 63, 64, 70 less common in local government affairs in Britain than in America, 59n
- local authorities (county boroughs, county councils) auditing of accounts of, 112
 central government and, 109-13; and finances of, 86, 134n percentage of population attempting to influence, Britain and America, 98 planning departments of, 23 politics of, emphasize solution of problems rather than management of conflicts, 167
- Local Employment Act (1960), assists manufacturers to move to depressed areas, but not offices, 53
- Local Government Acts: (1888), 13, 16; (1894, 1899), 15
- London, 13
 concept of planning in, 153-6
 idea of limiting growth of, 19-20, 20-1, 22, 26 movement of population out of, 87
see also central area, City of London, County of London, Development Plan, Metropolitan Boroughs, etc.
- London County Council (LCC), 13
 as advocate in negotiations, 9 appeals from decisions of, 25-6

Index

- central government and, 15, 112n
and Chelsea Borough Council, 28, 31; and World's End site, 35–48 passim
committees of, 16–17; chairmen of, 119
and density standards, 32
as housing authority, 84, 157, 172, 175
leadership of, 17, 119
and Ministry of Housing, 24–5, 148–9
planning under, largely tied to housing situation, 159
and problems of choice in development, 168
and St Giles Circus development, 56–73
passim
succeeded by GLC, ix–x
see also councilors of LCC, officers of LCC
London County Council Staff Association, 18
London Government Act (1965), 46n
London roads, Nugent Committee on, 69n
London Trades Council, 102n
London Transport Board (1933), 16, 113
and Lots Road power station, 44, 47
and St Giles Circus development, 70
- majority opinion, in political culture, 96, 97
market in land use, 142
advantages of, to planning authority, 184–5
planning meant to replace or supplement, 151
relation between planning and, 9, 170, 181
Marriott, Oliver: The Property Boom by, 2, 63n, 71n, 73n
Metropolitan Board of Works, 13
Metropolitan Boroughs, 15
applications for planning permission by, 25, 141, 143
and density standards, 32, 157
and housing, 157, 158, 172
involved in making Development Plan, 157
local politics in newspapers of, 108n Metropolitan Boroughs Standing Joint Committee, 32, 157
Metropolitan Water Board (1902), 16
middle class
in Chelsea, 27
impact of development control on, 91, 175–6
on LCC, 125n, 138
voting by, 88
Ministry of Housing and Development Plan, 24, 148n
and local authorities, 111, 114
and LCC, 24–5, 148–9
rezones some of central area as residential 54
and St Giles Circus, 61, 62
and World's End scheme, 40, 41–2, 44–5, 149
Ministry of Transport, traffic authority for London area, 55n, 56
and finance of St Giles Circus roads, 58
one-way scheme of, and St Giles Circus roundabout, 72
Municipal Reform Party (Conservatives), on LCC, 16n
neighbourhood interests in municipal politics, America and London, x, 80–1, 83, 176
new towns, 22, 26
newspapers
decision-making process not open to, 105, 106
lack information on London municipal politics, 105
national focus of, 108
officers and councilors not to give information
tc, 106–8
Nordlinger, E.: The Working-Class Tories by, 96–7
Nugent Committee, on London roads, 69n
office buildings
best commercial investment, 65
boom in building of, 54, 171 employment in, not necessarily increased as much as space, 55–6, 150n LCC policy to restrain amount of, in central area, 55, 56, 148
post-war planning and, 53–4; 1947 Act allows 10% increase in, 60
at St Giles Circus, 60–1, 65, 66, 150
officers of LCC (local government civil servants), 16, 17–18
see also planners
open space, 24n
application of professional criteria on, 148
in Chelsea, 27, 28; in Chelsea housing schemes, 36, 37, 44, 45, 47, 142
in Development Plan, 147
effect of increase of, on council housing, 174 organizations, analytical and bargaining modes of coordination in, 3–4, 118
Oxford Street Association, 85n–86n Parliament, and London, 13, 15
participation by citizens in politics in America, 6; self-interest dominant motive for, 165–6
none in World's End case until inquiry, 74
not encouraged by legal structure of planning, 103–5, planning administration, 102, 108–9, political structure, 103, or shortage of information on planning activities, 105–8
political culture and, Britain and America, 94–5, 100
probable effects of increase in, x, 11–12, 187
socialization of children and, Britain and America, 98–9

Index

- patronage, 118
 in London involves only unpaid posts on committees and boards, 120
- planners, planning officers, 8, 18
 autonomy of, 3
 chairmen of LCC committees in contact with, 119 delegation of authority to, 74–5, 187
 developers and, 143
 LCC Planning Committee and, 136, 145
 as major participants in decisions, 116–18
 not to speak to press, 106
 partnership between councilors and, 117;
 councilors do not publicly criticize, 105;
 councilors willing to defer to, 121;
 councilors share concept of public interest with, 132–3 role of, 155–6, 158–61
 training and attitudes of, 139, 147, 152, 156
 trust in, 133
- planning, 1–2, 7–8
 as attempt to improve performance of public organizations, 180 authority and concentration of influence required for, 11–12 concept of, in London, 153–6 confined to physical, as opposed to social and economic aspects, 109, 133–4 early history of, 18–21; tradition in (anti-urban and concerned with civic amenity), 133, 134–5 meant to replace or supplement a market system, 151
 as a profession, 162–4
 as purposive behavior, 151
- planning authority, LCC, 23 advantages of private market forces to, 184–5 autonomous (except where Ministry of Housing involved), 2, 148 in negotiations: with applicants for planning permission, 141–5; with developers, 75; made concessions because of indecision on its own aims, 142, 149
- Planning Committee, LCC, 3, 17, 104, 105 acts by reviewing and modifying recommendations of planners, 74, 75
 Chairman of, 119; in World's End case, 36, 37, 41, 135, 140, 145
 disagreements between planners and, 136, 145
 'particular' interests on, 125
 and St Giles Circus scheme, 68
- planning permission, 9
 attaches to land, not to applicant, 144n compensation for revocation of, 54 decisions on applications for, 141
 public inquiry on refusal of, 25–6, 40n, 104
- plans for London, see advisory plans, Development Plan
- plot ratio (relation of floor space to land area), 55, 64
 in St Giles Circus scheme, 65, 57, 70
- police, administration of, 113
- policy, public
 efficiency in, 170–2
 distribution in, 172–7
 outputs and outcomes of, 168–9 as product of conscious choice of ends and means, or as aggregation of interests, 1 representativeness of, 177–8
- political culture
 attitudes of, on participation by citizens, Britain and America, 94–5, 100 differences between, Britain and America, 101n evidence of changes in, x importance of 'political deference' (trust in authority) in, 96–7
- political parties
 American: decentralized and non-programmatic nature of, 110
 class voting for, 88
 differences between, and cooperation between, on planning, 136 disciplined and hierarchical, 119–20; loyalty and strong organization important in, 97, 107 expect autonomy in elected representatives, 76; representatives described as belonging to, 77, 113 interest aggregation in, 83–4
 on LCC, 119–22, 139–40
 long and effective service to, as means of advancement (in unpaid positions), 120
 as main cleavage between citizens, 78 not usually involved in planning decisions, 121, 122, 126
see also Conservative Party, Labour Party
- politics
 full-time occupation in America, 166
 public purposes as principal currency of, 187 relation of planning and, 1–2
- population of London area changes in, 26, 27n, 28–9
 density of, see density of population idea of limiting the size of, 21, 22
 target for, in Development Plan, 24, 176n
- Port of London Authority (1908), 16
- power station (Lots Road, Chelsea), in housing schemes, 37, 38, 39, 57
 proposed modernization of, 41, 44, 46
- private enterprise
 government attitude towards, 29n–30n
 in housebuilding, 29; in Chelsea, 31

Index

- professions, client-controlled and colleague-controlled, 162–3
- public inquiries
 on Chelsea housing scheme, 46–9
 on Development Plan, 25
 on refusal of planning permission, 25–6, 40n, 104
- public interest
 delegation of authority dependent on shared view of, 139 holistic concept of, 124–5, 128; shared by planners and councilors, 132–3, and by American planners, 132, and reformers, 124
 pluralistic concept of, held by American councilors, 124, 132
- public utilities
 administration of, 113
 and planning authority, 25
- purchase notice
 by owner of land unable to obtain ‘reasonably beneficial use’ owing to refusal or conditions of planning permission, 60n threat of, used to extract concessions, 144
- rates, 15
 as percentage of household income for different income groups, 177
 redistribution of, between London boroughs, 81–3
- rationality, ix
 economic (economizing), 149–53, 178–9, 181;
 cost–benefit calculations on extensive analysis of ends and means in, 181–2;
 costs and benefits of, as compared with other ways of making societal choices, 183; variable success of different organizations in, 182–3
- legal, 180
 planning and, 10, 11
 political, 179–80, 180–1, 186
- rents for council housing, 50n, 90, 108–9
- representativeness, of local authority decisions, 177–8
- representatives, elected, see councilors
- role of deliberator, 123, 126, 138, 145; autonomy and holistic concept of public interest consonant with, 128; implies deference to expertise, and hence delegation, 132; political realities consonant with, 124, 128
 of planners, 155–6, 158–61
- Royal Fine Arts Commission, and St Giles Circus development, 70n
- St Giles Circus
 in Development Plan, 56, 59, 61, 62, 65; map, 57; in London Traffic Congestion, 56, 58
- Engineer’s Department of LCC and road lay-out at, 58, 64–9 passim, 145
- LCC sets about acquiring land for roundabout under old legislation, 58–9, 63; resulting litigation, 61, 62, 63; developer and litigants, 64, 70
- no organized group arguing against decision to develop, 74
- office space at, 60–1, 65, 66, 142; permission to increase, contrary to policy of reducing traffic congestion, 150
- planners want to leave island unbuilt on, 60, 138, 148, 149
- plot ratio at, 64, 65, 66–7, 70
- possibility of CDA at, 58n, 59, 60, 61, 114
- private developer considered by LCC, 60, 61, 62; negotiations with developer, 63–4; developer to provide land for roads in exchange for liberal planning permission, 64–5, and 150-year building lease (with no arrangements for revising ground rent), 71; development scheme submitted (24-storey block), 65; scheme revised with wider roads on two sides and 30-storey block, 66–7, 68; further revision for 50-ft roads all round and 34-storey block, 69; final stages of negotiations, 70–2; roundabout made useless by one-way traffic system, 72; building completed, tower block unlet, 73; developer’s profit, 73; planning authority not successful bargainer with developer, 75
- satellite towns, 20
- school, in World’s End site, 38
- Scott Committee, on land utilization in rural areas, 21
- Sharpe, L. J.: A Metropolis Votes by, 87, 88
- slum clearance, 30, 175
- social class of candidates for LCC, 138
 limited impact of, on housing policy, 87–9, 91
 as main cleavage in electorate (expressed in political parties), 78, 113 and voting, 88
- social dimension of planning, 18–19, 22
- social science, increasing number of planners with background of, 163–4
- social status: demonstration of superior, more difficult in America than in Britain, 89
- socialization of children: involves less questioning of authority, and less concern for participation, in Britain than in America, 98, 99
- Special Areas Act (1934), 20
- standards: existence of, implied in process of deliberation, 123

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-13453-8 - Politics and Land Use Planning: The London Experience

Stephen L. Elkin

Index

More informationIndex

- suburban shopping centres, increased investment in, 87
- suburbanization, inter-war, 19
- taxation, by local authority, see rates
- Tottenham Court Road, one-way traffic in, 72–3
- Tottenham Court Road underground station, developer of St Giles Circus and, 70
- tower blocks
- Centre Point, 73
  - proposed for Chelsea World's End site, 37, 38n; power station and, 43, 45
- Town and Country Planning Acts
- (1932), 19
  - (1947), 23–6; allows 10% increase in office space, 60
  - (1954), and compensation for revocation of planning permission, 54
  - (1959), applicant for planning permission has to show that owners know of application, 64n, 144n
  - (1968), detailed proposals to be submitted within 3 years of outline permission, 144n
- Town and Country Planning Association, 53n
- Town Planning Act (1909), 18; revision (1919), 19
- Town Planning section of Architect's Department, LCC, 18
- trade union leaders, on LCC, 138
- trading estates, 20
- traffic
- congestion of, in central London, 55, 87
  - policy of reducing, contradicted by permission for increased office space, St Giles Circus, 150
- Traffic Advisory Committee for London and Home Counties (1924), 16
- Uthwatt Committee, on compensation and betterment, 21
- Valuer's Department, LCC, 64, 69
- voting behavior: social basis of, similar in London and national elections, 87–8
- war damage, areas of, 21, 26
- working class
- in Chelsea, 27
  - impact of development control on housing for, 173–5
  - planning as means of improving conditions of, 18, 22
  - representatives of, on LCC, 138
  - voting by, 88
- World's End section of Chelsea, project for housing in, 33–5; map, 34
- application for development of, discussed with LCC, 35–8; rejected, 38–40
  - attitudes towards, 40
  - environmental standards involved in decisions on, 123
  - LCC members for Chelsea and, 126–7
  - new scheme for, 41–4; Ministry of Housing calls in application, 44–5; revised scheme, 45–6; inquiry on, 46–50; Minister refuses permission, 51; best features of two schemes combined, and result accepted, 51–2
  - public not involved in, until inquiry, 74
  - question of density in, 35–40, 42–3, 142, 149, 172
  - question of open space in, 36, 37, 44, 45, 47, 142
  - question of rents in, 50, 108–9
- zoning, for residential or industrial use, and for residential density
- in America, 131
  - in central area, 54
  - in Development Plan, 24, 131, 146n; followed existing uses, 23, 171
  - of Lots Road area, Chelsea, 41, 45–6