Contents

List of tables
Preface

1 Introduction

PART I ECONOMIC THEORY

2 The theory of a self-managed economy
   2.1 Assumptions and definitions
   2.2 Decision-making in the competitive self-managed firm
   2.3 General equilibrium effects
   2.4 The self-managed monopolist
   2.5 From theory to applied work
   Mathematical appendix to Chapter 2

3 The Yugoslav environment
   3.1 Introduction
   3.2 National characteristics
   3.3 The ‘legacies’
   3.4 Economic environments since 1952
Table of Contents

PART 2 YUGoslav PRACTICE

4 Yugoslav industrial structure

4.1 Introduction

4.2 Yugoslav industrial structure in 1958: the heritage

4.3 Changes in industrial structure, 1958–72

4.4 Overall concentration

4.5 Summary and conclusions

Appendix A: Yugoslav industrial structure

5 Some consequences of self-management

5.1 Introduction

5.2 Yugoslav earnings dispersion, 1956–75

5.3 Incomes and capital–labour ratios

5.4 Yugoslav industrial growth, 1952–73

5.5 Summary

Appendix B: Yugoslav earnings dispersion

Appendix C: Yugoslav industrial growth

6 An explanation of Yugoslav income differentials

6.1 Introduction

6.2 The models

6.3 Methods of estimation

6.4 Estimating the models

6.5 Summary

Appendix D: earnings dispersion equations

7 Conclusions

Notes

Bibliography

Yugoslav Bibliography

Index