Learning vocabulary

A Using this book

It's a good idea to have a routine when you use this book [something you do often and usually in the same way]. For example:

- a weekly routine when you study a new unit for at least [not less than] 30-45 minutes;
- a daily routine when you revise that unit [study it again]. You may only need to revise for five or ten minutes each time.

1.1 Over to you

Write your answers.

- 1 How often can you spend at least half an hour or forty-five minutes on a unit?
- 2 How often can you revise? How much time can you spend when you revise? Where will you do i+2

B Studying a new unit

When you are studying a unit for the first time, you need to be active when you are learning.

- With a new word or phrase, say it aloud [speak it so you can hear it], and repeat it to yourself silently [in your head, not speaking]. If you have the CD-ROM that goes with the book, use it to check the pronunciation.
- Use a highlighter pen to mark words you think are important or difficult.
- Write down new words and phrases in your notebook. (See Unit 2 for more information.)
- Always try to write an example sentence for new words. You can choose an example from this book or a dictionary, but an example from your own life will often help you to remember a word, e.g. I shared a flat with an Australian girl when I was in London last year.
- Do exercises in pencil, then you can rub them out (using a rubber) and do them again later. This is a good way to revise vocabulary.

1.2 Over to you

Write your answers.

- 1 Which of these things do you do now when you are learning vocabulary?
- 2 What will you do in the future?

C Revising a unit

When you are revising a unit one or two days later, it is also important to be as active as possible.

- Test yourself, e.g. look at a word and cover the meaning. Can you remember what the meaning is? If you can't, check the meaning, then come back to the word in five minutes' time and test yourself again.
- Look at what you wrote in your notebook when you first studied the unit. Is there any new information you want to add, e.g. something about the pronunciation, or a common word partner? (See Unit 2.)
- Diagrams may help you to organise some of the vocabulary differently, and help you to remember it.

> Study unit 1.3 Ĺeťs take a Over to you Who took my pen? break now. Write your answers. Do you revise vocabulary that you study? If so, take how often? What size shoes I took notes do you take? 2 Will you try to revise more often in the future? during the If so, will you use some of the ideas above? lecture.

D Expanding* your vocabulary

- When you learn a word, e.g. dirty, think of synonyms (syn) [words with a similar meaning] or opposites (opp) in your language. Look them up in a bilingual dictionary to find the English words, then look up the English words in an English dictionary to check the meaning. From this, you will find that the opposite of dirty is clean, and you may also find filthy [very dirty]. *making something bigger
- 1.4 Using this method, find opposites for the words in bold.
 - 1 My room is very clean. opp dirty
 - 2 It's a permanent job. opp
 - 3 He was kind to all of his animals. opp
 - 4 Babies have very soft, smooth skin. opp
 - 5 Where's the entrance? opp
 - 6 Was the bird dead? opp
 - 7 Did they accept the invitation? opp
 - Building word families (see Units 69–71) will also help to expand your vocabulary. From a noun, verb or adjective, you can often find related words in the dictionary with a similar meaning. So, you can often learn two or three words, and not just one, e.g. argue v = have an angry discussion; n = argument.
- 1.5 Use a dictionary to find the related parts of speech for the words in bold.
 - 1 She gave me some advice. verb advise
 - 2 We mustn't argue. noun
 - 3 I will have to revise this unit. noun
 - 4 Is there a choice? verb
 - 5 I want to expand my vocabulary. noun
 - 6 The two boys are very different. nounverb
 - 7 They need to communicate more. nounadjadj
 - Try to read and listen to English as much as possible. The more you read and listen, the more you will learn. When you read, try to:
 - Highlight or underline interesting new words
 - Highlight words if they are familiar but you can't remember the meaning.
 - There is a lot of spoken English on the Internet which you can play again and again. Try to make a note of interesting words and look up the meaning.
- 1.6 Over to you

Now choose a unit that interests you. Study the left-hand page, then do the exercises in pencil. Wait for at least 24 hours, revise the unit, then answer these questions.

- 1 How many answers did you get right the first time?
- 2 How many answers did you get right the second time?

Keeping a vocabulary notebook

A

What do you do?

This is what some students do.

I write down new English words and phrases in my notebook, and next to each one I write a Spanish translation. I usually write down if a word is a noun, verb, adjective, and so on.

RAFAE

Z A 27110

I sometimes write a word in phonemics because English pronunciation is very difficult for me. But my notebook is a mess [nothing is in a good order; syn untidy]. I like to draw pictures.

EUN

ANDREY

I sometimes make a note of new words in my notebook, but I often forget [don't remember]. I usually write a translation, and sometimes I write example sentences as well.

I've got a notebook. I don't use it much but when I do, I try and list words by topic, so I put all the animals together, and all the clothes words together, and so on. I find it's easier to remember the words this way.

I note down new words and phrases. Sometimes I translate them into Polish,

DONATA

English if it is not difficult. For example:

and sometimes I write an explanation [a description of what something means] in English if it is not difficult. For example: kitten a very young cat

B Tips for your notebook

A tip is a piece of advice to help you. Here are some tips for your notebook.

- Put words from one topic in the same place, e.g. food in one place, clothes in another, etc. Don't mix them up [put them together with no order]. You can also have grammar topics, e.g. 'uncountable nouns', or a page for words that all have a connection, e.g. words and phrases that were all in a story you read in English. Some words and phrases will go in more than one topic.
- If you can't find a topic for a new word or phrase, e.g. useful or in particular, put them in a different place in your notebook, e.g. a page for each day or each week, or perhaps one page for every English lesson you have. Write the date clearly at the top, e.g. Monday 14th May.
- When you write down new vocabulary, write a translation if it is necessary [you need it; opp unnecessary], but also write the meaning in English if it is possible, or draw pictures.
- If possible, add synonyms, opposites, other parts of speech, etc. (See Unit 1.) awful adj = terrible (syn dreadful) enjoy v =like something and get pleasure from it n =enjoyment adj =enjoyable

• Example sentences help you with the grammar of a word, or with word partners (collocations).

I enjoy living in a big city. (NOT I enjoy to live in a big city.) (See Units 87–8.) I spent two weeks in Rome. (NOT I passed two weeks in Rome. You spend time in a place.) (See Unit 74.)

• Remember, words often have more than one meaning that you need to know, e.g. a tip is also money that you give, for example, to a waiter for serving you in a restaurant.

Exercises

2 Study

2.1 Organise the words into the topics below. One word can go in two different topics. Use a dictionary to help you.

 $\frac{\text{diet}}{\text{raw}}$ branch lay the table count v dig v ground flour add up raw leaf minus butcher thousand frozen zero butterfly

food	garden	numbers
diet

- 2.2 Explain these words in English, or draw a picture, or if you think an explanation is too difficult and a drawing is not possible, write a translation instead.
 - 1 raw not cooked
 2 dig
 3 butcher
 4 leaf
 5 flour
 6 lay the table
 7 add up
- 2.3 What information could you include with these words? The answers are all on the opposite page.
 - 1 forget opposite remember
 2 awful
 3 necessary
 4 translate
 5 tip
 6 enjoy
- 2.4 Over to you

Answer the questions. If possible, compare your answers with someone else.

- 1 Look again at what the students said on the opposite page. What are the good things that they do? Underline them.
- 2 Do you do all of these things?
- 3 Is there anything you don't do now, but will do in the future?
- 4 At the moment, which person's notebook is most like your notebook?
- 5 What are the most useful tips on the opposite page for you?

Using a dictionary

A What dictionaries do I need?

A bilingual dictionary [using two languages] is easy for you to understand, and quick and easy to use. A dictionary in English will give you reading practice in English and many more examples of how words are used. If possible, use both. These are good dictionaries in English for your level, and most of them are available online:

Cambridge Learner's Dictionary

Longman Active Study Dictionary

Macmillan Essential Dictionary

B Information in dictionaries

If you look up a word [find a word in a dictionary] using the Cambridge Learner's Dictionary, the information is shown like this:

I knee	2 comb	3 castle	4 salmon	5 receipt
	WALLANDINI			RECEIPT NE DATE OF TO SERVICE

C Defining words

'Defining words' are words that dictionaries use when they define [explain] the words in the dictionary. Some of these are quite common.

emphasise [give something more attention and importance], e.g. My teacher has always emphasised the importance of writing down new words in a notebook. relating to or connected to/with [having a relationship with someone or something], e.g. musical is connected with / related to music amount [how much there is of something], e.g. £5 million is a large amount of money. official [done by the government or someone in authority], e.g. A passport is an official document. behave [do or say things in a particular way], e.g. People can behave strangely when they're nervous.

Using a dictionary

- When you use a dictionary to check the meaning of a word, put a tick (✓) next to it. Each time you return to a page with a tick, see [find out] if you remember the word.
- When you meet a new word or phrase in a text, first try to guess the meaning [try to think of the meaning when you don't know it]. Then, use a dictionary to see if your guess was correct
- Don't just read the dictionary definition. Example phrases and sentences show you how a word or phrase is used, and they help you to understand the meaning more clearly.
- If you look up a word in a bilingual dictionary and get two or three different translations, check these words in an English dictionary to see which translation is the best one for the situation.
- Remember that many words have more than one meaning. The first meaning in the dictionary is not always the one you want. You may need to read through the different meanings.

3.4 Answer the questions, and use an English dictionary to check the answers.

- What does puppy mean? It's a very young dog.
 Is the correct spelling organize or organise?
 What part of speech is extremely?
 What kind of noun is advice?
 What preposition follows the verb rely?
 Look up friend, and then the words in bold that are often used with it. Can you complete these phrases? She's an ______ friend; he's my _____ friend; you _____ friends with people.
- 3.5 Match the sentences on the right with the different meanings of post on the left.

post¹/poust/noun 1 SYSTEM [no plural] UK (US mail) the system for sending letters, parcels, etc Your letter is in the post. ○ I'm sending the documents by post. ○ 2 LETTERS [u] UK (US mail) letters, parcels, etc that you send or receive Has the post arrived/come yet? ○ 3 JOB [c] formal a job a part-time post ○ a teaching post 4 POLE [c] a long, vertical piece of wood or metal fixed into the ground at one end I found the dog tied to a post.

- 1 He's applied for a post overseas.
- 2 Did you send the cheque by post?
- 3 I tied the flag to a post.
- 4 We haven't had any post yet.

English language words

Α

Parts of speech

66 I have a brown leather chair by the window, and I often sit there in the morning to read the paper.

In the sentence above, I is a pronoun; chair, window, morning and paper are all nouns; have, sit and read are verbs; brown and leather are adjectives; often is an adverb; by is a preposition; the is a definite article; a is an indefinite article; and is a conjunction or link word.

Here are two more examples:

66We saw an elephant at the zoo yesterday.99

Elephant and zoo are nouns; saw is a verb; at is a preposition; an is an indefinite article; the is a definite article.

66It was a cold night, so I walked quickly.">

Was and walked are verbs; cold is an adjective; night is a noun; quickly is an adverb; so is a link word.

B Grammar

When you are learning vocabulary, you need to know certain things about different words; for example, if nouns are countable, e.g. books, apples, chairs; or uncountable, e.g. information (NOT informations), advice (NOT advices). (See Unit 86.) With verbs, you need to know if they are regular, e.g. work, live, etc; or irregular, e.g. go/went, take/took. You will also need to learn the grammar of phrasal verbs, e.g. take something off, wake up. (See Units 79–80.)

You also need to learn certain groups of words as phrases, e.g. at the moment, never mind, see you later. (See Units 75–6.)

C Word building

In the word uncomfortable, un- is a prefix, and -able is a suffix. Other common prefixes include in- and dis-, e.g. incorrect and dislike. Common suffixes include -ment and -ive, e.g. improvement and attractive. (See Units 69–71.)

D Pronunciation

Dictionaries show the pronunciation of a word using phonemic symbols, e.g. book /buk/, before /bi'fɔi/, cinema /'sɪnəmə/.

Every word has one or more syllables, e.g. book has one syllable, before has two syllables, cinema has three syllables.

It is important to know which syllable to stress, e.g. on before it is the second syllable (be'fore), on cinema it is the first syllable ('cinema). The vertical mark 'shows where the stressed syllable begins.

E Punctuation

Every sentence must begin with a capital letter and end with a full stop. Some sentences have a comma, which often shows a pause [when you stop reading or speaking for a short time] in a long sentence. Did you also know that a question must end with a question mark?

B Parts of the world

The continents in the world are Europe, Africa, Asia, North America, South America, Australia [Australia and New Zealand] and Antarctica.

We also use these terms for different parts of the world:

the Middle East (e.g. United Arab Emirates, Saudi Arabia), the Far East (e.g. Thailand, Japan), the Caribbean (e.g. Jamaica, Barbados), Scandinavia (Sweden, Norway, Denmark, Finland).

The people

When we are talking about people from a particular country, we add 's' to nationalities ending in '-i' or '-(i)an', but we need the definite article (the) for most others.

 $\left.\begin{array}{ll} Brazilians/Russians \\ Thais/Israelis \end{array}\right\} are \dots \qquad \begin{array}{ll} The \; British \, / \; The \; French \\ The \; Swiss \, / \; The \; Japanese \end{array}\right\} are \dots$

With both groups we can also use the word 'people', e.g. Brazilian people, British people, etc.
