

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-18429-8 - Justice, Political Liberalism, and Utilitarianism: Themes from

Harsanyi and Rawls

Edited by Marc Fleurbaey, Maurice Salles and John A. Weymark

Index

More information

Index

- absolute priorities. See also difference principle
 - granted in Rawls's approach, 5
 - Harsanyi's distaste for, 423
 - Harsanyi's skepticism about, 5
 - to the least advantaged social group, 72
 - within a liberal utilitarian code, 422–429
 - principles in Rawls's theory, 73–74
 - of Rawls, 413
- absolute welfare weights, 175, 176
- abstract analysis, 10
- act(s)
 - ex ante alternative as, 19
 - preference as a relation between, 206–207
- act utilitarianism
 - distinguishing from rule utilitarianism, 413
 - negative implementation effects, 417
 - optimal rule utilitarian moral code
 - compared to, 61
 - as a super-Machiavellistic morality, 413
 - theory of right, 222
- actions, morally good and bad, 78
- adaptive efficiency, 381–384
- adaptive preference formation, 281, 297–298
- adaptive preferences
 - nothing wrong with, 298
 - sour grapes as one aspect of, 297
- additive principle
 - for histories, 224
 - not deriving from preferencism, 225–226
- additivity, 224–226
- admissible profiles, 140
- admissible social evaluations, 140
- adulthood, allocating resources at the onset
 - of, 9. See also canonical moment
- advantage, 239–240
 - common currency of, 33–36
 - measuring, 81
 - quantitative measure of, 33
- advantaged, demonizing, 403
- Aggregation Theorem. See Harsanyi's Aggregation Theorem
- Agreement condition of Mongin, 209
- allocation rules, 37, 263
 - defined, 268, 269
 - in implementation theory, 37
 - rationalizing, 273
 - versus social rankings, 268
- allocations, computing values of, 277
- allocative efficiency, 381–385
- altruism, evolution of, 348
- altruistic preferences, 227
- ambitions, chances of success of, 292
- American cause, defenders of, 397
- ancients, liberty of, 390
- Anonymity, 180, 185, 193, 271
- antidictatorial social evaluation functional, 179
- appreciation for individual excellence and
 - superior performance, 76
- appropriateness, 377
- arbitrary basis, act perpetrated on, 392
- arbitrary interference
 - capacity for, 407
 - others lacking the capacity for, 398
 - possible, 58
 - vulnerability to, 393
- Aristotle, 296
- Arneson, Richard
 - evolution of thought, 8
 - index of primary goods, 35
 - personal responsibility, 7–9
 - Rawls, responsibility, and distributive justice, 80–107

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-18429-8 - Justice, Political Liberalism, and Utilitarianism: Themes from Harsanyi and Rawls

Edited by Marc Fleurbaey, Maurice Salles and John A. Weymark

Index

More information

436

Index

- Arneson, Richard (cont.)
 Rawls's account of merit and deservingness, 8
- Arrovian impossibilities, avoiding, 265
- Arrovian independence axiom. See Arrovian Independence of Irrelevant Alternatives Condition
- Arrovian Independence of Irrelevant Alternatives condition, 22, 152–153, 199, 271. See also Binary Independence of Irrelevant Alternatives; Independence of Irrelevant Alternatives
- Arrovian social choice theory axioms inspired by, 273 goal of, 264
 social aggregation procedure, 137
- Arrovian social welfare function, 20, 22, 36, 38, 141
- Arrow, Kenneth J. on determining the worst off, 35 modeling the social choice problem, 20 reaffirming ordinalism, 201
- Arrow-Pratt (absolute or relative) measure of risk aversion, 188
- Arrow's framework, as purely ordinal, 199
- Arrow's General Possibility Theorem.
See Arrow's impossibility theorem
- Arrow's impossibility theorem, 38, 198–199
- aspirations, adjusting to possibilities, 298
- assurance, giving to property owners, 418
- assurance effects. See expectation effects
- asymmetric bargaining, 342–347
- asymmetric case, 346–347
- attitudes toward risk, 425
- autarkic chooser, 360
- authority, granting over others, 378
- autistic approach, as constrained, 363
- average utilitarian rule, ranking lotteries, 14
- average welfare, maximizing, 133, 134
- avoidance and pursuit, 358
- axiomatic approach, to constructing social welfare orderings, 39
- axiomatic characterizations of welfarism, 150
- axiomatic systems, 113
- axiomatizations, 146
- axioms, bearing on social orderings, 270
- bad luck
 compensating for, 103
 initial opportunities and, 104
- badly off. See also disadvantaged; least advantaged class; poor and oppressed; worst off
- priority to, 104
- bargaining, in the original position, 317
- bargaining problem characteristics of, 44 simplest type of, 317 solutions to, 319–320, 342
- bargaining solution, 44, 45
- bargaining theory, 367–369
- Barry, Brian
 on want satisfaction, 40–41, 281–299
- basic liberties, 81
- basic moral rights, 415
- basic structural inequalities, 82
- basic structure of society, 80
- basins of attraction, 47 of equal sharing, 52 of evolutionary stable polymorphic states, 339
- Nash solution versus utilitarianism, 53
- bearers of moral attitudes, 78
- bearer's responsibility view of free will, 78
- beliefs
 abandonment of pure democracy of, 117 coherent sets incompatible between themselves, 115 converged upon as objective, 124 convergence in, 123
 as empirically grounded, 116 enlarging the set of core, 118 of high reliability, 122 intuitions as, 112 justifying axioms, 114 making coherent, 113
- benefits, equal sharing of, 372
- Bentham, Jeremy advocate of law representing a compromise of liberty, 395 on ipsedixism, 305 opposing the American cause in the 1770s, 395 rejecting the notion of freedom as nondomination, 398 utilitarian criterion, 288
- Berlin, Isaiah, 56, 391
- Bernoulli, Daniel, 223
- Bernoulli expected utility profiles, 146, 174, 181

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-18429-8 - Justice, Political Liberalism, and Utilitarianism: Themes from Harsanyi and Rawls

Edited by Marc Fleurbaey, Maurice Salles and John A. Weymark

Index

More information

Index

437

- Bernoulli hypothesis, 23, 148–149, 223. See also expectational concept implying risk neutrality about good, 231 objection to, 148, 232
 satisfying, 27, 145, 158
- Bernoulli utility function, 19, 145 attitudes toward risk captured by, 148 as continuous and state-independent, 146 unique up to a positive affine transform, 148
- Bert's case, 102–106
- best reply, 44
- betterness relation, 31
- Binary Independence of Irrelevant Alternatives, 152–153, 160. See also Arrovian Independence of Irrelevant Alternatives
- Binmore, Ken
 criticizing the use of the Harsanyi doctrine, 324–325
 defining a distinctive moral sort of rational choice, 416
 on equiprobability model, 422 on extended preferences, 235 modeling self-policing social contracts, 323
 as a modern Humean, 335
 on natural justice, 47
 naturalistic account of moral behavior, 337 naturalizing Harsanyi and Rawls, 303–332 on social evolution, 425 on symmetric empathy equilibrium, 328 theory of justice, 417 on utility theory among neoclassical economists, 416
- biological time, long run corresponding to, 328
- birth lottery, 130, 135
- Blackorby, Charles, 23, 136
- Blackstone, William, 395
- Bolker-Jeffrey expected utility theory, 28, 206, 207, 208
- Boolean algebra, 110
- Bowers v. Hardwick*, 285
- Bradley probability agreement theorem, 29
- Braithwaite, John, 390, 401
- Brandt, R. B., 111
- Broome, John
 Bernoulli hypothesis, 23 coherence among judgments of value, 241 identifying utilities with individual good or well-being, 181
 preference-based utilitarianism, 30, 221–237 probability agreement theorem, 27 standard objection to Harsanyi's theorems, 17 version of Harsanyi's social aggregation theorem, 28–29
- brute luck, 7, 87–88, 326
- budget sets, social ranking of distributions of, 272
- bureaucratic elite, 383
- calm judgements, 119
- calm passions, 229
- canonical moment, 86, 101 difference principle, 89–90 distributive principle, 89 version of the Rawlsian difference principle, 86
- capabilities, Sen's theory of, 7
- capacity for choice, restoring, 92
- cardinal noncomparable partition, 143
- cardinal unit-comparable function, 143
- cardinal unit-comparable plus partition, 144,
 163, 164
- cardinal utilities for game theory, 201
- cardinal utility functions, 307 comparing, 307
 required restriction, 425 utility gain or loss meaningful with, 13
- cardinality, 185
- Cardinality and Unit Comparability (CU),
 191, 194
- Carnap, Rudolf, as a subjectivist, 205
- cash lotteries
 preferences over, 131 risk neutral preferences over, 132
- Cato's Letters*, 389, 396
- causal explanation of preferences, 234
- causally empty situation, 235
- causes of intuitions, 109
- champagne tastes. See expensive tastes
- character planning, 298
- characterizations, 166
- choice(s)
 explaining in uncertain circumstances, 32 modern economic theory of, 242 responsibility for self-affecting, 96 rule-governed, 376
- choice and expectation, convergence of, 355
- choice-following, deficiencies in, 88
- choice-making, deficiencies in, 88
- choice-theoretic foundation for classical utilitarianism, 26

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-18429-8 - Justice, Political Liberalism, and Utilitarianism: Themes from Harsanyi and Rawls

Edited by Marc Fleurbaey, Maurice Salles and John A. Weymark

Index

More information

438

Index

- Cicero, 389
- citizens, not fearing other citizens, 398
- civil liberty, recognized by Paley, 400
- civil order, 378
- civil war, as a result of Rawls's theory, 72
- claim-rights
 - giving certain absolute priority, 414
 - never overridden by liberties, 428
 - as permissible strategies, 428–429
- closed conditions on information, 383
- Cobb-Douglas function of individual utilities, 157
- Cobb-Douglas social welfare function, 162
- coercion
 - in a large modern state, 311
 - limiting, 56
- cognitive dissonance reduction, 291
- Cohen G. A., on personal responsibility, 7
- coherence
 - defining, 114, 115
 - on moral views, 125
- coherence theory for ethics, 117
- coherence theory of justification, 10, 113–117
- coherence-foundationalist theory, 116
- coherentism
 - empirical input effect on, 116–117
 - simple, 117
- commitment
 - to act, 377
 - theory of bargaining with, 319
- common good, Harsanyi axioms
 - characterizing, 308
- common knowledge condition, 358
- common preference, Harsanyi endorsing, 248–249
- common preference principle, 246
 - justifying, 247
 - of Sugden, 34
- common prior assumption, 246
- common sense, 414
- commonwealthmen, 389
- communication, absence of, 357
- communitarians, 285
- community standards, appeal to, 284, 285
- compatibilist approach to free will, 6
- compatibilists, 77
- compensation, opportunity approach to, 9
- compensation test, principle of, 253
- competitive capitalism, 56–57
- Complete Utility Attainability property, 24, 25
- completeness, 110
- complex moral norms, 120
- concept of degree, expectational, 231
- concept of degree of preference, 229
- conception(s) of the good, 248
 - adjusting, 94
 - adjusting to circumstances, 95
 - opposed, 107
 - responsibility for, 85
- conclusions, as context dependent, 270
- confidence in ethics, 119
- consequential costs of the autistic approach, 363
- consequentialist argument, 375
- consequentialist principles, 21–22
- considered judgements, 119
- consistency, as a weak test for beliefs, 114
- consistency postulates of Von Neumann and Morgenstern, 307
- Constant, Benjamin, 390
- consumption, money metric of, 254, 258, 239
- context, fault depending on, 85
- contingent social contracts, 321
- continuity axiom for actions, 426
- contractarian tradition, 42
- contractual arrangement, perpetually renegotiating, 369
- convergence
 - alternative account of the process of, 364
 - in belief, 123
 - in ethics, 125
- convex set, 25, 166
- cooperation
 - alternative model of, 371–374
 - case for the revised model of, 374–376
 - distributing benefits from, 55
- cooperative dispositions, 53–56
- cooperative game theory, 43, 44, 419
- cooperative interaction
 - alternative view of, 371
 - modeling, 354–358
- coordinated choice, 364
- coordination games
 - nature of, 354
 - pure, 54
- core values, 118
- credibility of beliefs, 114–115
- credibility transfers
 - appropriateness to ethics, 122
 - systematic network of, 121
- criminal justice, 401
- CU. See Cardinality and Unit Comparability

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-18429-8 - Justice, Political Liberalism, and Utilitarianism: Themes from Harsanyi and Rawls

Edited by Marc Fleurbaey, Maurice Salles and John A. Weymark

Index

More information

Index

439

- cultural evolution, dynamic modeling of, 335
- currency of advantage, 240
- current market prices, valuing opportunity sets, 36
- Daniels, Norman, 92
- Dasgupta, Partha, 384
- d'Aspremont, Claude
 - on welfarism and social aggregation, 24–26
 - welfarist version of Harsanyi's Aggregation Theorem, 184
- Davidson, Donald, 113
- debate between Harsanyi and Rawls, 4
- Debreu coefficient of resource utilization, 277
- decentralized decision making, 382
- Decision Analysis*, 210
- deep inequalities, 81
- defectors, 366
- degrees of good, 228
- demand behavior, 266
- democratic equality, 74
- deregulation of economic activity, 384
- Dershowitz, Alan, 2
- desert-based principle of responsibility, 8
- desert-based theory of justice, 84
- desert-catering prioritarian theory, 9
- deservingness, 104
- deservingness and merit, 84
- desirability, 257
 - defined, 207
 - of an event, 207
 - natural money-metric index of, 258
- dessert makes strange bedfellows example, 212–215
- determinism, 75
- deterministic view of human behavior, 77
- dictatorial social evaluation functionals, 179
- dictators, 209
- difference principle. See also absolute priorities
 - mixing deep and shallow inequalities, 83
 - of Rawls, 5, 89, 378
 - remaining controversial, 412
 - yielded by maximin rule, 342
- disadvantaged. See also badly off; least advantaged class; poor and oppressed; worst off
 - fueling deep resentment of, 383
- disagreement point in a bargaining problem, 44
- discretization, granularity of, 340
- discriminatory proposals, filtering out, 404
- disembodied preferences, 248
- dispositional concept of preference, 226
- distribution
 - defining without alluding to wants, 296
 - of rights, opportunities, and resources, 290
- distributive criterion, applying to an index of resource holdings, 39
- distributive justice
 - compensating for bad luck, 103
 - compensating individuals for misfortune, 80
 - continuously divisible good in problems of, 341
 - fusion of Rawls and Dworkin on, 88
 - problem of allocating resources not utility, 266
 - theory of, 295–296
- diversity, 209
 - assumption of, 208
 - as part of political reality, 215
- division economies
 - constructing social ordering functions in, 269
 - model of, 270
- domination, limiting, 58
- Donaldson, David
 - social aggregation and the expected utility hypothesis, 136
 - on social aggregation under uncertainty, 23
- Doolittle, Alfred, 82
- double hermeneutic feature of the human sciences, 112
- doubts, raised by piecemeal appeal to intuition, 108
- dualism of practical reason, 424
- Dworkin, Ronald
 - on equal concern, 422
 - equality of resources proposal espoused by, 87
 - on personal responsibility, 7
- dynamic modeling, of cultural evolution, 335
- easier-to-lose-freedom effect, 396–397
- economic approaches, to the setting of priorities, 384
- economic efficiency, 253
- economic opportunities
 - identifying a common currency of, 35
 - money metric of, 239
- economic resources, distribution of, 37
- economic time, short run corresponding to, 328

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-18429-8 - Justice, Political Liberalism, and Utilitarianism: Themes from Harsanyi and Rawls

Edited by Marc Fleurbaey, Maurice Salles and John A. Weymark

Index

More information

440

Index

- economy in division problems, 37
- effective freedom, measuring, 253
- effectively equivalent options, 97
- efficiency, 104
- efficiency-egalitarian principle, 377–379
- efficient inequalities, 378
- effort, not a moral basis for claims over
 - resources, 6
- egalitarian arrangements, 378, 379
- egalitarianism, nonteleological defense
 - of, 323
- egalitarians, debates with utilitarians, 304
- Elster, Jon, 281
 - on adaptive preference formation, 41
 - excluding the fox from the consumption of the grapes, 294
 - individuals limiting wants, 40
 - on preference change, 298
 - on preference shaping, 298–299
 - on “Sour Grapes”, 290–298
- empathetic equilibrium, 422–423
- empathetic preferences, 313–314
 - as an artifact of upbringing, 326
 - behind the veil, 48
 - as being packaged, 327
 - expressing outside the family, 326
 - imitated and propagated, 50
 - similar, 325
- empathetic utility function
 - expressing in terms of personal utility functions, 317
 - of an observer, 314
- empathetic utility scale, 314
- empathy equilibrium, symmetric, 328
- empirical observations in the natural sciences, 10
- employer, interfering with employees, 407
- ends, amending responsibility for, 96
- enforcement, associated costs of, 366
- enforcement mechanism, as a sanction system, 366
- equal basic rights, 411, 412
- equal division
 - favored in the symmetric case, 347
 - as a unique evolutionarily stable strategy, 338
- equal income Walrasian rule, 274–275
- equal liberties, as paramount, 3
- equal opportunities
 - in a radical sense, 7
 - Rawls’s notion of, 7
- equal rights
 - determining feasible, 420
 - optimal system of, 421
- equal sharing, basin of attraction of, 52
- equal splits
 - all bargaining solutions agreeing on, 348
 - evolution of, 349
 - in interaction with anonymous opponents, 336
- equality of opportunities, as paramount, 3
- equality of resources proposal, 87
- equilibria
 - based on trust and distrust, 381
 - selecting from among, 357
- equilibrium, 429
- equilibrium analysis, conditions driving, 358–361
- equilibrium condition, 356
- equilibrium of forces interpretation, 367
- equilibrium outcomes, feasible set, 420
- equilibrium pairs
 - Lewis on, 362
 - preoccupation with, 356
- equilibrium reasoning, implications of, 356
- equilibrium requirement, deriving from
 - best-reply reasoning, 359
- equilibrium theory, 376
- equipollence, structure of, 121
- equiprobability criterion, 416
- equiprobability model of impersonal choice, 422
- equivalent options, 97–98
- ethical arguments, against using utility, 266
- ethical beliefs
 - aim in holding, 121
 - causal story of, 120
 - convergence in, 123
 - as independent of metaethics, 124
 - justification of, 10
 - moral intuitions justifying a set of, 10
 - natural history of, 237
 - as susceptible to defects, 120
- ethical language, intelligibility of, 118
- ethical neutrality of Binmore, 237
- ethical notions, adding to core beliefs, 118–119
- ethical standards, 112
- ethical thought, 121
- ethics
 - coherence theory for, 117–122
 - maximin principle as a poor decision rule, 72
 - as a therapeutic effort, 109

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-18429-8 - Justice, Political Liberalism, and Utilitarianism: Themes from Harsanyi and Rawls

Edited by Marc Fleurbaey, Maurice Salles and John A. Weymark

Index

More information

Index

441

- eu* (expected utility), 199
- events
 - concept of, 28
 - preference as a relation between, 207
- evolutionary dynamics of an asymmetric bargaining game, 343
- evolutionary equilibrium, 235
- evolutionary forces, leading to shared empathetic preferences, 50
- evolutionary game theory, 45, 46
- evolutionary process
 - model of, 341
 - shaping who we are, 43
- evolutionary stability
 - exploring the issue of, 327
 - standard conditions for, 327
- evolutionary stable strategy, 45–46, 337–338
- evolutionary viability of fairness norms, 51
- ex ante aggregation, 200, 206
- ex ante alternative, 19. See also state-contingent alternatives
- ex ante approach
 - difficulties of, 215
 - to social aggregation, 26, 27
 - to social evaluation, 159
- ex ante impossibility theorems
 - general versions of, 27
 - Harsanyi's aggregation theorem and, 204
- ex ante Pareto principles, 181
- ex ante possibility theorem, 208
- ex post aggregation, 200, 210–216
- ex post alternative, 19, 19. See also state-contingent alternatives
- ex post approach
 - flipping problem inherent in, 211–212
 - to social aggregation, 26
 - to social evaluation, 159
- ex post school of welfare economics, 225
- excellence, fostering, 75
- exceptions, flexible policy of making, 376
- expectation effects, 418–420
- expectational concept, 230–232. See also Bernoulli hypothesis
 - of degree, 231
 - of good, 231
- expectations
 - defined, 249
 - forming about preferences, 259
 - interdependence of, 355
- expected Bernoulli utility functions, 20, 138, 145
- expected utilities for a lottery, 309
- expected utility axioms, 146
- expected utility criteria, plural systems of, 426
- expected utility hypothesis
 - satisfying, 147, 150, 180
 - social preferences satisfying, 138
 - utility functions satisfying, 145
- expected utility profile, 147, 149
- expected utility property, 28, 130, 131
- expected utility theorem, 137
- expected utility theory, 145, 230
 - applications of, 225
 - Arrow's version of, 146
 - developed by von Neumann and Morgenstern, 12–14
 - versions of, 19
- expected-utility maximization, 71
- expenditure function of an individual, 254
- expensive tastes
 - costly to satisfy, 306
 - Rawls's discussion of, 250
 - resolving, 102
- experimentation, learning from, 362
- exploitation, people subject to, 406
- extended alternatives, 233
- Extended Interval Independence, 271–272, 279
- extended lottery, faced by an impartial observer, 14
- extended preferences, 233
 - of Harsanyi, 243–244
 - Harsanyi's concept of, 34
 - as not coinciding, 234
 - as universal, 233
- extended prospects, 129
- extended sympathy preferences. See empathetic preferences; extended preferences
- facts, testing moral views, 123
- fair allocation, theory of, 37, 38
- fair distribution of resources, 89
- fair distribution, of rights, opportunities, and resources, 290
- fair division, 340
- fair equality of opportunity, principle of, 411, 412
- fair opportunity for well-being, 105–106
- fair rule of law, 58, 405
- fair shares
 - personal responsibility as a determinant of, 100
 - of primary social goods, 86

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-18429-8 - Justice, Political Liberalism, and Utilitarianism: Themes from Harsanyi and Rawls

Edited by Marc Fleurbaey, Maurice Salles and John A. Weymark

Index

More information

442

Index

- fair social orderings, 36–40
- fair-minded mutant, 339
- fairness
 - considerations of, 370–371
 - do-as-you-would-be-done-by principles of, 48
 - issue of justice as, 384
- fairness norm(s), 39
 - evolution of, 47
 - evolutionary viability of, 51
 - operating in practice, 329
 - original position as a, 325
 - social welfare orderings incorporating, 38
- families, relationships within, 326
- fault, depending on context, 85
- faulty, suffering imposition first, 84–85
- feasibility of moral views, 125
- feasible Bernoulli utility vectors, 149
- feasible set of equilibrium strategy combinations, 420
- feasible utilities, 179–180
- feasible utility vectors, 151, 152
- Federalist Papers*, 389
- final ends, as incommensurable, 94
- finite trade-off between social values, 73
- first best problem, 268
- fixed numeraire egalitarian equivalent rule, 274
- Fleurbaey, Marc
 - Bert's case, posed by, 103
 - on fair social orderings, 36
 - on personal responsibility, 7
 - utilitarianism versus fairness in welfare economics, 263–278
- flexibility, measuring, 253
- flipping, 27
- flipping phenomenon, 200, 213
- flipping theorem, 28, 29, 211
- folk theorems on indefinitely repeated games, 353, 365–367
- form of life, 112–113
- formal institutional arrangement sanction system, 366
- foundationalism, starting points, 117
- foundationalist presupposition, rejecting, 115
- fox and the grapes parable, 41, 295. See also sour grapes
- free will
 - concerned with implementation, 8
 - denying the existence of, 6
 - intuitive interpretation of, 77–79
 - to make choices, 97
 - personal experience suggesting, 76–77
 - Rawls and, 75
- freedom
 - antonym of, 393
 - deflating to noninterference, 400
 - Marx's conception of, 56
 - maximal equal distribution of, 401
 - as noninterference, 391, 392, 394
 - notion shared among republican thinkers, 390
 - republican ideal of, 390–399
- freedom as nondomination, 392, 394, 397–399
 - as excessively demanding on the state, 400
 - increasing, 399
 - as not all-or-nothing, 399
 - substantial commitment to redistribution, 402
- freedom of choice, measuring, 253
- free-riding
 - disposition to, 376, 377
 - distributive formula resulting from, 373
 - preventing, 312
- frequency interpretation of probability, 205
- Friedman, Milton, 56
- full cooperation
 - changes in the arrangement, 373
 - conditions of, 372–373
 - rationality of, 376
- full cooperators
 - not free-riding, 373
 - settling on an arrangement and a distributive rule, 374
- fully cooperative arrangement, 372
- functionality, 209
- fundamental preference, 33
- fundamental similarity postulate, 416
- game(s)
 - cooperative and noncooperative, 43
 - as a strategic situation, 43
- game form models, 429
- game theory, 43–47
- Game Theory and the Social Contract*, 303
- Gauthier, David, 45
- gene, social equivalent of, 327
- Generic Ex Ante Impossibility Theorem, 200. See also Harsanyi's Aggregation Theorem
- genetic inheritance, inequalities in, 81
- Giddens, Anthony, 112

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-18429-8 - Justice, Political Liberalism, and Utilitarianism: Themes from Harsanyi and Rawls

Edited by Marc Fleurbaey, Maurice Salles and John A. Weymark

Index

More information

Index

443

- good. See also conception(s) of the good; individual good
 - adding across people, 224
 - correct conception of, 93
 - deducing from the Right, 312
 - determined by people's preferences, 221
 - expectational concept of, 231
 - nonutilitarian conceptions of, 289–290
 - not agreeing on a common conception of, 34
 - preferencism as an account of individual, 226
 - quantitative concept of, 228
- good character
 - contributions based on, 74
 - moral credit for, 75
- good luck, talents and good character owed to, 74
- good-maximization theories
 - drawback inherent in, 297
 - objection to all, 294–295
- goodness
 - differences in, 32
 - measurement of, 31
 - as rationality, 248
 - of a situation, 33
 - in utilitarianism, 33
 - of want satisfaction, 40
- government
 - enforcing agreements behind the veil, 49
 - utilitarianism for, 310
- granularity
 - of the discrete bargaining problem, 345
 - of discretization, 340
- grapes. See fox and the grapes parable; sour grapes
- Greedy strategy, 338
- Griffin, James
 - improving ethical beliefs, 108–126
 - on moral intuition, 10–11
 - on reflective equilibrium, 11
 - on well-being, 241
- group desirabilities, flipping, 212
- group probabilities, inconsistency with desirabilities, 214
- hard determinism, 6, 75, 84
- harder-to-lose-freedom effect, 394–396
- Hardin, Russell, institutional utilitarianism, 310–311
- Hare, R. M.
 - degrees of preference as experiences, 229
 - as a modern purist, 111
 - viewing deontological constraint on utilitarian as arbitrary, 422
- Harrington, James, 389, 395
- Harsanyi, John. See also Harsanyi's Aggregation Theorem; Harsanyi's Impartial Observer Theorem
 - aggregation problem considered by, 156
 - aggregation scheme, 215
 - approach to interpersonal comparison, 306–308
 - cardinalism applying to preferences, 201
 - compared to Rawls, 303
 - consequentialist case for rules guiding moral decisions, 352
 - decision-theoretic foundations for utilitarianism, 1
 - deriving additivity from preferencism, 224–225
 - distaste for absolute priorities, 423
 - doctrine, 324
 - extended preferences, 34
 - game-theoretic version of rule utilitarianism, 60
 - imaginative empathy, 243
 - just distribution, 342
 - liberal rule utilitarianism, 415–422
 - lines of thought of, 303
 - moral duties having absolute priority, 62
 - moral type of rational choice, 416
 - on Nash's original two-person bargaining theory, 367–368
 - nonteleological utilitarianism, 315
 - not providing argument for weighted utilitarianism, 181
 - postulates, 202–203
 - on Rawls, 4–6
 - referee flipping a coin, 336
 - relevance of empathetic preferences, 315
 - Representation Theorem. See Harsanyi's Aggregation Theorem
 - resisting absolute priority rules, 413–414
 - on rule utilitarianism, 412–414
 - on rule-guided behavior, 352
 - teleological approach to utilitarianism, 305
 - teleological defense of utilitarianism, 311
 - theorems about utilitarianism, 2
 - treating causes of preference, 33
 - two-stage n-person game of, 419
 - utilitarianism, 200–206
 - utility theory as orthodox among neoclassical economists, 416
 - view of probability, 205

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-18429-8 - Justice, Political Liberalism, and Utilitarianism: Themes from Harsanyi and Rawls

Edited by Marc Fleurbaey, Maurice Salles and John A. Weymark

Index

More information

444

Index

- Harsanyi's Aggregation Theorem, 14, 16, 184–195, 199, 203, 224, 308–310
 - adopting, 189
 - deriving an improved version of, 192
 - for state-contingent model of uncertainty, 20
 - implications of Sen's objection, 17
 - in support of utilitarianism, 136, 184
 - SWF version of, 186, 190–194
- Harsanyi's Impartial Observer Theorem, 11–30, 315–321
 - proof of, 130
- Hayek, Friedrich, 56
- hedonistic utilitarianism, 240
- Hempel, Carl, 115
- high reliability, beliefs of, 122
- Hild, Matthias, 26, 198–216
- Hild-Jeffrey-Risse flipping theorem. See flipping theorem
- histories
 - additive principle for, 224
 - outcomes as, 223
- Hobbes, Thomas, 395
- holism, 117
- homosexual sex, appeal to community standards curtailing, 285
- human desire, giving content to values, 112
- human interaction, pressures preventing satisfaction of Pareto conditions, 354
- human will, dubious conceptions of, 123
- Hume, David
 - support of utilitarian justice, 423
 - tradition exemplified by, 334–345
- Humeans, modern, 335
- hybrid proposal
 - as the opportunity for well-being conception, 101–102
 - on responsibility, 101, 102–103
- Hylland-Zeckhauser theorem, 28, 209
- hypothetical imperatives, 416
- ideal conditions, 227
- ideal observer. See also Harsanyi's Impartial Observer Theorem; impartial observer; impersonal observers
 - expected utility for a lottery, 309
 - interests of society identified with, 308–309
 - ipsedixist philosophy and, 315
- ideal preferences, 228, 234
- ideal preferencism, 227–228
- Ideal Preferencist Biconditional, 227
- ideal principles, 8
- ideal society, 418
- ideal theory, 42
- identity lottery, 48
- ideology
 - differential bargaining power and, 380
 - problem of, 379–381
 - stabilizing expectations, 380
- imaginative empathy, 243, 244, 253
- imagined veil of ignorance, 236
- immunity-rights, 415
- impartial decision making, 4
- impartial observer. See also ideal observer; impersonal observers
 - of Harsanyi, 129
 - as not a utilitarian, 131–134
 - as ranking social alternatives, 14
 - transforming vNM utility, 135
- impartial observer theorem. See Harsanyi's Impartial Observer Theorem
- impartial perspective, 4
- impersonal desirability, 257
- impersonal money metric of consumption, 258
- impersonal money metric of opportunity, 258
- impersonal observers. See also ideal observer; impartial observer
 - liberal utilitarian doctrine lacking, 430
- implementation theory, allocation rules, 37
- impossibility theorem, 27
- incentive effects. See expectation effects
- incentives
 - for contributions to society, 74
 - providing socially desirable, 418
- income
 - measures of, 251
 - as primary goods, 251
- income redistribution, 73
- incompatibilists, 77
- incompleteness, 110
- independence axiom
 - for actions, 426
 - of von Neumann and Morgenstern, 26
- Independence condition of Mongin, 209
- Independence of Irrelevant Alternatives axiom of, 265, 271
 - condition of, 199
 - contrasted with Extended Interval Independence, 272
 - economic problems and, 39
 - satisfying, 22
- Independence of the Feasible Set, 273, 280

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-18429-8 - Justice, Political Liberalism, and Utilitarianism: Themes from Harsanyi and Rawls

Edited by Marc Fleurbaey, Maurice Salles and John A. Weymark

Index

More information

Index

445

- independent agents, 77
- Independent Prospects assumption
 - adopting, 16–17
 - from the lottery model of uncertainty, 27
- Independent Prospects, 185, 189, 203
- independently and identically distributed (i.i.d.) distributions, 210
- index of primary goods, 34, 249. See also
 - primary goods
 - constructing, 34–35
 - Rawls on, 305
- indices, measuring freedom of choice, 35–36
- indifference curves
 - alternatives on the same, 12
 - money value to, 254
- indifference relationship, 202
- indirect argument
 - assuming parametrization is possible, 360
 - version most frequently cited, 359
- indirect proof, method of, 358
- individual(s)
 - average payoff to, 337
 - bearing responsibility for ends, 85
 - comparing utilities across, 308
 - responsibility according to Rawls, 6
 - rewarding for inherited traits, 83–84
 - satisfying the wants of, 40
- individual and social preferences, relating, 16
- individual choice, 19, 134–135
- individual ends, responsibility of society for, 95–96
- individual good
 - as expected value of Bernoulli utilities, 181
 - nonpreferencist view of, 33
 - preferencism as an account of, 226
- individual goodness
 - measuring, 32
 - von Neumann-Morgenstern measure of, 31
- individual responsibility. See also personal responsibility
 - responsiveness to, 90
- individual utility functions. See utility functions
- individual well-being, 241
- individualism with a vengeance result, 91
- inequalities
 - in the basic structure of society, 80–81
 - distinction between deep and shallow, 85
 - in genetic inheritance, 81
 - keeping within definite limits, 379
- maximin principle failing to distinguish, 8
- morally justified, 87
- sanctioned by egalitarian-efficiency, 380
- treating in different ways, 83
- inferential relations, network of, 115
- informal arrangement sanction system, 366
- informal institutional arrangement sanction system, 366
- information
 - factual control of, 383
 - reliable (accurate) and open exchange of, 382
- information invariance condition, 142
- Information Invariance with Respect to Cardinal Noncomparable Utilities, 143
- Cardinal Unit-Comparable Utilities, 143, 144, 166. See also Interpersonal Difference Comparability (IRRC)
- Ordinal Noncomparable Utilities, 142, 153, 176
- Partition \mathcal{A} property, 141–142
- information partitions
 - assuming, 141
 - examples of, 144
- information sets, 141
- inherited traits, rewarding individuals for, 83
- institutional arrangements, manipulation by
 - special interests, 353
- institutional utilitarianism, 310–311
- intensities of preference, 307–308
- intensity
 - freedom as nondomination varying in, 399
 - risk-based definition of, 307–308
- intentional acts, intrusions as, 391–392
- interacting persons, study of, 360
- interactive choice, 358
- interference, 56
 - intrusions counting as, 391
 - practizing, 406
- interpersonal common currency of advantage, 239
- interpersonal comparability, 232–235
- interpersonal comparisons
 - difficulties of making, 93
 - for distributive justice, 106
 - Harsanyi's approach to, 306
 - Kantian foundations for, 324–325
 - in the medium run, 328–330
 - Rawlsian approach to, 107
 - required by weighted utilitarianism, 137
 - of risk attitudes, 188

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-18429-8 - Justice, Political Liberalism, and Utilitarianism: Themes from Harsanyi and Rawls

Edited by Marc Fleurbaey, Maurice Salles and John A. Weymark

Index

More information

446

Index

- interpersonal comparisons (cont.)
 - in units of welfare, 133
 - of utility, versus ordinalism, 266–268
 - of utility differences, 21
 - of utility gains and losses, 12, 15, 141
 - of utility in allocation decisions, 267
- Interpersonal Difference Comparability (IRDC), 194. See also Information Invariance with Respect to Cardinal Unit Comparable Utilities
- interpersonal utility comparisons, 23
 - making, 49
 - shaped by biological and cultural evolutionary forces, 50
- interpersonally, pleasure as common currency, 240
- interstate comparability, getting, 135
- interstate comparisons of utility gains and losses, 20
- interval commensuration, 204
- intrapersonal comparison
 - of preference intensities, 202
 - of utility, 314–315
- Intrapersonal Preferencist Principle, 230
- intrapersonal standards
 - aggregating, 315
 - for comparing utils, 315
- intrapersonal utility comparisons, 15
- intrapersonally, pleasure as common currency, 240
- intrusions, constituting interference, 392
- intuition pump, 110
- intuitions
 - as beliefs, 109
 - case against piecemeal appeal to, 120
 - causes of, 109
 - as commonsense beliefs, 112
 - piecemeal appeal to, 108–111
 - role in moral philosophy, 110
 - sifting, 119
- intuitive repugnance, 110
- invisible hand metaphor of Smith, 353
- IO. See impartial observer
- ipsedixism, 305
- ipsedixist, 305
- ipsedixist philosophy, ideal observer approach and, 315
- IRDC (Interpersonal Difference Comparability), 194
- irrational decision rule, 71–72
- irrational preference formation, 299
- Jeffrey, Richard. See also Bolker-Jeffrey framework
 - ex ante versus ex post social aggregation, 26
 - preference aggregation after Harsanyi, 198
- judgements about well-being, 246
- just arrangement, 334
- just distribution for Harsanyi and Rawls, 342
- just political regime, Rawls version of, 89
- justice. See also social justice
 - as impartiality, 42
 - lacking a blindfold, 348
 - as not indifferent to outcomes, 105
 - principles of, 10
 - as a rational choice behind a veil of ignorance, 336
 - Rawls's general conception of, 83
 - Rawls's special conception of, 83
 - Rawlsian idea of, 85–86
 - rewarding superior performance as a requirement of, 75
 - securing a fair share of resources to individuals, 85
 - as some function of opportunity provision, 105
- justice and right, priority over the good, 412
- Justice as Fairness: A Restatement*, 3
- justification
 - coming from a whole set of beliefs, 117
 - as not linear or circular, 115
 - of a perceptual belief, 116
- Kalai-Smorodinsky solution, 53, 342–343
- Kant, Immanuel
 - individuals as ends in and of themselves, 1
 - as a purist, 111
- Kantian consensus on the equiprobability model, 422
- Kantian foundations for interpersonal comparison, 324
- Kantian impersonal observers, 430
- law, subjection to, 394
- law of excluded middle, 114
- least advantaged class, 82. See also badly off; disadvantaged; poor and oppressed; worst off
- legal interference, extreme case of, 394
- legal regime, 394
- leisure, 83
- Leviathan, 395

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-18429-8 - Justice, Political Liberalism, and Utilitarianism: Themes from Harsanyi and Rawls

Edited by Marc Fleurbaey, Maurice Salles and John A. Weymark

Index

More informationIndex

447

- Lewis, David
 - on equilibrium pairs, 362
 - on games of pure coordination, 355
 - marginalizing the Pareto conditions, 355
- leximin principle, 5, 160, 358
- liabilities, assigning for an adverse outcome, 9
- liberal egalitarianism
 - approaches to personal responsibility, 6–7
 - debate with utilitarians, 2
 - of Rawls, 42
- liberal equality, 74
- liberal priorities, 63
- liberal rule utilitarianism
 - of Harsanyi, 415–422
 - providing basis for equal freedom, 429
- liberal society, features of, 4
- liberal utilitarian code, 422–429
- liberal utilitarian rules, 419
- liberal utilitarianism
 - complex Millian sort of, 428
 - Harsanyi's brand of, 428
 - objections to, 422
 - used to identify an ideal personal character, 430
- liberals, 411
- libertarians
 - against big government, 405
 - protecting negative freedom, 56
- liberties
 - assigning absolute priority to basic, 73
 - modern discussions of, 56
 - optimal system of, 421
 - protection of basic, 57
 - secure foundation for basic, 60
- liberty
 - of the moderns, 390
 - price of, 389
- liberty-rights, 415
- life, 233
- limited information for utility comparisons, 21
- Lind, John, 398
- Lindhal rule, 277
- linear transformation of units, 133
- Locke, John, 389, 395
- long run, corresponding to biological time, 328
- lord, living in the power of a, 408
- Lorenz, Konrad, 331
- lotteries
 - convex set of, 155
 - modeling uncertainty, 12–14
- Luce, Duncan, and Raiffa, Howard, 359
- Machiavelli, Niccolò, 389
- majoritarian principles, 379
- manifest preferences, 245
- manipulation, people subject to, 406
- Maniquet, François
 - on fair social orderings, 36
 - utilitarianism versus fairness, 263
- market mechanism, 267
- Marschak, Jacob axiomatic treatment of preference, 201, 202, 205
- Marx, Karl, 56
- masking, true consequences of, 382
- maximal equal distribution of freedom as noninterference, 402
- maximal utility, versus opportunity provision, 104
- maximin principle. See also difference principle
 - a criterion for making decisions applied to utilities, 312
 - embraced by Rawls, 4–5
 - failing to distinguish between inequalities, 8
 - of Rawls, 57
 - Rawls's use of, 50, 71–73
 - in terms of lifetime holdings of primary goods, 8
- maximization
 - of (expected) utility, 356
 - conceptually anchoring, 361
- maximization condition, 358
- Maynard Smith, John and Price, George,
 - defining an evolutionary stable strategy, 337–338
- McClellenn, Edward F.
 - alternative model of rational cooperation, 351–384
 - on cooperative distributions, 53
- meaningfulness of judgements, 248
- mediocrity, acceptance of, 76
- medium run
 - corresponding to social time, 328
 - interpersonal comparison in, 328, 330
 - interpersonal comparisons evolving in, 304
- memes, 327
- mental states, interpersonal comparability of, 254
- merit
 - distribution according to, 83–84
 - Rawls's complex treatment of, 6
- metaethical concerns, raised by Griffin's analysis, 11

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-18429-8 - Justice, Political Liberalism, and Utilitarianism: Themes from Harsanyi and Rawls

Edited by Marc Fleurbaey, Maurice Salles and John A. Weymark

Index

More information

448

Index

- metaethics
 - broaching some major issues in, 123–124
 - concerns of, 124
 - ethical beliefs independent of, 124
 - making progress in, 125
 - not independent from normative ethics, 126
- Mgn₁ theorem, 209
- Mgn₂ theorem, 209
- Mill, John Stuart
 - on absolute priorities, 414
 - denouncing want-satisfaction, 288
 - liberty principle, 96
 - on social or legal punishment, 310
- Millian liberal utilitarianism
 - accommodating absolute liberal priorities, 429–430
 - grounding a form of representative democracy, 430
- minimal rationality, 92
- minimax relative concession solution, 45
- minimax solution, 357
- misfortune
 - morally inappropriate response to, 81
 - types of, 80
- misrepresentation, of social, economic, and political facts, 362
- mixed games, coordination in, 365
- mixed strategy, 43–44
- moderns, liberty of, 390
- modest strategy, 338
- money metric
 - approach, 253
 - described, 253–254
 - of impersonal desirability, 258
 - reference levels for a, 256
 - representation of preferences, 35
 - utility function, 35
- Mongin, Philippe
 - impossibility theorems, 27
 - postulates, 208–209
 - on welfarism and social aggregation, 24
- Montesquieu, 389
- moral attitudes, actions springing from, 78
- moral behavior, intrinsic and social value of, 6
- moral beliefs
 - forswearing dependence of substantive, 111
 - origins of, 109
- moral code
 - impersonal observers bound to, 416
 - optimal, 60
- moral credit
 - assigning, 78
 - for developing talents, 74
 - Rawls's attempt to deny, 74–75
- moral discredit, assigning, 78
- moral disvalue, 79
- moral duties, 74
- moral intuition, 10
- moral obligation to pursue the common good, 47
- moral observer, 186
- moral qualities, indeterminable as irrelevant, 106
- moral responsibility, dilemma raised by, 76–77
- moral rights, 414
- moral rules
 - applying utilitarian criterion to, 60
 - basic liberty secured by, 412
- moral terms
 - deriving ethical principles from, 111
 - of ordinary language, 111
- moral value, 79
- moral value judgements, 243
- moral views
 - comparing, 125
 - weeding out unrealistic, 123
- moral worth, as inherently secondary, 84
- morality
 - based on rational individual decision making, 15
 - as a short-run phenomenon, 329–331
 - smooth working of, 331
- motivation, building into the concept of utility, 431
- multiprofile aggregation, 137, 160–166
- multiprofile approach
 - of d'Aspremont and Mongin, 26
 - of Sen, 185
- multiprofile version of Harsanyi's theorem, 166
- multiprofile weighted utilitarian theorem, 167
- mutant meme, appearance of, 327
- mutant strategies
 - invasion of other, 338–339
 - withstanding, 45
- mutations, selection process with respect to, 47
- mutual advantage, 352
- mutual gain, 372
- mutual insurance pacts, bargaining over, 326
- mutual rationality condition, 358

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-18429-8 - Justice, Political Liberalism, and Utilitarianism: Themes from Harsanyi and Rawls

Edited by Marc Fleurbaey, Maurice Salles and John A. Weymark

Index

More information

Index

449

- naked liberties, 429
- Nash, John
 - bargaining game of, 335
 - theory of bargaining with commitment, 319
 - two-person bargaining theory, 44, 48, 367
- Nash bargaining model, 368
- Nash bargaining solution, 44–45, 342–343, 345
 - basin of attraction for, 53
 - robust in simulations, 345
 - supported in the asymmetric case, 347
- Nash equilibrium, 1.339, 17.063
 - feasible in terms of, 423
 - selecting among in a coordination game, 54
- Nash solution. See Nash bargaining solution
- Natural Justice*, 303
- natural justice, Binmore on, 47–51
- natural science, standards of success for, 120–121
- naturalistic foundations, 304
- naturalistic theories, versus normative, 42–43
- naturalists, 348
- negative freedom, 56, 57
- negative outcomes, responsibility for, 99–100
- neoclassical economists, attraction to Pareto's strategy, 241
- neutrality, denying, 248
- no veto power requirement, 265
- no-fault insurance scheme, results of, 101
- nonarbitrariness
 - account of, 393
 - guaranteeing, 404
 - of redistribution, 404
- nonarbitrary act of interference, 392
- nonbelief input, allowing, 117
- noncooperative game theory, 42
 - alternatives to, 371
 - for two-person negotiation, 368
 - Harsanyi's, 419
 - model of bargaining as the triumph of, 368
- noncooperative interaction, 370
- nondomination
 - fact of, 398
 - freedom as, 57, 58, 391, 392, 396
 - redistribution and freedom as, 403–408
- nonegalitarian arrangements, defending, 378
- nonegalitarian systems, as remarkably stable, 380
- nonemptiness and contraction consistency requirements, 269
- nonexchangeable goods, allocating, 293
- noninterference
 - hostile to redistribution, 404
 - redistribution and freedom as, 401–413
- nonpreferencist elements in Harsanyi's theory, 235
- nonteleological moral theories, 311–325
- nonteleological utilitarianism of Harsanyi, 315–322
- nonutilitarian conceptions of the good, 290
- normative ethics
 - concerns of, 124
 - independence from metaethics, 124
 - not independent from metaethics, 126
- normative principles, 10
- normative theories
 - as fundamentally flawed, 43
 - versus naturalistic, 42
- normative views, ranking competing, 124–125
- norms of distributive justice, 348
- North, Douglass on adaptive efficiency, 381
- Nozick, Robert, 73
- null social evaluation functional, 179
- numerically comparable partition, 144
- Nydegger Rudy and Owen Guillermo, experiment dividing a dollar, 335
- objections, to only meeting a minimum threshold of rationality, 91–95
- objective criteria for determining well-being, 305
- objective probabilities, 139, 225
- observations, as theory-laden, 113
- On Liberty*, 96
- ongoing interaction, dynamic models of, 354
- opportunities
 - impersonal money metric of, 239, 257–260
 - personal money metric of, 254
 - pointless provision of, 105
 - set of, 250
- opportunity luck, 326
- opportunity provision
 - versus maximal utility, 82
 - possibility of pointless, 105
- opportunity sets
 - range of opportunity offered by, 252
 - ranking distributions of, 272
- optimal code
 - absolute priority given to, 423
 - deviations from, 421–422
 - identifying, 421
- optimal insurance policy, 134

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-18429-8 - Justice, Political Liberalism, and Utilitarianism: Themes from Harsanyi and Rawls

Edited by Marc Fleurbaey, Maurice Salles and John A. Weymark

Index

More information

450

Index

- optimal moral code
 - absolute priority over nonmoral considerations, 421
 - layers or subcodes, 428
- optimal outcomes
 - different in mixed games, 365
 - not in equilibrium in mixed games, 365
- option luck of Dworkin, 7, 87, 88
- ordering, 140
- ordinal noncomparable partition, 142, 142
- ordinal preferences, demand behavior
 - revealing, 266–268
- ordinal social orderings
 - arguments in favor of, 265
 - constructing, 270
 - definition of, 264
- ordinal transform, 12
- ordinal utility function, 12, 307
- ordinalism
 - arguments in form of, 38
 - versus interpersonal comparisons of utility, 266
- ordinalist revolution in utility theory, 12
- original position, 4, 15, 71
 - in achieving compromises, 326
 - analyzing the device of, 325
 - attraction to, 325
 - bargaining in, 317–319
 - choosing a social contract using, 329
 - device of, 312
 - expanding its circle of application, 332
 - as a natural norm, 325–331
 - naturalistic account of, 331–332
 - of Rawls, 16
- other-oriented preferences, 416, 422
- outcomes
 - of bargaining behind the veil, 50–51
 - defining to exclude uncertainty, 223
 - holding individuals responsible for bad, 90
 - portfolio of possible, 223
 - relationship to wants, 293
 - responsible for the quality of, 99–100
- overall dictator, 209
- Owen, Guillermo experiment dividing a dollar, 348
- Paine, Tom, 393
- painful difficulty scale, 97
- Paley, William, 399–400
- parametrization
 - as a condition on rational choice, 374
 - lack of, 360
 - as a restriction on rational interactive choice, 361–363
- parametrization condition, 361
- Pareto condition, 54. See also Pareto Indifference; Pareto Preference condition; Strict Pareto (S-P*) condition; Strong Pareto principle; Weak Pareto property
 - focusing on outcomes satisfying, 364
 - marginalizing, 355
 - serving as a secondary requirement, 357
- Pareto efficient allocation, 270
- Pareto Indifference, 27, 136, 140, 271
 - replacing Harsanyi's, 188
 - RN implying, 189
 - satisfying, 22
 - strengthening into Strong Pareto, 17, 184–185
- Pareto optimal 54, 211, 357
- Pareto Preference condition, 198–199
- Pareto principle, 363
 - abandoning Harsanyi's, 223
 - for histories, 225
 - minimal requirement about preferences, 267
 - for prospects, 224
 - for want-satisfaction, 286
 - want-satisfaction version of, 40
 - weaker versions of, 27
- Pareto requirements, 356
- Pareto-based coordination principle of McClellenn, 55
- Pareto-efficient changes in institutional structures, 353
- pathologies about what people want, 297
- payoffs
 - measured ex ante, 44
 - strategies with better than average, 46–47
- Pazner-Schmeidler egalitarian equivalent rule, 39, 274
- perceptual beliefs
 - analogue in ethics to, 118
 - convergence in, 123
 - high credibility of, 116
- perfectionist weighting on primary goods, 35
- permissibility, 429
- permissible strategies, layers of, 428
- permissions, as permissible strategies, 429
- personal achievement of developing good character, 75
- personal interests, choices made in ignorance of, 71–79

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-18429-8 - Justice, Political Liberalism, and Utilitarianism: Themes from Harsanyi and Rawls

Edited by Marc Fleurbaey, Maurice Salles and John A. Weymark

Index

More information

Index

451

- personal money metric
 - of consumption, 254
 - of opportunity, 254
- personal preferences, 250
 - claims of justice not grounded on, 251
 - index-number problem and, 251–252
 - measure of economic opportunity independent of, 252
 - money metric independent of, 257
- personal probabilities
 - in the aggregation process, 200
 - no part in Harsanyi's aggregation process, 199
- personal responsibility
 - liberal egalitarian approaches to, 6
 - Rawls's complex treatment of, 6
- personal utilities in the aggregation process, 200
- personal utility function of Harsanyi's players, 420
- Pettit, Philip
 - on redistributive policy, 59
 - republican political theory, 389–408
 - on republicanism, 57–59
- Pexider equation, 171, 175, 175
- philosopher-king
 - abandoning, 323
 - impartial, 312
 - not postulated by Harsanyi or Rawls, 313
 - representing an external enforcement agency, 314
- phronesis, 430, 430
- piecemeal appeal to intuition, 108
- plan of life, choosing, 94–95
- planner's ethical preferences revelation
 - principle, 267–268
- players, 43
 - rationality and computing ability assumed for, 45
 - rationally pursuing their own ends, 44
- pleasure, as a common currency of advantage, 240
- plural expected utility theory, 425–428
- pluralism, 107
- pluralism of belief, 107
- pluralistic society, political conception of
 - justice for, 4
- pluralistic utility theory, 430
- Pocock, John, 390
- political legitimacy in western democracies, 312–313
- Political Liberalism*, 3
- political liberalism, 4
- political rights, special place of, 411
- political system, stable, 249
- politics makes strange bedfellows example, 210
- polymorphic traps, 339
- polymorphism, as inefficient, 339
- poor and oppressed. See also badly off; disadvantaged; least advantaged class; worst off
 - as having limited aspirations, 292
 - as liable to be discriminated against, 292
- population, average payoff to, 337
- population viscosity, 341
- positive freedom, 56, 391
- positive outcomes, responsibility for, 100
- positivity, 209
- postwelfarists
 - no answer to interpersonal comparison, 308
 - views of, 305–306
- potential preferences, 253
- power, shaping interpersonal comparisons, 332
- powerful people, preference to, 236
- power-rights, 415
- predictor function, observer defining, 420
- preference(s). See also adaptive preferences; extended preferences; ideal preferences; ordinal preferences; personal preferences; rational preferences; social preferences
 - aggregating into group preference rankings, 198
 - altruistic, 227
 - in a betterness relation, 31
 - comparing differences in utility, 30
 - confusion surrounding the term, 430
 - as defective, 227
 - delimiting a range of possible, 249
 - described, 244–245
 - disembodied, 248
 - extended, 233
 - forming or discovering, 206
 - good depending on, 224
 - ideal, 228
 - independence with respect to changes, 267
 - money as a measuring rod for, 253
 - money metric representation of, 35
 - nonpreferencist elements determining extended, 33
 - as not completely malleable, 40
 - outside the veil, 48–49
 - over lotteries, 13

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-18429-8 - Justice, Political Liberalism, and Utilitarianism: Themes from Harsanyi and Rawls

Edited by Marc Fleurbaey, Maurice Salles and John A. Weymark

Index

More information

452

Index

- preference(s) (cont.)
 - personal, 250
 - of a rational individual, 13
 - reference distribution of, 259
 - representing an expected utility function, 424
 - representing in general, 258
 - responsibility for, 250, 259
 - satisfying axioms of utility theory, 136, 198
 - from a standpoint, 248
- preference aggregation, conceptual map of, 198
- preference autonomy, 245
- preference diversity assumption, 149
- preference intensities, 201, 202
- preference profiles, 142, 167
- preference rankings, 205–206
- preference relation, 148, 201
- preference satisfaction, 242
- preference utilitarianism, 30–33, 245, 294
- preferencism, 221
 - as an account of individual good, 226
 - deriving additivity from, 224–226
 - as false, 221–222
 - ideal, 227
- preferencist assumptions, 222
- Preferencist Biconditional, 226
- Preferencist Principle, 230
- preferencist utilitarianism, 221
 - failure of, 237
 - internal investigation of, 222
- Price, Richard, 397, 398
- price weights, used to measure income, 251
- Priestly, Joseph, 397
- primary goods. See also index of primary goods
 - absolute priorities granted to, 5
 - as a simplifying device, 249
 - common currency of, 247
 - distributing independently of preferences, 267
 - index of, 34, 81, 91
 - index of the worst-off group, 5
 - maximizing holdings, 85
 - providing at the onset of adulthood, 86
 - Rawls's concept of, 3, 249
 - Rawls separating, 81
 - unequal holdings of, 94
- primary social goods. See primary goods
- Principle of Acceptance, 1.113, 131
 - combining with vNM preferences over lotteries, 135
 - continuing to endorse, 134
 - empathetic preferences satisfying Harsanyi's, 49
- The Principles of Moral and Political Philosophy*, 400
- prisoner's dilemma, 55
- privileged factions, likely to break apart, 383
- probabilistic model, making equal division more compelling, 346
- probabilities
 - agreed on by all individuals, 139
 - agreement on, 225
 - cardinal, 205
 - frequency interpretation of, 205
 - as objective, 225
- probability agreement theorem, 32, 33, 209
- probability assessments, differing, 26
- probability clones, 209
- probability heterogeneity, 27
- procedural utility, assigning to free moral choice, 417
- procedures, fundamental in nonteleological theories, 311
- profile(s)
 - informationally equivalent, 141
 - of utility functions, 140
- Profile-Dependent Strong Neutrality
 - defined, 151
 - equivalent to Strong Neutrality, 158
 - implying Pareto Indifference, 151
 - strengthening, 152
- Profile-Dependent Welfarism, 150
 - defined, 151
 - equivalent to Welfarism, 158
- property rights, benefits from protecting, 60
- prospects, 139, 223
- prudence, life goals contrary to, 90
- prudent choice and action, painful difficulty scale, 97
- prudent decisions, arriving at, 97
- prudent life plan, forming, 86
- prudential value judgements, 120
- prudential values
 - basic, 118
 - of Griffin, 241
- pseudostates, 215
- public, tracking the welfare and worldview of, 393
- public goods, 277, 252
- purchasing power, Rawls's concept of income as, 251

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-18429-8 - Justice, Political Liberalism, and Utilitarianism: Themes from Harsanyi and Rawls

Edited by Marc Fleurbaey, Maurice Salles and John A. Weymark

Index

More informationIndex

453

- pure strategies, 41, 43, 44
- pure-coordination games, 354
- Pygmalion*, 82
- qualitative hedonism
 - case against, 430
 - discussion of, 430
- quantitative concept of good, 228–230
- quantitative hedonism, 424
- Quine, W. V., 110
- RA (Relative Attainability), 189
- Raiffa, Howard, 210, 359
- range property, rationality as, 91
- ranking, allocation rule as a kind of, 263
- ratio-comparable concept of degree of preference, 230
- rational agents
 - engaging in a coordination of choices, 351
 - members of society as, 97–98
- rational beings, cooperation between, 364
- rational choices
 - less than fully triggering justice requirements, 106
 - models, 13
 - moral species of, 416
- rational choice-theoretic defense of utilitarianism, 14
- rational cooperation
 - nature and conditions of, 352
 - rethinking, 361–365
- rational decision, 334
- rational ends, plurality of, 56
- rational faculties, attempting to rehabilitate, 92
- rational plan of life, 248
- rational player
 - defined, 358
 - making risky decisions, 307
- rational preferences, 242
 - contingent on conceptions of the good, 248
 - utility representing, 417
- rational social interactions, 53
- rational standpoint, as autistic, 361
- rationality
 - concept of, 334
 - of full cooperation, 376
 - objections to meeting a minimum threshold of, 90
 - as a range property, 91
 - relevant criteria, 417
- rationalization of allocation rules, 273–277
- Rawls, John
 - approach to interpersonal comparison, 107
 - canonical moment version of justice, 86–88
 - on character planning, 299
 - compared to Harsanyi, 303–304
 - contractarian defense of liberal egalitarianism, 2
 - critique of imaginative empathy, 247
 - critique of utilitarianism, 1
 - on deservingness and responsibility, 83–86
 - difference principle equivalent to egalitarian-efficiency principle, 378
 - difference principle, reformulation of, 89
 - on distribution justice, 296
 - egalitarian principle, 377
 - equating utilitarianism with want-satisfaction, 287
 - ethical beliefs independent of metaethics, 109
 - hedonistic utilitarianism and, 248
 - index of primary goods, 34, 305
 - just distribution, 342
 - maximin decision rule, 336–337
 - maximin principle, reasons for favoring, 323
 - maximin principle, use of, 322
 - on negative and positive freedom, 57
 - primary social goods, 91
 - priority of equal basic liberties, 411
 - process of constructing a common good function, 312
 - rejection of utility theory, 422
 - on rule-guided behavior, 352
 - second principle of justice, 403
 - “Social Unity and Primary Goods”, 281
 - statement of liberal egalitarian principles, 1
 - strains of commitment, 323
 - themes from, 3–11
 - theory of justice limited to feasible administration, 106
 - theory of justice pioneered by, 80
 - on utilitarianism, 282
- Rawlsian social welfare function. See social welfare function
- reason, role in giving content to values, 112
- reasonable agreement, principles of justice based on, 42
- reasonableness of moral views, 125
- reciprocity, explicit norm of, 381
- redistribution
 - basis for claiming, 93
 - dangers of, 405

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-18429-8 - Justice, Political Liberalism, and Utilitarianism: Themes from Harsanyi and Rawls

Edited by Marc Fleurbaey, Maurice Salles and John A. Weymark

Index

More information

454

Index

- redistribution (cont.)
 - entailing interference by the state, 402
 - under fair rule of law, 405
 - of income and wealth required by Rawls's theory, 72
 - lowering probability of interference, 402
 - noninterference introducing a presumption against, 404
- redistributive measures, reducing, 384
- redistributive policies, viewed as intrusive, 58–59
- redistributive taxation, 5
- reductive naturalism, 123
- reference distribution of preferences, 258, 259
- reference prices
 - in the money metric, 254
 - valuing opportunity sets, 36
- reference profile, permitting to be non-Bernoulli, 173
- reflective equilibrium
 - concept of a, 10
 - interpretations of, 122
- refusal, no right of, 293–294
- regime of law, coercive, 394
- regress objection, 114, 115
- regular expected utility profile, 149, 149
- Reification condition, 211
- Relative Attainability (RA), 189
- relative bargaining advantage, 368
- Relative Neutrality (RN), 189
- relative threat advantage, 368
- rent-seeking, literature on, 353
- repeated interaction, over time, 365–367
- replicator dynamics, 46
 - applied to the divide the cake model, 347
 - discrete time version of, 46–47
 - of evolutionary game theory, 337
- reporting system, centralization of, 366
- representation theorem(s)
 - as analytical, 206
 - of Bolker, 207
 - of Savage, 207
- republic, 401
- republican conception of liberty, 400–401
- republican ideal, significance of, 399–408
- republican political theory, 389
- republican tradition, 389, 393
- republicanism
 - more open to egalitarian policies, 59
 - Pettit on, 57
- republicans, against big government, 405
- resource allocation, 9
- resource holdings, measured by index of primary social goods, 91
- resource utilization, Debreu coefficient of, 277
- resources
 - fair distribution of, 7
 - justifying transfer to the rich, 404
 - sacrificing to reward fair behavior, 370
- respect, 98
- respect for persons, slogan of, 98
- responsibility
 - assignment as political, not metaphysical, 100
 - Rawls's theory of a concept of, 6
 - for what lies within one's power to control, 99
- responsibility for ends
 - defending Rawls's doctrine of, 92
 - doctrine of, 90–19
 - reconsidered, 90–95
- responsibility principle, 9
- retaliation, 368
- right, utilitarian theory of, 222
- rightness, derived from goodness, 222
- rights
 - absolute priority to certain kinds of, 63
 - as morally protected, 412
- rights and liberties
 - game form formulations versus social choice, 429
 - incentives and assurances provided by, 62
- Riley, Jonathan, 60–63, 411
- risk aversion, 148, 188
- risk to good, neutrality on, 223
- Risse, Mathias, 26, 198
- RN (Relative Neutrality), 189
- Roemer, John, 18–20
- rule of share and share alike, evolution of, 341
- rule utilitarian society as a two-stage game, 60–61
- rule utilitarianism, 60
 - assuring individual freedom to make choices, 414
 - code, 417–418
 - compared to act utilitarianism, 61–62
 - embedding absolute liberal priorities, 424
 - full compliance under complete information, 419
 - Harsanyi's arguments for, 412–414
 - Harsanyi's version of, 60
- rule-governed choice, 376–377

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-18429-8 - Justice, Political Liberalism, and Utilitarianism: Themes from Harsanyi and Rawls

Edited by Marc Fleurbaey, Maurice Salles and John A. Weymark

Index

More informationIndex

455

- rules
 - Rawls's account of, 352
 - understood as maxims, 376
- rules and rankings, deriving axiomatically, 269
- saliency, 357, 364
- Samuelson, Paul, 168, 242
- sanction systems, different types of, 366
- satisfaction of wants, 281
- Savage, Leonard
 - framework of, 28, 206–208
 - on preferences, 242
- Scanlon on champagne tastes, 306
- Schelling, Thomas
 - drawing expectations to a focus, 363
 - on games of pure coordination, 355
 - marginalizing the Pareto conditions, 355
 - theory of saliency, 357
- second best problems, 268–269
- self-mastery, 58
- self-regarding liberty, 430
- semantics of ethical terms, 111
- Sen, Amartya. See also Sen-Weymark critique
 - defining welfarism, 305
 - questioning of Harsanyi's utilitarian interpretation, 137
 - SWFLs defined on some universal domain, 185
 - theory of capabilities, 7
- Sen-Weymark critique, 17–18
- shallow inequalities, 81
- shared highest-order preference, 33
- shared practices, rules as part of, 112
- short run
 - compared to long run, 328
 - morality in, 329
- short-run social contract, 51
- Sidgwick, Henry
 - analysis of hedonism, 288
 - on dualism of practical reason, 424
- similarity postulate of Harsanyi, 32, 244
- simple bargaining model for two players, 368
- simplest bargaining game, 337
- single-information-set aggregation, 167–175
- single-preference-profile aggregation, 137, 175–178
- single-profile aggregation, 20, 156–160
- Skinner, Quentin, 390
- Skyrms, Brian
 - on evolutionary viability of fairness norms, 51–53
 - social contract neutralized, 334–349
- slavery, association of law with, 396
- Smith, Adam
 - ideal observer, 308
 - invisible hand, 353
- social aggregation
 - ex ante versus ex post, 26–30
 - for state-contingent alternatives, 20
 - under uncertainty, 23
- social aggregation problem, reformulating Harsanyi's, 23
- social aggregation theorem. See Harsanyi's Aggregation Theorem
- social alternatives
 - ranking, 11
 - sets of, 129, 136, 139
- social choice function. See allocation rules
- social choice impossibility theorems, 139
- social choice under uncertainty, 136
- social consequences of maximin criterion, 5
- social contract(s)
 - as an application of rational decision theory, 334
 - of Binmore, 48
 - as a complex web of conventions and norms, 348
 - contingent on roles, 316
 - evaluating in the original position, 313
 - evolution of, 51
 - negotiated by Adam and Eve, 312–313
 - self-policing, 323–324
 - as a tissue of conventions, 334
- social contract theory
 - central features of Binmore's, 47
 - liberal versions of, 41
- social conventions, origins of, 47
- social cooperation, sharing gains from, 41–56
- social decision maker, 26
- social endowment, 37
- social evaluation, 140
 - as a binary relation, 150
 - ex ante approach to, 159
 - for a utilitarian social evaluation functional, 141
 - as a weighted utilitarian rule, 158
- social evaluation functional. See also social welfare functional
 - assigning a social evaluation, 149
 - assigning social ordering, 138
 - as informationally invariant, 144
 - limitations on, 141

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-18429-8 - Justice, Political Liberalism, and Utilitarianism: Themes from Harsanyi and Rawls

Edited by Marc Fleurbaey, Maurice Salles and John A. Weymark

Index

More information

456

Index

- social evaluation functional (cont.)
 - modeling the social aggregation procedure, 137, 140
 - requiring an unrestricted expected utility range, 162
 - satisfying Pareto Indifference, 151, 153
 - satisfying Strong Neutrality, 155, 156
 - satisfying Strong Pareto, 157, 158
 - satisfying welfarism, 152
- social evolution
 - determining extended preferences, 235
 - favoring behavior patterns of successful persons, 422
 - forces of, 304
 - preferences formed by, 236
 - selecting consistent behavior, 425
- social goods. See primary goods
- social institutions
 - responsibility according to Rawls, 6
 - selecting unaffected by personal interests, 71
- social interaction, study of, 360
- social justice
 - difficulties of formulating a coherent account of, 2
 - Rawls's theory of, 3–4
 - in terms of equal opportunities, 7
- social minimum, responsibility for, 384
- social ordering
 - mapping, 20
 - maximizing on the feasible set, 36
- social ordering function(s)
 - concept of, 38
 - defined, 268
 - defining, 275–277
 - direct inquiry of, 270
- social ordering functionals, 276–277
- social orderings
 - constructing, 269–277
 - justifying, 266–269
- social organization, nonegalitarian forms of, 380–381
- social positions
 - in applying principles of justice, 81
 - defining objectively, 248
 - of individuals, 243
- social preferences
 - additivity of, 31
 - satisfying utility axioms, 16
- social probabilities in the flipping theorem, 29
- social rankings
 - versus allocation rules, 268–269
 - of events, 29
- social time, medium run corresponding to, 328
- social utility
 - in the flipping theorem, 29
 - individuals maximizing, 421
 - maximizing privileges, 418–419
- social utility function, 136
- social values, choosing, 73
- social welfare, 2
- social welfare function, 22, 36, 150, 263
 - maximizing, 324
 - ranking social alternatives, 37
- social welfare functionals (SWFLs), 21, 187.
 - See also* social evaluation functional
 - constructing, 36
 - defined on a restricted domain, 185
 - different domains for, 24
 - framework, 23
 - restricted to VNM representations, 186
 - satisfying Information Invariance, 176
 - satisfying Pareto Indifference, 22
 - Sen's framework of, 185
 - weighting utilitarian, 25
- social welfare ordering, 15, 22, 150
 - directly constructing, 38–39
 - interpreting as social preference, 22
 - as isomorphic, 151, 152
- socially best alternatives, 37
- society
 - basic structure of, 80
 - sharing costs and benefits of good and bad luck, 100
- soft determinism, 75
- sour grapes, 281, 290
 - case of irreversible, 296–297
- S-P condition. See Strict Pareto (S-P*)
 - condition
- stable equilibrium, polymorphism as, 338
- stand-alone principle, 265
- standard objection, 18, 231
- standard opportunity sets
 - defining, 256
 - selecting, 255
- standpoint of a person, 248
- state, under severe scrutiny by republicans, 405
- state of nature
 - as the blindfold, 334
 - concept of, 334
 - identifying, 317
 - reverting to, 319
 - ultimate, 215

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-18429-8 - Justice, Political Liberalism, and Utilitarianism: Themes from Harsanyi and Rawls

Edited by Marc Fleurbaey, Maurice Salles and John A. Weymark

Index

More information

Index

457

- state-contingent alternatives, 19. See also
 - ex ante alternative
 - expected utility theory for, 145–150
 - model of uncertainty, 19, 20, 23
 - modeling uncertainty, 138, 139, 180
 - utilities defined for, 146
- state-imposed constraints, republicanism
 - compatible with, 58
- states, describing in the flipping theorem, 29
- status quo, determining, 319
- strains of commitment to logical extreme, 323
- strange bedfellows phenomenon, 210
- strategic interaction
 - as assured to be suboptimal, 375
 - not yielding an optimal outcome, 371
- strategies
 - choosing in pure conflict, 357
 - for games, 43–44
 - identifying successful, 45
 - selecting over time, 46
- strategy profile, 44
- Strict Pareto (S-P*) condition, 192. See also
 - Pareto criterion
- strong monism, 63
 - going beyond, 425
 - in Harsanyi's theory, 423–424
- Strong Neutrality
 - defined, 152
 - implying both Pareto Indifference and Binary Independence, 153
 - implying welfarism, 155
 - property, 25
 - welfarism equivalent to, 23
- Strong Pareto principle, 24, 136, 140. See also
 - Pareto criterion
- strong preference relationship, 202
- strongly regular expected utility profile. See
 - regular expected utility profile
- subgame perfect
 - Nash equilibrium as, 44
 - Nash equilibrium outcome, 45
 - strategy punishing greedy offers, 348
- subjective probabilities, 139, 205
- subjectivist, Carnap as, 205
- subordination, structure of, 121
- Sugden, Robert
 - on common currency of advantage, 33
 - on equal division, 338
 - as a modern Humean, 335
 - search for a common currency of advantage, 239–260
- Sunstein, Cass, 390
- superego, associated with moral intuitions, 109
- surveillance, associated costs of, 366
- SWFL version of the Aggregation Theorem, 186
- SWFLs. See social welfare functionals
- Sydney, Algernon, 389, 396, 397
- symmetric bargaining situations, 341
- symmetric case
 - evolution of equal division more likely, 346
 - using the symmetric Nash bargaining solution, 320–322
- symmetric Nash bargaining solution, 322–323
- symmetric Nash equilibrium, 327
- system of democratic equality, 74
- system of liberal equality, 74
- systematic connections, raising credibility level, 115
- systematic unification, provided by a natural science, 115
- talents
 - contributions based on, 74
 - development and employment of, 6
 - moral credit for developing, 74
- tamed housewife example, 289, 292
- taste heterogeneity, 27
- tastes
 - champagne, 306, 306
 - compensating for, 91
 - expensive, 102, 250
- teleologic theory, utilitarianism as, 30
- teleological defense of utilitarianism, Harsanyi's, 47
- teleological utilitarianism of Harsanyi, 305
- teleological utilitarians, enforcement not a painful issue for, 311
- theory, beliefs laden with, 109
- A Theory of Justice*, 3
 - egalitarian principle, 377
 - misfortune described in, 80–81
- theory of justice, pioneered by John Rawls, 80
- theory of types, 110
- thick concepts, 118, 119
- time, repeated interaction over, 365
- total circumstances of Rawls, 254–255
- transformed utilitarian social evaluation, 157
- transformed utilitarian social welfare function, 159, 178
- transforms, affine and difference-preserving, 143

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-18429-8 - Justice, Political Liberalism, and Utilitarianism: Themes from Harsanyi and Rawls

Edited by Marc Fleurbaey, Maurice Salles and John A. Weymark

Index

More information

458

Index

- transitivity, choices violating, 416
- true preferences, 245–246
- trust, as Pareto superior, 381
- trustworthiness, 374
- two-person, zero-sum games, 358
- two-person bargaining theory of Nash, 367.
 - See also* Nash, John
- ultimate causal responsibility view of free will, 77
- ultimate causes, 77
- ultimate states of nature, 215
- uncertainty
 - lottery formulation of, 30
 - modeling using lotteries, 12
 - practical way of dealing with, 223
 - social aggregation under, 23–24
 - social choice under, 136
 - within the theory of good, 223
 - within the theory of right, 223
- Unchanged Contour Independence axiom, 272–273
- unchosen bad luck, compensating for, 103
- unchosen basic structural inequalities, 82
- undominated, facts making, 398
- unforgiving approach to responsibility, 103
- unfreedom, 396
- Unit Comparability, 185
- universal indifference to a common
 - consumption bundle, 39
- unproduced commodities, division of, 266
- unrestricted Bernoulli expected utility domain, 153
- unrestricted expected utility domain, 153
- unrestricted expected utility range, 150, 161
- Unrestricted Individual Utility Profile, 189
- utilitarian moral judgements, 415
- utilitarian principles, validating, 352
- utilitarian rule, deriving, 186
- utilitarian social welfare function approach, 37
- utilitarian solution, 342
- utilitarianism
 - axiomatization of, 26, 185
 - classical formulation of, 11
 - coherence of preference-based, 30
 - decision-theoretic defenses of, 11
 - of Harsanyi, 200–206
 - Harsanyi's analysis not supporting, 24
 - individuals versus government, 310
 - leading opponents of, 73
 - obtaining, 158
 - opposed to theories of fairness, 263
 - rational choice-theoretic defense of, 14
 - requiring good to be quantitative, 222
 - requiring interpersonal comparability of welfare, 129
 - roots of modern welfare economics in, 240
 - two distinctive features of, 289
 - versions of, 429
 - weighted form of, 16
- utilitarians, debates with egalitarians, 2, 304
- utility
 - added by ex post aggregation, 214
 - adding individual, 308–310
 - confusion surrounding the term, 431
 - defined by Broome, 30
 - maximizing the sum of, 310
 - a measure of an individual's well-being, 11
 - measuring in units of welfare, 135
 - ordinal and cardinal, 11–14
 - preference satisfaction as, 242
 - welfarism based on modern theories of, 306
 - what constitutes, 305
- utility aggregation, 204
- utility clones, 209
- utility consequences, 22
- utility functions, 416
 - aggregating, 20
 - cardinally measurable and interpersonally noncomparable, 142–143
 - cardinally measurable and unit comparable, 21, 143
 - defining preferences, 147
 - distinguishing profiles of, 21
 - of individuals in society, 140
 - for an ordinalist, 12
 - ordinally measurable and interpersonally noncomparable, 21, 142
 - permitting interpersonal utility comparisons, 137
 - restricting to nontrivial VNM representations, 195
 - satisfying the expected utility hypothesis, 23, 138–139, 147
 - types of, 53
- utility gains and losses, comparing, 13
- utility maximization, social and moral, 420
- utility profiles, 141
- utility theory
 - rejected by Rawls, 422
 - versions of, 198
- utility values, assigning to histories, 230

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-18429-8 - Justice, Political Liberalism, and Utilitarianism: Themes from Harsanyi and Rawls

Edited by Marc Fleurbaey, Maurice Salles and John A. Weymark

Index

More informationIndex

459

- utility vectors, social ordering of. See social welfare ordering
- utility-maximizing response, 356
- values, adjudicating conflicts in, 63
- variables, guided by rational principles, 360
- veil of ignorance
 - argument of Harsanyi, 129
 - bargaining behind, 320
 - Binmore's bargaining approach to, 49
 - current and future roles in society concealed behind, 312
 - Harsanyi's version of, 48
 - imagined, 235–237
 - impartial observer operating from behind, 15
 - institutionalization of the use of, 337
 - principles identified from behind, 42
 - worst off appealing to, 49
- veil of uncertainty, compared to veil of ignorance, 326
- VNM. See von Neumann-Morgenstern
- VNM-Range (VNM-R), 187
- VNM-Social Welfare Ordering (VNM-R*), 190
- VNM-Utility Domain (VNM-D), 187
- voluntary choices, responsibility for, 88–90
- von Neumann-Morgenstern
 - axioms, satisfying, 26
 - consistency postulates, 307
 - framework, 24–25, 199, 206
 - Marschak's formulation of, 201
 - maximizing utility, 358
 - preference axioms, 187
 - preference ordering, 186–187
 - preferences risk attitudes and, 188
 - on probability, 205
 - providing Harsanyi with a random variable, 205
 - rationality conditions, 309
 - treatments of preference, 205
 - turning tables on ordinalists, 201
- von Neumann-Morgenstern utility
 - function(s), 13, 25, 130, 136, 187, 314
 - deducing, 132
 - defining, 307
 - hierarchy of plural distinct kinds of, 427
 - measuring relative intensities of preference, 416, 424
 - modeling empathetic preferences, 313
 - representing a betterness relation, 31
 - summarizing preferences over lotteries, 309
- von Neumann-Morgenstern utility scales. See von Neumann-Morgenstern utility functions
- von Neumann-Morgenstern utility theory, 12, 14–15, 17
- wants
 - creating easily satisfied, 281
 - impoverished, 289
 - more easily satisfying, 40
 - relationship to outcomes, 293
- want-satisfaction, comparing amounts of, 286–287
- want-satisfaction thesis
 - communitarianism rejecting, 285
 - compatible with rejection of utilitarianism, 289
 - connection with liberalism, 284
 - corollaries of, 293
 - in its acceptable form, 287
 - limited form of, 40
 - ruling out homosexual relations as intrinsically bad, 285
 - situations in which wants are different, 194
- Weak Anonymity property, 194. See also Anonymity
- Weak Pareto property, 270. See also Pareto criterion
- weak preference relationship, 202
- weak utilitarianism, theorem characterizing, 193
- weak-equilibrium pair, 363
- wealth, as primary goods, 251
- weighted utilitarian social evaluation
 - functional, 140–141
 - characterization of, 166
 - satisfying Information Invariance with Respect to Cardinal Unit-Comparable Utilities, 145
 - as welfarist, 150
- weighted utilitarian social welfare function, 159, 321
- weighted utilitarianism, 136
 - multiprofile characterization of, 180
 - requiring interpersonal comparisons of utility gains and losses, 178
 - single-information-set characterization of, 173
 - weights independent, 137
 - weights, determining independently, 185

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-18429-8 - Justice, Political Liberalism, and Utilitarianism: Themes from Harsanyi and Rawls

Edited by Marc Fleurbaey, Maurice Salles and John A. Weymark

Index

More information

460

Index

- welfare economics
 - aim of, 239
 - branches of, 263
 - fundamental theorem of, 352–353
- welfare judgments, as impersonal preferences, 14
- welfare weights, as profile independent, 165
- welfarism, 150–156
 - defined, 152
 - deriving, 190
 - as an inadequate foundation for moral theory, 305
 - movement away from as retrograde, 305
 - obtaining a VNM version, 185
 - satisfying, 22
 - violation of, 163
- welfarism property, 22
- welfarist principle, utilitarianism as, 21–22
- welfarist version of the Aggregation Theorem, 184, 190–194
- well-being, 240
 - assessing, 305
 - concepts of, 30
 - Griffin's idea of, 287
 - interpersonal comparisons of, 93
 - measurable by a utility function, 12
 - measuring effective, 9
 - as a placeholder, 101
- Weymark, John A.
 - Sen's arguments formalized and extended by, 18
 - social aggregation and the expected utility hypothesis, 136–181
 - on social aggregation under uncertainty, 23
- what lies within our control, responsibility for, 98–101
- wide equilibrium, Rawls's notion of, 122
- willingness to take risks, 31
- windfall amount of money, sharing, 51–53
- Wittgenstein, Ludwig, 112, 113
- worst off. See also badly off; disadvantaged; least advantaged class; poor and oppressed
 - defining, 82
 - giving priority to, 5
- worst possible outcome, 72
- Yaari, Menahem, 329
- Zeckhauser, Richard, 211
- zero-sum, two-person game, 359
- Zeuthen, Frederik, 368