

INDEX

- accomplice evidence
 admissibility 43–4
 corroboration
   multiple accused 46, 49
   nature 47–9
   whether essential 44–7 defects 43, 148
 directions to juries 43–7, 49
- accused
 compellability
   bankruptcy cases 165
   Bentham's views 127–8, 175–6
   proposed reforms 158–9, 175
 examination
   by judges 3, 123, 147
   by magistrates 123–7, 130–1
 individual responsibility 173–5
 oaths 125, 170–1
 representation 145–51
 role in trials 3, 123, 146–8
see also incompetency of accused;
   multiple accused; right to silence
- adjective law 6–10, 98, 127–8
- admissibility
 accomplice evidence 43–4
 Bentham's views 9, 20, 98–100
 hearsay evidence 21–3, 28, 36
see also exclusionary rules of evidence
- adversary procedure
 characteristics 145
 growth 149–50
 roles 3, 145–7, 150–1
see also counsel
- affidavits
 spouses 167
 truth 112
- affirmation
 civil cases 57, 59–60
 criminal cases 57, 60
 non-believers 58, 60–1
 oaths compared 79–81
 objectors to oaths 57–60
 reforms 56–8, 60–1, 65–7
see also religious incompetency
- agnostics 63
see also religious scepticism
- appeals 3, 26–7
- Appleton, John 10–11, 179–80, 185
- arbitration 120–1
- Ashley, Evelyn 132, 134–5
- atheists
 affirmation 58, 60–1
 attitudes to 63–5, 81–5
 competency 51, 58, 60–1
   Bentham's views 52
 increase 68–9
see also religious scepticism
- bankruptcy cases 165
- Baptists 58
- barristers see counsel
- Bentham, Jeremy
 influences on reforms
   common law 181–2
   incompetency of accused 175–80, 184–6
   incompetency from infamy 183
   incompetency from interest 110, 114, 122
   operation 10–12, 182–3
   orthodox view 4–7
   religious incompetency 66–7, 88–94, 182–3
 originality 12, 90, 183
 parliamentary support 91, 182–3
 views
   adjective law 8–10, 98, 127–8
   admissibility 9

Bentham, Jeremy (cont.)
 calculation of utility 9, 98
 circumstantial evidence 20
 common law 19–20, 26, 29
 double standard of truth 52–3
 established church 54–5
 exclusionary rules of evidence 20, 98–100, 131
 incompetency of accused 127–31
 incompetency from infamy 100
 religious incompetency 52–6
 false confessions 131
 fee-gathering system 9, 54
 inference of guilt 178–9
 judges 8, 9, 53–4
 juries 175
 legal profession 54, 55
 legislation 8–9
 natural procedure 9–10, 20, 178
 oaths 52–6
 precedent 19–20, 99
 procedural law 9–10, 20, 54, 127–8
 publicity 130
 religion 54–5
 right to silence 127–31, 175–6, 178–9
 substantive law 8
 technical procedure 9, 10, 54
 Berthold, Henry 64–5, 87
 best evidence rule 17–18
 Best's Treatise
 declarations in course of business 37
 justification of exclusionary rules 24
 Blackstone, Sir William 16, 124
 Brougham, Henry
 influences on reforms
 compellability of accused 159
 incompetency of accused 132–4, 161–2, 165, 176–7
 incompetency from interest 111–14
 religious incompetency 79–80, 91
 burden of proof 158–61
 case law 16, 25–6
 Bentham's views 19–20, 99
see also common law
 Catholic emancipation 66
 Chartists 74, 75
 church see religion
 circumstantial evidence, Bentham's
 views 20
 civil cases
 affirmation 57, 59–60
 appeals 3, 26

competency of parties 96–8, 101–3, 105 examination of spouses 98, 102, 103–4, 105
 civil evidence, development 26–7
 closing speeches 146
 codification
 criminal law 135–41
 evidence law 27–8
 Collier, John Payne 149–50
 common law
 Bentham's views 19–20, 26, 29
 influences on reforms 181–2
 development 15–16, 24–6
 flexibility 16, 20
 incompetency from infamy 95–6
 incompetency from interest 96–8
 reform potential 19
 religious incompetency 50–2
 Stephen's views 28
 Common Law Commissioners
 exclusionary rules of evidence 1
 incompetency from interest 119–20
 oaths 59
 compellability
 accused
 bankruptcy cases 165
 Bentham's views 127–8
 examination by magistrates 123–7, 130–1
 proposed reforms 158–9, 175
 spouses
 civil cases 103, 104
 criminal cases 133, 134, 143
 witnesses 109
 competency
 accomplices 44
 atheists 51–2, 58, 60–1
 Baptists 58
 criminals 95–6, 106–7
 mistresses 167
 Moravians 56–7
 parties 96–8, 101–3, 105
 Quakers 52, 56–7
 relatives of parties 98
 Separatists 57
 spouses
 civil cases 98, 102, 103–4, 105
 criminal cases 133, 134, 136, 143, 167
 divorce cases 165
see also incompetency of accused;
 incompetency from infamy;

- incompetency from interest; religious incompetency
- confessions 125–6, 129, 131
- corroboration of accomplice evidence
  - see* accomplice evidence
- Cottu, Charles 147
- counsel
  - addresses to juries 146
  - comment on evidence 147
  - examination of witnesses 146, 150–1
  - experience 150, 156
  - increase 149–50
  - role in trials 3, 145–7, 150–1
  - speeches 146
- county courts
  - competency of parties 102, 114–16, 121–2
  - incidence of perjury 116
- Courts of Request 121
- criminal cases
  - affirmation 57, 60
  - appeals 3, 26–7
  - examination of spouses 103, 133, 143, 167
- criminal evidence, development 26–7
- criminal law, codification 135–41
- criminals
  - competency 95–6, 106–7
  - see also* incompetency from infamy
- cross-examination see examination of witnesses
- custom 16
- declarations against interest 37
- declarations in course of business
  - admissibility
    - contemporaneity 32–4, 41–2
    - duty of declarant 38–41
    - interest 31–2, 35, 37
    - foundation 30, 34, 37–8
    - origins 29–34
    - treatise exposition 34–8
- defendants see accused
- Denman, George 91
- Denman, Thomas
  - influence on Bentham 91, 183
  - influences on reforms
    - incompetency from infamy 106–7, 183
    - incompetency from interest 104–6, 109, 110–11
- Dicey, A. V. 4, 5–6, 181
- Dickens, Charles 170, 171
- directions to juries 3
  - accomplice evidence 43–7, 49
- divorce cases 165
- domestic procedure 9–10
- double standard of truth 12, 52–3, 85–6
- economic crises 75
- entrapment 148
- entries in tradesmen's books see declarations in course of business
- established church
  - Bentham's views 54–5
  - social function 62
  - see also* religion
- Evans, William David 17–18
- evidence
  - comment by counsel 147
  - legislator's duties 8–9
  - rewards for 148
  - see also* accomplice evidence; circumstantial evidence; civil evidence; criminal evidence; exclusionary rules of evidence; hearsay evidence; oral evidence; police evidence; written evidence
- evidence law, codification 27–8
- evidential presumptions 21
  - innocence 128, 159–61, 171, 175
- examination of witnesses
  - by accused 147
  - by Counsel 146, 150–1
  - mistresses 167
  - parties 96–8, 101–3, 105
  - relatives of parties 98
  - religious competency 51–2
  - spouses 98, 102, 103–4, 105
  - see also* accused
- exclusionary rules of evidence
  - Bentham's views 9, 20, 98–100
  - incompetency of accused 127–31
  - incompetency from infamy 100
  - religious incompetency 52–6
- Common Law Commissioners' views 1
  - development in treatises 17–18
  - justification 3, 9, 20–4
  - summary 1–2
  - see also* incompetency of accused; incompetency from infamy; incompetency from interest; religious incompetency
- false confessions 131

family, as procedural model 9–10
 fee-gathering system 9, 54
 financial crises 75
 Finer, S. E. 11
 France, England contrasted 147–8, 152–4, 187–9
 French Revolution 72–3, 74, 163

Garrow, Sir William 150–1
 Gilbert, Sir Jeffrey 2, 17
 Green T. H. 174

Hart, H. L. A. 7, 181
 Hawkins's Treatise, accomplice
 evidence 43
 hearsay evidence 17, 21–3, 28, 36
 restriction of exceptions 37, 41
 Holdsworth, Sir William 6, 181
 Hume, Joseph 63, 64, 87
 husband and wife see spouses

incompetency of accused 123, 127
 Bentham's views 127–31
 influences against reforms
 burden of proof 158–61
 France contrasted 152–4, 187–9
 judicial intervention 152, 155–7
 oppressiveness 152–3
 perjury 169–70
 influences on reforms 184–6
 acquittal rate 151–2
 adversary procedure 145–51
 anomalies 165–6, 172–3
 Bentham 175–80, 184–6
 Brougham 161–2, 165, 176–7
 continuity 171–3
 discovery of truth 161–2
 improper indictment 167
 individual responsibility 173–5
 openness 166–7, 176
 perjury 170–1, 179
 police evidence 163–4
 unfairness 151–2
 United States 11, 177–8
 wrongful conviction 152, 162–5, 172
 reforms
 criminal law codes 135–41
 government measures 142–4
 private members' bills 132–5
 sexual offences 166

incompetency from defect of religious principle see religious incompetency
 incompetency from infamy

common law 95–6
 influences on reforms
 anomalies 106–7
 Bentham 183
 Denman 106–7, 183
 justification 95–6
 reforms 100–1

incompetency from interest
 common law 96–8
 influences on reforms 183–4
 Bentham 110, 114, 122
 Brougham 111–14
 commerce 120–1
 county courts 114, 115–16, 121–2
 criminal cases 112
 Denman 104–6, 110–11, 119
 inconsistency 104–5, 112
 inconvenience 107, 110, 113 injustice 111, 112–13
 Law Amendment Society 115, 176–7
 legal profession 110, 115–16
 other courts 115–16, 120–2
 perjury 113–16
 justification 96–8
 nature of interest 97–8, 104–5
 opposition to reforms 108–9, 117–19
 parties 98, 101–3, 105
 reforms 100–4
 relatives of parties 98
 spouses 98, 102, 103–4, 105

individual responsibility 173–5
 individual rights 87–8
 infamy see incompetency from infamy
 inference of guilt 128, 159–61, 175
 Bentham's views 178–9

influences against reforms see sub-heading influences against reforms
under topics

influences on reforms see sub-heading influences on reforms under topics

interested parties see incompetency
 from interest

interrogation of witnesses see
 examination of witnesses

Irish nationalism 141, 143–4, 172
 irradiation (Bentham's views) 11
 irreligion see religious scepticism

judge-made law see common law

judges
 attitude to reforms
 incompetency of accused 152, 156–7

- incompetency from interest 110, 115–16, 117–19
- Bentham's views 8, 9, 53–4
- development of common law 15–16
- directions to juries 3
- accomplice evidence 44–7, 49
- examination of witnesses 3, 123, 147
- relation with juries 3
- role in trials 3, 146–7
- effects of competent accused 155–7
- juries
- Bentham's views 175
- counsel's addresses 146
- judges' directions 3
- accomplice evidence 44–7, 49
- relation with judges 3
- justices' examinations 123–7, 130–1
- Kelly, Sir Fitzroy 132, 134
- Kingsley, Charles 76
- Lambarde, William 124
- Law Amendment Society 115, 120, 176–7
- law reports 25, 148
- legal education 14
- legal profession
- attitude to reforms
- incompetency of accused 152, 156–7
- incompetency from interest 110, 115–16, 117–19
- Bentham's views 54, 55
- relation with Parliament 181–2
- legal treatises see treatises
- legislation
- Bentham's views 8–9
- as instrument of reform 19
- Lowndes, John J. 108–9
- magistrates' examinations 123–7, 130–1
- Maine, Sir Henry Sumner 4, 5*n*, 181
- Maine (North America) 10–11
- married persons see spouses
- Mill, John Stuart 70, 71, 76
- mistresses, competency 167
- Moravians 56–7, 65–7
- More, Hannah 33–4
- multiple accused 46, 49
- National Association for the Promotion of Social Science 86, 177
- natural system 9–10, 20, 178
- New York 115*n*
- nisi prius reports 25, 148
- oath ceremony 55–6
- oaths
- accused 125, 170–1
- affirmation compared 79–81
- Bentham's views 52–6
- justification 50–2, 72, 82
- magistrates' examination 125
- report of Common Law
Commissioners 59
- social effects 72
- see also* religious incompetency
- opposition to reforms see sub-heading opposition to reforms under topics
- oral evidence 17–18
- Parliament, relationship with legal profession 181–2
- parties
- competency 96–8, 101–3, 105
- see also* incompetency from interest
- perjury
- county courts 116
- influence against reforms
- incompetency of accused 169–70
- incompetency from interest 97
- influence on reforms
- incompetency of accused 170–1, 179
- incompetency from interest 113–16
- religious incompetency 86–7, 93
- permeation (Bentham's views) 11
- Phillipps's Treatise
- declarations in course of business 34–6
- incompetency from interest 96
- Picton, James 142
- Pim, Bedford Clapperton Trevelyan 138
- pleadings 112, 114
- police evidence 148, 163–4
- political theory
- individual responsibility 173–5
- religion 71–4
- Pothier's Treatise 17–18
- pre-trial investigations 123–7, 130–1
- precedent 16, 25–6
- Bentham's views 19–20, 99
- presumptions of law 21
- innocence 128, 159–61, 171, 175
- privilege against self-incrimination
- Bentham's views 128
- government measures 143
- pre-Victorian era 146

- privilege (cont.)
 private members' bills 133, 134, 135, 136
 Stephen's code 136
see also right to silence
- procedural law
 Bentham's views 9–10, 20, 54, 127–8
 family as model 9–10
- public opinion 52
- publicity 130
- punitory laws 127
- Quakers 52, 56–7
 influences on reforms 65–7
- reforms
 affirmation 56–8, 60–1, 65–7
 incompetency of accused
 criminal law codes 135–41
 government measures 142–4
 private members' bills 132–5
 incompetency from infamy 100–1
 incompetency from interest 100–4
 religious incompetency
 Baptists 58
 Moravians 56–7, 65–7
 non-believers 58, 60–1
 objectors to oaths 57–60
 Separatists 57
- relatives of parties 98
- relevancy 28
- religion
 Bentham's views 54–5
 relation with truth 168
 social function 62, 71–4, 76, 83
- religious incompetency
 Bentham's views 52–6
 criticisms 89, 90–1
 common law 50–2
 competency examinations 51–2
 influences on reforms 182–3
 absurdity 85, 93
 Bentham 66–7, 88–94, 182–3
 Catholic emancipation 66
 double standard of truth 85–6, 93
 individual rights 87–8
 just convictions 76–7
 perjury 86–7, 93
 public safety 65–6
 religious scepticism 61–2, 67–72, 84–5, 93
 security of property 77–8, 93
 social stability 61–2, 72–6, 84, 93
 justification 50–1
 opposition to reforms 79–84
 reforms
 Baptists 58
 Moravians 56–7, 65–7
 non-believers 58, 60–1
 objectors to oaths 57–60
 Quakers 52, 56–7, 65–7
 Separatists 57
 religious scepticism 61–2, 67–72, 84–5, 93
 attitudes to 63–5
 reports of cases 25, 148
 representation of accused 145–51
 rewards for evidence 148 right to affirm see affirmation
 right to silence 123–7, 142–3
 Bentham's views 127–31
 inference of guilt 128, 159–61, 175
 Bentham's views 178–9
 proposed reforms 158–9, 175
see also incompetency of accused
- Royal Commission on Law Relating to Indictable Offences 136
- rules of adjudication 127
- rules of evidence see exclusionary rules of evidence
- sanctions of truth 50–1, 86–7, 92–3
- Scully, Vincent 132, 134
- secularism 68, 70
see also religious scepticism
- self-realisation 174
- Separatists 57
- sexual offences 166
- silence see right to silence
- Social Science Association 86, 177
- social stability
 function of religion 72–4, 76, 83
 influences on reforms 61–2, 72–6, 84, 93
 opposition to reforms 79–84
 relation with oaths 72
- speeches of counsel 146
- Spinks, Frederick Lowton 138
- spouses
 affidavits 167
 compellability
 civil cases 103, 104
 criminal cases 133, 134, 143
 competency
 civil cases 98, 102, 103–4, 105
 criminal cases 133, 134, 136, 143, 167

Cambridge University Press
 978-0-521-18768-8 - The Law of Evidence in Victorian England
 C. J. W. Allen

Index

More information

Index

205

- divorce cases 165
- examination 98, 102, 103, 103–4, 105
- stability see social stability
- standard of proof 158–61
- Starkie's Treatise
  - accomplice evidence 46–7
  - declarations against interest 37
  - incompetency from infamy 95–6
  - incompetency from interest 96
  - justification of exclusionary rules 20–3
- Stephen, Sir Herbert 156, 161*n*
- Stephen, Sir James Fitzjames
  - codification
    - criminal law 135–6
    - evidence law 27–8
  - relevancy principle 28
  - views
    - common law 28
    - incompetency of accused 160, 171
    - religion 68
    - religious incompetency 84–5
- subornation of perjury 113
- substantive law 2
  - Bentham's views 8
- suscitation (Bentham's views) 11
- sworn evidence see oaths

- technical procedure 9, 10, 54
- textbooks see treatises
- Tractarianism 68
- treatises 2
  - accomplice evidence 43, 44, 46–7
  - declarations in course of business 34
  - development of exclusionary rules 17–18
    - justification 20–4
  - exposition of exclusionary rules of evidence 2
  - influence 14–15
- trials
  - France contrasted 147–8, 152–4, 187–9
  - roles
    - accused 3, 123, 146–8
    - counsel 145–7, 150–1
    - judges 3, 146–7, 155–7
- truth
  - double standard 12, 52–3, 85–6
  - relation with religion 168
  - sanctions 50–1, 86–7, 92–3
  - value 168

- United States 10–11, 177–8
- utilitarianism 5–6
  - calculation of utility 9, 98

- Wheelhouse, William 138
- Wills, Alfred 156
- Wilson, Sir Richard K. 4–5
- witnesses
  - compellability 109
  - sanctions of truth 50–1, 86–7, 92–3
  - see also* accused; examination of witnesses; incompetency of accused; incompetency from infamy; incompetency from interest; religious incompetency
- wives see spouses
- written evidence 17–18