

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-19156-2 - Building Transnational Networks: Civil Society and the Politics of Trade in the Americas

Marisa von Bulow

Index

More information

Index

- abolitionist movement, 40
- Action Aid, 72, 146–147
- Action Canada Network (ACN), 131
- actors. See also civil society organizations
 - anti-globalization, 13, 27, 47, 166
 - nonstate actors, 4
 - range of, 6
- agency, 8, 199
 - agency-centered view/approach, 8, 190
- agricultural subsidies, 95–96, 103, 113, 189
- Alliance for Responsible Trade (ART), 57, 142–145, 178, 183. See also trade coalitions, United States
 - as an affiliation-based trade coalition, 133
 - as transnational broker, 108, 143
 - centrality in transnational network of closest allies, 132–133
 - critiques of, 144–145
 - differences with CTC, 142–143
- Alternative Policies for the Southern Cone (PACS), 104
 - and MERCOSUR, 104–106
 - and the mechanism of extension, 110
- Alternatives for the Americas, 34, 156–160
 - and ideational pathways to transnationality, 161
 - and the debate about labor clauses, 166–167
 - on national sovereignty, 165–175
- American Federation of Labor-Congress of Industrial Organizations (AFL-CIO) and Alliance for Responsible Trade (ART), 142
- and NAFTA, 53, 55
 - and the Cold War, 83
 - and the FTAA, 89
 - centrality in domestic network of closest allies, 74
 - centrality in transnational network of closest allies, 77
 - change in pathway to transnationality, 92, 189
 - critiques of, 113
 - debate about social alliances, 91
 - new relational embeddedness of, 112
 - organizational pathways to transnationality, 118
 - pathway to transnationality, 87–90
 - position on the United States-Peru Free Trade Agreement, 176–178
 - relationships with Latin American allies, 164
- Andean Community, 51
- Argentina, 59, 98, 148, 187
- Authentic Labor Front (FAT), 60, 84
 - and NAFTA, 56
 - and RMALC, 134
 - centrality in domestic network of closest allies, 74
 - centrality in transnational network of closest allies, 77
 - debate about social alliances, 90–91
 - pathway to transnationality, 83
- bilateral agreements. See Chile-U.S. Free Trade Agreement, U.S.-Peru Free Trade Agreement
- Bolivia, 98, 187
- boomerang effect, 182–184

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-19156-2 - Building Transnational Networks: Civil Society and the Politics of Trade in the Americas

Marisa von Bulow

Index

More information

Index

- Brazil, 6, 13–15, See also Brazilian Network for the Integration of the Peoples (REBRIP)
- and challengers of trade agreements, 67
 - and GATT, 42
 - and labor organizations, 73–79, 81
 - and MERCOSUR, 53, 59–61
 - and networks of closest allies, 72, 73–79, 112–113
 - and NGOs, 104, 106
 - and organizational pathways to transnationality, 146–152
 - and rural organizations, 107–109
 - and the consultation on the FTAA, 148
 - and the HSA, 122, 125–127, 131
 - and the World Social Forums, 129
 - and trade coalitions, 132–133
 - Chamber of Deputies, 185
- Brazilian Institute of Social and Economic Analysis (IBASE)
- centrality in transnational network of closest allies, 77
- Brazilian Network for the Integration of the Peoples (REBRIP), 146
- and the election of new governments, 187
 - as an affiliation-based trade coalition, 131–133
 - as transnational broker, 149
 - centrality in transnational network of closest allies, 132–133, 146
 - internal organization of, 147–148
 - brokerage/brokers, 18, 35, 76, 107–109, 118, 128, 151, 183, 194
 - and trade coalitions, 139–142, 143, 149, 193
 - definition of, 108
- business organizations
- and civil society, 5–6
 - and coalition building, 197
 - and MERCOSUR, 58, 61–62, 64, 106, 197
 - and NAFTA, 182
 - and networks of closest allies, 69, 72, 74
 - and the debate about labor clauses, 159
 - and the FTAA, 123
 - and the GATT, 42
 - and the WTO, 45, 162
 - participation in trade debates, 10, 41, 50
- campaign. See also Continental Campaign against the FTAA, Jubilee South
- Campaign, organizational pathways to transnationality
 - as coalition building mode, 119–121
 - single-issue/issue-based, 24–25, 28, 103
 - Canada, 14, 16, 49, 148, See also Canada-United States Free Trade Agreement (CUSFTA), Action Canada Network, Pro-Canada Network
 - and civil society networks during the NAFTA debates, 54–58
 - and GATT, 42
 - and NAFTA, 54, 56–57, 96
 - and the anti-MAI campaign, 21
 - Canada-United States Free Trade Agreement (CUSFTA), 11, 51–54
 - Canadian Jesuit Center, 57
 - Canadian Labour Congress (CLC)
 - and the search for allies in the NAFTA region, 53, 55
 - debate about social alliances, 89, 91
 - Catholic Church. See also faith-based organizations
 - and the Brazilian Campaign Against the FTAA, 148
 - Center for Labor Investigation and Consulting (CILAS)
 - centrality in domestic network of closest allies, 74
 - Center for Studies for Rural Change in Mexico (CECCAM)
 - position in domestic network of closest allies, 101
 - Center of National Studies on Alternative Development (CENDA)
 - and the mechanism of extension, 110
 - and transnational brokerage, 109
 - position in domestic network of closest allies, 101
 - Change to Win Coalition (CTW)
 - position on the U.S.-Peru Free Trade Agreement, 178
 - Chávez, Hugo, 183, 187
 - Chile, 6, 13–15
 - and labor organizations, 82
 - Chile Action Network for Peoples' Initiative (RECHIP), 135–136
 - Chilean Alliance for a Just and Responsible Trade (ACJR) 103–104, 120, 156, 183, See also trade coalitions, Chile
 - as an NGO, 104, 136

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-19156-2 - Building Transnational Networks: Civil Society and the Politics of Trade in the Americas

Marisa von Bulow

Index

More informationIndex

- as an affiliation-based trade coalition, 132–142
- centrality in domestic network of closest allies, 74
- centrality in transnational network of closest allies, 77, 132–134
- weakening of, 134–138
- Citizens' Trade Campaign (CTC), 120
 - and the HSA, 145–146
 - as transnational broker, 143
 - differences with ART, 142–143
 - ideational pathways to transnationality, 161
- citizenship
 - new forms of, 24
- civil society. See also civil society organizations
 - definition of, 6
 - increased interest in trade negotiations, 9–11, 39–41
 - participation in trade debates before the 1990s, 50
- civil society organizations, 8,
 - See also* organizational pathways to transnationality, ideational pathways to transnationality
 - and ideational pathways to transnationality, 32–34
 - and NAFTA, 54–58
 - and organizational pathways to transnationality, 30–31
 - and the FTAA, 11
 - and the WTO, 45–47
 - as challengers of trade agreements, 6, 13
 - as participants in the anti-MAI campaign, 20
 - as targets of transnational collective action, 5
 - critiques of trade agreements, 12
 - definition of, 6
 - grassroots. 7
 - in networks of closest allies, 67–80
 - internationalization of, 5
 - interviews with, 16
 - member-based, 72
 - non member-based, 72
 - pathways to transnationality, 3, 6–7, 17
 - relationship with political parties and national governments, 9, 180, 189
 - responses to structural changes, 16
- claims
 - and ideational pathways to transnationality, 33–34
- coalition building, 27–32,
 - See also* organizational pathways to transnationality, trade coalitions
 - definition of, 28
 - modes of, 28–31
 - patterns and dynamics of, 150–152
- collective action. See transnational collective action
- Colombia, 148
- Common Market of the South (MERCOSUR), 4, 12, 48, 51, 53
 - and labor organizations, 58–62
 - and legislators, 186
 - and NGOs, 106–107
 - and rural organizations, 98
 - lack of interest in, 62–63
 - lessons from, 58–64
 - Social-Labor Declaration, 86
- Communist Party (Cuba), 185
- Confederation of Mexican Workers (CTM), 86
 - and NAFTA, 55, 56
 - pathway to transnationality, 84
 - ties with the AFL-CIO, 87
- Confederation of National Unions (CSN) and NAFTA, 56
- constructivist approach, 7
- Continental Campaign against the FTAA, 118, 120, 127, 128–130, 137, 146, 150
 - as campaign coalition building mode, 119
 - as example of periodic transnationalization, 161
 - Brazilian chapter of the, 148
 - Mexican chapter of the, 139
 - national chapters of the, 29
 - public consultations on the FTAA, 129
 - relationship with national governments, 187
 - ties to political parties, 185
- Coordination of Southern Cone Labor Federations (CCSCS) and MERCOSUR, 54, 59–60, 88
 - creation of, 53, 120
- Coordinator of Family Farm Organizations of MERCOSUR (COPROFAM), 98–100

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-19156-2 - Building Transnational Networks: Civil Society and the Politics of Trade in the Americas

Marisa von Bulow

Index

More information

Index

- Cuba
meetings of the Continental Campaign against the FTAA, 129–130
- democracy
and coalition building, 30, 31, 59
and the debate about national sovereignty, 20, 157, 198 transitions to, 43, 50, 53–54, 56, 58, 63, 82
- Democratic Party, 176–177, 186
ties with the AFL-CIO, 189
- Development-GAP (D-GAP)
as transnational broker, 108
new relational embeddedness of, 112
- diffusion, 15
as a type of relational mechanism, 17
definition of, 35
in “Alternative for the Americas”, 158–159, 184
of ideas, 63
of organizational repertoires, 63, 117, 131
- Doctors Without Borders, 104
- Economic Commission for Latin America and the Caribbean (ECLAC) and regional integration in Latin America, 51
- embeddedness “argument of embeddedness”, 7 double embeddedness of actors in social networks and political contexts, 6–9, 13, 21, 23, 27, 35, 67, 179, 189, 190, 192 in political contexts, 179 in social networks, 48, 86, 88 labor organizations’ double embeddedness in social networks and political contexts, 82 political, 7, 17
- environmental organizations and CTC, 142
and debates about national sovereignty, 166
and domestic networks of closest allies, 69, 72
and MERCOSUR, 62
and NAFTA, 96
and the debate about genetically modified organisms, 101–102
centrality in transnational network of closest allies, 78
participation in trade debates, 10
- Environmental Studies Group (GEA)
position in domestic network of closest allies, 101
- extension
as a type of relational mechanism, 17
definition of, 35
example of, 113
in “Alternatives for the Americas”, 158 of issues and agendas, 91, 108–109, 110
- faith-based organizations, 6
and domestic networks of closest allies, 72
and NAFTA, 56–57
and the search for allies in the NAFTA region, 56 ties with rural organizations in Brazil and the United States, 100
- Federation of Organisms for Social and Educational Assistance (FASE), 104
as transnational broker, 108–109
centrality in domestic network of closest allies, 74
- free trade and anticommunism, 49 and the creation of a global trade regime, 45 and the World Trade Organization (WTO), 44–45 between the United States and Canada, 49 interfaces with other issue areas, 39–41 negotiations in the Americas, 4
- Free Trade Area of the Americas (FTAA), 4, 11, 29, 57, 67, 76, 100, 146, 149, 162, See also Continental Campaign against the FTAA
and labor organizations, 83, 84, 88
Belo Horizonte Ministerial Meeting, 53–54, 108, 121
Miami Ministerial Meeting, 122
- Friends of the Earth (FOE)
centrality in domestic network of closest allies, 74 position in transnational network of closest allies, 78
- G-20
and the WTO, 95

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-19156-2 - Building Transnational Networks: Civil Society and the Politics of Trade in the Americas

Marisa von Bulow

Index

More informationIndex

- gender organizations. See also International Gender and Trade Network (IGTN) and challengers of trade agreements, 11 participation in trade coalitions, 118
- General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade (GATT), 11, 54, 96 differences with the WTO, 44–45 history of, 42–44
- General Workers' Confederation (CGT-Argentina) and MERCOSUR, 60, 61
- General Workers' Confederation (CGT-Brazil) and MERCOSUR, 60, 88 and the FTAA, 196 pathway to transnationality, 83
- global civil society, 6 and the anti-MAI campaign, 21 and the relevance of actors' embeddedness in political contexts, 23
- Global Exchange, 9
- global governance, 13, 107, 198 and "Alternatives for the Americas", 165–175 and ideational pathways to transnationality, 32 and trade, 10, 44, 113, 196
- globalization, 10, 13, 22, 31, 187, 188, 190
- Grassroots Global Justice, 144
- Greenpeace (Mexico) and the debate about genetically modified organisms, 102 position in domestic network of closest allies, 101
- Hemispheric Social Alliance (HSA), 89, 113, 147, 150, 185 and "Alternatives for the Americas", 34, 167 as affiliation-based coalition mode, 119 as example of sustained transnationalization, 161 as transnational broker, 140 creation of, 89 critiques of, 125–127 internal organization of, 123–125 phases of, 121–122
- Human Rights Watch (HRW), 104
- ideational pathways to transnationality, 18, 32–34 and "Alternatives for the Americas", 156–161 and diffusion, 184 diffusion of, 63 typology of, 32–33, 160–161 variety of, 156
- identity, 89, 91 building and "Alternatives for the Americas", 156
- Institute for Policy Studies (IPS) and CUSFTA, 53 and the search for allies in the NAFTA region, 54 centrality in domestic network of closest allies, 74
- Institute of Political Ecology (IEP) centrality in transnational network of closest allies, 77 position in transnational network of closest allies, 78
- Institute of Socio-Economic Studies (INESC); 104 and MERCOSUR, 106
- Institutional Revolutionary Party (PRI), 97
- Inter-American Regional Organization of Workers (ORIT) 54, 136 and MERCOSUR, 62 and the HSA, 122 debate about social alliances, 89–92
- International Brotherhood of Teamsters (IBT) and the HSA, 146
- International Confederation of Free Trade Unions (ICFTU), 54, 55
- International Gender and Trade Network (IGTN) as affiliation-based coalition mode, 119–121
- International Labor Organization (ILO), 40 and the debate about labor clauses, 89
- International Trade Organization (ITO), 42
- Interunion Workers' Assembly-National Workers' Confederation (PIT-CNT) and MERCOSUR, 60–61
- Jubilee South Campaign, 148 centrality in transnational network of closest allies, 132–133

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-19156-2 - Building Transnational Networks: Civil Society and the Politics of Trade in the Americas

Marisa von Bulow

Index

More information

Index

- Keynesianism, 50
- Labor Force
and MERCOSUR, 88
and the FTAA, 196
pathway to transnationality, 83
- labor organizations
and domestic networks of closest allies, 69
and MERCOSUR, 58–62, 64
and the mechanism of extension, 108–109
centrality in social networks, 81–82
new relational embeddedness of, 86–92
participation in trade debates in the Americas, 83–86
- Landless Rural Workers' Movement (MST), 93
centrality in domestic network of closest allies, 74, 94
centrality in transnational network of closest allies, 77, 79
position in transnational network of closest allies, 78
- Latin American Coordination of Rural Organizations (CLOC)
and the FTAA, 98
- Latin American Workers' Federation (CLAT)
and MERCOSUR, 62
- mechanisms, 7, See also extension, suppression, diffusion, transformation in "Alternatives for the Americas", 158–159 typology of relational mechanisms, 17, 35–36
- Mexican Action Network on Free Trade (RMALC), 57
as transnational broker, 139–142
centrality in transnational network of closest allies, 132–133
critiques of, 136–139
- Mexican Center for Environmental Law (CEMDA)
position in transnational network of closest allies, 78
- Mexican Labor Congress
and NAFTA, 56
- Mexico, 6, 13–15, 148
and civil society networks during the NAFTA debates, 55–58
and labor organizations, 82
and NAFTA, 54
monkeywrenching tactics, 184
- Multilateral Agreement on Investment (MAI) campaign against the, 20–22
- National Association of Rural and Indigenous Women (ANAMURI)
centrality in domestic network of closest allies, 74, 94
- National Association of Rural Producers' Commercial Firms (ANEC)
position in domestic network of closest allies, 101
- National Confederation of Workers in Agriculture (CONTAG)
and the WTO, 95
and REBRIP, 146–147
- National Family Farm Coalition (NFFC) and commodity prices, 95
centrality in domestic network of closest allies, 94
- National Peasants' Confederation (CNC)
and NAFTA, 97
national sovereignty and global governance, 164 and states, 22
and transnational actors, 22
as a transnational collective action dilemma, 161–175 defended by civil society organizations, 21, 22 flexible framing of, 21
Southern views on, 164
threats to, 161–164
- National Union of Autonomous Regional Rural Organizations (UNORCA)
centrality in domestic network of closest allies, 94
centrality in transnational network of closest allies, 77
position in domestic network of closest allies, 101
- National Union of Workers (UNT), 84
pathway to transnationality, 84
new regionalism, 51
nongovernmental organizations (NGOs), 6, 13
and domestic networks of closest allies, 69
and the mechanism of extension, 109–110
brokerage roles of, 108–109

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-19156-2 - Building Transnational Networks: Civil Society and the Politics of Trade in the Americas

Marisa von Bulow

Index

More informationIndex

- eligible to attend WTO Ministerials, 45–47
- increased participation in trade debates, 106–107
- multi-issue, 103–106
- North American Commission for Environmental Cooperation (CEC)
 - contamination of maize fields, 102
- North American Free Trade Agreement (NAFTA), 4, 11, 48
 - agrarian chapter of the, 101
 - and investment regulations, 21
 - and NGOs, 107
 - Labor Side Agreement, 86
 - lessons from, 63–64
- North-South
 - divide, 12
 - interactions among civil society organizations, 13
- organizational pathways to transnationality, 28–31
 - and organizational repertoire, 17
 - campaign coalition building mode, 119–121
 - diffusion of, 11, 35, 57, 63, 131–132
 - main affiliation-based trade coalitions, 131–133
 - new and old, 117–118
 - typology of, 28–31
- Oxfam International/America/Great Britain, 147
 - and domestic networks of closest allies, 72
 - and the mechanism of transformation, 102, 113
 - report on rules of trade, 95
- Paraguay, 53, 59, 98, 148
 - and MERCOSUR, 61
- pathways to transnationality, 3, 15,
 - See also* organizational pathways to transnationality, ideational pathways to transnationality, periodic internalization, periodic transnationalization, sustained internalization, sustained transnationalization
 - and changing political opportunities, 9
 - and scales of action, 17
 - changes in, 92
 - definition of, 6, 25
 - typology of, 25–27
 - variation of, 13
- Peoples' Team (DECA-EP), 104
 - and the mechanism of extension, 110
 - centrality in domestic network of closest allies, 74
- periodic internalization
 - as pathway to transnationality, 27, 160
- periodic transnationalization
 - as pathway to transnationality, 26, 161
- Peru. See United States-Peru Free Trade Agreement
- political opportunities
 - and the political embeddedness of actors, 189
 - definition of, 8
 - domestic and international, 9, 24, 179
 - political parties, 6, 8, 59, 137, 179, 181, 188
 - and the Brazilian Campaign against the FTAA, 148–149
 - and the Continental Campaign against the FTAA, 128
 - ties with challengers of trade agreements, 185
- Pro-Canada Network (PCN), 51, 57
- projects
 - and ideational pathways to transnationality, 33–34
- protectionism
 - in Latin America, 49–50
- Public Citizen
 - and the HSA, 145
 - and the mechanism of extension, 110
 - centrality in domestic network of closest allies, 74
 - centrality in transnational network of closest allies, 77
 - critiques of, 111–112, 113
 - new relational embeddedness of, 112
 - participation in trade debates, 110–112
- relational mechanisms. See mechanisms
- repertoires of contention, 24, 190
- rural organizations
 - and domestic networks of closest allies, 69
 - and NAFTA, 96
 - and the FTAA, 100
 - density of ties, 100

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-19156-2 - Building Transnational Networks: Civil Society and the Politics of Trade in the Americas

Marisa von Bulow

Index

More information

Index

- rural organizations (cont.)
 increased interest in trade negotiations, 96
 new relational embeddedness of, 96–103
- Sierra Club
 and the HSA, 145
- Silva, Luis Inácio Lula da, 92, 149, 183, 186
- social movements, 4, 6 and frames, 32 and social network analysis, 7 and the political process approach, 8
- social network analysis. See social networks
- social networks, 17
 and domestic networks of closest allies, 67–76 and the political contexts in which actors live, 8 and transnational network of closest allies, 75–80 asymmetric distribution of ties in domestic networks, 72–73 asymmetric distributions of ties in transnational network, 77–79 boundaries of, 15
 definition of, 7
 density in domestic networks of closest allies, 73–76 density in transnational network of closest allies, 79 embeddedness of actors in, 7–8 heterogeneity of, 69
 metaphorical use of, 29–30 missing ties and nodes in, 112–114 questionnaire, 67, 76, 81 social network analysis techniques, 13
- South Korean Federation of Farmers and Fishermen and protests against the WTO, 92
- Stop CAFTA Coalition, 118
 as campaign coalition building mode, 119
- Summit of the Americas
 Mar del Plata, 187
 Santiago, 91, 93
- suppression
 as a type of relational mechanism, 17
 definition of, 35
 example of, 113
 in “Alternative for the Americas”, 159
 sustained internalization
 as pathway to transnationality, 26, 161
 sustained transnationalization
 as pathway to transnationality, 26–27, 161
- trade coalitions, 15, 27–32. See also coalition building, organizational pathways to transnationality domestic, 131–152
 transnational, 117–130
- Trade Promotion Authority (TPA), 181
- transformation
 as a type of relational mechanism, 17
 definition of, 35
 example of, 102, 113
 in “Alternative for the Americas”, 159
- transnational collective action, 3
 and changing political opportunities, 189 and political contexts, 17 and social networks, 17 conditions for the creation of, 63
 definition of, 5
 increased relevance of, 16 longer-term approach to the study of, 24–25 multidisciplinary approach to, 9
 precedents of, 39 variety and dynamics of, 4
- Unified Workers’ Federation (CUT-Brazil)
 and MERCOSUR, 59–61, 88
 and ORIT, 88
 centrality in domestic network of closest allies, 74
 centrality in transnational network of closest allies, 77, 79
 debate about social alliances, 89–91
 new relational embeddedness of, 112
 pathway to transnationality, 83
 relationship with Lula government, 189 relationship with NGOs, 147
- Unitary Workers’ Central (CUT-Chile)
 and MERCOSUR, 60–61
 and the 1998 Summit of the Americas, 91, 93
 centrality in domestic network of closest allies, 74
 pathway to transnationality, 84
- Unitary Workers’ Central (CUT-Paraguay)
 and MERCOSUR, 60, 61

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-19156-2 - Building Transnational Networks: Civil Society and the Politics of Trade in the Americas

Marisa von Bulow

Index

More informationIndex

- Unitary Workers' Central (CUT-Peru), 178
- Unified Workers' Socialist Party (PSTU), 185
- Union of South American Nations (UNASUR), 51
- United Nations Conference on Trade and Development (UNCTAD), 42
- United States, 6, 13–15, 148
 - and civil society networks during the NAFTA debates, 58–62
 - and labor organizations, 82
 - Congress, 43, 50, 92, 110, 143, 145, 163, 165, 176–177, 181–182, 184, 186
 - trade policy making, 181
- United States Business and Industrial Council (USBIC), 162
- United States Catholic Conference of Bishops, 163
- United States Trade Representative (USTR), 182
- United States-Central America Free Trade Agreement (CAFTA), 102, 176, See also Stop CAFTA Coalition
- United States-Chile Free Trade Agreement, 113, 136
- United States-Peru Free Trade Agreement, 16, 176–178, 189
- Uruguay, 53, 59, 98
- Via Campesina, 103, See also rural organizations
 - affiliates in social networks, 100
 - and NGOs, 94
 - and the debate about food sovereignty, 94
 - and the WTO, 93–94
 - as transnational broker, 100
 - organizational pathways to transnationality, 103
 - participation in trade debates, 95–96
- Workers' Party (PT)
 - ties with CUT-Brazil, 189
- World Social Forum, 28, 143
 - and ideational pathways to transnationality, 33–34
 - and the Continental Campaign against the FTAA, 129
 - relationship with national governments, 188
- World Trade Organization (WTO)
 - and civil society, 45–47
 - and global agreement on investments, 20
 - Cancun Ministerial Meeting, 92–94
 - creation of a global trade regime, 44–45
 - Doha Round, 12
 - Seattle Ministerial Meeting, 11, 46, 90