

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-19368-9 - Jack Tar's Story: The Autobiographies and Memoirs of Sailors in Antebellum America

Myra C. Glenn

Index

More information

Index

- abolitionism, 62, 94, 114, 126
- abuse of sailors by officers,
47–8, 118, 119, 127, 128,
See also flogging
- African Americans
Cuffe's account, 15, 93–7, 93 n14
Equiano's slave narrative, 10, 14
Haitian Revolution and, 93–7
impressment as enslavement
and, 60
paucity of autobiographies from sailors, 14–15, 15 n34 protest of abusive treatment at sea, 142
- alcoholism
Delano's struggle with, 160, 162
as enslavement, 61, 165
J. H. Garrison's, 144
Lane's battle with, 35, 161–2
Myers's struggle with, 159, 162
social isolation and shame of, 160 temperance movement against,
61, 146–51, 165–7
- Alert* (merchant vessel), 45
- Alligator*, HMS, 64
- America. See United States
- American Revolution, 51–3, 57,
92–3, 96
- American Seamen's Friend
Society, 150
- Ames, Nathaniel, 31–3, 100–5,
100 n27, 167
- Anderson, Benedict, 4, 56
- Anglo-Americans. See also race and racism
book's focus on writings of, 14–15
disillusionment with Latin American independence movements, 100
ethnic prejudice against Portuguese sailors, 124,
139, 141
slaveholder fears of black uprising inspired by Haiti,
90, 96
- audience. See reading public
- authenticity of autobiographical writing
book's purpose and, 23
editorial intrusion, 18–21
issues and analysis, 6–11, 8 n19, 176 official records as verification, 74
Penny's and Durand's story discrepancies, 65–7

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-19368-9 - Jack Tar's Story: The Autobiographies and Memoirs of Sailors in Antebellum America

Myra C. Glenn

Index

More information

184

Index

- autobiography, memoir vs., 6,
See also individual sailor authors
- Ayacucho, Battle of, Peru, 99
- Barbary Captivity narrative,
 14, 62–3
- Battle of Ayacucho, Peru, 99
- Battle of Lake Erie, 69
- Beasley, Reuben, 78
- Belvidera*, HMS, 76
- Bethel societies, 150
- Bibliography of American Autobiographies*, A (Kaplan), 13, 15
- blacks, in Haitian Revolution,
 84–98, See also African Americans
- Bolívar, Simón, 84, 103–5
- Bonaparte, Napoleon, 87
- Boxer*, USS, 129, 135, 153
- Boyer, Jean Pierre, 93, 95, 96
- Brazilian navy, Ames's
 disparagement of, 101
- Britain
 neutral trade restrictions, 54 support for Latin American revolutions, 99
 widespread American hatred
 of, 58
- British Royal Navy, 49, 101,
See also impressment
- Browder, Laura, 8
- Browne, John Ross, 124, 134,
 139, 158
- Bunnell, David captivity narrative of, 43 n35, 49 combat experience, 69, 70, 70 n50
 drunkenness as male bonding,
 156
 Haitian Revolution views, 97 physical deterioration from seafaring life, 40
- reasons for going to sea, 40, 42–3
 roistering as freedom, 158
- Callao, Peru, 100–10
- Cambridge*, HMS, 100
- Captain Neptune ceremony, 44
- captivity narrative, sailor
 self-narrative as.
See also enslavement trope; impressment
- Barbary captivity narrative and,
 14, 61–3
- Cobb's Dartmoor Prison story, 79
- disillusionment of sailors after going to sea, 43 n35, 44–9
- Haitian revolutionary chaos and,
 86, 89
- manliness/manhood theme
 and, 45
 overview, 26
- Spanish holding of Americans, 102
- Carden, Capt. John, 76, 78, 127
 carousing life style. See roistering and “rough” masculinity
- Carretta, Vincent, 10
- Case, Maj. Benjamin, 68
- Caswell, James, 173, 173 n34
- Cherub*, HMS, 75, 81
- Chesapeake*, USS, 55
- Chile and Peru, conflict during wars of independence, 106–11
- churches, 150, 169,
See also religious conversion narrative
- Clarke, Cyrene, 169, 169 n28
- class, social. See also gentleman sailors; individual sailor authors
- flogging and, 138, 141
- middle class's evangelical model of manhood, 146, 169–71
- reasons for going to sea and, 26

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-19368-9 - Jack Tar's Story: The Autobiographies and Memoirs of Sailors in Antebellum America

Myra C. Glenn

Index

More informationIndex

185

- roistering value in working class, 145
- working-class sailors, 16, 33–42, 145
- Cobb, Josiah, 78–80
- Cochrane, Adm. Thomas, 101, 106, 107, 108
- Cockburn, Rear Adm. George, 67
- Columbia*, USS, 119–20, 123
- Columbus*, USS, 27, 28, 121–2, 168
- combat experiences
 - Bunnell, 69, 70, 70 n50
 - Isaacs, 75 n59, 75–6
 - Lane, 44, 70–1
 - Leech, 76–8, 77 n62
 - Myers, 73–5
 - Smith, 73
- coming-of-age narrative, sailor self-narrative as, 24–36, 37–43
- commercialization of literature, 12
- Congressional abolition of grog ration, 149
- Congressional campaign to abolish flogging, 114, 126
- Connecticut*, USS, 35, 44
- Constitution*, USS “Old Ironsides”
 - Durand’s desertion of, 136
 - flogging aboard, 117, 132
 - Smith’s story of heroism on, 71, 72–3
 - Wordon’s health problems on, 36
- conversion narrative. See religious conversion narrative
- Cooper, James Fenimore, 2, 19–20, 73
- Corning, Erastus, 22
- corporal punishment, societal movement against, 114, See also flogging
- Creighton, Margaret, 6, 16
- cruelty and injustice exposé. See flogging
- Cuffe, Paul Jr., 15, 93–7, 93 n14
- cultural construct
 - autobiography as, 9–10
 - sailor self-narrative as, 12, 18, 148, 171, 176
 - sailors as cultural mediators public, 148
- Dana, Richard Henry Jr.
 - biographical sketch, 1
 - criticism of missionaries and reformers, 167
 - drunkenness as male bonding, 156–7
 - flogging, views on, 112, 122–4
 - hardships of seafaring life, 44, 49
 - reasons for going to sea, 27, 28–30, 31
 - roistering as freedom, 158
 - ship’s discipline, views on need for, 138
 - testimonial for Leech, 22
- Dartmoor Prison, 43, 78–80
- Davis, Joshua, 52
- De Man, Paul, 8
- Deane, Joseph, 15
- debauchery, drunken. See roistering and “rough” masculinity
- Decatur, Capt. Stephen, 62, 76, 77
- Delano, Reuben
 - alcoholism of, 160, 162
 - death of, 162 n25
 - pleasures of roistering for, 163
 - religious conversion narrative, 165
- democratic rights. See rights, sailors’
- democratization
 - of literature, 12–13
 - religious conversion and, 172–4
 - Revolutionary War stories from “ordinary” veterans, 52
- desertion as resistance method, 60, 64, 75, 133, 134–7, 142

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-19368-9 - Jack Tar's Story: The Autobiographies and Memoirs of Sailors in Antebellum America

Myra C. Glenn

Index

More information

186

Index

- Dessalines, Jean Jacques, 87, 90
- didactic reform works. See religious conversion narrative
- Dilkes, Capt. John, 50
- discipline on board ship.
See also flogging
- drunkenness as danger to, 153
- gentleman sailors' views on, 31–2, 138–40
- racial issues with, 124, 130, 138–41, 142
- Dorsey, Bruce, 146
- Douglass, Frederick, 46, 94
- Downes, Capt. John, 82, 106, 110
- drunkenness among sailors.
See also alcoholism
- as danger to ship, 153
- emasculatation due to, 144, 152, 154, 159–62
- enslavement due to, 61, 154, 164–5, 166
- male bonding, as lubricant for, 155–7
- Durand, James
- desertion by, 136
- enslavement by Barbary corsairs, views on, 63
- flogging, views on, 117, 132
- Haitian Revolution, view of, 86 n3, 91–2, 97
- impressment experience, 64 n38, 64–7
- Eakin, John Paul, 9
- economic role of maritime power, 4, 54
- editorial intrusion issue, 18–21
- Ely, Ben-Ezra Stiles, 47–9, 124, 170
- emasculatation
- abuse of sailors by officers as, 47–8
- drunkenness as, 144, 152, 154, 159–62
- flogging as, 112, 122–3, 127, 128, 142
- by Haitian black revolutionaries, 91
- impressment as, 61, 63
- of Latin Americans by Ames, 104–5
- missionary reform as, 167
- Emigrant* (whaling vessel), 47, 48
- employment, seafaring as, 28
- enslavement trope
- American slaveholders' fears of
- Haitian Revolution, 90–1, 96
- Barbary captivity narrative, 61–3
- drunkenness, 61, 154, 164–5, 166
- flogging and, 122–7, 130
- Haitian black power over whites, 89
- impressment, 60, 61, 63
- seafaring life as embodiment of, 16
- Equiano, Olaudah, 10, 14
- escape theme for going to sea
- gentleman sailors and, 24, 25, 27–31
- hardships of working-class life, 33–42
- Esmeralda* (Spanish flagship), 108, 109
- Essex*, USS, 81–2
- ethnic diversity aboard ship
- and discipline, 138, 142,
See also race and racism
- evangelical manhood model.
See also religious conversion narrative
- freedom in, 165–6
- in opposition to sailor's life, 166–9
- overview, 3
- reform of waterfront institutions
- and, 150–1
- sailor author's ambivalence about, 159, 161–4

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-19368-9 - Jack Tar's Story: The Autobiographies and Memoirs of Sailors in Antebellum America

Myra C. Glenn

Index

More informationIndex

187

- sailor author's desire for civic acceptance, 155
- targeting of sailors for reform to, 146–7
- Fairfield*, USS, 122
- feminized domesticity, sailor's life as escape from, 24, 28, 30
- fiction, autobiography as, 7–8
- Finn, Henry J., 30
- Fitzroy, Lord, 127
- Five Years Before the Mast* (Hazen), 17
- flogging
- anti-flogging campaign in U.S., 113–14, 117–19, 126, 127–30
 - class issues, 138, 141
 - context and overview, 112–17
 - Dana on, 112, 122–4
 - drunkenness as common cause for, 153, 154
 - Durand on, 117, 132
 - Ely on, 124
 - as emasculation, 112, 122–3, 127, 128, 142
 - enslavement trope and, 122–7, 130
 - Gould on, 136, 137 n47
 - Hazen on, 120–2, 122 n23, 141
 - Holbrook on, 130, 135, 141
 - lack of on Shearman's whaler, 48
 - Lane, 89
 - Leech on, 127–30
 - manliness definitions and, 138–41, 142
 - Melville on, 125–6
 - Murrell on, 119–20
 - Nordhoff on, 123
 - Penny, 66
 - power relationships and, 116–17, 141
 - resistance theme, 130–7, 142
 - as rights violation, 112, 125, 127, 129–30, 132, 138, 142
 - as threat to U.S. security, 112, 134–8, 142
- Fox*, HMS, 76
- Franklin, Benjamin, 12, 46
- freedom
- manhood and, 46–7
 - religious conversion as, 165
 - roistering as, 150, 157–8
 - seafaring as, 24, 25, 26, 31, 42
 - temperance as, 166
 - U.S. as personification of, 53
- Garnet, Henry Highland, 95
- Garrison, James Holley, 144–5, 148
- Garrison, William Lloyd, 144
- Geertz, Clifford, 175
- General Armstrong* (American privateer), 70
- gentleman sailors.
- See also individual sailor authors*
 - hardships of seafaring life, 44–6
 - overview, 16
 - reasons for going to sea, 24–33
 - resentment toward officers, 48
 - ship's discipline and, 31–2, 138–40
- Gilje, Paul, 6, 157
- Gould, Roland
- flogging, views on, 136, 137 n47
 - physical deterioration from seafaring life, 40
 - poverty of, 174 n35
 - reasons for going to sea, 40
 - religious conversion narrative, 173–4
- Grenada*, HMS, 43 n35
- grog ration, 149, 157
- Guerriere*, HMS, 73

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-19368-9 - Jack Tar's Story: The Autobiographies and Memoirs of Sailors in Antebellum America

Myra C. Glenn

Index

More information

188

Index

- Haitian Revolution, 84–98
- Hale, John Parker, 126, 131, 149
- hardships of seafaring life, 36, 40, 46, 49, See also flogging
- hardships of working-class life, 33–42
- Hardy, Cdre. Thomas, 67
- Hatch, Nathan, 172
- Hazen, Jacob
- confirmation of service, 43 n36, 120 n22
 - criticism of missionaries and reformers, 168
 - desertion after strike, 142
 - flogging, views on, 120–2, 122 n23, 141
 - literacy of, 22
 - reasons for going to sea, 41–3
 - refusal to re-enlist due to harsh treatment, 135
 - success of book, 17
- Hero*, USS, 76
- Hickey, Donald, 54
- historical value of sailor self-narratives, 7, 9, 22
- history, autobiography as, 8–10
- Holbrook, Samuel
- biographical sketch, 38–9, 39 n30
 - commemoration of War of 1812, 80–3
 - enslavement by Barbary corsairs, views on, 63
 - flogging, views on, 130, 135, 141
 - reasons for going to sea, 38–9
 - religious conversion narrative, 154–5
 - South American wars of independence, 111
- Hudson* (whaling vessel), 141
- Hull, Cdre. Isaac, 72, 100–1, 102, 104
- humanitarian narrative, 115
- Hyperion*, HMS, 108
- imagined community, early U.S. as, 58
- immigrants, loyalty narratives of, 73–8, See also Isaacs, Nicholas Peter; Leech, Samuel; Myers, Ned
- impersonator autobiography, 8
- impressment. See also War of 1812
- British cruelty toward sailors, 50, 52, 64, 71
 - Bunnell, 43 n35, 49
 - as emasculation, 61, 63
 - as enslavement, 60, 61, 63
 - M'Lean, 50–2
 - resistance to, 49, 50, 63–5, 67, 69, 73
 - as War of 1812 flashpoint, 54–5
- Independence*, USS, 120
- Isaacs, Nicholas Peter
- combat experience, 75 n59, 75–6
 - editorial help for, 19, 20
 - as non-Anglo subject, 14
 - religious conversion narrative, 166, 172–3
 - testimonials for, 22
- Jack Tar as emblem of nationalism, 4, 58, 71, 73, 80–3, 107, 164
- Jackson, Andrew, 70
- Jeffrey, Julie Roy, 9
- Jersey*, HMS (prison ship), 53
- John Adams*, USS, 71
- Jones, William, 68
- Julia*, USS, 75
- Kaplan, Louis, 13, 15
- Lake Erie, Battle of, 69
- Lane, Asa, 33, 34 n19
- Lane, Horace
- alcoholism of, 35, 161–2
 - biographical sketch, 1, 33–6, 35 n21

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-19368-9 - Jack Tar's Story: The Autobiographies and Memoirs of Sailors in Antebellum America

Myra C. Glenn

Index

More information

Index

189

- claims for writing by himself, 20
 combat experience, 44, 70–1
 confirmation of service, 35 n20
 criticism of missionaries and reformers, 168
 desertions of, 135
 Haitian Revolution, view of, 87–9, 87 n4, 91–3, 97
 hardships of seafaring life, 44, 46
 money as motivation for writing, 40
 pleasures of roistering for, 163
 reasons for going to sea, 33–6
 religious conversion narrative, 165, 166, 172
 Laquer, Thomas, 115
 Latin American wars of independence, 84–6, 98–111
Lawrence, USS, 69
 Leech, Samuel
 biographical sketch, 37–8
 combat experience, 76–8, 77 n62
 desertion by, 135
 flogging, views on, 127–30
 literacy of, 21–2
 reasons for going to sea, 37–8
 religious conversion narrative, 151–3
 testimonials for, 22
 Lejeune, Philippe, 18
Leopard, HMS, 55
 liberation narrative, sailor self-narrative as, 26, 42, See also freedom
Life and Adventures of James Durand, The (Durand), 64
 Lincoln, Abraham, 62
 literacy among sailors, 19 n48, 21–2
 literary market of early 19th century, 12, 17–18
 literature, autobiography and memoir as, 8, 22
 Louverture, Toussaint, 87, 94
Macedonian, HMS, 38, 76–8, 127–9, 153, 155
Macedonian, USS, 106–11
 Madison, James, 55, 68
Madras, HMS, 50
 Maling, Capt. Thomas James, 100
 Maloney, Linda, 101
 Maloney, Samuel, 142
 manliness/manhood theme. See also emasculation; evangelical manhood model; resistance to oppression; roistering and “rough” masculinity captivity narrative and, 46 criticism of officers and, 47–8
 denigration of Bolivar and, 104
 freedom as integral to, 46–7
 Haitian revolutionaries as threat to, 86, 92, 97 nationalism and, 4, 80, 103, 107, 109, 110–11, 176
 overview, 3–4
 race and, 89–90, 138–41, 142
 sailors as symbols of, 31, 58
 seafaring initiation into manhood, 29, 30–1, 42
Man-of-War Life (Nordhoff), 123
 mariner churches, 150
Mariner's Sketches, A (Ames), 32, 100, 105, 111
 maritime power, U.S. as, 4, 54
 masculinity. See also manliness/manhood theme; religious conversion; roistering and “rough” masculinity competing notions of, 148, 151, 155, 159, 166–70 sailors' constructions of, 17
 masturbation, societal worries about, 30
 McKee, Christopher, 14
 McNally, William, 125, 131

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-19368-9 - Jack Tar's Story: The Autobiographies and Memoirs of Sailors in Antebellum America

Myra C. Glenn

Index

More information

190

Index

- Melville, Herman, 2, 24–5, 29, 31, 125–6
- mercenary motives for fighting in War of 1812, 73
- middle class, evangelical model of manhood, 146, 169–71, See also reading public
- Miranda, Francisco de, 84
- M'Lean, James, 50 n2, 50–2
- money as motivation for sailor narrative, 2, 40
- Monroe Doctrine, 99
- morality. See discipline on board ship; religious conversion narrative
- Mowatt, Anna Cora, 30
- Murrell, William, 119–20, 120 n21
- Muslim corsairs from Barbary Coast, 63
- mutiny as response to flogging, 132–4, 142
- Myers, Ned
 alcoholism of, 159, 162
 collaboration with Cooper, 19–20
 combat experience, 73–5
 desertion by, 133
 reasons for going to sea, 39
 religious conversion narrative, 165, 172
- Napoleon Bonaparte, 87
- Napoleonic Wars, 54
- Narcissus*, HMS, 65
- nationalism and national identity
 abuse of sailors as undermining, 118 Britain vs. U.S. at Callao blockade, 101
 de-radicalization of Revolution and, 93 drunkenness as threat to U.S. security, 153 flogging as threat to U.S. security, 112, 134–8, 142
 Jack Tar's contribution to, 4, 58, 71, 73, 80–3, 107, 164
 manliness and, 4, 80, 103, 107, 109, 110–11, 176
 maritime power, U.S. as, 4, 54
 race and, 93–7
 religious conversion as key to regeneration, 152, 165 Revolutionary War veteran stories, 52 sailor self-narratives' role in, 4
 Spanish defense of territory as insult to U.S., 102 temperance as essential to national thriving, 146–7
 War of 1812's contribution to, 52, 55–8, 69
- naturalized U.S. citizens,
 loyalty narratives of, 73–8,
See also Isaacs, Nicholas Peter;
 Leech, Samuel; Myers, Ned
- Nautical Reminiscences* (Ames), 32, 167
- Naval Scenes in the Last War* (Smith), 71
- Ned Myers; Or, A Life Before the Mast* (Myers), 17, 73
- neutral trade, British restrictions on, 54
- Nine Years a Sailor* (Nordhoff), 27
- Nordhoff, Charles
 drunkenness as male bonding, 157
 flogging, views on, 123
 hardships of seafaring life, 45
 reasons for going to sea, 27–8, 31
 refusal to re-enlist due to harsh treatment, 135
- Norling, Lisa, 16
- officers, abuse of sailors by, 118, 119, 127, 128, See also flogging 47–8

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-19368-9 - Jack Tar's Story: The Autobiographies and Memoirs of Sailors in Antebellum America

Myra C. Glenn

Index

More informationIndex

191

- Ohio*, USS, 136
- Old Mill Prison, 53
- Old Sailor's Yarn*, A (Ames), 32
- oppression of seafaring life, 26, 46,
See also flogging; impressment;
 resistance to oppression
- Otter, William, 145, 148, 163
- Parsons, Elaine Frantz, 146
- Passerini, Luisa, 23
- patriotism. See nationalism and national identity
- Paulding, James Kirk, 144
- Peacock*, USS, 100
- Penny, Joshua, 60 n25, 60–2, 64, 65–9
- pensions, disability, 37, 39 n30,
 71 n51
- Peru in wars of independence,
 100–10
- Peterson, William, 142
- Phoebe*, HMS, 81
- physical health
 hardships of seafaring on, 36, 40
 as reason for going to sea, 28, 30–1
- Pilgrim* (merchant vessel), 27, 28, 44, 112, 156
- Port-au-Prince, Haiti, 86
- Porter, David, 81
- Portuguese sailors, Anglo-American prejudice against, 124, 139, 141
- post-structuralism, 8
- power relationships. See also class, social democratization of literature as challenge, 13
 flogging and, 116–17, 141
 mutiny threat from mistreated sailors, 132–4
 race and, 90
 racial reversal in Haiti, 88
- Preble*, USS, 22, 121, 122
- prisoners of war, sailors as Americans in Spanish and Peruvian custody, 110
 Bunnell, 43, 49
 Cobb, 78–80
 Sherburne, 53
- public memory of War of 1812 57,
 57 n17
- race and racism. See also African Americans
 Ames's attitudes toward Latin
 Americans, 103
 Anglo-American skepticism about mixed-race Latin American countries, 100
 citizenship, idea of racial expansion of, 96
 discipline on board ship and, 124,
 126, 130, 138–41, 142
 Haitian Revolution and, 87, 88,
 93–7
 Portuguese sailors, 124,
 139, 141
- radicalism of American Revolution, questioning of, 92–3
- Raffety, Matthew, 131
- Ramillies*, HMS, plot to torpedo,
 67–8
- Read, Cdre. George C., 119–20
- reading public
 democratization of literature, 12–13
 desire for adventure stories, 2
 flogging exposés' influence on,
 117–19, 127–30
 gauging popularity of seamen's narratives, 17–18
 sailors' accommodation of, 164
 sailors as cultural mediators for, 148
 seaman's appeals to sympathy
 of, 40

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-19368-9 - Jack Tar's Story: The Autobiographies and Memoirs of Sailors in Antebellum America

Myra C. Glenn

Index

More information

192

Index

- recruitment and retention consequences of flogging, 112, 134–7
- Redburn* (Melville), 24–5
- refusing to re-enlist as resistance method, 135
- religious conversion narrative
 context and introduction, 144
 criticism of reformers and missionaries in, 166–9
- Delano, 165
- democratization of religion and, 172–4
- freedom and empowerment in, 165
- Gould, 173
- Holbrook, 154–5
- Isaacs, 166, 172
- Lane, 165, 166, 172
- Leech, 151–3
- Myers, 165, 172
- national imperative of, 152, 165
- resistance to oppression
 desertion method, 60, 64, 75, 133, 134–7, 142
- flogging and, 130–7, 142
- Haitian revolutionary violence, 85, 91–2
- hardships of seafaring and, 49
- impressment cases, 49, 50, 63–5, 67, 69, 73
- loyalty of immigrants and, 77
- prisoners of war at Dartmoor, 79
- racial limits on, 139
- Spanish colonials, 85
- War of 1812 veterans, 53, 58, 74
- Revolutionary War, 51–3, 57, 92–3, 96
- rights, sailors’
 flogging as violation of, 112, 125, 127, 129–30, 132, 138, 142
- horrors of Haitian black threats to, 91
- human right to control own body, 115–16
- prisoner release from Spanish and Peruvian custody, 110
- as reason to fight on U.S. side, 77
- resistance to impressment and, 73
- roistering as, 157–8
- Riley, James, 62
- Rodil, Gen. José Ramon, 102–3
- rogue tales. See roistering and “rough” masculinity
- roistering and “rough” masculinity.
See also drunkenness among sailors
- American ambivalence about, 3–4
- context and introduction, 144–6
- as freedom, 150, 157–8
- gentleman sailors’ use of seafaring to adopt, 33
- male bonding value of, 155–7
- middle-class society’s disapproval of, 169–71
- negative consequences of, 144, 159–62, 164–5
- pleasures of, 145, 155, 163–4
- temperance movement’s targeting of, 148–51
- Rolla* (privateer), 75
- Sailor Homes, 150, 150 n13
- sailor self-narratives.
See also authenticity of autobiographical writing
- as book focus, 6
- as cultural construct, 11–12, 18, 148, 171, 176
- historical value of, 6–7, 9, 22
- motivations for, 2, 10, 40, 73–8
- multiple tropes in, 3
- publishing history, 12–13, 17–23
- summary of themes, 175
- Sailors Magazine*, 167

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-19368-9 - Jack Tar's Story: The Autobiographies and Memoirs of Sailors in Antebellum America

Myra C. Glenn

Index

More information

Index

193

- Sailor's Magazine and Naval Journal, The*, 150
- Saint-Domingue. See Haitian Revolution
- Sampson* (merchant vessel), 87, 88, 92
- San Martín, José de, 84
- Sanborn, Solomon, 125
- sanguinary punishment, societal movement against, 114, See also flogging
- Sceptre*, HMS, 64
- Scourge*, USS, 74
- seaman narratives. See sailor self-narratives
- self-reliance, going to sea to learn, 28–9
- Shaw, Elijah, 7, 7 n15, 7 n16
- Shearman, Capt. James, 47–8, 49
- Sherburne, Andrew, 13, 53
- Short Sketch of the Life of Elijah Shaw*, A (Shaw), 7, 8
- Shortland, Capt. Thomas G., 78
- Sketch of the Life and Travels of Joseph Deane* (Deane), 15
- slave narrative, 10, 14
- slavery, institution of.
See also enslavement trope
- abolitionism, 62, 94, 114, 126
 - anti-flogging campaign and, 122
 - Haitian Revolution's pressure to end, 94
 - white attitudes toward Haiti and, 90–1, 96
- Smith, Capt. Joseph, 137
- Smith, Moses, 71–3, 131
- Sobel, Mechal, 12
- southern American slaveholders' fears of Haitian Revolution, 90–1, 96
- Spanish colonial rule in Latin America, revolutions against, 98–111
- Sphinx*, HMS, 64, 66
- Stately*, HMS, 65
- Stirling* (merchant vessel), 19
- Stockton, Robert F., 130, 149
- Stowe, Harriet Beecher, 47, 118
- Sufferings in Africa* (Riley), 62
- suicide and alcoholism, 144, 160
- Syren*, USS, 128
- Tartar*, HMS, 101
- Taylor, Edward, 150, 152
- Taylor, W. Fitch, 119
- temperance movement, 61, 146–51, 165–7
- testimonials to author's credibility, 22–3
- Thirty Years from Home* (Leech), 17, 19, 22
- Traveller* (merchant vessel), 93
- Treaty of Ghent, 56
- Turner, Nat, 91
- Twenty Years Before the Mast* (Isaacs), 19, 166
- Two Years Before the Mast* (Dana), 1, 17, 30, 44, 112
- tyranny. See resistance to oppression
- Uncle Tom's Cabin* (Stowe), 47, 118
- United States. See also nationalism and national identity
- anti-flogging campaign, 114, 119, 126, 130
 - imagined community and, 58
 - as maritime power, 4, 54
 - as personification of freedom, 53
 - revolutionary lessons from Haiti and South America, 85, 86, 91
 - support for Latin American revolutions, 99
- United States*, USS, 78, 105, 126, 128

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-19368-9 - Jack Tar's Story: The Autobiographies and Memoirs of Sailors in Antebellum America

Myra C. Glenn

Index

More information

194

Index

- Vesey, Denmark, 90
Voice from the Main Deck (Leech).
See Thirty Years from Home (Leech) volunteering vs. impressment, stories vs. records, 65–6, 74
- Walker, David, 95
Wandering Boy, The (Lane), 1, 26, 35, 40
- War of 1812
 Bunnell, 69, 70
 Cobb, 78–80
 conclusion, 82–3
 context and overview of events, 54–9
 Durand, 64 n38, 64–7
 Holbrook's commemoration, 80–3
 impressment's role in starting, 54–5
 Isaacs, 75–6
 Lane, 70–1
 Leech, 76–8
 manliness and nationalism, 80
 M'Lean's impressment narrative, 50–2
- Myers, 73–5
 nationalism, contribution to, 55–8, 80
 overview, 4
 Penny, 60–2, 64, 65–9
 sailor narratives overview, 60
 Smith, 73
- Washington, George, 104, 105
 waterfront culture. See roistering and “rough” masculinity whaling, 42, 45, 47–9
Whaling and Fishing (Nordhoff), 45
White Jacket (Melville), 125–6
 White, Hayden, 9
 Whitecar, William Jr., 170 n31, 170–1
- whites, Haitian black power over, 89, See also Anglo-Americans; race and racism
- Wordon, James, 36–7, 40, 132, 133 working-class sailors, 16, 33–42, 145, See also individual sailor authors
- Wyatt-Brown, Bertram, 90
- Young, Alfred, 9