

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-19760-1 - Detention in the 'War on Terror': Can Human Rights Fight Back?

Fiona De Londras

Table of Contents

More information

CONTENTS

Acknowledgements	page viii
Introduction	1
1 Panic, fear and counter-terrorist law-making	8
2 The right to be free from arbitrary detention	36
3 Counter-terrorist detention: the executive approach	72
4 Legislating for counter-terrorist detention	116
5 International human rights law's resilience in the face of panic	166
6 Judicial responses to counter-terrorist detention: rights-based resistance?	214
Conclusion	280
Bibliography	284
Index	303