

CONTENTS

List of illustrations	page vii
Preface	Christopher Howe ix
Foreword	Lucian W. Pye xi
Abbreviations	xvii

PART ONE: THE MODERN HISTORICAL PERSPECTIVE

1 'The Other China': Shanghai from 1919 to 1949	Marie-Claire Bergère 1
--	-------------------------------

PART TWO: POLITICAL LIFE

2 Political mobilization in Shanghai, 1949–1951	Richard Gaulton 35
3 Shanghai and Chinese politics: before and after the Cultural Revolution	Parris Chang 66
4 Shanghai dockers in the Cultural Revolution: the interplay of political and economic issues	Raymond F. Wylie 91
5 The Shanghai Connection: Shanghai's role in national politics during the 1970s	David S. G. Goodman 125

PART THREE: ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT AND LIVING- STANDARDS

6 Industrialization under conditions of long-run population stability: Shanghai's achievement and prospect	Christopher Howe 153
---	-----------------------------

Cambridge University Press

0521231981 - Shanghai: Revolution and Development in an Asian Metropolis

Edited by Christopher Howe

Table of Contents

More information

CONTENTS

- | | | | |
|---|---|--------------------------|-----|
| 7 | The quest for food self-sufficiency | Robert Ash | 188 |
| 8 | Changes in the standard of living of Shanghai industrial workers, 1930–1973 | Bruce L. Reynolds | 222 |

PART FOUR: THE SUBURBAN TRANSFORMATION

- | | | | |
|----|--------------------------------------|--------------------------|-----|
| 9 | Shanghai–suburb relations, 1949–1966 | Lynn T. White III | 241 |
| 10 | The spatial development of Shanghai | Ka-iu Fung | 269 |

PART FIVE: CULTURE AND IDEOLOGY

- | | | | |
|----|---|---------------------|-----|
| 11 | The emergence of ‘worker-writers’ in Shanghai | Lars Ragvald | 301 |
| 12 | Study and Criticism : the voice of Shanghai radicalism | John Gardner | 326 |

Notes	348
A chronology of modern Shanghai, 1842–1979	413
Contributors	426
Index	429