

Contents

Preface ix
Acknowledgments xi

-
- | | |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1 Mistaking Nonepileptic Events for Epilepsy 1
William O. Tatum 2 Mistaking EEG Changes for Epilepsy 25
William O. Tatum 3 Radiographic Errors in Epilepsy 43
Dieter Schmidt 4 The First Seizure: Is It Epilepsy? 49
William O. Tatum 5 Errors in the Diagnosis of Seizure Types and Epilepsy Syndromes 66
Dieter Schmidt 6 When to Start Treatment? 97
Dieter Schmidt 7 Which Drug is Best? 108
Dieter Schmidt 8 How to Optimize Treatment and What can Go Wrong? 140
Dieter Schmidt 9 What to Do If Drugs Don't Work? 156
Dieter Schmidt | 10 How to Avoid Management Errors 171
Dieter Schmidt 11 When to Stop Treatment? 175
Dieter Schmidt 12 Women with Epilepsy 189
William O. Tatum 13 Management of Psychiatric Issues in Epilepsy 204
Steven C. Schachter 14 Management of Emergencies in Epilepsy 215
Dieter Schmidt 15 Management of Social Issues 229
Steven C. Schachter |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
-
- Index* 239