

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-29629-8 - Modern Drama in Theory and Practice, Volume 2: Symbolism,
Surrealism and the Absurd

J. L. Styan

Table of Contents

More information

Contents

The dates are usually those of the first production

List of illustrations
Acknowledgements
Preface	1
1 The symbolic in drama
2 Theoretical beginnings: Wagner and Nietzsche	5
3 Symbolic theatre: Appia and lighting design
Tristan und Isolde (1899 and 1923)	10
4 Symbolic theatre: Craig and stage design
The Moscow Hamlet (1912)	17
5 Symbolist drama: Ibsen to Maeterlinck and Lugné-Poe
Hedda Gabler (1890), Pelléas et Mélisande (1893)	24
6 Symbolist drama after Maeterlinck
Salomé (1896), The Life of Man (1907)	35
7 Jarry, precursor of surrealism in France
Ubu roi (1896)	45
8 Dada and surrealism in France: Tzara to Cocteau
The Wedding on the Eiffel Tower (1921)	51
9 Symbolist drama in English: Yeats and Japanese Noh drama
At the Hawk's Well (1916)	61
10 Symbolist drama in English: Eliot and religious drama
Murder in the Cathedral (1935)	70
11 Pirandello and the teatro grottesco
Six Characters in Search of an Author (1921)	76
12 Symbolist drama in Spain: García Lorca
The House of Bernarda Alba (1936)	84
13 Stylization in France: Copeau and after
Noah (1931), The Trojan War Will Not Take Place (1935)	91
14 Theatre of cruelty: Artaud and Peter Brook
The Marat/Sade (1965)	105
15 The existentialist play: Sartre and Camus
The Flies (1943), Caligula (1945)	117
16 Theatre of the absurd: Beckett and Pinter
Waiting for Godot (1952)	124

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-29629-8 - Modern Drama in Theory and Practice, Volume 2: Symbolism,
Surrealism and the Absurd

J. L. Styan

Table of Contents

More information

Contents	vi
17 Theatre of the absurd: Ionesco and others
The Bald Prima Donna (1950)	137
18 Ritual theatre and Jean Genêt
The Balcony (1957), The Blacks (1959)	145
19 After Artaud: avant-garde theatre in Poland and America
Frankenstein (1965)	156
20 Happenings and other improvisation in America
Dionysus in 69 (1968)	164
21 Recent fringe theatre in Britain
Christie in Love (1969), AC/DC (1969)	171
22 Symbolist theatre: retrospectively	182
Table of events in the theatre	184
Bibliography	199
Index	217