

Cambridge University Press

0521299292 - Early Latin America: A History of Colonial Spanish America and Brazil

James Lockhart and Stuart B. Schwartz

Table of Contents

More information

Contents

List of tables, figures, and maps	page vii
Preface	ix
I THE CONTEXT	1
1. Iberian ways	3
The city. Functional groupings of society. Other principles of social organization. Ethnic groups. Government. The ecclesiastical component. Commerce. Slavery. Castile. Portugal. Portuguese expansion. Sugar and commercial-agricultural slavery. Brazil and Portugal's empire. Christopher Columbus, Genoese.
2. Indigenous ways	31
General characteristics of indigenous cultures. Sedentary peoples. Semisedentary peoples. Nonsedentary peoples.
II ORIGINS AND EARLY MATURITY	59
3. From islands to mainland: the Caribbean phase and subsequent conquests	61
The course of Caribbean events. Spanish city and society on Hispaniola. Mechanisms of Spanish-Indian interaction. Precious metals and their role in the economy. Elements of the international maritime tradition. The Spanish Caribbean heritage expressed in vocabulary. Mechanisms of expansion and evolution of expeditionary forms. Patterns of conquest and resistance. The double trajectory of conquest.
4. Conquest society: central areas	86
The encomienda. Commerce and artisanry. Mining. Officials and practices of government. Ecclesiastics. Indians. Areas of transition. Phenomena of conclusion.

Cambridge University Press

0521299292 - Early Latin America: A History of Colonial Spanish America and Brazil

James Lockhart and Stuart B. Schwartz

Table of Contents

More informationContents

5.	Maturity in the Spanish Indies: central areas City, government, and society. Development of the local Spanish economy. The international economy. Ecclesiastical matters. Intellectual life. The Indian world. The New Granadan gold complex.	122
6.	Brazilian beginnings The dyewood phase. From donatary captaincies to royal government. Indian and African labor in Brazil.	181
7.	Brazil in the sugar age The world that sugar created. The African and slavery. Merchants and commerce. New Christians. Cities and towns. The social fabric. Cultural matters. Government and society. The international context.	202
8.	The fringes The southeastern fringe: the Río de la Plata and southern Brazil. The Amazonian fringe. Venezuela: a Caribbean variant. Frontiers. Some comparative aspects.	253
III	REORIENTATIONS	305
9.	Late colonial times in the Spanish Indies Society: elaboration, fusion, and growth. Creole consolidation and metropolitan reaction. The traditional complex: haciendas, Indians, and silver mining. The east coast revolution. The "Bourbon reforms." The intendancy reform. The creation of a military. Economic reforms and their implications.	315
10.	Brazil in the age of gold and absolutism Minas Gerais. The impact of gold. The Pombaline reforms. Pombaline Brazil. Population, family, and society.	369
11.	Epilogue: the coming of independence Preindependence stirrings. International developments. The independence movements. Some perspectives on the independence movements. Postindependence continuities.	405
	Bibliography	427
	Index	455