The ecology of the self

Relocation and self-concept change

Stefan E. Hormuth
Institute of Psychology, University of Heidelberg

The right of the University of Cambridge to print and sell all manner of books was granted by Henry VIII in 1534. The University has printed and published continuously since 1584.

Cambridge University Press
Cambridge
New York Port Chester
Melbourne Sydney
Editions de la Maison des Sciences de l’Homme
Paris