

Index

- abbas* (Irish ap), 249, 269
- abbot
- controlled material assets of a church, 273
 - derived high status from the rank of his church, 267
 - extent of authority of some abbots, 251
 - in Ireland wide sense of, 225
 - relatively likely to be given a patronym in the annals, 273–5
 - title is associated with a church, 264–5
- Abelenus, bishop of Geneva, kinsman of Agrestius, 364
- Aberlemno churchyard, Pictish sculpture in, 301
- Achad Bó, see Aghaboe
- acquired land, 88–9
- Adaloald, Lombard king, 374, 376
- adbar rig*, ‘material of a king’, 91
- Additamenta* in the Book of Armagh, 11
- admonitio* (teosc), 138–40
- Ado, 371
- Adomnán, ninth abbot of Iona, 181
- Bede on, 436–7
 - brings back the captives taken from Brega to Northumbria, 341
 - converted to the Roman Easter, 410, 436
 - friend of Aldfrith, king of the Northumbrians, 326, 341
 - friend of Ceolfrith, abbot of Wearmouth-Jarrow, 326, 436–7
 - Law of (Cáin Adomnáin), ‘the Law of the Innocents’, see Cáin Adomnáin
- Adomnán, Life of St Columba, 3–4, 191–2, 283–5, 483
- and Wilfrid’s championship of the Rule of St Benedict, 325–6
 - audience of, 289–90
 - central aims of, 288, 325–6
 - not propagandist for the Uí Néill, 494
 - on Aed Sláne and Diarmait mac Cerbaill, 507–8
 - on Colmán Elo, 62–3
 - on Columba and the Picts, 304–5
 - on Columba and the Uí Néill, 441–2
 - on deaths of kings, 503–4
 - on Diarmait mac Cerbaill, 63
 - on early descendants of Níall, 452
 - on gens 96–8
 - on Irish names, 3–6
 - on kings of Tara, 493–4
 - on magi, 194–6, 198
 - on prophecy and miracles of power, 191–6
 - presents different picture of Columba from that in the Amra, 286–90
- adoption, 459
- aduentus* of a king, 475–6
- Áed, bishop and subsequently anchorite of Sleaty, 261–2, 428–9
- date of Testament of, 439–40
- Áed Allán (Áed mac Fergaile), king of Tara, 280, 479, 511
- aggressive policy towards Leinster, 570, 575
 - and the promulgation of the Law of Patrick, 564
 - killed at the battle of Serethmag, 575
 - meets Cathal mac Finnnguini at Terryglas, 564
 - victor at the battle of Áth Senaig, 575
 - victories over Cenél Conaill and the Ulaid, 573
- Áed Bannán, early king of Munster from Éoganacht Locha Léin, 537
- Áed Dub, bishop of Kildare, 95
- Áed Dub (Áed the Black), king of Dál nAraidi, killed Diarmait mac Cerbaill, 63, 295, 527
- Áed Findliath (Áed mac Néill), king of Tara, 501
- Áed mac Ainmirech, king of Cenél Conaill and of Tara, 55, 305, 487, 490
- and the ‘conference of the kings’ at Druimm Cete, 487–8, 491
 - behind the foundation of Durrow, 555

- may have commissioned the Amra Cholúim Chille, 289–90
- Áed mac Bricc, bishop and saint, 28
became a general Uí Néill saint, 555
Life of, on the construction of a ráith, 150;
on kings and churches, 445–6
- Áed mac Colgen, king of Leinster, 575
- Áed mac Díarmata, 95
- Áed mac Echach, king of the Connachta, 510
- Áed Oirdnide (Áed mac Néill), 198, 278, 557, 588–9
- Áed Sláne, Uí Néill joint-king of Tara, 6, 21, 491, 520
aggressive policy towards Leinster, 570
see also Sil nÁeda Sláne
- Áedán mac Gabráin, king of Dál Riata, 55, 306 names sons by same first name (Echoid), 6 royal inauguration of, 360–1
- áes dána*, ‘people of craft’, 68, 125
- áes trebtha*, ‘farming people’, 68, 129
- Æthelberg, Kentish princess married to Edwin, king of the Northumbrians, 310
- Æthelberht, king of Kent, 222–3, 310
- Æthelfrith, king of Bernicia and Deira, 307, 310–11
- Æthelthryth, queen, founder of church of Ely enshrinement of body of, 342 gave Hexham to Wilfrid, 340
- Æthelwulf, De Abbatibus, 327–8
- Aetius, Roman general, appeal of Britons to, 214
- Aghaboe (Achad Bó), monastery of St Cainnech, 121–2, 262–4
- Agilbert, bishop of West Saxons and later of Paris, 319, 321
and Columbanian monasticism, 345 buried at Jouarre, 9 studied in Ireland in the 640s, 8
- Agilulf, king of the Lombards, an Arian, 374 religious standpoint of, as seen by Columbanus, 376
with his queen Theudelinda, grants Bobbio to Columbanus, 372, 388
- Agrestius, former monk of Luxeuil, 387
asked Eustasius that he be allowed to preach to pagans, 383
attacked Eustasius at the Synod of Mâcon, 364 had joined the Aquileian schism, 364 precipitated crisis for Columbanian monasticism, 366–7
role in Jonas’s Life compared with that of Brunhild, 367–8
- Agricola son of Severianus, British Pelagian, 204

- agriculture in Ireland, mixed, 73
- Agrippinus, bishop of Como, 372, 377
- Ahlfléd, Oswiu’s daughter, married Peada, 316
- Ahlfrith, probably king of Deira married Penda’s daughter, 316 patron of Wilfrid, 318–19 rebelled against his father Oswiu, 320
- aicme*, equivalent to parentela, 98
- Aidan (Aidán, Áedán), bishop of the Northumbrians, 9, 251, 314–17 attitude of the ‘middle party’ to, 338, 339–43
Bede’s portrait of, 342–3 cult of, 343
friendship with Oswine, 315 relationship with Oswald, 314–15 succeeded by Finán, 316 translation of his relics into the church of Lindisfarne, 342
used royal vills, 314
- Aided Echach maic Maireda maic Cairedo*, 64
- Aidne, district of, 40
see also Uí Fiachrach Aidne
- Ail Clúaide, see Dumbarton
- Ailbe, patron saint of Emly, associated with a provincial cáin, 566
- Ailbe, patron saint of Senchue (Shancough), 41
- Aildobur, abbot of Roscommon, promulgates Law of Commán, 561
- Ailech, seat of kingship of Cenél nÉogain, 53
(Map 6)
- Ailerán, sapiens (ecnae), 266–7
- Ailill Molt, supposed king of Tara, 460–4, 468
- aimne*, ‘patience’, recommended by Scéla Cano maic Gartnáin, 141
- Ainmuire mac Sétnai, king of Tara, 294, 485, 510
- Aircol, king of Dyfed, 171
- aire ard*, grade of noble, 75, 130–2
- aire coisring*, representative of a non-noble kindred, 81, 130
- aire désa*, grade of noble, 75, 130–2, 150
- aire échta*, category of noble, 130–2
- aire forgaill*, grade of noble, 130–2, 134, 150
- aire tuiséa*, grade of noble, 80, 130–2
- airecht*, assembly of nobles acting as a court of law, 559
- Airgialla, group of northern dynasties and Cenél nÉogain, 573–4 and Patrick, 512
and the Uí Néill, 459, 548–9
as part of Dál Cuinn, 511–12 associated with the northern Uí Néill, 511–12

- military obligations of, 464, 511
originally not seen as descendants of Conn, 517–18 origin-legend of ('The Three Collas'), 513–14 Poem on, 522–3, 526 saw themselves as the army of the Uí Néill, 512–14
- airlise*, 107, 120
- Airmedach mac Conaill, may have been ally of Congal Cáech, 495
- Airtech, Artech, 30, 31, 255
- Airthir Maige, see Armoiy
- Airthir, the (ind Airthir, Orientales, Antiores), 52, 99, 574 associated with Armagh, 278, 512
- astreóir*, 'doorkeeper', 132
- aithech*, render-payer, base client, commoner, 101, 134–5, 137
aithech ara-threba a deich, 130, 133, 135 aithechthúath, 'base-client people', 139, 546, 557
and cáin, 530
- aitire*, public surety or guarantor, and the cáin, 563, 566–7
- aitire chárdaí*, guarantor of a treaty, 567
- Alamans, a federation of peoples, 158, 160
- Alaric, 465
- Albanach*, 'Briton' and thus exile from overseas, 222
- Alboin, king of the Lombards, 347, 464–5 rejected Catholicism in favour of Arianism, 374
- Alcuin, 138
- Aldfrith, king of Northumbria attempts compromise settlement with Wilfrid, 340 friend of Adomnán, abbot of Iona, 283, 326, 341, 436
sapiens, 266
sponsored in confirmation by Aldhelm, abbot of Malmesbury, 340 Wilfrid allowed back from exile after his death, 343
- Aldhelm, abbot of Malmesbury and subsequently bishop of Sherborne on English in Ireland, 9, 337 sponsored Aldfrith (later king of Northumbria) at confirmation, 340
- ale of Cúalú, as prerogative of the kingship of Leinster, 95
- Alexandria, status of patriarchate of, 207
- alges*, 64
- Alhfrith, sub-king of Deira, supporter of Wilfrid, 318–20
- Allen (Almu), battle of, 511, 552
- alternation in the kingship of Tara among royal dynasties, 494, 571–3
- Amand, saint, Jonas assists in his mission, 351, 366, 390
- Ambrosius Aurelianus, parents of, wore the purple, 168
- Amlaíb (Óláfr), son of the king of Laithlind, takes tribute from the Irish, 597
- Ammianus Marcellinus, fourth-century Roman historian, 157, 158, 160
- Amolngid mac Conaing, killed at the battle of Kells, 571
- Amolngid mac Éndai, king of Munster, 538
- Amolngid mac Fiachrach, ancestor of Uí Amolngada, sons of, 26, 48, 51
see also Uí Amolngada
- Amra (Amrae) Choluim Chille* (a lament for Columba), 180, 192, 193 earliest evidence for the Uí Néill, 441 n. possibly commissioned by Aed mac Ainmuirech, 289–90 presents different picture of Columba from that in Adomnán's Life, 285–90
- Anglo-Saxon missionaries in Germany, 177
- Anglo-Saxon royal centres, 474–5
- Anmchad mac Con Cercae, king of Osraige, attacked Leinster, 575–6, 596
- Annals of Inisfallen, king-list in, 483–4, 487
- Annegrá, monastery founded by Columbanus, 8, 352, 356
- ánruth*, grade of poet, 131
- Applecross, monastery of (Wester Ross), 245
- Aquileian schism (Three Chapters schism, Trecapitoline schism), 364 history of, 372–4
- Aquileians, attitudes of, as perceived by Columbanus, 375–6
- arae*, 'charioteer', the servant of the éirr 'chariot warrior', 544
- Araid, 544
- Araid Clíach, 'charioteers of Clíu', a Munster people, 532
- archbishops
and the pallium, 419–20 bishops of Armagh and Kildare claimed to be, 416, 426–8 in Gregory the Great's Registrum, 419–20 Justinian I and, 420–1 very rare in the West in the sixth and seventh centuries, 242
- Ard Ciannachtae, 16 (Map 1) changing meaning of, 273, 551–2
- Ard Éolarg, 295
- Ardagh, Co. Longford (Ardachad), 23 (Map 3), 31, 33 linked with the cult of Brigit, 260

Ardbraccan (Ard Breccáin), 18 (Map 2) episcopal, 272
originally the episcopal church of Dál Conchobuir, 61–2

ardrí, 'high-king', 519, 523

Ardrast, claimed Ráith Chungai, 252

Argaman, battle of, 594

Argyll, Irish settlements in, 161

Arians, 206–7

Aridius, bishop of Lyons, 359–60 and the expulsion of Desiderius of Vienne, 363

Armagh, 57
and Delbnae Assail, 27 and Emain Macha, 146 and Mide, 26–7
and Slane, 254–5
archiepiscopal status of, 416, 422–3, 424, 426–7, 435–6
bishop of, in Cáin Adomnáin, 426 bishops or abbots of, as heirs of Patrick, 10, 251, 278–9
Book of, 11, 416, 422–3, 424, 426–7, 435–6 closely allied with Cenél nEogain, 51 contrasted with Tara, 469–71
Fothairt Imchláir settled close to, 14 n.
most active church in promulgating cánaí, 566 officers of, 256 relics of, 278, 427, 435
rigdál of, 279
when converted to the Roman Easter, 428–9, 435

Armenia, 242

Armoy (Airther Maige), 57 deprived of lands after attacks by Dál nAraidi, 59–60, 261
the principal church of Dál Riata, 59

Art mac Cuinn, legendary ancestor of the Connachta and Uí Néill, 489, 580–3

Artbranan, a naturally good pagan, 199–200

Artech, see Airtech

Arverni, 242

Assal, 22

assemblies, see dál, rigdál, óenach

Assicus, bishop, 252

Asterius, bishop of Milan, resided at Genoa, consecrated Birinus, 365, 375

Atacotti, allies of the Scotti, 160
perhaps a federation led by the Ulaid, 158–60

Áth Cliath ('Hurdle-Ford'), ford over the Liffey
by Dublin, 553–4

Áth Fadat (Aghade, Co. Carlow), perhaps a church associated with Bishop Iserminus, 234

Áth Fithot, identified with Áth Fadat, 234

Áth Goan, battle of, 498

Áth Truim, see Trim

Athairne, legendary filí, as prophet of Christ, 197

Athala, abbot of Bobbio, 346, 389 and Bertulf, 390
date of death, 364
Jonas acted as assistant to, 351

Athfolta, Pictish province, 305

Attila, 207

Audacht Morainn, 138–40, 520

Augustine, bishop of Canterbury, 223

Augustine, bishop of Hippo
and the salvation of people before Christ, 209
De Doctrina Christiana, 177
on the Fall, 203

Auraicept na nÉces, 'The Primer of the Poets', 579–80

aurgnamhi, 'labourers, substitute labourers', 110

Authari, Frankish noble and father of Ado, Dado and Rado, 389
welcomed Columbanus, 371–2

Auxerre, 182

Auxilius, bishop, 233–4, 237–9, 245

Báetán mac Cairill, possible king of Tara, 482–3

Báetán mac Muiredaig (mac Maic Ercae), king
of Tara, 484–5, 504

Báetán mac Ninneda, king of Tara, 487, 491

Baile Chuinn, 483–5, 487, 491–3 omits most Cenél Conaill kings of Tara, 485 partiality of, 491–3

Baislec, see of Sachellus and main church of Ciarraige nÁi, 44–5
significance of the name, 45

Báithéne (alias Conin), second abbot of Iona, 4–6, 307
belonged to Cenél Conaill, 282

banchomarbae, 'female heir', 87, 103

Bangor, monastery of, 57, 67, 99, 224 and its dependent houses, 245
attacked by Vikings, 589
Columbanus goes into peregrinatio from, 344
Comgall, abbot and patron saint of, 344
foundation of, 250

Bann disk, as evidence of the aesthetic culture of Iron-Age Ireland, 148

barbarian conspiracy of AD 367, 160–1

Bargy Commons, 102

barr, 'treetop', a metaphor of kinship, 84

base clientship, see clientship, base

Basil, saint, Rule of, 387, 388

- used by Columba and known to Columbanus, 286–7
- basílica*, as used by Gregory of Tours, 249, 378
- Béccán mac Luigdech, probably author of two poems on Columba, 285–6
on Dál Riata as ‘the land of Erc’, 293
- Bechbretha*, a legal tract, on Congal Cáech, 494–5
- Bede, Northumbrian exegete and historian described by the Irish as a sapiens, 266 Lives of Cuthbert, 341
may have had an anachronistic notion of archbishops, 417
on Adomnán, 436–7
on Aidan, 342–3
on Aldfrith, king of the Northumbrians, 180–1, 266
on Columba’s mission to the Picts, 299–308
on the Easter question, 404–5 on foreign visitors to Ireland, 8, 180 on Iona, 241, 299
on the Isle of Man, 157
on Ninian of Whithorn and the southern Picts, 304–6
on Palladius, 182 presented Aidan and Cuthbert, rather than Wilfrid, as model bishops, 343 rejected the view of Wilfrid that Aidan was a heretic, 337
- Benedict, saint, 225
Columba seen as the Irish St Benedict, 191–2, 193
Gregory the Great’s Life of, 191
on decani, 287
- Benignus, heir of Patrick, 43
- Bennchor, see Bangor
- Beowulf*, and paganism, 201
- Bernicia, 310–12
- Bertulf, abbot of Bobbio, 346
Jonas acted as assistant to, 351 journey to Rome, 364–5, 367
kinsman of Arnulf, bishop of Metz, 390
- Bethu Brigte*, 198
- Binchy, D. A., his views on the kingship of Tara, 481–2, 518–20
- Binén, heir of Patrick, see Benignus
- Binén, patron saint of Cell Bineóin (Kilbennan), 44
- Birinus, bishop of the West Saxons, 365
- Birr, 23 (Map 3), 181, 251
involved in violence, 594
on the edge of Tír Cell (Cenél Fiachach), 554
site of rigdál, 279–80
- where the Gospels of Mac Regol were written, 339
- where the Law of Adomnán was promulgated, 280
- bishops, 258–62, 264–5, 271–77 ‘bishop of bishops’, 125–7, 259 bishop of an overkingdom, 260–1 bishop of a túath, 126
chief bishop of the túath, 259 gifts to, 55
in the vernacular and canon laws, 258 metropolitan, 126
‘noble bishop’ (úasalepscop), 132
their sees and dioceses, 55, 58
Tírechán’s account of networks of, 43–6, 48–51
see also churches, episcopal
- The Bishops’ Synod (The First Synod of Saint Patrick)*, 245–50
- Bitheus (Betheus, Bite), bishop, disciple of Patrick, of Imblech nÓnonn, 43
- blai*, ‘immunity from violence’, at Taitiu, 556, 557
- Blaímac, (bishop) of Tethbae, 260
- Blathmac (also Blaímac) mac Aeda Sláne, king of Tara, 484–5
- blemish, physical, a disqualification for kingship, 25–6, 494–5
- blissing, as a form of royal inauguration, 360–1
- blinding, as a blemish in a king, 494–5
- bóaire*, category of freeman, 75, 77
and inheritance, 89, 90
bóaire febsa, 130, 134
bóaire tánaise, 131
bóaire túisea, 131
- Bobbio, monastery founded by Columbanus abbots of, see Columbanus, Athala, Bertulf, Bobolenus
as defender of papal Rome in the Lombard kingdom, 378
continuing Irish links with, 591 granted to Columbanus by Agilulf and Theudelinda, 372
ordered by Pope Honorius I to champion the cause of orthodoxy against the Arian Lombards, 364–5
Pope Honorius I’s privilege in favour of, 364 relationship to Pavia, 367
- Bobolenus, abbot of Bobbio, 352
- Boindrige, Munster people, 544
- Bóinrige, see Dál mBúain
- Boniface, Pope, Columbanus’ letter to, 182
- Boniface, saint, 201
- Book of Durrow, see manuscripts

- Book of the Angel (Liber Angeli), 11, 27
 date of, 438–9
see also Armagh, archiepiscopal claims of
- Book of Armagh, see Armagh, Book of
- Book of Cúanu, lost set of annals, 460–1
- border region, around Slieve Bloom, 31, 593–6
- Bosa, bishop of York, 340
- bothach*, category of half-free, 71, 80, 112, 133, 135
- Bothdomnach (Bodoney, Co. Tyrone), 53
- Boyle, monastery of, probably subject to Iona, 250
- Bradwell-on-Sea, former Roman fort and Cedd's church, 316
- Bran mac Conaill, king of Leinster, 262
- Bran mac Muiredaig (Bran Arddchenn), king of Leinster, 469–70 married to the sister of Donnchad mac Domnail, king of Tara, 578
- Brandub mac Echach, king of Leinster, 490, 500
- Brecán, merchant of the Uí Néill, 587–8
- Brega, 15–22
 attacked by Vikings, 589
 churches of, 271–3 contrasted with Connachta, 36
 earlier probably part of Leinster, 156, 451–8
 English invasion of, 417, 432–3, 434–5, 438
 'the head of all paganism and idolatry' (Muirchú), 17 Southern, 233–4
- Bregenz, Columbanus preached at, 383
- Bregmaine, 16 (Map 1)
- Brendan, patron saint of Birr, 277
 allied with Columba according to Adomnán, 283–4
- Brendan, patron saint of Clonfert
 allied with Columba according to Adomnán, 283–4
 associated with cánai, 566
- Bresal, abbot of Iona, promulgates the Law of Columba, 563, 578
- Bresal mac Murchada, 594
- Brétach, the, 52
- Bretha Comaithchesa*, legal tract on neighbourhood, 81, 100–2
- Bretha Nemed Toisech*, Munster legal tract, and base clientship, 75
- and Tara, 583
- Bretons, 512
- Brí Éile, battle of, 461–2
- Brí Garad (Cell Garad), church of Céthech (Cethiachus, Caetiachus), 42–4, 46
- Brí Léith (Co. Longford), 4
- Brian Bórama (Boru), 483, 570
- Bridei, see Bruide
- Brigans, 187
- Brigantes, 99, 186–7
- Brigantia, 186–7
- Brigit, saint, 187
 and Bishop Brón mac Ichni, 49
 and Fothairt, 14
 and Leinster, 238–9 and Southern Tethbae, 31, 35 and Wales, 238–9
 as a slave, 69, 108
 father of, Dubthach, 69, 108 hagiography of, on magi, 198
paruchia of, 425
see also Cogitosus, Bethu Brigte
- Britain
 Irish settlements in, 158–63
 Roman, 155–8
- British Church and education, 176–9
- Britons, and the conversion of the Irish, 184–6 lands of, used to endow Ripon, 330 moved away from their Roman past, 323
- Britons of Strathclyde or Dumbarton, 61 involved in the conversion of the Picts, 306–8 relations with Dál Riata, 306–7
- Broíchán, Pictish magus, 194–5, 305
- Brón mac Ichni, saint and bishop, disciple of Patrick, of Caisel Irrae, 43, 49–51
- Bructeri, constituent people of the Frankish federation, 158
- Bruide mac Maelchon (Bridius filius Meilochon), king of the Picts, 294, 296, 332 and Columba's mission to the Picts, 306
- Bruide son of Derleil, king of the Picts guarantor of the Law of Adomnán, 302, 569
- Brunhild, Frankish queen and the marriage of her sister Galswinth to Chilperic, 360 and the marriage of Ingund to Hermenegild, 360 and the marriage of Theuderic II to Ermenberg, 359–60 destruction of her descendants by Chlothar II, 351–2, 353 hagiographical and historiographical onslaught on her reputation, 353–5 implications of her death for Jonas' Life, 351–2 made a scapegoat by Jonas for ecclesiastical disputes, 359 made a scapegoat for the feuds of the Frankish royal family, 353

- a second Jezebel according to Jonas, 357
bruth, 'ardour', as personal quality, 143 Brycheiniog (kingdom in south Wales)
 bilingual inscriptions in, 172
 Irish settlements in, 161
 'bull-ruler' (tarbflaith), 520
bun, 'trunk', a metaphor of kinship, 84 Burgundy, Frankish kingdom in which Columbanus settled, 344
 burial practices, 175–6
 Burrian, Knowe of, 329
- Cadwallon, king of Gwynedd, 312, 332
 Caesarius of Arles, see Rule of Caesarius Caill Húallech, church of Lonán mac Senaig given by Clonmacnois to Clonard in exchange for two churches, 26, 256 cáin, 'authority, edict, tribute, penalty', 630
 as a mode of royal authority over aithechthúatha, 'base-client peoples', 530, 584
 as an edict, 559–69
 associated with the beginning of a reign, 565 associated with relics, 564–5 banishment and, 567 debts of (fíich cána), 567–8 forbach and, 568
 guaranteed by aitirí, 563
 in the annals, 561–6
 in Connaught, 561–3
 none associated with Leinster or Ulster, 566, 584
 of limited duration and thus re-enacted, 563–4 stewards of, 567–8 victim of Viking attacks, 561
 see also law, rechtge
- Cáin Adomnáin*, 'The Law of the Innocents', 70, 280–1, 326, 426, 560
 and the term forus cáno, 562 geographical scope of, 524
 guarantors of, 280
 kings of Munster in the guarantor-list of, 539–40
 operation of, 566–9 promulgated at Birr, 280 promulgated at a rigdál, also seen as 'the Irish synod', 569
 re-enacted and associated with relics, 564 referred to in Críth Gablach, 280 supported by Loingsech mac Óengusa, 280
Cáin Aicillne, legal tract on base clientship, 113
Cáin Domnaig, 'The Law of Sunday', 560 Cáin Lánamna, legal tract on sexual unions and their dissolution, 109–11
 Cáin Fúithirbe, 525, 560
 Cárnech, patron saint of Aghaboe, 121–22, 262–4
 allied with Columba according to Adomnán, 283–4
cairde, 'alliance, treaty', 104, 113
 as a mode of royal authority over sóerthúatha,
 'free peoples', 530, 584
 Caisel, see Cashel
 Caisel Irráe (Irróí, Irre), church of Bishop Brón, 42–3, 49–51
 Calatruim (Galtrim), 18 probable royal seat of a branch of the Uí Chernaig, 572, 577 calf of the road, 31
 Callraige Tremaige, 22
 Cambus (Camus), monastery of, 57
 Candidus, papal rector in Provence, 370
cano, grade of poet, 131
 Cano mac Gartnáin, Dál Riata prince, 527 canon law, Irish, and the Old Testament, 49 Canones Hibernenses, 281
 Canterbury, as a royal capital, 474 Carantocus, probably Breton, neighbouring abbot and ally of Columbanus, 356 Cardiff, 157
 Carnutes, Gaulish tribe, annual assembly
 among, 190
 Carolingian Renaissance, and Irish scholars,
 591–2
 Carrac, church of, acquired by Clones, 252
 Cashel, royal seat of kings of Munster, 146, 522 by ninth century known as 'Cashel of the kings', 481
 entry of kings into, 475 Murchad mac Brain, king of Leinster, made inaugural expedition against, 481 rechtge of king of, 560
 see also 'Conall Corc and the Corco Luigde' (Corcú Loígde), Frithfolad Muman and
 'The Story of the Finding of Cashel'
- Cassian, John, and cenobitic monasticism, 225 Institutes of, 386–8
 on decani and on the eight principal vices, 287 works of, known to Columba and to Cummian, 287
 Cathal mac Áeda (of Uí Chernaig), 478–9
 Cathal mac Finnguini, king of Munster, 280, 478, 539
 Cathal mac Muiredaig, king of the Connachta, 478–9
 Cathbad, legendary druid, 141–2

- Cathusach mac Ailche, bishop of Cenél nÉogain, 261
- cattle, as capital advanced by lord to client, 73–4, 101 within a marriage, 109
- Cedd, bishop of East Saxons, 316, 320
- céle Dé* ('client of God'), 140
- Celestine, Pope, 210 ruled that no bishop be sent to a community unwilling to receive him, 205 sent Germanus of Auxerre to Britain, 203–4 sent Palladius to Ireland, 182, 205
- Céli Dé*, members of a monastic reform movement, 4–5, 7
- cell*, 'church-complex', 184
- Cell Adrachtae, 42
- Cell Áir (Killare), church of Áed mac Bricc, 23 (Map 3), 28, 29, 446
- Cell Airthir (in Delbnae Assail), 27, 255
- Cell Alaid (Killala), 42 (Map 5), 50–1, 256
- Cell Auxilli (Killashee), 234
and Fothairt, 14
- Cell Bicsige (Kilbixy), 23 (Map 3)
- Cell Bile, 24
- Cell Bineóin (Kilbennan), 43–4
- Cell Chainnig (Kilkenny), 263
- Cell Chleithe (Kilclief), 57
- Cell Fóibrig (Kilbrew), 18
had bishops and scribae, 272
- Cell Garad, see Brí Garad
- Cell Lothair, in Brega given by Clonard to Clonmacnois in exchange for Caill Húallech, 26, 256
- Cell Malaich, 525
- Cell Moinni (Kilmoon), 18
- Cell Mór Diathraib, monastery subject to Iona, 250
- Cell Mór Enir (Ainir), heads of, described as abbots, principes and airchinnig, 269
- Cell Mór Óchtair Múaide, 42, 49
- Cell Róe Móre, 42, 50
- Cell Roiss (Carrickmacross), 57
- Cell Scire, 23 (Map 3), 24–5, 26
- Cell Sléibe, nunnery of, 57
- Cell Tog (Cell Thoch, Cell Thog), 226, 252
- Cellach Cúalann, king of Leinster, 481, 574
- Cellach mac Dúchada, king of Leinster, 576
- Cellach mac Maile Coba, king of Tara not included by Baile Chuinn, 484–5
- Cellach mac Ragallaig, king of the Connachta, 584
- 'Celtic Church', illegitimacy of the concept of the, 241
- cemetery, layman would expect to be buried in paternal, 104–5
- monk should not be buried in paternal, 7
- Cenandus, see Kells
- Cend Ailbe, battle of, 450
- cenél*, 'kindred' but also 'descent', 92–3 comchenúil, 'of equal descent', 94
- Cenél nAngsae, a name for Éoganacht Áine, 536
- Cenél nArdgail (of the southern Uí Néill), 16 (Map 1)
- Cenél mBóguini (branch of Cenél Conaill), 52
- Cenél Coirpri (of the Uí Néill), 468
allies of Cenél Conaill, 571 Cenél Coirpri Dromma Cliab, 38, 50 distribution of territories of, 16 (Map 1), 20, 39 (Map 4), 468, 571
genealogy of, 607
object of Tírechán's hostility, 20, 29, 571
- Cenél Comgail (one of the constituent cenéla of Dál Riata), 296–7
- Cenél Conaill (of the northern Uí Néill), 52, 55 allies of Cenél Coirpri, 571 alternate with Cenél nÉogain in kingship of Tara, 494
and Tírechán, 37
and the Uí Néill, 441–3 Columba their saint, 37 decline of, 572–4
genealogy of, 605
most abbots of Iona belonged to, 282 powerful when Iona was founded, 282–3
- Cenél nÉndai (of the Uí Néill), 16 (Map 1), 28, 52 (Map 6)
- Cenél nÉogain (of the northern Uí Néill), 14
n., 35, 51, 52
aggressive policy towards Leinster, 570–1
alternate with Cenél Conaill in the kingship of Tara, 494 alternate with Cland Cholmáin in the kingship of Tara, 571–3 feud within, 495–6, 571
genealogy of, 606
not favoured by the Chronicle of Ireland, 710–840, 501 rise of, at the expense of Cenél Conaill, 572–4
- Cenél Fergusa Scandail, a branch of Éoganacht Airthir Chliach, 531–4, 544
- Cenél Fiachach (of the southern Uí Néill), 16 (Map 1), 28–9, 298, 446
genealogy of, 609
lost territory after the sixth century, 554–5
see also Áed mac Bricc, Fir Chell, Tir Cell, Uisnech
- Cenél nGabráin (one of the cenéla of Dál Riata), 60, 296–7

- Cenél Loairn (one of the cenéla of Dál Riata), 6, 97, 296–8
- Cenél Lógairi (of the southern Uí Néill), 16 (Map 1), 19 associated with the church of Trim, 273
- Cenél Maini, 16 (Map 1)
as king-makers, 34–5, 96, 548
- Cenél nOengusa (one of the cenéla of Dál Riata), 296–7
- Cenn Fáelad mac Blathmaic, king of Tara, omitted by Baile Chuinn, 492
- Ceolfrith, abbot of Wearmouth-Jarrow and Adomnán, 326, 341, 410, 436–7 and events of 688, 341
and Lindisfarne, 341 commissions the Codex Amiatinus, 335 letter to Nechtan, king of the Picts, 391–2, 410, 411–12, 414–15 pupil of Wilfrid and monk of Ripon, 324, 336
- Cerae (Carra), district of, 47
- Cerdraige, Munster people, 544
- Céthech (Cethiachus, Caetiachus), bishop, patron saint of Brí Garad, 43–8, 50
name probably British, 43–4
- Chad, saint, bishop of York and later of Lichfield, 320, 340 body of, enshrined at Lichfield, 342 his supporters labelled ‘Quartodecimans’ by Wilfrid’s supporters, 320
- Chagnoald, Frankish noble, bishop of Laon, 383
welcomed Columbanus, 371
- Chalcedon, Council of, 206–8
- Charles the Bald, 591, 597
- Childebert I, king of the Franks, summons Council of Orléans in 549, 373
- Childebert II, king of the Franks, 352, 388
- children, 70–1, 82–3, 108, 113–15
protected by ‘the Law of the Innocents’, 70
- Chilperic, king of the Franks, 360
- Chlothar I, king of the Franks, and Radegund, 379–80 arrangements for his burial, 382
- Chlothar II, king of the Franks, 310 godfather of Merovech son of Theuderic II, 351, 363
his interests served by Jonas’s Life of Columba, 353–5
- Chronicle of Ireland, xix and the manner of death, 503–4 dispassionate between 640 and 710, 501 does not include non-Uí Néill rulers, but impartial among the Uí Néill between 540 and 640, 503
- favourable to Cland Cholmáin between 740 and 840, 501 for fifth and early sixth centuries, 443–4, 447–53, 458, 462–4 on Coirpre mac Néill, 447–51
on kings of Tara, 501–5
- church community of a church, 117–23 grades of the Church, 125–9, 132–3 head of, derived high status from his church, 267 local organisation of, 239–40
- churches
alliances of, 122–3
and dynasties, 264
dependent, 27–8, 30–1, 245, 250–7 episcopal, lose episcopal rank because of political failure of their kingdoms, 58–61, 261 linked headships of, derived from a genealogical connection, 61 status of, 132–3
violence between, increasing in the late eighth century, 594–6
- ciall*, ‘calculating intelligence’, 142
- ciallfaith*, ‘wily ruler’, 142
- Cíannacht Breg, 16 (Map 1), 271, 273, 490, 511, 549 distribution of lands of, 551–4 part of their lands taken by the Uí Chonaing, 551
- Cíannacht Glinne Geimin, 52 (Map 6), 56 (Map 7), 121, 549
- Cíannachta, origin legend of, 459, 466–7, 553–4
and the Uí Néill, 466–8
fortúatha, said to be related to the Éoganachta, 549
- Cíarán of Clonmacnois, later became the leading saint of the Connachta, 67
Law of, 561–2, 566
- Cíarán of Saiger (Senchíarán), 27, 541 n.
- Cíarraige, 97
- Cíarraige nAí, 38, 39–40, 44–6, 58
- Cíarraige nAirtig, 39 (Map 4)
- Cíarraige Connacht, 32, 39
- Cíarraige Lúachra, 522
- cimbid*, ‘one in bonds and liable to death-penalty’, 118, 221, 517
- Cináed mac Ailpín, king of Picts (and of Irish in Britain), 590
- Cináed mac Conaing, king of North Brega, rebelled against Mael Sechnaill, 597
- circuit (cúairt)
as expression of lordship, 10

- circuit (ciúirt) (cont.)
of overking and poet, 15
- civitas*, as major church, 119–20
civitas refugii, ‘city of refuge’, 120 has a judge, 126
- Cland Cholmáin, branch of Uí Néill ruling Mide, 6, 16 (Map 1), 21–2, 34, 467 alternate with Cenél nÉogain in the kingship of Tara, 571–3 favoured by the Chronicle of Ireland, 740–840, 501
genealogy of, 604
peaceable policy towards Leinster, 570
rise of, 572
supporters of the Columban federation, 512, 563
- Clann Donnagaile, branch of Éoganacht
Chaisil, 538
- clerics protected by ‘the Law of Innocents’, 70 Clermont, 243
- cli*, grade of poet, 131
- client, base, as kinsman, 89–90 ‘feeds’ his lord, 74
- clientship, base, 68, 71–80
the basis of nobility, 133–4 generally endures till death of the lord, but in Munster often longer, 74 in Munster, 75–9
of kings and peoples, 530–4 rests on scarcity of livestock, 75
- clientship, free, 71
of kings and peoples, 530–1
- clientship, ministerial, 542–5, 547, 548
no good evidence outside Munster for, 555–6
- Clíu, area in Munster (east Co. Limerick and west Co. Tipperary), 532–3
- Clochar Macc nDaimini (Clogher; Co. Tyrone), royal seat of Síl nDaimini, 53 (Map 6)
- Cloítech (Clady?), 53
- Clonard (Clúain Iraird), 26, 224, 250 community of, in skirmish with Donnchad mac Domnaill, 595 likely to have had a ‘bishop of bishops’ or metropolitan bishop, 271
- Clones (Clúain Éois, Clúain Auis), acquires church of Carrac, 251–2
- Clonfert, see Clúain Fertaie
- Clonmacnois (Clonmacnoise, Clúain Moccu Nois), 23 (Map 3), 26, 31, 46, 224, 250, 251 acquires Cell Thoch, 252 claims church of Dumech, 252–4 contrasted with Crúachain, 469–70 involved in dynastic violence, 594 rule of succession at, 257
- Clovis, king of the Franks, 222–3 established his cathedra regis in Paris, 474
- Cloyne (Clúain Úama), monastery (in Co. Cork), 298
‘Conall Corc and the Corco Loígde’ written at, 523
- Clúain Alad Deirg, exchanged by Clonard for another church, 26
- Clúain Brónaig (Clonbroney), nunnery of, relationship to Granard, 23 (Map 3), 36
- Clúain Crema (Clonmellon), 23 (Map 3), 27, 255
- Clúain Éois (Clones), 53
- Clúain Ernáin (Clonarney), 23 (Map 3), 27, 255
- Clúain Fertaie (Clonfert), 42 (Map 5), 251
- Clúain Fertaie Mo Lua (Clonfertmulloe), 251, 257
- Clúain Fota Báetáin Aba (Clonfad), 22 n., 23 (Map 3)
- cluchemag*, ‘playing-field’, 114
- Cnogbae, see Knowth
- Coeddi, bishop of Iona, 308 n.
- Cóeldub (Cóelub) mac Néill, 454
- Cogitosus, Vita S. Brigidae
date of, 438
on roads and the construction of a togher, 147, 529–30
on the archiepiscopal status of Kildare, 416, 427–9
- Coille Fallomuin, later representative of Cland Cholmáin Bicc, 16 (Map 1), 477
- Coímid maccu Baird, 30
- Coindiri, see Connor
- Coire Brecáin, Corryvreckan, ‘the cauldron of Brecán’, 587–8 may originally have been Macdonnell’s Race, 588
- Coirpre mac Néill, eponymous ancestor of Cenél Coirpri
according to Tírechán, called ‘the enemy of God’ by Patrick, 20
‘the accursed Coirpre’ in the Tripartite Life, 34 cursed by Patrick at Tailtiu according to Tírechán, 446 listed among kings of Tara in Baile Chuinn, 484–5 more gently treated in the Vita Prima of Brigit, 22 n.
- Coirthech, king of Ail Chlúathe, see Coroticus
- Colcu mac Fáilbi Flaind, king of Munster, 538
- Coleraine (Cúl Raithin), church of, 55, 57, 58–9, 261

- Colla Fochríth, 515
Colla Mend, supposed ancestor of the Mugdorna, 515–16
Colla Úais, supposed ancestor of Uí Maccu Úais, 514–15
'Collas, The Three', 513–16
collateral inheritance, 87–8 Collectio Canonum Hibernensis, 126–7, 128, 233, 281, 358
and Bible, 265 and bishops, 258, 421–6, 431
and Bishops' Synod, 245–7 and metropolitan bishops, 421–6, 431
and paschal question, 415 compilers of, 265
on the scriptural scholar and law, 181
Colmán, bishop of the Northumbrians, 319–20
Colmán Elo (Colmán moccu Sailni), patron saint of Lynally, 62–3
allied with Columba according to Adomnán, 283–4 became a general Uí Néill saint, 555
óenach of, 557
'the second patronus' of Connor, 61
Colmán mac Feradaig, king of Osraige, 262–3
Colmán of the Britons, abbot of Slane, possible author of a lost Life of Patrick, 11–12
Cologne Prologue, and paschal chronology, 402–3
Colp, Co. Meath, see Inber Colptha Columba, saint, founder of Iona and Cenél Conaill, 37 and Connachta, 465
and lay people, 284
and the Picts, 299–308
and the Uí Néill, 441–3
as prophet, 191–4 community of, go to Tara to excommunicate Áed Oirdnide, 471 date of birth, 140
education of, 290–3
encounter with a naturally good pagan, 199–200 encounters with magi, 194–6 family of, 290–1
fosters alliance between Uí Néill and Dál Riata, 284 founded Iona, 282–3 funeral of, 349–50
grave of, 349
inaugurated Áedán mac Gabráin as king, 360–1 knowledge of astronomy and the paschal computus, 288
Law of, 501, 563
Life of, see Adomnán, Life of St Columba oral traditions about, 289
peregrinatio of, less far-reaching than that of Columbanus, 284 portrayed by Adomnán in the tradition of the great monastic saints, 283 relationship with contemporary monastic leaders, 283–4 relationship with kings, 283 seen by Adomnán as the St Benedict of the Irish, 191–2, 283
sources for, 283–90
tried before a synod at Tailtiu, 278, 559 Columbanian monasticism different views of, 345–6
in a stronger political position by the 630s, 366–7
Columbanus (Colmán), common name based on Latin columba, 5 Columbanus, saint, 138, 344–90 and Aquileian schism, 372–78 and Gildas, 362
and Irish nationality, 374–5, 389–90 and the monastic precinct, 358 and the paschal question, 358
and the Roman Empire, 375
and the Rule of St Benedict, 383–8
appealed to Gregory the Great, 367 attitude of Frankish bishops to, 368–9; indicated by the letter of Laurence, 366 compares Irish and Frankish Christianity, 240, 246 conception of the monastic life, 381–3 diet in his monasteries, 380–1
education of, 177–80, 344
founder of Annegray, Luxeuil and Fontaine, 8, 352 influence of, 371–2
Latin style of, 170
a Leinsterman, leaves Ireland for Francia as a peregrinus, 8, 344 Letter I, to Gregory the Great, 362, 367, 368, 400–1, 406 Letter II, 368
Letter III, 368
Letter IV, 358–9, 368–9
Letter V, 372–77
Life of, see Jonas of Susa
no shrine of, 350
possessed a file of penitential texts, 362 Regula Coenobialis of, 386 Regula Monachorum of, 384, 386 relations with Theuderic II and Brunhild according to Jonas, 357–8, 364, 367

- Columbanus, saint (cont.) remembered Palladius as the first great missionary in Ireland, 182–3, 239–40, 375 royal support for, 369, 388–9 travelled to Burgundy via Brittany, 344 welcomed by Chlothar II, 371
why exiled, 368–71
wrote to Pope Boniface, 182, 183
- comaitches*, see neighbourhood
- comaithech*, ‘neighbour’, origin of term, 101
- comchairde*, ‘joint alliance’, ‘full alliance’, 541, 546
- Comgall, saint, founder of Bangor, 99
allied with Columba according to Adomnán, 283–4
- Commán, patron saint of Roscommon (Ross Commáin), 47
Law of, 561, 563, 566
- common pasture shared by a túath, 102
- commoner, basis of status of, 134–4 compensation for killing or injury, 124
- Conailli Muirthemne, people and kingdom (approx. modern Co. Louth, north of the R. Dee), 16 (Map 1), 553 power of Cenél nEogain over, 573–4
- Conaire Már, legendary king of Tara, 142–3, 229, 525
- Conall Cernach, legendary hero, 83, 95
- ‘Conall Corc and the Corco Luigde’, 583 written at Cloyne, 523
- Conall Cremthainne, see Conall mac Néill
- Conall Cúel mac Maíle Coba, king of Tara, not included in Baile Chuinn, 484–5
- Conall Grant, of Uí Chernaig, victor in the battle of Kells, 571
- Conall Gulban (Conall mac Néill, ancestor of Cenél Conaill), 510–11
- Conall mac Comgaill, king of Dál Riata, 295–7 granted Iona to Columba, 282
not involved in the battle of Móin Daire Lothair, 295
- Conall mac Éndaí mac Amolngada, ancestor of Tírechán, 48, 51
his descendants were ‘servants of Patrick’, 48
- Conall mac Néill (Conall Cremthainne), 510 ancestor of leading ruling dynasties of the southern Uí Néill, 21 favoured by Tírechán, 20–1 in the Vita Prima of Brigit, 21 n.
said to have given the land for, and marked out, Domnach Pátraic, 21
- Conall mac Suibní, king of Mide, 498 killed Áed Sláne in revenge for his father, 507–8
- Conchobar mac Donnchada, king of Tara, 279–80
disrupts the óenach of Tailtiu, 557, 558
relative ineffectiveness of, and the Viking attacks, 589
- Conchobor mac Nessa, legendary king of Ulster, 54, 69, 83, 95, 103, 114–15
as triath, 519
- Condmach mac Duib dá Leithe, abbot of Armagh, 278
- Congal Cáech, Cruithnian king of Tara, 60, 494–9, 500, 504
- Congalach mac Conaing, king of north Brega, 577–8
- Conmaicne Réin, 16 (Map 1)
- Conn Cétchathach, 515, 517 and his judge, Caratnia, 144
as eponymous ancestor claimed by the Connachta, 36, 465 descendants of, kindred of, 511
see also Airgíalla, Dál Cuinn, Leth Cuinn
- Connachta, 3
and Columba, 465
and the Uí Néill, 508–12, 518, 520, 596
cánai frequent among, 566
genealogy, 627
a group of dynasties claiming descent from Conn Cétchathach, 36 king of, as deputy king, 510
king-list, 628–9
kings of Tara as kings of, 508–10 lands of, 36–54 Law over, 473
never ruled Mide or Brega, 465 north-east boundary, for Tírechán, at Foyle, for Tripartite Life at Drowes, 37–8 origin-legends of, 579
see also Ailill Molt
- Connor (Conderi, Condaire), episcopal church of, 55, 57, 261
associated with Lynally and Laraghbryan, 61–4 by 640 probably already the leading church among the Cruithni, 58–9 founded by Mac Nisse, 59
an instrument of the political ambitions of Uí Chóelbad, 62 possessed many churches in Eilne, 58 taken by Uí Thuirtri in post-Viking period, 63–4 see also Dál Sailni
- Constantinople, patriarch of, 206–7
Second Council of, never accepted by the Franks, 376
- Constantius, Life of Germanus, 204

- conversion to Christianity, 182–240
and the aristocratic life-cycle of the English, 308–9
as a cultural change, 186 chronology of the conversion of the Irish, 239–40
evidence of Latin loanwords for, 184 of the English, 308–17 of the Picts, 299–308
of royal households, 308–9 opportunity to construct a web of artificial kinship, 49
pagan gods and, 186–7
- Corc mac Luigdech (Conall Corc), supposed ancestor of the Éoganachta, 519, 610–11
- Corcu Duibne, ruling gens of the Dingle peninsula, 97, 173, 532 (Map 13)
- Corcu Fír Thri, 466–8
- Corcu Loígde, ruling gens of a kingdom in west Cork, 186, 532 (Map 13) connected with Osraige, 541, 583
in Frithfolad Muman, 541–2, 544, 546–7
see also Macc Con
- Corcu Mo Druad, Munster gens and people,
532 (Map 13), 545
- Corcu Óchae (Óche), gens subordinate to Uí Fídgente of Co. Limerick, 55 n. and Mo Lua of Clonfertmulloe and Drumsnat, 257–8
origin-legend of, 258
section of, migrated to Fernmag, 258
- Corcu Roíde, 16 (Map 1), 31, 49
- Corcu Themne (Temenrige), 39 (Map 4), 47, 226, 252
- Cork (Corcach Mór), monastery of, 132, 535
(Map 14)
- Cormac mac Airt, legendary king of Tara, 144, 481, 580–3
- Cormac mac Cuillennáin, king of Munster
- Glossary attributed to (Sanas Cormaic), 164, 202, 587–8
- Cormac mac Suibni, abbot of Clonard, scriba
and bishop, 268
- Cormac Snithéne, 30
- Coroticus (Coirthech, Corictic), 226–31
identity of, 227–8, 230
significance of the name, 227–8
- Corprige, possibly gens of Columba's mother, 290
- Córus Bésenai, legal tract on Conall Corc and Patrick, 582–3 on Patrick, 196
on succession to a church, 257–8
- coshering season, 113
and the maintenance of roads, 530
- Council of Chalcedon, 372
- co-wives, 112
- cráeba coibnesa*, 84
- craftsmen, 125
- crannóg, often royal, 151
- Creccraige, 581
- Crích Éndai Chonnacht, 28
- Crimthann mac Áeda maic Šenaig, king of Leinster, 498
- Crimthann mac Éndai Chennselich, 234
- Críth Gablach*, legal tract on status, 128, 130–2, 133–5
on requisitions, 526–7 on the construction of a dún, 150 on the king's dún, 527 on the 'man of withdrawal', 74 on the mruigfer, 73 on the noble's land, 80 on the óenach, 558–60
on the rechtge, 560
on the relative status of king and bishop, 254
- Crónán, bishop of Nendrum, 260
- Cross Pátraic, church of, 50–1
- Crotta Clíach, 'Harps of Clíu', the Galty Mountains, 532
'inner circle' of Éoganacht Chaisil, Éoganacht Glendamnach and Éoganacht
Áine in a ring around, 536
- Crúachain (Crúachu, Rathcroghan), 40, 42, 115, 146
as a seat of kingship, 473–4 as the site of an óenach, at which a cáin was promulgated, 562–3 contrasted with Clonmacnois, 469
- Cruithnechán, Columba's foster-father, 291
- Cruithni, a group of peoples of NE Ireland, 54, 99
genealogy, 626
- Crunnchú mac Agnomain, 137
- Cú cen Máthair, king of Munster, 537
- Cú Chúaráin, king of Dál nAraidi, deprives Armoey of lands, 60
- Cú Chuimne, sapiens, 265
- Cú Chulaimn, legendary hero of Ulster, 54, 69, 83, 95, 114–15, 141–2, 573
child of a human mother and a divine father, 201
- Cú Dínaisc mac Cellaig, king of Íarmumu, 539
- cú glas*, 'grey wolf', exile from overseas, 222
- Cúailnge, district of, 16 (Map 1)
- cuckold's rights over presumed child, 82–3
- Cuirne, Cuirni, 16 (Map 1), 31–2
- Cúl Dreimne, battle of, 294–5, 510

- Cúl Raithin, see Coleraine
cumal, 'slavewoman', also standard unit of value, 69
- Cumméne the Fair (White, Albus, Find), seventh abbot of Iona extent of Iona's influence in England under him, 316–17 on Domnall Brecc, 497–8 on the inauguration of Áedán mac Gabráin, 360–1 wrote Book on the Miracles of Power of Columba, 283
- Cumméne of the Mugdornai, 260
- Cumméne the Tall, a sapiens, 265
probably identical with Cummian, author of a penitential and perhaps with the Cummian who wrote the Letter on the Paschal Question, 265
- Cummian (author of Letter on the Paschal Question), 9, 180, 265–6, 421–2 anticipated the attack on the Celtic Easter mounted by Wilfrid, 326 argued that the Irish and the Britons were isolated on the Easter question, 406 described Patrick as papa noster, 183, 426 exegesis of New Testament by, 402–4 on abbots consulted about the paschal question, 251 supporter of Victorius of Aquitaine, 402–4, 409
- Curragh, and the kingship of Leinster, 95 battle of, 578
- cursive script in the Late Roman Empire ('New Roman Cursive'), 166–7
- Cuthbert, saint, bishop of Lindisfarne among those removed from Ripon to make way for Wilfrid, 319 consecration of, 340
context of the translation and enshrinement of, 339–43
cult in relation to that of Aidan, 343 opposed Ecgrith's attack on Brega, 435 shrine pre-eminent at Lindisfarne, 343
- Dado, 371
- Dagán, bishop, 366
- Dagobert I, king of the Franks, 310, 385, 388
- Daig, patron saint of Inis Caín Dega, 573
- Daiminis (Devenish), island monastery of, 53
- Dairinis, church on the Blackwater in Munster, 265
- dairying, possibly not practised in Iron-Age Ireland, 153
- Dál nAraidi, ruling gens among the Cruithni, 54–6, 59–60, 63, 99
- Dál mBúain (Bóinrige), 61, 64–7
- Dál Cais, 480
- Dál Caladbuig, 532–4, 544, 546
an aithechthúath, 533 outlying territories of, among Corcu Mo Druad and Uí Glainine, 534
- Dál Conchobuir, gens associated with the church of Ardbraccan, 61
subsumed within Déisi Breg, 272
- Dál Cuinn and the Airgialla, 511–12
- Dál nEchdach, ruling gens of the Fothairt, 99–100
- Dál Fiatach, ruling gens of the Ulaid, 54, 65
genealogy, 624–5
- Dál Mennat, 516–17
- Dál Riata, ruling gens and kingdom in NE Co. Antrim and in Argyll, 6, 54, 55 and 'the land of Erc', 293 Armoyn the principal church within the Irish section of, 59 artistic links of, 331–2 constituent cenéla of, 296–7 relationship of Iona to, 282 settlement in Scotland, 293
- Dál Saini, gens
associated with the church of Connor, 55, 61–4 associated with the churches of Lynally and Laraghbryan, 61 regarded as an aithechthúath, 61 retains separate identity, 63–4
- Dalkey Island, a possible emporium, 156
- Dallán Forgaill, 192, 306
see also Amra Cholúim Chillé
- dám*, 'company', 113
- damnae rig*, 'material of a king', 91–2
- Daniel, bishop of Winchester, on how to argue with pagans, 201
- Dar Í, law of, 565 n.
- Dark Age, as term for the late Iron Age in Ireland, 145–6
- daughters' rights of inheritance, 87
- decani*, 287, 325 n.
- Deer Park Farms, 57, 134, 151
- déis*, 'retinue', 112–13, 133, 135
- Déiss Deiscirt (Southern Déiss), 525, 532 (Map 13)
- Déiss Thúaiscirt (Northern Déiss), 532 (Map 13)
- Déisi, see Déissi
- Delbnae Assail, 16 (Map 1), 22, 574
and Armagh, 27, 255
- Delbnae Bethra, 16 (Map 1), 26, 31, 257
- Demetae, see Dyfed
- deochain*, 'deacon', 132

- deputy kings, see king derbfine, 86–8, 100
Derry, monastery of the Columban federation, 250
date of foundation, 282, 306
descent and febas, ‘excellence’, 91–2
Desiderius, bishop of Cahors, 385
Desiderius, bishop of Vienne, expulsion of, 363
Déssi (Déisi) Breg, 272
Déssi Muman, 93, 532 (Map 13)
Dessmumu, South Munster (Desmond), 539–40, 544
Díarmait (alias Mo Dímmóc), patron saint of Killeshin (Glenn Uissen), 5 Díarmait mac Áeda Sláne, king of Tara, 485 ally of Domnall mac Áeda at the battle of Mag Roth, 495 Díarmait mac Cerbaill, king of Tara, 63, 294–6, 508, 510, 520 killing of, 295, 527 Díarmait mac Domnaill, 594
díberg, and Patrick’s Letter to the Soldiers of Coroticus, 226 díbergach, ‘reaver’, 113, 143, 222, 228–9 Díchu mac Trichim, 65–6 a naturally good pagan, 200
see also Uí Díchon
Dícuil, Irish geographer, on the northern isles, Iceland and the Vikings, 586–7 diet, 73
Dímna Camchoss (Dímna mac Áeda Croin), a king of Fothairt, 116–18
dindšenchas, ‘place-name learning’, 64
Dinllaen, place in Gwynedd, origin of the name, 159 diocese in Late-Roman sense, 242
divorce, see parting
Do Biu (Do Bí), patron saint of Inis Causcraid (Inch), 66 Do Bonnae maccu Baird, 30 doctores, 277
doire, 255
Dom Liacc (Duleek), 18
associated with Ciannacht Breg, 271
had bishops and scribae, 272
domnach, 184–5, 240, 263–4
Domnach Mór Maige X, 240
Domnach Combar (Muckamore, Co. Antrim), 59
Domnach Maigen (Donaghmoyno, Co. Monaghan), 57 (Map 7), 260
Domnach Mór (near Navan, Co. Meath), 271
Domnach Mór Maige Coba (Donaghmore, Co. Down), 57, 240
Domnach Mór Maige Echnach, 255
Domnach Mór Maige Ítha (Donaghmore, Co. Donegal), 53
Domnach Mór Maige Lúadat (Donaghmore, Co. Kildare), 14 n., 61
Domnach Mór Maige Seólai, 42 (Map 5), 43
Domnach Mór Maige Tóchuir (Donagh, Carndonagh, Co. Donegal), 53
Domnach Mór Roigni (Donaghmore, Co. Kilkenny), 238 (Map 10), 263–4 Domnach Mór ‘super siluam Fochluth’, church of Mucnoe, 42 (Map 5), 43, 50–1 Domnach Pátraic (Donaghpatrick, Co. Meath), 17, 18 (Map 2)
apparently not episcopal, 271
Domnach Sechnaill (Dunshaughlin, Co. Meath), 18, 234
apparently not episcopal, 271
Domnall, bishop, 30
Domnall Brecc, king of Dál Riata, 60–1, 307
ally of Congal Cáech in 637, 497–9
Domnall mac Áeda, king of Tara Adomnán on, 503–4
defeated and killed Congal Cáech, 494 included by Baile Chuinn, 484–5
Domnall mac Maic Ercae, king of Tara, 294–5, 510
Domnall mac Murchada, king of Tara, 477–80 cáin of a saint becomes common during his reign, 565
peaceable policy towards Leinster, 570, 575, 579
succession struggle at the end of the reign of, 594 victor at the battle of Serethmag, 574
Donatus, bishop of Besançon, godson of Columbanus, 356, 383
Rule of, 384
Donnchad mac Domnaill, king of Tara, 469–7, 556 aggressive policy towards Munster inherited by Máel Sechnaill I, 597–8 attacks ‘the North’, 574 defeats Síil nÁeda Sláne, 577–8
disrupts the óenach of Tailtiu, 558
favours the familia of Columba, 563 generally peaceable policy towards Leinster, 570, 576–7 in dynastic struggle in last years of his father’s reign, 594 insults the Staff of Jesus and the relics of Patrick, 563 occupies Ráith Ailinne, 576–7

- Donnchad mac Domnaill, king of Tara, (cont.)
promulgates the Law of Columba, 563, 578 role in undermining the peace on the frontier with Munster, 594–6 sister, Eithne, married to Bran mac Muiredaig, king of Leinster, 578 murdered, with her husband, 578 summons synods of Uí Néill and Leinstermen to Tara, 278, 471
- Donus, bishop of Messina, received the pallium from Gregory the Great, 419
- dos*, grade of poet, 131
- Downpatrick (Dún Lethglaise), royal seat and later church, 57, 65–6 and Nendrum, 255
attacked by Vikings, 589
Druim Lethglaise may have been the original church, 65–6
Dún Lethglaise, the royal fort, may have been ‘the Mount’, 65
- Dowth, 15
- drisiuc*, grade of poet, 131
- Drowes, river, for Tripartite Life the north-eastern boundary of Connaught, 38
- druids
as magi, 195–8
different views of, 197–8
lost power and status after conversion to Christianity, 190–1 said to have been confronted by Patrick, 47, 48, 196–7 said to reverence a well, 47
- Druimm Bó (Drumbo, Co. Down), 57
- Druimm Cete, ‘conference of the kings’ at, 487–8, 491
- Druimm Clíab (Drumcliff), 53
- Druimm Derg, battle of, 450
- Druimm Inasclainn (Dromiskin, Co. Louth), 57, 553
- Druimm Snechtai (Drumsnat), 53, 257–8
- Druimm Túama (Drumhome), monastery subject to Iona, 53, 250
- Drumanagh, a possible emporium, 156
- Dub dá Letha, abbot of Armagh, and the promulgation of the Law of Patrick, 473, 562–3
- dubfíne*, 88
- Dublin, Viking longphort (and earlier a church), 588, 590–1
- Dublittir, anchorite and leader of the Cíli Dé, 7
- Dubthach macc Lugair, fili, 196–7, 199
- dugað*, body of English noblemen of mature age, 309
- Dulane (Tuilén, Tuilián), monastery of, 18
- Dul Óchéni (valley of R. Faughan, Co. Londonderry), 38
- Dumae Achir, battle of, 460–2
- Dumbarton (Ail Clúade), 227–8
- Dumech, church of allied with Tamnach, 252–3 claimed by Clonmacnois, 252
- dún*, ‘fort’, 149–50, 527–8
- Dún mBile, battle of, 594
- Dún Cúair, 278, 527, 528
- Dún nEochaille (Donohill), royal seat of Cenél Fergusa Scandail, 531, 533, 535, 548
- Dún nGúaire, 499–500
- Dún Lethglaise, see Downpatrick
- Dún Sebuirgi (Dún Sobairche, Dunseverick), 57, 58, 59
Rock of Patrick at, 59
- dúnad*, ‘encampment’, 528
disruption of, 558
- Dunadd, royal fort in Dál Riata, excavations at, 331–2
- Dúngal Raithlind, king of Éoganacht Raithlind, 537
- Durham Liber Vitae, 382
- Durrow (Dairmag, Daurmag), and Cenél Fiachach, 555
date of foundation, 282, 306
a dependent house of Iona, 250 in or close to Mag Léne, 251
involved in violence, 594, 595–6
patronised by the kings of Mide in the eighth century, 26, 595
- Dyfed (kingdom in south-west Wales)
Irish origin claimed for the dynasty of, 163–4
Irish settlements in, 161, 163–5
- dynastic prophecy, 361–2
- dynasties, failing, 40
- Eadberht, bishop of Lindisfarne, 341
- Eadfrith, bishop of Lindisfarne, scribe of the Lindisfarne Gospels, 341
- Eadhæd, bishop of Lindsey, 340
- Eanfled, Oswiu’s queen, observed Roman Easter, 318
- Eanfrith, king of Bernicia, 302, 310
- Easter, date of, how determined, 391–2
Alexandrian or Dionysiac, 392–3; adopted in Rome between 632 and 640, 408–9 and the Passover and Feast of Unleavened Bread, 396–8, 399–400 Celtic, exegetical basis of, 401–2
Cummian’s exegesis, 402–4
Cycles, 395–6
First Council of Nicaea on, 394
in the New Testament, 398–9
see also paschal controversy
- Eata, abbot of Lindisfarne, later bishop of Lindisfarne and Hexham

- consecrated to Lindisfarne and Hexham by Archbishop Theodore, 320, 340 removal of, 337 removed from Ripon to make way for Wilfrid, 319
- East Anglia, 310, 313
- ecclesia*, meaning when used by Gregory of Tours, 249, 378
- ecclesiastical families, 272–4
- ecclesiastical titles, plurality of, 267
- Ecgberht, king of Kent, 433
- Ecgberht of Ráith Máelsigi and Iona, 328, 336–7, 339, 435
 and Bede's Ecclesiastical History, 436–7
- Ecgríth, king of the Northumbrians, 302 his army invaded Brega, 341, 417, 432–3 killed at the battle of Nechtanesmere, 340, 432 role in first expulsion of Wilfrid, 339, 430
- ecnae*, 267, see also sapiens, scholar
- Echaineach, church of, 41
- education, 176–81
- Edwin, king of the Northumbrians, 312
 translation of body to Whitby, 342
- Eilne (Mag nEilni), kingdom between Bann and Bush, 54, 55, 56 (Map 7), 99 conquered by a branch of the Uí Chóelbad (Dál nAraidi), 59
- Einhard, Life of Charlemagne, 350
- éirr*, see errid
- Eithne daughter of Mac Naue, mother of Columba, 290–1
- Elen, island monastery of, dependent on Iona, 250
- Éli, people in north-east Munster, 532 (Map 13), 546
- Eligius, bishop, founder of Solignac, 385
- Elmet, British kingdom conquered by Edwin of Northumbria, 313
- Élodach mac Dúnlainge, king of Dessmumu, 539
- élud*, 'desertion', 'evasion of obligation', 557
- Emain Machae (Navan Fort, Co. Armagh), 57, 114, 115, 146–8, 154
 Óengus the Culdee on, 470
 saga's explanation of the meaning of the name, 147–8
- emporia*, 'gateway communities', 156
- Emly (Imlech nIbair), monastery of, 132, 251
- Éndae mac Néill (eponymous ancestor of Cenél nÉndai), 28–30
- English in Ireland, 9
 monks in Ireland receive free maintenance, 9 students in Ireland receive free teaching and maintenance, 9
- English invasion of Ireland in 684, 417 occasion for a rechtge, 560–1
- entry by a king into his seat of kingship, 475
- Eochaid mac Domnaill, king of Tara, 484–5, 504
- Eochu mac Coirpri, 447–9
- Éogan mac Ailella (Éogan Már), eponymous ancestor of the Éoganachta, 489–90, 580–3
- Éogan mac Cléirig, bishop of the Connachta, 261
- Éogan mac Crundmail, of Uí Fídgenti, 538
- Éogan mac Néill, eponymous ancestor of Cenél nÉogain, 26 and n.
 Patrick's 'faithful friend', 51
- Éoganacht Áine (when excluded either Cenél nAngsae or Uí Éndai), around Emly, Co. Limerick, 532 (Map 13), 534
 excluded and named Cenél nAngsae in 'Conall Corc and the Corco Luigde', 536
 genealogy, 615
 part of the 'inner circle' in Frithfólad Muman, 534–6
- Éoganacht Airthir Chliach, on borders of Co. Limerick and Co. Tipperary, 532 (Map 13) and Cenél Fergusa Scandail, 531–2
- Éoganacht Chaisil, 532 (Map 13), 540 attitude of genealogical poem to, 538–9
 genealogy, 614
 part of the inner circle, 534–7
- Éoganacht Glendamnach, around Glanworth, Co. Cork, 532 (Map 13) favoured by Cloyne, as in 'Conall Corc and the Corco Luigde', 547 gave the land for the foundation of Cloyne, 298, 547–8
 genealogy of, 613
 part of the 'inner circle' of the Éoganachta, 534–7
- Éoganacht Locha Léin, around Killarney, 522, 532 (Map 13)
 excluded by Frithfólad Muman, 534–6
 genealogy of, 616
see also Iarlúachair, Íarmumu
- Éoganacht Raithlind, 532 (Map 13)
 'Conall Corc and the Corco Luigde' hostile to, 475
 excluded by Frithfólad Muman, 534–6 owe military service, 546
- Éoganachta (ruling dynasties of Munster), 3
 Emly the principal church of, 132 establish their power in Munster in the sixth century with Uí Néill help, 489–91 genealogies of, 610–16 inclusive view of, presented in the poem of Lucreth moccu Chiara, 537–40

- Éoganachta, (cont.)
 inner circle of, 534–7, 546–7
 origin-legends of, 489–90, 579–83
 peripheral (not of inner circle), treated as free clients by Frithfolad Muman, 540–1, 546 political divisions among, 534–43 Erc mac Degeo, patron saint of Slane, 254–5 relics taken on circuit, 595
érlam, patron saint, patronus, 33, 257, 525 Ermenberg, Visigothic princess, betrothed to Theuderic II, 359
ernaídm, ‘betrothal, vicarious binding’, and royal inauguration, 34
errid, ‘chariot-warriors’, as a term for nobles, 70
 Erris, see Irrus Domnann
 Ess Rúad (Assaroe), 53
 Essex, 316
 Etech of Mo Cháe of Nendrum (staff of Mo Cháe, a relic), 28
 Eterscél mac Maíle hUmai, king of Munster, 539
 Eustasius, abbot of Luxeuil, 346 missionary work among the Bavarians, 366 probably Gallo-Roman, 389 refused Agrestius’ request that he be allowed to preach to pagans, 383 said to have been commanded by Columbanus to seek the patronage of Chlothar II, 363
see also Agrestius, Synod of Mâcon excelsus princeps, 267 exile, as penalty for infringement of a cáin, 567 exile, status of, 222
exorcistid, ‘exorcist’, 132
 ‘Expulsion of the Déissi’, early Irish origin-legend, 163–4
- face and honour, 105–7
 value of, 129
 Fáelán mac Colmáin, king of Leinster, 95, 498
 Fáelán mac Dimma, king of Uí Fídgenti, 257–8
 Fáelgus mac Nad Froích, king of Éoganacht
 Chaisil, 538–9
 Fáilbe, eighth abbot of Iona, 313
 Fáilbe Flann, king of Munster, 498–9
 Fáilge Berraide, eponymous ancestor of the Uí Fáilgi, 449–50
 fair, see bénach faithche, 107–8
 Fallomon mac Con Congalt, king of Mide, 477, 478–80
 eponymous ancestor of Coille Fallomuín, 477
False Judgements of Caratnia (Gúbretha Caratniad), legal tract, 144
 fame, 142
familia, monastic, 119–23
 Fanat, 52
 Faremoutiers-en-Brie, nunnery of, 346
 Rule followed at, 384
 Faroes, 586
 Faustus of Riez, 185, 224
febas, ‘personal excellence’, and claims to office, 91–2, 480
 Fedelm the prophetess, 192–3
 Fedilmid (Feidlimid, Fedlimid), abbot of Kilmooine and máer of Brega for Patrick, 256
 Fedilmid mac Crimthainn (Fedlimid), 280, 557, 598
 in early ninth century, southern Uí Néill suffered much more from him than from the Vikings, 589, 596
 reasons for his aggression against monasteries, 599
 successes of, reversed by Máel Sechnaill, 597–8
 Fedlimid mac Tigernaig, early king of Munster
 said not to have entered Cashel, 475
 Felartus (Felarte), patron saint of Domnach
 Mór Maige Seólaí, 43
 Felix, bishop of East Anglia collaborated with Fursa and had high regard for Aidan, 318 likely to have had a Columbanian background, 365–6
 Felle, 16 (Map 1), 31
 Femen (district close to Tara; another Femen was between Cashel and Clonmel)
 battle of, 453–4
 Féni, originally a term for a confederation of peoples, 160
 as the dominant people of all Ireland, 583
 as a term for one cenél, ‘race’, in Ireland, 580 Fénius Farsaid, 579–80
fer fothlai, ‘man of withdrawal’, 130
fer midboth, ‘man of middle huts’, 130–1
 Feradach Find Fechnach, legendary king, 138
 Fergal mac Maíle Dúin, king of Tara, 480, 511 aggressive policy towards Leinster, 570, 575, 578–9
 kills Conall Grant in 718, 571
 Fergus mac Léti, legendary king of Ulster, 105–6, 581
 and Dorn, 517

- Fergus mac Roí, legendary hero, 103–4
 Fergus Scandal, early Munster king, 533
 Fernmag (kingdom of Uí Nad Slúaig), 52
 (Map 6), 257
 feud, 113
 among the Uí Néill, 495–9
 and cáin, 568
 and sanctuary, 120
 Fiacc, supposed first bishop of the Leinstermen, 196
 Fiachna Cassán, ancestor of the Airthir, 581–2
 Fiachna mac Báetáin, possible king of Tara, 499–500, 504
 defeated the Ciannacht Breg, 490, 500
 victor in the Battle of Slíab Cua, 490, 500 Fiachrae mac Ciaráin, ‘one of the two founders of Derry’, 282 Fiachu mac Néill (eponymous ancestor of Cenél Fiachach), 28–9
 and the conquest of Mide, 449–53, 458
fián, ‘warband’, 113, 228–9
 and the early conquests of the sons of Niall, 464–8
 Fib (Fife), 302
fidchell, a board game, 114
 fief of base clientship, 73–4 as ‘forepurchase’ of annual renders, 75
filí, ‘learned poet’, ‘seer’, 125, 127, 128–9, 131, 136–7, 199
 and the teosc, 138–40 origin of the term, 192
 see also Dubthach macu Lugair, Uraicecht na Ríar
 Finán, bishop of the Northumbrians, 316–17 Findbarr (Finnio, Vinniauis), bishop and patron saint of Mag mBili, 67 connection with Dál Fiatach, 292 possibly author of the Penitential of Vinnian, 293
 probably Columba’s principal teacher, 291–3
 Findchad (Finchad, Finchath) mac Garrchon, early Leinster king, 447–9, 454
 Findglas (Finglas), monastery of, 18 associated with Gailenga Becca, 271
 had bishops and scribae, 272
 Findmag, 47
 Findubair Abae (Fennor), 18 fine, ‘kindred’, 98 Finnian (Finnio macu Thelduib), patron saint of Clonard, 291
 relics of, taken on circuit, 595
 Fínsnechtae Fledach, king of Tara, 433, 492, 500 and Baile Chuinn, 507
 and Tírechán, 510–11
 Finten son of Telchán, see Munnu
 Fir Airde Ciannachtae, 273
 Fir Bile, people in Mide, 22
 Fir Chell, 446
 Fir Cheraí, people in Connaught, 102 Fir Cul mBreg (Fir Chúil), 16 (Map 1), 273
 see also Cúla Breg Fir Lí, see Lee, kingdom of Fir Maige Féne, Munster people around Fermoy, 532 (Map 13), 545, 547
 Fir Roiss, previously part of the Mugdorna, 574
 Fir Thelach, people in Mide, 22
 Flaithbertach mac Loingsig, king of Tara, 479, 573 Flann Febla, both abbot and bishop of Armagh, and suí, 271
 Flann mac Aeda, of Síil nDlúthaig, 571 Flann mac Cellaig, abbot of Finglas, scriba and anchorite and bishop, 268 Flann Mainistrech, verse king-list of (Ríg Themra tóebaige iar tain), 485
 Flann Sinna, king of Tara Marianus Scottus’ king-list derives from one drawn up during his reign (879–916), 485–6
 Flavian, patriarch of Constantinople, 207
flescach, category of minor, 131
 Florianus, bishop of Arles, 419
 Fochart (Faughart, Co. Louth)
 battle of, 573
 church of, 57
 Fochlae (ind Fochlae, ‘the North’), 38, 511 increasingly separated from Mide and Brega, 574
fochloc, grade of poet, 131
 Fochloth (Fochluth, Voclut), Wood of, 215, 217
 see also Domnach Mór ‘super siluam Fochluth’
 Fogartach mac Néill, 558
 Fomorian, 41
 Fontaine, monastery on the slopes of the Vosges founded by Columbanus, 8, 352 food-renders, 134
 force, use of, discouraged in kings, 139–40 Fordruim (church in Delbnae Assail), 27, 255
 Forгнаide, 31
 Forgas mac Maic Ercae, king of Tara, 294–5, 510 forshuinti, ‘external kindreds’, 548
 fort, see dún
 Forth Mountain, 102

- Fortriu, part of southern Pictland including Strathearn and lower Tay, 158 largely lacks Pictish sculpture, 302 men of, defeated by Vikings, 590 fortiatha, 'external peoples', 548–54
in Leinster not regarded as immigrants, 550 may have been excluded from participating in making a king, 549
- fosterage, 82–3, 96, 115–17, 221
plurality of foster-parents, 112
- Fothairt, belonged to Brigit, 14, 529–30 distribution of, 14, 534
Fothairt Airbrech, 99
Fothairt Airthir Lifi, 99
Fothairt Fea, 99
Fothairt Maige Itha, 99, 102
- Foyle, river and lough, for Tírechán the north-east boundary of Connaught, 37–8
- Frankish capitals, 474
- Frankish colonus compared with Irish client, 71–3, 79–80
- Franks
and the conversion of the English, 310 and the shrines of saints, 347–8 a federation of peoples, 158, 160 links with Ireland, 8–9 never accepted the authority of the Second Council of Constantinople, 376
source of the name Basilica Sanctorum, 45
- Fredegar, historian of the Franks
- followed Jonas in his onslaught on Brunhild, 353–4
- free churches, 530–1
- free clientship, see clientship, free
- freedmen, 69
- Frému (Frémainn), battle of, 450–1
- Frithfolad Mumán*, 'Counter-Obligations of Munster', 522–3, 534–48
and ministerial clientship, 542–4, 547, 548
elevates the inner circle of Éoganacht Glendamnach, Éoganacht Chaisil and Éoganacht Áine, 540, 541–2
- Fróech mac Findchada, 448–9
- fuidir*, category of half-free, 71, 80, 108–9, 133, 135
- Fursa (Fursu), Irish peregrinus in England and Francia, 345
collaborated with Felix, bishop of East Anglia, 318, 366
in East Anglia, 317–18
Irish origins, 318 and n.
- Gabrán mac Domongairt, king of Dál Riata, 294, 296
- Gailenga, 16 (Map 1), 39 (Map 4), 466–8, 511, 574 attacked by Conchobar mac Donnchada at the Fair of Tailtiu, 557
- Gailenga Becca, 16 (Map 1), 271, 273
- Gailenga Collumrach, 273
- gairid*, category of minor, 131
- gaiscedach*, 'armed man', 69
- gal*, 'heat', 'passion', as a personal quality, 143
- Gall*, 'Gaul' and thus exile from overseas; later Scandinavian, 222
king of the Gaill, 597
- Gallic chronicler of AD 452, 214
- Galloway, evidence for early Christianity in, 186
- Gaul, monastic life of, before Columbanus, 378–80
- gelfine*, 86–8
- Gemmán, Columba's teacher, 291
- gens* (corcu, dál, rige), 96–100 and genus, 97 different from the túath, 98 and status, 98–9
- gentilic, 96
- geogud*, 'youth', 'body of young English noblemen', 309
- Germanus, bishop of Auxerre, 185, 203, 210
Life of, used by Adomnán, 195
second mission of, 213
- Gerrthide mac Rónáin, king of Ciannacht Breg, 500
- gesith*, English nobleman of mature age, 309
- gifts, 220–1
to bishops, 55
to monks, 55 n.
- Gildas, 160, 164, 168, 176–9, 232 corresponded with Vennianus, probably Findbarr of Movilla, 292
- girls, education of, 71
- Glamorgan, Irish settlements in the west of, 161
- Glas Noiden (Glasnevin), monastery of, 18
(Map 2)
- Glúaire (Glore), church of, 57 (Map 7)
- goddess of sovereignty, 34
- gods, pagan as demons, 195–6, 201
as idols, 196
euhemerised, 201–2
- Gogo, Austrasian mayor of the palace, 354–5
- goire*, 'warmth', pietas', 110
- Gormgal mac Dindataig, abbot of Armagh promulgates Law of Patrick over the Connachta, 473

- Gráine (Graney, Co. Kildare), 448
grammaticus, school of, 176, 178–9
- Granard (Granaiet), Co. Longford, the see of Northern Tethbae, 23 (Map 3), 33, 448 battles of, 447–9
first bishop, Gúasacht maccu Búain, foster-brother of Patrick, 36
- Gregory, bishop of Tours
as metropolitan bishop, 417–18 hagiographical approach of, 346–7 on terms for a church, 349
on the Jura fathers, 348
- Gregory the Great, pope, 207
on liturgical diversity, 413, 415
on St Benedict, 191 refers to Leo the Great on missions, 377 response to Columbanus, 370 sends mission to the English, 310, 323–4
- gúbrethach*, ‘false-judger’, 144
guesting season, 73
- Guntram, king of the Franks, 344, 352
made aduentus into Orléans, 475–6 opposed to a Gothic alliance, 360 saved Chlothar II when he became his godfather, 363
- gus*, ‘passion’, ‘instinctive kindness’, 143
- Gwynedd, 589
- half-free, see bothach, fúidir
- half-uncial, 166, 332–4
change from Phase I to Phase II, 337–9
- Hebrides, had been Pictish, 159
- hermits, 383
- Hexham, church of, 324, 329
Eata, bishop of, 340
given to Wilfrid by Queen Æthelthryth, 340
- Hiberni, 153
- Hibernia, 159
- Hibernians (party among the Irish that adhered to the Celtic Easter), 336, 391
- Hiberionaci, 160
- Hilary, saint, bishop of Poitiers, shrine of, 347, 380
- Hild, abbess of Whitby, 320, 337
- Hill of Ward, see Tlachtga
- Hinba, dependent monastery of Iona, 250, 256, 383
- Hisperica Famina*, 180
- Holyhead, 157
- Honorius, metropolitan bishop of Canterbury
and Felix, bishop of East Anglia, 366 had high regard for Aidan, 318
- Honorius I, pope
charged Bobbio with the defence of ortho-doxy against the Arian Lombards, 364–5 encouraged Birinus in his mission to the English, 365 followed Gregory the Great in supporting monasticism, 365
granted privilege to Bobbio, 364 sent letter to the Irish Church urging conformity with Roman paschal practice, 365 visited by Irish legates in 631
- Honorius, Roman emperor, enacts law against Pelagians, 203
honour and status, 125, 129, 136–44 horse-race, at óenach, 137 hospitality given to lords and kings, 525–6 hospitality given to an overking, 527–9 house (teoh), 107–8
and the status of a commoner, 134
- household (muinter), 106–12
episcopal, 121
- Hughes, Kathleen
on the organisation of the Irish Church, 243–7
on the Picts, 300–3
- íarfine*, 85–6, 88
- Íarlúachair (Munster west of Slíab Lúachra) owed military service, 546 used by Frithfolad Muman in preference to Iarmumu, 540
- íarmue*, 84–6
- Iarmumu (West Munster), 539–40, 544
- Iceland, 586–7
- imbas for-ósna*, ‘knowledge which illuminates’, 192–3
- Imblech nÓnonn (by Elphin, Co.
Roscommon), church of Bitheus, 43, 255–6
- Imlech Sescainn, church acquired by Clonmacnois, 26
- Inber Colpthai, emporium, 16, 18 (Map 2), 156, 551
- Inber nDea, 235–7
- indfine*, 85–6, 88, 100
- indue*, 84–6
- inheritance of land, 84–90
- inheritance of office, 90–2
alternation in, 90–1 ‘circuit around the branches of a kindred’
in, 92
father-to-son succession, 91
- inheritance of status, 92–5
- Inis Bó Finde (Inishboffin), island monastery founded by Bishop Colmán, 42
- Inis Bó Finne (Finde), island monastery in Lough Ree, 33

- Inis Cáin Dega (Inishkeen), monastery of, 57, 573
- Inis Causcraid (Inch, Co. Down), church of, 57, 66–7
- Innocent I, pope, advocate of liturgical uniformity, 413
- inól*, category of minor, 131
- inscriptions
- memorial inscription for Voteporix, 164–9
 - ogam used for Irish, 167–8
 - until the seventh century Roman capitals used for Latin, 167–8
- Inse Gall, ‘the Islands of the Foreigners’, the Hebrides, 587
- Insular art, 326–43
- and trial-pieces, 329
 - and Wearmouth-Jarrow, 334–6
- Insular cultural province, 321–2
- Insular script, 167, 323–4
- and the Insular hierarchy of scripts, 328, 334
- Iona
- annals, 443, 451–3
 - attacked by Vikings, 587
 - island monastery founded by St Columba, 224
 - and the claims of Wilfrid, 432, 434–5
 - and the English, 308–26
 - and the sea, 298–9
 - dependent monasteries of, 250
 - end of its control of most of the English Church, 317–20
 - English monks of, 308
 - fertility of, 299
 - foundation of, 282–3, 293–99
 - involvement of Britons with, 307–8
 - Oswiu’s possible intentions for, 434, 437
 - principatus* of, 251
 - situation of, 9, 298–9
 - threatened by the plans of Wilfrid and Oswiu, 434, 437
- Ireland
- northern half of (Leth Cuinn), 10
 - see also* Leth Cuinn
- Irish
- cultural uniformity of, 512
 - identity of, 579–80
- Irish language
- attested in Britain, 163
 - increasing use of, in written texts, 592
 - Latin loanwords in, 184
 - origins of standard Old Irish, 583
 - uniformity of the literary language, 512
- ‘Irish’ party in the Easter dispute, see Hibernians
- Irish settlements in Britain, 158–72
- and the economic revival of Ireland in the fourth and fifth centuries, 161–2
 - and the Irish raids on Roman Britain, 161
- Iron Age in Ireland
- contrasted with the early Christian period, 145–58
 - southern Ireland an enigma in, 172–3
- Irrus Domnann (Erris), 39 (Map 4) 48
- see also* Mag nDomnann
- Iserninus, bishop, 233–4, 245
- Isidore, bishop of Seville, on patriarchs, archbishops and bishops, 421
- Isle of Man, 157, 202
- as Viking base, 589–90
- Italy, Ostrogothic, 168
- religious situation in 612, 372
- Jethro, and Irish law, 197
- John, pope-elect, letter of, 251, 277, 409, 415
- joint herding (comingaire), 102
- joint ploughing (comar), 101
- John Scottus Eriugena, 591
- Jonas of Susa, 351, 390
- showed sympathy for Austrasia and Burgundy, 356–7
 - used Irish informants, 180
- Jonas of Susa, Life of St Columbanus, 179, 345–51, 388–9
- audience of, 347, 367–8
 - Gospel of Luke and Acts as model for, 347
 - influenced by the destruction of Brunhild and her descendants, 351–2, 353–4, 367–8
 - monastic orientation of, 355–6
 - on the sexual vices of Theuderic II and the evil counsel of Brunhild, 357–8
 - presents Columbanus’ foundations as if they had lacked royal support, 352
 - sources for, 353
 - structure of, 346–7
- Jouarre, 9
- Judaism, and Christianity
- as seen by Ceolfrith, 411–12
 - and the origins of Easter, 392
- judge (brithem), 125
- and king, 136, 143–4
 - ecclesiastical, 49, 126
- judgement of a king, 144
- Julian, Roman emperor, 160
- Julius Caesar, 189–90, 198
- Jura fathers, 348
- Justin II, East Roman emperor, reconciles Franks, 373
- Justinian I, East Roman emperor and ecclesiastical organisation, 242, 420–1, 425
- and the Three Chapters, 372–3

- Kelleher, J. V, on the Uí Néill and the kingship of Tara, 505
- Kells, 501, 587
patronised by the kings of Mide, 26
- Kenfig, Glamorgan, bilingual inscription from, 170–1
- Kildare, 95, 238 (Map 10)
and the Fothairt, 14
archiepiscopal claims of, 416, 428–9, 437–8 in the addition to the Book of the Angel, 425 threatens independence of Sleaty, 261–2
- Killare, see Cell Air
- kindred of poets, 93
- king accessibility of, 527–8 advice directed at, 138–40 and cánai, 524
and judge, 135, 143–4 deputy, 479–80, 510 designation of royal heir to be distinguished from inauguration, 361 dún of, 150, 527–8 grades of, 130–32, 518–19 hospitality to, 525–6 inauguration of, 34, 360–1 of a province, 518 of a túath, 126 perceived as one kind of lord, flaith, 523 truth/justice of, 144
see also seats of kingship, rí, Tara
- king of Leth Cuinn, 476
- king of Uí Néill
in the poem on the Airgíalla also styled lord of Taitiu, 476
- kingship
physical blemish a disqualification for, 25–6
- Kinnity, monastery of, on the edge of Tír Cell, 554
- kinship, 84–96
ancestor-focus and ego-focus in, 85 and alliance, 95–6 artificial, constructed by conversion, 49–50 kinship of inheritance patrilineal, 84–7 maternal, and kingship, 93–5 terms, 84–6
- Knowth (Cnogbae), 15, 18 (Map 2), 473
- Laidcenn mac Bairceda, early poet, 454
- Laigin Desgabair (southern Leinstermen), 93 attacked by the king of Leinster at the óenach of Colmán, 557
- Laisrén, third abbot of Iona, 307
- lánannas comhthínchuir*, ‘sexual union of joint-contribution’, 109–11
- Lann Léire (Dunleer), episcopal church, 272
- Lastingham, monastery of, 338
- Latharnae (people and kingdom around Larne), 56 (Map 7) uncertain whether they belonged to Dál nAraidi, 99
- Lathrach Briúin (Laraghbryan, Co. Kildare), 60, 238 (Map 10)
- Latin
as a spoken language in post-Roman Britain, 169–72
loanwords in Irish, 184
- Laurence, metropolitan bishop of Canterbury, letter to the Irish Church, 366
- law, Irish and natural goodness, 197
as prophecy, 197
on the kingship of Tara, 518–20 ‘law of the face’, 107
law of nature and Irish law, 197
- Law, a (lex, cáin, recht, rechtge), 473, 501, 559–69
see also Brendan of Clonfert, Ciarán, Columba, Commán, Dar Í, Patrick, Súanach, descendant of
- lawyers, 125
- Lebor Gabála Éirenn*, ‘The Book of the Taking of Ireland’, 200–1
- Lee, kingdom of (Fir Lí), 56 (Map 7), 295
- Leinster, province of, 236 (Map 9), 239 (Map 10)
abandons Celtic Easter 317 and conversion, 233–40
and Roman imports, 156
and the Uí Néill in the eighth century, 574–9 early kings of, ruled Tara, 454–8 genealogies, 93, 617–22 involved in Irish settlements in Britain, 159 king of, and the Loígisi, 531; may attend an óenach in Mide, 557, 569 king-lists, 618–19
larger in the fourth and fifth centuries, 156, 457–8
no provincial cáin attested for, 566, 569, 584
overlordship over, claimed by Munster, 593 Patrician claims to churches in, 12 seventh-century kings of, came from three dynasties, 498 warfare on borders of, 570–1
- Leinstermen, distinguished from Féni and Ulaid, 580
- Leo the Great, pope, 213, 239
links with Prosper, 207–8, 210
on the missionary role of Rome, 206–7, 375
- Leontius, metropolitan bishop of Bordeaux, 418

- Lérins, monastery of, 224
les, 'enclosure', 'enclosed farmhouse and buildings', 'ringfort', 107, 120, 149
see also ringfort
 Leth Cam, battle of, 557
 Leth Cuinn, 476 extent of, 569
 Law imposed on, 565
 political order of, indicated by Scéla Éogain 7 Cormaic, 582 Leth Moga, 593
liachtreóir, 'lector', 132
 Liath Mancháin (Lemnaghan, Co. Offaly), monastery of, 23 (Map 3), 31, 260
Liber Anatolii, 398, 412
 Librán, monk of Columba, 349–50
 Librán, monk of Columbanus, 371
 Life (Liffey), plain of, see Mag Líñ, river (= Ruirthech), 18 (Map 2)
 Life of a saint, concept of, 350–1
 Lind Dúachaill (Annagassan), church and, later, Viking longphort, 18 (Map 2), 588, 590–91, 596, 598
 Lindsfarne (Medcoit), 311 (Map 11), 314 and Wilfrid, 326, 341 remained loyal to the memory of Aidan, 338 Lindsfarne Gospels, see manuscripts literacy, beginnings of, 172–5 literature, early Irish, intended audience of, 137 livestock, part of the basis of a commoner's status, 134
 Lleyn (Llŷn peninsula), origin of the name, 159
 Loch Awe, Columban monastery at, 250
 Loch Cúan (Strangford Lough), 56 (Map 7)
 Loch nEchach (Lough Neagh), 56 (Map 7)
 Loch nGabor (Lagore), 18 (Map 2), 234, 572
 Loch Loíg (Belfast Lough), 56 (Map 7)
 Loch Rudraige (Dundrum Bay), monster of, 105–6
 Loch nÚaithne (Lough Ooney), crannóg of, royal seat of Uí Nad Slúaig, 53 (Map 6), 151 n.
 Lochéne Menn, both sapiens and scriba, 266
 Lógair mac Néill, king of Tara, 12, 235 ancestor of a minor royal dynasty (Cenél Lógairi), 19, 458 as judge of a succession dispute among the sons of Amolngid, 26, 48, 51, 509 daughters of, 115–16 edict of, 254
 gives fosterage-fee on behalf of his brother Éndae, 30 improbably early date of, 458–60
 in the laws, 519
 may not have been a son of Níall, 459 portrayed as accompanied by druids, but defeated by St Patrick, 17–19 portrayed by Muirchú as the emperor of the barbarians, 472 portrayed by Muirchú as the Nebuchadnezzar of pagan Ireland, 17, 472 supposed authority as king of Tara, 32, 458–9
 Loíge Réta, 531
 Loísi (Laichsi), 236 (Map 9), 531
 Loingsech mac Oengussa, king of Tara, 584 collaborates with Adomnán in the promulgation of 'The Law of the Innocents' (Cáin Adomnáin), 524 Lombards, invasion of Italy, 373–4
 Lommainech, king of the Maugdornai, 495
 Lommán, patron saint of Trim, 16, 32
 Lonán mac Senaig, 256
 Lorcán mac Cathail, king of Mide, 480 lord, 130–4
 required to judge justly, 144
see also clientship, noble
 Lothian, date of Northumbrian conquest of, 307, 313
 Lúachair, battle of, 444 n., 450–1
 Luccreth moccu Chíara, poem on the Éoganachta attributed to, 537–40 Lug, pagan god, 198
 Lugaid mac Lógairi, supposed early king of Tara, 461
 Lugmad (Louth), monastery of, 57 (Map 7)
 Columban monastery close to, 250
 Lugnae Fer Trí, see Luigne Fer Trí
 Lugnasad (originally the feast of the god Lug, at the beginning of August), 198
óenach of Taitliu probably held at, 468, 556
 Luigne Fer Trí, legendary fosterer of Cormac mac Airt, 581–2
 Luigni, 16 (Map 1), 39 (Map 4), 466–8, 511, 574
 Lusk (Lusca), monastery of, 18 (Map 2), 62 and a branch of Cíannacht Breg, 552 had bishops and scribes, 272 shrine of the patron saint of, insulted at óenach Tailten, 559 Luxeuil, monastery founded by Columbanus, 8, 352 abbots of, see Columbanus, Eustasius, Waldebert made its peace with Chlothar II, 363 nursery of bishops, 383 probable royal involvement in its foundation, 388 site of, 383
 Lynally (Lann Elo, Lann Ela), monastery of, links with Connor, 23 (Map 3), 61

- site of an óenach, 557
within Tir Cell (Cenél Fiachach), 554
- Lyons, bishop of, 425–6 described as patriarch, 419, 421 subscribed first at 'national' councils, 419
see also Aridius, Nicetius, Treticus
- Mac Cairthinn mac Cóelbad, possible early king of Leinster, 453–7 divergent identifications of his father, 453–4
- Mac(c) Con mac Luigdech, legendary king of Tara, 144, 481, 490, 580–83
- Macc Cuilinn, patron saint of Lusk, shrine of, 559
- Macc Dregin, 49
- Macc Ercae mac Maic Dregin, patron saint of Cell Róe Móre, 49–51
- Macc Nisse, patron saint of Connor, 59–62
- Macc Oige of Applecross, abbot of Bangor, 245 maccóem, 114
macfúirmid, grade of poet, 131
- Machae (goddess), 137
macrad, 'group of boys', 113–15
Mac'slechte, 'Categories of Child', legal tract, 114
- Máel Coba mac Áeda, king of Tara, 503
- Máel Dúin mac Áeda Bennaín, king of Munster, 542
- Máel Finnian húa Óenaig, heir of Feichine and bishop of the peoples of the Luigni, 261
- Máel Gúala, king of Munster, 476
- Máel Póil mac Ailella, súí and bishop of Síil nÁeda Sláne, 261
- Máel Rúain, abbot of Tallaght, a leader of the Céli Dé, 5, 7, 469–70
- Máel Sechnaill mac Maíle Rúanaid (Máel Sechnaill I), 480, 489 used rigdál, 279
plundered Dublin, 597 victorious over Vikings, 596
- máer*, 256
mag (campus), 13
- Mag nÁi, 40, 44, 46
- Mag nAssail, 22
- Mag mBile, kingdom in Mide, 22
see also Fir Bile
- Mag mBili (Movilla), monastery of, 57 (Map 7), 67
attacked by Vikings, 589
founded by Bishop Findbarr, who was later claimed by the Uí Dichon of Saul, 67
- Mag Cerai, 102
- Mag Cobo, 56 (Map 7), 240
see also Uí Echach Maige Cobo
- Mag nDomnann (nDomnon), 47
see also Irrus Domnann
- Mag nEchnach, 22, 27
- Mag nEchredd, 22
- Mag nEilni, see Eilne
- Mag nÉo na Saxan (Mayo of the English), monastery of, 42 (Map 5), 320, 336
- Mag nÉolairg, 52, 56 (Map 7)
- Mag nInis, territory of the Ulaid, 260 Vikings defeated in, 589
- Mag nItho (nÍtha)
in the north-west, 52
in the south-east, Mag nÍtha Fothart, 102
- Mag Latrain, 52 (Map 6)
- Mag Léne, Synod of, 251, 277
- Mag Lifi, 16–17
- Mag Line, leading kingdom of the Cruithni and Dál nAraidi, 54, 56 (Map 7), 59–60, 63, 99, 150, 527
and royal forts, 528
see also Dál nAraidi, Ráith Becc, Ráith Mór, Uí Chóelbad
- Mag Lunge (Columban monastery on Tíree), 250, 256, 299
- Mag Mucrama, site of legendary battle, 581
- Mag Muirthemne, 95, 114
- Mag Rath, see Mag Roth
- Mag Roigni, in Osraige, 262–4
- Mag Roth (Mag Rath, Moira, Co. Down)
site of, 57 (Map 7)
battle of (AD 637), 60, 494–8, 571
- Mag Sereth, 52
- Mag Singite, 22–3
- Mag Taidcni, 22
- Mag Teloch, 22
associated with St Brigit, 24 served by eighteen churches, 24
see also Fir Thelach
- Mag Tóchuir, 38, 52 (Map 6)
- Mag Tuired (Moytirra, Moytura), 41 magi confronted by Columba, 194–6 equated with druids, 195
- Maglocunus (Maelgwn), 176
- Maicc Eirc (branch of Uí Ailella), 41
- Maigen, church lost by heirs of Patrick to the community of Columba, 26
- Maine, bishop, of Echaineach, protects Maicc Eirc from Patrick, 41
- Maine mac Néill (eponymous ancestor of Cenél Maini), 33–5
as king-maker, 34–5
- Maine mac Néill, of Uí Chernaig, 571
- Mainistir Buiti (Monasterboycce), 18 (Map 2)
an episcopal church, 272
- Maistiú, seat of kingship of the Uí Dúnlainge and later the Uí Muiredaig, 498
some Fothairt settled nearby, 14 n.

- Malach the Briton, 525
manach, 'monk', 'ecclesiastical tenant', 118–19, 121, 225
- Manannán mac Lir, pagan god of the sea, 202
- Manchán, founder and patron saint of Liath Mancháin (Lemanaghan), 260
- manchuine*, service provided by client, 121, 225
- manuscripts
 Bangor Antiphonary, 327, 390
 Bodleian Library, Oxford, Hatton MS 48, 330–1
 Book of Durrow, 303, 331, 332–3
 Book of Kells, 333
 Canterbury Codex Aureus, 330
 Codex Amiatinus, 335
 Corpus Christi College, Cambridge, MS 286, 330
 Durham Gospels, 342
 Lichfield Gospels, 327, 333, 338 n.
 Lindisfarne Gospels, 301, 333, 337–8, 341–2
 Mac Regol's Gospels, 339
 (lost) Ripon Gospels, 330, 332
 Stonyhurst Gospel of St John, 341 mobility of, 326–7
 quires consisting of quaternions or quinions, 333–4, 342
 see also Insular script, half-uncial, uncial
- MAQI CAIRATINI AVI INEQAGLAS, see Mac Cairthinn mac Cúelbad
- Marcian, Roman emperor, 207
- Marianus Scottus, king-list of, 483–6
- market, 122
- Maroveus, bishop of Poitiers refuses to install the relic of the True Cross in Poitiers, 380
- marriage, 108–11 across the boundaries of a túath, 103–4 demonstration of rank, 94
- Martin, saint, 224 shrine of, 347
- Mathona, nun, co-founder of Tannach, 43, 226
- Matudán mac Muiredaig, king of the Ulaid, 279
- Mayo, see Mag nÉo na Saxan
- Medard, saint, bishop of Noyon, shrine of, 347–8, 382
- Medcoit, British name for Lindisfarne, 314
- Mél, saint and bishop of Ardagh, 33
- Mellbretha*, 'Judgements on Games', a legal tract, 114
- Melrose, monastery of, 311 (Map 11), 338
- Mennet Chruithnech, supposed ancestress of the Mugdorna, 56–7
- Merovech, son of Theuderic II and godson of Chlothar II, 363 only child of Theuderic II to escape death in 613, 351 possibly became monk at Bobbio, 351 n.
- Merovingian kings, genealogical tree of, 354 sexual unions of, 362
 succession to, 361–3
- Miadsleхта*, legal tract on status, 135, 519–20
- Mide (Meath), 15, 22–33
 contrasted with Connachta, 36
 growing military pressure in the ninth century on, 596, 598
 'of Mide' as an epithet of kings, 479–80
 'Middle Irish king-list', 483–7, 493–4 migration, usually dishonourable for a layman, 103–4
- Miliucc maccu Búain (Milchú maccu Bóin), Patrick's supposed master, 36, 64, 65, 67
- milk and milk-products, 110–11
- ministerial clientship, see clientship, ministerial
- miracles, of prophecy and power, 191–6
- Mo Cháe, patron saint of Nendrum, 27–8
- Mochta, bishop of the Uí Néill and sacart of Armagh, 261
- moccu* (mocu, maccu), 96
- Móenach mac Fingín, king of Munster, 538
- Móenech (Moínech, Móenach) mac Muiredaig, early Leinster king, 454–7
- Móin Daire Lothair, battle of, 295–6
- Mo Lua moccu Óchae, patron saint of Clonfertmulloe, 55 n., 257–8
- Monasterboyce, see Mainister Buíti
- monastery, community of, 117–23
 in peregrinatione, 257 rule of succession in, 257–8
- monastic rules, 383–4
- monasticism, and Patrick, 223–6
- Mongán mac Fiachnai, father said to be Manannán, 202
- Monoth, 300
- moralities, heroic and prudential, 141–4
- Movilla, see Mag mBili
- Moy (Múad), river, 40
 see also Uí Fiachrach Múaide
- mruigféir*, 'land-man', 'strong farmer', rank of freeman, 130, 134
- Mucnoe, patron saint of Domnach Mór 'super siluam Fochluth', 43–4, 48–50
- Mugdorn Dub, legendary ancestor of the Mugdorna, 516–17
- Mugdorna (Maugdorne, Mugdorna), 16 (Map 1), 515–17, 574 Mugdorna Breg, 273, 574
 Mugdorna Maigen, 574
 see also Fir Roiss
- muinteir*, 'household', 106–12, 121

- Muirchertach mac Muiredaig (Mac Ercae), 447 active in Munster, 490
see also Cenél Maic Ercae
- Muirchú, Life of Patrick by, 11, 16, 184
date of, 439–40
on Dubthach maccu Lugair, 196–7 on Patrick's confrontation with the druids of Lóegaire, 196–7
on Saul and Downpatrick, 66–7
- Muiredach mac Murchada, his ancestors through women, 93–4
- Muiredach mac Rúadrach, king of Leinster, 557
- Muirgus mac Tommaltaig, king of Connachta, promulgates Law of Ciarán, 561–2
promulgates Law of Commán, 561
- Mull, isle of, 9
- Mungret (Mungairit), monastery of, 251
- Munis, bishop, of Forгнаide, 33
- Munnu (alias Finten mac Telcháin) patron saint of Taghmon, 4 and his manaig, 118
as foster-father, 116–17
- Munster, province of, 522–48
abandoned Celtic Easter, 317
and the Uí Néill in the sixth century, 489–91 claimed overlordship over Leinster, 593 king of, 131–2
major monasteries in, 132 northern frontier of, a zone of great churches, 593–4
origin-legends of, 579
- Murchad mac Brain, king of Leinster made inaugural expedition against Cashel, 481, 546
- Murchad mac Díarmata (Murchad Midi), as 'king of the Uí Néill', 480, 572
- Murchad mac Máile Dúin, king of Cenél
nÉogain, 557, 589
- Múscraige (Munster people scattered among different kingdoms), 532 (Map 13), 543 and rights of wreck, 489–1 have the right to provide an ollam in Cashel, 542 high rank of their king, 543–4
- Múscraige mBreoguin, 531, 532 (Map 13)
- Naas (Nás), royal seat, 235, 238 (Map 10)
- Nad Froich, ancestor of the 'inner circle' within the Éoganachta, 536–7
- Nainnid mac Duach, 510 names of kindreds, 6
names of persons in Irish, 3–7
- additional name (forainm/cognomentum), 6, 25–6
borrowed, from British, 6; from Latin, 6–7 nicknames, 106
patronymics, 6
pet-names of monks, used by Irish and Britons, 5
- Nath Í, supposed early king, father of Ailill Molt, 462, 468
- Nath Í mac Garrchon, 235
- Nechtan son of Derilei, king of Picts, 301
- Nechtanemere, battle of, 302, 432
- neighbourhood (comaitches), 100–2 and kinship, 100
created by an exchange of 'forepledges', 100
nemed, 'sacred', used of freemen, 190, 198
- Nendrum (Nóendrum)
Crónán, bishop of, 260
peppercorn rent demanded by the heirs of Patrick from, 27–8, 31
principal episcopal church of the Ulaid, 260
site of, 57 (Map 7)
Tírechán's Patrick avoids, 67
- Newgrange, 15, 18
- Níall Caille (Níall mac Áeda), king of Tara, 501 and the Vikings, 590–1
victor in the battle of Leth Cam, 557
- Níall Frossach, king of Tara, 573, 576, 577
- Níall mac Conaill Graint, 577–8
- Níall Noigíallach, 'Níall of the Nine Hostages', ancestor of the Uí Néill, 441
date of, 441
- Nicetius, bishop of Lyons, 370
- Nicetius, bishop of Trier wrote letter to Chlodosuintha, 347 wrote letter to Justinian I, 376
- Ninian (Nynias), saint of Whithorn, and the southern Picts, 304–7
- nobles, 130–4
were the intended audience of most early Irish literature, 137
- Nóendrum, see Nendrum
- Noinden Ulad*, saga, 137
- Northumbria, expansionism of, 437 visited by Ségéne, abbot of Iona, 251 see also Æthelfrith, Bernicia, Deira, Edwin, Oswald, Oswiu
- Northumbrian Church
divisions in, after the Synod of Whitby, 320–1 Synod of Whitby gives Oswiu control over, 319
- Notulae*, in the Book of Armagh, 11–13
- Núadu, abbot of Armagh, 30, 255
and the promulgation of the Law of Patrick
in Connaught, 565

- oblaire*, grade of poet, 131
ócaire, 'young freeman', rank of commoner, 130, 134, 135
 'O'Donoghue Lives', 2
óenach ('fair', 'assembly'), 14–15, 104, 137, 148, 198, 556–60
 and cáin, 280–1, 559–60
 and the company of a king, 525
 and the maintenance of roads, 530
 and the rigdál, 280–1 disturbance at, 476–7, 556–9 of Colmán, 557
see also Taitiu
 Óengus, (bishop) of the Ulstermen, 260
 Óengus mac Amolngada, 25–6, 549
 Óengus mac Colmán, king of the Uí Néill, 480–1
 possible king of Tara, 492–3 Óengus mac Nad Froích ancestor of Éoganacht Chaisil and Éoganacht Glendammach, 536–7
 Óengus mac Tipraiti, 22 n.
 Óengus the Culdee (Óengus mac Óengobann) on oppressive kings, 520
 on Tara, 469–71
 Óentrab (Áentrab, Antrim Town), monastery of, 57 (Map 7)
 ogam alphabet, 7, 163–9 and Latin grammarians, 166 origin of, 175
 ogam inscriptions, distribution of, 173
 Olcán, bishop and patron saint of Armoy, 44, 58, 59–60
 Olcán, priest of Cell Óchtair Múaide, 49
 Ólchobor mac Cináeda, king of Munster, victorious against Vikings, 596
ollam filed, 'chief poet', 126, 129, 131
ollam mórchathrach, 'head of a great monastery', 132, 267
ollannas Caisil, 'office of chief poet at Cashel', claimed by Múscraige, 542, 544 Oudemnone (also Móin Daire Lothair), battle of, 295–6
 Óno, heirs of, and the church of Imblech nOnonn, 255
 described by Tírechán as 'the Kindred of Dogshit', 256
 open field, 30, 102
 Orléans, 242
 as recognised place for national church councils, 474
 Council of (549), summoned by Childebert
 I to respond to the condemnation of the Three Chapters, 373
 Orosius, fifth-century historian, on the Isle of Man, 157
 Osraige (Ossory), 236 (Map 9), 262–4 and a possible alliance between the Uí Néill and the Éoganachta, 488–91 connected with Corcu Loígde, 489 in Fríthfolad Muman, 541–2, 546–7 in 859 alienated to Leth Cuinn by the king of Munster, 476, 569
 Osric, king of Deira, 312
 Oswald, king of the Northumbrians, 312–15 body translated to Bardney, 342 converted in exile, probably in Dál Riata, 312
 Oswine, king of Deira, 315–17
 Oswiu, king of the Northumbrians
 and the letter of Pope Vitalian, 433–4 campaigned against the Picts, 432
 converted in exile, probably in Dál Riata, 312 made Dál Riata pay tribute, 434 possible intentions for Iona, 434 Pachomius, monastic founder, 287 pagan, if naturally good, 199–200 pagan past, a problem for the missionary, 199–202
 pagans, in the Bishops' Synod, 248 Palladius, 128, 200
 and Patrician hagiography, 212–13, 436 chronological relationship with Patrick, 214–15
 concerned with Pelagianism, 202
 location of his mission in Leinster, 235–8 mission recalled by Columbanus, 182, 239, 375 paschal cycle of, 406 persuaded Pope Celestine to commission Germanus of Auxerre, 204 sent to Ireland by Pope Celestine, 182, 204–5 seventh-century texts on, 234–7 significance of his mission as perceived in the 440s and 450s, 211–13
 pallium, 419–20, 427, 431–2 parentela, 96–7
 parentelic, 96
 Paris, 242
parochia contrasted with civitas, 245
 in the Bishops' Synod, 247
 in Britain, 244–5
 in Frankish Gaul, 244, 249 parting (scarad), 109, 111 paruchia
 conceived as a federation of daughter-monasteries, 245

- contrasted with the familia, 123 of Patrick, 251 spelling of parochia, 244
see also parochia
- paschal controversy
and authority in the Church, 412–13
and definition of a day and a month, 393–4 and exegesis, 413–15
and paschal cycles, 406–7 and Pelagian heresy, 415
and Synod of Mâcon, 364–5 and synods, 276–7
four phases in, 408–10 importance of, 391, 411–15 in England, 409–10 issues in, 392–6, 407–8 role of Columbanus in, 405–6 see also Easter
- pastoral care
the range of those who benefited, 118–19
- paternity, natural and presumed, 82–3
- patriarchs, very rare in the West, 242
- Patrick, saint, 128, 185, 210
and annals, 443–4, 460
and conversion of slaves, 223, 224 and kings, 220–3
and law, 232–3
and monasticism, 223–6
and Palladius, 213, 214–5, 458 and rusticity of style, 231–3 biblical style of, 231–3 Bréifnech of, 27
career of, 216–22
chronological position of, 239–40 community (familia/muinter) of, 10 Confessio of, 187, 216–23 described by Cummian as papa noster, 183, 426 described in the Book of the Angel as ‘apostolic teacher’ and ‘supreme pontiff’, 426–7 development of hagiography of, 9–13
education of, 230–3
evidence of his writings on the Ireland of his day, 188–9
family of, 216
had an eschatological perception of his own mission, 215–16
later Latin Lives of, 11
Law of, 473, 564–5
Letter to the Soldiers of Coroticus of, 187, 216, 226 on kings and judges, 188–9
paruchia of, 10
remembered as the apostle of the Irish, 182–3 said to have made circuit of northern half of Ireland, 10
said to have triumphed over druids, 17, 19, 47, 48 supposed artificial kindred of, 32 trial of, 217–19
see also, Armagh, Muirchú, Tírechán
- patronus*, see érlam
- patronymics and churchmen, 273–4
- Peada, king of the Middle Angles, 316
- Pehthelm, bishop of Whithorn, likely source for Bede on Ninian, 304
- Pelagians in Britain, 185, 203–5
- Pelagius, 185, 202
and the salvation of people before Christ, 208–9
- Penda, king of Mercia, 312, 313, 316–17
- peregrinatio*, 8, 103
- peregrinus*, renounces kindred and homeland, 82
- Péronne, 318 n., 591
see also Fursa
- personal identity and names, 4–7
- personality, perception of, 142–3
- Pictish sculpture, 300–3, 328–9
- Picts, 157–8
allies of the Scotti in the 360s, 160
and Cáin Adomnáin, 524, 569 and Ninian (Nynias), 299–300, 304–7 ‘apostate’, 186
as ‘the peoples of the Tay’, 302 campaigns of Oswiu and Ecgfrith against, 432 converted by Columba, 299–308 divided between northern and southern Picts, 303–4 place-name evidence for their conversion, 306–7
- pilgrimage, see peregrinatio
- plague, 152–3
- plebs*
equivalent to Irish túath, 248
in the Bishops’ Synod, 247–8
- Poem on the Airgialla, on Tailtiu and its ruler, 476
- poets, 126–9
and ‘the law of the face’, 107 have a circuit, 15
not tied to a túath, 103
see also filid
- Poitiers, monastic life at, 380
shrine of St Hilary at, 347, 380
- pollen data, and the Iron Age, 148
- polygyny, 112
- Posidonius, 189

praepositi, 250, 256 prayers for the dead, 119
 'primitive churches', 251
prínrig, 'chief kings', 523
princeps (airchinnech)
 derived high status from the rank of his church, 267
 in the Bishops' Synod, 248–9 overlaps with abbot, 269
principatus, 251
 privacy, 106–8
 Procopius, on the blinding of a Sassanian prince, 495 prophecy and miracles of power, 191–8 Prosper of Aquitaine, 239
 career of, 204, 210–12
 Chronicle of, 183, 204, 211
 Contra Collatorem of, 204–5, 208, 211
 De Uocatione Omnium Gentium of, 207–8, 210–11 protector, applied to Voteporix, 168 title used in Later Roman Empire, 168 province (coiced), 12–13
 major and lesser, 423–4 Ptolemy, ancient geographer, account of Ireland, 152, 155, 159 public domain, 105–8 public versus private business, 526 Quartodecimans, 330, 334, 399–400, 412 quaternions, 333–4
 quinions, 333
 Radegund, saint, Frankish queen, 379–80
 Rado, 371
 Rahan, see Rathen
 Rahugh, see Ráith Áeda maic Bricc ráith, 149–50
 see also ringfort
 Ráith Áeda maic Bricc (Rahugh), 23 (Map 3), 446, 555
 Ráith Ailinne (Ráith Alinne, Dún Ailinne, Knockaulin, Co. Kildare), 146–8, 238 (Map 10) occupied by Donnchad mac Domnaill, 576, 577 Ráith Airthir (Oristown, Co. Meath), 18 (Map 2), 447 seat of kingship of Fir Chúl (Síl nDlúthaig), 278, 551 seat of kingship of Síl nÁeda Sláne, 17, 21, 278 where Donnchad mac Domnaill 'dishonoured the Staff of Jesus', 278, 563 Ráith Becc, 57 (Map 7), 150, 528

scene of the killing of Diarmait mac Cerbaill, 63, 295, 527
 Ráith Bó (Raphoe), 53 (Map 6)
 Ráith Cholpthai (Raholp), 57 (Map 7)
 Ráith Chungai (Racoon), 53 (Map 6) claimed by communities of Columba and of Ardstraw, 252 Ráith Imgáin, royal fort of Uí Fáilgi and seat of kingship, 238 (Map 10), 528
 Ráith Inbir, 235, 238 (Map 10)
 Ráith Mór Maige Line, royal seat of Mag Line, 57 (Map 7), 150, 528 rape, 112
 Rathen (Rahan), monastery of, 23 (Map 3), 31, 565
rechtaire, 256
rechtege, in Críth Gablach, 560–1
 Rechrann (Rathlin Island), 56 (Map 7)
 Rechrú (Rechrann, Lambay Island), island monastery of, 250 relics, associated with a cáin, 564–5 corporeal, Irish slow to show an interest in, 348–50 non-corporeal relics venerated by the Irish, 350 of Peter, Paul, Lawrence and Stephen at Armagh, 427, 564; share of, given to Armoy, 44, 58, 59; share of, given to Baislec, 44–5, 58 taken on circuit, 564–5, 595
 see also shrines
 Remigius, bishop of Reims, 223, 348 representation of dead father by son or sons, 89 requisition, compulsory (errach), 526–7 resharing of inherited land, 88–9 retinue of a lord, 112–13
 rhetor, 232
 rhetoric, education in, 177–80, 231–2 Rhydderch Hael, king of Dumbarton and of the Britons of Strathclyde, 494 a friend of Columba, 283
rí, 'king'
 rí buiden, 130–2
 rí cóiced, 132
 rí ruirech, 130–2
 rí tuaithe, 130–2
 see also king
Riagail Phátraic (the Rule of Patrick), 13 n. on bishops, 258–9
rígdál, 'royal meeting', 'meeting of kings', 279–80 rígdammae, 'royal material', 91
 ringfort (les, ráith, dún), 149–54, 163
 in Co. Down, 151

- Ríóc, patron saint of Inis Bó Finne (in Lough Ree), 33
- Ripon, monastery of, 311 (Map 11), 324 dedication of, 329–30
endowed with the lands of British Quartodecimans, 330 Gospel-Book belonging to, 330 taken from Eata and given to Wilfrid, 319, 334
- roads, maintenance of, enforced by provincial kings, 529–30
- Róadán (Rúadán), saint of Dumech, 226, 253
- Roman capitals, as an inscriptional letter-form, 322–3 abandoned by the Britons in favour of half-uncial, 323
- Roman Empire, 145–6, 153–8
- Roman party in the Irish Church, 391
- Roman uncial, introduced into Britain, 323–4
- Rome, appeals to, 369–70 authority of, in the paschal controversy, 411
- Rónán, Irishman active in Northumbria, 317, 410
- Roscommon, monastery of, 42, 46–7
- Ross Caimm, church of, 42 (Map 5)
- Ross Commáin, see Roscommon
- royal dynasties, segmentary, 14
- royal inauguration, see kings, inauguration of royal succession, 90–2
- Rúaidrí mac Fáeláin, king of Leinster, 578
- Ruben mac Connad, of Dairinis, scriba of Munster, 265
- Rule of Ailbe, 140
- Rule of Basil, 286–7, 387
- Rule of Caesarius of Arles, 287, 380, 384
- Rule of Carthach, 140
- Rule of Donatus, 383–5
- Rule of St Benedict, 325, 383–8 and Gregory the Great, 387
in Gaul, 384–65
known to Columbanus, 386–8
see also Columbanus, Regula Monachorum, Regula Coenobialis
- runes, 322
- Ruthwell Cross, 321
- Saball Pátraic, see Saul
- sacart*, ‘priest’, 132
- Sachellus (alias Feradach), bishop and patron saint of Baislec, 44–6
- sáegul triúr*, ‘lifetime of three men’, 92–3
- Sagittarius, bishop of Gap appeals to Rome, 369–70
on Frankish royal succession, 362
- Saiger (Seirkieran), 27, 238 (Map 10), 535 (Map 14)
- Sailtir, battle of, 60
- Saint Andrew’s (in Fife), contained a church of St Cainnech, 121
- Saitne, kingdom in north Co. Dublin/Fingal, 554
- Salonius bishop of Embrun, appeals to Rome, 369–70
- sanctuary, 120
- sapiens*, 264–71
and a synod, 270, 277
in the annals, become rarer in the ninth century, 266 mundiális (secular scholar), 271
title usually not associated with a particular church, 264–5
- sapientia*, meaning of, 266
- Sárán macc Coilbad, 59–60
- satire, 198
- Saul, Co. Down (Saball Pátraic), 57 (Map 7), 65–7, 200
- Saxons of the Bessin, 512
- Scandal, king of Dál nAraidi, deprives the church of Armoiy of lands, 60
- Scandlún mac Colmáin, king of Osraige, at Druimín Cete, 488–9
- scéla* ‘news’ as personal identification, 4
- Scéla Cano meic Gartnáin*, a saga, 141, 527
- Scéla Éogain 7 Cormaic*
origin legend of the Connachta, Uí Néill and Éoganachta, 582
- scholar, ecclesiastical (ecnae, sapiens), 125, 127, 128–9, 136 hierarchy of, headed by suí lítre, 181
- Scotia (in north Britain), 588
- Scotti, 157–60
perhaps a federation led by the Leinstermen, 159–60
- scriba*, 264–71
always ecclesiastical, 270
and a synod, 277
by ninth century more likely to be given a patronym, 274 equivalent to suí lítre, 270
in Hibernensis both exegete and ecclesiastical judge, 269 rarely used together with the title sapiens, 268
status equated with that of an excelsus princeps, 269
- seats of kingship, 15, 146–7, 473
and kings of Tara and of Cashel, 549–50
and ministerial clientship, 545
as the pre-eminent insignia of kingship, 481
- Sechnasach mac Blathmaic, king of Tara, omitted by Baile Chuinn, 492

- sechnap*, 'second abbot, prior', 287
'The Second Battle of Mag Tuired', mythological tale, 41
- Secundinus (Sechnall), bishop, 233–4, 237, 239, 245
- Ségéne, fifth abbot of Iona collected oral traditions about Columba, 289 founded Rechru (Lambay Island), 250 sent mission to Northumbria, 310 visited Northumbria, 250, 316
- Seimne (Island Magee), 56 (Map 7)
- Senach Rón, monk of St Cainnech
- Senán, patron saint of Inis Scathaig (Scattery Island), 60
- Senán, patron saint of Lathrach Briúin (Laraghbryan, Co. Kildare), 60, 61, 62
- Senchas Már*, Introduction to, 124, 127
- senchléithe*, 108–9, 135
- Senchue (Shancough), church of, 41, 42 (Map 5)
- sexual division of labour, 110–11
- Shannon, river, as boundary between Uí Néill and Connachta, 36 peace on, 570
- Shelmaliure Commons, 102
- ships and Irish domination of the Irish Sea, 157
- shrines and saints' cults, 347–50
no shrine of Columba in Adomnán's time, 349
- síd*, 'fairy mound', 64
- Sigeberht, king of East Saxons, converted, 316
- Sigibert I, king of the Franks and Radegund, 380
Columbanus' arrival in Francia falsely ascribed to his reign by Jonas, 352
- Sil nÁeda Sláne (branch of Uí Néill, rulers of Brega), 21–2 decline in the power of, 571–2 favoured by Baile Chuinn, 485–7, 491–4, 500–1, 507 favoured by Tirechán, 571
genealogy of, 602–3
see also Sil nDlúthaig, Uí Chernaig, Uí Chonaing
- Sil nDaimíni (branch of Uí Chremthainn and of Airgialla), 52 (Map 6)
- Sil nDlúthaig (rulers of Fir Chúl / Cúla Breg), 278, 551, 571
- Sil Fergusa Cáecháin, kindred in possession of Cell Scíre, 24–5
excluded from kingship, 25 relationship to Uí Néill, 25
- Sil Máeluidir, a branch of Uí Chemselaig, 102
- Sinell (Sinilis), teacher of Columbanus, 179–80, 344
- Skye, Isle of, 199
- Slán, holy well, 47
- Sláne (Slane), monastery of, 18 (Map 2)
had bishops and sapientes, 272 relationship to Armagh, 254–5
Hill of, 17
- slave, 108–9, 110, 111, 137
from overseas more valuable, 68
non-combatant, 69
- slavery, 68–71, 80
- slave-trade, between Roman Empire and Ireland, 153–4 in the Viking period, 588
- slavewomen, 68–9
see also cumal
- Sleaty (Sletty, Sléibte), monastery in Co. Carlow, 196, 238 (Map 10), 261–2
- Slébéne, abbot of Iona, promulgates Law of Columba, 565
- Slemain of Mide, battle of, 450, 452–3
- Sliab Cúa, battle of, 490, 500
- Slíab Mís (Slemish, Co. Antrim), 64
- Slige nAssail, 22
- sochraite*, 525
- sóerthuath*, 'free people', and cáin, 530, 546
- Soissons, shrine of St Medard at, 347–8
- Solignac, monastery of, 385
- sons, undutiful, can be 'proclaimed', 82
- 'soul-friend' (anmcharaé), 140
- South Munster, see Dessmumu, Éoganacht Raithlind
- Southern Déis, see Déiss Deiscirt
- Springmount Bog tablets, 168, 180 status close to honour, 136
ecclesiastical, 269
hierarchies of, 129–36
incommensurable, 124–9 inheritance of, 92–5 language of, 136
of churches, 132
of institutions, 132 of the young, 129
ways to sustain, 124
- Stephen, Life of Wilfrid on Britons, 313
on dedication of the church of Ripon, 329–30 on Picts, 301–2
on Quartodecimans, 334
- 'Story of the Finding of Cashel', 523
- Strathcarron, battle of (AD 642), 61
- Súanach, descendant of, promulgates cáin, 565
- subdeochain*, 'subdeacon', 132
- sú*, 192, 193, 267

- sú lúve*, 181, 267
- Suibne mac Colmáin Móir
killed by Áed Sláne and avenged by his son Conall, 507–8
regarded by some as king of Tara, 493
- Suibne Menn mac Fiachnai, king of Tara, 480–1, 503
- Suibne moccu Fír Thrí (Urhtri), sixth abbot of Iona, 316
- Sulpicius Severus, source of the ‘Celtic’ 84-year paschal cycle, 406–7
- ‘supreme noble bishop’, 259
- suretyship, 114–15
- Sutton Hoo, 332
- Syagrius, bishop of Autun, received the pallium from Gregory the Great, 419
- synod and óenach, 278–9
and paschal controversy, 276
geographical scope of, 278–9
members included bishops, abbots of leading churches, scribae and sapientes, 275–7
role of, 277
- Synod of Chalon-sur-Saône, 368, 369
- Synod of Mâcon, 364–5, 369
and the Rule of St Benedict, 385
may have induced Luxeuil to frame the story of Columbanus refusing to bless the sons of Theuderic II, 364 probable occasion when Luxeuil abandoned the Celtic Easter, 364–5
- Synod of Mag Léne, 277
- Synod of Tailtiu, 277, 278–9, 559
- Synod of Uí Néill, 278
- Synod of Whitby, 317, 319, 334, 410, 429, 437
- Tacitus, 155
- Tadg mac Céin, eponymous ancestor of the Ciannachta, 459
and the Battle of Crinna, 459, 553
- Taghmon, see Tech Munnu
- Tailtiu (Teltown), 18 (Map 2), 40, 551 and Coirpre mac Néill, 446, 447–9
battle of, 447–8, 459
lord of, 476
rout of Cathal by Domnall in, 477
site of church, 19
site of royal assemblies, 17–20, 190, 198, 476–80, 556–9, 578
site of synod, 19, 277, 278–9, 559
situation of, 278
- Táin Bó Cúailnge* (‘The Cattle-Raid of Cooley’), 114–15
- taking of arms as a rite of passage, 69
- Tallaght, monastery of, 4–5, 238 (Map 10) community of, prevents the holding of the óenach of Tailtiu, 198, 558
- taman*, grade of poet, 131
- Tamnach, church of, 42 (Map 5), 43, 226, 252–4
- Tara (Temair), 18 (Map 2), 40, 146, 148
contrasted with Armagh, 469 Feast of, 294
king-lists of, 483–7, 491–4 kingship of, 34
and rights of wreck in Munster, 490–1 claimed by kings who were not of the Uí Néill, 482–3, 494–501
D. A. Binchy’s views on, 481 in Bretha Nemed Toisech, 491
in the laws, 518–20
J. V. Kelleher’s views on, 505
succession to, 505–6
variable power of, 520–1
not regularly inhabited by kings of Tara, 17 portrayed by Muirchú as the Babylon of pagan Ireland, 17, 471–3
synods of Uí Néill and Leinstermen at, 278, 471, 569
- Tech mBaithín (Tibohine), 42 (Map 5)
- Tech Munnu, Taghmon, Co. Wexford, 4, 238
(Map 10)
Taughmon, Co. Westmeath, 123
see also Munnu
- teosc*, ‘advice’, genre of literature, 138–41
- Tecosca Cormaic*, ‘The Instructions of Cormac’, 143
- tellach*, entry by claimant onto land claimed, as model for inauguration, 475
- Terryglas (Tír dá Glas), monastery, rigdál at, 280, 535 (Map 14), 564
- Tethbae, 15, 31
bishop of, 260
contrasted with Connachta, 36
Northern Tethbae (around Granard, Co.
Longford), 16 (Map 1), 33, 260; part of Patrick’s kinship network, 36 Southern Tethbae (around Ardagh, Co.
Longford), 16 (Map 1), 33, 260; Britigine connections of, 35
‘the two Tethbai’, 33
- theft, 108
- Theodore, archbishop of Britain, 320
and the Letter of Pope Vitalian, 433–4 authority of, as seen by Stephen’s Life of Wilfrid, 430
date when he became archbishop, 430–1 dedicated the church of Lindisfarne to St Peter, 342

- Theodore, archbishop of Britain, (cont.)
 had Irish pupils, 437 implications of Roman judgement for, 340 role in the first expulsion of Wilfrid, 339–40 stance on the paschal question, 410, 437
- Theodosius, father of the Emperor Theodosius, 160
- Theudebert II, king of the Austrasian Franks, 352 attacked Theuderic II in 610, 371 defeated and killed by Theuderic II in 612, 372 granted Bregenz to Columbanus, 372, 388 received Columbanus, 372
- Theudelinda, Lombard queen belonged to Frankish noble family, the Agilolfings, 374
 supported the Aquileian schism, 374
 with Agilulf granted Bobbio to Columbanus, 372
- Theuderic II, king of Burgundy, 351–2 probable support for Columbanus, 388–9 weakness after Theudebert's attack in 610 may have led to expulsion of Columbanus, 371
- Three Chapters
 Frankish reaction to the condemnation of, 373
see also Aquileian schism
- Tigernach mac Fócartai, king of Loch nGabor, victorious against Vikings, 596–7
- Tilbury, Cedd's church, 311 (Map 11), 316
- Típraite mac Taidg, king of the Connachta, promulgates the Law of Patrick, 473, 562–3
- Tír nAmolngada (Tírawley), 47–8, 240
- Tír Cell (Land of Churches), 298, 446
- Tír Conaill, 37
- Tírechán, bishop
 account of St Patrick, 1, 4, 9–67, 184 and Fínsnechtae Fledach, 510–11
 date of his Collectanea, 439 descended from Connall mac Éndai maic Amolngada, 48
 Latin style of, 170
 on Connachta and the king of Tara, 509 on 'free churches', 530–1 on monks and nuns, 225–6 on status of churches, 133 purpose in writing, 251–2 structure of his Collectanea, 37 treats southern Uí Néill as the Uí Néill, 433 use of the term genus, 97
- Tlachtga (Hill of Ward), 23 (Map 3), 477–9
Togail Buidne Da Derga, Old Irish saga, 4, 229
- together (tochar, road across bogland), 147
- Toledo, bishops of, 419, 426
- Torbach, heir of Patrick, Book of Armagh written for, 11
- Tours, 242–3
 shrine of St Martin at, 347, 349
- trade between Roman Empire and Ireland, 153–8
 terms of trade, 154–5
- Trallwng, Brycheiniog, bilingual inscription
 from, 172
- transhumance, 102
- translation of relics, in England, 342
- trebar*, 'prudent', 'good farmer', 137
- Trecastle, Brycheiniog, bilingual inscription
 from, 172
- Treticus, bishop of Lyons, presides at Synod of Mácon, 364, 369
- Trevet (Treóit), monastery of, 18 (Map 2)
 associated with Uí Chernaig, 271 episcopal and with scribae, 272
- triath*, 519–20
- 'tribe', for the túath, 97–8
 'tribal polity', 100
- Trim (Áth Truim), principal church of Cenél Lóegairi, 16 (Map 2), 19, 32 had scribae, 272
see also Lommán
- Tripartite Life of Patrick, 11–13, 50–1, 556
- túath*, 12–13, 97–8, 102–6
 and ecclesiastical organisation, 243–4, 248 and high church offices, 271
 as the public domain, 105–6 comparison between the king and the bishop of, 126
 contrasted as 'the laity' with the Church, 103
- Túatha Dé Danann (earlier Túath Dé), 41, 201
- Túathal Máelgarb, king of Tara, 34, 468 victor over Ciánnacht Breg in the battle of Lúachair, 450
- Tuda, perhaps bishop of York, 430
- Tuilén, see Dulane
- Úarán Garad (Oran), well of, 46–7
see also Brí Garad
- Uí Ailella, Connaught dynasty, 39 (Map 4), 39–44, 50, 226, 463
- Uí Amolngada (Uí Amolngid), royal dynasty of NW Connaught, 25–6, 38, 39 (Map 4), 40, 47–8, 50–1
 'old kindreds' among, and the making of kings, 5549
- Uí Bairrche, Leinster dynasty, 93, 102, 236
 (Map 9), 428

- and Columba's mother, 290
early members of, said to have ruled Tara, 454–7
Uí Bairrche Tíre, and Sleaty, 262
Uí Briúin, group of Connaught dynasties, 39–40
Uí Briúin Aí, 39 (Map 4), 45–6
Uí Briúin Seólai, 39 (Map 4), 43
Uí Briúin in Thúaiscirt, dynasty of the Airgialla, 52 (Map 6)
Uí Chathbad, branch of the Éoganachta close to Cullen, 532 Uí Chemselaig, group of dynasties in central and southern Leinster, 102, 236 (Map 9), 456–7
genealogy, 621
see also Sil Máeluidir
Uí Chernaig, branch of Sil nÁeda Sláne, 271, 552, 571–2, 577–8 forced to give hostages, 557
Uí Chóelbad, ruling dynasty of Mag Line, 54–6, 59–63, 65, 99
see also Mag Line, Ráith Becc, Ráith Mór Uí Chonaing, branch of Sil nÁeda Sláne, 571, 577–8 adopt Knowth as a seat of kingship, 473 take lands of Ciannacht Breg, 551–3 Uí Chremthainn, pair of dynasties of the Airgialla, 52 (Map 6), 258, 514–16, 574
defeated at the battle of Leth Cam, 557
see also Sil nDaimíni, Uí Nad Slúaig, Fernmag, Clochar Macc nDaimíni, Loch nÚaithne Uí Chúlduib, kindred of the Fothairt, settled at Kildare, 14
Uí Dega, Leinster dynasty, 236 (Map 9), 456–7
Uí Dercu Chéin, of the Cruithni, 56 (Map 7), 99
Uí Dichon, ecclesiastical kindred of Saul, and perhaps later of Downpatrick, 65–6 Uí Dúnlainge, Leinster dynasty, 17, 93, 235, 236 (Map 9), 238
genealogy, 620
location of their oldest lands, 262 supposed early kings of Leinster from, 455–7 supposed references to, in fifth-century annals, 448
Uí Echach Arda, an Ulster dynasty, 56 (Map 7)
Uí Echach Maige Cobo, ruling dynasty of Mag Cobo (W. Co. Down), 54, 99, 240 see also Mag Cobo
Uí Enechglais, 236 (Map 9), 454–57
Uí Fáilgi (dynasty of NW Leinster), 236 (Map 9)
and the conquest of Mide, 449–50
includes Túath Dá Maige, 22
Uí Fiachrach, Ailill Molt and Nath Í belonged to, 462–3 declined in the eighth century, 462–3
Uí Fiachrach Aidne, Connaught dynasty, 39 (Map 4), 39–40
Uí Fiachrach Arda Sratha, dynasty of the Airgialla, 52 (Map 6)
Uí Fiachrach Múaide, Connaught dynasty, 39 (Map 4), 39–40, 50
Uí Fiachrach Muirse, Connaught dynasty, 39 (Map 4), 49–50
Uí Fídgente, Munster dynasty and kingdom, 55 n., 257, 532 (Map 13)
excluded by Frithfolad Muman, 534–6, 546–7 Uí Garchon, Leinster dynasty, 235–7, 529 (Map 12) kings of, described as kings of the Fortúatha Laigen, 550 Uí Liatháin, royal dynasty of south-east Co. Cork, 532 (Map 13) and the foundation of Cloyne, 298 branch of, settled in Britain, 164
in Frithfolad Muman, 547
Uí Maccu Úais (Uí Maccuais, Uí Macc Cuais, Uí Moccu Úais), 514–15, 574
Uí Maccu Úais Breg, 16 (Map 1), 273, 574
Uí Maccu Úais Midi, 16 (Map 1), 574
Uí Maic Cairthinn, dynasty of the Airgialla, 52
Uí Máil, Leinster dynasty, 6, 236 (Map 9), 498, 574
genealogy, 622
Uí Maini, Connaught dynasty, 35, 39 (Map 4)
Uí Meic Caille (Imokilly, Co. Cork), branch of Uí Liatháin, 547
Uí Méith, dynasty of the Airgialla, 52 (Map 6), 56 (Map 7)
Uí Muiredaig, one of three royal branches of Uí Dúnlainge, 93, 236 (Map 9) Uí Nad Slúaig, dynasty of the Airgialla, 52 (Map 6), 514 n.
see also Uí Chremthainn Uí Néill, 2–3, 6, 441–68
and the Connachta, 508–12, 518, 520 and the legend of Cormac mac Airt, 468, 579–83 date of the name, 441
decay of the political order established by, 593–9 early allies of, 465–8
feuds among, 495–9
identified by Tírechán with the southern Uí Néill, 15, 37

- Uí Néill, (cont.)
 in hagiography, 445–6 kingdoms of the Southern Uí Néill, 15–36 kings of, as deputy kings of the Southern Uí Néill, 479–80, 510–11 of Brega, 557
 the subject of Book I of Tírechán's Collectanea, 15
- Uí Ségáin of Fir Rois, 273
- Uí Théig, branch of Uí Máil, 236 (Map 9), 577
- Uí Thuirtri, a dynasty of the Airgialla, 52 (Map 6), 56 (Map 7), 574 take territory from Dál nAraidi, 63
- Uisnech, 23 (Map 3), 24, 28–9, 446
- Ulaid (Ulstermen), 56 (Map 7), 99 and Congal Cáech, 495, 497–8
 bishop of, 260
 Cruithni claim to be 'the true Ulaid', 54 defeated at the battle of Leth Cam, 557
 in Ptolemy, 152, 159
 king-list, 623
 may have been leaders of the Atacotti, 159–60
- Ulfla, bishop of the Goths, 207
- Ulster, province of, 54–67 larger Ulster of the fifth century, 146–7
 no provincial cáin attested for, 566, 569, 584
- Ultán moccu Chonchobair, bishop of Dál Conchobair, of Ardbraccan, 61–2, 272
- Ultán the scribe, 328
- uncial script, 323–5, 333–6
- Uraicecht Becc*, legal tract on status, 128, 130–2
- Uraicecht na Ríar*, legal tract on the status of poets, 128, 130–1
- urban characteristics of major monasteries, 119–21
- Valentinian I, Roman emperor, 160
- values, of a commoner, 137
- Venantius Fortunatus, 178, 379–80
- Venerandus, abbot of Alta Ripa, 385–6
- Verdun, 242
- vernacular literature, 322
- Verturiones, constituent people among the Pictish federation, 158
see also Fortriú
- Victorius of Aquitaine, paschal computus of, 392–3 adopted by the Frankish Church at the council of Orléans (AD 541), 406–7
 known to Columbanus, 406
- Vigilius, pope, and the Three Chapters, 372–3
 as seen by the Aquileians, 376
- Vikings
 divided into Dark Heathens and White (or Fair) Foreigners, 597
 first appearance of, 587
 in the 840s and 850s, 596–7
 long-term effects of, 598–9 stages in the development of their attacks, 588–91 violence, attitudes to, 139–40
- Virgno, fourth abbot of Iona, 307–8
- Vitalian, pope and the authority of Theodore, 417, 431, 433–4 and 'islands', 434 saw the northern Irish and the Britons as heretics and schismatics, 433–4
- Voclut, Wood of, see Fochloth
- Voteporix (Vortiporius), tyrant of the Demetae, 164–9
- Waldebert, abbot of Luxeuil, 352, 388, 389
- Waldelenus, Burgundian nobleman, supporter of Columbanus, 356, 389
- warband (fian), 113
- warfare, pattern of, 570–1
- Warnachar, mayor of the Burgundian palace, lay supporter of Agrestius, 364, 369, 371
- wax tablets, from Springmount Bog, 168
- weapons and armour, 69
 may be given by lords to clients, 69
- Wearmouth-Jarrow, joint-monastery of, 311 (Map 11) and Roman influence in Insular art, 334–6 see also Bede, Ceolfrith
- wells, holy, 46–7
- West Munster, see Éoganacht Locha Léin, Íarmumu
- West Munster Synod, 522 and the role of kings of Tara and Cashel in inaugurating client kings, 549–50
- West Saxons, 313
- Whitby, monastery of, 311 (Map 11), 338
- Whitby, Synod of, 317, 319, 334, 410, 437
- Whithorn, church of St Ninian, 304, 311 (Map 11)
- Wilfrid, saint alienated the monks of Lindisfarne in 687–8, 326, 341 and Archbishop Theodore, 429–31 and church architecture, 324 and the paschal controversy, 410–11
 and the Rule of St Benedict, 325
 and uncial script, 324, 334
 appealed to Rome, 340
 as champion of all things Roman, 325, 334
 as metropolitan bishop of York, 430–2 at Lyons and Rome, 319
 attempted settlement with Aldfrith, 340

- attitude of Bede to, 343, 435
 Ceolfrith, abbot of Wearmouth-Jarrow, his pupil, 324 characteristics of his party, 337 claimed episcopal authority throughout northern Britain and northern Ireland, 416–7, 432, 434–5 claimed to have got rid of ‘the poisonous weeds planted by the Irish’, 325 first expulsion of, 339–40, 430
 his gospel-book, 330, 332
 Irish contacts of, 437
 may have wanted York to replace Iona, 433
 patronised by Alhfrith, sub-king of Deira, 318–20 returned from exile after Aldfrith’s death, 343
- Willibrord his monk at Ripon, 328
see also Hexham, Ripon, Stephen, Life of Wilfrid Willibrord, archbishop of Utrecht, 328
 Winioc, father of Bobolenus, abbot of Bobbio, 356
 Winnoch the Breton, 347 ‘woman who cuts’, 107 women
 as non-combatants, 70 protected by ‘the Law of the Innocents’ (Cáin Adomnáin), 70 type of, admired by men, 107
 Wulfolaic, pillar-saint of Carignan, 379 York, 311 (Map 11), 476 huge size of Wilfrid’s diocese of, 339–40 perceived as a metropolitan see, 430–2
see also Bosa, Chad, Tuda, Wilfrid