Index

abortion, 182, 183, 192 Admiraal, Dr, 89–90, 98
advance directives, 58–9
supposed binding force, 60–1 aged person’s home (social service residential home, rest home, eventide home, part III accommodation), 104 ageing
social aspects, 13
attitudes to, 15–16
see also elderly people Ageing Populations: The Social Policy Implications (OECD, 1988), 124 Ageing in the Future – Scenarios Regarding Health and Aging 1984–2000 (Dutch Steering Committee, 1985), 124 ageism, 150
AIDS patients, 84, 169
alternative treatments, 161–2 Alzheimer’s disease, 22; see also dementia antibiotic treatment, 23–4, 47–8 artificial nutrition, American debate, 28–46 assessment, 142
asylums, 102
autonomous, definition, 3 autonomy, 26, 18
patient, 5–6
prospective fate of incompetent, 66–7 respect for, 20–1
‘best interest’ approach, 67
Beveridge Report, 158
Bliss, M., 187
Borst-Eilers, E., 82, 84
Bouvia, E., 68
Brophy, Mr, 45
British Medical Association Working Party, 77
Broome, J., 179
Callahan, D., 8, 10, 151–5
Canadian Law Reform Commission, 77 cardiopulmonary resuscitation, 120 care gap, 132
carers
burdens, 40–1
mental duress, 88
Caring for People (UK, 1989), 126, 129, 146 Church of England’s Board for Social Responsibility, 77, 145
Cohen, Dr H., 79
colon cancer test costs, 164 community care vs institutional long-term care, 125
conflicts of interest, 17
Cruzan, Nancy, 41–2, 46, 192–3
Delft, Reinier de Graaf Hospital, 76 dementia, 144, 184
multi-infarct, 22–3
tube-feeding of patient, 6 see also Alzheimer’s disease demographic considerations, 12 diabetes mellitus patients, 19, 22 diagnosis related groups, 119–20 disturbed behaviour management, 22 Driese, M. H. N., 87–8 dualism, 44–5, 194
Dupuis, Professor H. M., 99 Dworkin, Professor R., 92 economic analysis of law, 189 dependent elderly people, 123–6 adverse drug reactions, 144 alleged affluence, 134 belief that life is complete, 154 diseases, 143
evaluation of life/prospects, 154 fals, 143
homes, 145–6
income, 134, 135 (table)
Index

elderly people cont. 143 incontinence, 143
medication, 144
need for care, 124–6
non-persons, 181–8
pressure sores, 142
use of health care system, 151 views, 145
see also ageing
Encyclopedia of Bioethics (1978), 166 euthanasia, 78, 79, 89
entrustment to patient’s doctor, 80 medical, in The Netherlands, 82; see Netherlands, The, euthanasia in non-voluntary, 188 eventide home (social service residential home, rest home, part III accommodation), 104, 140–1 fairness, 2, 48, 147–57, 169, 196 family motives, 20 feeding, symbolic significance, 38–9
Fenigsen, Dr R., 83, 85
Finnis, J., 98
fluid administration, 24–6 food provision, 38, 39, 40–1 food withholding, 35–8, 41–3 gastroscope, 25
Gevers, J. K. M., 93–4
Gomez, C. F., 100
‘Good Practice in Long-term Care’ (RCP Research Unit), 141 ‘greying of nations’, 12 agenda, 127, 128 (table)
Growing Older (DHSS, 1981), 133 haemodialysis, 121
handicapped newborn, 182, 183
Harris, Professor J., 166, 170–2
Hart, Dr J. T., 172
Health Advisory Service, 104 health care entitlement, 147–57 age as basis for limitation, 151–7 allocation decisions, 148–9 rationing decisions, 148–50 health care provision, 13–15
Health Maintenance Organization, 136–7 Hilhorst, Dr, 83–4
hip replacement, 165, 166 ‘Home Life’ (1984), 141 hospital-based patient, continuing care, 11–26
hospital long-term care wards vs NHS nursing homes, 14
human bodily life, 194–5 human rights, 183–5
hydrating, symbolic significance, 38–9 ‘Improving Care of Elderly People in Hospital’ (1987), 141
‘Improving Geriatric Care in Hospital’ (1975), 142
informed consent, 20–1
intentional killing, 35–7 intolerable suffering, definition, 80–1 Jitta, A. N. A. J., 95 justice, 2, 6–9, 60, 168–9, 175–6, 183–7, 196–7
Kamisar, Y., 90–1
kidney transplant, 173
KNMG, see Royal Dutch Medical Association
laryngeal cancer, 161
Leenen, H. J. J., 78, 79, 86, 88, 89
Levinsky, N., 156–7
life expectancy, 13
Living Will, The (1985), 2, 7, 53–69 acts, omission and killing, 62–3
advance directives, 58–9 groups for, 55–6
supposed binding force, 60–1 incompetence and right to self-determination, 59–60 problem addressed, 54–6 self-determination limits through
advance directives, 58–9
self-determination right, 57 locked-in syndrome, 44
Lockwood, M., 170–1
long-stay hospital wards, 104–5 long-term care of the elderly, 101–46 ability to pay, 116–17
consumer choice, 115–16 funding, 133–4
good quality requirements, 140–6 insurance, 133–6 limitations of treatment, 120–1 mental state/dependency, 117–18 needs, 118–20, 121–2 phased implementation, 130–3 present policy (UK), 126–39 provision of resources, 114–15
McCormick, R. A., 195
Maguire, D., 195
Making a Reality of Community Care (Audit Commission, 1986), 126–7 mastectomy, 161
material cooperation, 43
Milton Keynes Health Authority
Chairman, 187
Index

moral judgement, 191
Mulder, 86, 87
multi-infarct dementia, 22–3

National Health Service (UK), 13–15, 181 resources distribution, 158

National Health Service and Community Care Act 1990 (UK), 123, 126 negotiated consent, 22
neocortical death, 44

Netherlands, The, euthanasia in, 70–100 current medical/legal procedures, 76–7 death certification falsification, 73–4 defence of necessity, 71–3 Health Council report (1987), 80–1 lawful euthanasia criteria, 73 ‘logical slippery slope’, 85–91 ethical, 88–91
legal, 85–8
medical, number of, 82 offence of killing a person at his request, 70–1 Penal Code Article 293, 70–1, 86–7 defence to charge under, 87 ‘practical slippery slope’, 77–85 criteria identification, 78 empirical evidence, 81–5 ‘strict’/‘precise’ criteria, 78–81
Remmelink Committee, 82, 84, 97
State Commission recommendation, 89
Supreme Court decision (1984), 71–2
Supreme Court decision (1986), 72–3 non-voluntary euthanasia, 65–6, 188 nurses, 141–2
psychological aspects of care, 143–4 nursing homes
NHS, 107
private, 14, 105–7
nutritional support, 24–6 Nye Bevan Lodge, Southwark, 109–10 ordinary and extraordinary means, 58–9, 63–5

Part III accommodation (social service residential home; aged person’s home, rest home, etive home), 104, 140–1 permanent unconsciousness, 30–5 benefit of continued existence, 33–5, 192–6 is it death?, 32–3 persistent vegetative state, 6, 29–30, 48–51 diagnosis, 29–30
pain experience, 44
philosophy, 182
poor law hospitals, 102 Poster, R., 189–90
poverty, 13
pre-death, 145
private choices, 5
psychotropic drugs, 23, 47 public policy, 186, 196–7

Quality Adjusted Life Years (QALY), 8, 158–80, 181–2 ‘ageist’, 169
assessment scales, 163
dialysis, home/hospital, 163
fairness, 169
heart transplant, 163
maximisation, 167, 168–9, 171, 174–5 values, 162–3
quality of life, 17, 159–60, 161

Ramsey, P., 175
reassessment, 142–3
Remmelink Committee Report, 82, 84, 97

residential care, 107–11 pre-admission assessment, 108 quality of care, 108–9
quality of life, 109–11
rest home (social services residential home, aged person’s home, etive home, part III accommodation), 104, 140–1 Royal Dutch Medical Association criteria for euthanasia, 74–6 consultation, 76
durable death wish, 75 unacceptable suffering, 75–6 well-considered request, 75 euthanasia for malformed infant, 89 euthanasia for patient in persistent coma, 89

Setting Limits (D. Callahan), 8, 10, 152–6
Six Theories of Justice (K. Lebacqz), 168 Sluyters, Professor, 84, 86–7 social aspects of old age, 13 social care insurance, 133 social need, 11
social service residential home (aged person’s home, rest home, etive home, part III accommodation), 104, 140–1 South Belfast, geriatric long-stay beds, 119
’substituted judgement’ approach, 67
Suttorius, E. Ph. R., 73, 185

Theory of Justice, A (J. Rawls), 168 Tromp-Meesters, Mrs, 82, 89 tube-feeding, 24–3, 28–46, 48–9, 50–1
Index

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>202</th>
<th>Warren, M., 103</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>value of human life, 183, 189-97</td>
<td>water, provision of, 38, 40-1</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>van der Meer, Professor, 90</td>
<td>harm to patient?, 39</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>van der Sluis, Dr I., 83-4, 85</td>
<td>water, withholding of, 35-8</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>van der Wal, G., 81, 97</td>
<td>well elderly (young old), 125</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>van Veen, Professor, 99</td>
<td>Whose Justice? Which Rationality? (A. MacIntyre), 168</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>van Wijmen, Professor F. C. B., 84, 98</td>
<td>Williams, Professor A., 159-78; see also</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Vecchi, R., 44, 150-1, 157</td>
<td>Quality Adjusted Life Years</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>vegetative state see persistent vegetative state</td>
<td>Williams, Professor B., 185</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>voluntary hospitals, 102</td>
<td>workhouses, 102</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>