

INDEX

Introductory note: references given in italics indicate tables

- advice from parents, 275–6
 questions to parents, 312
- age of
 first hearing aid, 143, 144
 first realisation of deafness, 191
 leaving school, 88
 starting full-time education, 76, 78
 boarding at school, 79
- AIDS, awareness of, 203–4
 questions to young people on, 333
- aids and equipment
 availability and cost, 152–3
- air travel, 136, 274
- alarms, non-auditory, 147–9
- armed services, exclusion, 115, 186, 187
- Asian community
 and British Sign Language, 251–2
 choice of marriage partner, 171–2
 young people of, experiences, 207–8
- attack, vulnerability to, 137–9
- attitudes
see also interpretation of events to communication, 44–53 to deafness, 3, 153, 263–4, 265, 274 of family, 216–20
 and interview construction, 348
 of employers, 116–17, 264
 to hearing aids, 140–1, 142–4 to other deaf people, 206 to religion, 204
 to signing, 6, 7, 50–3
 to types of schools, 59–61, 62–6
 unrealistic aspirations, 116
- baby alarms, non-auditory, 148
- banking services, use and understanding of, 124–5
- batteries for hearing aids, obtaining, 141–2
- behaviour
 early, and later personality, 175–6, 225
- bilingual approach, 271
- boarding at school, 79–80
 friendships in adult life, 156, 157–8
 and sibling relationships, 241–2
- body language, interview situations, 344
- ‘the book’, hearing aid services, 141–2
- boredom at work, 110, 111
- British Deaf Association, involvement, children and young people, 275
- British Sign Language, see signing
- Broadcasting Act, 1990: 147
- BSL (British Sign Language) see signing

- bullying
see also teasing
 at school, 80–1
 at work, 111–13
- bus, travel by, 134–5
- car driving
 learning, 136–7, 259, 263
 and personal safety, 138–9
- careers advice, 95–9, 272
 parents' views, 97–8
 young people's experiences, 95–7, 98
- causes of deafness, reported, 267
- children, young people's see also grandchildren
 questions to parents on, 298
 questions to young people on, 321
- children and hearing aids young people's attitudes, 143–4
- cochlear implants, 7, 250
- coding schedule, 14, 347
- college
 communication at, 101–2
 friends from, 159
 support at, 102
 young people's experiences, 100–1
- Commission of Enquiry into Human Aids to Communication, 1992: 274
- communication, 4, 269–71, 274
see also language; preferred language attitudes to, 44–53
 and attitudes to deafness, 153
 at college, 101–2
 competence, assessment of, 18–21 and comprehension, 257, 261
 at Deaf Clubs, 163–4, 165
 desire to communicate easily, 189 DHSS and, 130–1 difficulties in and early friendships, 178
 at interview, 206, 208–9
 driving instructor and, 136–7
 early, and later language, 53–6 families and, 29–44, 213, 232–3, 235, 255–6 with individual members, 36–41
 preferred language, 41–4
 and self esteem, 255, 256
 in group situations, 29–35, 160–1, 162–3 and interpreters, professional, 132–3 at interviews, employment, 104–6, 117 and linguistic competence, 254–5, 261, 273 see also limited language skills and gender, 262 in medical situations, 127–30 parent's role in assisting, 175 partners and, 168–9, 170
 police and, 131
 questions
 to parents on, 298–304
 to young people on, 322–7
 strategies, 257, 350–1
 Total Communication, 8, 50
 at work, 109, 110–11, 119
- Community Project Scheme, 106–7
- comprehension
 and communication, 257, 261
 complex questions and answers, 19–21
 of interview, 19–21, 349–51
- concepts, understanding
 financial arrangements, 125–6
- confidentiality and interpreters, 132
- current events
 access to media, 201–2 awareness of, 201–4
 questions to young people on, 202–3, 333–7
- current situation, young people's,
 questions to parents on, 288–98
- deaf
 friends, 165–7
see also friends; friendship patterns; school: friendships in adult life

Cambridge University Press

0521429986 - Deaf Young People and their Families: Developing Understanding

Susan Gregory, Juliet Bishop and Lesley Sheldon

Index

More information

354

Index

- deaf (cont.)
- partners, 167–72
 - personality, 182, 185, 224, 225–9
- Deaf Awareness Event, Channel 4: 146
- Deaf Clubs
- Asian section, 208, 252
 - attendance, 197–8
 - parent's reports, 197–9
 - and preferred language, 197
 - criticisms of, 165
 - family attitudes to, 218–19
 - friendships, 133
 - social life, 163–4
- Deaf community, 9, 274–5
- awareness and involvement, 198
- Deaf issues
- awareness and opinions, 198–201
 - questions to young people on, 337
- deafness
- attitudes to see attitudes: to deafness
 - causes, reported, 267
 - first awareness see discovery of deafness
 - parents, coming to terms with, 247–52
 - questions to young people on, 314–15
 - and self perception see self perception
- demographic information, 339–42
- dental consultations, 127, 128, 129
- dependence on family, 230
- DHSS, communication with, 130–1
- diagnosis see discovery of deafness
- disabilities in addition to deafness, 209, 213, 342
- disabled status, views on, 199–201
- discovery of deafness
- parents', 247–8
 - questions on, 283–4, 311
 - young people's, 191–4, 249
- doctors, consultations, 127–30
- doorbell, non-auditory, 148–9
- dreams, being hearing in, 194–5
- driving
- learning, 136–7, 259, 263
 - and personal safety, 138–9
- drugs, awareness of issues, 204
- questions to young people on, 333
- early
- experiences and later life, 266
 - life and later friendships, 156–9, 175–9
- education, 7–9
- see also* integration, educational; Partially Hearing Units; school; schools for the deaf; training
 - college, types attended, 100
 - higher, 273
 - highest levels attained, 99
 - leaving school, 87–9
 - questions to young people on, 315–21
 - perceptions, 265
- Education Act, 1981: 8
- educational placement
- and hearing loss, 76
 - and limited language skills, 210
 - local authority influence, 76–7
 - parent's role in choosing, 73–6
 - views on, 62–9, 207
 - comparisons, 69–70
- egocentricity, parental perceptions, 225–7, 229
- employer's attitudes, 116–17, 264
- employment, 91
- figures, 106, 107–8
 - finding, assistance in, 103–4
 - interviews, 104–6
 - questions to young people on, 317
 - one young person's experience, 91–5
 - schemes, 106–7
- English language skills and television, 147
- environment, awareness of, 141
- equipment, availability and cost, 152–3
- ethnic minority groups, 12–13, 207–8
- and British Sign Language, 251–2

Cambridge University Press

0521429986 - Deaf Young People and their Families: Developing Understanding

Susan Gregory, Juliet Bishop and Lesley Sheldon

Index

More information

Index

355

- choice of marriage partner, 171–2
- communication within family, 35–6
- hearing culture within, 251–2
- examination achievements, 87, 102–3
- exclusions
 - from quantitative data, 16, 340, 349–50
 - from sample, 11, 12–13, 340
- expectations, low see low expectations
- exploitation at work, 110
- family
 - attitudes to deafness 216–20
 - communication in, 29–44, 232–3, 235, 255–6
 - with individual members, 36–41
 - lack of, 213
 - mother as interpreter, 235
 - preferred language, 41–4
 - questions to young people on, 322–6
 - and self esteem, 255, 256
 - dependence on, 230
 - effect of deafness on, 220–2, 223
 - questions to parents on, 310–11
 - relationships
 - with grandparents, 244–5
 - marital, parents, 235–40
 - siblings, 40, 234, 240–4
- financial arrangements
 - see also* money
 - making and understanding, 123–7
- friends
 - see also* partners
 - at college, 102, 159
 - countrywide network of, 133, 164, 207
- friendship patterns, 154–6, 165–7
 - deaf and hearing, proportions, 165–7
 - early life and later, 156–9, 175–9
 - and gender differences, 167, 263
 - influences on, 178
 - and preferred language, 166
 - at secondary school, 177
 - and type of school attended, 167
 - views on, 186
- hearing, 162–3, 165–7
 - local, 156, 157, 177
 - making, 156–65
 - parental perceptions, 158, 179–80
 - parents'
 - maintaining contact with, 175
 - questions to, 305–7
 - role as, 174
 - questions to young people on, 330–1
 - at work, 159–62
 - lack of, 161–2
- future, hopes for, 277–8
- gender
 - differences, 25
 - and communication skills, 262–3
 - and friendship patterns, 167, 263
 - and hearing loss, 25, 27
 - and hopes for future, 277
 - and preferred language, 25, 26, 262–3
 - and preferred partner, 263
 - and steady relationships, 168
 - sample, 341
- gesture, early use and preferred language, 53–4, 262
- grammar schools for deaf, 261–2
- grandchildren, concerns for future, 170, 172, 244
 - see also* children, young people's
- grandparents
 - communication with, 40–1
 - relationships with, 244–5
- group
 - discussions, 17–18
 - within family, 29–33, 234
 - with hearing people, 160–1, 162–3
- hazards, workplace, 119–20, 121
- hearing
 - aids, 6, 7, 139–44
 - attitudes to, 140–1, 142–4
 - awareness of deafness, 192–3
 - batteries and leads for, obtaining, 141–2
 - and choice of hearing world, 206

- hearing (cont.)
- early experience and later usage, 143, 144, 266
 - and hearing loss, 140
 - and preferred language, 140
 - use of, 139–40
 - being, in dreams, 194–5
 - belief of becoming, 190–1
 - culture, 250–2
 - friends, 162–3, 165–7
 - loss, 5, 21–3, 341
 - and choice of hearing world, 205
 - degrees reported, 23
 - and educational placement, 76
 - and friendship patterns, 179
 - and gender, 25, 27
 - and limited language skills, 209
 - and preferred language, 25, 55
 - and uncoded interviews, 213
 - partners, 167–72, 207
 - wish to be, 188–90, 216
 - wishing child could become, 250
 - world, choice of, 205–7
 - interface with, 235, 236
- higher education, 273
- HIV, awareness of, 203–4
- home, leaving, 231–2
- hopes for future, 277–8
- hospital admissions, 129–30
- husband–wife relationship see marital relationship, parents'
- immaturity, parental perception, 225–9
- independence, developing, 122–39, 229–32, 264
 - 20–21 year old's, measures of, 233
 - financial arrangements, 123–7
 - and limited language skills, 210–11, 231
 - medical care, 127–30
 - and parents' perception, 231
 - public officials, dealing with, 130–1
 - questions to parents on, 309–10
 - shopping, 123
 - travel, 133–9
 - use of interpreters, 132–3
- waking in morning, 147–8
- the individual
 - communication needs of, 54, 55, 73, 226
 - educational placement needs, 64, 207
- information
 - access to, 257–61, 273–4
 - careers, lack of, 98
 - missing, 33–4, 126, 146, 227, 228–9, 234
 - for parents, 3
- integration, educational, 7–8, 271–2
see also Partially Hearing Units
- friendships in adult life, 156, 167
- parents' views on, 66–9, 70
- young people's
 - experiences, 60–1
 - views on placement, 63–4, 65, 70
- interpretation of events, 343–4, 346–7
re-interpretation, 268–9
- interpreters, 274
 - communication with police, 131
 - mothers as, 235, 256
 - professional, use of, 132–3
- interviewing, 9–10
 - choice
 - of interviewer, 14–15
 - of notetaker, 15
 - consistency over time, 266–9
 - as research tool, 343–51
- interviews
 - coding, 14, 347
 - construction of schedules, 347–9
 - with parents, 13–14, 344–5, 346
 - schedule, 282–313
 - uncoded, 212–13
 - with young people, 14
 - communication skills, assessment, 18–21
 - difficulties, 206, 208–9
 - schedule, 313–38
- interviews for employment, 104–6, 117
 - questions to young people on, 317
- isolation at work, 161–2
see also loneliness

Cambridge University Press

0521429986 - Deaf Young People and their Families: Developing Understanding

Susan Gregory, Juliet Bishop and Lesley Sheldon

Index

More information

Index

357

- job interviews, 104–6, 117
 - questions to young people on, 317
- language, 4
 - see also* limited language skills
 - and early communication, 53–6
 - of finance, 126
 - of interview, 14, 348–9
 - linguistic competence, 254–5, 261, 271, 273
 - preferred see preferred language
 - used in family, 41–4
- leads, hearing aids, obtaining, 141–2
- learning difficulties
 - and limited language skills, 209, 211
- limited language skills (LLS), 24
 - as child and as young person, 55
 - communication at interview, 208–9
 - disabilities other than deafness, 209, 211
 - educational placement, 210
 - family communication, 34–5
 - financial arrangements, 125
 - friendships, 167
 - gender differences, 262
 - hearing loss, 209
 - immaturity, 226
 - independence, 210–11, 231
 - steady relationships, 168
 - work, 210
- literacy, 85–6
 - and newspaper reading, 201–2
 - teletext and development, 147
- local authorities and educational placement, 76–7
- loneliness, 161–2, 172–4
- low expectations
 - see also* underachievement
 - careers advice, 98–9
 - in employment, 111, 113–14, 115, 118, 121, 264
 - at school, 83, 84, 85–6
- low pay, 110
- marital relationship, parents', 235–40
 - breakup, young people's views, 239–40
 - and first interview, 236–7
 - and later interview, comparison, 237
 - parents' perception, 238–9
- marriage partner, Asian community, 171–2
- media, access to, 201–2
- medical
 - consultations, 127–30, 263
 - history, parents' questions on, 307–8
- money
 - caution with, 228–9
 - misunderstandings, 259–60
- mother
 - health of, 246–7
 - as interpreter in family, 235, 256
 - language used by, and later preferred, 45
 - relationship with, 174
- National Youth Cohort Study,
 - employment figures, 106, 107–8
- newspaper reading, 201–2
 - questions to young people on, 335
- non-auditory alarms, 147–9
- notetaking, interviews, 15
- numeracy, standards of, 86–7
- one-to-one conversations, family, 32–3
- opportunities, work, 114–21
- oralism, 6, 44–7, 52–3, 217–18, 270–1
 - approach in schools, 71, 72, 261–2
- parents'
 - advice, 275–6
 - questions to parents on, 312
- interviews
 - behaviour at, 344–5, 346
 - person interviewed, 340
 - schedule, 282–313
- lives
 - coming to terms with deafness, 247–52
 - effects on, 246–7, 252–3, 275

Cambridge University Press

0521429986 - Deaf Young People and their Families: Developing Understanding

Susan Gregory, Juliet Bishop and Lesley Sheldon

Index

More information

358

Index

- Partially Hearing Units (PHUs), 7, 8
 views on placement, 64, 65–6, 70
 young people's experiences of, 60
 partners
 hearing or deaf, 167–72, 207 gender differences, preferences, 263 preferred language and, 168
 questions to young people on, 331–3
 perception of young people
 parents, 224–9
 self see self perception
 personal safety
 answering the door, 148–9
 awareness of environment, 141
 questions to parents on, 308
 travel, 137–9
 personality
 existence of 'Deaf' personality, 182, 185, 224, 225–9
 parents' perception, 224–9
 questions on, 304
 questions to young people on, 321–2
 self-description, 182–3
 perspectives
 comparison, parents' and young people's, 264–6, 346
 consistency over time, 268–9
 PHU see Partially Hearing Units physical disabilities, 209, 213, 342 police
 communication with, 131
 trouble with, questions on, 309 political activity in Deaf community, 198 politics, 201–4
 of Deafness see Deaf issues
 questions to young people on, 333
 preferred language 23–6, 261–2, 341
see also oralism; signing, Sign Supported English between young people, 44
 as child and as young person, 54–6, 266
 and Deaf Club attendance, 197 and early use of gesture, 53–4, 262 in family, 41–4
 and financial arrangements, 125
 and friendship patterns, 166
 and gender, 25, 26, 262–3
 and hearing loss, 25, 55
 and language skills, 261
 and partners, 168
 relationship to language used by mother, 45 and use of hearing aids, 140 promotion, difficulties gaining, 118–19 public examinations, achievements, 87
 officials, communication with, 130–1 transport, 133–6
 qualitative analysis, 17
 quantitative analysis, 16–17
 exclusion from, 16, 340, 349–50
 questions
 to assess
 political and social awareness, 203
 self esteem, 184, 214
 comprehension, 255
 design of, 343–4, 347–9
 rephrased, proportion of needed, 19
 quotes, transcription of, ix–x reading
 ability, 85–6, 201–2
 habits, questions to young people on, 335–6
 relationships
see also family; friends; partners and deafness, 1–2, 173–4
 with fellow-students, 102
 religion, 204
 question to young people on, 334
 research methodology
 demographic information, 339–42
 group discussions, 17–18
 interviewing, 9–10, 13–14, 14–15, 343–51

Cambridge University Press

0521429986 - Deaf Young People and their Families: Developing Understanding

Susan Gregory, Juliet Bishop and Lesley Sheldon

Index

More informationIndex

359

- coding schedule, 14
- consistency over time, 266–9
- notetaking, 15
- schedules, 282–338
- results, presentation, 16–17
- sample
 - exclusion, 11, 12–13, 340
 - selection, 10–13
- Royal National Institute for the Deaf
 - campaign, 1993: 273–4
- rubella, deafness resulting from, 219
- safety at work, 119–20, 121
- sample
 - demographic information, 339–42
 - diversity of, 181–2
 - exclusion, 11, 12–13, 340
 - selection, 10–13
- school
 - see also* integration, educational; Partially Hearing Units
 - bullying and teasing, 80–1
 - experiences, 59–61
 - questions to parents on, 285–8
 - questions to young people on, 329
 - friendships in adult life, 156–9
 - early experiences and, 176–9
 - parents' perception of, 158
 - and type attended, 167
 - leaving, 87–9
 - questions to young people on, 315–21
 - placement see educational placement
 - satisfaction with standards
 - parents', 82–4, 85–7
 - young people's, 84–5
 - and sibling relationships, 241–2
 - sign language at, 70–3
 - social life at, 178–9
 - starting, 77–8, 268–9
 - age of, 76, 78
 - travel to, 78–9
 - type attended, 58–9
 - and preferred language, 261–2
- schools for the deaf
 - boarding at, 79–80
 - and friendships in adult life, 167
 - young people's
 - experiences, 59–60, 71–2
 - views on placement, 63, 65, 70
- secondary school, friendship patterns, 177
- self esteem, 183–5
 - and communication in family, 255, 256
 - low, 214–16
 - and family attitude, 216–20
- self perception, 181–97
 - awareness of deafness, early, 191–4
 - deaf or disabled, 199–201
 - dreams, hearing in, 194–5
 - personality, 182–3
 - questions to young people on, 321–2
 - signing in mirror, 195–6
 - views on being deaf, 185–97, 265
 - becoming hearing, early belief, 190–1
 - wish to be hearing, 188–90, 216
- shopping, independent, 123
- siblings, 240–4
 - boarding schools and relationships, 241–2
 - communication with, 40
 - future responsibility for deaf, 243–4
 - relationships, questions to parents on, 310–11
 - resentment of deaf, 234, 241, 245
- signing
 - attitudes to, 6, 7, 50–3
 - in education, 70–3, 261–2
 - and ethnic minorities, 251–2
 - hearing world, interface with, 274
 - language interpreters, 132
 - parents' learning, 47–50, 256
 - age of child, 48
 - practising in mirror, 195–6
 - questions to young people on, 327–8
 - recognition as language, 122
 - role of, 269–71
 - use of

Cambridge University Press

0521429986 - Deaf Young People and their Families: Developing Understanding

Susan Gregory, Juliet Bishop and Lesley Sheldon

Index

More information

360

Index

- signing (cont.)
- families, 41–4
 - Deaf Clubs, 165
- Sign Supported English (SSE), 8, 262
- sleep problems, reported, 267–8
- social
- class and work obtained, 116
 - competence, early, and later friendships, 175–6
 - issues, questions to young people, 332–5
- life
- see also* friends
 - with deaf people, 163–4
 - and deafness, views on, 186
 - with hearing people, 160–1, 162–3
 - influences on, 179–80
 - parents' role in, 174–5
 - of parents, 246
 - perceptions of, 179–80, 265
 - questions to parents on, 305–7
 - at school, 178–9
- special schools, 7, 8
- speech, importance of, 270–1
- SSE see Sign Supported English
- strategies
- communication, 257, 350–1
 - for using telephone, 150–1
- teasing
- at school, 80–1
 - and self esteem, 215
 - at work, 94, 111–13
- technology, 139–49, 273
- availability and cost, 152–3
 - hearing aids, 6, 7, 139–44, 192–3, 206, 266
 - non-auditory alarms, 147–9
 - questions to young people on, 336–7
 - telephone see telephone
 - teletext television, 144–7, 202, 218
- telephone, 149–52
- inability to use, 2, 94, 119, 138, 151–2
 - strategies for using, 150–1
 - text, 139
- television
- English language skills, development, 147
 - as information source, 147
 - questions to young people on, 336
 - teletext, 144–7, 218
 - watching
 - difficulties of, 144–6
 - patterns of, 202
- temper tantrums, childhood
- consistency of reports, 267–8
 - and later personality, 225, 266
- text telephones, 139
- Total Communication, 8, 50
- train, travel by, 135
- training, 99–103
- questions
 - to parents on, 288–94
 - to young people on, 318–19
- transcription of quotes, ix–x
- travel, 133–7
- personal safety, 137–9
- uncoded interviews, 212–13
- underachievement at work, 116
- see also* low expectations
- unemployment, questions on
- to parents, 295–8
 - to young people, 319–21
- vibrating alarm clock, 147–8
- views
- comparison, parents' and young people's, 264–6
 - on deafness, questions
 - to parents on, 311–13
 - to young people on, 338
- vocational guidance see careers advice
- voting figures, 202
- vulnerability to attack, 137–9
- work
- beginning, 272–3
 - careers advice, 95–9

Cambridge University Press

0521429986 - Deaf Young People and their Families: Developing Understanding

Susan Gregory, Juliet Bishop and Lesley Sheldon

Index

More informationIndex

361

- parents' views, 97–8
- young people's experiences, 95–7, 98
- and deafness, views on, 186–7
- employer's attitudes, 116–17, 264
- experiences, 95, 108–14
 - one young person's, 91–5
- friends at, 159–62
- in hearing world, 2
- isolation at, 161–2
- limitation of opportunity, 114–21
- and limited language skills, 210
- parents', effect on, 246
- questions
 - to parents on, 288–98
 - to young people on, 316–18
- training, 99–103
- unrealistic aspirations, 116
- young people's interviews
 - behaviour at, 345–6
 - schedule, 313–38
- Youth Training Scheme (YTS), 106, 107