

Contents

List of figures	page x
Preface	xi
Acknowledgments	xviii
Bibliography of works by Marx and Engels	xix
1. Marxism versus Marx: what Marx's theory of ideology was not	1
1.1 Introduction	1
1.2 Engels and the Marxism of the Second International	3
1.3 Lenin: functionalism and revolutionary authoritarianism	11
1.4 Western Marxism	17
1.5 Conclusion	27
2. Marx's theory of knowledge	29
2.1 Two epistemological traditions	29
2.2 Philosophy and science	39
2.3 Marx's epistemology	42
2.4 Three pairs of concepts	44
3. The basis of false consciousness: theory	61
3.1 The conceptual structure of Marx's theory of ideas	61
3.2 Three explanations of opaque social appearances	64
3.3 Three meta-theoretical assumptions	70
3.4 Conclusion	92
	vii

viii Contents

4. The basis of false consciousness: social being	95
4.1 Introduction	95
4.2 Surface and interior	96
4.3 Reification	100
4.4 Misleading appearances in pre-capitalist societies	126
4.5 Conclusion	142
5. Social consciousness	144
5.1 Consciousness and superstructure	145
5.2 False consciousness	155
5.3 Fetishism	165
5.4 The myth of bourgeois classlessness	171
5.5 Conclusion	189
6. Ideology	191
6.1 Defining 'ideology'	191
6.2 Characteristics of ideology	201
6.3 Explaining ideology	209
6.4 Ideology, evaluations and interests: the case of Malthus	216
7. Class struggle, consciousness and ideology	224
7.1 Class consciousness as false consciousness	224
7.2 Ideology and the ruling class	243
7.3 Ideology and revolutionary classes	250
8. Justice	281
8.1 Interpretations of Marx on justice	281
8.2 A theory of justice for Marx	298

	Contents	ix
9. Morality		307
9.1 Two interpretations of Marx on morality		307
9.2 Morality as ideology		314
9.3 Class moralities		330
9.4 A moral theory for Marx		338
10. The sociology of political economy		362
10.1 Intellectual and social conditions of scientific progress		362
10.2 The emergence of political economy		372
10.3 Classical political economy and its aftermath		380
10.4 Historical political economy		394
11. Marx's science and Marxist ideology		398
11.1 Marx's critique of political economy		398
11.2 Marxism as ideology		422
11.3 Social science after Marx		424
Bibliography of secondary sources		428
Index		431