Index

Many names mentioned incidentally are not included here. I have included as many subject categories as possible to enable readers to follow a theme.

Acland, A. H. D., 218
Acland, H. W., 131
Acland-Hood, Alexander, 84 and n
Adderley, Sir Charles, 270
Afghanistan, 90, 248, 236
the crisis of 1878–9, 238–44
Russian aggression (1885), 279, 281
see also India, Lytton, first Earl Africa, 244–50
see also under particular territories
Agricultural Holdings Act (1875), 115–16
Akenside-Douglas, Arabas, 80, 151, 276, 282, 283, 287
Albert Edward, Prince, 73–4, 76
Richmond despair over, 162
Alderson, Georgina, see Salisbury, Georgina, Lady
Alexander, Prince, of Bulgaria, 162, 284
Alexandria, bombardment of (1882), 246
see also Egypt, Sudan
Ali, Sher, Amir of Afghanistan, 240–2
America, 2
and Civil War, 66, 145–6, 226, 257
and marriage market, 79, 83–4 aristocracy, 1
its justification, 72–3
its rural character, 40–1
see also class and the class war armed forces, their clubs, 77–8 and Duke of Cambridge, 75
Tory politics and, 173–5
see also defence
Armenia, Turkish massacres in, 288
Artisans’Dwellings Act, 90, 176
Ashbourne, Lord, see Gibson, Edward Austin, Alfred, 236, 301
Australia, 220, 222–3, 257
Austria, as brake on Russia, 271, 272
Bagehot, Walter, 75
and The English Constitution, 159–60
Baldwin, Stanley, 152, 219, 295–314, 316
in memory, 318, 320
as a Peelite Disraelian, 315
Balfour of Burleigh, Lord, 186
as a 19th-century icon, 315 brought into cabinet (1886), 285
 contrasted with Salisbury, 297
as an intellectual contact, 133–5
in Ireland, 38–9
on Scotland, 56
as a theorist of the platform, 301–2
Balfour, Frances, 16, 155, 204
Balfour, Frank Mainland, 135
Balfour, Gerald, 16, 123, 135
ballet, secret (1872), 23, 62, 149–50, 263–4
see also democracy
Batemann, John, and his Great Landowners, 101, 115–6
Beach, Sir Michael Hicks, 123, 174, 212, 223, 226, 272, 285, 294
Beaconsfield, Earl of, see Disraeli, Benjamin Beauchesne, villa at, 16, 39
Benyon, Edward White, Archbishop of Canterbury, 189, 191, 194, 197, 217 and battles with Salisbury, 202–5, 213, 219
Bentinck, Lord George, 17, 289
Beresford, Lord Charles, 82
Beresford-Hope, A. J. B., 10, 189
Berlin, Congress and Treaty of (1878), 162, 266, 273 see also Disraeli, Benjamin; Derby, fifteenth Earl of bishops, see Church of England

Bismarck, Otto von, 39

last years, 288

on Salisbury, 273

Blair, Tony, 320–1

Blatchford, Robert, and Mere England, 127

Boer War (1899–1902), 221–2, 224, 245, 305

see also South Africa

Borthwick, Algernon, later Lord Glenesk, 137–8

British Association (for the Advancement of Science), 132–3

Brodrick, G. C., 619, 310

Brodrick, S. John, 619

Buckeley, ninth Duke of, 46, 50

Buckle, G. E., 138

Bulgaria, and Russo-Turkish tensions, 271

Burgon, J. W. (Dean of Chichester), 193, 198

Burma, 239

and its annexation, 236–8

Butt, Isaac, 225

Cabinet government, Salisbury’s suspicions about, 170–1, 284–5

Cadogan, fifth Earl, on Irish viceroyalty, 59

Cairns, Hugh, first Earl, 6, 42, 48, 49, 80, 94, 98

on court of appeal, 167

friction with Salisbury over ritualism, 270

position on Russian problem (1876–7), 272

quarter with Salisbury over Arrears Bill, 120

resigns leadership of the House of Lords, 164–5

Cambridge, seventh Duke of, 75

Canada, 230

Carlton Club, 43, 78, 150, 259, 251, 257, 271, 283

see also clubs

Carnarvon, fourth Earl of, 6, 41, 44, 58, 74, 123, 150, 155, 238, 293

and church politics, 197

goes green over Ireland, 318, 280 and n

and Lytton, 239

and ‘mixed races’, 225

dithering over Russia, 271, 272

stops dithering, 273

and Salisbury after 1872, 264, 268

Cavendish, Lord Frederick, 209

Cecil, Albermarle, 314

Cecil, Arthur, 11

Cecil, Blanche, 11

Cecil, Brownlow, Lord Burghley, 83

Cecil, Lady Gwendolen, 10, 125

her biography of her father, 314

Cecil, Lord Hugh, 13, 204, 218–19, 304, 313–14

Cecil, James (Salisbury’s elder brother), 10–11, 218–19

Cecil, James, later fourth Marquis of Salisbury, 13, 204, 316

Cecil, Lionel, 11

Cecil, Lady Margaret, 11

Cecil, Maid, 14

Cecil, Lord Robert (Salisbury’s son), 13

on his father’s journalism, 127

after the First World War, 316

Cecil, Robert, later fifth Marquis of Salisbury, 13, 317

Cecil, Sackville, 11

Cecil, William, bishop of Exeter, 13

Chamberlain, Joseph, 4

attacks Whigs, 278

and Churchill, 277

and Home Rule crisis, 282

relations with Salisbury, 287, 289, 290–2, 295

Tory perception of, 278–9

and the twentieth century, 306

Chamberlain, Neville, 5–6, 315, 316

Chaplin, Henry, 44, 81, 293

China, 161, 216

and Weihaiwei, 231

Church Association, 197

Church of England, 29

bishops of, 73, 92, 194–7, 201

deans, 79, 201, 212

disestablishment, 191–3

patronage and church discipline, 202–3

Salisbury and, 188–9, 201, 202–5

tithes, 209, 211–13

Church of Ireland, 62, 192

church rates, 39, 207

Church, R. W., 135

Churchill, Lord Randolph, 4, 6, 43, 270, 275, 295, 306

and church politics, 200

and empire, 230, 243

on Ireland, 62

in memory, 317

as a political problem after 1880, 276–7, 280, 281, 290

on the Queen, 74

resignation, 285

see also ‘Fourth Party’

Churchill, Winston, 315, 316, 317

in memory, 315

Churchward, Joseph, and ‘the Churchward Case’, 97

class and the class war, 65, 71–2, 321
Index

deference, 84–5
marrying well, 81–4
the middle classes, 85–8
the wealthy, 107–8
the working classes, 89, 91–3
clubs,
and Dublin, 113
in St James’s, 77–8
Cobden, Richard, 180 and n, 185
and Peel, 308
Colenso, J. W., bishop of Natal, 187, 388
Commons, House of, and Tory society, 82
Salisbury on its function, 147–8
Salisbury’s unfortunate language there, 304–3
Constantinople, fears of Russian seizure, 267–9, 271
Cornewall, as Wesleysan wilderness, 205–6 Cranborne, Viscount, 10, 22, 92, 197, 259
and 1867 reform crisis, 146–8, 159, 192, 253–4, 286–1
Cranborne Manor, 37–8
as Indian secretary (1866–7), 232, 267
see also Salisbury, Robert Gascoyne-Cecil, third Marquis of Cranbrook, see Hardy, Gathorne
Cremer, first Earl of, and Egyptian finance, 248
Cross, R. A., 161, 202, 212, 270, 279
Currie, Philip, 229
Darwin, Charles, 133, 142
Davidson, Randall, later Archbishop of Canterbury, 75, 197
defence, Salisbury on growing cost of, 30, 174
Delane, J. T., 137
democracy,
and the changing role of speeches, 300–2
continues from Salisbury to Lady Thatchers, 320
its evils, 27, 50, 130, 144–54, 357, 426 and the reform of 1867, 253–4
see also patronage; class and the class war Derby, fourteenth Earl of, 13, 253, 306
and the church, 197
and Disraeli, 18
Derby, fifteenth Earl of, 6, 24, 34, 38, 81, 128, 150, 239, 271, 306
and the Afghan problem, 239
chronicles Tory positions on Russia and Turkey, 271–2
and Egypt, 246
as foreign secretary, 161, 230, 266
his inferiors, 85
his opinions on land, 102, 110
and Mary Sackville-West, 11
resigns, 273
his social pessimism, 39
as a thinker, 139;
as ‘Tinus Oates’, 262
on Tory difficulties in the Lords (1872), 263
Derby, Lady, see Sackville-West, Mary Dicey, Edward, 143 and n
Dilke, Sir Charles, 34, 142, 178
Disraeli, Benjamin, first Earl of Beaconsfield, 17, 70, 207, 213, 291, 298
and the ballot, 149–50
and the Church of England, 154, 158
and Cranborne in 1867, 280–1
education, 215
on Empire, 229, 239
handling of Russo-Turkish conflict, 271–3
the House of Lords and, 164–6
London houses, 44 (see also Hughenden) and Lordlie, 261 and n
in memory, 310–11, 313–314
as party strategist, 18–22, 24–5, 254–5
and Peel, 17
and the press, 137
and the Queen, 161, 162
on racial offence, 224
re-emergence in 1872, 263–4
and state intervention, 176, 183
Doneraile, eighth Viscount, 114–15 and n economy, 5, 79, 80–9 depression and land, 101
the link with empire, 225–7 and Midlothian, 274
the politics of depression, 179–81
see also farming
education, 48–9, 186–7
and Disent, 213–19
Egypt, 243–6, 248, 278
Eliot, T S., 37–4
Elliott, Sir Henry, 269, 271
Encumbered Estates Acts, 95
English Church Union, 199
Essays and Reviews (1860), 142, 188 farming
cattle plague, 103–4
a ‘ministry’ of agriculture, 179
and Richmond’s closeness to, 98
Salisbury’s distance from, 41–2 fishing industry, Salisbury on, 35, 304
Forster, W. E., 36, 214
‘Fourth Party’, 53, 118, 271
its rise and fall, 276–7
France, avoiding conflict with, 297
French designs on Burma, 236–8
the lessons of the French Revolution, 27, 28, 144–5
north-east Africa and Fashoda, 250
Salisbury’s francophilia, 39–40
Second Empire, 255
tensions in Africa, 227–8, 245
free trade, and demands for protection of home industry, 180–1
see also economy; state
Fremantle, W. H., 131
Ferre, Sir Barde, 238, 244
Froude, James Anthony, 26, 140
on exterminating Negroes, 235
Galloway, tenth Earl of, 11–12, 54
George, David Lloyd, 13, 85, 126, 127, 298, 317
Germany, and China, 231
see also Prussia; Bismarck Gibson, Edward, Lord Ashbourne, 41, 45, 298
as Irish trouble-shooter, 59–60
his land act (1885), 59–60 and n, 120–1
see also Ireland
Gladstone, William, 4, 46, 146, 127, 148, 149, 202, 210, 255
as country attorney, 257, 392–3
on grasping nettles, 229
his Home Rule initiative, 121, 142, 281–3, 300
Irish Whigs and, 111
in memory, 308, 310, 312, 314, 316–17
and the minority government of 1885, 275–80
and Peel, 18
and the Queen, 160, 163
and Salisbury, 65, 248, 259, 299, 300
Tory perceptions of, 282, 284, 288–9
Gloucester, its expensive deanery, 79
its corruption, 147
Godley, J. R., 14 and n
Gordon, General, 228, 232, 278
death of, 247, 259
Gorst, John, 53, 118, 294
see also ‘Fourth Party’
Goschen, G. J., 107, 282, 285, 310
Chamberlain’s dislike of, 291
Granville, fifth Earl, 44
and Salisbury, 274, 305
Greville, Charles, and his diaries, 311 and n
Index
Granthorpe, first Baron, 201, 202, 204
Hague, William, 8, 253, 320
Habib, first Earl of, 203, 204, 251
Hardy, Gathorne, first Earl of Cranbrook, 45, 91, 259, 379
on disestablishment, 193
as High Churchman, 197
on the Queen, 163
on the Russo-Turkish problem, 268
Harrody, second Earl of, 192, 199, 219, 232
Hart-Dyke, Sir William, 84 and n Hartington, Lord, later eighth Duke of Devonshire, 23, 109–10, 215, 218
crisis of 1885–6, 281–2
rapprochement with Tories, 287, 289
see also Home Rule; Liberal Unionist party Hatfield House, 8, 13, 19, 42, 125, 148, 251
life there, 15–16, 35–6, 95–7, 135
Herbert, Auberon, 139
Hill, Lady Emily, 10
History, and Salisbury, 25–32
and the Tory party, 313–21
Holland House, 43 and n
Home Rule, consequences of crisis, 288
for Ireland, 65, 66–4, 114, 121, 254
the onset of the crisis, 281–3
and Salisbury, 157
Salisbury’s ‘Heston tone’ speech (1886), 255
for Scotland, 54–5
see also Ireland; Gladstone, William housing Salisbury’s interest in, 89–91 protecting the race thereby, 222
Hugbrden (Disraeli’s home), 23–4
Hunt, George Ward, at the Admiralty, 174, 185
scuppered, 270
hunting, shooting, fishing and Disraeli, 23–4
as Tory ritual, 23
see also Richmond, sixth Duke of Ignatiev, Count Nikolai Pavlovich, 271
India, 90, 199, 220, 316
famine in Orissa, 232
the Gacikar of Baroda, 240
the Indian Civil Service, 235
Indian Council, 232
the Irish parallel, 234–5
the native princes, 240 north-west frontier, 236
its place in imperial policy, 232–4
the Queen and, 161, 163
and the Rebellion of 1657, 61
restoration of Mysore, 223
and Westminster, 233
see also Afghanistan; Lytton, first Earl Ireland
Arran's Bill (1882), 114, 118–20, 277
as a Conservative space, 55–64
Gladstone's reshaping of, 281–4, 288–9
its history, 28–9
land acts, 113, 114;
(1870), 100, 114
(1882), 117–8, 278
and Tory conceptions of property, 109–24
as warning about India, 234–5
see also Home Rule; Gladstone, William Jimson raid (1895), 243, 292
Japan, 231
Jews, see race
Jowett, Benjamin, 140
Kimberley, first Earl of, 393–4
King, Edward (bishop of Lincoln), 197, 201
King-Harman, Edward, 82, 112, 121
Korea, 231,
land,
its place in Tory politics, 101–9
and Salisbury, 99–101
see also farming; Ireland
Lawrence, Sir John, 232, 238
Lennox, Lord Henry, 270 and n
Liberal Unionist party, 124, 203, 213, 228, 283, 286, 290
the problem it posed, 292–3
Liddon, H. F., 195
Lightfoot, Joseph, 196, 217
Liverpool, 37–8
London,
its absence from Bateman, 101
the class war in the West End, 155
as a political space, 36–7, 42–5
Salisbury on London housing, 90–1 Londonderry, sixth Marquis of,
as Irish viceregal, 58–9
in London, 166
Lords, House of,
and crofters' agitation, 102
debate with Lord Wemyss, 156–7
its perceived role among Tories, 164–70
Richmond leading, 22–3, 262
and Salisbury’s approach to, 27, 151–2
Salisbury’s difficulties in (1881–2), 116–17
Salisbury’s true home, 295–303, 35
and Scotland, 51–2
Tory difficulties in (1872), 263
Lothian, ninth Marquis of, 54
Lux Mundi (1889), 127–8, 138
Lytton, Blymer, 34, 311
Lytton, first Earl, 172, 220, 229, 238
on Chamberlain, 291
as governor-general of India, 237–42
MacDonald, Ramsay, 143, 316, 320
Mackenzie, Rev. A., 197
Macmillan, Harold, 6, 317–8 Magner, William Conom, bishop of Peterborough, 192–3, 302
on the peril of progress, 153–4
Maine, Sir Henry Sumner, 39, 95, 142
and Popular Government (1885), 130
Major, John, 253, 320
Majuba Hill, battle of, (1881), 244, 245 and n
Mallock, W. H., 155
and Tory thought, 140–1
Malmesbury, third Earl of, 20, 24, 264
Manners, Lord John, 47, 161, 216, 238, 254, 258, 272, 279
the coal industry, 84
his farms, 105
and the Queen, 161
marriage, getting it right, 79–84
Marx, Karl, 6, and Mallock, 141
Maxwell, Sir Herbert, on Home Rule for Scotland, 54, 80
McDonnell, Sir Schomberg, 76
Mears, Rev. Andrew, 90, 177 memory, 24, 39, 395–13
Merchant Shipping Bill (1893), 294
Merv (Marv), its place in strategy, 238–43
see also Afghanistan
Middleton campaigns (1879–80), 45, 89
Milner, Lord Alfred, 143, 220
Monypenny, W. F., 313
Moonhouse, James (bishop of Melbourne),
195 and n, 219, 220
Morier, Sir Robert, 243
Müller, Max, 154
Myers, F. W. H., 134
Naas, Lord, later sixth Earl of Mayo, 58
and n
National Review, 90, 136, 138
National Society, 214 and n
Naval Defence Bill (1896), 174
Nonconformity,
Benson's criticisms, 205–6
and burials, 99, 209–10, 211

© Cambridge University Press
www.cambridge.org
Index

race,
Celts in Ireland, 56–7; 64–2
and the Celts of Scotland, 56
definition of, 201
Freud on extermination, 225
and Jews, 67, 107–8, 109–1, 193
and Muslims, 223
and Negroes, 66–8, 223, 224 and n. 235
its place in Tory imperialism, 221–2
railway companies,
and Salisbury, 166, 265
and W. H. Smith, 106–7
reform, parliamentary, 89, 92–3; 146–8, 148 9, 453 4; 477, 311
Rendel, Lord, comparing Gladstone and Salisbury, 229
Richmond, sixth Duke of, 6, 22–3, 41, 46, 74, 98, 194
on the ballot, 62, 264n
and bishops, 194–5
Chamberlain as communist, 278–9 education spokesman, 215–16
and the land problem, 102–6, 115–16, 179
Russians as cadis, 272
and Scottish politics, 49, 52
as Tory leader in the Lords, 165–8, 262, 270, 299
on women, 68
Ridley, Sir Matthew White, 44, 217
Ripon, first Marquess of, 293
ritualism, and the Church of England, 11, 189, 197–201
Rosebery, fifth Earl of, 100, 163
and Salisbury, 303
Tory perception of, 260
Russia, 27, 68, 90, 257
background to the Pengeble incident (1885), 279, 281, 287
conflict with: Turkey, 259, 264–5
perceived designs on India, 238–44
the Queen and, 161
and Treaty of London (1871), 265
Sackville-West, Mary, later Lady Derby, 11,12
and n. 262, 271
Salisbury, Georgina, Lady, 12–13, 16, 80, 287
Salisbury, second Marquess of, 9–10, 11, 14, 255
death, 259
on son’s maiden speech (1854), 256
Salisbury, James, fourth Marquess of, 13
Salisbury, Robert Gascoyne-Cecil, third Marquess of,
his life, 3, 10, 12, 14, 19–20, 76, 83, 86, 255 9, 268 9, 274, 287

Nonconformity (cont.)
and education, 213–19
and Salisbury, 108, 194, 206–11
and tithes, 211–12
Northbrook, first Earl of, 232, 233, 238, 239
Northcote, Sir Stafford, first Earl of Idlesleigh, 39, 43, 53, 194, 320
as chancellor, 89, 183–5, 275
dispensable with, 285–6
made foreign secretary (1886), 284
on House of Lords, 168
on Ireland, 62
in opposition 1880–5, 275–7
on the Russians, 372
Northumberland, eighth Duke of, 42 and n.
262, 279
Oxford, University of, 96, 271
Salisbury as chancellor, 130–2, 215
Palmer, Horsey, 14
Palmer, Roundell, first Earl of Selborne, 14–15, 117, 204, 262
his advice to Salisbury in 1883, 280
and Home Rule, 142
Palmerston, Lord, 257–8, 308
Paris, Treaty of (1856), and Black Sea clauses, 295
Parker, Charles Stuart, 397, 309–10
patronage, role of, 70–1
in civil service, 172
social patronage, 85–7
Pauncefote, Julian, 229
Peel, Arthur, 307, 310
Peel, Sir Lawrence, 308–9
Peel, Sir Robert, 6, 17, 75, 109, 110, 147, 255, 289
contrasted with Salisbury, 293
his Liberal legacies, 306–10
Penson, Dame Lillian, 318 and n.
Persia, 257, 259, 244, 267, 281
Plevna, battle of (1877), 272
see also Russia; Turkey
Poland, Salisbury on, 27, 257, 266–7
Prussian League, 171, 296
progress, its absurdity, 31–2, 252–3
Bishop Magee on, 153–4
Prussia, 40, 257, 265
Public Worship Regulation Act (1875), 197, 270
Purchas, Father John, 197
Putzi, villa at, 16, 39
Quarterly Review, (mention in text only), 13,
60, 66, 126, 130, 206, 296

© Cambridge University Press
www.cambridge.org
his life recollected, 314–21
his styles of language, 295–301
his contexts,
and Chamberlain, 290–1
the Church of England, 188–90, 198–9, 201–5 collapse of relations with Gladstone, 288–9
the Conservative party, 21–2, 23, 231–2, 255–7, 261, 286–7 Disraeli, 20–22
and the empire, 220–1, 225–7, 228
Home Rule for Ireland, 63–4, 157
‘Homegate’ speech, 235
the House of Commons, 170–1
India Office (1874–76), 264, 268
managing Northcote and Churchill, 272–86
and Nonconformists, 206–11
personal religion, 16
his place as a ‘thinker’, 125–30
and the press, 135–9
the Queen, 162–4
and the Russo-Turkish conflict of 1877–78, 265, 266, 269, 272
Scotland, 46, 7, 32–5
his opinions and perceptions, 65–7, 71, 73, 76–7
on the Afghan and Russian problems, 239–44
on American Civil War, 66, 222
on democratic dangers, 144–54
on education, 177
on function of the House of Lords, 165–70
on the housing question, 89–91
on how to govern India, 232–6 on land and landlords, 99–100 on legal and historical contracts, 94–101
on the nature of party, 291–2
on racial characteristics, 221–5 on the role of the state, 176–8 on slavery, 222, 221
on socialism and revolution, 153–8
on ‘splendid isolation’, 299–300
on women, 68–70, 172
Sander son, Thomas, 11 and n, 229
Sandown, Lord, and education policy, 216–17
Schei de-Holstein, Salisbury on the crisis of 1884, 40
Scotland, and Conservative party, 45–55 and Edinburgh, 46
and Glasgow, 46, 53
Scott, Sir Walter, 45–6, 128–9
Seeley, John Robert, 34
Shuvalov, P. A., 12 and n, 68, 81, 271
Sidgwick, Henry, 155, 269
Sierra Leone, 247, 298
Smith, Goldwin, 142
on Churchill, 284
on Salisbury, 138–9
Smith, W. H., 43, 161, 213, 276
his class problems, 71, 86, 140, 270 Commons management, 270, 286
concerned about Salisbury (1886), 284–5
his controversy with Churchill, 285–6
on Ireland, 123
steadying influence in 1885, 281
socialism, 6, 142
and Salisbury’s memory, 315
its threat after 1879, 153–8
South Africa, and Salisbury’s tour, 19
Salisbury’s view of, 244–5, 259, 257
its ‘Savages’, 235
Spotﬁt, Markham, 286, 290
Stamford, 32, 253, 260
and Burghley, II, 76
Stanhope, ﬁfth Earl, 46, 112 state, the, and the limits of its interference in society, 128, 175–87, 199, 316, 321
the Thatch erite vari ant, 319
see also economy; free trade
Stephen, James Fitzjames, 141
Suakin, 230
Sudan, 221, 230, 246, 248
the ‘conquest argument’, 233
and Fashoda, 230
Suez Canal, 245–6
Supreme Court of Judicature Act (1873), 167–8
Symons, J. C., 308
Tait, Archibald Campbell, Archbishop of Canterbury, 191, 194, 199 taxation, 181–6
Tennyson, Lord Alfred, 134, 140
Thailand, and the French, 237–8
Thatcher, Margaret, Lady, 65, 155, 253–4, 318–19
and Thatcherism, 319
Thomson, William, Archbishop of York, 131, 196–7 tithe, 90, 211–12
see also Church of England
Tory democracy, 277–9
see also Churchill, Lord Randolph
334

Index

Turkey
and Russia, 161, 239, 264–75
and Suakin, 230
the crumbling Turkish empire, 268–9
Tweeddale, tenth Marquis of, 48–9 and n

Uganda, 228
annexation of, 248

Unionism (with Ireland), 63–4, 142
see also Home Rule; Liberal Unionist party unions, trade, 92
see also socialism

Victoria, Queen
and the Church of England, 195, 198, 219
and her court, 73–6, 160–4
in Home Rule crisis, 281, 285
relations with Salisbury, 287
royal power, 162–4
on Russia and Turkey, 272
and Scotland, 47–8
villa Toryism, 3, 104

Wales, and Conservatives, 35–6 and n and the eight wars, 211–12

Walpole, Spencer,
as clubman, 77
as historian, 372

Waterford, fifth Marquis of, and Irish land bill of 1887, 60 and n, 122–3

Weihaiwei, 231

Wellington, first Duke of, 10, 81, 154, 306
Wenys, eighth Earl of, 91, 136, 177

West Indies, 245
Westcott, Brooke Foss, 195–6, 217
Whigs, Tory perceptions of, 20–1, 268, 303–4

Wodehouse, Sir Philip, 233–4

women
Salisbury on female suffrage, 68–70
Salisbury on women and shopping, 170
see also marriage

Woolf, Sir Henry Drummond, 53, 172 Wordsworth, Christopher (bishop of Lincoln), 196
Wordsworth, John (bishop of Salisbury), 196

Zanzibar, 230–1
Zeeland, first Marquis of, 43 and n
Zulu, 228, 244