Index

accounting requirements, 321–322
Ahmadjian, Christina L., 232
Akai Electric, 219–220
akaji, 227, 234
Akerlof, George, 26
alliances. See strategic alliances amakudari, 213
Asanuma, Banri, 87, 147, 178–179, 200
automobile industry
conditions affecting development of, 187–188 cross-shareholding among assemblers/suppliers within, 191 customer-supplier relations within, 185–186 equity-director links to horizontal groups in, 223 firm distribution across groups, 123 geographic clustering of firms in, 193 global keiretsu-ization of, 335–338 interfirm tie analysis of, 191–193 Toyota’s uniqueness within, 30
bailouts
American, 289
bank, MOF role in, 212
by Toyota, 269–271
keiretsu role in, 218–220, 221 reduced frequency of, 266–272 repational concerns in, 249–250 state’s role in, 211–212, 214–216
Baker, Wayne E., 160
Ballon, Robert J., 159
Bank of Tokyo-Mitsubishi, 310–311 banking
bubble’s effect on, 90, 91
consolidation in, 311–315 control and monitoring role, 166–167, 218–219 decline role of, 308–310
growth pattern within, 58
industrial diversification into, 55, 56 limit on client equity, 219 patron persistence within, 299, 310 post-war status of, 72–73
pre-war concentration within, 63 regulatory changes in, 304–306 bankruptcy laws, 307
bankruptcy rate, 110, 288 ‘Big-Bang’ regulatory changes, 304 big six
as ceremonial, 28
as oligopolistic, 28
centrality of, 180–181
cohesion of, interventionism and, 244–249 cross-shareholding trends among, 329, 330 evolution of, 337–338
homophily of, 179–180
members of, 16
Biggart, Nicole W., 171
blockmodeling
1-block financials, 125–126, 143
2-block horizontal keiretsu
Dai-Ichi Kangyo Bank, 133–134
Fuyo, 127–128, 129
Mitsubishi, 129–130
Mitsui, 126–127
Sanwa, 132–133
Sumitomo, 128–129
2-block industrials, 126–127
2-block vertical keiretsu
Hitachi, 140
Matsushita, 138–139
Nippon Steel, 139
Index

blockmodeling (cont.)
Nissan, 139–140
Toyota, 137–138, 143
advantage for keiretsu classification, 124 algorithm used in, 123
defined, 97, 121
matrices used in, unstacking, 144–146
shacho-kai firm distribution, 134–136
time point clusterings
1978, 98
1986, 100
1989, 104
1995, 106
1997, 108
trading companies, 127–128
boards of directors
function of, 157
Japanese versus American, 371
large typical, 91
reform changes in, 161, 322–323, 373
see also director overlap Borgatti, S. P., 122
Brauchli, Marcus W., 265
bubble
as blip, 95–96
cross-shareholdings during, 114
defined, 90, 221–222
effects of, 6, 88, 90–91
keiretsu intervention around, 272–276 keiretsu weathering of, 5–6, 141
nature of, 6
year of peak, 125
Burt, Ronald S., 122
business groups, 16, 23–24 ‘capital, patient,’ 12
capital market deregulation, 90 Caves, Richard, 217–218
centrality, 200
Chapter 11, 289
chemical industry analysis, 195–199 Clark, Rodney, 42
cohesion dimensions, 111–113
Cole, Robert E., 359
commercial exchanges
as conduits for keiretsu intervention, 219–221
equity ties and, 170
flow control and, 168–170
CONCOR algorithm, 123
connectivity, 111–114
consolidations
bank, 311–315
contagion in, 317
industrial, 315–316
significance of, 316
control associations, 71 ‘convoy’ system
actions/effects of, 212 criticism of, 31–32
decline of, 304–305
deregulation and cooptation, 162
corporations. See firms cotton spinning industry, 54
cross-shareholding
as lever, 153
blocking takeover attempt by, 330–331
circa the bubble, 114
criteria for retaining, 158 functions of, 137–159
incidence of (1980), 27 Mitsubishi-Volvo, 338
reciprocity in, 172, 173, 175 ‘unwinding’ of, 226–227, 323
see also equity network; equity ties cyclical change hypothesis, 94–96, 116–117
Dai-Ichi Kangyo Bank (DKB)
blockmodel results for, 133–134
formation of, 81, 313
growth pattern within, 58, 62
merger to create Mizuho, 312–313 relative coherence, 118
Dai-Ichi-Mitsubishi failed merger, 79–81
Dai Nippon Construction, 182–183
Daiei rescue, 307
Daihatsu, 94
debt network, 112
density, 111–114
deregulation
American, 13, 25
bond market, 165
convoy system and, 304
growth decline and, 90
Deutsche Bank, 219
Dewatripont, M., 211–212
director overlap
British/American, 160
connectivity of, 112, 141–142
cooptation through, 162 cyclicality of, 117, 142–143 density declines of, 112, 141, 142 direction of, 200
effects of, 159–162
equity stakes as precondition for, 163–164 impetus for, 162
interventions via, 221, 250
Index

reciprocity in, 172
tension possible with, 161 without equity relation, 164 see also boards of directors distribution keiretsu
chief economic function, 29
defined, 16
downstream, 76
DKB. See Dai-ichi Kangyo Bank (DKB)
Dodge Line, 73
dorai, 92
Dore, Ronald P., 25, 158, 171
DOS/V operating system, 342, 343 ‘dot-com’ start-ups, 345–350 dyad autoregression, 203–204 dyad modeling, 202–203
economic exchange
analysis
causal assumptions, 157–158, 159 issues addressed in, 153–157 regression models and results, 155, 156 sample and data employed, 153–155 auto industry, 191–193
chemical industry, 195–199
electronics industry, 193–195
Japanese governance forms, 149–150, 151 machinery industry, 198, 199 metals industry, 195, 196 theories of agency theory, 149
differences and similarities among, 150–152 embeddedness theory, 149, 150–151 exchange/resource dependence theory, 149, 150–151
transaction cost economics, 148–149
see also commercial exchanges; financial exchange economic institutions, perceptions of, 1–3 economic problems, 1980s bubble and, 4–6 economic relations: standard view, 27
electronics industry
congruence with network model, 30 interfirm tie analysis, 193–195 ownership stability in, 325–327
transaction costs in and integration of, 186 employees, ties among, 12
enbakku, 90, 120
Enron, 370
equity network
connectivity of, 112, 141–142
density in, 112, 141
see also cross-shareholding; equity ties equity ties
as conduits for keiretsu intervention, 221
as governance mechanism, 137, 158–159 as monitoring mechanism, 137, 158 as support for smaller firms, 159 at bubble peak, 114
commercial exchanges and, 170 cyclical pattern of, 114, 117 foreign, 162–163
purpose of, 95, 162
reciprocity in, 172, 173, 175
regulatory limits on, 163
see also cross-shareholding; equity network Everett, M. G., 122
executive compensation, American, 368–369
financial exchange
control exercised via, 166 director dispatch and, 164–165, 166 extent of, variations in, 165 parties’ mutual ownership, 156, 166 financial reporting requirements, 321–322 financial services 1980s restructuring, 302–303
foreign firms, 150
FSA regulation of, 306–308
sale to foreign investors, 310–311, 352 financial system
deregulatory changes in, 296–297
early modern, 43
firms
age, reciprocity and, 177 bank debt to assets ratio of, 266 boundaries of, shifting, 333–334 cohesion of large, changes in, 111–117 constrained by networks, 76–83 equity ties between, 95, 114, 117 financial reallocations in decentralized, 32 found/merger rate, 344
noncouncil, measuring big six realignments of, 222 Occupation-forced changes on, 72, 73
outsourcing by, 333–335 period of inception, 53
post-Occupation pressures on, 75–76 profit-sharing in, 69
profitability concerns of, 227 resources available for, 54 restructurings, 92
shacho-kai, by industry, 223 size, reciprocity and, 176–177 social cohesion within, 12 start-ups in information technology, 348–350

© Cambridge University Press
404  Index

firms (cont.)
wartime changes in, 69–70
wartime network organization of, 70–71 Ford Motor Company
involvement with Mazda, 336–337 presidents dispatched to Mazda, 282, 283 stake in Mazda, 267
foreign investment
challenges to, 352–353
effects of, 323–324
in auto industry, 335–338
in financial institutions, 310–311, 352
increase of, 323, 351–352 nature of 1990s, 352–353 fraud, American corporate, 366–367, 370
FSA (Financial Services Agency), 306–308
Fuji Bank, 268, 312–313
Fuji Electric
founding, 66
sales per customer and period, 67, 68 Fujitsu
computer challenge to NEC, 343
growth pattern within, 58–63
partnering by, 67
Furukawa electric, 63–66
Furukawa group
diversification within, 54–56
Sumitomo versus, 56–58
satellite independence within, 65–66
Fuyo, 118, 131–132
gaiatsu, 120
gaku batsu, 36
Gao, Bai, 268
garment industry, New York, 356
General Electric, 367
General Motors, 337
Gerlach, Michael, 12, 27
genko banare, 309
gori, 13
governance reform movement, 161
Granovetter, Mark, 16
Gulati, Ranjay, 175
Guillot, Didier, 353
gyosei shido, 13
hagetaka, 268
Hahn, Frank, 39
haken yakuin, 76
Hamao, Yasushi, 288
Hamilton, Gary G., 171
Hasegawa, Juzaburo, 80–81
Helper, Susan, 175
Hirnfdahl shacho-kai firm concentration indices, 135–136
Hikari Tsushin, 348
Hitachi, 140, 263
HKS study (Hoshi, Kashyap, and Scharfstein), 230–231, 233
Hokkaido Takushoku Bank, 305 holding companies
advantages of, 316–317
American versus Japanese, 319
ban removal on, 297, 318, 320–321
ban’s effect, 316
embrace of, 318
uses of, 318–320
Holloway, Nigel, 231
homophily, 200
horizontal keiretsu
benefits for strategic alliances, 337
blockmodel results for, 143–144
classifying, 222
defined, 15, 17
distinctive feature of, 17 geographic concentration of, 183 interfirm relations within, 17–21
isomorphism of, 44
nature of, 17, 285, 357
principal groups, 27
Hoshi, Takeo, 165
Ibison, David, 182–183
Icahn, Carl, 161
Ichikoh Industries, 265
Inamori, Kazuo, 321
Imai, Ken-ichi, 41
industrial architecture(s) change in, 298–299
defined, 296
synopsis of, 299–302
Industrial Bank of Japan, 312–313 industrial districts, 182
Industrial Relations Adjustment Measure, 69 Industrial Revitalization Corporation
(IRC), 290, 308
industries
analytical methods and results, 189–191
as institutional environments, 187–189 consolidations within, 315–316 defining, 122
differences in, redistributive intervention and, 258, 259–262
domestic versus globally integrated, 188–189
keiretsu connection density per, 256–259 keiretsu versus, 122–123 older, network characteristics of, 188 shacho-kai membership per type of, 189
see also information technology
industries
information technology industries forces for change in, 342
keiretsu effects on, 344–345
Index

output versus other industries', 341–342 pace and nature of changes facing, 343–345
shift from proprietary systems, 342–343 start-ups in, 348–350
taxonomies of, 120
ties which constitute, 24–26, 217
see also big-six; distribution keiretsu;
horizontal keiretsu; vertical keiretsu;
zaibatsu
keiretsu intervention
around endaka-bubble period, 272–276 client size and, 249–250, 251, 252, 286 debt and equity concentration and, 250–256
during 1980s and 1990s, 265–272 group cohesion and, 244–249 industry differences, and, 258, 259–262, 286
modeling
estimates from, 239–242
hypothesis in, 237
lag times used in, 238–239
linearity assumption in, 243–244 results, 237–238
vertical group, 262–265
see also keiretsu intervention analysis keiretsu intervention analysis control variables, 223, 224 correlations from, 223, 226 effects on weak versus strong firms hypothesis for, 232
methods and results, 229, 233–235, 236, 237
test used, 233
main effects, 227–230
methods, 222–227
outcomes employed, 226–227 panel data modeling for, 290–294 sample employed, 221–222
tie types examined, 217, 218–221 year-by-year, 274, 275, 276–284 kekkonbatsu, 36
Kester, W. Carl, 219–220
kiga, 261
Kigyo Denki, 25, 26
kigyoshudan, 15
kimochi, 26
koizumi, Junichiro, 307
kone, 13
konran, 74, 78
kuwada, 120
kyoryoku-ku, 30
kyoryoku kojo, 75
Index

406  Index

legal system, 42–43
Leifer, Eric, 34–35
lender-borrow network
cross-shareholding within, 200 density of, 141
director dispatch within, 200 Lincoln, James, 12, 27, 185
linear decline hypothesis, 88–91, 111
Lockwood, William, 14
LTCB (Long-Term Credit Bank), 311 machinery industry analysis, 198, 199
madoguchi shido, 215
management incentives
American, 368–369
Japanese, 369–370
market transactions. See economic exchange Matsushita, 138–139, 263
Mazda
assistance from Sumitomo, 94
Ford’s alliance with, 336–337
Ford’s management of, 282, 283 relations with suppliers, 263
Mei, Jiangping, 161
Mitsubishi
assistance to Akai Electric, 219
blockmodel results for, 129–130
foreign investment in, 337–338 post-Occupation rebuilding measures, 23 merger with Sumitomo, 125–126, Mitsubishi Construction bailout, 220
Mitsubishi Incident, 218
Mitsubishi, Kenichi, 161, 232
Mizuho Bank, 312–313, 317
modernization theory, 88–91, 111
MOF (Ministry of Finance), 305–306
mokuro gensha, 75
moral hazard, 5
Mothers market section, 350–351
Murakami, Yoshiaki, 330–331
Murphy, R. Taggart, 11–12, 158, 208–209, 210–211
Mycal bankruptcy, 307
Nakahama, Tadashi, 211
Nakatan, Iwao, 205–209
NASDAQ Japan, 351
National Mobilization Act – Article 11, 69–70
NEC
challenges to dominance of, 342–343
founding, 67
growth pattern within, 58–63
web of affiliations, 23
nenko joretsu, 210
netbatsu, 298, 347
network analysis
cohesion trends, 111–117, 118–120
data and sample, 97–111
methods, 96–97
see also blockmodeling; economic exchange, analysis network idea
general incidence of, 10
in scholarship on Japan, 11–13 ‘networkness’
decline of, 3–4
variation in, 45
networks
change models summarized, 88
cyclical change hypothesis, 94–96, 116–117
developmental phases, 51–52 differences per industry, 185–191
diversification within, 54–58
independence and flexibility within, 64–66
linear decline hypothesis, 88–91, 111
peristence within institutional-based, 92–94 post-1990s, 297–298
satellite spinoffs, 64–68
satellite strategic partnering, 66–67 sectoral variations within, 58–63
© Cambridge University Press

www.cambridge.org
Index

wartime-forced changes in, 68–71, 85
see also blockmodeling; network analysis
New York garment industry, 356
Nihon Shobin, 25
mik Keico, 177
Nikko Securities, 310–311
nendo, 26
Nippon Credit, 306–307
Nippon Steel, 116, 139
Nissan
intervention against Ichikoh Industries, 265 Renault’s takeover of, 338–340 vertical group changes, 139–140
wartime-forced changes in, 68–71, 85
customer-supply transaction, 174–175
director transfer, 172
equity tie, 172, 173, 175
firm age and, 177
firm size and, 176–177
firm size and director dispatch, 174
firm size and equity, 173–174
trade, equity and director ties and, 175
trends of changes in, 174
redundant workers, 95
’regression to the mean,’ 241
Renault, 338–340
reputation, 249–250
risk-sharing, American, 289
Ritschhev, Dmitry, 359
ROA (return on assets), 226
Rohlen, Thomas, 263
Roland, Gerard, M., 211–212
Russell, David, 161, 232
saiteri, 78
Sakamoto, Kazuichi, 206–207, 245
Sako, Mari, 218
Sakura Bank, 266–267, 314–315
Sakura Bank, 266–267, 314–315
Sanwa Bank, 313–314
Sanwa group, 118, 132–133
Sanyo Electric, 318
Sata Kogyo, 269
savings, wartime requirements for, 70
Saxenian, AnnaLee, 289
scandals, American, responses to, 371
Schaefer, Ulrike, 212
securities industry regulatory changes, 304, 306, 307–308
seishin, 92
semiconductor industry, 336
shacho-kai (presidents’ councils)
activity of, 179
centrality of, 180–181
cohesion changes among, 119, 142
companies in, list of, 17, 18
cyclical change among, 119
defined, 16–17
firms by industry, 223
group differences among, 118
nature and action of, 217–218, 285–286
position-sharing by, 135–136
uniqueness to Japan, 217
shareholders
post-war roles of, 72
wartime changes for, 70
Sheard, Paul, 17, 213, 216, 220–221, 227, 232–233
Shibusawa, Einichi, 42
Shigeta, Yasumitsu, 348
Page, Karen L., 26
panel data modeling, 290–294
Pascale, Richard T., 263
Pickens, T. Boone, 162–163, 231
Plaza Accord, 90
Podolny, Joel M., 26 political power web, 13–15
post-war economy
Occupation, 71–73, 85
post-Occupation, 73–76, 85 presidents’ councils. See shacho-kai prewar period, 53–68, 84–85 principal-agent theory, 9 ‘private ordering,’ 42
profits, 226–227
R & D strategic alliances, 360–362, 364
Rakuten Ichiba, 348–349
Ramseyer, J. Mark, 166
ratchet effect, 211–212
reciprocity
as governance device, 174–176 commercial exchange, 171, 175
customer-supply transaction, 174–175
director transfer, 172
equity tie, 172, 173, 175
firm age and, 177
firm size and, 176–177
firm size and director dispatch, 174
firm size and equity, 173–174
trade, equity and director ties and, 175
trends of changes in, 174
redundant workers, 95
’regression to the mean,’ 241
Renault, 338–340
reputation, 249–250
risk-sharing, American, 289
Ritschhev, Dmitry, 359
ROA (return on assets), 226
Rohlen, Thomas, 263
Roland, Gerard, M., 211–212
Russell, David, 161, 232
saiteri, 78
Sakamoto, Kazuichi, 206–207, 245
Sako, Mari, 175, 201
Sakura Bank, 266–267, 314–315
Samuels, Richard J., 77
Sanko Steamship failure, 248, 304
Sanwa Bank, 313–314
Sanwa group, 118, 132–133
Sanyo Electric, 318
Sata Kogyo, 269
savings, wartime requirements for, 70
Saxenian, AnnaLee, 289
scandals, American, responses to, 371
Schaefer, Ulrike, 212
securities industry regulatory changes, 304, 306, 307–308
seishin, 92
semiconductor industry, 336
shacho-kai (presidents’ councils)
activity of, 179
centrality of, 180–181
cohesion changes among, 119, 142
companies in, list of, 17, 18
cyclical change among, 119
defined, 16–17
firms by industry, 223
group differences among, 118
nature and action of, 217–218, 285–286
position-sharing by, 135–136
uniqueness to Japan, 217
shareholders
post-war roles of, 72
wartime changes for, 70
Sheard, Paul, 17, 213, 216, 220–221, 227, 232–233
Shibusawa, Einichi, 42
Shigeta, Yasumitsu, 348

© Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org
Index

Shimotani, Masahiro, 313, 316
Shinsei Bank, 268–269
Shoei Corporation, 150
Shoei takeover attempt, 330–331
shosha. See trading companies (sogo shosha) shukko, 31
simultaneity bias, 152–153
'socialism,' 211–212
soft budget constraint, 211–212 Softbank Corporation, 345–348
sogo, 110
Sogo bankruptcy, 307
sogo shosha, 21
see also trading companies (sogo shosha) sokaiya, 12
Son, Masayoshi, 346, 347
soto-uchi, 336
start-ups, 'dot-com,' 345–350
state
as network actor, 14
constraints imposed by, 42 role in bailouts, 211–212, 214–216
see also MITI
steel industry
consolidations in, 315
ownership stability in, 324, 325–327
Steiglitz, Joseph, 367–368
stock buybacks, 331
stock exchanges, new, 350–351 stockholding, extent of, 165 strategic alliances
advantages of keiretsu for, 355–357 benefits of, 355
partner selection in, 354–355 purposes of, 354
R & D, 360–362, 364
transaction cost view of, 335
structural analysis
causation locus in, 34–35
data used in, 33–34, 35–37
defined, 9, 33
economic theory versus, 37–40
limits to, 40
Sugawara, Sandra, 205
Sumitomo Aluminum War, 77–79
Sumitomo Bank
growth pattern within, 58, 61
merger with Sakura, 314–315
Sumitomo Chemical, 67, 315
Sumitomo group
1930 organization illustrated, 57
Aluminum War within, 77–79
blockmodel results for, 128–129
bubble’s effect on, 129
coherence of, 118
diversification within, 54–55
Furukawa versus, 56–58
growth of, 63
post-Occupation power of, 74
satellite independence within, 65
techno-organizational chain, 55 supply chain stage and network organization, 186–187 Takahashi, Peggy, 27
Takenaka, Heizo, 307–308
takeovers
by foreigners, 297, 351, 352–353 fending off, 331
hostile, 150, 352
target pricing, 75
tatemae, 83
tobashi, 226, 370
Tokai Bank, 313–314
Tokyo, 184–185
Tomen bailout, 269–271
Tomita, Iwao, 159
Toyo Shinkin bailout, 214–216
Toyo Trust, 313–314
Toyota
as financial power, 126
as regionally concentrated vertical keiretsu, 182 bailouts by, 269–271
blockmodel results for, 137–138, 143
corporate culture, 184
deception by, 269
horizontal/vertical keiretsu interface of, 223 profitability goals of, 227 relationship with Denso, 161 relationships with lender banks, 309–310 stake taken in Koito, 158 supply-chain-protective moves by, 340–341 uniqueness within auto industry, 30 trade credits, 232–233
trade network
clustering, 143
cohesion fluctuations, 112, 119, 143
cyclical in, 117, 119
tie densities in, 112, 141
trade reciprocity, equity and director ties and, 175 trading companies (sogo shosha)
as commercial brokers, 200 blockmodeling results for, 127–128 power and influence, 170–171 role in control networks, 201 Trans Cosmos, 348
transaction cost economics, 9, 185–187
\textit{tsukiai}, 13
\textit{uchiso-seto}, 334
Uekusa, Masu, 217–218
\textit{setto}, 92
UFJ bank group, 313–314
Uzzi, Brian, 336
van Wolferen, Karel, 13
vertical keiretsu 1950s tightening of, 82, 83
blockmodel results for, 145–144
bubble's aftereffects on, 91 change over time in, 136–137
defined, 15–16, 21
division of labor within, 138 intertwining with horizontal, 21 interventionism within, 262–265
nature of, 357
regional concentration of, 182–183 responsibilities of top firms in, 208–209 Volvo, 337–338

Wallace, Henry, 267
\textit{wan-settoshugi}, 17
wartime economy, 68–71, 85, 300–301 White, Harrison, 34–35
Williamson, O. E., 32, 168
Xu, Yexiao, 288
\textit{yakuinhaken}, 91
Yanagisawa, Hakuo, 306
Yumikura, Reiichi, 320
zaibatsu
bank-centered groups versus, 142 decentralizing forces faced by, 54
Furukawa/Sumitomo diversification differences, 56–58
Occupation-forced changes on, 72
persistence of, 136
resources available from, 54 satellite spinoff advantages, 64–68 sectoral growth variations, 58–63 \textit{zaitech}, 4
Zielinsky, Robert, 231