

Index

- abuse of power 277
- acting out 278–9
- addictions 74–5, 207–30
  - A–B–C of 222–3
  - changing values through 212
  - craving 211–12
    - dealing with 216–22
  - deception and 226–9
  - dissociation and 226–9
  - emotional meaning 214–16
  - harm reduction 223–6
  - releasement 230
  - treatment 212–14, 216–23
    - coping with relapse 223
    - determination to change 218–20
    - motivation for change 217–18
    - relapse prevention 220
- adverse effects, of therapy 108–9
- advertising 298–9
- agency 24–6
- anorexia nervosa 213–14
  - emotional meaning of 214–16
- anxiety 200–1
  - guilt 61–4
  - see also* concerns
- assessment 104
  - see also* diaries and homework
- Assimilation of Problematic Experiences Scale 199
- attachment theory 170
- attribution theory 247–8
- audit 275–6
- authenticity 108
- authority, pathology and 50
- autonomy, respect for 47–8
- avoidance 73, 161–2

- beliefs, emotions and 158–60
- beneficence 47–8
- bereavement 60–1
- bottling up 143
- boundaries 132–4
  - of therapeutic relationship 103
  - shame and disgust and 134–6
- breakdown 282–3
  - of therapy 283–4
- breathing control 146

- catastrophic reactions 136–7, 245
  - threats to identity and 252
- catharsis 141–3
- causes, of concerns 17–18, 20, 39
- change
  - determination to 218–20
  - motivation for 217–18
- character 121–7
  - self 123–7
- choice, emotional meaning and 76–8
- clarification 16, 17, 21, 38
  - of focus of concern 41–2
- client-centered approach 34–5, 177–8
- Code of Practice 299
- Codes of Ethics 297–8
- cognitive diary see diaries and homework
- cognitive-analytic therapy (CAT) 181, 189–90
- coherence 87–93
  - distress and 233–4
  - splitting and 92–3
- communicative therapy 82, 270
- complaints 116
  - procedure 299–300
- concerns 9–43
  - as we tell them to others 36–7
  - causes and reasons 17–18, 20, 39
  - clarification of 16, 17, 21
    - focus of concern 41–2
  - conflict about 37–40
  - evidence-based approach 30–3
  - identification of 27–9
  - of therapist 24–7
  - preoccupying concerns 20–4
    - about therapeutic relationship 23–4
    - about treatment 21–3
  - psychotherapy and 11, 15–17
  - three elements of 11–13, 14–15

314 Index

- confidentiality 288–96
  - limits of 111–14
- conflict resolution 185–8
  - confrontation 187
  - interpretation 187–8
  - metaphor 186–7
- confrontation 187
- consent 48, 114–15
  - publication and 114–15
- contract see treatment contract
- control mastery theory 75
- counselling 37
  - motivational interviewing 217–18
  - preventative 144
- counter-transference 27, 85
- couple therapy 188–9
- craving 211–12
  - dealing with 216–22
    - determination to change 218–20
    - motivation for change 217–18
    - relapse prevention 220, 221
  - see also* addiction
- crises 267, 268
  - being stuck in therapy 277, 278
  - breakdown 282–3
    - of therapy 283–4
  - falling in love with client 278–9
  - intoxication 282
  - making demands on therapist 279–81
    - requests for reports 281–2
  - management of 267–77
    - abuse of power 277
    - attribution of everything to the effects of therapy 270–1
    - audit 275–6
    - manuals 276
    - personal therapy 276–7
    - re-consider treatment focus 271–2
    - recordings 274–5
    - review therapeutic relationship 272–3
    - self-monitoring 273–4
    - supervision 275
  - termination of therapy 284–6
  - threats to therapist 282
- de-briefing 144
- deception
  - addiction and 226–9, 250
  - self-deception 73, 226–9, 250
- decision making, emotions as guides 64–6
- defences 186
  - primitive 136–7
- demoralization 1–2
- dependence, on therapy 109
- dependency 207
  - see also* addictions
- depersonalization 68
- diaries and homework 149–55
  - situation 153–5
  - thoughts 152–3
  - timing of symptoms 150–2
- disavowal 73–4
- disclosure, duty of 112–13
- disgust 56–8, 64, 65, 258–63
  - boundaries and 134–6
  - identity and 79–80
- dissociation 144
  - addiction and 226–9
- dissociative identity disorder 262
- distancing 148
- distraction 146–7
- distress 141
  - coherence and 233–4
- divination 196–7
- duration of treatment 102, 104–6
- emotional flavour 55, 71, 77
- emotional meaning 69–74
  - anorexia nervosa 214–16
  - choice and 76–8
  - identity and 78–80
  - projection and 71–4
    - avoidance 73
    - disavowal 73–4
    - self-deception 73
  - strong emotional meanings 74
- emotions 55, 195
  - as a guide 58–68
    - how to act when plans fail 60–1
    - maintaining the social bond 61–4
    - making decisions 64–6
    - self-identity 67–8
  - dealing with 155–8
  - see also* disgust; shame
- emotors 55, 70–1
  - strong emotors 74–6
    - projective identification and 79–80
- ethics 52–3, 116
  - ethical decisions, emotions as guides 64–6
    - guidelines 297–300
- evidence-based approach 30–3
- existential psychotherapy 174–7
- existentialism 51, 175–6
- exploratory psychotherapy 106–7
- externalization 91
- face-work 36
- false memories, construction of 109–10
- family therapy 182–5
  - confidentiality and 113–14
- focus
  - of concern 41–2
  - of treatment 271–2

- formulation, of narrative 96–8
- framing 182–3
- guided imagery 146
- guilt 61–4
- habit disorder 208
  - see also* addictions
- happiness 231
  - stories of 231–3
- harm reduction, addiction and 223–6
- helping 46–8
- homework see diaries and homework
- honesty 49–50, 262
- hope 145
- hypnosis 109–10
- identification of concerns 27–9
- identity
  - emotional meaning and 78–80
  - in long-term therapy 254–8
  - self-recognition 67–8
  - shattering of 252–3, 258
  - values and 45–6
- image modification 161
- imagery 146
- improvement 107–8
- informed consent see consent
- integrity 261
- internalization 170–1
- interpersonal psychotherapy 167
- interpretation 187–8, 195–7
- interviewing 83–4
  - motivational interviewing 217–18
- intoxicated clients 282
- justice 47
- limits
  - of treatment confidentiality 111–14
  - time-limited therapy 189–91
- locus of control 54
- long-term therapy 238–9, 254, 263–5
  - identity and value in 254–8
  - shame and disgust in 258–63
  - see also* psychotherapy; treatment
- manuals 276
- marital therapy 184, 188–9
  - see also* family therapy
- meaning, crucial role of 162–3
  - see also* emotional meaning
- mediation 185
- memory falsification 109–10
- metaphor 186–7
- misuse 207
  - see also* addictions
- motivational interviewing 217–18
- narrative approaches 81–117, 119–37
  - catastrophic reactions 136–7
  - character 121–7
    - narrating a self that is convincing to others 127–31
    - self 123–7
  - coherence 87–93
    - distress and 233–4
    - splitting and 92–3
  - contracting see treatment contract
  - formulation 96–8
  - interviewing 83–4
  - narrative types in psychotherapy 94–5
  - plot 121
  - re-narrations 236–8
  - reformulation 98–9
  - stories of happiness 231–3
  - struggle of narratives 85–7
  - therapeutic narrative construction 84–5
  - therapist's responsibility for narrative 93–4
  - unspoken matters 234–8
- narrative turn 81
- network therapy 182
- non-compliance 33
- non-maleficence 47
- normalization 145–6
- obsessive–compulsive disorder 162
- Oedipus complex 172–4
- palatability 78
- paradoxical injunction 184
- pathology, authority and 50–2
- person-centered approach 34–6, 177–8
- personal construct therapy 178–81
- personal therapy 276–7
- plot 121
- post-modernism 49
- power, abuse of 277
- power relations 46
- pride 62
- primitive defences 136–7
- problem-solving therapy 177–8
- projection 71–4
- projective identification 79–80, 241–2, 243
- psycho-analysis 58, 106–7, 167–9
  - ternary model of 14
- psycho-dynamic therapy 167
- psychotherapists see therapists
- psychotherapy 1–2, 42–3, 103–4
  - as helping profession 46–8
  - being stuck in therapy 277, 278
  - breakdown of 283–4
  - catastrophic reactions 136–7, 245

316 Index

- psychotherapy (cont.)
 client-centered approach 34–5 concerns and 11, 15–16
 evidence-based approach 30–3
 exploratory 106–7
 long-term 238–9, 254, 263–5
   identity and value in 254–8
   shame and disgust in 258–63
 narrative types in 94–5
 self-selection and 33–4 time-limited 189–91
see also narrative approaches; specific types of therapy; symptom relief; therapeutic relationship; treatment; universal technique
- publication, consent issue 114–15
- questioning 280
- questionnaires 101
- re-narrations 236–8
- reality-testing 29
- reasons, for concerns 17–18, 20, 39
- reassurance 145
- reciprocal role procedures 181
- record keeping 115
- recordings 115, 274–5
- reformulation, of narrative 98–9
- rejection 201
- relapse coping with 223
   prevention 220, 221
see also addictions
- relationship therapy 188–9
see also family therapy
- relationships 56, 166, 182
 transference 240–50
see also therapeutic relationship
- relaxation training 146
- releasement 207, 230
- repertory grids 180–1
- reports, demands for 281–2
- research 116
- resistance 85, 90, 239–40, 248–9
   alternative account of 250
- resolution see conflict resolution
- respect for autonomy 47–8
- responsibility for treatment success 111
   of therapist 24–5
   for narrative 93–4
- Rutgers Psychotherapy Process and Stagnation Scale 278
- salience 132–4
- self-characterization 180
- self-deception 73, 250
- addiction and 226–9
- self-efficacy 219
- self-harm 221, 227
- self-identity 67–8, 123–7
   narrating a self that is convincing to others 127–31
- self-monitoring 273–4
- self-selection 33–4
- sexual relationships with client 278–9
- shame 23, 56–8, 62–4, 65, 258–63
   as strong emotion 75–6
   boundaries and 134–6
   dealing with 156
   identity and 79–80
- shock 143–4
- snags, traps and dilemmas 181
- social bonds 56
   maintenance of 61–4
- splitting 89, 92
   narrative coherence and 92–3
- story-telling 119–20
see also narrative approaches
- stuck in therapy 277, 278
- supervision 275
- supportive approach 177–8
- sympathy 65–6
- symptom relief 139–63, 165
   crucial role of meaning 162–3 future symptoms 148–62 dealing with emotions 155–8
   diaries and homework 149–55
   exacerbating factors 158–61 testing beliefs about treatment and self-treatment 161–2
- non-specific distress-relieving factors 141–8
   breathing control 146
   catharsis 141–3
   distancing 148
   distraction 146–7
   hope 145
   imagery 146
   normalization 145–6
   reassurance 145
   relaxation 146
   witnessing 143–4
see also psychotherapy; treatment
- termination of treatment 116–17, 284–6
- ternary model, of psycho-analysis 13–14
- therapeutic relationship 235
   boundary concerns 103
   falling in love with client 278–9
- breakdown of 108
- concerns about 23–4
- conflict 37–40
- power relations 46

- review of, in crisis management 272–3
- shame and 58
- therapists
  - concerns of 24–7
  - making demands on 279–81
  - requests for reports 281–2
  - palate of 261
  - responsibility of 24–6
  - for narrative 93–4
  - threats to 282
  - see also* therapeutic relationship
- therapy see psychotherapy; treatment
- third-party contracts see treatment contract
- time-limited therapy 189–91
- tragedy 141–2
- transference 240–50, 256, 257
  - alternative account of 250
  - counter-transference 27, 85
  - issues raised by 244–7
- treatment
  - addictions 212–14
  - adverse effects 108–9
  - client's treatment values 53–4
  - concerns about 21–3
  - difficulties with 267–70
  - see also* crises
  - duration of 102, 104–6
  - expectations of 106–10
  - termination 116–17, 284–6
  - see also* narrative approaches; specific types of treatment
- treatment contract 99–100
  - issues about contract with the client 103–17
  - assessment and treatment by different psychotherapists 104
  - consent 114–15
  - ethical framework 116
  - limits of treatment confidentiality 111–14
- record keeping 115
- research 116
- responsibility for treatment 111
- termination 116–17
- therapeutic relationship 103
- treatment duration 104–6
- therapy expectations 106–10
- treatment type 103–4
- issues in third-party contracts 101–2
  - collecting information of relevance to the organization 101
  - reporting on outcome to third party 102
  - treatment duration 102
- truthfulness 49–50
- unconditional positive regard 201–2
- unconscious 13–14, 76, 167–9, 250–2
  - attribution to 268
- undoing 161–2
- universal technique 193–205
  - interactions with other people 202–4
  - revealing what is hidden 195–7
  - speaking/thinking aloud 197–200
  - unconditional positive regard 201–2
- unspoken matters 234–8
- values 45–54
  - addiction and 212
  - authority and pathology 50–2
  - client's treatment values 53–4
  - congruence of 53
  - ethics 52–3
  - honesty and truthfulness 49–50
  - identity and 45–6
  - in long-term therapy 254–8
  - psychotherapy as helping profession 46–8
- witnessing 143–4