CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-0-521-51343-2 - Management Across Cultures: Challenges and Strategies
Richard M. Steers, Carlos J. Sanchez-Runde and Luciara Nardon
Index
More information

Index

accounting and finance practices, cultural differences 53–55 acculturation skills of global managers 38 Adler, Nancy 77, 165, 273
affirmations 216
aisatsu 318, 351
Amsden, Alice 87
analytic versus holistic thinking 98–100 Anglo cluster cultural trends 64–66
  organization and management trends 163–165
Anheuser-Busch-InBev 356–357
Arab cluster, cultural trends 64–66
Arab culture authority of elders 47
  consultation and consensus in decision making 47 foreign manager's preparation for 46–49 gender roles 47
  Hofstede's cultural model 48–49 patriarchal societies 47 role of the extended family 46–47 assessment and reasoning processes 94–96
assigned management agreement 347
asynchronous communication 227
automation 150

Barnard, Chester 126
Barnevik, Percy 1, 272, 409
Bavli, Talmud 45
beliefs and values
  cross-cultural conflicts 368–369, 371–373
  influence of culture 51
Bennis, Warren 241
Berkeley, George 90
BMW 151
body language 220
Branson, Richard 255–256
Brazil
  jeitinho concept 72
  negotiation patterns 339–341
bribery and corruption
  dilemmas for international business 363–367
  ethical conflicts and challenges 383–384
  OECD guidelines 386–389
Buchman, Nancy 353
bumiputra firms in Malaysia 110–112 business growth, evolutionary and strategic approaches 98–99 business success, consequences of ignoring global issues 1–2

Canadian firms, organization and management trends 163–165
Cannon-Brookes, Michael 85
categorization of information 92–93 categorization processes 98–100
causal attribution 94–96 and work motivation 297 cause and consequences, perceptions of 100–102 centralized decision making 140–143 centralized stakeholder model 130 chaebols (Korean firms), benefits of global partnerships 321–324 change, in the global business environment 12–17 change and stability, views on 99–100
Child, John 164
Chinese cultural patterns 175–178
  Confucianism 175–177
  guānxi (social connections) 177 importance of rank 178
  lian (face) 177–178
  mianzi (face) 177–178
  mien-tzu (face) 177–178
  renqing (personal obligations) 178 responsibility for group harmony 178
Chinese gong-si (companies) 142, 175–181
  Chinese cultural patterns 175–178
  East Hope Group (Shanghai) 155–156 family-run enterprises 179–181
  organization and management trends 179–181
Chung Ju Yung 408
Chung Mong Koo 86
CNN 35
codetermination 146, 182
co-located global teams 263–264, 272–273 cognitions and expectations, influence on work motivation 295–296 cognitive processes cognitive consistency 90–91 cognitive dissonance 90–91 cognitive evaluation 90–91 cultural variations in 88–91

© in this web service Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-0-521-51343-2 - Management Across Cultures: Challenges and Strategies
Richard M. Steers, Carlos J. Sanchez-Runde and Luciara Nardon
Index
More information

mental screens 88–89
perceptual selection 90–91
see also managerial thinking patterns collaborative decision making 140, 145–148
Columbus, Christopher 405–406
communication across cultures
appropriate behaviors 221–224
appropriate formalities 221
assumptions about mutual knowledge 226–227
asynchronous communication 227 challenges for "frequent flyer" managers 228–231 challenges for managers 232–238
cultural logic and shared meaning 208–210 developing learning skills 228–231 English as the lingua franca of global business 210–214 enhancing message clarity 233–235 enhancing message comprehension 235–237 influence of language on thinking 205–208 intercultural communications skills of global managers 38 interdependent learning 228–231
lack of contextual information 224–226
language and linguistic structures 205–208 learning the local language 207–208 lingua franca and message comprehension 210–214
message content 215–217
message context 217–221
minimizing communication breakdowns 237–238 perceptual filters 201–202 potential for misunderstandings 199–200 protocols within cultures 221–224 speed of communication 224
technology breakdowns 227
technology mediated communication 224–227 varying meanings and interpretations 199–200 virtual global teams 263–269
communication and culture (model) 202–204 communication protocols within cultures 221–224
appropriate behaviors 221–224
appropriate formalities 221 competitive negotiation 331–332
Confucianism 175–177
consultative decision making 140, 143–145
contextual information 224–226 see also message context contracts 334–337
cultural variations in meaning of 336–337 doctrine of changed circumstances 336–337
forum shopping 335
method for resolving disagreements 335 mutual trust 334–335
core cultural dimensions approach to power distribution 59 approach to social relationships and organization 61 approach to surrounding environment 61–62 approach to uncertainty and predictability 62–64 approach to work patterns and use of time 62 country clusters 64–66
culture theory jungle 55–57
five core dimensions 57–59 hierarchical/egalitarian dimension 59 individualist/collectivist dimension 61 integration of existing models 57–59 masculine/feminine cultural dimension 61–62
mastery-oriented/harmony-oriented cultural dimension 61–62 mechanism for comparing cultures 55 models of cultural dimensions 55–57
monochronic/polychronic cultural dimension 62 potential problems for managers 55–57
regional trends 64–66
rule-based/relationship-based cultural dimension 62–64
social control 62–64
universalistic/particularistic cultural dimension 62–64 corporate governance, cultural influences 9–10 corporate social responsibility 391–394
corruption
dilemmas for international business 363–367
ethical conflicts and challenges 383–384
Foreign Corrupt Practices Act (US) 364, 384–385 see also bribery and corruption cosmopolitan outlook of global managers 38 country clusters, cultural trends 64–66 cross-cultural communication strategies 214–215
cross-cultural conflicts 366–373
beliefs and values 368–369, 371–373
ethical versus legal imperatives 368–369, 370–371 tastes and preferences 368–369 Crozier, Michael 155
cultural adaptation
culture shock(s) 16
dealing with multiple cultures 16–17 developing global managers 16–17
traditional approach 16
cultural complexities and contradictions 66–75 cultural stability and change 69–71 cultures and subcultures 74–75 dualities perspective 69–75 explanatory and predictive powers 73–74 holistic and fragmented behavior 71–72 Muslim businesswomen 66–69
universal and idiosyncratic characteristics 72–73 cultural convergence versus divergence in globalization 8–10 cultural differences
negative impacts of 12–13
regional trends 64–66
cultural dimensions
core cultural dimensions 57–64
culture theory jungle 55–57
mechanism for comparing cultures 55 models 55–57
potential problems for managers 55–57
cultural friction 78–79
cultural intelligence see multicultural competence
cultural logic and shared meaning 208–210

© in this web service Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-0-521-51343-2 - Management Across Cultures: Challenges and Strategies
Richard M. Steers, Carlos J. Sanchez-Runde and Luciara Nardon
Index
More information

cultural pluralism versus plurality of cultures in globalization 10–11 cultural sensitivity of global managers 38 cultural stereotypes 76–77 cultural synergy skills of global managers 38 culture
  and normative behavior 50, 51, 52–55 and personality 51–52
  definitions 49–52
  how culture is learned 50 identifying what is universal and what is not 50–52 influence on beliefs and values 51 influence on socialization processes 51 preparing to visit a different culture (example) 46–49, 66–69 shared nature of culture 50–52 significance for managers 45–46
culture shock(s) 16
culture theory jungle 55–57
culture, values and world views 76–80 avoiding cultural stereotypes 76–77 influence on managerial behavior 76 learning skills for managers 79–80 preparing for the unexpected 79–80 seeing cultural differences in neutral terms 77–79

Das, Gucharan 126 decision making see organizational decision making delegated management agreement 347–348
digital nomads 30
distributed stakeholder model 130, 131–132
distributive justice concept 301–302
doctrine of changed circumstances 336–337
Drucker, Peter 324
dualities perspective
  cultural complexities and contradictions 69–75
  globalization 7–12

Earley, P. Christopher 298
East Hope Group 155
East/Southeast Asian cluster, cultural trends 64–66
"Eastern" and "Western" thinking compared 96–102
Eastern European cluster, cultural trends 64–66 economic and political interconnectedness 14–15
employee commitment to the organization 307–309
employee involvement 306–307
employee benefits 305–306
employment relations, OECD guidelines 390–391 England, George 286
English language
  as the lingua franca of global business 210–214 different versions of 210–214 enterprise unions (Japan) 174 environment, mastery-oriented/harmony-oriented cultural dimension 61–62 environmental stewardship 391–394
equity principle 295–296
Ertel, Danny 344–345
ethical conflicts, definition 373–374
ethical conflicts and challenges 374–384
  bribery 363–367, 383–384 conflicts within and between organizations 378 corruption 363–367, 383–384
  cultural perspectives on honesty 381–384 cultural perspectives on right and wrong 379–381 limited Western perspective 374–375 meaning of "universal" values 376–377 need for a global perspective 374–375 proper behavior towards others 381–384 pursuit of "truth" 378–384 relationship between principles and practice 377–378 understanding in a cross-cultural context 375–378 universalist versus particularist viewpoints 379–381 ethical leadership 372–373
ethical versus legal imperatives, cross-cultural conflicts 368–369, 370–371 ethics, laws, and social control (model) 373–374 evolutionary approach to business growth 98–99 exclusion versus inclusion in globalization 11 executive compensation 302–303
expatriate managers
  long-term assignments 29–32
  regional myopia 34
experiential learning cycle 40–41 extrinsic incentives and rewards 300, 301–306
  distributive justice concept 301–302
  employee benefits 305–306
  executive compensation 302–303
  financial incentives 301–302
  gender and compensation 303–305
  merit-based incentive systems 301–302
  pay-for-performance systems 301–302
  value conflicts 303–305

face
  kao (Japan) 72
  lian (China) 177–178
  mianzi (China) 177–178
  mien-tzu (China) 177–178
facial expressions 219
fast-food industry, cultural influences 9
Fayol, Henri 26
Fellini, Federico 199
filial piety 175
financial incentives 301–302
financial practices, cultural differences 53–55 five cardinal virtues 175 flexible management style of global managers 38 force field analysis 388–389
Foreign Corrupt Practices Act (US) 364, 384–385 foreign direct investment, magnitude of 15
forum shopping 335
France, management patterns 106–110 free rider effects at work 298–299
"frequent flyer" managers communication challenges 228–231
  global myopia 34
  short-term assignments 29–30, 32–33

© in this web service Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-0-521-51343-2 - Management Across Cultures: Challenges and Strategies
Richard M. Steers, Carlos J. Sanchez-Runde and Luciara Nardon
Index
More information

Friedman, Thomas 4
Fujisawa, Takeo 86, 293

Gandhi, Mahatma 406
Gautama, Siddhārtha 404, 408
Geertz, Clifford 50
gender and compensation 303–305
General Electric
  global partnership negotiations 350–352 negotiations with Mitsubishi Electric 318–321
General Motors, centralized decision making 141–142
George, Claude 26
German cultural patterns 181–182
German konzern (firms) 181–186
  German cultural patterns 181–182
  industrial democracy 182–184 Mittelstand firms 135–137
  organization and management trends 182–186 technical competence 184–186 technological complexity 151
Germanic cluster, cultural trends 64–66
Ghosn, Carlos 242–245, 258–259 global business environment economic and political interconnectedness 14–15 effects of continual change 12–17 from biculturalism to multiculturalism 15–17 from intermittent to continual change 13–14 from isolation to interconnectedness 14–15 impacts of technological developments 13–14 magnitude of foreign direct investment worldwide 15 negative impacts of cultural differences 12–13 global frame of reference for managers 2–3 global issues, influence on business success 1–2 global management myopia 34
  global myopia 34
  regional myopia 34
  technological myopia 34
global managerial skills development of skills 39–43 experiential learning 40–41
  learning strategies 42–43 multicultural competence 36–38
global managers
  categorization 29–30
  challenges in the global economy 17–22 definition of a global manager 28 demands on managers and companies 35–36
  digital nomads 30
  distinction from traditional managers 28
  expatriates 29–32
  "frequent flyers" 29–30, 32–33
  inpatriates 30
  preparations to visit a different culture (example) 46–49, 66–69 requirements for success 17–22 risk of short-sightedness 34
  telecommuters 30
  variety of 28
  virtual managers 29–30, 33–34
global mindset see multicultural competence global myopia, "frequent flyer" managers 34 global partnerships aligning corporate cultures 355–357 assigned management agreement 347
  benefits 321–324 building partnerships 342–346
  challenges for managers 350–360
  conflict management 357–360 criteria for selecting partners 342–343 culture-related challenges 324–328
  delegated management agreement 347–348
  international joint ventures 347–348 managing partnerships 346–349 managing the negotiation process 345–346
  mutual trust 348, 352–355
  negotiation process 330–337
  preparing for global negotiations 344–345 problems in negotiation across cultures 318–321 reasons for failed negotiations 350–352 reasons for lack of success 324–328 shared management agreement 346–347
  see also negotiation
global teams
  co-located teams 263–264, 272–273
  leadership 270–276
  location and composition of teams 262–269 organizational challenges 261–262 role of global team leaders 270–271 types of teams 261
  virtual teams 263–269, 273–276
globalization
  challenges facing companies 5–6 debate over merits or demerits 6–12 definition 3–4
  drivers 5–6
  dualities approach 7–12
  historical development 4–5 influence on management patterns 115–117 phases of development 4–5 globalization dualities 7–12 cultural convergence versus cultural divergence 8–10 inclusion versus exclusion 11 plurality of cultures versus cultural pluralism 10–11 GLOBE project 253–256
  ethical leadership 372–373
  model of cultural dimensions 55–57 gong-si see Chinese gong-si
Google
  developing global managers 24–25
  learning strategies for their managers 43 Graham, John 338
grupo see Mexican grupo Grupo Carso, organizational structure 189–190, 192 guānxi (reciprocal exchange/social relationships) 135, 142, 177, 334, 335

© in this web service Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-0-521-51343-2 - Management Across Cultures: Challenges and Strategies
Richard M. Steers, Carlos J. Sanchez-Runde and Luciara Nardon
Index
More information

Håkansson, Anna, preparing to visit another culture (example) 46–49, 66–69
Hall, Edward T. 55–57, 107, 109, 181, 217, 411, 413
Halliburton, operations in Nigeria 363–364
Hampden-Turner, Charles 103
Handy, Charles 342
Henderson, Frederick 141
Herodotus 377
Hewlett-Packard 355
hierarchical/egalitarian cultural dimension 59 high-context cultures 218–219
Hoffer, Eric 24
Hofstede, Geert 126
  model of Arab culture 48–49
  model of cultural dimensions 55–57, 61, 411, 413
holistic versus analytic thinking 98–100 honesty, cultural perspectives on 381–384 honne 144, 219, 378
House, Robert J. 45, 116, 411, 415–417
Hyundai Motor Company 86–88, 132–133, 322–323

imperial CEO 162, 302
InBev 356–357
inclusion versus exclusion in globalization 11 independent self concept 100–102 Indian-English communications 212–214 individualist/collectivist cultural dimension 61
industrial democracy 184
information acquisition, retention, and recall 92
information processing 118–119
inpatriates 30
institutional conflicts, definition 373–374 institutional conflicts and challenges 384–394
  bribery and corruption 386–389
  corporate social responsibility 391–394
  environmental stewardship 391–394
  employment relations 390–391
  force field analysis 388–389
  Foreign Corrupt Practices Act (US) 364, 384–385
  OECD guidelines 385–394
  underground economies 387–388 institutional environment and strategic choice 132–134 Intel Corporation 35, 127–128, 355
interdependent learning 228–231 interdependent self concept 100–102
international joint ventures 347–348
intrinsic incentives and rewards 300, 306–309
  employee commitment to the organization 307–309
  employee involvement 306–307
  job satisfaction 307–309
  psychological contract 307–309
  work-related attitudes 307–309
Ishikawa, Junya 116
Islamic banking and finance practices 53–54
Islamic law 53
Iyengar, Adhira 32

Jackson, Susan 352
Japan
  approach to marketing 94–96
  cultural patterns 166–167
  kao (face) 72
  negotiation patterns 337–338, 340–341
Japanese kaisha (companies) 165–174
  consultative decision making 143–145
  enterprise unions 174
  human resource management systems 173–174
  influences on organizational strategy 133–134
  Japanese cultural patterns 166–167
  organization and management trends 167–174
  process simplification 150–151 quality circles 174
Japanese keiretsu (business groups) 134
  Japanese cultural patterns 166–167
  keiretsu designs and operations 167–173, 243
  organization and management trends 167–173
job satisfaction 307–309
Jullien, François 248–251

Kagayama, Atsushi 241
kaisha see Japanese kaisha
kaizen 174
kanban (just-in-time) inventory system 172
kao (face) 72
keiretsu see Japanese keiretsu
Khayyám, Omar 404, 408
Kia Motors America 86–88
Kiggundu, Moses 114
Kirin Holdings Company (member of Mitsubishi keiretsu) 170–171 Kluckholn, Clyde 50, 413–414 konzern see German konzern Korean chaebols (firms), benefits of global partnerships 321–324

language and linguistic structures 205–208
  influence on thinking 205–208
Lao Tzu 248
Latin American cluster, cultural trends 64–66
Latin European cluster, cultural trends 64–66
Latino culture, orgullo concept 72 Laurent, Andre 102
leadership
  and management 245–246
  ethical leadership 372–373
  of global teams 270–276 leadership and culture ancient Chinese traditions 248–251 ancient Greek traditions 248–251 characteristics of effective leaders 246–248 cultural contingency of leadership styles 253–256 differing definitions across cultures 246–248 European cultural ideals 251–253 foundations of Eastern and Western views 248–251

© in this web service Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-0-521-51343-2 - Management Across Cultures: Challenges and Strategies
Richard M. Steers, Carlos J. Sanchez-Runde and Luciara Nardon
Index
More information

GLOBE study 253–256
leading across cultures 258–260 model 256–260
learning, influence of culture on 93–94 learning from the past 404–407
Columbus, Christopher 405–406
Gandhi, Mahatma 406
Gautama, Siddhārtha 404, 408
Khayyám, Omar 404, 408
recent global economic turmoil 406–407
Santayana, George 405
learning model 39–43
experiential learning 40–41
strategies for global managers 42–43
learning skills for managers facing cultural complexities 79–80 preparing for the future 407–409 recognising emerging opportunities 407–409 legal conflicts see institutional conflicts and challenges Lewis, Richard D. 199, 378
LG electronics, expatriate managers 30–31
lian (face) 177–178
Lincoln Electric Company 280–284
lingua franca and message comprehension 210–214 linguistic structures 205 logic of application 250 logic of exploitation 250
Lou, Yadong 352
low-context cultures 218

Machailova, Snejina 279
Malaysia, management patterns 110–112 management
and leadership 245–246
geographical bias of studies 28 traditional views 26–28 management board (Germany) 182
management patterns
comparison across cultures 106–115 France 106–110
influence of globalization 115–117
Malaysia 110–112
Nigeria 112–115
question of convergence across cultures 115–117 management styles, cultural differences 85–88 Manager's notebook
communication across cultures 232–238
culture, values, and world views 76–80 developing global management skills 39–43
global teams 270–276
inside the managerial mind 118–121 inside the organizational mind 149–153
leadership 270–276
learning model 39–43
managing in an imperfect world 395–400 negotiation and global partnerships 350–360 organizing frameworks 193–195
work and motivation 310–313 managerial actions
cultural differences 85–88
ethical and moral constraints 397–398 influence of culture and cognition 88–91 legal and institutional constraints 399–400 translating thought into action 88–91, 119–120 managerial ethics 395–400 see also institutional conflicts and challenges managerial mind 118–121 actual versus idealized managerial roles 120–121
information processing 118–119
translating thought into action 88–91, 119–120
managerial roles
actual versus idealized roles 102–106, 120–121 culture-related expectations about 102–106 influence of cultural differences 102–106 managerial thinking patterns 91–96 approaches to business growth 98–99
assessment and reasoning processes 94–96 attributions of causality 94–96
categorization of information 92–93
categorization processes 98–100 concept of self 93
different philosophical traditions 99
"Eastern" and "Western" thinking compared 96–102
holistic versus analytic thinking 98–100 improving understanding between groups 96–102 independent or interdependent self concept 100–102 inferring mental states 94
information acquisition, retention, and recall 92
learning 93–94
network maps 98–100
norm of authenticity 94
perceptions of cause and consequences 100–102 self concepts 100–102
views on stability and change 99–100 Mangaliso, Mzamo P. 85
maquiladora 285
masculine/feminine cultural dimension 61–62
mastery-oriented/harmony-oriented cultural dimension 61–62
Matsushita, Konosuke 256
McDonalds, local cultural influences 9 meister 185
Mencius 251
mental screens that separate people 88–89 mental states, inferring 94
merit-based incentive systems 301–302
message content 215–217
affirmations 216
appropriate topics for discussion 215–216 openness to express opinions 216–217 rejections 216

© in this web service Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-0-521-51343-2 - Management Across Cultures: Challenges and Strategies
Richard M. Steers, Carlos J. Sanchez-Runde and Luciara Nardon
Index
More information

message context 217–221
  body language 220
  facial expressions 219
  high-context cultures 218–219
  low-context cultures 218
  non-verbal communication 217–221
  personal space 219–220
  secret communication 220–221
Mexican cultural patterns 187–188
Mexican grupo (business group) 186–192
  Mexican cultural patterns 187–188
  organization and management trends 189–192
mianzi (face) 177–178
mien-tzu (face) 177–178
Mintzberg, Henry 27, 105–106
Mitsubishi Electric
  global partnership negotiations 350–352 negotiations with General Electric 318–321 Mittelstand firms (small to medium-sized firms), Germany 135–137 models of cultural dimensions 55–57
monochronic/polychronic cultural dimension 62
mordida 189, 396
Morison, Patricia 155
Morita, Akio 279
motivation see work motivation
multicultural competence 3 components of 36–38
  cosmopolitan outlook 38
  cultural sensitivity 38 cultural synergy 38
  flexible management style 38 intercultural communications skills 38 rapid acculturation skills 38 multicultural teams see global teams multiculturalism 15–17
Munsterberg, Hugo 26
Muslim businesswomen 66–69

namaste 199
Nasrudin, Mullah 24
negotiation influence of normative beliefs 328–330 problems with negotiation across cultures 318–321 see also global partnerships negotiation and culture (model) 328–330 negotiation patterns across cultures 337–342
  Brazilian negotiators 339–341
  Japanese negotiators 337–338, 340–341 reciprocal processes 341–342 situational influences 341 US negotiators 341
negotiation process 330–337
  bargaining and concessions 333–334 competitive bargaining approach 331–332
  contracts 334–337
  establishing personal relationships 330–331 final agreements and contracts 334–337 getting to know prospective partners 330–331 information exchange and initial offers 332–333 problem-solving approach 331–332 strategies for negotiation 331–332 nemawashi 143
nenpo system 173
network maps 98–100
Nicholson, Nigel 163
Nigeria
  bribery and corruption 363–364
  management patterns 112–115
Nike 35
Nisbett, Richard 96
Nissan 242–245
non-verbal communication 217–221
Nordic cluster, cultural trends 64–66
norm of authenticity 94
normative behavior, and culture 50, 51, 52–55 normative decision model 139–148
Norris, William 363, 367
Nydell, Margaret Omar 317

OECD guidelines, institutional conflicts and challenges 385–394, 421–429 operational strategies
  automation 150
  cultural influences 150–151
  process simplification 150–151
  technological complexity 151 opinions, openness to express 216–217 organization, definition 126 organizational decision making centralized decision making 140–143
  collaborative decision making 140, 145–148
  consultative decision making 140, 143–145 decision strategies across cultures 139–148 employee involvement issues 152–153
  normative decision model 139–148 organizational decision making (model) 137–139 analytical framework 138–139
  challenges for managers 138
  definition of employee participation 138 extent of employee participation 137–138 organizational mind concept 149 organizational strategy 126, 128 influence of the institutional environment 132–134 influences on Japanese firms 133–134 influences on US firms 133–134
  Intel Corporation 127–128
  stakeholder power and influence 130–132
  strategic management cycle 129 strategy-structure nexus 134–137
  structural determinism 135–137 ways of understanding 149–150
  Wipro Technologies 127
organizational structure, ways of understanding 149–150

© in this web service Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-0-521-51343-2 - Management Across Cultures: Challenges and Strategies
Richard M. Steers, Carlos J. Sanchez-Runde and Luciara Nardon
Index
More information

organizing frameworks
  Chinese gong-si (companies) 175–181
  country comparisons 157–192
  East Hope Group (Shanghai) 155–156
  family businesses 155–157
  German konzern (firms) 181–186 influences on organization design 157–159 Japanese kaisha (companies) and keiretsu (business groups) 165–174 managerial challenges 193–195
  Mexican grupo (business group) 186–192
  Sugar Bowl Bakery 156–157
  US corporations 159–165
Ouchi, William 39

Paik, Yongsun 285
Pak, Yong Suhk 285
Parker Follett, Mary 26
Pascal, Blaise 363, 367
pay-for-performance systems 301–302
perceptual selection 90–91
personal space 219–220
personal work values across cultures 284–289 personality, and culture 51–52 philosophical traditions, influence on managerial thinking 99 plurality of cultures versus cultural pluralism in globalization 10–11 pok chow (Chinese gang contracting) 112 Political Corruption Index 387 power distribution in different cultures 59 predictability, different cultural views of 62–64 Premji, Azim H. 241
problem-solving negotiation 331–332 process simplification, operational strategy 150–151 productivity 292
psychological contract, and work motivation 289, 307–309 psychology of work 295–299 attitudes to risk and uncertainty 297–298
  equity principle 295–296
  free rider effects 298–299
  role of self-efficacy 295
  social loafing and team performance 298–299
  variation in cognitions and expectations 295–296 variations in causal attributions 297 public policy conflicts see institutional conflicts and challenges quality circles (Japan) 174 Qur'an 94

recency effects 201
regional myopia, expatriate managers 34 regional trends and cultural differences 64–66 rejection 216
renqing (personal obligations) 178
rewards see work incentives and rewards ringi-seido 143
ringi-sho 144
risk and uncertainty at work, attitudes to 297–298
Ronan, Simcha 64
Ruiz Gonzalez, Carlos 189
rule-based/relationship-based cultural dimension 62–64

Samsung Electronics, strategic partnerships 323, 391
Santayana, George 405
Sapir, Edward 206
Schneider, Susan 116
Schuler, Randall 352
Schwartz, Shalom 411, 414
secret communication 220–221 selective perception 201 self concept 93, 100–102 self-efficacy and work motivation 295 self-serving bias 297 shared knowledge, assumptions about 226–227
shared management agreement 346–347 shared meaning and cultural logic 208–210 sharia 53, 370, 374
Shenkar, Oded 64, 78
shinyo 337
shunto, wage negotiations 174
shura 47
Slim Helú, Carlos 192
social control, differences across cultures 62–64 social loafing and work team performance 298–299 social relationships and organization across cultures 61 socialization processes, influence of culture 51 Sony Corporation 259–260 speed of technology-mediated communication 224 stability and change, views on 99–100 stakeholder models 130
stakeholder power and influence 130–132 stakeholders, influence on strategy and structure 149–150 stakeholders and strategic choice (model) 128 strategic approach to business growth 98–99
strategic management cycle 129 strategy see organizational strategy strategy-structure nexus 134–137
Stewart, Thomas A. 1, 409
Stringer, Howard 259–260
structural determinism 135–137
Sub-Saharan African cluster, cultural trends 64–66 subcultures, cultural complexity 74–75
Sun Tzu 250
supervisory board (Germany) 182
Sweden, Hofstede's cultural model 48–49
Swidler, Ann 50

Taher, Nahed 66–69
tastes and preferences, cross-cultural conflicts 368–369 Tata Motors 393–394
tatemae 144, 219, 378
Taylor, Frederick 26

© in this web service Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-0-521-51343-2 - Management Across Cultures: Challenges and Strategies
Richard M. Steers, Carlos J. Sanchez-Runde and Luciara Nardon
Index
More information

technik 185
technological complexity, operational strategy 151 technological developments, global impacts 13–14 technological myopia, virtual managers 34 technology, influences on operational strategies 150–151 technology-mediated assignments, virtual managers 29–30, 33–34
technology-mediated communication 224–227
  assumptions about mutual knowledge 226–227
  asynchronous communication 227
  lack of contextual information 224–226
  speed of communication 224
  technology breakdowns 227
  virtual global teams 263–269
telecommuters 30
Thurow, Lester 2
time use and work patterns, differences across cultures 62
Tintin character, European appeal 251–253 Toshiba, consultative decision making 144–145 total quality management (TQM), cultural influences on implementation 151–152
Toyota, process simplification 150–151
Toyota Production System 127
Trompenaars, Fons 50, 55–57, 103, 411, 413 trust, in global partnerships 334–335, 348, 352–355
"truth", pursuit of 378–384

UK firms, organization and management trends 163–165
US corporations
  comparison with Canada and the UK 163–165 influences on organizational strategy 133–134
  organization and management trends 162–163
  organizing frameworks 159–165
  use of automation 150
US cultural patterns 159–161
US negotiation patterns 341 uncertainty, different cultural views of 62–64 underground economy 387
universalistic/particularistic cultural dimension 62–64
Ustinov, Peter 378

vacation time, national differences 290–291 value conflicts, incentives and rewards 303–305 values and beliefs
  cross-cultural conflicts 368–369, 371–373
  culture, values, and world views 76–80
  influence of culture 51
Velux America 262
virtual global teams 263–264
  challenges associated with 264–269 impacts of cultural diversity 267–268
  lack of contextual information 267–268 lack of mutual knowledge 266–267 lack of shared understanding 269 loss of details 268–269 over-dependence on technology 268 working with 273–276
virtual managers
  technological myopia 34
  technology-mediated assignments 29–30, 33–34 Volkswagen AG
  collaborative decision making 146–148
  stakeholder influence 131–132
  technological complexity 151
Vroom, Victor 139

Wagoner, Rick 141
Weber, Max 26–27
Welch, Jack 318
"Western" and "Eastern" thinking compared 96–102
Whorf, Benjamin 206
Wipro Technologies 127
work incentives and rewards 299–309 distributive justice concept 301–302
  employee benefits 305–306
  executive compensation 302–303
  extrinsic rewards 300, 301–306
  financial incentives 301–302
  gender and compensation 303–305
  intrinsic rewards 300, 306–309
  merit-based incentive systems 301–302
  pay-for-performance systems 301–302
  performance consequences 299–300
  reward preferences 300–301
  value conflicts 303–305
work motivation
  attitudes to risk and uncertainty 297–298 challenges for global managers 292–295 changes in personal work values 288–289 culture and the psychology of work 295–299
  definition 293
  equity principle 295–296
  extrinsic rewards 300, 301–306
  free rider effects 298–299
  incentives and rewards 299–309 individual and group-centered action 311 intrinsic rewards 300, 306–309 managerial approaches 310–313 model for culture and work motivation 292–295 motivational strategies in different cultures 279–284 performance consequences 299–300
  personal work values across cultures 284–289
  productivity 292
  psychological contract 289
  relationship with the cultural environment 311–312
  reward preferences 300–301
  role of hierarchy 311
  role of self-efficacy 295
  role of work in employees' lives 290–291, 292
  social control 312
  social loafing and team performance 298–299
  time and work patterns 312

© in this web service Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-0-521-51343-2 - Management Across Cultures: Challenges and Strategies
Richard M. Steers, Carlos J. Sanchez-Runde and Luciara Nardon
Index
More information

uncertainty and predictability 312 vacation time 290–291 variation in causal attributions 297
variation in cognitions and expectations 295–296
working hours 290–291
work motivation theory 292–295 work patterns and use of time, differences across cultures 62
work-related attitudes 307–309
working hours 290–291

Yetton, Phillip 139

© in this web service Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org