

Index

- abiotic factors, 23
- Adaptive Cycles, 12, 72–4
- afforestation, 58–9
- aggregated models, 30–2
- Akaike's Information Criterion (AIC), 27
- alien species, 127–9
- artefact effects, 121
- ascendancy, 9, 48, 53–4, 75–7

- balance see equilibrium
- Bali Roadmap policy, 58–60
- benefit identification, 116–17
- biodiversity, 110–19, 141–4
- biological monitoring, 71
- biological processes, 3
- biotic factors, 23
- Boltzmann constant, 44–5
- Bovine Spongiform Encephalopathy (BSE), 103
- box models, 152
- box-and-flow diagrams, 9
- breakpoints, 147–9
- BSE see Bovine Spongiform Encephalopathy
- buffering effects, 129, 130

- calicivirus pathogens, 151–2
- capital, 81–4, 85
- carbon systems
 - thermodynamic approaches, 57–8
- carbon systems, 50–3
- career development, 15
- CBD see Convention on Biological Diversity
- chaotic dynamics, 148
- chi-square tests, 26
- citizen–science relations see social science
- classical thermodynamics, 43–4
- climax states, 41
- closed systems, 43
- cod case studies, 147
- Combined Law of Thermodynamics, 44
- common pool services, 119
- community ecology, 19–21
- community matrices, 29
- community-level models, 20, 22–3
- competition models, 21–2
- complementarity, 122–4
- complex systems
 - community-level models, 23
 - ecosystem-level models, 23–5
 - environmental management, 148
 - holistic frameworks, 4–5
 - isolated models, 32–3
 - scaling processes, 28
 - state variable aggregation, 31
- complexity relationships
 - ecosystem health, 66
 - community-level models, 22–3
- compliance indicators, 67
- computational power, 23–4
- computationally intensive methods, 27–8
- conservation phases, 12, 72
- contextualisation, 99–102
- Convention on Biological Diversity (CBD), 102, 112
- coral reefs, 147
- cultural barriers
 - inclusive approaches, 15
- cultural services, 113

- data-free model evaluations, 25
- demographically equivalent species
 - parameter aggregation, 32
- deterministic models, 21 see also population-level models
- diagnostic indicators, 67
- differential equations
 - population-level models, 21–2
- direct measurement methods, 66–70
- disease, 66
- diversity see biodiversity
- DNA
 - thermodynamic approaches, 41

- early warning indicators, 67
- ecological capital, 83–4, 85
- ecological indicators, 66–70
- Ecological Law of Thermodynamics (ELT), 49, 54–5
- ecological network analysis
 - systems analysis approaches, 9
- ecological sprawl,
 - International biological programme, 7
- Ecopath software packages, 75
- Ecosystem Approach, 111–12, 119–20, 149–55

- ecosystem health, 65–78
ecosystem service beneficiaries (ESBs), 131 ecosystem service providers (ESPs), 131 ecosystem services, 110–19
ecosystem-level models, 20, 23–25
eddy covariance techniques, 50
effect traits, 125
ELT see Ecological Law of Thermodynamics Elton, C., 4–5
emergent pattern debates, 3 emergy
 environmental management, 154–5
 systems analysis approaches, 9
end-point system
 resilience thinking, 11
energy flow diagrams
 systems analysis approaches, 9
energy fluxes
 systems analysis approaches, 10
energy-based approaches, 154–5 see also emergy engagement processes, 103–4 entropy see thermodynamic approaches environmental capital, 84, 85
environmental management, 140–50
 Ecosystem Approach, 112
 resilience thinking, 12
equilibrium, 146–9
 ecosystem health, 66
 statistical thermodynamics, 44
 thermodynamic approaches, 40–1
equilibrium approaches, 28–30
ERSEM see European Regional Seas Ecosystem Model
ESBs see ecosystem service beneficiaries
ESPs see ecosystem service providers
European Regional Seas Ecosystem Model (ERSEM), 24
 model evaluations, 27
eutrophication
 ecosystem health, 76–8, 84
evolution of ecosystem ecology, 1–16
evolutionary processes
 model evaluations, 26
excludable services, 118
exergy
 ecosystem health, 75–6
 thermodynamic approaches, 43, 56
exotic species see alien species exploitation phases, 72
 resilience thinking, 12
Fenton, A., 19–21
final services, 118
First Law of Thermodynamics, 43–4 fisheries see marine ecosystems forest ecosystems thermodynamic approaches, 40–59 see also terrestrial ecosystems
Fourth Law of Thermodynamics, 49, 54
Frid, Christopher L. J., 1–16, 140–50
functional groups/traits, 124–7
 ecosystem-level models, 24
 state variable aggregation, 30–1
Gibbs free energy, 44
global forest management, 57–60
grassland communities linearised approaches, 29 see also terrestrial ecosystems
guilds, 30 see also functional groups
Haines-Young, Roy, 110–19
health indices (HIs), 66
HEHI, see Holistic Ecosystem Health Indicator Heuristic devices
 ecosystem-level models, 24
 ecosystem concept origins, 3
 systems analysis approaches, 10
HIs, see health indices holistic approaches
 complex systems, 4–5
 Ecosystem Approach, 112
 ecosystem concept origins, 2, 4
 inclusive approaches, 14
 interdisciplinarity, 101–2
 service typologies, 119–20
 systems analysis approaches, 9–10, 11
 Tangled Bank theory, 145–6
 thermodynamic approaches, 41, 55–7
 see also super organism debates
Holistic Ecosystem Health Indicator (HEHI) approaches, 79–80
homeostasis, 66
Human Adaptability
 International biological programme, 6
human capital, 84, 85
human well-being, 110–19
hypothesised interactions, 29
hysteresis, 148
IBP see International biological programme
inclusive approaches, 12–15
indicators, 66–70, 71–2, 79–85
indices, 66–70, 71–2
information theory, 45–7, 55–7
Insurance Hypothesis, 144
insurance values, 122, 129–30
interdisciplinarity, 94–109, 97–8
 inclusive approaches, 14–15
 indicators, 79–85
 International biological programme, 7
intermediate products, 122
intermediate services, 118
International biological programme (IBP), 5–8
international programmes
 inclusive approaches, 15
irreplaceable species see key species
isolated models
 complex communities, 32–3
Jones, Kevin Edson, 94–109
key species, 144
keystone species, 127
Kyoto Protocol, 57–60

- language
 - systems analysis approaches, 10
- large-scale experiments, 150–2
- likelihoods
 - parameter aggregation, 32
 - state variable aggregation, 31
 - statistical evaluations, 27–8
- limits to growth, 146–7
- Lindeman, R. L., 4–5
- linearised approaches, 28–30
- local proximal services, 118
- Lotka–Volterra models
 - parameter aggregation, 31
 - population-level models, 21–2
- MA see Millennium Ecosystem Assessment
- mad cow disease see Bovine Spongiform Encephalopathy
- mainstream ecology, 19–21
- Malawi Principles, 150
- ‘Manuals For’ handbooks, 6
- marine ecosystems
 - ecosystem concept origins, 3
 - ecosystem health, 75
 - ecosystem-level models, 24
 - interdisciplinarity, 101–2, 104–5
 - isolated models, 33
 - productivity, 124
 - systems analysis approaches, 10
- Markov models, 30
- mass-balance approaches, 72, 74–8
- mass-based physical concepts
 - thermodynamic approaches, 43
- mathematical models
 - population-level models, 21
- matter fluxes
 - systems analysis approaches, 10
- MEA see Millennium Ecosystem Assessment
- MEHTA see Monitoring Ecosystem Health by Trends Analysis
- microbial loops
 - ecosystem-level models, 24
- Millennium Ecosystem Assessment (MEA), 102, 111, 112–15, 142
- model evaluations, 25
 - methods, 25–7
 - statistical evaluations, 27–8
- model-based health assessments, 71–2
- molecular evolution
 - model evaluations, 26
- Monitoring Ecosystem Health by Trends Analysis (MEHTA), 80–5
- mosaic indicators, 70
- MSVPA see multispecies virtual population analysis
- multi-disciplinarity, 97–8
- multimetric indices, 70–1
- multi-species systems, 147
 - thermodynamic approaches, 45
- multispecies virtual population analysis (MSVPA), 32
- multivariate approaches, 30, 70–1
- national programmes
 - inclusive approaches, 15
- native species, 120, 127–9
- natural ecosystems
 - ecosystem concept origins, 2
- net ecosystem productivity (NEP), 50
- non-linear models, 21 see also population-level models
 - non-symmetrical trajectories, 147–8
- nutrient cycling, 125
 - linearised approaches, 29
- open access services, 119
- open systems, 42
- parameter aggregation, 31–2
- parameterisation
 - ecosystem-level models, 24
 - linearised approaches, 29
 - model evaluations, 26
- Paramor, Odette A.L., 94–109
- path analysis approaches, 29
- path information entropy, 45
- perturbations, 144
 - ecosystem health, 74
 - linearised approaches, 29, 30
- photosynthesis
 - thermodynamic approaches, 43 see also carbon systems
- physical-chemical processes
 - ecosystem concept origins, 3
- pollinators, 126–7
- population ecology, 19–21
- population-level models, 20, 21–2
 - scaling processes, 28
 - single-species analyses, 33
- Potschin, Marion, 110–19
- poverty, 111
- predator–prey models
 - community-level models, 23
 - isolated models, 32
 - population-level models, 21–2
- predictions see also likelihoods
 - ecosystem-level models, 24
 - isolated models, 33
 - linearised approaches, 29, 30
 - model evaluations, 27
 - state variable aggregation, 31
- productivity, 122–4
- provisioning services, 113
- public-science relations see social sciences
- Raffaelli, David G., 1–16, 65–78, 140–50
- reductionist views see also emergent pattern debates
 - systems analysis approaches, 10, 11
- redundancy, 130
- re-engagement strategies, 104–5
- reforestation, 58
 - alien species, 128
- regulatory services, 113
- relative entropy, 46

162 INDEX

- release phases, 72
- resilience thinking, 12
- Renwick, Anna R., 65–78
- re-organisation phases, 72
 - resilience thinking, 12
- resilience, 11–12, 144 see also stability
 - ecosystem health, 66, 72–4
- resource species
 - isolated models, 33
- response traits, 125
- restoration, 100–1 see also reforestation
- risk assessment
 - interdisciplinarity, 103
- rival services, 118
- robustness
 - interdisciplinarity, 94–109 see also resilience; stability
- sampling effects, 121
- saturation effects, 120–1
- scaling processes, 28
- second law of thermodynamics, 44
- SED see Strategy of Ecosystem Development
- semi-abstract models
 - ecosystem concept origins, 3
 - service providing units (SPUs), 131
- services benefit themes, 118
 - cascades, 115–17
 - environmental management, 150, 152–4
 - output, 120–2
- SEs see social–ecological systems
- Shannon Entropy, 46
- simple systems
 - community-level models, 23
 - ecosystem-level models, 23–5
 - state variable aggregation, 31
- single species systems
 - thermodynamic approaches, 45
- single species analyses, 33
- slow threshold variables
 - resilience thinking, 11–12
- Smart, James C. R., 65–78
- social capital, 84, 85
- social robustness, 94–109
- social sciences
 - biodiversity, 130–1
 - ecosystem concept origins, 4
 - inclusive approaches, 12–14
 - interdisciplinarity, 98–9, 100–5 see also human adaptability
- social–ecological systems (SEs), 130–1
- soil ecosystems, 123–4
 - functional groups/traits, 125–6
 - systems analysis approaches, 10
- spatial characteristic-based service classification, 118
- species complementarity, 122–4
- SPUs see service providing units
- stability
 - community-level models, 22
 - ecosystem health, 66
 - insurance values, 129–30
- stable states, 147–9
- stakeholders, 104–5
- state variable aggregation, 30–1
- state-space models, 27–8
- statistical evaluations, 27–8
- statistical thermodynamics, 44–5, 55–7
- stochastic models, 55
 - thermodynamic approaches, 52–3
- Stoy, Paul C., 40–59
- Strategy of Ecosystem Development (SED), 41–2, 47, 49–53, 58–9
- successional processes
 - resilience thinking, 11
- super organism debates, 3
- supporting services, 113, 122
- surrogate indicators, 67
- sustainability, 70, 141–4, 146–9
 - systems-analysis approaches, 8
- system throughput
 - ecosystem health, 76–8
- system-level metrics, 71, 74–8
- systems sciences, 8–11, 42–3
- systems-based approaches
 - environmental management, 154–5
- Tangled Bank theory, 144–6
- Taylor series, 28
- terrestrial ecosystems
 - ecosystem concept origins, 3
 - productivity, 123
 - thermodynamic approaches, 40–59
- systems-analysis approaches, 10
- thresholds
 - resilience thinking, 11
- tipping-points see breakpoints
- trade-off systems, 150
- trans-disciplinarity, 97–8
- transition matrices, 30
- trophic loop approaches, 29
- trophic types
 - holistic frameworks, 5
- tropical ecosystems, 79–80
- typologies, 112–15, 117–20
- unified approaches, 3
- vigour, 66
- well-being, 110–19
- whaling, 145–6
- White, Piran C. L., 65–78
- whole-system metrics, 78