

Index

- abortion
 - in externalist dilemma, 121
 - normative rights used on both sides of debate regarding, 6
 - respect for nonpersons, 69–71
- African Americans. See race and rights, slavery
- agency
 - as means of identifying rightholders, 100–1
 - will theory of property endowing natural rights, 50
- Allen, Anita L., 109, 132, 133, 141
- animal rights
 - proliferation of rightholding to include nonhuman animals, 4–7, 15, 42–3, 52–5
 - property-selecting process determined by pretheoretical moral beliefs regarding, 47
 - rationality/sentience as grounds for, 54
 - respect for nonpersons, 69–71
 - well-being or interests of animals apart from possession of rights, 48–9
- apartheid
 - legal vs. nonlegal rights under, 5
 - South African Constitution, socioeconomic rights to counter effects of, 135–8
- Baier, Kurt, ix
- basic rights (possessed prior to and independent of human agency). See rights internalism
- bell curve study, 128
- benefits to well-being or interests from possession of rights. See interest theory of rights
- Bentham, Jeremy, and Benthamites
 - divine agency as source of natural rights, critique of, 38
 - on legal vs. nonlegal rights, 16, 83
 - as liberal, 27
 - natural rights theory rejected by, 18, 32, 83
 - rights externalism distinguished from position of, 20, 83, 159
 - on slavery, 143
- Berlin, Isaiah, 27
- Bill of Rights, South African, 135
- biological racism, 126, 128–9
- blacks. See race and rights, slavery
- Blumenbach, Johann Friedrich, 128
- Bosanquet, Bernard, 26
- Bosnia, Serbian atrocities in, 11, 14
- British Hegelians, 31
- British Idealists, 29–37
- The Brothers Karamazov* (Dostoevsky), 11
- Burke, Edmund, 32, 36
- Bush, George W., 171
- Camp, Joseph, x
- capacities or powers, moral
 - Green on, 160–1
 - Rawls on, 163–4
- Catholic priests, child sexual abuse by, 12
- changing social conditions, struggle for. See critical rights assertions
- character defect, race as indicative of, 129
- chattel slavery. See slavery
- child sexual abuse by priests, 12
- civil rights. See legal rights, race and rights
- claim element in Green's account of moral rights, 151, 153
- claim-right, concept of, 56–7. See also morally valid claims approach
- classical liberalism, 27–9
- cognitivism, 90
- common good and fairness, pursuit of, 162–3
- communitarian and social values of new liberalism, 28, 29–37
- communitarianism, 36
- complaining about wrongs, justification for, 62–8
- consciousness as ideological, 75–9
- consequentialism
 - moral justification and, 89
 - socioeconomic rights and, 131
- conservatism, 36

- Constitution of South Africa, recognition of positive rights in, 135–8 Constitution, US, 136, 138
 contractarianism, 148
 Cooper, Anna Julia, 24
 critical rights assertions distinguished from noncritical, 94–5 dual use of natural rights theory to attack
 and defend slavery and race issues, 8, 21, 22–4, 112–17, 125–6
 legitimation critique of rights, 75–9
 ontological account, advantages of, 105–6
 rights externalism
 allowing for critique, 79, 80, 85, 106–8
 semantic interpretation of critiques (“there ought to be a right”), 92–8 rights internalism, problem of, 79 slavery, possibility of moral arguments from externalist position against, 145–51
- Declaration of Independence, US in Dred Scott decision, 23
 humanity, argument from, 113, 114, 117
 Missouri compromise and, 22–3
 as normative resource, 111 problems with rights internalism, 38
- Delany, Martin R., 24
 Dewey, John, 172
 dignity of persons, arguments based on, 135, 138, 148
 distinction between nominal and real rights, 176–7
 distinction between presocially and postsocially exercisable rights, 174–6
 divine agency, rights acquired by, 38–9, 147–8, 149, 150, 171
 Dostoevsky, Fyodor, The Brothers Karamazov, 11
 Douglass, Frederick, 11, 12, 14, 24, 111, 113, 114, 126, 131, 133, 168
Dred Scott decision, 23, 109, 113
 Du Bois, W. E. B., 24
 Dworkin, Ronald, 18
- egalitarian liberalism, 28 enforcement/maintenance requirement for rights externalism, 87, 101
 environmental racism, 132
 external coercion or oppression, 76
 externalist view of rights. See rights externalism
- fairness and common good, pursuit of, 162–3 family communities, Green’s emphasis on, 160 Feinberg, Joel, 61, 62–8, 89, 90, 174–5, 177 fetuses, rights of
 in externalist dilemma, 121
- normative rights used on both sides of debate regarding, 6
 respect for nonpersons, 69–71
- freedom
 Green on, 156–8, 173
 Kant on, 156, 158
 negative and positive senses of, 136
 in political societies, 162
- functional understandings of rights, 43, 49–52, 165
- God, rights acquired from, 38–9, 147–8, 149, 150, 171
- Green, Thomas Hill
 family communities, emphasis on, 160
 on freedom, 156–8, 173
 on informal recognition, 167
 within liberal tradition, 26, 27, 29
 Mill, differentiated from, 152 moral rights, concept of, 151–5
 on political societies. See under political societies rights externalism compatible with beliefs of, 36, 152
 Ross’s critique of, 142, 152
 on slavery, 86, 144
 apparent inconsistency of position with externalist moral rights theory, 153–5 prepolitical (vs. presocial) possession of moral powers by slaves, 155–63, 167
 Ross’s critique of, 142
 summary of views, 168
 social contract theory, rejection of, 155, 157 state, on rights of individuals vs., 155 theories of, 30–4
- Habermas, Jürgen, 140
 Hart, H. L. A., 94–5
 Hegel, Georg Wilhelm Friedrich, 31, 157
 Hegelians, British, 31
 Herrnstein, Richard J., 128
 Hobbes, Thomas, 157
 Hobhouse, Leonard Trelawny, 27, 29
 Hobson, John Atkinson, 26
 Hohfeld, Wesley, 49, 56–7, 83 homosexual marriage, 6
 human rights. See entries at rights
- humanity, argument from abolitionist position, 113–14
 black inferiority thesis as answer to, 115–17 denial of humanity of blacks as answer to, 114–15
 modified apologist version of, 116
 property endowing natural rights, humanity as, 42–5
 slavery, failure in context of, 42 supposed security of rights founded on, 168–9

Index

189

- Hume, David, 13
 Hurricane Katrina, 138
 Hutus, 12
- Idealism, British, 29–37
 identifying rightholders ability to maintain and enforce rights as control on, 101
 agency as means of, 100–1
 institutional respect as means of, 98–103 moral justification as means of, 98–103 possession conditions for. See possession conditions
 proliferation problem
 for rights externalists, 98–103
 for rights internalists, 4–7, 15, 42–3, 52–5, 176
 in rights externalism, 98–103
 truth conditions for, 90–2 ideological nature of rights, critique of, 75–9 impoverishment, moral, valid claims arguments based on, 62, 73 complaining about wrongs, justification
 of, 62–8
 respect and claim-making, connection between, 68–72
 self-respect, 72
 independence of moral norms from existing social practices, 148–50
 individualism in liberal tradition, 26–36
 inflation of rights
 for rights externalists, 98–103
 for rights internalists, 4–7, 15, 42–3, 52–5, 176
 informal, nonlegal forms of recognition, 85, 167
 institutional respect
 as means of identifying rightholders in rights externalism, 98–103
 as possession condition for rights
 externalism, 85–90
 interest theory of rights, 50 function of rights and, 43, 50 pretheoretical moral beliefs affecting, 47 protection of well-being or interests, possession of rights not required by, 48–9 will (agency) theory and, 50–1 internal sanctions, 64–6 internalist view of rights. See rights internalism internalized or self-imposed coercion or oppression, 76
 intersubjectivism, 91
- Jefferson, Thomas, 115
 Jews in Nazi Germany, 12, 42
 Jones, Henry, 26
 justification, moral. See moral justification
- Kant, Immanuel
 on dignity of persons, 148
 on freedom, 156, 158
 on justification of social practices, 90 on rationality as defining characteristic of humanity, 45, 103
 security of grounding rights on humanity
 for, 169
 Katrina (Hurricane), 138
- laissez-faire* racism, 131
 legal rights
 Bentham on, 16, 83
 concept of, 49, 56–7
 moral complaint, legal backing for, 64 moral justification without, 96
 nonlegal (moral) rights vs., 5–7, 16
 possession conditions for, 85–7
 under slavery
 agreement of natural and recognition
 rights theories regarding, 82–3
 nonlegal (moral) rights vs., 5
 legitimation critique of rights, 75–9
 liberal tradition and rights externalism, 25–33, 172–3
 in black political and philosophical thought, 110–12
 classical liberalism, 27–9
 different strands of, 28 individualism, importance of, 26–36 natural law theory of rights, significance
 of, 27–36
 negative vs. positive rights, 29
 new liberalism, social and communitarian values of, 28, 29–37
 racial oppression, potential to alleviate, 110–12
 welfare liberalism, 28, 31
 libertarianism, 28
 Linnaeus, Carolus, 128
 Locke, John
 in classical liberal tradition, 27–8, 172 natural rights espoused by, 35, 147 on need for social framework for enforcing natural rights, 87–8
 on personhood, 9
 social contract theory of, 155, 157
 Lomasky, Loren E., 41
 Louima, Abner, 11–12
 lynchings, 12
- MacDonald, Margaret, 143, 144, 145
 Maddox, Lester, 139 maintenance/enforcement requirement for rights externalism, 87, 101
 marriage, homosexual, 6

- Martin, Rex, 81, 176–7
 Marx, Karl, and Marxism, 32, 36
 McDowell, John, x
 Mill, John Stuart, 27, 35, 64, 152
 Miller, Benjamin, 74, 107–8, 120–1
 Milosevic, Slobodan, 11
 Missouri compromise, 22–3 moral atrocities, what constitutes, 11–15 moral capacities or powers
 Green on, 160–1
 Rawls on, 163–4
 moral defect, race as indicative of, 129
 moral justification
 as argument for internalism. See morally valid claims approach independence of norms from existing social practices required for, 148–50
 in rights externalism
 as means of identifying rightholders, 98–103
 necessity but insufficiency of, 58, 88–90, 103–5
 without legal recognition, 96 moral recognition respect, 71
 moral rights
 Green's concept of, 151–5
 legal vs. nonlegal rights, 5–7, 16 prepolitical social communities as source of, 155–63
 as rights possessed prior to and independent of human agency. See rights internalism skepticism about, 150 slavery, possibility of externalist moral arguments against, 145–51 morally valid claims approach, 55–61 consequentialist approach to, 89
 Mill's argument for, 152
 moral impoverishment arguments for, 62, 73 complaining about wrongs, justification of, 62–8 respect and claim-making, connection between, 68–72
 self-respect, 72
 ontology, indirect use of, 104 to race and rights, 119–20 rights externalism on necessity but insufficiency of, 58, 88–90, 103–5 sufficiency of, arguments for, 58, 60
 Morton, Samuel, 128
 Murray, Charles, 128

 natural law theory of rights. See rights internalism Nazi Germany, 12, 42
 negative and positive senses of freedom, 136
 negative rights
 in classical liberalism, 29
 positive rights as interfering with, 136
 Nelson, William, 63, 67
 new liberalism, 28, 29–37
 noncognitivism, 91
 noncritical and critical rights assertions, distinguishing, 94–5
 nonmoral recognition respect, 71
 normative rights theory. See rights internalism Nozick, Robert, 17, 18

 Obama, Barack, 171
 objectivism, 91
 ontological account of rights, 39, 40–5
 correct vs. incorrect recognition of rights, problem of distinguishing without, 122–3 critical moral assertions, value in making, 105–6 morally valid claims approach leading back to, 61, 104
 necessity but insufficiency of, 124
 problems with externalist rejection of, 103–6, 122–3 property endowing rights. See property endowing natural rights racism/slavery, dual use to attack and defend, 8, 21, 22–4, 112–17, 125–6 social recognition not incompatible with, 122–3

 People for the Ethical Treatment of Animals (PETA), 43 personhood, as legal status, ix philosophical theory and social practice, collusion between, 109, 132–5
 political justification of rights theories, 75–81 political societies Green's conception of
 common good and fairness, pursuit of, 162–3
 defined, 159
 failure to recognize prepolitical rights, 159 freedom in, 162
 individual rights vs., 155
 reasons for recognizing prepolitical rights, 161
 social contract theory, 155, 157
 Rawls's understanding of, 163–4 positivist conceptions of rights of Bentham. See Bentham, Jeremy, and Benthamites freedom, negative and positive senses of, 136 negative rights, positive rights as interfering with, 136 in new liberalism, 18–19
 philosophical nonorthodoxy of, 18

Index

191

- socioeconomic rights. See socioeconomic rights
- possession conditions
 - for legal rights, 85–7
 - rights externalism, existence of institutional respect for, 85–90
 - for rights internalists. See property endowing natural rights
- powers or capacities, moral
 - Green on, 160–1
 - Rawls on, 163–4
- prepolitical (vs. presocial) possession of moral rights, 155–63
- presocial rights theory. See rights internalism
- priests, child sexual abuse by, 12
- proliferation problem
 - for rights externalists, 98–103
 - for rights internalists, 4–7, 15, 42–3, 52–5, 176
- property endowing natural rights
 - consensus regarding, lack of, 41–5
 - function of rights as determinant of, 43, 49–52
 - humanity standard for, 42–5
 - interest theory of. See interest theory of rights
 - nonrelational vs. relational properties, 41
 - pretheoretical moral beliefs, selection process determined by, 45–9
 - proliferation problem and determination of, 53–5
 - racial oppression, argument against, 118
 - reflective equilibrium regarding, 46
 - single property vs. multiple properties, 41
 - social capacities or powers in Green's externalist theory, moral significance of, 160–1
 - suffering, capacity for, 43, 103
 - will (agency) theory of, 50
- race and rights, 1, 2–3, 109–12, 138, 170–2
 - acknowledgment of role of black people in facing, 171–2
 - “American dilemma” of, 112–17
 - biological racism and appeals to science, 126, 128–9
 - black inferiority thesis
 - argument from humanity, as answer to, 115–17
 - continuing reference to, 126–32
 - potential future use of, 126–8
 - socioeconomic rights, skepticism about, 130–1, 133
 - concept of race, 25
 - conceptual vs. practical solutions to, 140
 - in contemporary American race relations, 126–32
 - contemporary political philosophy, methodological orientation of, 24–5
 - environmental racism, 132
 - externalist position on
 - admission of social constraint on rightholding by, 120–1
 - advantages in contemporary racial climate, 126–32, 138
 - alternative basis for determining correct vs. incorrect recognition, 120–1
 - dilemma of, 121–6
 - dual use of ontology thwarted by, 125–6
 - internalist arguments contrasted, 117–21
 - necessity but insufficiency of ontology, 124
 - no mutual exclusivity of social recognition and ontology, 122–3
 - seeming inability to reject ontology, 122–3
 - fact of black oppression, internalist vs. externalist arguments against, 117–21
 - historical and social realities, need to properly deal with, 18–19, 21–6
 - internalist position on
 - disadvantages in contemporary racial climate, 126–32
 - dual use of natural rights theory to defend and support black subordination, 8, 21, 22–4, 112–17, 125–6
 - fact of black oppression, internalist vs. externalist arguments against, 117–21
 - humanity, argument from. See under humanity
 - positive socioeconomic rights, skepticism about existence of, 132–5
 - property-based argument against black oppression, 118
 - seeming inability to reject ontology, 122–3
 - social recognition and ontology not mutually exclusive, 122–3
 - social recognition, partial acceptance of, 122–3
 - liberalism's potential for alleviating black oppression, 110–12
 - lynchings, 12
 - moral justification argument, internalist, 119–20
 - moral or character defect, race as indicative of, 129
 - normative and metaethical aspects of, 9
 - ontological ground for rights, race used as, 42
 - philosophical theory and social practice, collusion between, 109, 132–5
 - positive socioeconomic rights.
 - See* socioeconomic rights
 - sense of group position model, 130–1
 - slavery. See slavery
 - in South Africa, 5, 135–8
 - symbolic racism model, 129–30

- rationality
 - animal rights arguments on grounds of, 54
 - as defining characteristic of humanity, 45
 - respect assigned on basis of, 70
- Rawls, John, 19, 46, 142, 160, 163–9
- reason. See rationality
- recognition element in Green's account of
 - moral rights, 151, 153
- recognition respect, 68–72
- recognition theory of rights. See rights
 - externalism
- reflective equilibrium, 46
- reification critique of rights, 77–8
- respect, concept of, 68–72
- rightholders, identifying. See identifying
 - rightholders
- rights, 1–10
 - choosing between externalist vs. internalist view of, 173–8
 - Hohfeld's legal classification of, 49, 56–7, 83
 - legal vs. nonlegal, 5–7, 16
 - legitimation critique of ideological nature of, 75–9
 - moral. See moral rights
 - negative rights
 - in classical liberalism, 29
 - positive rights as interfering with, 136
 - normative natural law theory of. See rights
 - internalism
 - normative weight placed on having, 1, 3–8
 - origins of concept, 7
 - political justification of theories of, 75–81
 - positive rights. See positivist conceptions of rights
 - proliferation or rights inflation problem
 - for rights externalists, 98–103
 - for rights internalists, 4–7, 15, 42–3, 52–5, 176
 - race and. See race and rights
 - recognition theory of. See rights externalism
 - reification critique of, 77–8
 - self-referential/self-correcting nature of, 140
 - socioeconomic. See socioeconomic rights
 - use of terms, 39
- rights externalism (recognition theory of
 - rights), 1, 9–10, 74–5, 106–8, 172
 - acknowledgment of black political struggle by, 171–2
 - Bentham's positivism distinguished from, 20, 83
 - choosing between internalism and, 173–8
 - critical rights assertions
 - change in social conditions, allowing struggle for, 79, 80, 85, 106–8
 - semantic interpretation of (“there ought to be a right”), 92–8
 - distinction between nominal and real rights, 176–7
 - identifying rightholders, 98–103
 - informal, nonlegal forms of recognition, 85, 167
 - institutional respect
 - as means of identifying rightholders, 98–103
 - as possession condition for, 85–90
 - liberal tradition and, 25–37, 172–3. See liberal tradition, recognition theory of rights
 - maintenance/enforcement requirement, 87, 101
 - moral justification
 - as means of identifying rightholders, 98–103
 - necessity but insufficiency of, 58, 88–90, 103–5
 - need for, 18–21
 - normative and metaethical aspects of, 8–9
 - ontology, problems with rejecting, 103–6, 122–3
 - political justification for, 75–81
 - pragmatic value of, 84, 87–8, 106–8
 - prepolitical social communities as source of moral rights, 155–63
 - proliferation problem for, 98–103
 - on racial issues. See race and rights
 - Rawls's social death theory of slavery, response to, 167–8
 - recognition requirement, 86
 - rights internalism, social recognition of rightholders not required under, 16
 - slavery under. See slavery
 - substantive moral theory behind, 89–90, 147–8
 - on truth conditions for moral rights
 - assertions, 90–2
 - weak vs. strong interpretations of, 19
- rights inflation or proliferation
 - for rights externalists, 98–103
 - for rights internalists, 4–7, 15, 42–3, 52–5, 176
- rights internalism (natural law theory of
 - rights), 15–17
 - acquisition of rights under
 - attention paid to, 8, 15–16
 - as main problem of theory, 40
 - Bentham's rejection of, 18, 32, 83
 - as best means of justifying moral beliefs, 148–9
 - choosing between externalism and, 173–8
 - distinction between presocially and postsocially exercisable rights, 174–6
 - in liberal tradition, 27–36
 - moral atrocities appealed under, 11–15
 - overvaluation of, 1, 17–21
 - political justification of, 75

- positive socioeconomic rights, skepticism about existence of, 132–5
- possession conditions for. See property
 endowing natural rights
- as presocial possession of rights independent of law and authority, 38
- problems associated with, 38–40, 170
- divine agency, 38–9
- historical as well as contemporary, 40
- interest theory. See interest theory of rights
- means of acquiring rights as chief difficulty, 40
- morally valid claims approach. See morally valid claims approach
- ontological account. See ontological account
 of rights
- proliferation of rightholders, 4–7, 15, 42–3, 52–5, 176
- rights-endowing property, determining.
 See property endowing natural rights
- social conditions, struggle to change, 79
- will (agency) theory, 50
- proliferation problem, 4–7, 15, 42–3, 52–5, 176
 on race issues. See under race and rights
- Rawls's social death theory of slavery, response to, 166–7
- reification critique of, 77
- slavery under. See slavery
- social recognition not required under, 16
- supposed security of rights founded on, 168–9
- on truth conditions for moral rights
 assertions, 90–2
- in US Declaration of Independence, 22–3, 38
- US political structure founded on, 2
- utilitarian argument for, 147
- Ritchie, David George, 26, 29, 32, 36, 142
- Roman Catholic priests, child sexual abuse by, 12
- Ross, W. D., 142, 145, 152
- Rousseau, Jean-Jacques, 162
- Rwanda, 12
- science, biological racism's appeals to, 126, 128–9
- self-imposed or internalized coercion or
 oppression, 76
- self-referential/self-correcting nature of rights, 140
- self-respect, 72
- Sen, Amartya, 134
- sense of group position model, 130–1
- sentience, animal rights arguments on grounds of, 54
- Serbian atrocities in Bosnia, 11, 14
- sexual abuse of children by priests, 12
- skepticism
 about existence of socioeconomic rights, 132–5 about moral norms or rights, 150
- slavery, 142–5, 172 choosing externalist view of rights, as reason
 for, 174
- Douglass's account of moral atrocities
 under, 11, 12, 14
- dual use of natural rights theory to attack
 and defend, 8, 21, 22–4, 112–17, 125–6
- fact of black oppression, internalist vs.
 externalist arguments against, 117–21
- Green's externalist argument against.
 See under Green, Thomas Hill
- humanity, argument from. See under humanity
- legal rights under
 agreement of natural and recognition
 rights theories regarding, 82–3
 nonlegal (moral) rights vs., 5
- legitimation of oppression more effectively combated by rights externalism, 85
- moral account of, natural law vs. recognition theory explication of, 81–5
- moral arguments from externalist position against, possibility of, 145–51
- pragmatic account more accurately provided by rights externalism, 84
- Rawls's social death thesis, internalist vs.
 externalist responses to, 163–9
- social and communitarian values of new liberalism, 28, 29–37
- social capacities or powers in Green's externalist theory, moral significance of, 160–1
- social communities (prepolitical) as source of moral rights, 155–63
- social conditions, struggle to change. See critical rights assertions
- social contract theory, 155, 157
- social death, Rawls on slavery as, 163–9
- social practice and philosophical theory, collusion between, 109, 132–5
- social recognition of rightholders. See rights
 externalism
- socioeconomic rights
 consequentialist critique, 131
 feasibility critique, 134 normative reasons for embracing concept
 of, 137–8
 sense of group position model for opposition to, 130–1 skepticism about existence of, 132–5
 in South Africa, 135–8
- South Africa, race and rights in, 5, 135–8
- Spanish Inquisition, 12
- Spencer, Herbert, 27, 31, 35
- the state. See political societies
- substantive moral theory behind rights
 externalism, 89–90, 147–8

- suffering capacity as property endowing
 - natural rights, 43, 103
- Sumner, L. Wayne, 81, 89
- Supreme Being, rights acquired from, 38–9, 147–8, 149, 150, 171
- symbolic racism model, 129–30
- Taney, Roger, 23
- truth conditions, rights externalists vs.
 - internalists on, 90–2
- Tutsis, 12
- United States
 - “American Dilemma” of racial subordination and championing of rights internalism, 112–17
 - chattel slavery in. See slavery
 - Constitution, 136, 138
 - Declaration of Independence. See Declaration of Independence, US
 - natural law foundation of US political structure, 2
 - race in. See race and rights
 - world interest in rights policy of, 4
- utilitarian argument for rights
 - internalism, 147
- utilitarianism, 28, 36, 103, 148
- valid claims approach. See morally valid claims approach
- virtue ethics, 148
- Wallace, George, 139
- Washington, Booker T., 24
- welfare liberalism, 28, 31
- well-being or interests benefiting from possession of rights. See interest theory of rights
- Wellman, Carl, 57, 100–1
- West, Cornel, 25, 112
- White, Charles, 128
- will (agency) theory of property endowing
 - natural rights, 50