

Contents

List of figures [page ix]

List of tables [xi]

Foreword Lionel Sawkins [xiii]

Preface [xv]

Acknowledgments [xix]

Prologue [xxi]

General introduction [1]

PART I RENDEZVOUS IN PROVENCE [13]

1 The winter of 1660: Louis XIV and the royal court visit
Provence [15]

2 A choirboy and his king: the early life of Guillaume
Poitevin [29]

PART II THE AIX SCHOOL: A LEGACY OF MAÎTRES [47]

3 Guillaume Poitevin: maitre of Saint-Sauveur [49]

4 André Campra: an extraordinary career [66]

5 Jean Gilles: an independent spirit [89]

6 The “petits maitres” [103]

7 Antoine Blanchard: the eighteenth-century master [128]

PART III THE LURE AND LEGACY [143]

8 The lure of music at Versailles and the Île-de-France [145]

9 Patronage and the Provençal networks [174]

10 The legacy of the Aix School [188]

Conclusion [216]

Epilogue [219]

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-51988-5 - The Lure and Legacy of Music at Versailles: Louis XIV and the Aix School

John Hajdu Heyer

Table of Contents

More information

viii

Contents

Appendix I: The maîtres de musique at Saint-Sauveur, 1657–1750 [221]

Appendix II: The musique latine of the Aix School [225]

Glossary [257]

Bibliography [260]

Index [272]