

Cambridge University Press

0521538602 - The Rights of Others: Aliens, Residents, and Citizens

Seyla Benhabib

Table of Contents

More information

CONTENTS

Acknowledgments [x]

Introduction [1]

- 1 On hospitality: rereading Kant's cosmopolitan right [25]
- 2 "The right to have rights": Hannah Arendt on the contradictions of the nation-state [49]
- 3 The Law of Peoples, distributive justice, and migrations [71]
- 4 Transformations of citizenship: the European Union [129]
- 5 Democratic iterations: the local, the national, and the global [171]

Conclusion: cosmopolitan federalism [213]

Bibliography [222]

Index [239]