

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-58677-1 - Philip Melancthon: Orations on Philosophy and Education

Edited by Sachiko Kusukawa

Table of Contents

More information

Contents

Acknowledgements	page ix
Introduction	xi
Chronology	xxxii
Further reading	xxxiv
Note on the text	xxxviii
The scope of education	1
1 On the order of learning	3
2 On the rôle of the schools	9
3 On the distinction between the Gospel and philosophy	23
The arts course	27
4 On the study of languages	29
5 Preface to Homer	38
6 On the usefulness of fables	54
7 Praise of eloquence	60
8 Preface to Cicero's On Duties	79
9 Dedicatory letter to the Questions on Dialectics	84
10 Preface to arithmetic	90
11 Preface to geometry	98
12 Preface to On the Sphere	105
13 On astronomy and geography	113
14 The dignity of astrology	120
15 On philosophy	126
16 On natural philosophy	133
17 Dedicatory letter to the Epitome of Moral Philosophy	139

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-58677-1 - Philip Melancthon: Orations on Philosophy and Education

Edited by Sachiko Kusukawa

Table of Contents

More informationList of Contents

18 Preface to the Commentary on the Soul	144
19 Preface to the Book on the Soul	152
20 On anatomy	158
The higher faculties	167
21 On the merit of the art of medicine	169
22 On the merit of laws	175
23 On the merit of studying theology	182
Authorities	189
24 On Plato	191
25 On Aristotle	204
26 On the life of Galen	212
27 On the life of Avicenna	220
28 On the life of Rudolf Agricola	227
29 On Johannes Regiomontanus	236
30 On Erasmus of Rotterdam	248
31 At Luther's funeral	256
Index	265