This book is dedicated to all those students, teachers, trainers, colleagues and friends who have used the earlier editions with such enthusiasm. Their ideas and feedback have formed a valued part of the input into this new edition, and their professional support has given us the inspiration to complete it. We are most grateful to Penny Ur for her wise and practical suggestions in the formative stage, and to Yvonne Harmer and Frances Amrani for their care in editing the final manuscript.

The authors and publishers are grateful to the following for permission to reproduce copyright material. It has not been possible to identify the sources of all the material used and in such cases the publishers would welcome information from copyright owners.
