
Index

- Access to Internet
 - connection types, 9–10
- Accreditation schemes
 - effects, 154–155
 - global system, 171–172
 - liability of Certification Authorities
 - general law, 161–170
 - introduction, 160–161
 - statutory provision, 170–171
 - rationale, 153–154
 - requirements, 155–160
 - supervision, 155–160
- Activities undertaken in jurisdiction
 - advertising
 - FSA Guidance, 244–246
 - generally, 241–250
 - SEC Statement, 242–243, 247–249
 - comity, 231
 - doing business in jurisdiction
 - EC Directive on turnover taxes, 240–241
 - generally, 238–241
 - establishment
 - EC interpretative communication, 233–235
 - introduction, 232–238
 - OECD Model Tax Convention, 236–238
 - introduction, 231–232
- Advertising
 - cross-border transactions, and
 - FSA Guidance, 244–246
 - generally, 241–250
 - SEC Statement, 242–243, 247–249
 - enforceability of law, and, 295–296
 - legal and regulatory arbitrage, and, 287–288
- Agency
 - contractual relationships, and, 206–210
 - cross-border transactions, and, 227
- Alternative dispute resolution
 - arbitration, 305
 - introduction, 304
 - mediation, 304–305
- Anonymising
 - communication services, and, 35
- Anti-nazi laws
 - liability for information content, and, 95
- Applicable law
 - activities undertaken in jurisdiction
 - advertising, 241–250
 - comity, 231
 - doing business in jurisdiction, 238–241
 - establishment, 232–238
 - introduction, 231–232
 - advertising
 - FSA Guidance, 244–246
 - generally, 241–250
 - SEC Statement, 242–243, 247–249
 - agency established, 227
 - branch established, 227
 - Brussels Regulation, 221–223
 - comity, 231
 - commission of tort, 229–230
 - country of origin regulation
 - EC Directive on credit institutions, 251–252
 - EC Directive on electronic signatures, 253
 - EC interpretative communication, 255
 - exceptions to, 254–256
 - human rights, and, 267–268
 - introduction, 250–256
 - minimum standards for supervision, 254
 - doing business in jurisdiction
 - EC Directive on turnover taxes, 240–241
 - generally, 238–241
 - establishment
 - EC interpretative communication, 233–235
 - introduction, 232–238
 - OECD Model Tax Convention, 236–238
 - generally, 2
 - home country regulation
 - EC Directive on credit institutions, 251–252
 - EC Directive on electronic signatures, 253
 - EC interpretative communication, 255
 - exceptions to, 254–256
 - human rights, and, 267–268
 - introduction, 250–256
 - minimum standards for supervision, 254
 - human rights
 - free speech, 258–262
 - generally, 256–257
 - home country regulation, and, 267–268

Cambridge University Press

0521605229 - Internet Law: Text and Materials, Second Edition

Chris Reed

Index

More information

316 Index

- Applicable law (cont.)
 - privacy, 262–267
 - UN Convention, 256–257
- introduction, 217
- jurisdictional competence
 - activities undertaken in jurisdiction, 231–250
 - country of origin regulation, 250–256
- introduction, 231
- liability of service provider, and, 91
- localisation in the Internet world
 - alternative approaches, 230
 - introduction, 223
 - place of commission of tort, 229–230
 - place of injury, 229–230
 - place of supply of goods, services or performance of principal obligation, 223–226
 - place where purchaser took steps, 226
 - place where supplier's branch or agency is established, 227
 - 'targeting', 227–229
- OECD Model Tax Convention, 236–238
- performance of principal obligation, 223–226
- permanent establishment
 - EC interpretative communication, 233–235
 - introduction, 232–238
 - OECD Model Tax Convention, 236–238
- place of commission of tort, 229–230
- place of injury, 229–230
- place of supply of goods, services or performance of principal obligation, 223–226
- place of transaction
 - 'cyberspace' fallacy, 218
 - introduction, 218
 - localisation, 218–230
- place where purchaser took steps, 226
- place where supplier's branch or agency is established, 227
- Rome Convention, 220–221
- service provider liability, and, 91
- supply of goods, 223–226
- supply of services, 223–226
- 'targeting', 227–229
- turnover taxes, 240–241
- Application layer
 - protocol, and, 12
- Arbitration
 - advantages
 - avoidance of restricted/prohibited activities, 284–288
 - decreasing overheads, 269–284
 - introduction, 269
 - advertising, 287–288
 - banking and finance
 - deposit taking, 279–280
 - introduction, 279
 - payment services, 280–284
 - charges for admission to game or lottery, 286–287
 - decreasing overheads
 - banking and finance, 279–284
 - introduction, 269–270
 - taxation, 270–279
 - distributed business model, and, 269
 - Gresham's law, 289–290
 - introduction, 269
 - procurement, 288
 - restricted/prohibited activities
 - advertising, 287–288
 - charges for admission to game or lottery, 286–287
 - gambling arbitrage, 288–289
 - generally, 284–286
 - procurement, 288
 - use of premises, 288
 - taxation, reduction of
 - consumption taxes, 272–275
 - distributed enterprise, 275–279
 - income-based taxes, 271–272
 - introduction, 270
 - non-taxable activities, 270–275
 - use of premises, 288
- Arbitration
 - enforceability of law, and, 305
- Archie
 - directory services, and, 35
- Architecture, Internet
 - generally, 15–18
- ATMs
 - permanent establishment, and, 233–234
- Australia
 - liability of intermediaries, and, 136–137
 - place of supply, and, 225–226
- Automated decision-making
 - economic consequences, 5
- Automated link
 - third party information resources, and, 74–76
- Banking
 - legal and regulatory arbitrage, and
 - deposit taking, 279–280
 - introduction, 279
 - payment services, 280–284
 - permanent establishment, and, 233–234, 255
- Biometric data
 - electronic signatures, and, 145, 187–188
- Bonn Ministerial Conference 1997
 - liability of intermediaries, and, 122–123
- Branch
 - cross-border transactions, and, 227
- Brussels Regulation
 - cross-border transactions, and, 221–223, 228

Cambridge University Press

0521605229 - Internet Law: Text and Materials, Second Edition

Chris Reed

Index

More information

Index 317

-
- Building Confidence in Electronic Commerce* (DTI, 1999)
 - liability of intermediaries, and, 92–93
 - Buyers
 - relationship with intermediaries, and, 206–210
 - Caching
 - copyright, and, 96
 - generally, 20–21
 - US Copyright Act, and, 125–126
 - ccTLDs
 - dispute resolution, and, 57
 - domain names, and, 44
 - trade marks, and, 46
 - Certificates of identity
 - accreditation schemes
 - effects, 154–155
 - global system, 171–172
 - liability of Certification Authorities, 160–171
 - rationale, 153–154
 - requirements, 155–160
 - supervision, 155–160
 - BelSign, 148–149
 - Certification Authorities
 - accreditation schemes, 153–160
 - issue of ID certificates, 147–150
 - liability, 160–171
 - validity of ID certificates, 150–153
 - checking infrastructure, 150–153
 - EC Directive, 149
 - introduction, 147
 - issue, 147–150
 - liability of Certification Authorities
 - general law, 161–170
 - introduction, 160–161
 - statutory provision, 170–171
 - revocation, 152–153
 - use, 150
 - validity, 150–152
- Certification authorities
 - accreditation schemes
 - effects, 154–155
 - global system, 171–172
 - rationale, 153–154
 - requirements, 155–160
 - supervision, 155–160
 - issue of ID certificates, 147–150
 - liability
 - general law, 161–170
 - introduction, 160–161
 - statutory provision, 170–171
 - validity of ID certificates, 150–153
- Charges for game or lottery
 - legal and regulatory arbitration, and, 286–287
- China
 - liability for information content, and, 95
- Ciphertext
 - electronic signatures, and, 184
- Client access
 - connection types, 10
- Comity
 - cross-border transactions, and, 231
- Commission of tort
 - cross-border transactions, and, 229–230
- Communication failure
 - liability of intermediaries, and, 90–92
- Communication to the public, right of
 - EC Directive, 105
 - introduction, 104
 - WIPO Copyright Treaty, 104–105
- Communications services
 - anonymising, 35
 - directory services
 - introduction, 33
 - other, 35
 - structured directory, 33–34
 - web crawler, 34–35
 - Internet Service Providers (ISPs)
 - access, 32
 - access to resources, 33
 - introduction, 32
 - mailbox, 32
 - user resource hosting, 33
 - introduction, 31
- Compensation
 - service provider liability, and, 90
- Conflict of laws
 - cross-border transactions, and, 218
- Connection types
 - generally, 9–10
- Consumer protection
 - private rights, and, 296–299
 - self-regulation, 303–304
- Consumption taxes
 - legal and regulatory arbitration, and, 272–275
- Contractual limitations
 - liability of intermediaries, and, 123–124
- Contractual relationships
 - applicable law, and, 219
 - jurisdiction, and, 219
 - liability of intermediaries, and, 90
- Contributory infringement
 - copyright, and, 99
- Convergence of laws
 - generally, 310–312
- Co-operation
 - generally, 15–18
- Copies
 - protocols, and, 14
- Copying
 - copyright, and, 96–101
 - introduction, 94
 - property in information, and, 177–178

Cambridge University Press

0521605229 - Internet Law: Text and Materials, Second Edition

Chris Reed

Index

More information

318 Index

- Copyright
 - breach, user-selected linking, and, 81–85
 - copying, 96–101
 - immunity from liability
 - EU Directives, 128–129
 - generally, 124–129
 - US Copyright Act, 125–127
 - possession, 101–102
 - transmission, 102–104
- Copyright notices
 - re-use of web resources, and, 68
- Corporation tax
 - legal and regulatory arbitrage, and, 271–272
- country code TLDs
 - dispute resolution, and, 57
 - domain names, and, 44
 - trade marks, and, 46
- Country of origin regulation
 - EC Directive on credit institutions, 251–252
 - EC Directive on electronic signatures, 253
 - EC interpretative communication, 255
 - exceptions to, 254–256
 - human rights, and, 267–268
 - introduction, 250–256
 - minimum standards for supervision, 254
- Courts
 - dispute resolution, and, 62–65
- Criminal offences
 - service provider liability, and, 90
- Cross-border transactions
 - activities undertaken in jurisdiction
 - advertising, 241–250
 - comity, 231
 - doing business in jurisdiction, 238–241
 - establishment, 232–238
 - introduction, 231–232
 - advertising
 - FSA Guidance, 244–246
 - generally, 241–250
 - SEC Statement, 242–243, 247–249
 - agency established, 227
 - branch established, 227
 - Brussels Regulation, 221–223
 - comity, 231
 - commission of tort, 229–230
 - country of origin regulation
 - EC Directive on credit institutions, 251–252
 - EC Directive on electronic signatures, 253
 - EC interpretative communication, 255
 - exceptions to, 254–256
 - human rights, and, 267–268
 - introduction, 250–256
 - minimum standards for supervision, 254
 - doing business in jurisdiction
 - EC Directive on turnover taxes, 240–241
 - generally, 238–241
 - establishment
 - EC interpretative communication, 233–235
 - introduction, 232–238
 - OECD Model Tax Convention, 236–238
 - generally, 2
 - home country regulation
 - EC Directive on credit institutions, 251–252
 - EC Directive on electronic signatures, 253
 - EC interpretative communication, 255
 - exceptions to, 254–256
 - human rights, and, 267–268
 - introduction, 250–256
 - minimum standards for supervision, 254
 - human rights
 - free speech, 258–262
 - generally, 256–257
 - home country regulation, and, 267–268
 - privacy, 262–267
 - UN Convention, 256–257
 - introduction, 217
 - jurisdictional competence
 - activities undertaken in jurisdiction, 231–250
 - country of origin regulation, 250–256
 - introduction, 231
 - localisation in the Internet world
 - alternative approaches, 230
 - introduction, 223
 - place of commission of tort, 229–230
 - place of injury, 229–230
 - place of supply of goods, services or performance of principal obligation, 223–226
 - place where purchaser took steps, 226
 - place where supplier's branch or agency is established, 227
 - 'targeting', 227–229
 - OECD Model Tax Convention, 236–238
 - performance of principal obligation, 223–226
 - permanent establishment
 - EC interpretative communication, 233–235
 - introduction, 232–238
 - OECD Model Tax Convention, 236–238
 - place of commission of tort, 229–230
 - place of injury, 229–230
 - place of supply of goods, services or performance of principal obligation, 223–226
 - place of transaction
 - 'cyberspace' fallacy, 218
 - introduction, 218
 - localisation, 218–230
 - place where purchaser took steps, 226
 - place where supplier's branch or agency is established, 227
 - Rome Convention, 220–221
 - supply of goods, 223–226
 - supply of services, 223–226
 - 'targeting', 227–229
 - turnover taxes, 240–241

Cambridge University Press

0521605229 - Internet Law: Text and Materials, Second Edition

Chris Reed

Index

More information

Index 319

- Cybersquatting
 - dispute resolution, and, 62–65
- ‘Cyberspace’ fallacy
 - cross-border transactions, and, 218
 - generally, 1–2
- Data Encryption Standard (DES)
 - electronic signatures, and, 185
- Data protection
 - privacy, and, 263–265
- Defamation
 - accidental, 117–118
 - information carrier, and, 115
 - information controller, and, 117
 - information distributor, and, 115–117
 - introduction, 112–113
 - place of publication, 118–121
 - publishing process, 113–115
 - time of publication, 118–121
 - transmitter to publisher, 115–117
- Delivery
 - place of supply, and, 223
- Dematerialised communications
 - formation of contracts, and, 173
- Deposit taking
 - legal and regulatory arbitrage, and, 279–280
- Digital signatures
 - generally, 144–146
 - UNCITRAL Model Law, 143–144
- Digital transmission
 - economic consequences, 5
- Dilution
 - trade marks, and, 48–49
- Direct copying
 - generally, 71
 - initial copying, 71–72
 - re-use, 72–74
- Directory services
 - introduction, 33
 - liability of intermediaries, and, 93–94
 - other, 35
 - structured directory, 33–34
 - web crawler, 34–35
- Dispute resolution
 - ccTLDs, 57
 - courts, 62–65
 - ICANN, 54–62
 - introduction, 52–54
 - problems, 65–66
 - UDRP, 54–62
 - WIPO, 53
- Distance selling
 - enforceability of law, and, 297–299
- Distributed enterprise
 - Active-X, 21
 - architecture, 15–18
 - caching, 20–21
 - connection types, 9–10
 - co-operative nature, 15–18
 - functions of Internet
 - generally, 8
 - performance, 8
 - introduction, 7–8
 - Java, 21
 - legal and regulatory arbitrage, and, 275–279
 - mapping of communications, 22–23
 - mirroring, 20
 - mutual co-operation, 15–18
 - packet switching, 11–15
 - persons involved, 8–9
 - protocols, 11–13
 - resource hosting
 - generally, 19–20
 - introduction, 18–19
 - revised perspective, 10
 - virtual site, 21–22
- DNS hosts
 - resource hosts, and, 31
- Doing business in jurisdiction
 - EC Directive on turnover taxes, 240–241
 - generally, 238–241
- Domain names
 - allocation
 - generally, 43–44
 - introduction, 36
 - liability of intermediaries, 93
 - dispute resolution
 - ccTLDs, 57
 - courts, 62–65
 - ICANN, 54–62
 - introduction, 52–54
 - problems, 65–66
 - UDRP, 54–62
 - functions, 42
 - introduction, 42–43
 - legal rights in names
 - free speech, 51–52
 - introduction, 45
 - trade marks, 45–49
 - unregistered trade names, 50–51
 - introduction, 40–42
 - transaction facilitation services, and, 36
 - WIPO Report, 43–44
- Electronic agents
 - contractual relationships, and, 210–216
- Electronic mail
 - transmission, and, 25
- Electronic signatures
 - background, 180–181
 - biometric recording, 187–188
 - functional requirements of law, and
 - evidence of intention to sign, 192–193
 - evidence of signatory’s identity, 191–192
 - seals as signatures, 193–194
 - future, 201

Cambridge University Press

0521605229 - Internet Law: Text and Materials, Second Edition

Chris Reed

Index

More information

320 Index

- Electronic signatures (cont.)
 - identification issues, and
 - generally, 144–146
 - UNCITRAL Model Law, 143–144
 - introduction, 146
 - legislative recognition
 - functional definitions of validity, 194–197
 - identity certification-based validity, 197–200
 - introduction, 194
 - legal presumptions, 200
 - public key encryption, 186–187
 - purpose, 182–184
 - single key encryption, 185–186
 - technology, 184–191
 - use of encryption, 188–191
- Encryption key
 - electronic signatures, and, 145
- Enforceability of law
 - advertising controls, 295–296
 - alternative dispute resolution
 - arbitration, 305
 - introduction, 304
 - mediation, 304–305
 - arbitration, 305
 - characteristics of, 306
 - consumer protection
 - private rights, and, 296–299
 - self-regulation, 303–304
 - introduction, 291–292
 - mediation, 304–305
 - obscenity, 293–295
 - privacy, 302–303
 - private rights, 296–299
 - public order rules
 - advertising controls, 295–296
 - introduction, 292–293
 - obscenity, 293–295
 - self-regulation
 - alternative dispute resolution, 304–305
 - consumer protection, 303–304
 - introduction, 300–301
 - privacy, 302–303
 - unlawful content, 301–302
- Establishment
 - EC interpretative communication, 233–235
 - introduction, 232–238
 - OECD Model Tax Convention, 236–238
- Exclusion clauses
 - liability of intermediaries, and, 123–124
- Exclusive right of distribution
 - copyright, and, 103
- Financial Services Authority (FSA)
 - advertising, and, 244–246
 - electronic money, and, 284
- Fingerprint
 - electronic signatures, and, 145
- Formation of contracts
 - electronic agents, through, 210–212
 - electronic signatures
 - formal requirements, 191–194
 - future, 201
 - introduction, 146
 - legislative recognition, 194–200
 - technology, 184–191
 - implied terms in on-line information supplies, 212–216
 - intermediaries, via
 - formation of contracts, 204–206
 - legal relationship, 206–210
 - introduction, 203–204
 - signatures
 - electronic technology, 184–201
 - generally, 180–181
 - introduction, 146
 - purpose, 182–184
 - writing, 201–203
- Free speech
 - cross-border transactions, and, 258–262
 - legal rights in domain names, and, 51–52
- FTP
 - copyright, and, 101–102
 - protocols, and, 13
 - resource hosts, and, 31
- Funds transfer
 - electronic signatures, and, 146
- Gateways
 - architecture, and, 17
- generic TLDs
 - dispute resolution, and, 53
 - domain names, and, 44
 - trade marks, and, 46
- Global equivalence
 - economic consequences, 5
- Global Information Networks Declaration 1997
 - liability of intermediaries, and, 122–123
- ‘Good Samaritan’ blocking
 - immunity from liability, and, 130–131
- Goods and services tax
 - legal and regulatory arbitrage, and, 272–275
- Google
 - webcrawlers, and, 34
- Gopher
 - directory services, and, 35
- Governing law
 - cross-border transactions, and
 - Brussels Regulation, 221–223
 - generally, 218–219
 - Rome Convention, 220–221
 - service provider liability, and, 91
- gTLDs
 - dispute resolution, and, 53
 - domain names, and, 44
 - trade marks, and, 46
- Gresham’s law
 - legal and regulatory arbitrage, and, 289–290

Cambridge University Press

0521605229 - Internet Law: Text and Materials, Second Edition

Chris Reed

Index

More information

Index 321

- Home country regulation
 - EC Directive on credit institutions, 251–252
 - EC Directive on electronic signatures, 253
 - EC interpretative communication, 255
 - exceptions to, 254–256
 - human rights, and, 267–268
 - introduction, 250–256
 - minimum standards for supervision, 254
- Hosts
 - architecture, and, 16–17
- Human rights
 - cross-border transactions, and
 - free speech, 258–262
 - generally, 256–257
 - privacy, 262–267
 - UN Convention, 256–257
 - home country regulation, and, 267–268
 - legal rights in domain names, and, 51–52
- Hyper text transfer protocol (HTTP)
 - protocols, and, 13
- ICANN
 - dispute resolution, and, 54–62
- Identification
 - accreditation schemes
 - effects, 154–155
 - global system, 171–172
 - liability of Certification Authorities, 160–171
 - rationale, 153–154
 - requirements, 155–160
 - supervision, 155–160
 - certificates of identity
 - BelSign, 148–149
 - checking infrastructure, 150–153
 - EC Directive, 149
 - introduction, 147
 - issue, 147–150
 - revocation, 152–153
 - use, 150
 - validity, 150–152
 - Certification Authorities
 - accreditation schemes, 153–160
 - issue of ID certificates, 147–150
 - liability, 160–171
 - validity of ID certificates, 150–153
 - electronic signatures
 - generally, 144–146
 - UNCITRAL Model Law, 143–144
 - information licensing, 146
 - introduction, 140–141
 - liability of Certification Authorities
 - general law, 161–170
 - introduction, 160–161
 - statutory provision, 170–171
 - liability of intermediaries, and, 94
 - problem of identity, 141–143
 - status information, 147
 - uses, 143–144
- Identity services
 - transaction facilitation services, and, 36
- IMAP
 - protocols, and, 13
- Immunity from liability of intermediaries
 - general
 - Australian legislation, 136–137
 - EU Directive, 134–136
 - generally, 129–139
 - Singapore legislation, 133–134
 - US cases, 132–133
 - US legislation, 130–132
 - introduction, 122–123
 - specific copyright liability
 - EU Directives, 128–129
 - generally, 124–129
 - US Copyright Act, 125–127
- Implied licences
 - generally, 69–71
 - user-selected linking, and, 86–88
- Implied terms
 - on-line information supplies, and, 212–216
- Income tax
 - legal and regulatory arbitrage, and, 271–272
- Indecency
 - enforceability of law, and, 293–295
 - external classification, 111–112
 - introduction, 106–107
 - possession, 107–109
 - transmission, 109–111
- Infrastructure providers
 - generally, 26–27
- Information carrier
 - defamation, and, 115
- Information content
 - common elements of liability, 121
 - copyright
 - copying, 96–101
 - possession, 101–102
 - transmission, 102–104
 - defamation
 - accidental, 117–118
 - introduction, 112–113
 - place of publication, 118–121
 - publishing process, 113–115
 - time of publication, 118–121
 - transmitter to publisher, 115–117
- indecency
 - external classification, 111–112
 - introduction, 106–107
 - possession, 107–109
 - transmission, 109–111
- introduction, 94–95
- obscenity
 - external classification, 111–112
 - introduction, 106–107
 - possession, 107–109
 - transmission, 109–111

Cambridge University Press

0521605229 - Internet Law: Text and Materials, Second Edition

Chris Reed

Index

More information

322 Index

- Information distributor
 - defamation, and, 115–117
- Information licensing
 - identification, and, 146
- Information property rights
 - basis, 176–178
 - generally, 174–175
 - ownership of information, 175–176
 - summary, 178–180
- Innuendo
 - accidental defamation, and, 117–118
- Intellectual property rights
 - basis, 176–178
 - generally, 174–175
 - ownership of information, 175–176
 - possession, and, 175
 - summary, 178–180
- Intermediaries
 - anonymising, 35
 - communication services
 - anonymising, 35
 - directory services, 33–35
 - Internet Service Providers, 32–33
 - introduction, 31
 - directory services
 - introduction, 33
 - other, 35
 - structured directory, 33–34
 - web crawler, 34–35
 - infrastructure providers, 26–27
 - Internet Service Providers (ISPs)
 - access, 32
 - access to resources, 33
 - introduction, 32
 - mailbox, 32
 - user resource hosting, 33
 - introduction, 27
 - liability of
 - and see* LIABILITY OF INTERMEDIARIES
 - information content, 94–121
 - introduction, 89–90
 - limitations on, 122–139
 - service provider, 90–94
 - resource hosts
 - DNS host, 31
 - FTP site host, 31
 - introduction, 27–28
 - newsgroup host, 28–30
 - website host, 29
 - transaction facilitation services
 - domain name allocation, 36
 - identity services, 36
 - introduction, 35–36
 - payment services, 36–37
 - transmission hosts, 27
- Internet
 - meaning, 7
- Internet law
 - economic context, 3–6
 - introduction, 1–3
 - technical context, 3–6
- Internet layer
 - protocol, and, 12
- Internet Protocol (IP)
 - generally, 12–13
 - communication services
 - anonymising, 35
 - directory services, 33–35
 - Internet Service Providers, 32–33
 - introduction, 31
 - directory services
 - introduction, 33
 - other, 35
 - structured directory, 33–34
 - web crawler, 34–35
 - distribute enterprises, 37–39
- Internet resources
 - behaviour of users, 88
 - domain names
 - and see* DOMAIN NAMES
 - allocation, 43–44
 - dispute resolution, 52–66
 - introduction, 42–43
 - legal rights in names, 45–52
 - introduction, 40–42
 - third party information resources
 - direct copying, 71–74
 - generally, 66–67
 - incorporation through automated link, 74–76
 - licences to re-use, 68–71
 - user-selected linking, 76–88
- Internet Service Providers (ISPs)
 - access, 32
 - access to resources, 33
 - copyright, and, 100
 - information content liability, and, 95
 - introduction, 32
 - mailbox, 32
 - service provider liability, and, 90–91
 - user resource hosting, 33
- Internet Watch Foundation
 - self regulation, and, 301–302
- IP address
 - generally, 40–41
- Java
 - generally, 21
- Jurisdiction
 - activities undertaken in jurisdiction
 - advertising, 241–250
 - comity, 231
 - doing business in jurisdiction, 238–241
 - establishment, 232–238
 - introduction, 231–232
 - advertising
 - FSA Guidance, 244–246
 - generally, 241–250
 - SEC Statement, 242–243, 247–249

Cambridge University Press

0521605229 - Internet Law: Text and Materials, Second Edition

Chris Reed

Index

More information

Index 323

- agency established, 227
- branch established, 227
- Brussels Regulation, 221–223
- comity, 231
- commission of tort, 229–230
- country of origin regulation
 - EC Directive on credit institutions, 251–252
 - EC Directive on electronic signatures, 253
 - EC interpretative communication, 255
 - exceptions to, 254–256
 - human rights, and, 267–268
 - introduction, 250–256
 - minimum standards for supervision, 254
 - doing business in jurisdiction
 - EC Directive on turnover taxes, 240–241
 - generally, 238–241
 - establishment
 - EC interpretative communication, 233–235
 - introduction, 232–238
 - OECD Model Tax Convention, 236–238
- generally, 2
- home country regulation
 - EC Directive on credit institutions, 251–252
 - EC Directive on electronic signatures, 253
 - EC interpretative communication, 255
 - exceptions to, 254–256
 - human rights, and, 267–268
 - introduction, 250–256
 - minimum standards for supervision, 254
- human rights
 - free speech, 258–262
 - generally, 256–257
 - home country regulation, and, 267–268
 - privacy, 262–267
 - UN Convention, 256–257
- introduction, 217
- jurisdictional competence
 - activities undertaken in jurisdiction, 231–250
 - country of origin regulation, 250–256
 - introduction, 231
- localisation in the Internet world
 - alternative approaches, 230
 - introduction, 223
 - place of commission of tort, 229–230
 - place of injury, 229–230
 - place of supply of goods, services or performance of principal obligation, 223–226
 - place where purchaser took steps, 226
 - place where supplier's branch or agency is established, 227
 - 'targeting', 227–229
 - OECD Model Tax Convention, 236–238
 - performance of principal obligation, 223–226
 - permanent establishment
 - EC interpretative communication, 233–235
 - introduction, 232–238
 - OECD Model Tax Convention, 236–238
 - place of commission of tort, 229–230
 - place of injury, 229–230
 - place of supply of goods, services or performance of principal obligation, 223–226
 - place of transaction
 - 'cyberspace' fallacy, 218
 - introduction, 218
 - localisation, 218–230
 - place where purchaser took steps, 226
 - place where supplier's branch or agency is established, 227
 - Rome Convention, 220–221
 - supply of goods, 223–226
 - supply of services, 223–226
 - 'targeting', 227–229
 - turnover taxes, 240–241
- KaZaa
 - copyright, and, 98–99
- Knowledge
 - copyright, and, 101
- Legal arbitrage
 - advantages
 - avoidance of restricted/prohibited activities, 284–288
 - decreasing overheads, 269–284
 - introduction, 269
 - advertising, 287–288
 - banking and finance
 - deposit taking, 279–280
 - introduction, 279
 - payment services, 280–284
 - charges for admission to game or lottery, 286–287
 - decreasing overheads
 - banking and finance, 279–284
 - introduction, 269–270
 - taxation, 270–279
 - distributed business model, and, 269
 - Gresham's law, 289–290
 - introduction, 269
 - procurement, 288
 - restricted/prohibited activities
 - advertising, 287–288
 - charges for admission to game or lottery, 286–287
 - gambling arbitrage, 288–289
 - generally, 284–286
 - procurement, 288
 - use of premises, 288
 - taxation, reduction of
 - consumption taxes, 272–275
 - distributed enterprise, 275–279
 - income-based taxes, 271–272
 - introduction, 270
 - non-taxable activities, 270–275
 - use of premises, 288

- Legal rights in domain names
 - dispute resolution
 - ccTLDs, 57
 - courts, 62–65
 - ICANN, 54–62
 - introduction, 52–54
 - problems, 65–66
 - UDRP, 54–62
 - free speech, 51–52
 - introduction, 45
 - trade marks, 45–49
 - unregistered trade names, 50–51
- Liability of Certification Authorities
 - general law, 161–170
 - introduction, 160–161
 - statutory provision, 170–171
- Liability of intermediaries
 - China, and, 95
 - communication failure, 90–92
 - contractual limitations, 123–124
 - contractual relationships, 90
 - copying
 - copyright, and, 96–101
 - introduction, 94
 - copyright
 - copying, 96–101
 - possession, 101–102
 - transmission, 102–104
 - copyright liability immunity
 - EU Directives, 128–129
 - generally, 124–129
 - US Copyright Act, 125–127
 - defamation
 - accidental, 117–118
 - introduction, 112–113
 - place of publication, 118–121
 - publishing process, 113–115
 - time of publication, 118–121
 - transmitter to publisher, 115–117
 - directory services, and, 93–94
 - domain name allocation, and, 93
 - exclusion clauses, and, 123–124
 - general immunity
 - Australian legislation, 136–137
 - EU Directive, 134–136
 - generally, 129–139
 - Singapore legislation, 133–134
 - US cases, 132–133
 - US legislation, 130–132
 - identification services, and, 94
 - immunity from
 - general, 129–139
 - introduction, 122–123
 - specific copyright liability, 124–129
 - indecent
 - external classification, 111–112
 - introduction, 106–107
 - possession, 107–109
 - transmission, 109–111
 - information content
 - common elements of liability, 121
 - copyright, 96–104
 - defamation, 112–121
 - indecent, 106–112
 - introduction, 94–95
 - obscenity, 106–112
 - introduction, 89–90
 - limitations on
 - contractual terms, 123–124
 - general immunity, 129–139
 - introduction, 122–123
 - specific copyright liability immunity, 124–129
 - statutory provisions, 124–139
 - non-contractual relationships, 90–92
 - obscenity
 - external classification, 111–112
 - introduction, 106–107
 - possession, 107–109
 - transmission, 109–111
 - packet switching, and, 89
 - possession
 - copyright, and, 101–102
 - indecent, and, 107–109
 - introduction, 94
 - obscenity, and, 107–109
 - service provider
 - communication failure, 90–92
 - introduction, 90
 - other services, 92–94
 - statutory limitations
 - general immunity, 129–139
 - introduction, 124
 - specific copyright liability immunity, 124–129
 - transmission
 - copyright, and, 102–104
 - defamation, and, 112–121
 - indecent, and, 109–111
 - introduction, 94
 - obscenity, and, 109–111
- Licences to re-use
 - express, 68–69
 - implied, 69–71
- Link layer
 - protocol, and, 12
- Localisation
 - alternative approaches, 230
 - introduction, 223
 - place of commission of tort, 229–230
 - place of injury, 229–230
 - place of supply of goods, services or performance of principal obligation, 223–226
 - place where purchaser took steps, 226
 - place where supplier's branch or agency is established, 227
 - 'targeting', 227–229

- Mailbox
 - Internet Service Providers, and, 32
 - Mediation
 - enforceability of law, and, 304–305
 - Mirroring
 - generally, 20
 - Mutual co-operation
 - generally, 15–18
 - Napster
 - copyright, and, 98
 - Negligent misrepresentation
 - liability of certification authorities, and, 164–169
 - Newsgroup hosts
 - resource hosts, and, 28–30
 - Nice Classification
 - trade marks, and, 46
 - Non-contractual relationships
 - liability of intermediaries, and, 90–92
 - Non-taxable activities
 - legal and regulatory arbitrage, and, 270–275
 - Obscenity
 - enforceability of law, and, 293–295
 - external classification, 111–112
 - introduction, 106–107
 - possession, 107–109
 - transmission, 109–111
 - OECD Model Tax Convention
 - permanent establishment, and, 236–238
 - On-line supplies of information
 - implied terms, and, 212–216
 - Packet switching
 - generally, 11–15
 - liability of intermediaries, and, 89
 - Parties to information exchange
 - anonymising, 35
 - communication services
 - anonymising, 35
 - directory services, 33–35
 - Internet Service Providers, 32–33
 - introduction, 31
 - directory services
 - introduction, 33
 - other, 35
 - structured directory, 33–34
 - web crawler, 34–35
 - distributed enterprises, 37–39
 - generally, 24
 - infrastructure providers, 26–27
 - intermediaries
 - communication services, 31–35
 - introduction, 27
 - resource hosts, 27–31
 - transaction facilitation services, 35–37
 - transmission hosts, 27
 - Internet Service Providers (ISPs)
 - access, 32
 - access to resources, 33
 - introduction, 32
 - mailbox, 32
 - user resource hosting, 33
 - introduction, 8–9
 - principal actors, 24–26
 - resource hosts
 - DNS host, 31
 - FTP site host, 31
 - introduction, 27–28
 - newsgroup host, 28–30
 - website host, 29
 - transaction facilitation services
 - domain name allocation, 36
 - identity services, 36
 - introduction, 35–36
 - payment services, 36–37
 - transmission hosts, 27
- Payment services
 - legal and regulatory arbitrage, and, 280–284
 - transaction facilitation services, and, 36–37
- Permanent establishment
 - EC interpretative communication, 233–235
 - introduction, 232–238
 - OECD Model Tax Convention, 236–238
- Piracy of domain names
 - dispute resolution, and, 62–65
- Place of transaction
 - Brussels Regulation, 221–223
 - ‘cyberspace’ fallacy, 218
 - introduction, 218
 - localisation in the Internet world
 - alternative approaches, 230
 - introduction, 223
 - place of commission of tort, 229–230
 - place of injury, 229–230
 - place of supply of goods, services or performance of principal obligation, 223–226
 - place where purchaser took steps, 226
 - place where supplier’s branch or agency is established, 227
 - ‘targeting’, 227–229
 - localisation in the physical world, 218–223
 - Rome Convention, 220–221
- Plaintext
 - electronic signatures, and, 184
- POP
 - protocols, and, 13
- Possession
 - copyright, and, 101–102
 - indecenty, and, 107–109
 - introduction, 94
 - obscenity, and, 107–109
 - property rights, and, 175
- Privacy
 - enforceability of law, and, 302–303
 - generally, 262–267

Cambridge University Press

0521605229 - Internet Law: Text and Materials, Second Edition

Chris Reed

Index

More information

326 Index

-
- Private international law
 - cross-border transactions, and, 218
 - Procurement
 - legal and regulatory arbitration, and, 288
 - Protocols
 - generally, 11–13
 - Public key encryption
 - electronic signatures, and, , 186–187
 - Public order rules
 - advertising controls, 295–296
 - introduction, 292–293
 - obscenity, 293–295
 - Public policy
 - information property rights, and, 175–176
 - Regulatory arbitration
 - advantages
 - avoidance of restricted/prohibited activities, 284–288
 - decreasing overheads, 269–284
 - introduction, 269
 - advertising, 287–288
 - banking and finance
 - deposit taking, 279–280
 - introduction, 279
 - payment services, 280–284
 - charges for admission to game or lottery, 286–287
 - decreasing overheads
 - banking and finance, 279–284
 - introduction, 269–270
 - taxation, 270–279
 - distributed business model, and, 269
 - Gresham's law, 289–290
 - introduction, 269
 - procurement, 288
 - restricted/prohibited activities
 - advertising, 287–288
 - charges for admission to game or lottery, 286–287
 - gambling arbitration, 288–289
 - generally, 284–286
 - procurement, 288
 - use of premises, 288
 - taxation, reduction of
 - consumption taxes, 272–275
 - distributed enterprise, 275–279
 - income-based taxes, 271–272
 - introduction, 270
 - non-taxable activities, 270–275
 - use of premises, 288
 - Remailers
 - anonymising, and, 35
 - Remoteness of damage
 - service provider liability, and, 92
 - Resource hosting
 - generally, 19–20
 - introduction, 18–19
 - Resource hosts
 - DNS host, 31
 - FTP site host, 31
 - introduction, 27–28
 - newsgroup host, 28–30
 - website host, 29
 - Resources
 - behaviour of users, 88
 - domain names
 - and see* DOMAIN NAMES
 - allocation, 43–44
 - dispute resolution, 52–66
 - introduction, 42–43
 - legal rights in names, 45–52
 - introduction, 40–42
 - third party information resources
 - direct copying, 71–74
 - generally, 66–67
 - incorporation through automated link, 74–76
 - licences to re-use, 68–71
 - user-selected linking, 76–88
 - Retina print
 - electronic signatures, and, 145
 - Re-use of web resources
 - automated link, 74–76
 - direct copying
 - generally, 71
 - initial copying, 71–72
 - re-use, 72–74
 - generally, 66–67
 - licences
 - express, 68–69
 - implied, 69–71
 - user-selected linking
 - breach of copyright, 81–85
 - generally, 76–79
 - implied licence, 86–88
 - trespass, 79–81
 - unfair competition, 85–86
 - Right of communication to the public
 - EC Copyright Directive, 105
 - introduction, 104
 - WIPO Copyright Treaty, 104–105
 - Rome Convention
 - cross-border transactions, and, 220–221
 - Routing
 - architecture, and, 17
 - RSA
 - electronic signatures, and, 186–187
 - Safe harbor principles
 - privacy, and, 266–267
 - Screen-scraping
 - re-use of web resources, and, 74
 - Screening of offensive material
 - immunity from liability, and, 130–131
 - Seals
 - electronic signatures, and, 193–194

Cambridge University Press

0521605229 - Internet Law: Text and Materials, Second Edition

Chris Reed

Index

More information

Index 327

- Secondary infringement
 - copyright, and, 101
- Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC)
 - offshore offers, and, 247–249
 - regulation of offers, and, 242–244
- Self-regulation
 - alternative dispute resolution, 304–305
 - consumer protection, 303–304
 - introduction, 300–301
 - privacy, 302–303
 - unlawful content, 301–302
- Service provider
 - communion failure, 90–92
 - introduction, 90
 - other services, 92–94
- Signatures
 - electronic technology
 - and see* ELECTRONIC SIGNATURES
 - formal requirements, 191–194
 - future, 201
 - introduction, 146
 - legislative recognition, 194–200
 - technology, 184–191
 - introduction, 180–181
 - purpose, 182–184
- Singapore
 - electronic signatures, and
 - certification authorities, 158–159
 - digital signatures, 198–199
 - generally, 196
 - introduction, 144
 - immunity from liability, and, 133–134
- Single key encryption
 - electronic signatures, and, 185–186
- SMTP
 - protocols, and, 13
- Source code
 - re-use of web resources, and, 76–78
- Status information
 - identification, and, 147
- Structured directory
 - directory services, and, 33–34
- ‘Targeting’
 - cross-border transactions, and, 227–229
- Tax returns
 - electronic signatures, and, 146
- Taxation, on-line transactions of
 - consumption taxes, 272–275
 - distributed enterprise, 275–279
 - income-based taxes, 271–272
 - introduction, 270
 - non-taxable activities, 270–275
- TCP/IP
 - generally, 12–13
 - service provider liability, and, 89
- Temporary acts of reproduction
 - immunity from liability, and, 128–129
- Third party information resources
 - automated link, 74–76
 - direct copying
 - generally, 71
 - initial copying, 71–72
 - re-use, 72–74
 - generally, 66–67
 - incorporation through automated link, 74–76
 - licences to re-use
 - express, 68–69
 - implied, 69–71
 - user-selected linking
 - breach of copyright, 81–85
 - generally, 76–79
 - implied licence, 86–88
 - trespass, 79–81
 - unfair competition, 85–86
- Tortious duty of care
 - applicable law, and, 220
 - jurisdiction, and, 220
 - service provider liability, and, 92
- Trade marks
 - legal rights in names, and, 45–66
- Traditional transactions
 - contracts
 - electronic agents, through, 210–212
 - implied terms in on-line information
 - supplies, 212–216
 - intermediaries, via, 204–210
 - introduction, 203–204
 - formation of contracts
 - intermediaries, via, 204–206
 - signatures, 180–201
 - writing, 201–203
 - intermediaries, via
 - formation of contracts, 204–206
 - legal relationship, 206–210
 - introduction, 173–174
 - property rights
 - basis of IPR, 176–178
 - generally, 174–175
 - ownership of information, 175–176
 - summary, 178–180
 - signatures
 - electronic technology, 184–191
 - formal requirements, 191–194
 - future of electronic technology, 201
 - introduction, 180–181
 - legislative recognition of electronic
 - technology, 194–200
 - purpose, 182–184
 - writing, 201–203
- Transaction facilitation services
 - domain name allocation, 36
 - identity services, 36
 - introduction, 35–36
 - payment services, 36–37
- Transient copies
 - copyright, and, 96
 - immunity from liability, and, 129

- Transmission
 - copyright, and, 102–104
 - defamation, and, 112–121
 - indecenty, and, 109–111
 - introduction, 94
 - obscenity, and, 109–111
- Transmission hosts
 - generally, 27
- Transport layer
 - protocol, and, 12
- Trespass
 - user-selected linking, and, 79–81
- Trusted Shops Scheme
 - self regulation, and, 303–304
- Turnover taxes
 - doing business in transactions, and, 240–241
- UDRP
 - dispute resolution, and, 54–62
- UN Convention on Human Rights 1948
 - generally, 256–257
- UNCITRAL Model Law on Electronic Commerce 1996
 - electronic signatures, and, 194–196
 - generally, 309
- UNCITRAL Model Law on Electronic Signatures 2001
 - generally, 194–196
 - introduction, 143–144
- Unfair competition
 - trade names, and, 50–51
 - user-selected linking, and, 85–86
- Unfair terms
 - enforceability of law, and, 296–299
 - liability of intermediaries, and, 123–124
- United States of America
 - caching, and, 125–126
 - electronic agents, and, 210–212
 - electronic signatures, and
 - guidelines, 188–191
 - introduction, 159–160
 - liability for intermediaries, and
 - general, 130–132
 - specific copyright liability, 125–127
 - privacy, and, 266–267
 - safe harbor principles, and, 266–267
- Unlawful content
 - self-regulation, and, 301–302
- Unregistered trade names
 - legal rights in names, and, 50–51
- Use of premises
 - legal and regulatory arbitrage, and, 288
- Usenet
 - infrastructure providers, and, 29–30
- User resource hosting
 - Internet Service Providers, 33
- User-selected linking
 - breach of copyright, 81–85
 - generally, 76–79
 - implied licence, 86–88
 - trespass, 79–81
 - unfair competition, 85–86
- Value added tax
 - legal and regulatory arbitrage, and, 272–275
- Vicarious liability
 - copyright, and, 97–98
- Virtual site
 - generally, 21–22
- Voiceprint
 - electronic signatures, and, 145
- WAIS
 - directory services, and, 35
- Web crawler
 - directory services, and, 34–35
- Web surfing services
 - anonymising, and, 35
- Websites
 - resource hosting, and, 19–20
 - resource hosts, and, 29
- WIPO
 - dispute resolution, and, 53
 - domain names, and, 43–44
 - exclusive right of communication to public, and, 104–105
 - property in information, and, 178
- X.509 model
 - electronic signatures, and, 152–153