

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-60605-9 - Remedies in Contract and Tort, Second Edition

Donald Harris, David Campbell and Roger Halson

Table of Contents

More information

Contents

Preface	v
Table of statutes	xix
Table of cases	xxiii

SECTION I

REMEDIES FOR UNFULFILLED CONTRACTUAL UNDERTAKINGS

I Introduction: the function and structure of remedies for failure to perform a contractual obligation [D Campbell] 3

Introduction	3
The function of the law of contract	5
The reason(s) for breach	7
Breach in order to maximise gain: the concept of efficient breach	11
Breach in order to minimise loss	13
Exceptions to the general preference for compensatory damages	21
Restitution of benefits received by D	22
Exemplary damages for breach of contract	23
Literal enforcement	24

PART I

FIRST-STEP REMEDIES

2 Forebearance, alternative dispute resolution and settlement [D Campbell] 27

Forebearance	27
The non-use of contract remedies	27
The relational contract	31

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-60605-9 - Remedies in Contract and Tort, Second Edition

Donald Harris, David Campbell and Roger Halson

Table of Contents

More informationviii Contents

---

The nature of forbearance 33
 Alternative dispute resolution (ADR) 38
 Some observations on settlement 40

3 Self-help [D Campbell] 43

Introduction 43
 Complaints and threats to reputation 44
 Withholding performance 45
 Liens 48
 Security 49
 Self-help in the sale of goods 49
 Termination for failure to perform 51
     Termination as a form of self-help 56
 Forfeiture of advance payments or of rights over property or arising out of the contract 58
 Set-off 61
 Appraisal of self-help remedies 62

4 Consumer protection [D Harris] 65

Introduction 65
 The consumer's private law remedies 66
 Advice for consumers 67
 Private law rights given by statute 67
 Consumer credit transactions 68
 Intervention by public law 68
 Administrative action 69

PART 2

COMPENSATION*5 The protected contractual interests [R Halson] 73

Introduction 73
 The purpose of awarding damages: compensation for loss 74
 Expectation losses 75
     The minimum legal obligation rule 75
     The net loss approach 76
     Taxation 77
     The profit made by D after breach 78

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-60605-9 - Remedies in Contract and Tort, Second Edition

Donald Harris, David Campbell and Roger Halson

Table of Contents

More information

---

Damages in respect of a third party's interest	79
No loss, or speculative loss	81
Evaluation of loss in terms of the market	82
Reliance losses	82
Restitution of benefits received by D	83
Can C choose the ground for his claim?	83
Restrictions on the recovery of damages	84
Causation	84
Contributory negligence	86

6 Remoteness [R Halson] 88

Introduction	88
The detailed legal rules on remoteness	94
Illustrations of the remoteness test	98
Delayed delivery of a profit-earning chattel	98
The seller's loss of profits in contracts for the sale of goods	99
The buyer's loss of profits under a contract of sale	100
Profits lost through the defective quality of the goods	101
Types of physical damage	102
Distress, disappointment and loss of enjoyment	104
Special case: failure to pay money	104
The time for assessing damages	104
Anticipatory breach	106
Interest and special damages for late payment	107

7 Mitigation [R Halson] 109

Incentives on D not to perform	109
The legal rules on mitigation	110
Avoidable loss	110
Protection of steps taken in mitigation	111
Loss actually avoided	112
The importance of competitive supply	114
Loss actually avoided: alternative uses of C's resources released by D's breach	115
Scope of the rules of mitigation	120

8 Reliance expenditure [R Halson] 121

Damages for C's expenditure rendered futile by D's breach, or incurred as a result of D's breach	121
---	-----

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-60605-9 - Remedies in Contract and Tort, Second Edition

Donald Harris, David Campbell and Roger Halson

Table of Contents

More informationx Contents

---

Performance expenditure: expenses incurred by C in preparing to perform	123
Expenditure incurred by C before making the contract with D	127
Expenditure incurred by C in reliance on the contract but not towards performance of his side	128
Expenses incurred by C as a result of D's breach	129
Claims for both wasted expenditure and loss of profits	130

9 Pre-estimated damages [R Halson] 133

Clauses fixing the amount of damages	133
Unfair Terms in Consumer Contracts Regulations 1999	137
Incentives to perform	138
The advantages of pre-estimated damages clauses	139
The scope of the law on penalties	142
Appraisal	146
Forfeiture of deposits, other advance payments and of rights over property or arising under the contract	147

PART 3

LITERAL ENFORCEMENT

10 Introduction [D Campbell] 153

The forms of literal enforcement	153
The reasons for seeking and granting literal enforcement	154

11 Claims in debt [D Campbell] 158

Introduction	158
Debt and mitigation	160
Appraisal	165

12 Specific performance [D Campbell] 166

Introduction	166
Inadequacy of damages	167
Consumer surplus	168
Idiosyncratic loss and commercial uniqueness	171
Sale and purchase of land	175
Enforcement in favour of a third-party beneficiary	176
Equitable factors relevant to the exercise of the court's discretion	178

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-60605-9 - Remedies in Contract and Tort, Second Edition

Donald Harris, David Campbell and Roger Halson

Table of Contents

More information

Contents xi

Factors arising from the factual situation at, or before, the time of contracting	179
Factors arising after the date of contracting	181
Practical factors relevant to the exercise of the court's discretion	187
Supervision of compliance with the order	187
Contracts involving personal service	190
Avoiding multiplicity of suits	192
Specific performance on terms	193
Specific enforcement of severable obligations	194
Contractual clauses affecting specific relief	194

13 Injunctions [D Campbell] 198

Negative covenants	198
Distinguishing between negative and positive undertakings	200
Long-term supply contracts	200
Indirect specific performance	204
Appraisal	208
Mandatory injunctions	208

14 Performance by a substitute [D Campbell] 210

Damages assessed as the cost to complete by a third party	210
Limitations on the availability of cost to complete damages	211
Another alternative to diminution in value or cost to complete?	214

15 Appraisal of literal enforcement [D Campbell] 217

Incentives to perform	217
Contractual provision for literal enforcement	219
Appraisal of the legal remedies providing for specific enforcement	221
Issues common to the forms of literal enforcement	221
The concept of social waste	222
Conclusion	226

PART 4

RESTITUTION

16 Existing forms of restitution [D Campbell] 231

Introduction	231
Recovery of money paid by C to D	233

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-60605-9 - Remedies in Contract and Tort, Second Edition

Donald Harris, David Campbell and Roger Halson

Table of Contents

More informationxii Contents

Services rendered by C to D 235

Rescission for common mistake and frustration 241

17 The expansion of restitution [D Campbell] 255

The problem of uncompensated loss 255

D's hypothetical release from literal enforcement 257

Can hypothetical release damages be regarded as compensatory? 258

The restitutionary disgorgement of the gains from breach 262

Would restitution correct the wrong? 268

Is there a 'wrong' in 'wrongful' breach? 272

The proper limits of restitution following non-performance of a contractual obligation 282

SECTION 2

TORT: REMEDIES FOR WRONGDOING

PART 5

GENERAL ISSUES IN TORT REMEDIES*18 Objectives of the law [D Harris] 289

Introduction 289

Defining and protecting certain rights and freedoms 289

Regulating behaviour: deterrence 290

Appraisal of deterrence in personal injury accident cases 292

General or 'market' deterrence 293

Inquests into accidents 294

Compensation 294

19 Causation, mitigation and contributory negligence [D Harris] 296

Limits on recovery of damages 296

Causation 297

Medical or scientific evidence 298

Multiple tortfeasors 300

Successive causes of disability 300

Omissions 301

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-60605-9 - Remedies in Contract and Tort, Second Edition

Donald Harris, David Campbell and Roger Halson

Table of Contents

More information

Contents xiii

---

Loss of a chance	302
Voluntary intervention by a third party	303
Providing the opportunity for C to be harmed	304
Ulterior harm	305
Abnormal occurrences	306
Mitigation	307
Contributory negligence	308
20 Remoteness [D Harris]	310
The justifications for restricting liability to usual consequences	310
Incentives	310
Allocation of risks	312
The legal rules on remoteness of damage	313
Categories of harm	316
Categories of causation	317
The unforeseeable extent of a foreseeable type of harm	318
Duty of care with an inbuilt limitation on liability	321
Some duties of care which specify particular heads of loss	322
Control mechanisms for psychiatric injury	324
C's lack of financial resources	326
Financial loss caused by negligent acts	327
Consequences of defamation	328
Strict liability	328
Torts involving deliberate wrongdoing	330
Comparison with the rules on remoteness in contract	331

21 Self-help [D Harris] 334

Protection of the occupation of land	334
Retaking of chattels	336
Detention of a 'trespassing' chattel	336

PART 6

COMPENSATION FOR PERSONAL INJURIES AND DEATH*22 Personal injury damages: the formal law [R Halson] 338

Introduction	338
Loss of earnings	342
Loss of earnings up to the trial	342

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-60605-9 - Remedies in Contract and Tort, Second Edition

Donald Harris, David Campbell and Roger Halson

Table of Contents

More informationxiv Contents

---

Income tax and other compulsory deductions from earnings	343
Future loss of earnings	346
The expected period of incapacity	346
The 'lost years'	347
The annual loss: the multiplicand	349
Assessing the net loss	350
Young victims	351
Disadvantage in the labour market	352
Unused earning capacity	352
Discounting: the multiplier system	354
Contingencies other than death	358
Example of the use of Ogden Tables	358
Adjustment for higher tax on the income from the invested damages	359
Inflation	360
Lump sum or periodic payments?	361
Expenses arising from C's disability	363
Medical and hospital expenses	363
The 'domestic element' in the cost of care	365
The cost of home nursing	366
The quantum (amount) of damages	368
The calculation of damages	369
Other expenses	369
Non-pecuniary loss	371
Pain and suffering	377
Loss of amenity	378
The unconscious claimant	378
The Guidelines	380
Collateral benefits: deductions from damages	382
Charitable payments	383
The proceeds of insurance	384
Sick pay or wages	384
Disablement pensions	385
Retirement pensions	386
Social security benefits	386
Appraisal of collateral benefits	387
Interest	389
23 Damages upon death [R Halson]	391
Introduction	391
The survival claim	392

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-60605-9 - Remedies in Contract and Tort, Second Edition

Donald Harris, David Campbell and Roger Halson

Table of Contents

More informationContents xv

---

Claims under the Fatal Accidents Act 1976	393
The bereavement claim	393
The dependency claim	395
The category of dependants	398
The assessment of pecuniary loss: the multiplicand	399
The assessment of pecuniary loss: the multiplier	400
Remarriage of the dependant	402
No deduction	403

24 The damages system in practice [D Campbell] 405

Introduction	405
The incidence of incapacity and of compensation by damages	410
Compensation outside the damages system	412
Social security benefits and sick pay	413
Other forms of 'social security'	417
Evaluation of social security	420
Private insurance	424
Compensation for personal injury by accident	427
The settlement process	430
The settlement range	434
The amounts of damages actually awarded	436
Non-pecuniary loss	438
The use of damages awarded	442
The costs of the damages system	445
Evaluation of the damages system	449
Abandoning the goal of 'compensation': a new direction for reform?	453

PART 7

PROTECTING PROPERTY AND FINANCIAL INTERESTS

25 Interference with the enjoyment of land: private nuisance [D Campbell] 465

Introduction: the nature of liability for private nuisance	465
Damages for past interference	468
Injunction	473
Prohibitory injunctions	473

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-60605-9 - Remedies in Contract and Tort, Second Edition

Donald Harris, David Campbell and Roger Halson

Table of Contents

More informationxvi Contents

---

Qualified injunctions	474
Modification of injunctions	475
Suspension of the injunction	475
Anticipated harm	477
Mandatory injunctions	477
The legal criteria for the choice between injunction and damages	478
Preference for prohibitory injunction	479
Discretion to confine C to damages	480
The cost of the injunction	481
Social costs and the public interest	482
Suspension of the injunction	484
Private nuisance and environmental protection	485
Conduct of the parties	487
Damages in lieu of an injunction	488
Quantification	491
Expropriation	494
Interference and the problem of social cost	496
The position under the current liability rule	496
A defence of strict liability	500
Government failure	505
Summary	508
Obstacles to negotiated solutions and the courts' response to these	510
Incentives to compromise before trial	512
The possible outcomes	513
Prohibition at D's expense	513
Prohibition at C's expense	515
An injunction with compensation to D	515
D purchases permission to continue the interference in future	516
Compulsory grant of permission to D	517
A suspended injunction	517
Damages for past interference	518
Appendix: some law and economics works on nuisance	518
26 Protecting the right to occupy or use land [D Harris]	520
Injunctions	520
Damage to land	523
Physical damage	523
The time for assessing reinstatement damages	526

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-60605-9 - Remedies in Contract and Tort, Second Edition

Donald Harris, David Campbell and Roger Halson

Table of Contents

More informationContents xvii

---

Consequential loss	527
Wrongful occupation or use of land	527
Depriving D of his profit	528
27 Protecting the right to use chattels [D Harris]	530
Introduction	530
Physical damage	531
Cost of repairs or diminution in value	531
Other expenses	532
Cost of hiring a substitute	533
Loss of profits	533
Loss of use of a non-profit-earning chattel	534
Destruction	535
Loss of a profit-earning chattel	536
Loss of a non-profit-earning chattel	540
Misappropriation	541
Specific return of C's chattel	542
Damages for misappropriation	542
The time for assessing value	543
Improvements	544
Redelivery in mitigation of C's claim	545
Where C has only a limited interest in the chattel	546
Unauthorised use	547
28 Protecting financial interests [D Campbell]	551
Introduction	551
Misrepresentation	553
Deceit	554
Non-fraudulent pre-contractual statements	557
Rescission	558
Damages	560
The tort of negligent misrepresentation	561
Other non-fraudulent misrepresentations	562
The 'economic torts'	563
Wrongful interference with contractual relations	563
Conspiracy	565
Intimidation of a third person	567
Injurious falsehood and passing off	568
An Australian remedy	572

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-60605-9 - Remedies in Contract and Tort, Second Edition

Donald Harris, David Campbell and Roger Halson

Table of Contents

More informationxviii Contents

SECTION 3

COMMON ISSUES

29 Concurrent liability in contract and tort [D Harris] 575

Introduction 575

The relationship between the contract and the extent of the tortious duty 576

Contributory negligence 578

30 Exemplary damages [D Campbell] 579

Introduction 579

Tort 580

Aggravated damages 580

Exemplary damages 585

Contract 594

Distress, disappointment and loss of enjoyment 595

Outrageous breach of an employment contract 601

Concurrent liability and bad faith breach 604

Restitution as exemplary damages 606

31 Interim protection [D Harris] 609

Interim injunctions 609

Interim mandatory injunctions 612

Interim injunctions without notice 613

32 Time limits for claims [D Harris] 615

Introduction 615

Personal injuries 616

Latent damage 617

Death 618

Mistake, fraud or concealment 618

Equitable remedies 619

Index 621