

Contents

|  |           |
|--|-----------|
| Preface  | v         |
| Table of statutes  | xvii      |
| Table of statutory instruments                             | xxi       |
| Table of cases   | xxiii     |
| Table of EC legislation                                    | xlvii     |
| Chapter 1 Contract and market                       | 1  |
| A. Regulating markets                                      | 1         |
| B. The classical law of contract                           | 3         |
| C. Towards a new conception                                | 8         |
| D. The market order  | 10        |
| E. The constitution of the market                          | 14        |
| Chapter 2 The transformation of the law of contract | 20 |
| A. The transformation thesis                               | 20        |
| B. The social market                                       | 21        |
| 1. The justice of exchange                                 | 22        |
| (a) Equality   | 22        |
| (b) Distributive justice                                   | 23        |
| (c) Freedom of contract                                    | 25        |
| 2. Efficiency and market failure                           | 25        |
| 3. The value of autonomy                                   | 28        |
| (a) Unjustifiable domination                               | 30        |
| (b) Fairness of the exchange                               | 32        |
| (c) Co-operation   | 33        |
| 4. Conclusion – a regulatory perspective                   | 34        |
| C. Contextual legal reasoning                              | 35        |
| 1. Formalism and unity                                     | 35        |
| 2. Differentiation and materialization                     | 37        |
| D. Globalization and sources of law                        | 39        |
| 1. Sources of national law                                 | 40        |
| 2. Transnational legal orders                              | 40        |
| 3. Commercial legal order                                  | 43        |
| 4. Human rights law  | 44        |
| Chapter 3 Tests of enforceability                   | 46 |
| A. Purposes of tests of enforceability                     | 46        |
| B. Evidence and formalities                                | 49        |

x Contents

- C. Illegality and public policy 51
- D. Public and private undertakings 54
- E. The contractualization of social life 56

- Chapter 4 Consideration and the exchange model 58
  - A. The concept of an exchange 58
  - B. The concept of consideration 59
    - 1. Benefit and detriment 59
    - 2. Adequacy of consideration 60
    - 3. Promises, actions and omissions 62
    - 4. Requests and conditional promises 63
    - 5. Implied requests 64
  - C. Intention to create legal relations 67
  - D. Rationale of consideration 69
    - 1. Harm principle 70
    - 2. Wealth maximization 71
    - 3. Conclusion 72

- Chapter 5 Estoppel and the reliance model 74
  - A. Another test of enforceability? 74
  - B. The concept of reliance 75
    - 1. Encouragement 79
    - 2. Proof of detrimental reliance 80
    - 3. Reliance was reasonable 81
    - 4. Unconscionability 83
  - C. The classification of the reliance model 85
    - 1. Time-frame 85
    - 2. Consistency with consideration 86
    - 3. Promises and statements 87
    - 4. Remedies 88
  - D. Rationale of reliance model 90
    - 1. Good faith 90
    - 2. Wealth maximization 91
    - 3. Harm principle 93

- Chapter 6 The contractualization of social life 94
  - A. Contract as governance mechanism 94
  - B. The faith in markets 95
  - C. Legal techniques for controlling the scope of contracts 96
    - 1. Contracts in the family 96
    - 2. Contracts with the state 99
    - 3. Inalienable property 101
  - D. Justifications for limits on contractual obligations 101
    - 1. Externalities and market failure 101
    - 2. Libertarian considerations 103
  - E. The purpose of markets 106
    - 1. The meaning of contractualization 108
      - (a) Valuation of conduct 108

- (b) Currency of exchange 109
- (c) Atomization 109
- (d) Discretionary power 110
- (e) Conclusion – confining contractual relations 110
- 2. Distributive justice 112

Chapter 7 Ascription of contractual responsibility 114

- A. Voluntary responsibility 114
- B. The idea of consent 115
- C. Objective test of consent 117
  - 1. Standard form contracts 119
  - 2. Inaction and silence 119
  - 3. Inertia selling 120
  - 4. Express reservations 121
  - 5. Implied reservations 121
  - 6. Consent or reliance? 123
- D. Common mistake 123
- E. Consent by remote parties 127
  - 1. Agency 128
  - 2. Implied consent 130
  - 3. Equitable proprietary interests 131
- F. The boundaries of contract 132
  - 1. Unjust enrichment 133
  - 2. Reliance model 133
  - 3. Duty of care in tort 134
- G. Autonomy and responsibility 135

Chapter 8 Coercion and competitive markets 136

- A. Involuntary consent 136
- B. Duress 139
- C. Undue influence 143
  - 1. Where the dominant party is deemed to have gained an ascendant position 145
    - (a) Choice is entrusted to another 145
    - (b) Pressure to compel choice 146
    - (c) Taking advantage of business ignorance 147
    - (d) Taking advantage of effective monopoly 148
  - 2. Rebutting the charge – independent advice 149
  - 3. Role of third parties and constructive notice 150
- D. Affirmation and bars to rescission 152
- E. Protection of competitive markets 153
  - 1. Unlawful invasion of rights 154
  - 2. Anti-competitive practices 155

Chapter 9 The moment of responsibility 158

- A. Consenting to contracts 158
- B. Offer and acceptance 161
  - 1. The test of acceptance – key rules 161

xii Contents

- (a) Correspondence 161
- (b) Nexus 162
- (c) Communication 163
- 2. Justification of the rules 163
- 3. Avoidance of the rules 166
  - (a) Twisting the facts 166
  - (b) New categories of liability 170
- C. Instrumentalism 171
  - 1. Room for manoeuvre 173
  - 2. Discouragement of opportunism 174
  - 3. Partial performance 175
  - 4. Protection of ancillary reliance 176
- D. Pre-contractual responsibility 177
- Chapter 10 The duty to negotiate with care 179
  - A. A general principle? 180
  - B. Misleading statements 182
    - 1. Reasonable reliance 183
      - (a) Statements of law and contractual terms 184
      - (b) Statements of future intentions 186
      - (c) Statements of opinion 186
    - 2. The standard of care 189
      - (a) Burden of proof 189
      - (b) Reasonable care 190
    - 3. Remedies 192
      - (a) Rescission 192
      - (b) Damages 193
      - (c) Regulatory offences 197
      - (d) Administrative injunction 197
  - C. Failure to disclose information 198
    - 1. Disclosure of terms 200
    - 2. Disclosure of facts 203
      - (a) Misrepresentation 204
      - (b) Implied terms 205
      - (c) Regulatory offences 206
      - (d) Mistaken identity 207
  - D. Abuse of position of trust 209
    - 1. Contracts uberrimae fidei 209
    - 2. Fiduciary relations and relations of trust 210
  - E. Misuse of confidential information 211
  - F. Misleading implied promises 213
    - 1. Collateral contracts 213
    - 2. The reliance model 214
    - 3. Damages 215
  - G. Rationale for the duty to negotiate with care 216
- Chapter 11 Terms 221
  - A. The terms of agreement 221

|   |     |
|---|-----|
| B. Incorporation of express terms                   | 223 |
| C. Oral agreements                                  | 224 |
| 1. Informal understandings                          | 225 |
| 2. Rectification                                    | 226 |
| D. Interpretation                                   | 228 |
| 1. 'Snapping up' the offer                          | 231 |
| 2. Confusing or ambiguous offers                    | 232 |
| 3. Unusual and onerous terms                        | 233 |
| 4. Exceptions to the objective approach?            | 234 |
| 5. The duty to negotiate with care                  | 235 |
| E. Implied terms                                    | 238 |
| 1. Unexpressed intentions                           | 239 |
| 2. Importation of general civil obligations         | 241 |
| 3. Model contracts                                  | 241 |
| 4. Justifications for implied terms                 | 245 |
| Chapter 12 Mandatory obligations             | 247 |
| A. The social dimension of markets                  | 247 |
| B. The use of compulsory obligations                | 250 |
| C. Compulsory terms                                 | 252 |
| D. Statutory invalidity                             | 253 |
| E. Judicial discretion over exclusion clauses       | 256 |
| 1. The scope of judicial discretion                 | 257 |
| 2. The test of reasonableness                       | 258 |
| (a) Enforcement of duties of care                   | 259 |
| (b) Remedying market failure                        | 260 |
| (c) Fairness  | 261 |
| (d) Efficient allocation of the burden of insurance | 262 |
| (e) Support for collective agreement of terms       | 263 |
| (f) Control over remedial discretion                | 263 |
| (g) Undifferentiated standard forms                 | 264 |
| F. Agency discretion                                | 264 |
| G. Negotiated regulation                            | 266 |
| Chapter 13 Fairness                          | 270 |
| A. Substantive fairness                             | 270 |
| B. Fairness in the common law                       | 272 |
| 1. Consideration                                    | 273 |
| 2. Incorporation of terms                           | 274 |
| 3. Undue influence and 'unconscionability'          | 274 |
| 4. Interpretation and implied terms                 | 275 |
| 5. Mistake  | 276 |
| 6. Restraint of trade                               | 279 |
| 7. Instrumentalism in the common law                | 279 |
| C. Statutory controls                               | 283 |
| 1. Price regulation                                 | 283 |
| 2. Unfair terms in consumer contracts               | 286 |
| (a) The Unfair Contract Terms Act 1977              | 287 |

xiv Contents

- (b) Unfair Terms in Consumer Contracts Regulations 1999, reg 6(2) 288
- (c) Unfair Terms in Consumer Contracts Regulations 1999, reg 5(1) 289
- (d) Injunctions procedure 292
- D. Judicial revision 293
  - 1. Objections to judicial revision 294
  - 2. Unplanned contingencies 296
    - (a) Construction of the contract 296
    - (b) Frustration of contracts 298
    - (c) The relevance of fairness 300
- Chapter 14 The range of liability 302
  - A. Privity of contract 302
    - 1. Burden of positive obligations 303
    - 2. Burden of disability 303
    - 3. Beneficial positive rights 304
    - 4. Beneficial immunities 305
  - B. Parties to the contract 308
    - 1. The general principle 308
    - 2. The extension of parties 309
    - 3. Agency 309
    - 4. Remedies for the parties 311
  - C. Rationale of privity 314
    - 1. Autonomy 314
    - 2. Mutuality of rights 315
    - 3. Indeterminate range of liability 316
  - D. Objections to privity 319
    - 1. Intentions of the parties 319
    - 2. Justifiable reliance 320
    - 3. Unjust enrichment 324
  - E. Statutory reform 325
- Chapter 15 Co-operation 329
  - A. Supporting co-operation 329
  - B. Performance of the contract 333
    - 1. Implied terms supporting co-operation 333
    - 2. Incentives and the order of performance 334
      - (a) Unilateral contracts 335
      - (b) Conditions precedent and entire obligations 335
    - 3. Disclosure of information 336
    - 4. Control of discretionary powers 339
  - C. Modifications to the contract 341
    - 1. Obstructions to modification 342
      - (a) Agreement 342
      - (b) Consideration 343
      - (c) Formalities 345
    - 2. Modern flexibility 346
      - (a) Consent and change of position 346
      - (b) A test of enforceability? 348

- (c) Economic duress 351
- 3. Incentives to modify contracts 355
- D. Termination for breach of contract 356
  - 1. Grounds for granting termination 357
    - (a) Repudiation 358
    - (b) Express termination clauses 358
    - (c) Conditions and warranties 359
  - 2. Loss of the right to terminate 361
  - 3. Incentives to renegotiate 362
- Chapter 16 Agreed remedies 364
  - A. The normal remedy for breach 364
  - B. Freedom and control 365
  - C. Fixed measure of compensation 367
    - 1. Agreed price 368
      - (a) Due date of payment 369
      - (b) Set-off 369
      - (c) Anticipatory breach 370
      - (d) Fairness 372
    - 2. Limitation of damages 372
    - 3. Liquidated damages and penalties 373
      - (a) Equitable control 373
      - (b) Consumer contracts 376
      - (c) Fairness 377
  - D. Security 379
    - 1. Certainty of proprietary rights 382
    - 2. Protection of possessory interests 385
      - (a) Equitable relief from forfeiture 385
      - (b) Statutory relief 388
    - 3. Unjust enrichment by over-compensation 388
      - (a) Unjust enrichment as a defence 389
      - (b) Restitutionary claim 390
  - E. Guarantees and indemnities 391
  - F. Arbitration 393
- Chapter 17 Judicial remedies 396
  - A. Judicial enforcement mechanisms 397
  - B. Settlements 397
  - C. Considerations shaping judicial remedies 399
    - 1. Avoidance of deterrence 399
    - 2. Minimizing social cost 400
    - 3. Efficient breach of contract 401
    - 4. Social market 403
  - D. Damages 405
    - 1. The compensatory principle 405
      - (a) Cost of substituted performance 406
      - (b) Wasted expenditure 406
      - (c) Cost of repair 407

xvi Contents

---

- (d) Net loss 408
- 2. Loss of profits 408
  - (a) Proof of loss 409
  - (b) Remoteness of loss 410
- 3. Non-pecuniary losses 414
- 4. Avoidable losses 418
  - (a) Time of assessment 418
  - (b) Causation 419
  - (c) Contributory negligence 419
  - (d) Mitigation of loss 420
- 5. Waste of resources 421
- 6. Disgorgement and punitive damages 422
- E. Compulsory performance 427
  - 1. Inadequacy of compensation 427
  - 2. Instrumental purposes of compulsory performance 429
  - 3. Limitations 431
    - (a) Waste of resources 431
    - (b) Liberty 432
    - (c) Fairness 433
    - (d) Mutuality 433
- Index 435